Article 14 A commodity investment advisor shall not have another person engage in commodity investment advising in its name.

(Regulation of Advertising, etc.)

Article 15 (1) A commodity investment advisor shall, when advertising the contents of its commodity investment advising, indicate the matters prescribed in Article 25 pursuant to the provisions of ordinance of the competent ministry.

(2) A commodity investment advisor, when advertising its commodity investment advising, shall not make an indication that is significantly contradictory to the facts or seriously misleading with regard to the record of investments it has made based on entrustment from clients with which it has concluded a commodity investment advisory contract and other matters specified by ordinance of the competent ministry.

(Solicitation of Conclusion or Renewal of a Commodity Investment advisory Contract)

Article 16 (1) A commodity investment advisor shall, when soliciting the conclusion or renewal of a commodity investment advisory contract, not commit the act of intentionally failing to report facts or reporting untruths with regard to matters concerning the commodity investment advisory contract which are important matters that will have an impact on the judgment of the client.

(2) A commodity investment advisor shall not commit the act of reporting untruths with regard to matters concerning a commodity investment advisory contract which are important matters that will have an impact on the judgment of the client for the purpose of preventing the cancellation of the commodity investment advisory contract.

(Prohibition of Unjust Solicitation, etc.)

Article 17 A commodity investment advisor or an agent, employee, or other worker thereof shall not commit the following acts:

(i) Soliciting a client to conclude or renew a commodity investment advisory contract by providing him/her with a conclusive judgment that should mislead him/her into believing that profits are certainly produced

(ii) Soliciting a client to conclude or renew a commodity investment advisory contract by promising him/her to bear the whole or part of loss or by guaranteeing profits

(iii) In addition to what is listed in the preceding two items, acts concerning commodity investment advising which are specified by ordinance of the competent ministry as those that lack protection for investors

(Delivery of a Document Prior to Conclusion of a Commodity Investment Advisory Contract)

Article 18 A commodity investment advisor shall, prior to concluding a commodity investment advisory contract, deliver a document to the competent minister containing the contents of the commodity investment advisory contract and an outline of the matters concerning performance of said commodity investment advisory contract which are specified by ordinance of the competent ministry, pursuant to the provisions of ordinance of the competent minister, before the conclusion of said commodity investment advisory contract.

(Delivery of a Document at the Time a Commodity Investment Advisory Contract is Concluded)

Article 19 A commodity investment advisor shall, when a commodity investment advisory contract has been concluded, deliver a document to the client without delay containing the contents of said commodity investment advisory contract and the following matters concerning the performance thereof pursuant to the provisions of ordinance of the competent ministry:

- (i) Scope of the entrustment of investment decisions and matters concerning the execution of investments
- (ii) Amount of remuneration and time of payment
- (iii) Matters concerning cancellation of the contract
- (iv) When there is a liquidated damages provision (including penalty), the contents of the provision

(Delivery of a Report)

Article 20 A commodity investment advisor shall deliver to a client with which it has concluded a commodity investment advisory contract a report explaining the existing state of the assets of said client pertaining to said commodity investment advisory contract pursuant to the provisions of ordinance of the competent ministry.

(Delivery of a Document to a Client with Which a Commodity Investment

(Advisor Has Concluded a Contract)

Article 21 A commodity investment advisor shall deliver to a client with which it has concluded a commodity investment advisory contract a document clarifying the following matters pursuant to the provisions of ordinance of the competent ministry:

- (i) Whether or not there is the fact that said commodity investment advisor has engaged in transactions with regard to the same specified commodities, specified commodity indices, specified goods or designated goods as those for which the commodity investment advisor made investment based on entrustment from said client out of transactions pertaining to commodity investment based on its own account
- (ii) In the case referred to in the preceding item, when there is a fact of having engaged in such transactions, the distinction of selling or buying (in the case of derivatives transactions prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (1), item (i) (excluding transactions prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (3), item (i) of the Commodity Futures Act pertaining to specified commodities) or transactions prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (1), item (ii), matters specified by ordinance of the competent ministry)
- (iii) In addition to what is listed in the preceding two items, matters specified by ordinance of the competent ministry

(Method of Using Information and Communications Technology)

Article 22 With the consent of the client, a commodity investment advisor may, in lieu of the delivery of a document under the provisions of Article 18, 19 or 21 or the delivery of a report under the provisions of Article 20, provide information pertaining to the matters that should be stated in said document or report by a method using an electronic data processing system or a method using other information and communications technology, which is specified by ordinance of the competent ministry, pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Order. In this case, said commodity investment advisor shall be deemed to have delivered said document or report.

(Inspection, etc. of Documents)

Article 23 A commodity investment advisor shall, pursuant to the provisions of ordinance of the competent ministry, keep documents containing the status of the business activities and property of said commodity investment advisor at each business office and have its clients inspect them upon the request of the clients.

Article 24 (1) A client who has concluded a commodity investment advisory contract may, pursuant to the provisions of ordinance of the competent ministry, request a commodity investment advisor pertaining to said commodity investment advisory contract for the inspection or copy of books and documents concerning the property of said client pertaining to said commodity investment advisory contract.

(2) In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, the commodity investment advisor may not refuse the request except when there are reasonable grounds for finding that the request falls under any of the following items:

- (i) Not for the purpose of securing own rights or engaging in investigation concerning the exercise of the rights
- (ii) For the purpose of harming the operation of the business activities of said commodity investment advisor

(Prohibition of Acceptance of Deposit of Money or Securities)

Article 25 A commodity investment advisor shall not, under any pretense, accept the deposit of money or securities from a client, or have a person specified by Cabinet Order as a person who has a close relationship with said commodity investment advisor deposit the money or securities of a client, with regard to its commodity investment advising; provided, however, that this shall not apply when a commodity investment advisor which is a commodity futures business operator prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (23) of the Commodity Futures Act does so in relation to the client of its commodity futures business (which means commodity futures business activities prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (22) of said Act; the same shall apply in Article 28-2).

(Prohibition of Lending or Mediation Thereof, etc.)

Article 26 A commodity investment advisor shall not loan a client money or securities, or act as an intermediary, agent or other representative for the loaning of money or securities to a client by a third party, with regard to its commodity investment advising.

(Duty of Loyalty)

Article 27 A commodity investment advisor shall faithfully engage in commodity investment advising on behalf of clients in accordance with the provisions of laws and regulations and the purpose of commodity investment advisory contracts.

(Prohibited Acts)

Article 28 A commodity investment advisor shall not commit the following acts with regard to its commodity investment advising:

- (i) Engaging in transactions pertaining to commodity investment with a client as the other party

- (ii) Making commodity investment based on an investment decision that does not have justifiable grounds by using the change of price, numerical value or amount of consideration based on the commodity investment which the commodity investment advisor has made with regard to specified commodities, etc. (which means specified commodities, specified commodity indices, options pertaining to specified goods or designated goods) based on entrustment from the client, for the purpose of looking after its own profit or the profit of a third party other than said client
- (iii) In addition to what is listed in the preceding two items, acts specified by ordinance of the competent ministry as those that lack protection for investors or those that harm the fairness of the commodity investment

(Acts Prohibited when Carrying Out Commodity Futures Business Activities)

Article 28-2 When engaging in commodity futures business, a commodity investment advisor shall not engage in the following acts with regard to a client with whom said commodity investment advisor has concluded a commodity investment advisory contract:

- (i) Making a commodity investment in a transaction that is unnecessary in light of its objective, amount, or the market conditions, with regard to commodity investment advising for the purpose of realizing profits from the commodity futures business
- (ii) In addition to what is listed in the preceding item, acts specified by ordinance of the competent ministry as lacking protection for investors or harming the fairness of the commodity investment

Subsection 3 Supervision

(Books and Documents Related to Business Activities)

Article 29 A commodity investment advisor shall, pursuant to the provisions of ordinance of the competent ministry, prepare and preserve books and documents related to its business activities.

(Report and Inspection)

Article 30 (1) When the competent minister finds it necessary for the enforcement of this Act, he/she may have a commodity investment advisor or a person who deals with a commodity investment advisor make a report or have his/her officials enter the business office of the commodity investment advisor to inspect the books, documents and other articles of the commodity investment advisor.

(2) The officials who engage in an inspection pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph shall carry identification cards and present them to the persons concerned.

- (3) The authority for the inspections under the provisions of paragraph (1) shall not be interpreted as being that recognized for criminal investigation.

(Order to Improve Business Activities)

Article 31 When the competent minister finds that there is a fact that harms the fairness of the commodity investment or the interests of investors with regard to the operation of the business activities of a commodity investment advisor, he/she shall order said commodity investment advisor to change the type and method of the business activities, deposit its property or take any other necessary measures for improving the operation of the business activities within the limit necessary for securing the fairness of the commodity investment or the protection of investors.

(Rescission of License)

Article 32 (1) When a commodity investment advisor falls under any of the following items, the competent minister may rescind his/her license set forth in Article 3, or order the suspension of the whole or part of the business activities of the commodity investment advisor for a fixed period not exceeding six months:

- (i) When the commodity investment advisor has come to fall under any of Article 6, paragraph (2), items (i) through (iv) (with regard to item (ii) of said paragraph, limited to the part pertaining to the provisions of the laws and regulations of a foreign state equivalent to this Act)
 - (ii) When the commodity investment advisor has obtained a license set forth in Article 3 or a renewal of the validity period set forth in Article 8, paragraph (1) by wrongful means
 - (iii) When the commodity investment advisor has violated this Act or an order based on this Act, or a disposition based thereon, or any of the conditions attached to a license prescribed in Article 4, paragraph (1)
 - (iv) In the case where the commodity investment advisor has committed a wrongful or remarkably unjust act with regard to its commodity investment advising, when the circumstances related to the act are especially serious
- (2) When the competent minister has rendered a disposition under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, he/she shall publicize that effect.

Section 2 Regulation of Other Commodity Investment

(Restriction on Conclusion of a Commodity Investment Contract)

Article 33 (1) A person who concludes a commodity investment contract or acts as an agency or mediate for the conclusion of such a contract (hereinafter referred to as "conclusion, etc." in this paragraph and Article 35) in the course of trade shall not engage in conclusion, etc. unless the contract is a commodity investment contract that entrusts a commodity investment advisor or any other person specified by Cabinet Order as a person similar thereto (referred to as "commodity investment advisor, etc." in the following paragraph) with an investment decision pertaining to commodity investment; provided, however, that this shall not apply to commodity investment contracts where a person who engages in investment management business activities with the registration set forth in Article 29 of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act (which means investment management business activities prescribed in Article 28, paragraph (4) of said Act) (hereinafter simply referred to as a "person who engages in investment management business activities" in this Article and Article 40, paragraph (2)) invests investment trust assets prescribed in Article 3, item (ii) of the Act Concerning Investment Trusts and Investment Corporations or assets of a registered investment corporation prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (13) of said Act (referred to as "investment trust assets, etc." in the proviso to the following paragraph and Article 40, paragraph (2)) by means of commodity investment, and commodity investment contracts for the investment of surplus funds that have arisen from the investment of invested assets of a person who engages in investment management business activities (which means invested assets prescribed in Article 35, paragraph (1), item (xv) of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act; the same shall apply in the proviso to the following paragraph, the following Article and Article 40, paragraph (2)) and any other funds specified by Cabinet Order as similar thereto by means of commodity investment.

- (2) A person who sells a beneficial interest of commodity investment or acts as an agency or mediate for selling such an interest (hereinafter referred to as "selling, etc." in this paragraph and Article 35) in the course of trade shall not engage in selling, etc. unless the interest is a beneficial interest of commodity investment pertaining to a contract that entrusts a commodity investment advisor, etc. with an investment decision pertaining to commodity investment; provided, however, that this shall not apply to beneficial interests of commodity investment pertaining to commodity investment which is made by a trust company (limited to those that have obtained a license set forth in Article 3 or Article 53, paragraph (1) of the Trust Business Act; the same shall apply in Article 40, paragraph (2)) or a financial institution that additionally engages in trust business activities without being instructed by a settlor or a person who has received the entrustment of the authority to give instructions from a settlor, beneficial interests of commodity investment pertaining to a contract where a person who engages in investment management business activities invests investment trust assets, etc. by means of commodity investment, and beneficial interests of commodity investment pertaining to a contract for the investment of surplus funds that have arisen from the investment of invested assets of a person who engages in investment management business activities and any other funds specified by Cabinet Order as similar thereto by means of commodity investment.

(Separate Management of Property)

Article 34 A person who manages property that has been contributed based on a commodity investment contract (limited to those who conclude commodity investment contracts in the course of trade) shall manage said property (excluding that which falls under invested property) separately from his/her private property and property that has been contributed based on other commodity investment contracts pursuant to the provisions of ordinance of the competent ministry.

(Instruction)

Article 35 Where a person who concludes, etc. commodity investment contracts in the course of trade has violated the provisions of Article 33, paragraph (1) or the preceding Article, or where a person who sells, etc. beneficial interests in commodity investments in the course of trade has violated the provisions of Article 33, paragraph (2), the competent minister may, when he/she finds that the fairness of the commodity investment or the interest of investors is likely to be harmed, instruct said person who concludes, etc. commodity investment contracts or sells beneficial interests in commodity investments in the course of trade (hereinafter referred to as a "commodity investment sales manager" in this Section and Article 43) to take necessary measures.

(Suspension of Business Activities)

Article 36 (1) Where a commodity investment sales manager has violated the provisions of Article 33 or 34, the competent minister may, when he/she finds that the fairness of the commodity investment or the interest of investors is likely to be substantially harmed or when the commodity investment sales manager does not follow an instruction under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, order said commodity investment sales manager to suspend all or part of its business activities for a fixed period not exceeding six months.
(2) When the competent minister has issued an order under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, he/she shall publicize that effect.

(Provisions Applied Mutatis Mutandis)

Article 37 The provisions of Article 30 shall apply mutatis mutandis to commodity investment sales managers.

Chapter III Miscellaneous Provisions

(Completion of Business Activities Incidental to Rescission of a License)

Article 38 When a license set forth in Article 3 has ceased to be effective pursuant to the provisions of Article 11, paragraph (2) or when a license set forth in Article 3 has been rescinded pursuant to the provisions of Article 32, paragraph (1), an entity that was a commodity investment advisor pertaining to said license or its general successor shall be deemed to remain to be a commodity investment advisor within the scope of the purpose to complete business activities based on the commodity investment advisory contracts that said commodity investment advisor has concluded.

(Technical Replacement of Terms in Applying the Provisions of This Act to a Foreign Juridical Person)

Article 39 Where a commodity investment advisor is a foreign juridical person, the technical replacement of the terms in applying the provisions of this Act to said commodity investment advisor and any other necessary matters for the application of the provisions of this Act shall be specified by Cabinet Order.

(Exemption from Provisions on Regulation of Commodity Investment Advising)

Article 40 (1) The provisions of Articles 16 through 22, 26 and 28 (limited to the part pertaining to item (i)) shall not apply to a commodity investment advisory contract which a commodity investment advisor concludes or intends to conclude with a person (with regard to the provisions of Articles 18 through 22, limited to stock companies of which the amount of stated capital is not less than the amount specified by ordinance of the competent ministry and other persons specified by ordinance of the competent ministry) who has concluded or is attempting to conclude said contract for the purpose of a commercial pursuit or as part of a commercial pursuit.

(2) The provisions of Section 1 of the preceding Chapter shall not apply to trust companies, financial institutions that additionally engage in trust business activities or persons who engage in investment management business activities (limited to the cases where investment trust assets, etc. are invested by means of commodity investment and where surplus funds that have arisen from the investment of invested assets and any other funds specified by Cabinet Order as similar thereto by means of commodity investment).

Article 41 Deleted

(Competent Minister)

Article 42 (1) The competent minister mentioned in Section 1 of the preceding Chapter shall be the Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries or the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Order, and the competent minister mentioned in Section 2 of said Chapter shall be the Prime Minister, the Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries or the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Order.

(2) The ordinance of the competent ministry mentioned in this Act shall be an order issued by the Prime Minister, the Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries or the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Order.

(3) The Prime Minister shall delegate his/her authority under the provisions of Section 2 of the preceding Chapter (excluding that specified by Cabinet Order) to the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency.

(4) The part of the authority delegated to the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph and the authority of the Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry under this Act may be delegated to the head of a local branch office (with regard to the authority delegated to said Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency, the head of a Local Finance Bureau or the head of a Local Finance Branch Bureau) pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Order.

(Submission of Materials to the Minister of Finance)

Article 43 When the Minister of Finance finds it necessary for planning or drafting a system pertaining to commodity investment sales managers, he/she may request the Prime Minister to submit necessary materials and to give explanations with regard to the system for the disposal of collapsed financial institutions and the management of financial crises pertaining to his/her jurisdiction.

(Delegation to Ordinance of the Competent Ministry)

Article 44 In addition to what is provided for in this Act, matters necessary for the enforcement of this Act shall be specified by ordinance of the competent ministry.

(Transitional Measures)

Article 51 A person who has failed to make a notification under the provisions of Article 11, paragraph (1) or has made a false notification shall be punished by a non-penal fine of not more than one million yen.

Supplementary Provisions [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act shall come into effect as from the day specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding one year from the day of promulgation.

(Transitional Measures)

Article 2 (1) A person who engages in commodity investment sales business activities at the time of the enforcement of this Act may continue to engage in the commodity investment sales business activities for a period of six months from the effective date of this Act (when a disposition of non-licensing pursuant to Article 6, paragraph (1) has been rendered within said period or when the termination of the commodity investment sales business activities has been ordered pursuant to the provisions of Article 28, paragraph (1) applied by replacing terms pursuant to the provisions of the following paragraph, the period until the day on which said disposition was rendered or the day on which said abolition was ordered) notwithstanding the provisions of Article 3. In the case where said person has filed an application for license set forth in said Article during said period, when the period has lapsed, the same shall apply for the period until a disposition of licensing or non-licensing is rendered with regard to the application.

(2) Where a person who engages in commodity investment sales business activities at the time of enforcement of this Act may continue to engage in the commodity investment sales business activities pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the provisions of Articles 15 through 27 and 28 (excluding paragraph (1), item (ii)) (including penal provisions pertaining to these provisions) shall apply, deeming said person to be a commodity investment sales manager. In this case, the phrase "rescind the license set forth in Article 3" in Article 28, paragraph (1) shall be deemed to be replaced with "order the abolition of the commodity investment sales business activities," and the phrase "Article 6, paragraph (1), items (i) through (iv)" in said paragraph shall be deemed to be replaced with "Article 6, paragraph (1), items (ii) through (iv)."

(3) With regard to the application of the provisions of Article 6, paragraph (1) in the case where the termination of commodity investment sales business activities has been ordered pursuant to the provisions of Article 28, paragraph (1) applied by replacing terms pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the person who has been ordered to engage in said abolition shall be deemed to be a person whose license set forth in Article 3 has been rescinded pursuant to the provisions of Article 28, paragraph (1), and the day on which said abolition was ordered shall be deemed to be the day on which the license set forth in Article 3 was rescinded under the provisions of Article 28, paragraph (1).

(4) The provisions of the preceding three paragraphs shall apply mutatis mutandis to those who engage in commodity investment advising at the time of enforcement of this Act. In this case, the phrase "Article 6, paragraph (1)" in paragraph (1) and the preceding paragraph shall be deemed to be replaced with "Article 32, paragraph (2)"; the phrase "Article 28, paragraph (1)" in said paragraphs shall be deemed to be replaced with "Article 28, paragraph (1), as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 44"; the term "Article 3" in said paragraphs shall be deemed to be replaced with "Article 30"; the phrase "Articles 15 through 27 and 28 (excluding paragraph (1), item (ii))" in paragraph (2) shall be deemed to be replaced with "Articles 34 through 42, Articles 20 and 22 through 24, as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 43, and Articles 25 through 27 and 28 (excluding paragraph (1), item (ii)), as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 44"; the phrase "Article 28, paragraph (1)" in said paragraph shall be deemed to be replaced with "Article 28, paragraph (1) applied mutatis mutandis by replacing terms pursuant to the provisions of Article 44"; "Article 3" in said paragraph shall be deemed to be replaced with "Article 30"; the phrase "Article 6, paragraph (1), items (i) through (iv)" in said paragraph shall be deemed to be replaced with "Article 32, paragraph (2), items (i) through (iv)"; and the phrase "Article 6, paragraph (1), items (ii) through (iv)" in said paragraph shall be deemed to be replaced with "Article 32, paragraph (2), items (ii) through (iv)."

Article 3 The provisions of Articles 17 through 19 and Articles 36 through 38 shall not apply to commodity investment contracts, etc. or commodity investment advisory contracts which have been concluded prior to the enforcement of this Act.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 89 of November 12, 1993] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act shall come into effect as from the effective date of the Administrative Procedure Act (Act No. 88 of 1993).

(Transitional Measures Concerning Adverse Disposition Pertaining to a Consultation)

Article 2 Where, prior to the enforcement of this Act, a consultation or any other request has been made, based on laws and regulations, to a council or any other panel to the effect that procedures to hold hearings or grant the opportunity for explanation prescribed in Article 13 of the Administrative Procedure Act or any other procedures equivalent to procedures to hear statements of opinions should be taken, with regard to the procedures for adverse disposition pertaining to said consultation or other request, the provisions then in force shall remain applicable, notwithstanding the provisions of related Acts revised by this Act.

(Transitional Measures Concerning Penal Provisions)

Article 13 With regard to the application of penal provisions to acts committed prior to the enforcement of this Act, the provisions then in force shall remain applicable.

(Transitional Measures Associated with Adjustment of Provisions on Hearings)

Article 14 A hearing or a council for hearing (excluding those pertaining to adverse dispositions) implemented pursuant to the provisions of Acts prior to the enforcement of this Act or procedures for these shall be deemed to have been implemented pursuant to the equivalent provisions of the related Acts revised by this Act.

(Delegation to Cabinet Order)

Act on Arrangement of Relevant Acts Incidental to Enforcement of the Act for Partial Revision of the Securities and Exchange Act [Act No. 66 of 2006]
[Extract]

(Transitional Measures Incidental to Partial Revision of the Act on Regulation of Commodity Investment)

Article 151 (1) An entity that has obtained a license set forth in Article 3 of the Act on Regulation of Commodity Investment prior to revision by the provisions of the preceding Article (hereinafter referred to as the "Former Act on Regulation of Commodity Investment Business") prior to the enforcement of this Act shall be deemed to have obtained registration set forth in Article 29 of the New Financial Instruments and Exchange Act (limited to those in which a financial instruments specialist who is deemed to have obtained said registration engages in type II financial instruments services) as of the effective date. In this case, the provisions of Article 57, paragraph (3) and Article 194-4, paragraph (1) of the New Financial Instruments and Exchange Act shall not apply.

- (2) An entity that is deemed to have obtained a registration set forth in Article 29 of the New Financial Instruments and Exchange Act pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph (referred to as "type II specialist deemed to have been registered" in Articles 153 and 157) shall submit to the Prime Minister a document containing the matters listed in the items of Article 29-2, paragraph (1) of the New Financial Instruments and Exchange Act and the documents listed in the items of paragraph (2) of said Article within three months from the effective date.
- (3) When documents have been submitted under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the Prime Minister shall register the matters listed in the items of Article 29-2, paragraph (1) of the New Financial Instruments and Exchange Act and the matters listed in Article 29-3, paragraph (1), item (ii) of the New Financial Instruments and Exchange Act, which are contained in said documents, in the registry of financial instruments specialists.

Article 152 An entity whose license has been rescinded pursuant to the provisions of Article 28 of the Former Act on Regulation of Commodity Investment Business shall be deemed to have had its registration rescinded pursuant to the provisions of Article 52, paragraph (1) of the New Financial Instruments and Exchange Act as of the day on which it received said disposition.

Article 153 The provisions of Article 31, paragraphs (1) through (3) of the New Financial Instruments and Exchange Act shall not apply to a type II specialist deemed to have been registered until the day on which said type II specialist deemed to have been registered submits the documents prescribed in Article 151, paragraph (2) pursuant to the provisions of said paragraph.

Article 154 The provisions of Article 47-2 of the New Financial Instruments and Exchange Act shall apply to a business report set forth in said Article pertaining to a business year that ends after the effective date, and with regard to a business year that ended prior to the effective date, the provisions then in force shall remain applicable.

Article 155 The provisions of Article 47-3 of the New Financial Instruments and Exchange Act shall apply to an explanatory document prescribed in said Article pertaining to a business year that ends after the effective date, and with regard to a business year that ended prior to the effective date, the provisions then in force shall remain applicable.

Article 156 A disposition under the provisions of Article 27 of the Former Act on Regulation of Commodity Investment Business prior to the effective date shall be deemed to be a disposition under the provisions of Article 51 of the New Financial Instruments and Exchange Act.

Article 157 (1) The provisions of Article 52, paragraph (1) of the New Financial Instruments and Exchange Act shall apply, deeming an act that falls under Article 28, item (iii) of the Former Act on Regulation of Commodity Investment Business which has been committed by a type II specialist deemed to have been registered prior to the effective date to be an act that falls under Article 52, paragraph (1), item (vi) of the New Financial Instruments and Exchange Act.

(2) The provisions of Article 52, paragraph (2) of the New Financial Instruments and Exchange Act shall not apply until the day on which five years have elapsed from the effective date in cases where a person who is an officer of a type II specialist deemed to have been registered that falls under any of Article 29-4, paragraph (1), item (ii), (a) through (g) of the New Financial Instruments and Exchange Act at the time of enforcement of this Act (excluding those who fall under any of Article 6, paragraph (1), item (iv), (a) through (f) of the Former Act on Regulation of Commodity Investment Business) continues to fall under any of Article 29-4, paragraph (1), item (ii), (a) through (g) of the New Financial Instruments and Exchange Act.

(3) A disposition under the provisions of Article 28 of the Former Act on Regulation of Commodity Investment Business which has been rendered prior to the effective date shall be deemed to be a disposition under the provisions of Article 52, paragraph (1) of the New Financial Instruments and Exchange Act.

Article 158 With regard to the application of the provisions of Article 54 of the New Financial Instruments and Exchange Act, an entity that has obtained a license set forth in Article 3 of the Former Act on Regulation of Commodity Investment Business prior to the enforcement of this Act shall be deemed to have obtained a registration set forth in Article 29 of the New Financial Instruments and Exchange Act as of the day on which it obtained said license, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 151, paragraph (1).

Article 159 With regard to the application of the provisions of Article 6, paragraph (2), item (iii) (including the cases where applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 8, paragraph (2) of the Act on Regulation of Commodity Investment revised by the provisions of Article 150 (hereinafter referred to as the "New Act on Regulation of Commodity Investment Business" in this Article); hereinafter the same shall apply in this Article) of the New Act on Regulation of Commodity Investment Business, a company which has been sentenced to a fine (including punishment equivalent thereto under the laws and regulations of a foreign state) pursuant to the provisions of the Former Securities and Exchange Act (including the provisions of the Former Securities and Exchange Act in cases where the provisions then in force shall remain applicable pursuant to the provisions of Article 218 of the supplementary provisions of the revised Securities and Exchange Act of 2006), or the provisions of the Former Securities Investment Advisory Business Act, the Former Act on Regulation of Mortgage Securities Business (including the Former Act on Regulation of Mortgage Securities Business in cases where the provisions then in force shall remain in force pursuant to the provisions of Article 57, paragraph (2) and Article 58) or the Former Financial Future Transaction Act (including these provisions in cases where the provisions then in force shall remain applicable pursuant to the provisions of Article 217) or the provisions of the laws and regulations of a foreign state equivalent thereto and for which three years have not lapsed from the day on which execution of the sentence ended or from the day on which the sentence ceased to be executed shall be deemed to be a company that falls under Article 6, paragraph (2), item (iii) of the New Act on Regulation of Commodity Investment Business.

(Delegation of Authority)

Article 215 The Prime Minister shall delegate his/her authority under the provisions of this Act (excluding that specified by Cabinet Order) to the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency.

(Effect of a Disposition)

Article 216 A disposition, procedure or any other act rendered, taken or engaged in pursuant to the provisions of the Former Act on Foreign Security Business Entities, the Former Securities Investment Advisory Business Act, the Former Act on Regulation of Mortgage Securities Business, the Former Financial Future Transaction Act or the Former Act on Regulation of Commodity Investment Business, or the provisions of any order based thereon for which the provisions of the New Financial Instruments and Exchange Act include equivalent provisions, shall be deemed to have been rendered, taken or engaged in pursuant to the equivalent provisions of the New Financial Instruments and Exchange Act, unless otherwise provided for in this Act.

(Transitional Measures Concerning Penal Provisions)

Article 217 With regard to the application of penal provisions to acts committed prior to the enforcement of this Act (with regard to the provisions listed in the items of the supplementary provisions, said provisions; hereinafter the same shall apply in this Article) and acts committed after the enforcement of this Act in cases where the provisions then in force shall remain applicable pursuant to the provisions of this Act and in cases where the provisions then in force shall remain in force, the provisions then in force shall remain applicable.

(Delegation of Other Transitional Measures to Cabinet Order)
