- (12) The term "financial institution under management" as used in this Act means a financial institution that has become subject to an order to management as prescribed in Article 74, paragraph (1) pursuant to the provisions of Article 74, paragraph (1) or (2) or Article 110, paragraph (1).
- (13) The term "bridge bank" as used in this Act means a bank that has taken over the business of a financial institution under management through the assumption of business, transfer of insured deposits, a merger, or company split (hereinafter referred to as the "assumption of business, etc."), whose primary purpose is to maintaining and continue the business on a temporary basis, and that has been established as a subsidiary company of the Deposit Insurance Corporation of Japan (meaning a company of which voting rights exceeding fifty-hundredths of the voting rights held by all of its shareholders are held by the Deposit Insurance Corporation of Japan; the same applies hereinafter).

Chapter II Deposit Insurance Corporation of Japan

Section 1 General Provisions

(Legal Personality)

Article 3 The Deposit Insurance Corporation of Japan (hereinafter referred to as the "DICJ") is to have juridical personality.

(Number)

Article 4 Only one DICJ is to be established.

(Capital)

Article 5 (1) The capital of the DICJ is the total amount of capital contributed by the government and other persons at the time of the DICJ's establishment.

(2) The DICJ may, when necessary, increase its capital with the authorization of the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance.

(Name)

Article 6 (1) The DICJ must use the words "deposit insurance corporation" in its name.

(2) No person other than the DICJ may use the words "deposit insurance corporation" in its name.

(Registration)

Article 7 (1) The DICJ must be registered pursuant to Cabinet Order provisions.

(2) The particulars required to be registered under the preceding paragraph may not be asserted against a third party until after they have been registered.

(Application Mutatis Mutandis of the Act on General Incorporated Associations and General Incorporated Foundations)

Article 8 The provisions of Article 4 and Article 78 of the Act on General Incorporated Associations and General Incorporated Foundations (Act No. 48 of 2006) apply mutatis mutandis to the DICJ.

Section 2 Establishment

(Founders)

Article 9 Seven or more persons with experience and expertise in financial matters must act as founders in order to establish the DICJ.

(Preparation of Articles of Incorporation)

Article 10 (1) The founders must promptly prepare the articles of incorporation of the DICJ and solicit capital contributions to the DICJ from persons other than the government.

(2) The articles of incorporation referred to in the preceding paragraph must state the following particulars:

- (i) purpose;
- (ii) name;
- (iii) location of offices;
- (iv) particulars concerning capital and capital contribution;
- (v) particulars concerning the board;
- (vi) particulars concerning officers;
- (vii) particulars concerning operations and their execution;
- (viii) particulars concerning finance and accounting;
- (ix) particulars concerning amendment of the articles of incorporation; and
- (x) means of public notice.

(Authorization for Establishment)

Article 11 Promptly after the solicitation of capital contributions set forth in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article has been completed, founders must submit the articles of incorporation to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance and apply for authorization for establishment.

(Transfer of Business Affairs)

Article 12 (1) When the authorization set forth in the preceding Article is granted, founders must transfer their business affairs without delay to the person who is to become the governor of the DICJ.
(2) The person who is to become the governor of the DICJ must, when they have taken over the business affairs under the preceding paragraph, request without delay the government and persons other than the government who have agreed to make capital contributions in response to the solicitation to pay in capital contributions.

(Registration of Establishment)

Article 13 (1) If capital contributions are paid in pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2) of the preceding Article, the person who is to become the governor of the DICJ must register its establishment without delay pursuant to Cabinet Order provisions.
(2) The DICJ is established upon the registration of its establishment.

Section 3 The Board

(Establishment)

Article 14 A board (hereinafter referred to as the "board") will be established within the DICJ.

(Authority)

Article 15 Beyond matters separately specified by this Act (excluding Chapter I, Chapter II, Chapter V, and Chapter IX), the following matters must require a resolution of the board:

- (i) amendment of the articles of incorporation;
- (ii) preparation of and amendments to the statement of operation procedures;
- (iii) budget and funding plans;
- (iv) settlement of accounts; and
- (v) other matters deemed particularly necessary by the board.

(Organization)

Article 16 (1) The board will be composed of not more than eight members, plus the governor and the deputy governors of the DICJ.

- (2) When it is necessary for carrying out study and deliberation of special matters, the board may have up to four temporary members.
- (3) The board has a chairperson, who will be the governor of the DICJ.
- (4) The chairperson presides over the affairs of the board.
- (5) The board must designate in advance, from among its members and the deputy governors of the DICJ, a person who performs the duties of the chairperson in their place in the event that the chairperson is unable to attend to their duties.

(Appointment of Members)

Article 17 Members and temporary members (hereinafter referred to as "members, etc.") are appointed from among persons with experience and expertise in financial matters by the governor of the DICJ, with the authorization of the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance.

(Term of Office of Members)

Article 18 (1) The term of office of members is one year; provided, however, that the term of office of a member who fills a vacancy is the remaining term of their predecessor.

- (2) Members may be reappointed.
- (3) Temporary members are dismissed when the study and deliberation of the special matters in relation to their appointment have been concluded.

(Dismissal of Members)

Article 19 The governor of the DICJ may dismiss a member, etc. with the authorization of the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance if the member, etc. has come to fall under any of the following items:

- (i) the member, etc. has received a ruling for the commencement of bankruptcy proceedings;

- (ii) the member, etc. has been sentenced to imprisonment without work or a heavier punishment;
- (iii) the member, etc. is deemed unable to carry out their duties due to mental or physical disability; or
- (iv) the member, etc. has breached their obligations in the course of their duties.

(Remuneration of Members)

Article 20 Members, etc. do not receive any remuneration; provided, however, that they will be paid travel expenses and other actual expenses incurred in connection with carrying out their duties.

(Means of Resolution)

Article 21 (1) The board may not convene a meeting or deliberate on a resolution unless the chairperson or the person who performs the duties of the chairperson prescribed in Article 16, paragraph (5) and half or more of the members, temporary members concerned with the business of the meeting, and deputy governors of the DICJ are present.

(2) Decisions of the board will be made through a majority of the votes of the chairperson, members, temporary members concerned with the content of the meeting, and deputy governors of the DICJ who are present. In the event of a tie, the chairperson casts the deciding vote.

(3) Staff members appointed by the Prime Minister or the Minister of Finance, may attend the meeting prescribed in paragraph (1) and express their opinions.

(4) The executive directors of the Bank of Japan who are appointed by the Bank of Japan's Board may attend the meeting prescribed in paragraph (1) and express their opinions.

(Obligation of Members to Maintain Confidentiality)

Article 22 Members, etc. must not divulge any secret which may have come to their knowledge in the course of their duties. The same applies after they have left their position.

(Status of Members as Public Officials)

Article 23 Members, etc. are deemed to be officials engaging in public duties pursuant to the provisions of laws and regulations with regard to the application of the Penal Code (Act No. 45 of 1907) and other penal provisions.

Section 4 Officers

(Officers)

Article 24 The DICJ has one governor, not more than four deputy governors, and one inspector as its officers.

(Duties and Authority of Officers)

Article 25 (1) The governor represents the DICJ and presides over its operations.

(2) The deputy governors, in accordance with decisions made by the governor, represent the DICJ, assist the governor in administrating the operations of the DICJ, perform the duties of the governor in their place in the event that the governor is unable to attend to their duties, and perform the duties of the governor when the post is vacant.

(3) An inspector audits the operations of the DICJ.

(4) An inspector may, when finding it necessary based on the audit results, submit their opinion to the governor or the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance.

(Appointment of Officers)

Article 26 (1) Officers are appointed by the Prime Minister with consent from both Houses of the Diet.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the Prime Minister may newly appoint an officer if the term of office of an officer expires or a vacancy occurs at a time when the Diet is out of session or the House of Representatives has been dissolved and it is impossible to obtain consent from both Houses.

(3) In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, ex post facto consent by both Houses of the Diet must be obtained in the first Diet after the appointment. In this case, if the ex post facto consent cannot be obtained by both Houses of the Diet, the Prime Minister must immediately dismiss that officer.

(Term of Office of Officers)

Article 27 (1) The term of office of officers is two years.

(2) Officers may be reappointed.

(3) When the term of office of an officer has expired, the relevant officer is to continue to carry out their duties until their successor is appointed.

(Ineligibility of Officers)

Article 28 No employee of the government or a local public entity (excluding part-time employees) is eligible to become an officer.

(Dismissal of Officers)

Article 29 (1) The Prime Minister must dismiss an officer if that officer has come to fall under the preceding Article.

(2) The Prime Minister may dismiss an officer if they come to fall under any of the items of Article 19 or if the Prime Minister otherwise finds that it is inappropriate for the officer to remain in office.

(Prohibition of the Concurrent Holding of Positions by Officers)

Article 30 No officer (excluding an inspector) may take office as an officer of a for-profit organization or personally engage in for-profit business; provided, however, that this does not apply when approval from the Prime Minister has been obtained.

(Restrictions on the Right to Represent)

Article 31 The governor or deputy governor does not have the right to represent with regard to any matters for which the interests of the DICJ and those of the governor or deputy governors conflict with each other. In this case, an inspector represents the DICJ.

(Appointment of Representatives)

Article 31-2 The governor may appoint from among the employees of the DICJ a representative who has the authority to perform all judicial and non-judicial acts in connection with part of the operations of the DICJ.

(Appointment of Staff)

Article 32 Staff of the DICJ will be appointed by the governor.

(Obligation of Officers to Maintain Confidentiality)

Article 33 The provisions of Article 22 and Article 23 apply mutatis mutandis to officers and staff members.

Section 5 Operations

(Scope of Operations)

Article 34 The DICJ conducts the following operations in order to achieve the purpose prescribed in Article 1:

- (i) collection of insurance premiums under the provisions of Section 2 of the following Chapter;
- (ii) payment of insurance proceeds and provisional payment under the provisions of Section 3 of the following Chapter;
- (iii) financial assistance and other business under the provisions of Section 4 of the following Chapter;
- (iv) loan of funds under the provisions of Article 69-3;

- (v) purchase of deposits and other claims under the provisions of Chapter IV;
- (vi) duties of a financial administrator or a financial administrator's representative under the provisions of Article 78, paragraph (2);
- (vii) management of a bridge bank and other business under the provisions of Chapter VI;
- (viii) purchase of specified, difficult-to-collect claims of a financial institution under the provisions of Chapter VI-2 and other business under the provisions of the same Chapter;
- (ix) subscription for shares, etc. and other business under the provisions of Chapter VII;
- (x) special monitoring under the provisions of Chapter VII-2 and other business under the provisions of the same Chapter;
- (xi) loan of funds under the provisions of Article 69-3 as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 127 or Article 128 or the provisions of Article 127-2 or Article 128-2 and purchase of assets under the provisions of Article 129;
- (xii) submission of lists of depositors and other business under the provisions of Section 4 of Chapter IV, Section 2 of Chapter V, and Section 2 of Chapter VI of the Act on Special Measures for the Reorganization Proceedings of Financial Institutions (Act No. 95 of 1996);
- (xiii) business of a bankruptcy trustee, provisional administrator, bankruptcy trustee representative, or provisional administrator representative appointed under the provisions of the Bankruptcy Act (Act No. 75 of 2004), a supervisor, trustee, provisional administrator, trustee representative, or provisional administrator representative appointed under the provisions of the Civil Rehabilitation Act (Act No. 225 of 1999), a trustee, trustee representative, provisional administrator, provisional administrator representative, or supervisor appointed under the provisions of the Corporate Reorganization Act (Act No. 154 of 2002), a trustee, trustee representative, provisional administrator, provisional administrator representative, or supervisor appointed under the provisions of the Act on Special Measures for the Reorganization Proceedings of Financial Institutions, or a recognition trustee, provisional administrator, recognition trustee representative, or provisional administrator representative appointed under the provisions of the Act on Recognition of and Assistance for Foreign Insolvency Proceedings (Act No. 129 of 2000); and
- (xiv) business incidental to that listed in the preceding items.

(Entrustment of Business)

Article 35 (1) The DICJ may, with the authorization of the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance, entrust part of its operations to the Bank of Japan, a financial institution, etc. (meaning the financial institution, etc. prescribed in Article 126-2, paragraph (2); hereinafter the same applies in this Article, Article 122, paragraph (1), Article 123, paragraphs (2) and (3), and Article 125, paragraph (1)), or a financial institution agent (meaning a bank agent prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (15) of the Banking Act, Long-Term Credit Bank agent prescribed in Article 16-5, paragraph (3) of the Long-Term Credit Bank Act, Shinkin bank agent prescribed in Article 85-2, paragraph (3) of the Shinkin Bank Act, credit cooperative agent prescribed in Article 6-3, paragraph (3) of the Act on Financial Business by Cooperatives (Act No. 183 of 1949), labor bank agent prescribed in Article 89-3, paragraph (3) of the Labor Bank Act (Act No. 227 of 1953) and the other party to contracts in relation to the agency or intermediary prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (4) of The Shoko Chukin Bank Limited Act; the same applies hereinafter).

(2) The Bank of Japan, a financial institution, etc., and a financial institution agent may conduct business entrusted under the preceding paragraph notwithstanding the provisions of any other Acts.

(3) The provisions of Article 23 apply mutatis mutandis to officers or staff of a financial institution, etc. or financial institution agent engaged in the business entrusted to the financial institution or financial institution agent under paragraph (1).

(Statement of Business Procedures)

Article 36 (1) The DICJ must prepare a statement of business procedures when commencing operations and obtain the authorization of the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance. The same applies when the DICJ intends to amend the statement.

(2) The statement of business procedures prescribed in the preceding paragraph must state matters concerning insurance premiums and other matters specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance.

(Request for Submission of Reports or Materials)

Article 37 (1) When the DICJ finds it necessary for conducting the business set forth in the following items, it may request the persons specified respectively in those items to submit reports or materials with regard to the status of its business and assets:

(i) business prescribed in Article 34, items (i), (ii), (iv) through (vi), (viii), or (xii), or business prescribed in item (xiv) of the same Article in relation to the business: a financial institution (including a financial institution agent having the financial institution as its principal financial institution (meaning the principal bank prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (16) of the Banking Act, principal long-term credit bank prescribed in Article 16-5,

- (2) A financial institution, etc. or specified holding company, etc. must submit reports or materials without delay when requested to do so under the preceding paragraph.
- (3) The DICJ may request any of the following persons (in the event that the persons set forth in items (iii) and (iv) are corporations, any of their officers and employees; hereinafter referred to as a "target person" in this paragraph) and a person who was previously a target person to report on the status of business and assets of the failed financial institution or financial institution, etc. under special monitoring (meaning the financial institution, etc. under special monitoring prescribed in Article 126-3, paragraph (2), and excluding a failed financial institution; hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph) (with regard to any person who was previously a target person, limited to the status in relation to matters that could have been known by them during the period when they were engaged in the operations of the failed financial institution or financial institution, etc. under special monitoring), or inspect the books, documents, and any other items of the failed financial institution or financial institution, etc. under special monitoring and the person set forth in item (iii) or (iv):

- (i) a director, executive officer, accounting advisor, inspector, corporate auditor, accounting auditor, manager, counselor, or any other employee of a failed financial institution;
 - (ii) a director, executive officer, member who conducts business, representative in Japan, accounting advisor, inspector, corporate auditor, or a person equivalent to any of these, accounting auditor, manager, counselor, or any other employee of a financial institution, etc. under special monitoring;
 - (iii) a financial institution agent with a failed financial institution as its principal financial institution or the other party to a contract in relation to the agency or intermediary prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (4) of the Shoko Chukin Bank Limited Act of The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd (limited to cases where it is a failed financial institution); and
 - (iv) a financial institution agent with a financial institution, etc. under special monitoring as its principal financial institution or the other party to a contract in relation to the agency or intermediary prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (4) of the Shoko Chukin Bank Limited Act of The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd (limited to the case where it is a financial institution, etc. under special monitoring), a life insurance agent or non-life insurance agent having a financial institution, etc. under special monitoring as its affiliated insurance company, etc., or a financial instruments intermediary service provider having a financial institution, etc. under special monitoring as its entrusting financial instruments business, etc.
- (4) If the DICJ finds it necessary for conducting its business, it may inquire with, or request the cooperation of government agencies, public entities, or any other relevant person.
- (5) The national or prefectural government or the Bank of Japan may deliver relevant materials to the DICJ or make them available for inspection by the DICJ if the DICJ finds it particularly necessary to do so for conducting its business and makes a request for delivery or inspection.

Section 6 Finance and Accounting

(Business Year)

Article 38 The business year of the DICJ is from April 1 to March 31 of the following year.

(Authorization for a Budget)

Article 39 The DICJ must prepare a budget and funding plan for each business year and obtain the authorization of the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance before the start of that business year. The same applies when the DICJ intends to amend the budget and/or funding plan.

(Financial Statements)

Article 40 (1) The DICJ must prepare an inventory of assets, a balance sheet, and a profit and loss statement (hereinafter referred to as "financial statements" in this Article) for each business year and submit the financial statements for approval to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance within three months of the end of that business year.

(2) When submitting financial statements to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance under the preceding paragraph, the DICJ must attach thereto a business report, statement of accounts prepared according to the classification of budget, and written opinion of the inspector on the financial statements and statement of accounts for that business year.

(3) Upon obtaining approval from the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1), the DICJ must give public notice of the financial statements in the Official Gazette without delay, keep at each of the DICJ's offices the financial statements and supplementary schedules, business reports, statement of accounts, and written opinions of the inspector prescribed in the preceding paragraph, and make them available for public inspection for a period specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance.

(Separate Accounting)

Article 40-2 The DICJ must separate the accounting and prepare separate accounts for each of the following:

(i) business listed in each item of Article 34 (excluding those listed in the following item); and

(ii) business in relation to the subscription for shares, etc. prescribed in Article

107, paragraph (1), receipt of contributions pursuant to the provisions of Article 122, paragraph (1), operations in relation to the lending of funds and guarantee of obligations under Article 126-19, paragraph (1), business in relation to subscription for specified shares, etc. (meaning the subscription for specified shares, etc. prescribed in Article 126-22, paragraph (1); the same applies in Article 126-2, paragraph (1), item (i) and Article 126-21, paragraph (1)) under Article 107, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 126-22, paragraph (7), business in relation to the specified financial assistance (meaning the specified financial assistance prescribed in Article 126-28, paragraph (1); the same applies in Article 126-2, paragraph (1), item (ii)) based on the decision set forth in Article 64, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 126-31 or Article 126-38, paragraph (7), business in relation to the additional specified financial assistance prescribed in Article 126-32, paragraph (1) based on the decision set forth in Article 64, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 126-32, paragraph (4), business in relation to contribution under Article 126-35, paragraph (1) or (2), business in relation to loan of funds and guarantee of obligations under Article 98, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 126-37, business in relation to compensation for loss under Article 99 as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 126-37, collection of specified contribution (meaning the specified contribution prescribed in Article 126-39, paragraph (1); the same applies in Articles 123 through 125) under the same paragraph, business in relation to loan of funds under Article 127-2, paragraph (1) or Article 128-2, paragraph (1), business in relation to purchase of assets (limited to those in relation to the financial institution, etc. under special monitoring prescribed in Article 126-3, paragraph (2) and a contracted specified bridge financial institution, etc. (meaning the contracted specified bridge financial institution, etc. prescribed in Article 97, paragraph (1), item (i) as applied mutatis mutandis by replacing the terms pursuant to Article 126-37; the same applies hereinafter)) under Article 129, paragraph (1), and business incidental thereto.

(Accumulation of Actuarial Reserves)

Article 41 At the end of each business year, the DICJ must calculate the actuarial reserve for the general account (meaning the account in relation to operations listed in item (i) of the preceding Article; the same applies hereinafter) to be set aside pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance.

(Borrowing and Deposit Insurance DICJ Bonds)

- Article 42 (1) The DICJ may, with the authorization of the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance, borrow funds (including refinancing) from a financial institution or any other person (excluding the Bank of Japan) or issue deposit insurance DICJ bonds (hereinafter referred to as "DICJ bonds") (including issuance for the purpose of refinancing DICJ bonds) when the DICJ finds it necessary for conducting the operations listed in Article 40-2, item (i). In this case, the DICJ may issue DICJ bonds.
- (2) The DICJ may, with the authorization of the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance, borrow funds (including refinancing) from the Bank of Japan when the DICJ finds it necessary for temporary cash flow in the event of conducting the business prescribed in the preceding paragraph.
- (3) The total of the current amount of borrowing carried out under paragraph (1), the current amount of obligations in relation to the principal of the DICJ Bonds issued under that paragraph, and the current amount of borrowing carried out under the preceding paragraph must not exceed the limit specified by Cabinet Order.
- (4) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 43, paragraph (1) of the Bank of Japan Act (Act No. 89 of 1997), the Bank of Japan may loan funds prescribed in paragraph (2) to the DICJ.
- (5) Holders of the DICJ Bonds issued under paragraph (1) have the right to have their claims satisfied out of the assets of the DICJ in preference over other creditors.
- (6) The order of the statutory lien under the preceding paragraph will be next to the general statutory lien under the provisions of the Civil Code (Act No. 89 of 1896).
- (7) The DICJ may, with the authorization of the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance, entrust all or part of the affairs relating to the issuance of the DICJ bonds to a bank, etc. or trust company.
- (8) The provisions of Article 705 or Article 709 of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis to the bank, etc. or trust company entrusted pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph.
- (9) Beyond what is provided for in paragraph (1) and paragraph (5) to the preceding paragraph, necessary particulars for the DICJ bonds are specified by Cabinet Order.

(Government Guarantees)

Article 42-2 Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 3 of the Act on Restrictions on Government Financial Assistance for Corporations (Act No. 24 of 1946), the government may provide guarantees for obligations in relation to the borrowing by the DICJ under paragraph (1) or (2) of the preceding Article or DICJ bonds under paragraph (1) of the preceding Article within the limit of the amount approved by the Diet.

(Investment of Surplus Funds)

Article 43 The DICJ must not invest surplus funds in the course of business except by the following means:

- (i) holding of Japanese Government Bonds or other securities designated by the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance;
- (ii) depositing in the financial institutions designated by the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance; or
- (iii) other means specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance.

(Delegation to Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance)

Article 44 Beyond what is provided for in this Act, necessary particulars for the finance and accounting of the DICJ are specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance.

Section 7 Supervision

(Supervision)

Article 45 (1) The DICJ will be supervised by the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance.

- (2) The Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance may, when they find it necessary for the enforcement of this Act, give the DICJ orders necessary for the supervision of its operations.

(Reports and Inspections)

Article 46 (1) The Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance may, when they find it necessary for the enforcement of this Act, have the DICJ report on its operations or have their officials enter the offices of the DICJ to inspect books, documents and other articles.

- (2) When conducting on-site inspections under the preceding paragraph, the officials must carry a certificate of identification and produce it to those concerned.
- (3) The authority for conducting on-site inspections prescribed in paragraph (1) must not be construed as given for any criminal investigation.

Section 8 Auxiliary Provisions

(Amendments of Articles of Incorporation)

Article 47 No amendment of the articles of incorporation are effective unless authorized by the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance.

(Dissolution)

Article 48 (1) If, upon dissolution of the DICJ and payment of all its obligations, there are any residual assets, the assets are distributed to each capital contributor of the DICJ up to the amount of each contributor's capital contributions.

(2) Beyond what is provided for in the preceding paragraph, the dissolution of the DICJ will be prescribed separately by an Act.

Chapter III Deposit Insurance

Section 1 Insurance Relationship

(Insurance Relationship)

Article 49 (1) When a financial institution conducts its operations or business, an insurance relationship will be formed between the DICJ, the financial institution and depositors, etc. whereby each of the depositors, etc. are repaid within a specified limit by virtue of the obligations in relation to the deposits, etc. assumed by the financial institution.

(2) Under the insurance relationship prescribed in the preceding paragraph, the insured amount is taken as a claim in relation to the deposits, etc. and either of the following will be construed as an insured event:

(i) suspension of the refunding of the deposits, etc. by a financial institution (hereinafter referred to as "category-one insured event"); and

(ii) revocation of the business license of a financial institution (in the case of a shinkin bank, federation of Shinkin banks, labor bank, or Rokinren banks, revocation of an operational license, and in the case of a credit cooperative or federation of credit cooperatives, an order for dissolution; the same applies in Article 55, paragraph (2), item (i)), a ruling for the commencement of bankruptcy proceedings or resolution on dissolution (hereinafter referred to as "category-two insured event").

Section 2 Payment of Insurance Premiums

(Payment of Insurance Premiums)

Article 50 (1) A financial institution must submit to the DICJ documents specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance and pay insurance premiums for each business year within three months of the beginning of that business year; provided, however, that an amount equivalent to one-half of the amount of the insurance premiums may be paid within three months of the day on which six months have elapsed from the beginning of that business year.

- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the DICJ may, pursuant to the provisions of the articles of incorporation, exempt a financial institution falling under any of the following items from paying insurance premiums:
- (i) if an insured event has occurred: the financial institution in relation to the insured event;
 - (ii) if confirmation of eligibility, etc. prescribed in Article 65 is given: the failed financial institution in relation to the confirmation of eligibility, etc.;
 - (iii) if an order to management prescribed in Article 74, paragraph (1) is issued: the financial institution under management in relation to the order to manage;
 - (iv) if a bridge bank or specified bridge bank (meaning the specified bridge bank prescribed in Article 126-34, paragraph (3), item (i); the same applies in Article 101-2, paragraph (1)) is established: the bridge bank or the specified bridge bank; or
 - (v) if a decision under Article 111, paragraph (1) is made: the bank, etc. in relation to the decision.
- (3) The DICJ may, following a resolution of the board and based on the conditions specified by the board in advance, return to a financial institution part of the insurance premiums that have been paid pursuant to paragraph (1).
- (4) If the DICJ intends to return part of the insurance premiums that have been paid pursuant to paragraph (1), it must obtain the authorization of the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance.

(Amount of Insurance Premiums for General Deposits)

Article 51 (1) The amount of insurance premiums in relation to deposits, etc. (limited to those that are not deposits for payment and settlement purposes (meaning the deposits for payment and settlement purposes prescribed in paragraph (1) of the following Article; the same applies in the following paragraph) but excluding foreign currency deposits and other deposits, etc. specified by Cabinet Order; hereinafter referred to as "general deposits, etc.") are the amount calculated for each financial institution by dividing the average total amount of general deposits, etc. for each day (excluding holidays specified in Article 15, paragraph (1) of the Banking Act (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 17 of the Long-Term Credit Bank Act, Article 89, paragraph (1) of the Shinkin Bank Act, Article 6, paragraph (1) of the Act on Financial Business by Cooperatives, and Article 94, paragraph (1) of the Labor Bank Act) or Article 31, paragraph (1) of the Shoko Chukin Bank Limited Act; the same applies in paragraph (1) of the following Article) of the business year immediately preceding the business year including the day on which the relevant insurance premiums are to be paid by twelve, multiplied by the number of months in the business year including the day on which the insurance premiums are to be paid, and multiplying the amount thus calculated by a rate determined by the DICJ following a resolution by the board (hereinafter referred to as "insurance premiums rate" in this Article).

- (2) The insurance premiums rate must be established such that the DICJ's long-term finances will be balanced in light of the estimated amount of expenses (excluding those in relation to deposits for payment and settlement purposes) to be incurred through payment of insurance proceeds, financial assistance and other operations of the DICJ (except those listed in Article 40-2, item (ii)) and that no specific financial institution will be subject to any discriminatory treatment (except that which is applied according to the how sound management of a financial institution is).
- (3) When the DICJ finds it difficult to repay any funds borrowed under Article 42, paragraph (1) or (2) or to redeem the DICJ bonds issued under Article 42, paragraph (1), the DICJ is to change the insurance premiums rate following a resolution by the board.
- (4) When the DICJ intends to establish or change the insurance premiums rate, the DICJ must obtain the authorization of the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance.
- (5) Upon receiving the authorization set forth in the preceding paragraph, the DICJ must give public notice of the insurance premiums rate in relation to the authorization without delay.

(Amount of Insurance Premiums for Deposits for Payment and Settlement Purposes)

Article 51-2 (1) The amount of insurance premiums in relation to deposits that satisfy all of the following requirements (excluding foreign currency deposits and other deposits specified by Cabinet Order; hereinafter referred to as "deposits for payment and settlement purposes") will be the amount calculated for each financial institution by dividing the total average amount of deposits for payment and settlement purposes for each day of the business year immediately preceding the business year including the day on which the relevant insurance premiums are to be paid by twelve, multiplied by the number of months in the business year including the day on which the insurance premiums are to be paid, and multiplying the amount thus calculated by a rate determined by the DICJ following a resolution by the board:

- (i) the deposits can be used for a transaction specified by Cabinet Order as prescribed in Article 69-2, paragraph (1) based on the contract or practice of the transaction;

- (ii) the deposits are refundable to their depositors on request; and
 - (iii) the deposits bear no interest.
- (2) The provisions of paragraphs (2) through (5) of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to the rate prescribed in the preceding paragraph. In this case, the term "excluding those in relation to" in paragraph (2) of the preceding Article is deemed to be replaced with "limited to those in relation to."

(Late Payment Charges)

- Article 52 (1) A financial institution must pay a late payment charge to the DICJ in the event that the financial institution fails to pay insurance premiums by the due date.
- (2) The amount of late payment charge will be an amount calculated by multiplying the amount of unpaid insurance premiums by 14.5% per annum prorated for the number of days from the day following the due date of payment until the day of payment.

Section 3 Payment of Insurance Claims

(Payment of Insurance Claims)

- Article 53 (1) If an insured event has occurred, the DICJ is to pay insurance proceeds to depositors, etc. in relation to the insured event based on a request by the depositors, etc.; provided, however, that any payment of claims for category- one insured event are conditional upon a decision by the DICJ to pay the amounts under the provisions of Article 56, paragraph (1).
- (2) The insured event prescribed in the preceding paragraph is not to include any other insured event occurring thereafter (in the event that the proviso to the preceding paragraph applies, after the DICJ has made a decision referred to in the proviso) in relation to the relevant insured event with respect to the financial institution subject to the relevant insured event (referred to as "related insured event" in Article 57, paragraph (1), item (ii)).
- (3) The DICJ may pay insurance proceeds by depositing with a financial institution an amount equivalent to the insurance proceeds of each of the depositors, etc. in relation to the relevant insured event and by transferring the claims in relation to the relevant deposits to the depositors, etc. in relation to the relevant insured event.
- (4) If an insured event has occurred, the DICJ may, based on a request by depositors, etc. in relation to the relevant insured event, make a provisional payment to the depositors, etc. in accordance with Cabinet Order within an amount specified by Cabinet Order.
- (5) The request prescribed in paragraph (1) or the preceding paragraph may only be made within the payment period for which public notice was given under Article 57, paragraph (1), (2) or (4); provided, however, that this does not apply at the time of a natural disaster or when the DICJ finds any other unavoidable reason for the failure to make the request within the payment period.

(Amount of Insurance Claims for General Deposits)

Article 54 (1) The amount of insurance proceeds in relation to the general deposits, etc. (excluding those held under the name of another person and other general deposits, etc. specified by Cabinet Order; hereinafter referred to as "covered general deposits, etc.") of each of the depositors, etc. in a financial institution subject to a single insured event will be an amount equivalent to the aggregate amount (if there is more than one aggregate amount for the same person, the total of the amounts) of the principal (in the case of the money specified in Article 2, paragraph (2), item (v) within the covered general deposits, etc., the amount of the money; the same applies hereinafter) and interest, etc. (meaning the portion that is not the principal but is interest and other items specified by Cabinet Order; the same applies hereinafter) of the claims in relation to the covered general deposits, etc. actually held by this person in the relevant financial institution on the day of occurrence of the insured event (limited to those actually held by the person at the time of making a request under paragraph (1) of the preceding Article and including those no longer held due to the provisional payment under paragraph (4) of the preceding Article (limited to those in relation to the covered general deposits, etc.; hereinafter the same applies in this Article) and refunding the covered general deposits, etc. in relation to the loan under Article 69-3, paragraph (1) or as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 127; the same applies in the following paragraph).

(2) If the amount of principal (if there is more than one amount for the same person, the total of the amounts) under the preceding paragraph exceeds an amount specified by Cabinet Order (hereinafter referred to as "base insurance amount"), the amount of insurance proceeds in relation to the covered general deposits, etc. will be the total of the base insurance amount and the amount of interest, etc. in relation to the principal corresponding to the base insurance amount. In this case, if there is more than one amount of principal for the same person, the principal corresponding to the base insurance amount will be the total of the amounts of principal prescribed in the following items up to the base insurance amount:

(i) if there are claims in relation to the covered general deposits, etc., some of which are the subject matter of a security interest and others are not, the principal in relation to those that are not the subject matter of a security interest is to have priority;

(ii) if two or more claims in relation to the covered general deposits, etc., which

- are not the subject matter of a security interest, are held by the same person, the principal in relation to those with an earlier due date is to have priority;
- (iii) in the case referred to in the preceding item, if two or more claims with the same due date in relation to the covered general deposits, etc. are held by the same person, the principal in relation to those with a lower interest rate (meaning the rate of interest and other similar matters specified by Cabinet Order; the same applies in the following item) is to have priority;
- (iv) in the case referred to in the preceding item, if two or more claims with the same interest rate in relation to the covered general deposits, etc. are held by the same person, the principal in relation to those designated by the DICJ is to have priority; and
- (v) if two or more claims in relation to the covered general deposits, etc., which are the subject matter of a security interest, are held by the same person, the principal in relation to those designated by the DICJ is to have priority.
- (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs, in the event that any of the depositors, etc. in relation to an insured event have received provisional payment under paragraph (4) of the preceding Article or refund of the covered general deposits, etc. in relation to the loan under Article 69-3, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 127 with respect to the relevant insured event, the amount of insurance proceeds for the covered general deposits, etc. of the person will be reduced by the amount of the relevant provisional payment and refund of the covered general deposits, etc. in relation to the loan under Article 69-3, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 127 (excluding any amount to be repaid to the DICJ under the following paragraph) pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Order concerning the amounts prescribed in these provisions.
- (4) If the amount of provisional payment made under paragraph (4) of the preceding Article to any of the depositors, etc. in relation to an insured event exceeds an amount calculated pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Order within the amounts of insurance proceeds prescribed in paragraphs (1) and (2), the relevant persons must repay to the DICJ the amount of the excess.

(Amount of Insurance Claims Regarding Deposits for Payment and Settlement Purposes)

Article 54-2 (1) The amount of insurance proceeds in relation to deposits for payment and settlement purposes (excluding those held under the name of another person and other deposits for payment and settlement purposes specified by Cabinet Order; hereinafter referred to as "covered deposits for settlement") of each of the depositors, etc. in a financial institution subject to a single insured event will be an amount equivalent to the amount of principal (if there is more than one amount for the same person, the total of the amounts) of the claims in relation to covered deposits for settlement actually held by the depositors, etc. in the relevant financial institution on the day of occurrence of the insured event (limited to those actually held by the depositors, etc. at the time of making a request under Article 53, paragraph (1) and including those no longer held due to the provisional payment under Article 53, paragraph (4) (limited to those in relation to covered deposits for settlement; the same applies in the following paragraph) or refund of the covered deposits for settlement in relation to the loan under Article 69-3, paragraph (1) (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 127; the same applies in the following paragraph)).

- (2) The provisions of paragraph (3) of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to cases where the depositors, etc. in relation to an insured event have received, with regard to the covered deposits for settlement held thereby, the provisional payment under Article 53, paragraph (4) or refund of the covered deposits for payment and settlement purposes in relation to the loan under Article 69-3, paragraph (1) with respect to the relevant insured event. In this case, the terms "Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs" and "these provisions" in paragraph (3) of the preceding Article will be deemed to be replaced with "Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 54-2, paragraph (1)" and "the relevant provisions."

(Special Provisions for Deposits Regarding Defined Contribution Pensions)

Article 54-3 (1) In the event that any of the depositors, etc. of a financial institution subject to a single insured event is an asset management institution (limited to the trustee of a trust prescribed in Article 8, paragraph (1), item (i) of the Defined Contribution Pension Act (Act No. 88 of 2001)) prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (7), item (i), (b) of the same Act, an association prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (5) of the same Act, or a trustee (limited to trust companies (including the financial institutions engaged in trust business)) of affairs prescribed in Article 61, paragraph (1), item (iii) of the same Act (hereinafter referred to as "asset management institution, etc."), the amount of insurance proceeds of the relevant person is, notwithstanding the provisions of the insurance claim calculation provision, be the remaining amount after deducting the amount specified in item (ii) from the amount specified in item (i), adding thereto the amount specified in item (iii):

- (i) with regard to claims in relation to covered deposits, etc. (meaning the covered general deposits, etc. or covered deposits for payment and settlement purposes; the same applies hereinafter) of the relevant asset management institution, etc. (limited to those actually held by the depositors, etc. holding the covered deposits, etc. at the time of making a request under Article 53, paragraph (1) and including those no longer held due to the provisional

- payment under Article 53, paragraph (4) or refund of the covered deposits, etc. in relation to the loan under Article 69-3, paragraph (1) (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 127); hereinafter the same applies in this Article) that pertain to the fund management of defined contribution pensions (meaning the reserves prescribed in Article 8, paragraph (1) of the Defined Contribution Pension Act; hereinafter the same applies in this Article), the total of the amounts that are deemed to be the amount of insurance proceeds for each of the subscribers, etc. (meaning the subscribers, etc. prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (7), item (i), (a) of the same Act; hereinafter the same applies in this Article) who have instructed the relevant investment, when the insurance claim calculation provision is applied in the event that, within the claims in relation to covered deposits, etc. actually held by the asset management institution, etc. in the relevant financial institution on the day of occurrence of the relevant insured event (hereinafter referred to as "insured event date" in this paragraph), those portions that are equivalent to the amount of managed assets per individual (meaning the amount of managed assets per individual prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (13) of the same Act) of the relevant subscribers, etc. (referred to as "deposit claims equivalent to amount of managed assets per individual" in the following paragraph) are deemed to be claims in relation to covered deposits, etc. of the relevant subscribers, etc.;
- (ii) the total of the amounts of insurance proceeds under the insurance claim calculation provision with respect to each of the claims in relation to covered deposits, etc. actually held by the relevant subscribers, etc. in the relevant financial institution on the insured event date; and
 - (iii) the amount of insurance proceeds under the insurance claim calculation provision other than those in relation to the investment of the reserves of defined contribution pensions, within the claims in relation to covered deposits, etc. actually held by the asset management institution, etc. in the relevant financial institution on the insured event date.
- (2) In the event that the provisions of Article 54, paragraph (2) are applied under item (i) of the preceding paragraph, the principal corresponding to base insurance amount is the total of the amounts of principal prescribed in the following items up to the base insurance amount:
- (i) if there are deposit claims equivalent to amount of managed assets per individual of subscribers, etc., within the claims in relation to covered deposits, etc. of the relevant subscribers, etc. and those of the relevant asset management institution, etc. before the application of the provisions of item (i) of the preceding paragraph, the principal of the claims in relation to covered deposits, etc. of the relevant subscribers, etc. is to have priority; and
 - (ii) if there are two or more deposit claims equivalent to amount of managed assets per individual of subscribers, etc. within the claims in relation to covered deposits, etc. of the relevant asset management institution, etc., the principal in relation to those designated by the DICJ is to have priority.

- (3) In the case referred to in paragraph (1), if the payment of insurance proceeds is made to an asset management institution, etc. under Article 53, paragraph (1), the amount after deducting the amount specified in paragraph (1), item (ii) from the amount specified in paragraph (1), item (i) in relation to subscribers, etc. within the insurance proceeds will be deemed to be reserved in the managed assets per individual (meaning the managed assets per individual prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (12) of the Defined Contribution Pension Act) of the relevant subscribers, etc.
- (4) In applying the provisions of Article 2, paragraph (11) in the case referred to in paragraph (1), the term "and Article 54-2, paragraph (1)" in Article 2, paragraph (11) will be taken as meaning ", Article 54-2, paragraph (1), and Article 54-3, paragraphs (1) and (2)."

(Notice of an Insured Event)

Article 55 (1) A financial institution must immediately notify the DICJ upon the occurrence of an insured event in relation to the financial institution.

- (2) The Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, or the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry must immediately notify the DICJ upon the occurrence of any of the following events:
 - (i) if they have rescinded the business license of, or passed a resolution on the authorization to dissolve, a financial institution under their supervision;
 - (ii) if they have become aware that a financial institution under their supervision has become subject to category-one insured event; and
 - (iii) if they have received notice under Article 137-2, paragraph (1).
- (3) Upon receiving notice under paragraph (1) or notice from the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare or Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry under the preceding paragraph, the DICJ must immediately report to that effect to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance.
- (4) Upon receiving notice from the Prime Minister under paragraph (2), the DICJ must immediately report to that effect to the Minister of Finance.
- (5) Upon receiving notice from the Minister of Finance under paragraph (2), the DICJ must immediately report to that effect to the Prime Minister.

(Ascertaining Amount of Claims Regarding Deposits)

Article 55-2 (1) Upon becoming aware that a financial institution has become subject to an insured event, the DICJ must promptly ascertain the amount of claims in relation to deposits, etc. actually held in the relevant financial institution as of the day of the occurrence of the relevant insured event by each of the depositors, etc. of the relevant financial institution.

- (2) If the DICJ finds it necessary for promptly ascertaining the amount of claims in relation to deposits, etc. prescribed in the preceding paragraph, the DICJ may, by clearly indicating to that effect, request the financial institution to submit materials concerning the names and addresses of the depositors, etc., details of claims in relation to deposits, etc. and other matters specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance.
- (3) A financial institution must, if requested to submit materials under the preceding paragraph, submit them without delay using electronic data processing systems or magnetic tapes (including any other medium in which certain particulars can be securely recorded by equivalent means) pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance.
- (4) A financial institution must prepare a database in relation to deposits, etc. (meaning the collection of information in relation to deposits, etc. that is systematically organized so that the information may be retrieved by using computers) and electronic data processing systems and take any other measures necessary for submitting materials under the preceding paragraph.

(Decisions on Payment)

Article 56 (1) If any of the events listed in the following items occurs, the DICJ must, following a resolution by the board, decide whether to pay insurance proceeds with respect to the insured event prescribed in each of the following items within one month of the day specified in the items:

- (i) if notice is received under Article 55, paragraph (1) or (2) concerning the category-one insured event: the day on which the notice is received;
- (ii) beyond the case referred to in the preceding item, if the DICJ has become aware that the category-one insured event has occurred: the day on which the DICJ has become aware of the occurrence;
- (iii) if notice is received under Article 66, paragraph (1) to the effect that the resolution, decision, or consent prescribed in Article 66, paragraph (1) has failed to be obtained for a merger, the transfer of business, etc., transfer of insured deposits, share exchange, share transfer, or company split involving a financial institution subject to the category-one insured event as a party thereto: the day on which the notice is received; and
- (iv) beyond the case referred to in the preceding item, if the DICJ has become aware that the resolution, decision, or consent prescribed in Article 66, paragraph (1) has failed to be obtained for a merger, transfer of business, etc., transfer of insured deposits, share exchange, share transfer, or company split involving a financial institution subject to the category-one insured event as a party thereto: the day on which the DICJ has become aware of the fact.

- (2) In the event that the DICJ applies for an extension of the time limit under the preceding paragraph following a resolution of the board, the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance may grant the extension for a period not exceeding one month.
- (3) If any of the events listed in the following items occurs, the DICJ must, following a resolution of the board, decide whether to make provisional payment under Article 53, paragraph (4) with respect to an insured event prescribed in each of the following items within one week of the day specified in the items:
- (i) if notice is received under Article 55, paragraph (1) or (2) concerning an insured event: the day on which the notice is received;
 - (ii) beyond the case referred to in the preceding item, if the DICJ has become aware that an insured event has occurred: the day on which the DICJ has become aware of the occurrence;
 - (iii) if notice is received under Article 66, paragraph (1) to the effect that the resolution, decision, or consent prescribed in Article 66, paragraph (1) has failed to be obtained for a merger, transfer of business, etc., transfer of insured deposits, share exchange, share transfer, or company split involving a financial institution subject to the category-one insured event as a party thereto: the day on which the notice is received; and
 - (iv) beyond the case referred to in the preceding item, if the DICJ has become aware that the resolution, decision, or consent prescribed in Article 66, paragraph (1) has failed to be obtained for a merger, transfer of business, etc., transfer of insured deposits, share exchange, share transfer, or company split involving a financial institution subject to the category-one insured event as a party thereto: the day on which the DICJ has become aware of the fact.
- (4) Upon making a decision under paragraph (1) or the preceding paragraph, the DICJ must immediately report matters in relation to the decision to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance (to the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare if the decision relates to a labor bank or Rokinren banks, and to the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry if the decision relates to The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd.).

(Public Notice of Payment)

- Article 57 (1) The DICJ must, following a resolution of the board, promptly determine the period, place, and method of payment of insurance proceeds and other matters specified by Cabinet Order and give public notice thereof in the following cases:
- (i) if the DICJ has made a decision under paragraph (1) of the preceding Article to pay insurance proceeds in relation to the category-one insured event;

- (ii) if the DICJ has received notice under Article 55, paragraph (1) or (2) concerning the category-two insured event (excluding the related insured event; the same applies in the following item); and
 - (iii) beyond the case referred to in the preceding item, if the DICJ has become aware that the category-two insured event has occurred.
- (2) If the DICJ has made a decision pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (3) of the preceding Article to make provisional payment under Article 53, paragraph (4), the DICJ must, following a resolution by the board, promptly determine the period, place, and method of payment of the relevant provisional payment and other matters specified by Cabinet Order and give public notice thereof.
- (3) If, after giving public notice under the preceding two paragraphs, there is public notice under Article 197, paragraph (1) of the Bankruptcy Act (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 209, paragraph (3) of the same Act), notice under Article 137-2, paragraph (2), or any other event specified by Cabinet Order with respect to the relevant financial institution, the DICJ may, pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Order, change the payment period that was publicly announced under the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs.
- (4) When the DICJ has changed the payment period under the preceding paragraph, the DICJ must give public notice of matters in relation to the change without delay.
- (5) The provisions of paragraph (4) of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to cases where the matters prescribed in paragraph (1) or (2) have been decided and where the payment period has been changed under paragraph (3).

(Acquisition of Claims)

- Article 58 (1) If a request is made for the payment of insurance proceeds under Article 53, paragraph (1), the DICJ may, pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Order, acquire claims in relation to the covered deposits, etc. held in a financial institution by the depositors, etc. in relation to the relevant request, according to the amount of insurance proceeds that are required to be paid to the relevant depositors, etc. under the insurance claim calculation provision.
- (2) If the claims in relation to covered deposits, etc. acquired under the preceding paragraph include any claim that is subject to a security interest, the DICJ may, pursuant to cabinet order provisions, defer the payment of insurance proceeds up to an amount equivalent to the claim in relation to covered deposits, etc. (limited to the portion that has been acquired by the DICJ) that are subject to the relevant security interest until the extinction of the secured claim in relation to the relevant security interest.
- (3) When the DICJ has made provisional payment to the depositors, etc. under Article 53, paragraph (4), the DICJ will, according to the amount of the payment (excluding the amount to be repaid to the DICJ under Article 54, paragraph (4)), acquire claims in relation to covered deposits, etc. held in a financial institution by the relevant depositors, etc.

(Taxation)

Article 58-2 (1) In the event that depositors, etc. receive payment of insurance proceeds in connection with claims in relation to covered deposits, etc. (excluding those in relation to long-term credit bank bonds, etc. issued by means of a discount, among those listed in Article 2, paragraph (2), item (v)) held by the relevant depositors, etc. (hereinafter referred to as "deposits and other claims" in this paragraph), when the deposits and other claims acquired by the DICJ according to the amount of insurance proceeds for which the payment is received include any interest, etc., an amount equivalent to the relevant interest, etc. will be deemed to be the amount prescribed in each of the following items according to the category of the covered deposits, etc. in relation to relevant deposits and other claims prescribed in each respective item, in applying the provisions of the Income Tax Act (Act No. 33 of 1965) and other laws and regulations concerning income tax:

(i) deposits: interest on the relevant deposits;

(ii) installment savings: compensation money for benefits (meaning the compensation money for benefits specified in Article 174, item (iii) of the Income Tax Act) based on contracts for the relevant installment savings;

(iii) installment deposits specified in Article 2, paragraph (2), item (iii): compensation money for benefits (meaning the compensation money for benefits specified in Article 174, item (iv) of the Income Tax Act) based on contracts for the relevant installment deposits;

(iv) money specified in Article 2, paragraph (2), item (iv): distribution of profits under money trusts prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (2), item (iv) in relation to the relevant money; and

(v) money specified in Article 2, paragraph (2), item (v): interests on the long-term credit bank bonds, etc. (excluding those issued by means of a discount).

(2) In the event that the provisions of the preceding paragraph apply, any necessary matters for the application of special provisions for Article 4-2 and Article 4-3 of the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation (Act No. 26 of 1957) and other provisions of the preceding paragraph will be specified by Cabinet Order.

(Measures for Payment of Insurance Claims Regarding Deposits)

Article 58-3 (1) A financial institution must develop electronic data processing systems and take any other measures specified by Cabinet Office Order in order to secure the smooth implementation of the payment of insurance proceeds in relation to covered deposits, etc. or refund thereof and any other measures necessary for dealing with an insured event in the event of occurrence of an insured event.

- (2) The Prime Minister may, when finding that the measures prescribed in the preceding paragraph have not been taken, order a financial institution to take the relevant measures to the extent necessary, by a specified time.

Section 4 Financial Assistance

(Application for Financial Assistance)

Article 59 (1) A financial institution undertaking a merger, etc. that is not a failed financial institution (hereinafter referred to as an "assuming financial institution") or a bank holding company, etc. undertaking a merger, etc. (hereinafter referred to as an "assuming bank holding company, etc.") may apply to have the DICJ take the following measures (in the case of measures specified in item (vi), excluding those provided to the companies specified in Article 2, paragraph (5), item (v); hereinafter referred to as "financial assistance") to support the merger, etc.:

- (i) donation of money;
- (ii) loan or depositing of funds;
- (iii) purchase of assets;
- (iv) guarantee of obligations;
- (v) assumption of obligations;
- (vi) subscription for preferred shares, etc.; and
- (vii) collateralization of damage.

(2) The term "merger, etc." as used in the preceding paragraph means the following:

- (i) a merger in which a financial institution that merges with a failed financial institution survives;
- (ii) a merger in which a financial institution is established through the merger of a failed financial institution and another financial institution;
- (iii) a transfer of business, etc. in which a failed financial institution transfers its business to another financial institution (in the case of transfer of part of the business, limited to one accompanied by the assumption of obligations in relation to deposits, etc. of a failed financial institution that include obligations in relation to deposits, etc. corresponding to the amount of insurance proceeds calculated under the insurance claim calculation provision);
- (iii)-2 Transfer of Insured Deposits;
- (iv) an acquisition of shares of a failed financial institution by another financial institution or bank holding company, etc. to implement matters specified by the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance as being necessary for ensuring sound and appropriate operation of the relevant failed financial institution;

- (v) an absorption-type company split to which a failed financial institution is a party where another financial institution succeeds to all or part of the rights and obligations held by the failed financial institution in relation to its business through the absorption-type company split (in the case of an absorption-type company split where another financial institution succeeds to part of the rights and obligations, limited to one where another financial institution succeeds to obligations in relation to deposits, etc. of the failed financial institution and where the obligations include those in relation to deposits, etc. corresponding to the amount of insurance claims calculated under the insurance claim calculation provision); and
 - (vi) an incorporation-type company split to which a failed financial institution is a party where the financial institution newly established through the incorporation-type company split succeeds to all or part of the rights and obligations held by the failed financial institution in relation to its business through the relevant incorporation-type company split (in the case of an incorporation-type company split where the newly established financial institution succeeds to part of the rights and obligations, limited to one where the newly established financial institution succeeds to obligations in relation to deposits, etc. of the failed financial institution and where the obligations include those in relation to deposits, etc. corresponding to the amount of insurance claims calculated under the insurance claim calculation provision).
- (3) The financial assistance prescribed in paragraph (1) provided to support a merger specified in item (ii) of the preceding paragraph or an incorporation-type company split specified in item (vi) of the same paragraph will be provided to the assuming financial institution or financial institution that will be established by the merger or the incorporation-type company split, and if there are two or more assuming financial institutions involved in the merger or the incorporation-type company split, the application prescribed in paragraph (1) will be made in joint name with the relevant assuming financial institutions.
- (4) The purchase of assets specified in paragraph (1), item (iii) will be conducted with respect to the assets of a failed financial institution in relation to a merger, etc. (meaning the merger, etc. prescribed in paragraph (2); the same applies hereinafter) or assets specified in each of the following items according to the category of merger, etc. specified in the items, and if the financial assistance in relation to the application prescribed in paragraph (1) includes the purchase of assets of a failed financial institution in relation to a merger, etc., the assuming financial institution or assuming bank holding company, etc. in relation to the merger, etc. applies to the DICJ in joint name with the relevant failed financial institution for the DICJ to purchase the relevant assets:

- (i) a merger specified in paragraph (2), item (i): the assets of the financial institution surviving through the merger (limited to those that were the assets of the failed financial institution prior to the merger);
 - (ii) a merger specified in paragraph (2), item (ii): the assets of the financial institution that will be established by the merger (limited to those that were the assets of the failed financial institution prior to the merger);
 - (iii) a transfer of business, etc. specified in paragraph (2), item (iii): the assets of another financial institution prescribed in paragraph (2), item (iii) that have been received through the relevant transfer of business, etc.;
 - (iv) the acquisition of shares specified in paragraph (2), item (iv): the assets of a financial institution whose shares have been so acquired;
 - (v) the absorption-type company split specified in paragraph (2), item (v): the assets of another financial institution set forth in the same item which the financial institution has succeeded to through the absorption-type company split; and
 - (vi) the incorporation-type company split specified in paragraph (2), item (vi): the assets of the financial institution established through the incorporation-type company split (limited to those that were assets of the failed financial institution prior to the incorporation-type company split).
- (5) The collateralization of damage specified in paragraph (1), item (vii) will be performed with respect to the loan claims that are the assets prescribed in each of the preceding items according to the category of merger, etc. specified in that item.
- (6) A financial institution or bank holding company, etc. that has made an application under paragraph (1) or (4) must promptly report to that effect to the Prime Minister (in the case of a labor bank or Rokinren banks, to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the case of The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd., to the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry).
- (7) Upon receiving an application under paragraph (1) or (4), the DICJ must promptly report to that effect to the Minister of Finance; provided, however, that this does not apply to cases where the financial institution that has made the relevant application is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd.

(Special Provisions for Applications for Financial Assistance)

Article 59-2 (1) An assuming financial institution undertaking a merger, etc. (limited to the transfer of business, etc. specified in paragraph (2), item (iii) of the preceding Article whereby a failed financial institution transfers part of its business to another financial institution, the transfer of insured deposits, the absorption-type company split specified in item (v) of the same paragraph where another financial institution succeeds to part of the rights and obligations held by the failed financial institution in relation to its business, or the incorporation-type company split specified in item (vi) of the same paragraph where the newly established financial institution succeeds to part of the rights and obligations held by the failed financial institution in relation to its business) may apply to have the DICJ provide financial assistance to the relevant failed financial institution (limited to those specified in paragraph (1), item (i) of the preceding Article) in order to ensure equity between creditors of the failed financial institution.

- (2) The application under the preceding paragraph is to be made in coordination with the failed financial institution in relation to the merger, etc.
- (3) The provisions of paragraph (6) of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to an assuming financial institution and failed financial institution that have made an application under the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs, and the provisions of paragraph (7) of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to the DICJ that has received an application under the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs.

Article 60 (1) A financial institution designated by the Prime Minister that, in order to support a merger, etc., loans funds to a financial institution in relation to the merger, etc. (excluding the failed financial institution) or to a bank holding company, etc. in relation to the merger, etc. or conducts any other act specified by Cabinet Order may apply to the DICJ for financial assistance (limited to those specified in Article 59, paragraph (1), item (ii) or (iv)).

- (2) A financial institution that has made an application under the preceding paragraph must promptly report to that effect to the Prime Minister (in the case of a labor bank or Rokinren banks, to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare).
- (3) Upon receiving an application under paragraph (1), the DICJ must promptly report to that effect to the Minister of Finance.

(Confirmation of Eligibility)

Article 61 (1) With regard to a merger, etc. in relation to an application prescribed in Article 59, paragraph (1), Article 59-2, paragraph (1), or paragraph (1) of the preceding Article, a failed financial institution and assuming financial institution or failed financial institution and assuming bank holding company, etc. in relation to the relevant merger, etc. must obtain the confirmation of the Prime Minister by the time the application under these provisions is made.

- (2) An application for the confirmation under the preceding paragraph must be made in the joint names of the failed financial institution and assuming financial institution or failed financial institution and assuming bank holding company, etc. prescribed in the preceding paragraph.
- (3) The Prime Minister may not grant confirmation under paragraph (1) unless all of the following requirements are satisfied:
 - (i) the merger, etc. contributes to the protection of the depositors, etc. and other creditors;
 - (ii) the financial assistance by the DICJ is indispensable for carrying out the merger, etc.; and
 - (iii) if the merger, etc. is not carried out for the failed financial institution pertaining thereto and the failed financial institution ceases all its business or is dissolved, it is likely to cause considerable detriment to the smooth supply and request of funds and convenience of consumers in the region or fields in which the relevant failed financial institution conducts its business.
- (4) The Prime Minister must, when granting confirmation under paragraph (1) to a labor bank or Rokinren banks, obtain consent from the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and when granting confirmation under paragraph (1) to The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd., obtain consent from the Minister of Finance and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry.
- (5) The Prime Minister must, when granting confirmation under paragraph (1), make clear which financial institution in relation to the relevant confirmation is a failed financial institution.
- (6) Upon granting the confirmation under paragraph (1), the Prime Minister must notify the DICJ to that effect.
- (7) Upon receiving notice under the preceding paragraph, the DICJ must promptly report to that effect to the Minister of Finance.
- (8) In the event that a company seeking to acquire the shares of a failed financial institution has applied for authorization set forth in Article 52-17, paragraph (1) of the Banking Act or Article 16-2-4, paragraph (1) of the long-term credit bank Act with regard to the fact that, as a result of the acquisition, the company will become a holding company which has a bank as its subsidiary company or holding company which has a long-term credit bank as its subsidiary company (hereinafter referred to as "holding company authorization" in this paragraph), the Prime Minister may not grant confirmation under paragraph (1) until after they has granted the holding company authorization to the relevant company.

(Mediation of Mergers)

Article 62 (1) Even in cases where no application is being made under paragraph

- (2) of the preceding Article, if a financial institution falls is classed as a failed financial institution and the Prime Minister finds that the failed financial institution satisfies the requirements specified in paragraph (3), item (iii) of the preceding Article, they may provide mediation in writing with regard to the relevant merger, etc. (excluding those specified in Article 59, paragraph (2), item (ii) and limited to those that contribute to the protection of the depositors, etc. and other creditors and for which the financial assistance by the DICJ is indispensable) between the relevant failed financial institution and another financial institution or the relevant failed financial institution and a bank holding company, etc.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1) of the preceding Article, another financial institution or bank holding company, etc. prescribed in the preceding paragraph that has received the mediation under the preceding paragraph may make an application under Article 59, paragraph (1) or Article 59-2, paragraph (1).
- (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1) of the preceding Article, a financial institution designated by the Prime Minister under Article 60, paragraph (1) that, in order to support a merger, etc. in relation to the mediation under paragraph (1), loans funds under Article 60, paragraph (1) to another financial institution or bank holding company, etc. that has received the relevant mediation, or conducts any other act specified by Cabinet Order, may make an application under Article 60, paragraph (1).
- (4) The provisions of paragraphs (4) through (7) of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to cases where the mediation is provided under paragraph (1).
- (5) The Prime Minister may, when finding it necessary for providing the mediation set forth in paragraph (1), within the limit of that necessity, deliver material related to the status of business and assets of a failed financial institution or a financial institution recognized as having a high probability of becoming a failed financial institution to another financial institution or bank holding company, etc. and make any other preparations for the relevant mediation.
- (6) The Prime Minister may request necessary cooperation from the DICJ for the mediation under paragraph (1) or preparations under the preceding paragraph.

Article 63 Deleted.

(Financial Assistance)

Article 64 (1) Upon receiving an application under Article 59, paragraph (1) or (4), Article 59-2, paragraph (1), or Article 60, paragraph (1), the DICJ must, following a resolution of the board, decide whether to grant the financial assistance in relation to the application without delay.

- (2) When making a decision under the preceding paragraph, the board must take into consideration the financial conditions of the DICJ, expected costs of the financial assistance in relation to the relevant decision, and expected costs for the payment of insurance proceeds with respect to an insured event of the failed financial institution in relation to the relevant financial assistance, and give due consideration to the efficient use of the DICJ's assets.
- (3) Upon making a decision under paragraph (1), the DICJ must immediately report matters in relation to the relevant decision to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance (if the relevant decision pertains to a merger, etc. to which a labor bank or Rokinren banks is a party, to the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and if the relevant decision pertains to a merger, etc. to which The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. is a party, to the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry).
- (4) Upon making a decision to provide the financial assistance under paragraph (1), the DICJ is to conclude a contract concerning the relevant financial assistance with a financial institution or bank holding company, etc. in relation to the application for the relevant financial assistance.
- (5) When the financial assistance in relation to the contract prescribed in the preceding paragraph includes the collateralization of damage, the financial institution or bank holding company, etc. in relation to the relevant contract is to stipulate therein that, if profits are accrued with respect to loan claims in relation to the collateralization of damage, it is to pay part of the relevant profits to the DICJ, or take measures to cause a person who is to hold the relevant loan claims as a result of the relevant merger, etc. to pay part of the relevant profits to the DICJ.

(Financial Assistance Regarding Subscription for Preferred Shares)

- Article 64-2 (1) When an application is made under Article 59, paragraph (1) for the subscription for preferred shares, etc., the assuming financial institution or assuming bank holding company, etc. (excluding the companies specified in Article 2, paragraph (5), item (v); hereinafter the same applies in this Article) in relation to the relevant application must, at the time of making the relevant application, submit to the DICJ a plan setting forth measures specified by Cabinet Order as measures to ensure sound financial conditions, etc.
- (2) When a resolution prescribed in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article relates to an application for the subscription for preferred shares, etc., the board may not adopt a resolution to carry out the relevant subscription for preferred shares, etc., unless in light of the adequacy of equity capital of the assuming financial institution or assuming bank holding company, etc. in relation to the relevant application, the relevant subscription for preferred shares, etc. does not exceed the scope necessary for the smooth implementation of the relevant merger, etc. and conforms to other standards prescribed by the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry.

- (3) In the event that an application is made under Article 59, paragraph (1) for the subscription for preferred shares, etc., if the DICJ intends to make a decision to provide the financial assistance, it must, following a resolution prescribed in the preceding paragraph, obtain prior approval from the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance (if the relevant application is made by a labor bank or Rokinren banks, from the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and if the relevant application is made by The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd., from the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry).
- (4) In the event that an application under Article 59, paragraph (1) for the subscription for preferred shares, etc. is made to support a merger, etc. (limited to those specified in Article 59, paragraph (2), item (ii) or (vi)), if the DICJ has made a decision under paragraph (1) of the preceding Article, a plan submitted pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) must, following the relevant merger, etc., be deemed to have been submitted by a financial institution established by the relevant merger, etc. for the purpose of applying the provisions of this Article.
- (5) Until the DICJ disposes or receives redemption or repayment of all acquired preferred shares, etc. or acquired loan claims (meaning those loan claims acquired by the DICJ through the subscription for preferred shares, etc. based on a decision under paragraph (1) of the preceding Article; hereinafter the same applies in this Article to Article 68-4), the DICJ may request an assuming financial institution (including a financial institution established by the merger or incorporation-type company split in relation to subscription for preferred shares, etc.; hereinafter the same applies in this Article to Article 68-3) or assuming bank holding company, etc. that is an issuer of the relevant acquired preferred shares, etc. or obligor in relation to acquired loan claims actually held by the DICJ to report the status of implementation of the plan that was submitted under paragraph (1) and make the report public.
- (6) The term "acquired preferred shares, etc." as used in the preceding paragraph means the following:
 - (i) the preferred shares, etc. (including the following) and other shares, etc. specified by Cabinet Order acquired by the DICJ through the subscription for preferred shares, etc. based on a decision under paragraph (1) of the preceding Article:
 - (a) in the event that the preferred shares, etc. are preferred shares, the following shares:

1. in the event that the relevant referred shares are those for which a request for conversion into shares of another class (meaning the delivery of shares of another class in exchange for the acquisition of the relevant preferred shares by their issuing company; hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph) can be made, shares of another class into which the relevant shares are converted pursuant to the request;
 2. in the event that the preferred shares are convertible upon the occurrence of certain events, shares of another class into which the preferred shares are converted as a result of the occurrence; and
 3. shares split or consolidated with respect to the preferred shares or the shares of another class specified in 1 or 2;
- (b) in the event that the preferred shares, etc. are subordinated bonds, shares delivered through the exercising of share options attached to the relevant subordinated bonds and shares split or consolidated with respect thereto; and
- (c) in the event that the preferred shares, etc. are preferred equity investments, preferred equity investments split with respect to the relevant preferred equity investments; and
- (ii) preferred shares (including the following) allotted to the DICJ by a company that has become a wholly owning parent company resulting from share exchange (meaning the wholly owning parent company resulting from share exchange prescribed in Article 768, paragraph (1), item (i) of the Companies Act; the same applies hereinafter) or wholly owning parent company incorporated in a share transfer (meaning the wholly owning parent company incorporated in share transfer prescribed in Article 773, paragraph (1), item (i) of the same Act; the same applies hereinafter) through share exchange or share transfer effected by a financial institution or bank holding company, etc. for which the DICJ has conducted the subscription for preferred shares, etc. pursuant to a decision under paragraph (1) of the preceding Article, and other shares, etc. specified by Cabinet Order:
- (a) in the event that the relevant preferred shares are those for which a request for conversion into shares of another class can be made, shares of another class into which the relevant shares are converted pursuant to the request;
 - (b) in the event that the preferred shares are convertible upon the occurrence of certain events, shares of another class into which the preferred shares are converted as a result of the occurrence; and
 - (c) shares split or consolidated with respect to the relevant preferred shares or the shares of another class specified in (a) or (b).

(Special Provisions for the Allotment of Shares for Subscription)

Article 64-3 (1) The provisions of Article 206-2 of the Companies Act do not apply to cases where a failed financial institution in relation to the acquisition of shares set forth in Article 59, paragraph (2), item (iv) by an assuming financial institution or assuming bank holding company, etc. conducts the allotment of shares for subscription prescribed in Article 199, paragraph (1) of the same Act targeting the relevant assuming financial institution or assuming bank holding company, etc., or where a contract set forth in Article 205, paragraph (1) of the same Act is executed with the relevant assuming financial institution or assuming bank holding company, etc.

(2) The provisions of Article 244-2 of the Companies Act do not apply to cases where an assuming financial institution or an assuming bank holding company, etc. in relation to the financial assistance by the DICJ (limited to those in relation to the subscription for subordinated bonds (limited to those with share options)) or a financial institution established by the merger set forth in Article 59, paragraph (2), item (ii) or the incorporation-type company split set forth in item (vi) of the same paragraph conducts the allotment of share options for subscription prescribed in Article 238, paragraph (1) of the same Act targeting the DICJ, or where a contract set forth in Article 244, paragraph (1) of the same Act is executed with the DICJ.

(Reporting of Agreements for Mergers)

Article 65 A financial institution or bank holding company, etc. that has received the confirmation under Article 61, paragraph (1) or mediation under Article 62, paragraph (1) (hereinafter referred to as "confirmation of eligibility, etc.") must, upon concluding an agreement for merger, etc. in relation to the confirmation of eligibility, etc., immediately report to that effect to the Prime Minister (in the case of a labor bank or Rokinren banks, to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the case of The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd., to the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry) and submit a copy of the relevant agreement for merger, etc. (in the case of a financial institution or bank holding company, etc. that has concluded a contract with the DICJ under Article 64, paragraph (4), a copy of the relevant agreement for merger, etc. and documents stating the details of the contract under Article 64, paragraph (4)).

(Reporting of Resolutions of Shareholders Meetings)

Article 66 (1) In the event that a resolution or decision of shareholders meeting, etc. or consent of all shareholders or all class shareholders (meaning the consent prescribed in Article 783, paragraph (2) or (4) of the Companies Act; the same applies hereinafter) is required for a merger, transfer of business, etc.,

transfer of insured deposits, share exchange, or share transfer, or company split under the provisions of this Act, the Companies Act, other Acts, or the articles of incorporation, a financial institution that has received the confirmation of eligibility, etc. must, when it has obtained or failed to obtain a resolution or decision, or consent of all shareholders or all class shareholders for a merger, transfer of business, etc., transfer of insured deposits, share exchange or share transfer, or company split in relation to the relevant confirmation of eligibility, etc., immediately report to that effect to the Prime Minister (in the case of a labor bank or Rokinren banks, to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the case of The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd., to the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry) and submit the minutes of the relevant shareholders meeting, etc. and any other documents proving the fact (including those prepared in the form of an electronic or magnetic record (meaning records used in computer data processing, which are created in electronic form, magnetic form, or any other form that is impossible to perceive through the human senses alone; specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance as used for data processing with computers; the same applies in Article 106, paragraph (3))), and must also notify the DICJ to that effect. The same applies when, in the event that a resolution of shareholders meeting, etc. or consent of all shareholders or all class shareholders is required for share exchange under the provisions of this Act, the Companies Act, or the articles of incorporation, a bank holding company, etc. that has received the confirmation of eligibility, etc. has obtained or failed to obtain the resolution or consent for share exchange in relation to the relevant confirmation of eligibility, etc.

- (2) The term "shareholders meeting, etc." as used in the preceding paragraph means, in the case of a bank, etc., bank holding company, etc., or The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd., a shareholders meeting or class meeting (meaning, in the case prescribed in Article 22, paragraph (6) of the Act on Financial Institutions' Merger and Conversion, a shareholders meeting and the shareholders meeting prescribed in Article 22, paragraph (6)), and in the case of a Shinkin bank, federation of Shinkin banks, credit cooperative, federation of credit cooperatives, labor bank, or Rokinren banks (hereinafter referred to as a "Shinkin bank, etc."), a general meeting or general meeting of representatives.
- (3) A financial institution or bank holding company, etc. that has received the confirmation of eligibility, etc. under paragraph (1) must, in the following cases, immediately report to that effect to the Prime Minister (in the case of a labor bank or Rokinren banks, to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the case of The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd., to the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry) and also notify the DICJ to that effect:

- (i) in the event that a financial institution or bank holding company, etc. that has received the confirmation of eligibility, etc. under paragraph (1) seeks to receive the whole or part of business or undertake a merger, share exchange, or company split without obtaining approval by a resolution or decision of a shareholders meeting, etc. (meaning the shareholders meeting, etc. prescribed in the preceding paragraph; the same applies in the following item) under Article 468, paragraph (2) or Article 796, paragraph (2) of the Companies Act, the proviso to Article 58, paragraph (2) or the proviso to Article 61-3, paragraph (3) of the Shinkin Bank Act, the second sentence of Article 57-3, paragraph (2) or the proviso to Article 63-5, paragraph (3) of the Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises Cooperatives Act, the proviso to Article 62, paragraph (2) or the proviso to Article 62-6, paragraph (3) of the Labor Bank Act, or Article 30, paragraph (1) or Article 42, paragraph (1) of the Act on Financial Institutions' Merger and Conversion, when the relevant financial institution or bank holding company, etc. has come to fall under the case prescribed in Article 468, paragraph (3) or Article 796, paragraph (3) of the Companies Act, Article 58, paragraph (4) or Article 61-3, paragraph (5) of the Shinkin Bank Act, Article 57-3, paragraph (3) or Article 63-5, paragraph (4) of the Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises Cooperatives Act, Article 62, paragraph (4) or Article 62-6, paragraph (5) of the Labor Bank Act, or Article 30, paragraph (2) or Article 42, paragraph (2) of the Act on Financial Institutions' Merger and Conversion; and
 - (ii) in the event that a financial institution that has received the confirmation of eligibility, etc. under paragraph (1) seeks to conduct a transfer of business, etc. with the permission of the court in lieu of a resolution or decision of a shareholders meeting, etc. or consent of all shareholders or all class shareholders under Article 87 or Article 43 of the Civil Rehabilitation Act (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 454 of the Act on Special Measures for the Reorganization Proceedings of Financial Institutions), if the relevant financial institution has failed to obtain the relevant permission.
- (4) Upon receiving notice under paragraph (1) or the preceding paragraph, the DICJ must immediately report to that effect to the Minister of Finance; provided, however, that this does not apply in cases where the financial institution that gave the relevant notice is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd.

(Special Provisions for the Continuation of Business)

Article 67 (1) In the event that an assuming financial institution that has received confirmation of eligibility, etc. has, through a merger, transfer of business, transfer of insured deposits, or company split in relation to the relevant confirmation of eligibility, etc., succeeded to the rights and obligations in relation to a contract belonging to any business affairs that the relevant financial institution is prohibited or restricted from carrying out by laws and regulations concerning the business or operations of the relevant financial institution, the relevant financial institution may continue to conduct the business concerning the contract until the period of contract expires, if the contract prescribes a period, and for a period limited to two years from the date of succession, if the contract does not prescribe a period.

(2) An assuming financial institution that has received confirmation of eligibility, etc. may, in the event that there are special circumstances in light of the convenience of the users of the business in relation to the contract prescribed in the preceding paragraph, etc., prepare a plan as to how the relevant business is to be concluded within a specified period of time, and if the relevant plan is approved by the Prime Minister (in the case of a labor bank or Rokinren banks, by the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the case of The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd., by the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry), continue the relevant business affairs in accordance with the relevant plan and within a scope not exceeding the total amount of the relevant contract as of the date of the merger, assumption of business, transfer of insured deposits, or company split, by renewing the contract following the expiration of the period prescribed in the preceding paragraph or beyond the period prescribed in the preceding paragraph.

(Consultation with the Minister of Finance)

Article 68 The Prime Minister must, when finding that if the DICJ is to provide financial assistance for a merger, etc. in relation to the confirmation of eligibility, etc., the financial conditions of the DICJ would significantly deteriorate and have a serious impact on the maintenance of an orderly credit system, consult in advance with the Minister of Finance concerning measures necessary for the maintenance of an orderly credit system.

(Approval of Share Exchanges Regarding Financial Assistance)

Article 68-2 (1) An assuming financial institution or an assuming bank holding company, etc. for which the DICJ has conducted the subscription for preferred shares, etc. based on a decision under Article 64, paragraph (1) (including companies prescribed in the following paragraph in the event that an approval has been obtained under this paragraph and the bridge financial institution, etc. prescribed in paragraph (4) of the following Article in the event that an approval has been obtained under paragraph (1) of the following Article; the same applies in the following Article and Article 68-4), which has issued shares that are acquired preferred shares, etc. actually held by the DICJ (hereinafter referred to as "issuing assuming financial institution, etc." in this Article), must obtain approval from the DICJ before effecting a share exchange (limited to those through which the issuing assuming financial institution, etc. becomes a wholly owned subsidiary company in the share exchange (meaning a wholly owned subsidiary company in the share exchange prescribed in Article 768, paragraph (1), item (i) of the Companies Act; the same applies in Article 108-2, paragraph (1) and Article 126-25, paragraph (1))) or share transfer (hereinafter referred to as "share exchange, etc." in this Article).

- (2) The DICJ is not to grant the approval under the preceding paragraph unless a company that becomes, through the share exchange, etc., a wholly owning parent company resulting from share exchange or wholly owning parent company incorporated in a share transfer of the issuing assuming financial institution, etc. is a financial institution or bank holding company, etc. (including those that will be newly established and, in the case of a bank holding company, etc., limited to those specified in Article 2, paragraph (5), item (i) or (iii)) and conforms to other standards prescribed and publicly announced by the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance.
- (3) The DICJ must obtain the prior approval of the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance before granting the approval under paragraph (1).
- (4) When an issuing assuming financial institution, etc. has effected the share exchange, etc. following the approval under paragraph (1), a company that has become, through the relevant share exchange, etc., a wholly owning parent company resulting from the share exchange or wholly owning parent company incorporated in a share transfer of the relevant issuing assuming financial institution, etc. must submit to the DICJ a plan setting forth measures specified by Cabinet Order as measures to ensure sound financial conditions, etc.
- (5) The provisions of Article 64-2, paragraph (5) apply mutatis mutandis to the plan submitted to the DICJ under the preceding paragraph. In this case, the terms "an assuming financial institution (including a financial institution established by the merger or incorporation-type company split in relation to subscription for preferred shares, etc.; hereinafter the same applies in this Article to Article 68-4) or assuming bank holding company, etc." and "issuer ... or obligor in relation to acquired loan claims" in Article 64-2, paragraph (5) will be deemed to be replaced with "a company that has submitted a plan under Article 68-2, paragraph (4)," and "issuer in relation to", respectively.

(Approval for Corporate Reorganization Regarding Financial Assistance) Article 68-3 (1) An assuming financial institution or assuming bank holding company, etc., for which the DICJ has conducted the subscription for preferred shares, etc. based on a decision under Article 64, paragraph (1), and which is an issuer or obligor in relation to acquired preferred shares, etc. (meaning the acquired preferred shares, etc. prescribed in Article 64-2, paragraph (6); hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph, the following Article, Article 69, paragraph (4), and Article 101, paragraph (7)) or acquired loan claims actually held by the DICJ (hereinafter referred to as "financial institution eligible for financial assistance, etc." in this Article), must obtain approval from the DICJ before implementing a corporate reorganization (meaning a merger, company split or transfer of the whole or part of business, in which an issuer of acquired preferred shares, etc. or obligor in relation to acquired loan claims after the merger, company split or business transfer will be a corporation (including those that will be newly established) other than the financial institution eligible for financial assistance, etc.; hereinafter the same applies in this Article).

- (2) The DICJ is to not grant the approval under the preceding paragraph unless the corporation other than the financial institution eligible for financial assistance, etc. prescribed in the preceding paragraph is a financial institution or bank holding company, etc. (limited to those specified in Article 2, paragraph (5), items (i) and (iii)) and conforms to other standards prescribed and publicly announced by the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry.
- (3) The DICJ must obtain approval from the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance (in the event that the financial institution eligible for financial assistance, etc. is a labor bank or Rokinren banks, from the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that the financial institution eligible for financial assistance, etc. is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd., from the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry) before granting the approval under paragraph (1).
- (4) In the event that a financial institution eligible for financial assistance, etc. has implemented corporate reorganization after receiving the approval under paragraph (1), if there is a bridge financial institution, etc. in relation to the relevant corporate reorganization (meaning a corporation other than the financial institution eligible for financial assistance, etc. prescribed in paragraph (1)), the relevant bridge financial institution, etc. must submit to the DICJ a plan setting forth measures specified by Cabinet Order as measures to ensure sound financial conditions, etc.
- (5) The provisions of Article 64-2, paragraph (5) apply mutatis mutandis to a plan submitted to the DICJ under the preceding paragraph. In this case, the term "assuming financial institution (including a financial institution established by the merger or incorporation-type company split in relation to subscription for preferred shares, etc.; hereinafter the same applies in this Article through Article 68-4) or assuming bank holding company, etc." in Article 64-2, paragraph (5) will be deemed to be replaced with "bridge financial institution, etc. prescribed in Article 68-3, paragraph (4)."

(Special Provisions for Demanding the Cash-Out of Shares of Special Controlling Shareholders)

Article 68-4 The provisions of Part II, Chapter 2, Section 4-2 of the Companies Act do not apply to special controlling shareholders (meaning the special controlling shareholders prescribed in Article 179, paragraph (1) of the same Act and excluding the DICJ; the same applies hereinafter) of the assuming financial institution or assuming bank holding company, etc. for which the DICJ has conducted the subscription for preferred shares, etc. based on a decision under Article 64, paragraph (1) and which has issued shares that are acquired preferred shares, etc. actually held by the DICJ or subordinated bonds (limited to those with share options).

(Additional Financial Assistance)

- Article 69 (1) In the event that, subsequent to a merger, etc. in relation to financial assistance, an assuming financial institution or assuming bank holding company, etc. in relation to the relevant financial assistance or a financial institution established by the merger or incorporation-type company split in relation to the relevant financial assistance applies for additional financial assistance (referred to as "additional financial assistance" in paragraph (4)), the DICJ may, when it finds it necessary, provide the additional financial assistance to the financial institution that has made the relevant application.
- (2) The purchase of assets in relation to the application under the preceding paragraph will be conducted with respect to the assets of the failed financial institution in relation to a merger, etc. (limited to the transfer of business, etc. specified in Article 59, paragraph (2), item (iii) in which a failed financial institution transfers part of its business to another financial institution, the transfer of insured deposits, the absorption-type company split specified in item (v) of the same paragraph where another financial institution succeeds to part of the rights and obligations held by the failed financial institution in relation to its business, or the incorporation-type company split specified in item (vi) of the same paragraph where the financial institution newly established through the incorporation-type company split succeeds to part of the rights and obligations held by the failed financial institution in relation to its business) or assets prescribed in each of the following items according to the category of merger, etc. specified in each respective item, and if the financial assistance in relation to the application under the preceding paragraph includes the purchase of assets of the failed financial institution in relation to a merger, etc. (limited to the transfer of business, etc. specified in Article 59, paragraph (2), item (iii) in which a failed financial institution transfers part of its business to another financial institution, the transfer of insured deposits, the absorption-type company split specified in item (v) of the same paragraph where another financial institution succeeds to part of the rights and obligations held by the failed financial institution in relation to its business, or the incorporation-type company split specified in item (vi) of the same paragraph where the financial institution newly established through the incorporation-type company split succeeds to part of the rights and obligations held by the failed financial institution in relation to its business; hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph and paragraph (4)), an assuming financial institution in relation to the relevant merger, etc. applies to the DICJ for the purchase of the relevant assets in joint name with the relevant failed financial institution:

- (i) a merger specified in Article 59, paragraph (2), item (i): the assets of the financial institution surviving through the merger (limited to those that were the assets of the failed financial institution prior to the merger);
 - (ii) a merger specified in Article 59, paragraph (2), item (ii): the assets of the financial institution established by the merger (limited to those that were the assets of the failed financial institution prior to the merger);
 - (iii) a transfer of business, etc. specified in Article 59, paragraph (2), item (iii): the assets of another financial institution prescribed in Article 59, paragraph (2), item (iii) that have been received through the transfer of business, etc.;
 - (iv) an acquisition of shares specified in Article 59, paragraph (2), item (iv): the assets of the financial institution subject to the acquisition of shares;
 - (v) the absorption-type company split specified in Article 59, paragraph (2), item (v): the assets of another financial institution set forth in the same item which the relevant financial institution has succeeded to through the absorption-type company split; and
 - (vi) the incorporation-type company split specified in Article 59, paragraph (2), item (vi): the assets of the financial institution established through the incorporation-type company split (limited to those that were assets of the failed financial institution prior to the incorporation-type company split).
- (3) The collateralization of damage in relation to the application under paragraph (1) will be conducted with respect to loan claims that are the assets prescribed in each item of the preceding paragraph according to the category of merger, etc. specified in each respective item.

(4) The provisions of Article 59, paragraphs (6) and (7), Article 64, and Article 64-2 apply mutatis mutandis to the application under paragraph (1) or (2); the provisions of Article 59-2 apply mutatis mutandis to the assuming financial institution that has conducted the merger, etc. in relation to the financial assistance; the provisions of Article 64-3, paragraph (2) apply mutatis mutandis to an assuming financial institution or an assuming bank holding company, etc., or a financial institution established by the merger or incorporation-type company split in relation to the financial assistance to which the DICJ provides the additional financial assistance (limited to those in relation to the subscription for subordinated bonds (limited to those with share options)); the provisions of Articles 67 and 68 apply mutatis mutandis to the additional financial assistance; the provisions of Articles 68-2 and 68-3 apply mutatis mutandis to an assuming financial institution, etc. (meaning an assuming financial institution, an assuming bank holding company, etc. or a financial institution established by the merger or incorporation-type company split in relation to the financial assistance (excluding the financial institutions to which the DICJ has provided the financial assistance in relation to the subscription for preferred shares, etc. and in which the DICJ actually holds acquired preferred shares, etc. in relation to the relevant financial assistance, but including the company prescribed in Article 68-2, paragraph (2) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this paragraph in the event that an approval has been obtained under Article 68-2, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this paragraph and the bridge financial institution, etc. prescribed in Article 68-3, paragraph (4) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this paragraph in the event that an approval has been obtained under Article 68-3, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this paragraph); hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph) to which the DICJ has provided the additional financial assistance (limited to those in relation to the subscription for preferred shares, etc.; hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph); and the provisions of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to special controlling shareholders of an assuming financial institution, etc. to which the DICJ has provided the additional financial assistance and which has issued shares that are acquired preferred shares, etc. actually held by the DICJ or subordinated bonds (limited to those with share options). In this case, the term "expected costs for the payment of insurance proceeds with respect to an insured event of the failed financial institution in relation to the relevant financial assistance" in Article 64, paragraph (2) will be deemed to be replaced with "expected costs of the financial assistance in relation to the decision of the board made prior to the relevant decision with respect to the failed financial institution in relation to the relevant financial assistance and expected costs for the payment of insurance proceeds with respect to an insured event of the relevant failed financial institution," and the term "the DICJ is to provide financial assistance for a merger, etc. in relation to the confirmation of eligibility, etc.," in Article 68 will be deemed to be replaced with " the additional financial assistance is to be provided", and any other necessary technical replacement of terms will be specified by Cabinet Order.

Chapter III-2 Protection of Creditors Concerning Settlement of Funds

(Protection of Settlement Obligations)

Article 69-2 (1) With regard to obligations borne by a financial institution with regard to exchange transactions and other transactions specified by Cabinet Order as transactions in relation to the settlement of funds undertaken by a financial institution (excluding those for which payment is made in a foreign currency, and limited to those resulting from entrustment by a financial institution and by other persons who engage in financial business other than persons specified by Cabinet Order and to those specified by Cabinet Order; hereinafter referred to as "settlement obligations" in this Chapter), other than those that will be extinguished if there is refund of the covered deposits for settlement (hereinafter referred to as "specified settlement obligations" in this paragraph and paragraph (1) of the following Article), the specified settlement obligations will be deemed to be obligations in relation to the covered deposits for settlement, claims in relation to the specified settlement obligations will be deemed to be claims in relation to the covered deposits for settlement, creditors in relation to the specified settlement obligations will be deemed to be the depositors, etc., the amount of the specified settlement obligations will be deemed to be the amount of the covered deposits for settlement, and the repayment of the specified settlement obligations will be deemed to be refunding the covered deposits for settlement, for the purpose of applying the provisions of this Act (excluding Article 58-2, this Chapter, Article 73, and Article 127 and penal provisions pertaining thereto). In this case, the term "insurance premiums in relation to deposits that satisfy all of the following requirements (excluding foreign currency deposits and other deposits specified by Cabinet Order; hereinafter referred to as "deposits for payment and settlement purposes")" in Article 51-2, paragraph (1) will be deemed to be replaced with "insurance premiums in relation to the specified settlement obligations," the term "insurance proceeds in relation to the deposits for payment and settlement purposes (excluding those held under the name of another person and other deposits for payment and settlement purposes specified by Cabinet Order; hereinafter referred to as "covered deposits for settlement")" in Article 54-2, paragraph (1) will be deemed to be replaced with "insurance proceeds in relation to the specified settlement obligations," and the term "the amount of principal ... of" will be deemed to be replaced with "the amount of," the term "the covered deposits for settlement held thereby" in Article 54-2, paragraph (2) will be deemed to be replaced with "the claims in relation to the specified settlement obligations held thereby," the term "deposits, etc." in Article 55-2, paragraph (4) will be deemed to be replaced with "specified settlement obligations," and the term "covered deposits, etc." in Article 58-3, paragraph (1) will be deemed to be replaced with "specified settlement obligations."

- (2) Where the settlement obligations will be extinguished if there is refund of the general deposits, etc., the general deposits, etc. whose amount is equivalent to the amount of the relevant settlement obligations will be deemed to be the deposits for payment and settlement purposes.

(Loaning of Funds for the Repayment of Settlement Obligations)

Article 69-3 (1) In the event that the DICJ receives from any of the following persons an application for a loan of funds necessary for the repayment of the settlement obligations (limited to those carried out with respect to the covered deposits for settlement or specified settlement obligations corresponding to the amount of insurance proceeds calculated under Article 54-2, paragraph (1) and Article 54, paragraph (3) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 54-2, paragraph (2)), the DICJ may, when it finds it necessary, and following a resolution of the board, decide to make a loan in relation to the relevant application up to the total amount of insurance proceeds in relation to the relevant settlement obligations calculated under Article 54-2, paragraph (1) and Article 54, paragraph (3) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 54-2, paragraph (2):

- (i) a financial institution that has become subject to an order to manage under Article 74, paragraph (1) or (2);
- (ii) a person who has become subject to a ruling for the commencement of bankruptcy proceedings (limited to a person who was a financial institution prior to becoming subject to the relevant ruling for the commencement of bankruptcy proceedings);
- (iii) a failed financial institution that has become subject to an order to manage by a provisional administrator under Article 91, paragraph (1) of the Bankruptcy Act;
- (iv) a failed financial institution that has become subject to a ruling for the commencement of reorganization proceedings;
- (v) a failed financial institution that has become subject to an order to management by a provisional administrator under Article 30, paragraph (1) of the Corporate Reorganization Act or Article 22, paragraph (1) of the Act on Special Measures for the Reorganization Proceedings of Financial Institutions;

- (vi) a failed financial institution that has become subject to an order to manage by a trustee under Article 64, paragraph (1) of the Civil Rehabilitation Act;
 - (vii) a failed financial institution that has become subject to an order to manage by a provisional administrator under Article 79, paragraph (1) of the Civil Rehabilitation Act; or
 - (viii) a person who has become subject to an order for commencement of special liquidation (limited to a person who was a financial institution prior to its dissolution in relation to the relevant order).
- (2) The provisions of Article 64, paragraph (3) apply mutatis mutandis to the cases where a decision is made under the preceding paragraph, and the provisions of Article 64, paragraph (4) apply mutatis mutandis to the cases where a decision to provide a loan is made under the preceding paragraph. In this case, the term "pertains to a merger, etc. to which ... is a party" in Article 64, paragraph (3) will be deemed to be replaced with "pertains to ..."
- (3) The loan provided under paragraph (1) to a person specified in each of the following items will, in relation to creditors other than the DICJ in bankruptcy proceedings, reorganization proceedings, rehabilitation proceedings or special liquidation proceedings in relation to the relevant financial institution, be deemed to be provided prior to the decision prescribed in each respective item:
- (i) a person specified in paragraph (1), item (ii): the relevant ruling for the commencement of bankruptcy proceedings;
 - (ii) a failed financial institution specified in paragraph (1), item (iv): the relevant ruling for the commencement of reorganization proceedings;
 - (iii) a failed financial institution that has become subject to a ruling for the commencement of rehabilitation proceedings: the relevant ruling for the commencement of rehabilitation proceedings; and
 - (iv) a person specified in paragraph (1), item (viii): the relevant order for commencement of special liquidation.
- (4) The expected costs of the loan of funds provided pursuant to a decision under paragraph (1) will be deemed to be the expected costs of the financial assistance prescribed in Article 64, paragraph (2) for the purpose of applying Article 64, paragraph (2).
- (5) The person specified in paragraph (1), item (ii) or (viii) will be deemed to be a financial institution for the purpose of the application of this Act in relation to the loan prescribed in paragraph (1).

(Special Provisions of the Bankruptcy Act Regarding Settlement Obligations)

Article 69-4 (1) In the event that a financial institution that owes the settlement obligations and settlement creditors (meaning other financial institutions that hold claims in relation to the relevant settlement obligations and also owe other settlement obligations to the relevant financial institution (including other persons who have acquired from the relevant other financial institutions the claims in relation to the relevant settlement obligations or assumed the relevant other settlement obligations); hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph) have, prior to the occurrence of an insured event in relation to the relevant financial institution, concluded a contract, under which the whole or part of the settlement obligations owed to each other will be extinguished by way of continuous set-off thereof, if the settlement obligations subject to the relevant contract arose after the relevant financial institution's insolvency, etc. (meaning insolvency (meaning the condition in which the relevant financial institution, due to the lack of ability to pay, is generally and continuously unable to pay its debts as they become due), suspension of payments, or a petition for the commencement of bankruptcy proceedings, commencement of reorganization proceedings, commencement of rehabilitation proceedings or commencement of special liquidation; hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph) and there has been a decision in relation to the relevant financial institution for the provision of a loan under paragraph (1) of the preceding Article (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 127), the relevant settlement creditors may, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 517 and Article 518 of the Companies Act, Article 71 and Article 72 of the Bankruptcy Act, Article 49 and Article 49-2 of the Corporate Reorganization Act (including cases where these provisions are applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 35 of the Act on Special Measures for the Reorganization Proceedings of Financial Institutions) and Article 93 and Article 93-2 of the Civil Rehabilitation Act, set off the settlement obligations specified in the following items that are owed by the relevant financial institution in relation to claims held by the creditors against the settlement obligations owed by the creditors prescribed in the item:

- (i) the settlement obligations that arose prior to the insolvency, etc.: the settlement obligations owed to the relevant financial institution (excluding those based on a cause that arose prior to the relevant insolvency, etc.) that arose between the time of the insolvency, etc. and a ruling for the commencement of bankruptcy proceedings, commencement of reorganization proceedings, or commencement of rehabilitation proceedings, or an order for commencement of special liquidation (hereinafter referred to as "ruling for commencement of bankruptcy proceedings, etc." in this item) in relation to the relevant insolvency, etc., or the settlement obligations owed to the relevant financial institution that arose after the relevant ruling for commencement of bankruptcy proceedings, etc.; and
- (ii) the settlement obligations that arose after the relevant insolvency, etc.: the settlement obligations owed to the relevant financial institution.

- (2) The provisions of Article 653 of the Civil Code do not apply to a consignment contract concluded by the relevant financial institution in relation to the settlement obligations.
- (3) When a decision has been made to loan funds under paragraph (1) of the preceding Article to a failed financial institution that has become subject to an order for commencement of special liquidation, the court may, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 500, paragraph (1) and Article 537, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act, in response to a application filed by the relevant failed financial institution, grant permission for the repayment of the settlement obligations prescribed in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article.
- (4) The court must, upon granting the permission under the preceding paragraph, specify the types of the settlement obligations to be repaid, limit of the amount of repayment, and period of repayment (in the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, the last day of the relevant period must precede the date of notice under Article 549, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act).
- (5) When specifying the types of the settlement obligations to be repaid, limit of the amount of repayment, and period of repayment under the preceding paragraph, the court must hear the opinion of the DICJ in advance.

Chapter IV Purchase of Deposits and Other Claims

(Purchase of Deposits and Other Claims)

- Article 70 (1) In the cases prescribed in Article 57, paragraph (1) (including cases where the DICJ finds it necessary for the protection of the depositors, etc. of a financial institution subject to a category-one insured event), the DICJ may, following a resolution by the board, decide to purchase deposits and other claims in relation to an insured event prescribed in each item of Article 57, paragraph (1) (meaning claims in relation to the deposits, etc. held by the depositors, etc. in the financial institution subject to the insured event (excluding the deposits, etc. specified by Cabinet Order) that are not subject to a security interest; the same applies hereinafter).
- (2) The purchase under the preceding paragraph will be made within the purchase period publicly announced under Article 72, paragraph (1) or (3), upon request by the depositors, etc. who hold deposits and other claims in relation to the insured event prescribed in the preceding paragraph based on an approximate estimate of the relevant deposits and other claims; provided, however, that in the event that the DICJ has collected the deposits and other claims in relation to the purchase, if an amount obtained by deducting from the amount so collected the amount of costs specified by Cabinet Order as being required for the relevant purchase exceeds the amount equivalent to estimated proceeds payment in relation to the relevant purchase, the DICJ is to pay the excess to the relevant depositors, etc.

- (3) The amount of estimated proceeds payment prescribed in the preceding paragraph is calculated by deducting from the amount of deposits and other claims to be purchased by the DICJ from the depositors, etc. the amount of interest, distribution of profits and any other amount equivalent thereto specified by Cabinet Order corresponding to the period between the date of the insured event and the date of the relevant purchase, and multiplying the amount thus calculated by a rate determined by the DICJ under paragraph (1) of the following Article (hereinafter referred to as "estimated proceeds payment rate").
- (4) The provisions of Article 53, paragraph (3) apply mutatis mutandis to the payment of an amount equivalent to estimated proceeds payment in relation to the purchase under paragraph (2) (hereinafter referred to as "estimated proceeds payment").
- (5) When the DICJ finds that the depositors, etc. did not make a request within the purchase period prescribed in paragraph (2) due to natural disaster or any other unavoidable reason, the DICJ may, notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (2), purchase deposits and other claims of the relevant depositors, etc. even after the lapse of the relevant purchase period.

(Estimated Proceeds Payment Rate)

- Article 71 (1) In making a decision under paragraph (1) of the preceding Article, the DICJ must, following a resolution of the board, specify the estimated proceeds payment rate for the purchase in relation to the relevant decision and obtain the authorization of the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance for the relevant decision.
- (2) When making a decision on the estimated proceeds payment rate under the preceding paragraph, the board must take into consideration, in light of the financial conditions of the financial institution in relation to the decision under paragraph (1) of the preceding Article, the expected amount of payment to be received for deposits and other claims in relation to the relevant financial institution in the event that it becomes subject to bankruptcy proceedings, and give due consideration to the efficient use of the DICJ's assets.
 - (3) When granting the authorization set forth in paragraph (1), the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance must obtain consent from the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare if the relevant financial institution is a labor bank or Rokinren banks, and must obtain consent from the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry if the relevant financial institution is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd.

(Public Notices of Purchases)

- Article 72 (1) Upon receiving the authorization set forth in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article, the DICJ must, following a resolution by the board, promptly specify the period, location, and method of the estimated proceeds payment in relation to the purchase of deposits and other claims and other particulars specified by Cabinet Order and give public notice thereof together with the estimated proceeds payment rate in relation to the relevant authorization.
- (2) If, after giving public notice under the preceding paragraph, there is public notice under Article 197, paragraph (1) of the Bankruptcy Act (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 209, paragraph (3) of the relevant Act), notice under Article 137-2, paragraph (2), or any other event specified by Cabinet Order with respect to the relevant financial institution, the DICJ may, pursuant to Cabinet Order provisions, change the purchase period that was publicly announced under the provisions of the preceding paragraph.
- (3) If the DICJ has changed the payment period under the preceding paragraph, the DICJ must give public notice of particulars in relation to the relevant change without delay.
- (4) When making payment under the proviso to Article 70, paragraph (2), the DICJ must, following a resolution of the board, specify the amount and period of payment and other particulars specified by Cabinet Order and give public notice thereof in advance.
- (5) The provisions of Article 56, paragraph (4) apply mutatis mutandis to cases where the DICJ has specified the particulars prescribed in paragraph (1), changed the purchase period under paragraph (2), and specified the matters prescribed in the preceding paragraph.

(Taxation)

Article 73 (1) In the event that depositors, etc. have received the estimated proceeds payment for the deposits and other claims which they hold (excluding those in relation to the long-term credit bank bonds, etc. issued by means of a discount, among those listed in Article 2, paragraph (2), item (v); hereinafter the same applies in this Article), if the amount of the relevant estimated proceeds payment (hereinafter referred to as "amount of estimated proceeds payment" in this Article) is equal to or less than the amount specified by Cabinet Order as the amount of principal of the relevant deposits and other claims on the date of the relevant estimated proceeds payment (hereinafter referred to as "amount of principal on the reference date" in this Article), the amount of estimated proceeds payment will be deemed to be the amount of principal to be repaid with respect to the relevant deposits and other claims, and in the event that the amount of estimated proceeds payment exceeds the amount of principal on the reference date, the portion of the relevant amount

Chapter V Management by Financial Administrators

(Order to Manage Business and Assets)

Article 74 (1) In cases where the Prime Minister (in the event that a financial institution in relation to the order prescribed in this paragraph is a labor bank or Rokinren banks, the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that the financial institution is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd., the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry; the same applies in the following paragraph, paragraph (4) (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to paragraph (2) of the following Article), paragraph (5), paragraph (1) of the following Article, Article 77, paragraphs (2) through (4), Article 79, paragraph (1) (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 79, paragraph (3)), Article 80, Article 84, paragraph (1), and Article 90) finds that a financial institution is unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets, or that, in light of the status of its business affairs or assets, a financial institution is likely to suspend refund of deposits, etc. or a financial institution has suspended refund of deposits, etc., and that any of the following requirements is satisfied, the Prime Minister may order that the business and assets of the relevant financial institution be placed under the management of a financial administrator (hereinafter referred to as "order to manage"):

- (i) the conducting of the relevant financial institution's business is particularly inappropriate; or
 - (ii) if a merger, etc. is not carried out for the financial institution pertaining thereto and the failed financial institution discontinues all of its business affairs or is dissolved, it is likely to cause considerable detriment to the smooth supply and demand of funds and convenience of consumers in the region or fields in which the relevant failed financial institution conducts its business.
- (2) Upon receiving notification from a financial institution that a situation is likely to arise in which the financial institution is unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets, the Prime Minister may, when finding that the relevant situation is likely to arise and any of the requirements specified in the preceding paragraph are satisfied, issue the order to manage with respect to the relevant financial institution.
- (3) A financial institution (excluding failed financial institutions) that has become subject to the order to manage under the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs will be deemed to be a failed financial institution for the purpose of the application of this Act.
- (4) Upon issuing the order to manage, the Prime Minister must give public notice thereof in the Official Gazette.
- (5) A financial institution must, if it is unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets or is likely to suspend the refunding of deposits, etc. in light of the status of its business or assets, give written notification of the fact and reasons thereof to the Prime Minister.

(Rescission of Order to Manage)

- Article 75 (1) The Prime Minister must rescind the order to manage, when finding that there is no longer any need for the relevant order to manage.
- (2) The provisions of paragraph (4) of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to the case referred to in the preceding paragraph.

(Prohibition of Shareholder Name Changes)

- Article 76 (1) In the event that a financial institution under management is a bank, etc. or The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd., the Prime Minister may, when finding it necessary, prohibit any entry of a change of the name of a shareholder.

(2) For the purpose of applying the provisions of the preceding paragraph, in the event that a financial institution under management set forth in the preceding paragraph is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. as prescribed in the same paragraph, the term "the Prime Minister" will be deemed to be "the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry."

(Appointment of Financial Administrators)

Article 77 (1) When an order to manage has been issued, the right to represent a financial institution under management, conduct its business, and manage and dispose of its assets will be vested exclusively in a financial administrator. The same applies to the rights of a director and executive officer (in the event that the financial institution under management is a Shinkin bank, etc., a director) prescribed in Article 828, paragraphs (1) and (2) of the Companies Act (including cases where these provisions are applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 28 of the Shinkin Bank Act, Article 52-2 (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 58, paragraph (7) of the same Act) and Article 61-7 of the same Act, Article 32 of the Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises Cooperatives Act, Article 57 (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 57-3, paragraph (6) of the same Act) and Article 67 of the same Act, Article 28 of the Labor Bank Act, Article 57-2 (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 62, paragraph (7) of the same Act) and Article 65 of the same Act), and Article 831 of the Companies Act (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 24, paragraph (10) and Article 48-8 of the Shinkin Bank Act, Article 27, paragraph (8), Article 54, Article 82, paragraph (4) and Article 82-10, paragraph (4) of the Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises Cooperatives Act, and Article 24, paragraph (11) and Article 54 of the Labor Bank Act).

(2) The Prime Minister must, at the time of issuing an order to manage, appoint one or more financial administrators.

(3) The Prime Minister may, when finding it necessary, appoint another financial administrator after the appointment of a financial administrator under the preceding paragraph, or, when finding that the financial administrator has failed to properly manage the business and assets of the financial institution under management, dismiss the financial administrator.

(4) The Prime Minister must, if they have appointed or dismissed a financial administrator under paragraph (2) or the preceding paragraph, notify the financial institution under management to that effect and give public notice thereof in the Official Gazette.

(5) The provisions of Article 69, Article 70, Article 80, and Article 81, paragraphs

(1) and (5) of the Corporate Reorganization Act apply mutatis mutandis to a financial administrator and the provisions of Article 78 of the Act on General Incorporated Associations and General Incorporated Foundations apply mutatis mutandis to a financial institution under management. In this case, the term "the permission of the court" in Article 69, paragraph (1) of the Corporate Reorganization Act will be deemed to be replaced with "approval from the Prime Minister" (in the event that the financial institution under the management of the financial administrator is a labor bank or Rokinren banks, of the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that the financial institution is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd., of the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry; the same applies hereinafter), the term "trustee representative" in Article 70 of the same Act will be deemed to be replaced with "financial administrator representative," the term "the permission of the court" in Article 70, paragraph (2) of the same Act will be deemed to be replaced with "approval from the Prime Minister," the term "the court" in Article 81, paragraph (1) of the same Act will be deemed to be replaced with "the Prime Minister," the term "trustee representative" in Article 81, paragraph (5) of the same Act will be deemed to be replaced with "financial administrator representative," and the term "representative director and other representatives" in Article 78 of the Act on General Incorporated Associations and General Incorporated Foundations will be deemed to be replaced with "financial administrator."

Article 78 (1) A corporation may be appointed as a financial administrator or financial administrator representative.

(2) The DICJ may be appointed as a financial administrator or financial administrator representative and carry out the business thereof.

(Notice and Registration)

Article 79 (1) The Prime Minister must, when they have issued an order to manage or rescinded an order to manage, immediately notify the district court which has jurisdiction over the location of the head office or principal office of the financial institution under management to that effect, attach a transcript of the written order to a written commission, and commission its registration in the registry office which has jurisdiction over the location of the head office or principal office of the financial institution under management.

(2) The registration under the preceding paragraph must include the name and address of a financial administrator.

(3) The provisions of paragraph (1) apply mutatis mutandis to cases where any changes occur to the particulars specified in the preceding paragraph.

(Submission of Reports or Materials)

Article 80 The Prime Minister may, if they find it necessary, request a financial administrator to submit reports or materials with regard to the status of business and assets, etc. of a financial institution under management or order a financial administrator to prepare and submit a plan for its management and take other necessary measures.

(Investigation of Financial Administrators)

(3) In a financial institution under management, resolutions of a shareholders meeting under Article 309, paragraph (4) of the Companies Act may, notwithstanding the provisions of the same paragraph, be made provisionally by a majority of the shareholders present and three-quarters or more of the votes held by the shareholders present.

(4) In the event that a resolution or decision is provisionally made under paragraph (1) (hereinafter referred to as "provisional resolution, etc." in this paragraph and the following paragraph), the financial institution under management must notify its shareholders, etc. of the purpose of the relevant provisional resolution, etc. and must call a subsequent shareholders meeting, etc. (meaning the shareholders meeting, etc. prescribed in Article 66, paragraph (2); the same applies in the following paragraph and paragraph (6) of the following Article) within one month of the date of adoption of the relevant provisional resolution, etc.

- (5) In the event that a provisional resolution is approved by a majority as prescribed in paragraph (1) at a shareholders meeting, etc. under the preceding paragraph, a resolution or decision in relation to the matters of the relevant provisional resolution, etc. will be deemed to have existed when the relevant approval was given.
- (6) The provisions of the preceding two paragraphs apply mutatis mutandis to cases where a resolution is provisionally made under paragraph (2). In this case, the term "a majority prescribed in paragraph (1)" in the preceding paragraph will be deemed to be replaced with "a majority as prescribed in paragraph (2)."
- (7) The provisions of paragraphs (4) and (5) apply mutatis mutandis to cases where a resolution is provisionally made under paragraph (3). In this case, the term "a majority as prescribed in paragraph (1)" in paragraph (5) will be deemed to be replaced with "a majority as prescribed in paragraph (3)."

(Permission in Lieu of Extraordinary Resolutions of Shareholders Meetings)

Article 87 (1) In the event that a financial institution under management that is a bank, etc. or The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. is unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets, the relevant financial institution under management may, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 111, paragraph (2), Article 171, paragraph (1), Article 199, paragraph (2), Article 447, paragraph (1), Article 466, Article 467, paragraph (1), items (i) through (ii)-2, Article 471, item (iii), Article 783, paragraph (1), and Article 804, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act, carry out the following with the permission of the court:

- (i) amendment of the articles of incorporation necessary for the issuance of class shares subject to wholly call (meaning the class shares subject to wholly call prescribed in Article 171, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act; the same applies in Article 126-13, paragraph (1), item (i)), acquisition of all of the relevant class shares subject to wholly call, or determination of the subscription requirements prescribed in Article 199, paragraph (2) of the same Act in relation to the issuance of the shares for subscription prescribed in paragraph (1) of the same Article conducted together with the relevant acquisition;
- (ii) reduction in the amount of stated capital;
- (iii) transfer of all or a material portion of its business;
- (iv) assignment of all or part of the shares or equity interest of its subsidiary company;
- (v) dissolution; and

- (vi) company split.
- (2) In the event that a financial institution under management that is a Shinkin bank, etc. is unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets, the relevant financial institution under management may, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 48-3 and Article 58, paragraph (1) of the Shinkin Bank Act, Article 53 and Article 57-3, paragraph (1) of the Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises Cooperatives Act, and Article 53 and Article 62, paragraph (1) of the Labor Bank Act, carry out the following with permission by the court:
- (i) dissolution; and
 - (ii) transfer of its business.
- (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 339, paragraph (1) (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis by replacing the terms pursuant to the provisions of Article 347, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act) and Article 403, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act, Article 35-8, paragraph (1), of the Shinkin Bank Act, Article 42, paragraph (1) of the Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises Cooperatives Act, and Article 37-6, paragraph (1) of the Labor Bank Act, a financial administrator may, with the permission of the court, dismiss a director, accounting advisor, corporate auditor or accounting auditor of a financial institution under management (in the event that the financial institution under management is a company with an audit and supervisory committee, a director who is an audit and supervisory committee member or another director, accounting advisor or accounting auditor, in the event that the financial institution under management is a company with a nominating committee, etc., a director, executive officer, accounting advisor or accounting auditor, and in the event that the financial institution under management is a Shinkin bank, etc., a director, inspector or accounting auditor; the same applies in the following paragraph).
- (4) In the event that a financial administrator intends to dismiss any director, accounting advisor, corporate auditor or accounting auditor of a financial institution under management under the preceding paragraph, if the number of directors, accounting advisors, corporate auditors or accounting auditors fails to meet the number prescribed by an Act or by the articles of incorporation, the financial administrator may, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 329, paragraph (1) and Article 402, paragraph (2) of the Companies Act, Article 32, paragraph (3) of the Shinkin Bank Act, Article 35, paragraph (3) of the Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises Cooperatives Act, and Article 32, paragraph (3) of the Labor Bank Act, appoint a director, accounting advisor, corporate auditor or accounting auditor of the financial institution under management with permission from the court.
- (5) The director, accounting advisor, corporate auditor and accounting auditor of a financial institution under management appointed under the preceding paragraph will resign at the conclusion of the first annual shareholders meeting or ordinary general meeting (in cases where a general meeting of representatives is established, at which it is possible to appoint officers, the ordinary general meeting of representatives) convened after the conclusion of the management by the financial administrator in relation to the relevant financial institution under management, and an executive officer will resign at the completion of the first meeting of the board of directors held after the relevant annual shareholders meeting.

- (6) When the permission prescribed in paragraphs (1) through (4) has been granted (hereinafter referred to as "substituted permission" in this Article and the following Article), it will be deemed that a resolution of a shareholders meeting, etc. or board of directors meeting has been adopted concerning matters in relation to the relevant substituted permission.
- (7) The district court which has jurisdiction over the location of the head office or principal office of a financial institution under management has jurisdiction over cases in relation to the substituted permission.
- (8) The court must, when it has made a substituted permission, serve a written decision thereof on the financial institution under management and give public notice of the outline of the decision.
- (9) The public notice under the preceding paragraph will be published in the Official Gazette.
- (10) A decision on the substituted permission takes effect as of the time of service thereof on the financial institution under management under paragraph (8).
- (11) Shareholders, members, or association members may make an immediate appeal against a decision on the substituted permission within an unextendable period of two weeks from the date of the public notice set forth in paragraph (8). In this case, if the immediate appeal is against a decision on the substituted permission in relation to dissolution, it has the effect of a stay of execution.
- (12) The provisions of Article 5, Article 6, Article 7, paragraph (2), Article 40, Article 41, Article 56, paragraph (2), and Article 66, paragraphs (1) and (2) of the Non-Contentious Cases Procedures Act (Act No. 51 of 2011) do not apply to cases in relation to the substituted permission.

(Special Provisions for Registration Regarding Substituted Permission)

Article 88 In the event that a substituted permission in relation to particulars specified in paragraph (1), item (i), (ii), (v), or (vi) or paragraph (2), item (i) of the preceding Article or matters prescribed in paragraph (3) or (4) of the preceding Article, a transcript or extract of a written decision of the relevant substituted permission must be attached to a written application for registration in relation to the relevant particulars.

(Special Provisions for Procedures for the Protection of Creditors)

Article 89 In the event that a financial institution under management that is a bank, etc. or The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. has adopted a resolution for reduction in the amount of stated capital, the notice prescribed in Article 449, paragraph (2) of the Companies Act is not required to be given to the depositors, etc. or any other creditors specified by Cabinet Order.

(Conclusion of Management)

Article 90 A financial administrator is to conclude the management of a financial institution under management by transferring its business or taking other measures within one year from the date of the order to manage; provided, however, that in cases where it is impossible to conclude the management within the period due to unavoidable circumstances, the period may be extended for a period not exceeding one year with approval from the Prime Minister.

Chapter VI Succession of the Business of Failed Financial Institutions

(Decisions to Establish a Bridge Bank)

Article 91 (1) The Prime Minister may, when finding it necessary to use a bridge bank for the succession of business of a financial institution under management (meaning the succession of business by a bridge bank through the assumption of business, etc. and the provisional maintaining and continuation of the business by the bridge bank; hereinafter the same applies in this Chapter), make the following decisions:

- (i) that a bridge bank be established by the DICJ as a subsidiary company to carry out the assumption of business, etc. in order to succeed to the business of a financial institution under management; and
- (ii) that a bridge bank should carry out the assumption of business, etc. in order to succeed to the business of a financial institution under management.

(2) The Prime Minister may, when finding it necessary, rescind or modify a decision under the preceding paragraph.

(3) A financial administrator may, when finding it necessary, request the Prime Minister to make a decision under paragraph (1) or the preceding paragraph.

(Establishment of Bridge Banks)

Article 92 (1) When a decision prescribed in paragraph (1), item (i) of the preceding Article is made under paragraph (1) or (2) of the preceding Article, the DICJ must, following a resolution by the board on the details of contribution in relation to the relevant decision, become the incorporator of a stock company that is to become a bridge bank, and provide contribution for the incorporation of the relevant stock company as a subsidiary company of the DICJ.

- (2) Beyond the case prescribed in the preceding paragraph, any contribution by the DICJ to the bridge bank requires a resolution by the board.
- (3) Upon providing the contribution prescribed in the preceding two paragraphs, the DICJ must promptly report the details thereof to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance.

(Confirmation of Succeeded Assets)

Article 93 (1) When a decision specified in Article 91, paragraph (1), item (ii) is made under Article 91, paragraph (1) or (2), a financial administrator of the financial institution under management is to select loan claims and other assets of the relevant financial institution under management to be succeeded to by the bridge bank pursuant to the succession of the business prescribed in Article 91, paragraph (1) and request the Prime Minister to confirm that they are appropriate assets to be held by the bridge bank.

- (2) Upon receiving the request prescribed in the preceding paragraph, the Prime Minister is to carry out the confirmation under the preceding paragraph from the viewpoint of facilitating the smooth succession of the business and ensuring the sound and appropriate running of the business of the bridge bank.
- (3) The Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance must prescribe standards in advance for carrying out the confirmation under the preceding paragraph and make the standards public.
- (4) The standards prescribed in the preceding paragraph must include standards concerning the status of performance by an obligor of obligations in relation to claims subject to the confirmation prescribed in paragraph (2).

(Management of Bridge Banks)

Article 94 (1) The DICJ must manage the bridge bank to ensure the proper performance of the following:

- (i) to carry out the assumption of business, etc. in order to succeed to the business of the financial institution under management that is subject to the relevant decision, when a decision specified in Article 91, paragraph (1), item (ii) is made under Article 91, paragraph (1) or (2);
 - (ii) to succeed to the assets that have been confirmed under paragraph (2) of the preceding Article as appropriate assets to be held by a bridge bank; and
 - (iii) to comply with the guidelines prescribed in the following paragraph in administering the receipt and payment of the deposits, etc., loaning funds, and carrying out other operations.
- (2) The DICJ must prepare guidelines for the administration of receipt and payment of the deposits, etc., loan of funds, and other operations of a bridge bank in accordance with the following and, following approval from the Prime Minister, make the guidelines public:

- (i) the guidelines will be prepared, taking into account that the purpose of a bridge bank is to facilitate the provisional maintaining and continuation of the administration of receipt and payment of the deposits, etc., loan of funds, and other operations, giving consideration to ensuring consistency with the standards prescribed in paragraph (3) of the preceding Article, and with a view to ensuring the sound and appropriate operation of the business of a bridge bank; and
 - (ii) the guidelines will include a statement of matters approved by the DICJ concerning transactions designated by the DICJ among the loan of funds and other operations to be carried out by a bridge bank.
- (3) The DICJ may give instructions and advice necessary for the management of a bridge bank.

(Cases Where Approval for a Transfer of Business Is not Required)

Article 95 The provisions of Article 467, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act (limited to the part in relation to item (v)) do not apply to the assets for which confirmation has been rendered under Article 93, paragraph (2) in the event that all of the issued shares of the bridge bank are held by the DICJ.

(Conclusion of Management)

Article 96 (1) The DICJ is to conclude the management of a bridge bank within two years from the date of the order to manage of the first financial institution under management for which the bridge bank receives the transfer of business by taking the following measures; provided, however, that if the management cannot be concluded within the period due to unavoidable circumstances, the time limit may be extended for a period not exceeding one year:

- (i) the merger of the relevant bridge bank (limited to a merger where the corporation surviving the merger or corporation established by the merger is not a subsidiary company of the DICJ);
- (ii) transfer of the whole of the business of the relevant bridge bank;
- (iii) transfer of shares of the relevant bridge bank (limited to a transfer through which the bridge bank will cease to be a subsidiary company of the DICJ);
- (iv) company split of the relevant bridge bank (limited to a company split where another company or a company established through the company split succeeds to all of the rights and obligations held by the relevant bridge bank in relation to its business through the company split, and where that other company or the relevant company established through the company split is

- neither a subsidiary company of the DICJ nor a subsidiary company of the bridge bank); and
- (v) dissolution of the relevant bridge bank by resolution of a shareholders meeting.
- (2) The DICJ must, if it intends to conclude management under the main clause of the preceding paragraph or extend the time limit under the proviso to the preceding paragraph, obtain approval from the Prime Minister.
 - (3) The DICJ must, when it has concluded the management of a bridge bank under paragraph (1) or transferred or made another disposal of shares of a bridge bank (including a bank that was formerly a bridge bank) (excluding those specified in paragraph (1), item (iii)), must promptly report to that effect to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance.
 - (4) The "subsidiary company of the bridge bank" set forth in paragraph (1), item (iv) means a company of which voting rights exceeding fifty hundredths of the voting rights held by all of its shareholders (excluding voting rights relating to shares held by shareholders who may not exercise their voting rights for all of the matters which may be resolved at a shareholders meeting but including voting rights relating to shares for which holders are deemed to have voting rights pursuant to the provisions of Article 879, paragraph (3) of the Companies Act; hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph and Article 120, paragraph (5)) are held by the bridge bank.

(Succession Agreements)

- Article 97 (1) The DICJ is to conclude an agreement with the bridge bank, and the following will be included in the agreement (hereinafter referred to as "succession agreement" in this Chapter):
- (i) that the bridge bank that has concluded the succession agreement (hereinafter referred to as "contracted bridge bank") will carry out the actions specified in each item of Article 94, paragraph (1);
 - (ii) that the contracted bridge bank may apply to have the DICJ purchase the assets of the contracted bridge bank; and
 - (iii) that the contracted bridge bank will, if it seeks to conclude a contract concerning the borrowing of funds subject to the guarantee of obligations prescribed in paragraph (1) of the following Article, obtain approval from the DICJ for the content of the contract.
- (2) Upon concluding the succession agreement, the DICJ must immediately report the details thereof to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance.

(Guarantee of Loans of Funds and Obligations)

- Article 98 (1) In the event that the DICJ has received an application from a contracted bridge bank for a loan of funds necessary to ensure the smooth execution of its business or for a guarantee of obligations in relation to the borrowing of the funds by the contracted bridge bank, the DICJ may, when it finds it necessary, provide the relevant loan or guarantee of obligations, following a resolution by the board.

(2) When the DICJ has concluded a contract with a contracted bridge bank under the preceding paragraph for a loan or guarantee of obligations prescribed therein, the DICJ must immediately report the details of the contract to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance.

(Compensation for Losses)

Article 99 When any loss is caused to a contracted bridge bank, the amount of which is calculated pursuant to Cabinet Order provisions, as a result of operations carried out under the succession agreement, the DICJ may, following a resolution by the board, compensate the contracted bridge bank for the relevant loss within the scope of the amount prescribed in the Cabinet Order.

(Requests for Reports)

Article 100 The DICJ may, when it finds it necessary for carrying out the operations prescribed in this Chapter, request the bridge bank to report on the implementation of the succession agreement or financial conditions in connection therewith.

(Financial Assistance to Re-succeeding Financial Institutions)

Article 101 (1) A financial institution that is undertaking re-succession of business and is not a bridge bank (hereinafter referred to as "re-succeeding financial institution" in this Article), or a bank holding company, etc. undertaking a re-succession of business (hereinafter referred to as a "re-succeeding bank holding company, etc." in this Article) may apply to have the DICJ provide financial assistance (limited to that specified in Article 59, paragraph (1), item (iii), (vi) or (vii)) to support the re-succession of business.

(2) The term "re-succession of business" as used in the preceding paragraph means the following:

- (i) a merger in which a financial institution that merges with a bridge bank survives;
- (ii) a merger in which a financial institution is established through the merger of a bridge bank and another financial institution;
- (iii) a transfer by a bridge bank of all of its business (in the event that the DICJ purchases part of the assets of the relevant bridge bank, excluding the portion in relation to the assets to be purchased) to another financial institution;

- (iv) the acquisition of shares of a bridge bank by another financial institution or bank holding company, etc. conducted to carry out affairs specified by the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance as those necessary to ensure sound and appropriate conducting of the business of the relevant bridge bank;
 - (v) an absorption-type company split to which a bridge bank is a party where another financial institution succeeds to all of the rights and obligations held by the bridge bank in relation to its business (in the event that the DICJ purchases part of the assets of the relevant bridge bank, excluding the portion in relation to the assets to be purchased) through the relevant absorption-type company split; and
 - (vi) an incorporation-type company split to which a bridge bank is a party where the financial institution newly established through the relevant incorporation-type company split succeeds to all of the rights and obligations held by the bridge bank in relation to its business (in the event that the DICJ purchases part of the assets of the relevant bridge bank, excluding the portion in relation to the assets to be purchased) through the relevant absorption-type company split.
- (3) The purchase of assets prescribed in paragraph (1) will be conducted with respect to the assets prescribed in each of the following items according to the category of the re-succession of business specified in each respective item:
- (i) a merger specified in item (i) of the preceding paragraph: the assets of the financial institution surviving through the merger (limited to those that were the assets of the bridge bank prior to the merger);
 - (ii) a merger specified in item (ii) of the preceding paragraph: the assets of the financial institution that will be established by the merger (limited to those that were the assets of the bridge bank prior to the merger);
 - (iii) the transfer of the business specified in item (iii) of the preceding paragraph: the assets of another financial institution prescribed in the same item that have been received through the transfer of the relevant business;
 - (iv) the acquisition of shares specified in item (iv) of the preceding paragraph: the assets of the bank whose shares have been acquired;
 - (v) the absorption-type company split specified in item (v) of the preceding paragraph: the assets of another financial institution set forth in the same item which the relevant financial institution has succeeded to through the absorption-type company split; and
 - (vi) the incorporation-type company split specified in item (vi) of the preceding paragraph: the assets of the financial institution established through the incorporation-type company split (limited to those that were assets of the bridge bank prior to the incorporation-type company split).
- (4) The collateralization of damage prescribed specified in paragraph (1) will be conducted with respect to loan claims that are the assets prescribed in each item of the preceding paragraph according to the category of the re-succession of business specified in each respective item of the preceding paragraph.

- (5) The provisions of Article 59, paragraphs (3), (6) and (7) and Article 61, paragraph (1) apply mutatis mutandis to the application under paragraph (1), and the provisions of Article 61, paragraphs (2) through (4) and (6) through (8) apply mutatis mutandis to the confirmation prescribed in Article 61, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this paragraph. In this case, the term "assuming financial institution" in Article 59, paragraph (3) will be deemed to be replaced with "re-succeeding financial institution," and the terms "merger, etc.," "failed financial institution," "assuming financial institution," and "assuming bank holding company, etc." in Article 61 will be deemed to be replaced with "re-succession of business," "bridge bank," "re-succeeding financial institution," and "re-succeeding bank holding company, etc.," respectively.
- (6) Even in cases where no application is made under Article 61, paragraph (2) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the preceding paragraph, the Prime Minister may, when the minister finds that a bridge bank satisfies the requirements specified in paragraph (3), item (iii) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the preceding paragraph, provide mediation in writing with regard to the re-succession of business (excluding the merger specified in paragraph (2), item (ii) and limited to those that contribute to the protection of depositors, etc. and other creditors and for which financial assistance by the DICJ is indispensable) between the relevant bridge bank and another financial institution or the relevant bridge bank and a bank holding company, etc.
- (7) The provisions of Article 62, paragraphs (2) and (4) through (6) apply mutatis mutandis to the mediation prescribed in the preceding paragraph; the provisions of Article 64 (excluding paragraph (2)) and Article 64-2 apply mutatis mutandis to the application under paragraph (1); the provisions of Article 64-3, paragraph (1) apply mutatis mutandis to a re-succeeding financial institution or a bridge bank whose shares are acquired as set forth in paragraph (2), item (iv) by a re-succeeding bank holding company, etc.; the provisions of Article 64-3, paragraph (2) apply mutatis mutandis to a re-succeeding financial institution, a Re-succeeding bank holding company, etc., or a financial institution established by the merger set forth in paragraph (2), item (ii) or the incorporation-type company split set forth in item (vi) of the same paragraph to which the DICJ provides the financial assistance (limited to those in relation to the subscription for subordinated bonds (limited to those with share options)); the provisions of Article 65 and Article 66 apply mutatis mutandis to the financial institution or bank holding company, etc. that has received the confirmation prescribed in Article 61, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to paragraph (5) or that has received the mediation prescribed in the preceding paragraph; the provisions of Article 67 apply mutatis mutandis to the re-succeeding financial institution; the provisions of Article 68 apply mutatis mutandis to the financial assistance provided by the DICJ for re-succeSSION of business; the provisions of Articles 68-2 and 68-3 apply mutatis mutandis to the re-succeeding financial institution, etc. (meaning the re-succeeding financial institution (including a financial institution established by the merger or incorporation-type company split in relation to the subscription for preferred shares, etc.) or the re-succeeding bank holding company, etc. (including the company prescribed in Article 68-2, paragraph (2) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this paragraph in the event that an approval has been obtained under Article 68-2, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this paragraph, and the bridge financial institution, etc. prescribed in Article 68-3, paragraph (4) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this paragraph in the event that an approval has been obtained under Article 68-3, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this paragraph); hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph) that have received the relevant financial assistance (limited to those in relation to the subscription for preferred shares, etc.; hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph); and the provisions of Article 68-4 apply mutatis mutandis to special controlling shareholders of a re-succeeding financial institution, etc. to which the DICJ has provided the financial assistance and which has issued shares that are acquired preferred shares, etc. actually held by the DICJ or subordinated bonds (limited to those with share options). In this case, the term "Article 59, paragraph (1) or Article 59-2, paragraph (1)" in Article 62, paragraph (2) will be deemed to be replaced with "Article 101, paragraph (1)," the term "paragraphs (4) through (7)" in Article 62, paragraph (4) will be deemed to be replaced with "paragraphs (4), (6) and (7)," the term "a failed financial institution or a financial institution recognized as having a high probability of becoming a failed financial institution" in Article 62, paragraph (5) will be deemed to be replaced with "bridge bank," the term "merger, etc." in Article 64, paragraph (3) and (5) will be deemed to be replaced with "re-succeSSION of business affairs," the term "assuming financial institution" and "assuming bank holding company, etc." in Article 64-2, paragraphs (1) and (2) will be deemed to be replaced with "re-succeeding financial institution" and "re-succeeding bank holding company, etc.," respectively, and the term "merger, etc." in the same paragraph will be deemed to be replaced with "re-succeSSION of business affairs," the terms "merger, etc. (limited to those specified in Article 59, paragraph (2), item (ii))" and "the relevant merger, etc." in Article 64-2, paragraph (4) will be deemed to be replaced with "re-succeSSION of business affairs (limited to those specified in Article 101, paragraph (2), item (ii))" and "the relevant re-succession of business affairs," respectively, the terms "assuming financial institution" and "assuming bank holding company, etc." in Article 64-2, paragraph (5) will be deemed to be replaced with "re-succeeding financial institution" and "re-succeeding bank holding company, etc.," respectively, and the term "merger, etc." in Article 65 and Article 68 will be deemed to be replaced with "re-succession of business affairs," and any other necessary technical replacement of terms will be specified by Cabinet Order.

Chapter VI-2 Purchase of Specified, Difficult-To-Collect Claims Held by Financial Institutions

Article 101-2 (1) In order to contribute to maintaining an orderly credit system through ensuring sound financial conditions of financial institutions, the DICJ may purchase loan claims or assets specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance as being equivalent thereto (hereinafter simply referred to as "loan claims" in this paragraph) which are held by a financial institution (excluding a failed financial institution, a bridge bank, the bank under special crisis management prescribed in Article 111, paragraph (2), the financial institution subject to specified confirmation prescribed in Article 126-2, paragraph (1), item (ii) in relation to the specified measures under item (ii) prescribed in the paragraph, and a specified bridge bank; hereinafter the same applies in this Article) and of which the obligor or guarantor is a crime syndicate member (meaning the crime syndicate member prescribed in Article 2, item (vi) of the Act on Prevention of Unjust Acts by Organized Crime Group Members (Act No. 77 of 1991)) and for which there is a risk of non-compliance with the contract in relation to the loan claims, a likelihood that an act that will cause hindrance to the participation in an auction of secured real assets in relation to the loan claims will be conducted, or any other special circumstances that are likely to make it difficult for a financial institution to take necessary measures that should normally be implemented for collecting the loan claims (hereinafter referred to as "specified, difficult-to-collect claims").

(2) In cases where the DICJ is to purchase specified, difficult-to-collect claims under the preceding paragraph, it must comply with standards prescribed and publicly announced in advance by the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance.

(3) Upon receiving an application for the purchase of specified, difficult-to-collect claims from a financial institution, the DICJ must, following a resolution of the board, decide without delay whether or not to carry out the purchase of specified, difficult-to-collect claims in relation to the relevant application.

- (4) Upon making a decision under the preceding paragraph, the DICJ must immediately report particulars in relation to the decision to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance.
- (5) Upon making a decision to purchase specified, difficult-to-collect claims under paragraph (3), the DICJ must conclude a contract for the purchase of the specified, difficult-to-collect claims with the relevant financial institution.

Chapter VII Measures against a Financial Crisis

(Confirmation of Necessity for Measures against a Financial Crisis)

Article 102 (1) If the Prime Minister finds that, if the measures specified in each of the following items are not taken with respect to the financial institution specified in each respective item, it may seriously hinder maintaining an orderly credit system in Japan or in a certain region where the relevant financial institution conducts its business, the minister may, following deliberation by a council for financial crises (hereinafter referred to as the "council" in this Chapter through Chapter VIII), confirm the necessity to take the relevant measures (hereinafter referred to as a "confirmation" in this Chapter):

- (i) a financial institution (excluding the financial institution specified in the following item): the subscription for shares, etc. of the relevant financial institution by the DICJ for the purpose of enhancing the adequacy of equity capital of the relevant financial institution or subscription for shares issued by a bank holding company, etc. (limited to those specified in Article 2, paragraph (5), item (i) or (iii); hereinafter the same applies through to Article 108-3) with the relevant financial institution as its subsidiary company (meaning the subsidiary company prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (8) of the Banking Act or the subsidiary company prescribed in Article 13-2, paragraph (2) of the Long-Term Credit Bank Act; hereinafter the same applies through to Article 108-4) (hereinafter referred to as the "measures under item (i)" in this Chapter);
- (ii) a failed financial institution or a financial institution that is unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets: the financial assistance for an amount that is expected to exceed the expected costs for the payment of insurance proceeds with respect to an insured event of the relevant financial institution (hereinafter referred to as the "measures under item (ii)" in this Chapter); and
- (iii) a bank, etc. falling under a failed financial institution that is unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets: the measures prescribed in Articles 111 through 119 (hereinafter referred to as the "measures under item (iii)" in this Chapter).

- (2) If the Prime Minister intends to give confirmation with respect to a labor bank or Rokinren banks, the minister must hear the opinion of the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare in advance, and if the minister intend to give confirmation with respect to The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd., the minister must hear the opinion of the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry in advance.
- (3) If the Prime Minister intends to give confirmation with respect to any of the financial institutions listed in the items of paragraph (1) which is specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance, if the financial institution subject to the confirmation has issued bonds (limited to bonds with a special clause of subordinated contents with regard to the payment of principal and interest, where the obligations in relation to the relevant bonds will be written down or will be acquired by the financial institution on condition that the confirmation will be given, and which are specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance as bonds that contribute to ensuring sound financial conditions in light of the standards on the appropriateness of the adequacy of equity capital and any other financial conditions specified based on the Banking Act and any other laws and regulations) or shares (limited to shares with preferred contents with regard to dividend of surplus and distribution of residual assets, which will be acquired by the financial institution on condition that the confirmation will be given, and which are specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance as shares that contribute to ensuring sound financial conditions in light of the standards on the appropriateness of the adequacy of equity capital and any other financial conditions specified based on the Banking Act and any other laws and regulations), or has concluded loans for consumption (limited to loans with a special clause of subordinated contents with regard to the payment of principal and interest, where the obligations in relation to the relevant loans for consumption will be written down or the claims in relation to the relevant loans for consumption will be acquired by the financial institution on condition that the confirmation will be given, and which are specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance as loans for consumption that contribute to ensuring sound financial conditions in light of the standards on the appropriateness of the adequacy of equity capital and any other financial conditions specified based on the Banking Act and any other laws and regulations), the minister is to decide on the treatment of the relevant bonds, the relevant shares, or the relevant loans for consumption in the equity capital of the financial institution.
- (4) Confirmation in relation to the measures under item (iii) may not be given unless the Prime Minister finds that the measures under item (ii) cannot prevent the hindrance prescribed in paragraph (1).
- (5) When giving confirmation in relation to the measures under item (i), the Prime Minister must specify a period of time within which an application under Article 105, paragraph (1) or (2) can be made by a financial institution subject to the relevant confirmation or bank holding company, etc. which has the relevant financial institution as its subsidiary company.

- (6) Upon giving confirmation, the Prime Minister must announce that fact and, if the confirmation is in relation to the measures under item (i), the period of time specified under the preceding paragraph, to the financial institution subject to the relevant confirmation or bank holding company, etc. which has the relevant financial institution as its subsidiary company and the DICJ, and give public notice thereof in the Official Gazette.
- (7) Upon making a decision pursuant to paragraph (3), the Prime Minister must make the details thereof public.
- (8) Upon giving confirmation, the Prime Minister must report the details of the relevant confirmation to the Diet.

(Rescission of Confirmation Regarding Measures Under Item (i))

Article 103 (1) If, between the time of confirmation in relation to the measures under item (i) and the decision under Article 105, paragraph (4), a financial institution subject to the relevant confirmation comes to fall under the financial institution specified in paragraph (1), item (ii) of the preceding Article, the Prime Minister must, following deliberation by the Council, rescind the relevant confirmation.

- (2) The provisions of paragraphs (2), (6), and (8) of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to the rescission of the confirmation under the preceding paragraph.

(Submission of Plans Specifying Measures to Enhance the Adequacy of Equity Capital)

Article 104 (1) A financial institution subject to confirmation in relation to the measures under item (i) must, if the relevant financial institution and bank holding company, etc. which has the relevant financial institution as its subsidiary company do not make an application prescribed in paragraph (1) or (2) of the following Article, submit a plan to the Prime Minister within the period prescribed in Article 102, paragraph (5), setting forth measures to enhance the adequacy of equity capital by means other than the measures under item (i).

- (2) If the Prime Minister finds that the plan submitted under the preceding paragraph by the financial institution prescribed in the same paragraph is appropriate, the minister must following deliberation by the council, rescind the confirmation in relation to the relevant financial institution.
- (3) The provisions of Article 102, paragraphs (2), (6) and (8) apply mutatis

- mutandis to the rescission of confirmation under the preceding paragraph.
- (4) In the event that a financial institution subject to confirmation in relation to the measures under item (i) and bank holding company, etc. which has the relevant financial institution as its subsidiary company have not made an application prescribed in paragraph (1) or (2) of the following Article within the period prescribed in Article 102, paragraph (5), if the relevant financial institution does not submit the plan prescribed in paragraph (1) within the relevant period, the Prime Minister is to rescind the relevant confirmation.
 - (5) If the Prime Minister finds that the plan submitted by a financial institution under paragraph (1) is not appropriate, the minister is to rescind the relevant confirmation.
 - (6) If the Prime Minister intends to rescind the confirmation in relation to the measures under item (i) under the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs, the Prime Minister must hear the opinion of the Minister of Finance in advance.
 - (7) The provisions of Article 102, paragraphs (2), (6) and (8) apply mutatis mutandis to the rescission of the confirmation in relation to the measures under item (i) under paragraph (4) or (5).
 - (8) In the event that confirmation in relation to the measures under item (i) has been rescinded under paragraph (4) or (5), when a situation is likely to arise in which the financial institution subject to the relevant rescission is unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets, the Prime Minister may, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 102, paragraph (1), give the confirmation in relation to the measures under item (ii) with respect to the relevant financial institution, following deliberation by the council.
 - (9) The provisions of Article 102, paragraphs (2), (3), and (6) through (8) apply mutatis mutandis to the confirmation in relation to the measures under item (ii) prescribed in the preceding paragraph. In this case, the term "financial institution subject to the relevant confirmation or bank holding company, etc. which has the relevant financial institution as its subsidiary company" in Article 102, paragraph (6) will be deemed to be replaced with "financial institution subject to the relevant confirmation," and any other necessary technical replacement of terms will be specified by Cabinet Order.

(Decision for the Subscription for Shares)

Article 105 (1) In the event that confirmation in relation to the measures under item (i) has been given, when the DICJ has received an application in relation to the measures under item (i) (limited to the subscription for shares, etc. for the relevant financial institution; hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph) from the financial institution subject to the relevant confirmation within the period prescribed in Article 102, paragraph (5), the DICJ must

- request a decision from the Prime Minister (in the event that the financial institution is a labor bank or Rokinren banks, from the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that the financial institution is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd., from the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry; the same applies in paragraphs (3) through (6), Article 108, and Article 110, paragraph (1)) in joint name with the relevant financial institution as to whether or not to implement the measures under item (i) in relation to the relevant application.
- (2) In the event that confirmation in relation to the measures under item (i) has been given, when the DICJ has received an application in relation to the measures under item (i) from the bank holding company, etc. which has as its subsidiary company the financial institution subject to the relevant confirmation (limited to the subscription for shares issued by the relevant bank holding company, etc.; hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph) within the period prescribed in Article 102, paragraph (5), the DICJ must request a decision from the Prime Minister in joint name with the relevant bank holding company, etc. as to whether or not to implement the measures under item (i) in relation to the relevant application.
- (3) A financial institution that has made an application prescribed in paragraph (1) or a financial institution subject to the confirmation in relation to the measures under item (i) that is a subsidiary company of the bank holding company, etc. and has made an application prescribed in the preceding paragraph (hereinafter referred to as "subject subsidiary company" in this Chapter) must submit to the Prime Minister a management soundness improvement plan (meaning a plan to improve sound business management; hereinafter the same applies in this Chapter) setting forth measures to streamline the management and to establish a responsible management system (including, in the event that the bank holding company, etc. has made an application prescribed in the same paragraph, the management system of the relevant bank holding company, etc.) and other measures specified by Cabinet Order. In this case, the subject subsidiary company of the bank holding company, etc. that is to make an application prescribed in the same paragraph is to submit the plan in joint name with the relevant bank holding company, etc.
- (4) The Prime Minister is to decide to take the measures under item (i) in relation to an application prescribed in paragraph (1) or (2) only if all of the following requirements are satisfied:
- (i) there are no serious difficulties associated with the disposal of the shares, etc. (including the following) or loan claims acquired by the DICJ in connection with the measures under item (i):
 - (a) in the event that the shares, etc. refer only to shares, the shares specified below:

1. in the event that the relevant shares are those for which a request for conversion into shares of another class (meaning the delivery of shares of another class in exchange for the acquisition of the relevant shares by their issuing company; hereinafter the same applies in this Chapter) can be made, shares of another class into which the relevant shares are converted pursuant to the request;
 2. in the event that the relevant shares are convertible upon the occurrence of certain events, shares of another class into which the relevant shares are converted as a result of the occurrence; and
 3. shares split or consolidated with respect to the relevant shares or the shares of another class specified in 1 or 2;
- (b) in the event that the relevant shares, etc. are subordinated bonds, shares delivered through the exercise of share options attached to the relevant subordinated bonds and shares split or consolidated with respect thereto; and
- (c) in the event that the relevant shares, etc. are preferred equity investments, preferred equity investments split with respect to the relevant preferred equity investments;
- (ii) if a bank holding company, etc. has made an application prescribed in paragraph (2), the bank holding company, etc. is not unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets; and
- (iii) the financial institution is expected to implement the following measures through the reliable execution, etc. of management soundness improvement plan:
- (a) measures to ensure the rational management of business;
 - (b) measures to clarify management responsibilities; and
 - (c) measures to clarify shareholder responsibilities.
- (5) The Prime Minister must obtain consent from the Minister of Finance when making a decision under the preceding paragraph; provided, however, that this does not apply if the relevant decision relates to The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd.
- (6) Upon making a decision under paragraph (1) or (2), the Prime Minister must report the fact to the financial institution that has made the application prescribed in paragraph (1) or the bank holding company, etc. that has made the application prescribed in paragraph (2) and the DICJ.
- (7) If a decision is made to not implement the measures under item (i) in relation to an application prescribed in paragraph (1) or (2), the Prime Minister is to immediately rescind the confirmation in relation to the measures under item (i) with respect to the financial institution that has made the application prescribed in paragraph (1) or the subject subsidiary company of the bank holding company, etc. that has made the application prescribed in paragraph

(8) The provisions of Article 102, paragraphs (2), (6) and (8), and paragraphs (6) and (8) of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to the rescission of confirmation under the preceding paragraph in relation to the measures under item (i) and the provisions of paragraph (9) of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to confirmation in relation to the measures under item (ii) under paragraph (8) of the preceding Article as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph.

(Special Provisions for Reduction in the Amount of Stated Capital)

Article 106 (1) In the event that an application prescribed in paragraph (1) or (2) of the preceding Article has been made (in the event that an application prescribed in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article has been made, limited to applications in relation to subscription for shares), the Prime Minister may, when finding it necessary in making a decision under paragraph (4) of the preceding Article in relation to the relevant application, require that the relevant subscription for shares be conditioned upon a reduction in the amount of stated capital of a bank, etc., bank holding company, etc., the subject subsidiary company of the bank holding company, etc., or The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. that is subject to the relevant decision.

(2) The provisions of Article 89 apply mutatis mutandis to a reduction in the amount of stated capital in the event that a decision is made under paragraph (4) of the preceding Article whereby the subscription for shares is conditioned upon a reduction in the amount of stated capital being made pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

(3) In the event that a decision is made under paragraph (4) of the preceding Article whereby the subscription for shares is conditioned upon a reduction in the amount of stated capital made pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1), the bank, etc. or bank holding company, etc. or the subject subsidiary company of the bank holding company, etc. or The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. that is subject to the relevant decision must, when it has obtained or failed to obtain a resolution of a shareholders meeting or class meeting with respect to the reduction in the amount of stated capital, immediately report the fact and submit the minutes of the shareholders meeting and other documents specified by Cabinet Order (including those prepared in the form of an electronic or magnetic record) to the Prime Minister, and must also notify the DICJ to that effect.

(4) In the case prescribed in the preceding paragraph, if a resolution by a shareholders meeting or class meeting is not obtained for the reduction in the amount of stated capital that is prescribed as the condition under the same paragraph, the Prime Minister is to rescind the confirmation in relation to the measures under item (i) with respect to the bank, etc., subject subsidiary company, or The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. and is to also rescind the decision under paragraph (4) of the preceding Article with respect to the bank, etc., bank holding company, etc., or The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd.

- (5) The provisions of Article 102, paragraphs (6) and (8) and Article 104, paragraphs (6) and (8) apply mutatis mutandis to the rescission of confirmation in relation to the measures under item (i) under the preceding paragraph, the provisions of Article 104, paragraph (9) (excluding the part in relation to Article 102, paragraph (2)) apply mutatis mutandis to the confirmation in relation to the measures under item (ii) under Article 104, paragraph (8) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this paragraph, and the provisions of paragraph (6) of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to the event that a decision under paragraph (4) of the preceding Article is rescinded pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph.
- (6) For the purpose of applying the provisions of paragraphs (1) and (3) in the event that a financial institution subject to a decision under paragraph (4) of the preceding Article is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd., the term "the Prime Minister" in these provisions will be deemed to be "the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry."

(Subscription for Shares by the DICJ)

- Article 107 (1) When a decision is made under Article 105, paragraph (4), the DICJ is to carry out subscription for shares, etc. in accordance with the relevant decision.
- (2) The DICJ must, when it has carried out subscription for shares, etc. under the preceding paragraph, promptly report the details thereof to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance (in the event that the issuer of the shares, etc. is a labor bank or Rokinren banks, the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that the issuer of the shares, etc. is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd., the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry).
- (3) In cases where a bank holding company, etc. has made an application prescribed in Article 105, paragraph (2), if the DICJ has carried out subscription for shares issued by the bank holding company, etc. in accordance with a decision under Article 105, paragraph (4), the relevant bank holding company, etc. must carry out subscription for shares, etc. (limited to the cases where the amount of the relevant subscription for shares, etc. is not less than the amount of the relevant subscription for shares) without delay with respect to the subject subsidiary company.

(Special Provisions for Restrictions on the Increase in Total Number of Shares Issued by a Company)

Article 107-2 (1) In the event that an application prescribed in Article 105, paragraph (1) or (2) is for subscription for shares or subordinated bonds (limited to those with share options; hereinafter the same applies in this Article), when the Prime Minister (in the event that the issuer of shares or subordinated bonds is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd., the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry) has made a decision under Article 105, paragraph (4) in relation to the relevant application, if the total number of issued shares of the financial institution or bank holding company, etc. that has made the relevant application, the number of shares to be increased as a result of conversion pursuant to a request for conversion in relation to the relevant issued shares or conversion upon the occurrence of certain events, and the number of shares to be increased as a result of the delivery of shares following the exercise of share options which have already been issued, coupled with the number of shares in relation to the relevant subscription, the number of shares to be increased as a result of the issuance of shares pursuant to a request for conversion in relation to the relevant subscription, and the number of shares to be increased as a result of the issuance of shares following the exercise of share options attached to subordinated bonds in relation to the relevant subscription (hereinafter referred to as the "total number of shares after subscription" in this paragraph) exceeds the number four times the total number of issued shares, the relevant financial institution or bank holding company, etc. may, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 113, paragraph (3) of the Companies Act, increase the total number of shares issued by the relevant financial institution or bank holding company, etc. to the number equal to four times the total number of shares after subscription, on condition that the subscription for shares or subordinated bonds is carried out in accordance with the decision under Article 105, paragraph (4).

(2) In the event that a financial institution or bank holding company, etc. increases the total number of shares to be issued based on the provisions of the preceding paragraph, for the purpose of applying the provisions of Article 46, paragraph (2) of the Commercial Registration Act (Act No. 125 of 1963) concerning a written application for a registration of change due to the relevant increase, the term "the minutes" in Article 46, paragraph (2) of the same Act will be deemed to be "the minutes and documents evidencing the subscription for shares or subordinated bonds in accordance with a decision under Article 105, paragraph (4) of the Deposit Insurance Act (Act No. 34 of 1971)."

(Special Provisions for Issuance of Shares with Restricted Voting Rights)

Article 107-3 (1) For the purpose of applying the provisions of Article 115 of the Companies Act, it will be deemed that no shares with restricted voting rights (meaning the shares with restricted voting rights prescribed in Article 115 of the Act; hereinafter the same applies in this Article) have been issued in accordance with a decision under Article 105, paragraph (4) by a financial institution or bank holding company, etc. that has the relevant financial institution as its subject subsidiary company and is subject to the confirmation in relation to the measures under item (i).

(2) In the event that shares with restricted voting rights are issued in accordance with a decision under Article 105, paragraph (4) by a financial institution or bank holding company, etc. referred to in the preceding paragraph, registration to that effect must be made in registering a change resulting from the issuance of the relevant shares with restricted voting rights.

(3) For the purpose of applying the provisions of Article 56 of the Commercial Registration Act in the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, the term "the following documents" in the Article will be deemed to be "the following documents and documents evidencing the fact that the issuance of shares with restricted voting right is in accordance with a decision under Article 105, paragraph (4) of the Deposit Insurance Act (Act No. 34 of 1971)."

(Special Provisions for the Issuance of Preferred Equity Investments)

Article 107-4 (1) For the purpose of applying the provisions of Article 4, paragraph (2) of the Preferred Equity Investment Act, it will be deemed that no preferred equity investments have been issued in accordance with a decision under Article 105, paragraph (4) by a financial institution that is subject to the confirmation in relation to the measures under item (i).

(2) In the event that preferred equity investments have been issued in accordance with a decision under Article 105, paragraph (4) by a financial institution referred to in the preceding paragraph, registration to that effect must be made pursuant to Cabinet Order provisions in registering a change resulting from the issuance of the relevant preferred equity investments.

(Special Provisions for Allotment of Shares for Subscription)

Article 107-5 (1) The provisions of Article 206-2 of the Companies Act do not apply to cases where the financial institution or bank holding company, etc. in relation to the confirmation for the measures under item (i) (limited to subscription for shares) conducts the allotment of shares for subscription prescribed in Article 199, paragraph (1) of the same Act targeting the DICJ, or where a contract set forth in Article 205, paragraph (1) of the same Act is executed with the DICJ.

(2) The provisions of Article 244-2 of the Companies Act do not apply to cases where the financial institution in relation to the confirmation for the measures under item (i) (limited to subscription for subordinated bonds (limited to those with share options)) undertaken by the DICJ conducts the allotment of share options for subscription targeting the DICJ, or where a contract set forth in Article 244, paragraph (1) of the same Act is executed with the DICJ.

(Publication of Plans)

Article 108 (1) The Prime Minister is to, upon making a decision under Article 105, paragraph (4), make public the management soundness improvement plan submitted under Article 105, paragraph (3); provided, however, that this does not apply to matters for which disclosure is likely to harm an orderly financial system, divulge any secret of depositors, etc. or business customers of a financial institution that has submitted the management soundness improvement plan (including a bank holding company, etc. and its subsidiary company, etc. (meaning a subsidiary company, etc. that is a bank, etc. prescribed in Article 52-25 of the Banking Act (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 17 of the Long-Term Credit Bank Act)) that have submitted the relevant management soundness improvement plan in joint name; hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph), or bring undue disadvantage to the conduct of business by the relevant financial institution.

(2) Until the time when the DICJ makes a disposal or receives a redemption or repayment with respect to the whole of acquired shares, etc. or acquired loan claims (meaning loan claims acquired by the DICJ pursuant to the measures under item (i); hereinafter the same applies in this Chapter), the Prime Minister may request a financial institution subject to confirmation in relation to the relevant measures under item (i) (including the bank holding company, etc. that has submitted a management soundness improvement plan under Article 105, paragraph (3) in joint name with the relevant financial institution) to report the status of implementation of the management soundness improvement plan submitted under Article 105, paragraph (3) and make the report public.

(3) The term "acquired shares, etc." as used in the preceding paragraph means the following:

(i) the shares, etc. (including the following) acquired by the DICJ pursuant to the measures under item (i) and other shares, etc. specified by Cabinet Order:

(a) in the event that the shares, etc. refer only to shares, the shares specified below:

1. in the event that the relevant shares are those for which a request for

- conversion into shares of another class can be made, shares of the other class into which the relevant shares are converted pursuant to the request;
2. in the event that the relevant shares are convertible upon the occurrence of certain events, shares of the other class into which the shares are converted as a result of the occurrence; and
 3. shares split or consolidated with respect to the shares or the shares of another class specified in 1 or 2;
- (b) in the event that the relevant shares, etc. are subordinated bonds, shares delivered through the exercise of share options attached to the relevant subordinated bonds and shares split or consolidated with respect thereto; and
- (c) in the event that the relevant shares, etc. are preferred equity investments, preferred equity investments split with respect to the relevant preferred equity investments; and
- (ii) the shares (including the following) allotted to the DICJ by a company that has become a wholly owning parent stock company in a share exchange or wholly owning parent company incorporated through a share transfer of a financial institution or bank holding company, etc. with respect to whom the DICJ has carried out the subscription for shares, etc. pursuant to the measures under item (i) and other shares, etc. specified by Cabinet Order:
- (a) in the event that the relevant shares are those for which a request for conversion into shares of another class can be made, shares of the other class into which the shares are converted pursuant to the request;
 - (b) in the event that the relevant shares are convertible upon the occurrence of certain events, shares of another class into which the shares are converted as a result of the occurrence; and
 - (c) the shares split or consolidated with respect to the relevant shares or the shares of another class specified in (a) or (b).

(Authorization for Share Exchanges In Relation to Measures Under Item (i))
Article 108-2 (1) A financial institution or bank holding company, etc. (including a company prescribed in item (i) of the following paragraph in the event that the authorization set forth in this paragraph is given) with respect to which the DICJ has carried out the subscription for shares, etc. in accordance with a decision under Article 105, paragraph (4), which has issued acquired shares, etc. (meaning acquired shares, etc. prescribed in paragraph (3) of the preceding Article; hereinafter the same applies in this Chapter) actually held by the DICJ (hereinafter referred to as "issuing financial institution, etc." in this Article and the following Article) must obtain authorization from the Prime Minister in advance if the financial institution or bank holding company, etc.

intends to effect a share exchange (limited to those through which the issuing financial institution, etc. becomes a wholly owned subsidiary company in share exchange) or share transfer (hereinafter referred to as "share exchange, etc." in this Article).

- (2) The Prime Minister is to give the authorization set forth in the preceding paragraph only if all of the following requirements are satisfied:
 - (i) a company that is to become, through the share exchange, etc., a wholly owning parent stock company in share exchange or wholly owning parent company incorporated through share transfer of the issuing financial institution, etc. is a bank holding company, etc. (including those that will be newly established);
 - (ii) the type of acquired shares, etc. to be allotted to the DICJ through the share exchange, etc. is found to be the same as the type of acquired shares, etc. actually held by the DICJ prior to the relevant share exchange, etc., and the ratio of voting rights in relation to acquired shares, etc. actually held by the DICJ after the share exchange, etc. to voting rights of all shareholders of the company prescribed in the preceding item is not significantly lower than the ratio of voting rights in relation to acquired shares, etc. held by the DICJ prior to the relevant share exchange, etc. to voting rights of all shareholders of the relevant issuing financial institution, etc.; and
 - (iii) there will be no difficulty in disposing of the acquired shares, etc. following the share exchange, etc.
- (3) If the issuing financial institution, etc. has carried out a share exchange, etc. following the authorization set forth in paragraph (1), the issuing financial institution, etc., a financial institution that is a subsidiary company of the relevant issuing financial institution, etc. with respect to which the DICJ has carried out the subscription for shares, etc. in accordance with a decision under Article 105, paragraph (4), or the subject subsidiary company (including the bridge subsidiary company prescribed in paragraph (4) of the following Article) of the bank holding company, etc. with respect to which the DICJ has carried out the subscription for shares in accordance with a decision under Article 105, paragraph (4) must submit to the Prime Minister, in joint name with a company that has become, through the relevant share exchange, etc., a wholly owning parent stock company in a share exchange or wholly owning parent company incorporated through a share transfer of the relevant issuing financial institution, etc., a new management soundness improvement plan to replace the Management Strengthening Plan that has been implemented (meaning the plan submitted under Article 105, paragraph (3), this paragraph, or paragraph (3) of the following Article as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (4) of the following Article), stating, beyond the measures stated in the Management Strengthening Plan (excluding the part in relation to the management system of the bank holding company, etc. in joint name with whom the Management Strengthening Plan was submitted), measures to establish a responsible management system in a company that has become, through the share exchange, etc., a wholly owning parent stock company in a share exchange or wholly owning parent company incorporated through a share transfer of the relevant issuing financial institution, etc., and other measures specified by Cabinet Order.

- (4) The provisions of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to the management soundness improvement plan submitted to the Prime Minister under the preceding paragraph. In this case, the term "financial institution ... (... that has submitted a Management Strengthening Plan under Article 105, paragraph (3))" in paragraph (2) of the preceding Article will be deemed to be replaced with "financial institution ... that has submitted a management soundness improvement plan under Article 108-2, paragraph (3) (... that has submitted the relevant Management Strengthening Plan."

(Authorization for Corporate Reorganization Regarding Measures Under Item (i))

Article 108-3 (1) A financial institution (including a bridge financial institution prescribed in item (i) of the following paragraph in the event that the authorization set forth in this paragraph is given) with respect to which the DICJ has carried out the subscription for shares, etc. in accordance with a decision under Article 105, paragraph (4), which is an issuer of acquired shares, etc. or obligor of acquired loan claims actually held by the DICJ (hereinafter referred to as "subject financial institution" in this Article) must, if it intends to undertake the succession of business affairs through a merger, company split, or transfer of business, etc. (hereinafter referred to as "corporate reorganization" in this Article), obtain authorization from the Prime Minister (in the event that the subject financial institution is a labor bank or Rokinren banks, the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, in the event that the financial institution is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd., the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry; the same applies in the following paragraph) in advance.

- (2) The Prime Minister is to give the authorization set forth in the preceding paragraph only if all of the following requirements are satisfied:
- (i) a corporation who is to become an issuer of acquired shares, etc. or obligor of acquired loan claims held by the DICJ after the corporate reorganization is the subject financial institution or is another financial institution (including those that will be newly established; hereinafter referred to as the "bridge financial institution" in this Article) that succeeds to the whole of the business in relation to the management soundness improvement plan

- (meaning the plan submitted under Article 105, paragraph (3) or the following paragraph) that has been implemented by the relevant subject financial institution (hereinafter referred to as "management strengthening operations" in this paragraph);
- (ii) the management strengthening operations of the subject financial institution (including the bridge financial institution) is not hindered as a result of the corporate reorganization;
 - (iii) it can be expected with certainty that, when the management strengthening operations to be succeeded to, the succession will be conducted smoothly and appropriately;
 - (iv) there will be no difficulty in making a disposal or receiving a redemption or repayment with respect to the relevant acquired shares, etc. or acquired loan claims following the corporate reorganization; and
 - (v) other requirements specified by Cabinet Order.
- (3) In the event that the subject financial institution has conducted the corporate reorganization following the authorization set forth in paragraph (1), when there is any bridge financial institution in relation to the relevant corporate reorganization, the relevant bridge financial institution must submit a management soundness improvement plan, setting forth measures to achieve the rationalization of management, measures to establish a responsible management system, and other measures specified by Cabinet Order, to the Prime Minister (in the event that the relevant bridge financial institution is a labor bank or Rokinren banks, the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that the financial institution is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd., the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry; the same applies in paragraph (8)).
- (4) The provisions of the preceding three paragraphs apply mutatis mutandis to the subject subsidiary company of the bank holding company, etc. with respect to which the DICJ has carried out the subscription for shares in accordance with a decision under Article 105, paragraph (4) or the financial institution (including the bridge financial institution) with respect to which the DICJ has carried out the subscription for shares, etc. in accordance with a decision under Article 105, paragraph (4) that has ceased to be a subject financial institution as a result of the share exchange or share transfer effected by the relevant financial institution (including a bridge subsidiary company (meaning another financial institution prescribed in paragraph (2), item (i) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this paragraph; hereinafter the same applies in this Article; hereinafter referred to as "subject subsidiary company, etc." in this Article) that has been implementing a management soundness improvement plan (meaning a plan submitted under Article 105, paragraph (3), paragraph (3) of the preceding Article (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to paragraph (8)), the preceding paragraph as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this paragraph, or paragraph (7)). In this case, the term "if it intends to undertake the succession of business affairs through a merger, company split" in paragraph (1) will be deemed to be replaced with "until the time that the DICJ has made a disposal or received a redemption or repayment with respect to all of the acquired shares, etc. or acquired loan claims in relation to the financial institution or bank holding company, etc. that has carried out the subscription for shares, etc. in accordance with a decision under Article 105, paragraph (4) in relation to the relevant management strengthening plan, if it intends to undertake the succession of business affairs through a merger, company split," the terms "A corporation who is to become an issuer of acquired shares, etc. or obligor of acquired loan claims held by the DICJ after the corporate reorganization is the subject financial institution or", "business in relation to the relevant management strengthening plan (meaning the plan submitted under Article 105, paragraph (3) or the following paragraph) that has been implemented by the relevant subject financial institution" and "including the bridge financial institution" in paragraph (2) will be deemed to be replaced with "A bank holding company, etc. that has submitted the relevant management strengthening plan in joint name with the relevant subject subsidiary company, etc.", "subject subsidiary company, etc. or the business in relation to the relevant management strengthening plan after the corporate reorganization", and "including a bridge subsidiary company," respectively, and the terms "bridge financial institution" and "setting forth measures to achieve the rationalization of management" in the preceding paragraph are to be deemed to be replaced with "bridge subsidiary company" and "in joint name with the bank holding company, etc. prescribed in paragraph (2), item (i), setting forth measures to achieve the rationalization of management" respectively.

(5) The issuing financial institution, etc. other than the subject financial institution (including another bank holding company, etc. prescribed in item (i) of the following paragraph in the event that the authorization set forth in this paragraph is granted, or company prescribed in paragraph (2), item (i) of the preceding Article as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to paragraph (8) in the event that the authorization set forth in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to paragraph (8) is granted which is an issuer of acquired shares, etc. actually held by the DICJ (hereinafter referred to as "issuing bank holding company, etc. after corporate reorganization" in this Article); the same applies in the following paragraph) must, if it intends to conduct corporate reorganization, obtain authorization from the Prime Minister in advance.

(6) The Prime Minister is to give the authorization set forth in the preceding paragraph only if all of the following requirements are satisfied:

- (i) a company that is to become an issuer of acquired shares, etc. held by the DICJ after the corporate reorganization is the issuing financial institution, etc. or another bank holding company, etc. (including those that will be newly established) having as its subsidiary the subject subsidiary company, etc. in relation to the relevant issuing financial institution, etc.;
 - (ii) the business management by the issuing financial institution, etc. (including another bank holding company, etc. prescribed in the preceding item) of the subject financial institution, etc. in relation to the relevant issuing financial institution, etc. is not hindered as a result of the corporate reorganization;
 - (iii) there will be no difficulty in disposing of the acquired shares, etc. following the corporate reorganization; and
 - (iv) other requirements specified by Cabinet Order.
- (7) In the event that the issuing financial institution, etc. other than the subject financial institution or the issuing bank holding company, etc. after corporate reorganization has conducted corporate reorganization following the authorization set forth in paragraph (5), if there is another bank holding company, etc. prescribed in item (i) of the preceding paragraph, the relevant issuing financial institution, etc. or the subject subsidiary company, etc. in relation to the issuing bank holding company, etc. after corporate reorganization must submit to the Prime Minister, in joint name with that another bank holding company, etc., a new management soundness improvement plan to replace the management soundness improvement plan that has been implemented (meaning the management soundness improvement plan prescribed in paragraph (4)), stating, beyond the measures stated in the relevant management soundness improvement plan (excluding the part in relation to the management system of the bank holding company, etc. in joint name with whom the relevant management soundness improvement plan was submitted), measures to establish a responsible management system in that another bank holding company, etc., and other measures specified by Cabinet Order.
- (8) The provisions of Article 108, paragraph (1) apply mutatis mutandis to the management soundness improvement plans submitted to the Prime Minister under paragraph (3) (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to paragraph (4)) or the preceding paragraph, the provisions of Article 108, paragraph (2) apply mutatis mutandis to the financial institution (including the bank holding company, etc. in joint name with whom these management soundness improvement plan have been submitted) that has submitted these management soundness improvement plans , and the provisions of Article 108-2 apply mutatis mutandis to a bridge financial institution that is an issuer of acquired shares, etc. actually held by the DICJ or the issuing bank holding company, etc. after corporate reorganization. In this case, the terms "a financial institution that is a subsidiary company of the relevant Issuing financial institution, etc. with respect to which the DICJ has carried out the subscription for shares, etc. in accordance with a decision under Article 105, paragraph (4), or the subject subsidiary company (including the bridge subsidiary company prescribed in paragraph (4) of the following Article)" and "the plan submitted under Article 105, paragraph (3), this paragraph, or paragraph (3) of the following Article as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (4) of the following Article" in Article 108-2, paragraph (3) will be deemed to be replaced with "the subject subsidiary company, etc.," and "the plan submitted under Article 108-3, paragraph (3) (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 108-3, paragraph (4)), Article 108-3, paragraph (7), or Article 108-2, paragraph (3) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 108-3, paragraph (8)" respectively.

(Special Provisions for Requests to Cash-Out Shares of Special Controlling Shareholders)

Article 108-4 The provisions of Part II, Chapter 2, Section 4-2 of the Companies Act do not apply to special controlling shareholders of a financial institution (including the bridge financial institution, etc. prescribed in paragraph (2), item (i) of the preceding Article in the event that the authorization has been given under paragraph (1) of the preceding Article) or the bank holding company, etc. (including the company prescribed in Article 108-2, paragraph (2), item (i) in the event that the authorization has been given under paragraph (1) of the same Article and the issuing bank holding company, etc. after corporate reorganization, etc. prescribed in paragraph (5) of the preceding Article) for which the DICJ has conducted the subscription for shares, etc. based on a decision under Article 105, paragraph (4) and which has issued shares that are acquired shares, etc. actually held by the DICJ or subordinated bonds (limited to those with share options).

(Disposal of Acquired Shares or Acquired Loan Claims)

Article 109 (1) The DICJ must, if it intends to transfer or dispose of acquired shares, etc. or acquired loan claims, obtain approval from the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance (in the event that an issuer of the relevant acquired shares, etc. or obligor of acquired loan claims is a labor bank or Rokinren banks, from the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that an issuer of the relevant acquired shares, etc. or obligor of acquired loan claims is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd., from the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry; the same applies in the following paragraph).

- (2) Upon making a disposal as prescribed in the preceding paragraph, the DICJ must promptly report the details thereof to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance.

(Special Provisions for Order to Manage and Financial Assistance)

Article 110 (1) When confirmation in relation to the measures under item (ii) is given under Article 102, paragraph (1) or Article 104, paragraph (8) (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 105, paragraph (8) and Article 106, paragraph (5)), the Prime Minister must, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 74, paragraph (1) and (2), immediately issue an order to manage with respect to the financial institution subject to the relevant confirmation.

- (2) For the purpose of applying this Act in the event that an order to manage is issued under the preceding paragraph, the financial institution (excluding the failed financial institution) subject to the relevant order to manage will be deemed to be the failed financial institution.

- (3) The provisions of Article 64, paragraph (2) do not apply to cases where a resolution by the board prescribed in Article 64, paragraph (1) is to be deliberated with respect to the financial assistance for a merger, etc. in which a financial institution that is subject to an order to manage under paragraph (1) is deemed to be the failed financial institution. In this case, the board may, when it finds, in light of the financial conditions of the relevant financial institution, that the financial assistance does not exceed the scope necessary to carry out the merger, etc., adopt a resolution to provide financial assistance.

(Decisions on the Acquisition of Shares of a Bank Under Special Crisis Management)

Article 111 (1) The Prime Minister must, at the time of granting the confirmation in relation to the measures under item (iii), decide that the DICJ will acquire shares of the bank, etc. subject to the confirmation (referred to as "decision to commence special crisis management" in the following paragraph).

- (2) Upon making the decision to commence special crisis management, the Prime Minister must notify the DICJ and the bank, etc. subject to the relevant decision on commencement of special crisis management (hereinafter referred to as the "bank under special crisis management") to that effect and give public notice thereof in the Official Gazette.

(Acquisition of Shares)

- Article 112 (1) If public notice is given under paragraph (2) of the preceding Article, the shares of the bank under special crisis management will be acquired by the DICJ at the time of the relevant public notice (hereinafter referred to as the "time of public notice" in this Chapter).
- (2) Share certificates for the shares acquired by the DICJ under the preceding paragraph will become invalid at the time of public notice.
- (3) The provisions of the main clause of Article 128, paragraph (1) and Article 130, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act do not apply to the acquisition of shares under paragraph (1).
- (4) Any pledge and other security interest in the shares acquired by the DICJ under paragraph (1) will be extinguished at the time of public notice.
- (5) If the articles of incorporation of the bank under special crisis management has provisions prescribed in Article 108, paragraph (2) of the Companies Act (limited to the part in relation to item (ix)), the relevant provisions will be deemed have been rescinded at the time of public notice.

(Publication of Finances of Banks Under Special Crisis Management)

Article 113 Upon giving public notice under Article 111, paragraph (2), the Prime Minister is to make public the conditions of assets and liabilities of the bank under special crisis management as of the time of public notice pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance.

(Special Provisions for Appointment and Dismissal of Officers of Banks Under Special Crisis Management)

- Article 114 (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 329, paragraph (1) and Article 402, paragraph (2) of the Companies Act, the DICJ may, based on the designation of the Prime Minister, appoint a director, executive officer, accounting advisor, corporate auditor and accounting auditor of the bank under special crisis management. In this case, documents evidencing the designation and appointment must be attached to a written application for a registration of a change of director (in the case of a company with an audit and supervisory committee, a director who is an audit and supervisory committee member or another director; hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph and the following paragraph), executive officer, accounting advisor, corporate auditor or accounting auditor of the bank under special crisis management.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 339, paragraph (1) and Article 403, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act, the DICJ may, with approval from the Prime Minister, dismiss a director, executive officer, accounting advisor, corporate auditor or accounting auditor of the bank under special crisis management.
- (3) If an appointment under paragraph (1) or dismissal under the preceding paragraph is made, it will be deemed that there has been a resolution by shareholders meeting prescribed in Article 329, paragraph (1) or Article 339, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act or resolution by the board of directors prescribed in Article 402, paragraph (2) or Article 403, paragraph (1) of the same Act.

(Submission of Reports or Materials)

Article 115 The Prime Minister may, when finding it necessary, request the bank under special crisis management and a financial institution agent with the relevant bank under special crisis management as its principal financial institution to submit reports or materials concerning the status of business and assets, etc. or order the preparation and submission of a management plan and other necessary measures.

(Measures for Ascertaining Liability of Management for Failure of a Bank Under Special Crisis Management)

Article 116 (1) The bank under special crisis management must, in order to have its director, executive officer, accounting advisor, corporate auditor or accounting auditor or a person who previously held any of these positions perform civil responsibilities based on a breach of obligations in the course of duties, file an action or take other necessary measures.

(2) If a director, executive officer, accounting advisor, corporate auditor and accounting auditor of the bank under special crisis management, in the course of carrying out their duty, considers that an offense has been committed, they must take necessary measures toward filing an accusation.

(Special Provisions for Procedures for Protection of Creditors)

Article 117 The provisions of Article 89 apply mutatis mutandis to cases where the bank under special crisis management has adopted a resolution for reduction in the amount of stated capital.

(Special Provisions for Financial Assistance Regarding Banks Under Special Crisis Management)

Article 118 (1) An assuming financial institution or assuming bank holding company, etc. undertaking a merger, etc. (limited to those specified in Article 59, paragraph (2), items (i), (ii) and (iv); the same applies in paragraph (5)) in which the bank under special crisis management is the failed financial institution may, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 59, paragraph (1), apply for the DICJ, in joint name with the relevant bank under special crisis management, to provide financial assistance (limited to those specified in Article 59, paragraph (1), item (i); the same applies in paragraphs (3) through

- (5)) to the relevant bank under special crisis management.
- (2) The provisions of Article 59, paragraphs (6) and (7) and Article 61, paragraph (1) apply mutatis mutandis to an application under the preceding paragraph and the provisions of Article 61, paragraphs (2), (3) and (6) through (8) apply mutatis mutandis to the confirmation prescribed in Article 61, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this paragraph. In this case, the term "failed financial institution" in Article 61, paragraphs (1) through (3) and (8) will be deemed to be replaced with "bank under special crisis management," and any other necessary technical replacement of terms will be specified by Cabinet Order.
- (3) Even in cases where no application is made under Article 61, paragraph (2) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the preceding paragraph, the Prime Minister may, when finding that the bank under special crisis management satisfies the requirements specified in Article 61, paragraph (3), item (iii) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the preceding paragraph, provide mediation in writing with regard to a merger, etc. (limited to those specified in Article 59, paragraph (2), items (i) and (iv) and those that contribute to the protection of the depositors, etc. and other creditors and for which the financial assistance by the DICJ is indispensable) between the relevant bank under special crisis management and another financial institution or the bank under special crisis management and bank holding company, etc.
- (4) The provisions of Article 62, paragraphs (2) and (4) through (6) apply mutatis mutandis to the mediation prescribed in the preceding paragraph, the provisions of Article 64 (excluding paragraphs (2) and (5)) apply mutatis mutandis to the application under paragraph (1), the provisions of Article 65 and Article 66 apply mutatis mutandis to the financial institution or bank holding company, etc. that has received the confirmation prescribed in Article 61, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to paragraph (2) or that has received the mediation prescribed in the preceding paragraph, and the provisions of Article 68 apply mutatis mutandis to the financial assistance prescribed in paragraph (1). In this case, the term "Article 59, paragraph (1) or Article 59-2, paragraph (1)" in Article 62, paragraph (2) will be deemed to be replaced with "Article 118, paragraph (1)," the term "paragraph (1)" in Article 62, paragraphs (4) through (6) will be deemed to be replaced with "Article 118, paragraph (3)," the term "paragraphs (4) through (7)" in Article 62, paragraph (4) will be deemed to be replaced with "paragraphs (6) and (7)," and any other necessary technical replacement of terms will be specified by Cabinet Order.
- (5) In the event that a resolution by the board prescribed in Article 64, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the preceding paragraph is to be deliberated with respect to the financial assistance prescribed in paragraph (1), the board may, when it finds that, in light of the financial conditions of the bank under special crisis management, the financial assistance does not exceed the scope necessary to carry out the merger, etc., adopt a resolution to provide financial assistance.

Article 119 The provisions of Article 110, paragraph (3) apply mutatis mutandis to the financial assistance in relation to an application under Article 59, paragraph (1) for a merger, etc. in which the bank under special crisis management is the failed financial institution.

(Conclusion of Measures Under Item (iii))

Article 120 (1) The Prime Minister is to conclude the measures under item (iii) as promptly as possible by causing the DICJ or bank under special crisis management to take the following measures:

- (i) a merger in which a financial institution that merges with the bank under special crisis management survives (limited to those in which a corporation surviving after the merger is not a subsidiary of the DICJ);
 - (ii) a merger in which a financial institution is established through the merger of the bank under special crisis management and another financial institution (limited to those in which a corporation established by the merger is not a subsidiary of the DICJ);
 - (iii) a transfer of business of the bank under special crisis management;
 - (iv) the transfer of shares of the bank under special crisis management (limited to those through which the bank under special crisis management ceases to be a subsidiary company of the DICJ);
 - (v) an absorption-type company split to which the bank under special crisis management is a party where another financial institution succeeds to all or part of the rights and obligations held by the bank under special crisis management in relation to its business through the relevant absorption-type company split (limited to an absorption-type company split where that other company is neither a subsidiary company of the DICJ nor a subsidiary company of the bank under special crisis management); and
 - (vi) an incorporation-type company split to which the bank under special crisis management is a party where the financial institution newly established through the relevant incorporation-type company split succeeds to all or part of the rights and obligations held by the bank under special crisis management in relation to its business through the relevant incorporation-type company split (limited to an incorporation-type company split where the financial institution newly established through the incorporation-type company split is neither a subsidiary company of the DICJ nor a subsidiary company of the bank under special crisis management).
- (2) The bank under special crisis management must, if it intends to take the measures specified in items (i) through (iii), (v), and (vi) of the preceding paragraph, report to that effect to the Prime Minister and must also notify the DICJ thereof.

- (3) Upon receiving notice under the preceding paragraph, the DICJ must immediately make a report to that effect to the Minister of Finance.
- (4) Upon taking the measures specified in paragraph (1), item (iv), the DICJ must promptly report to that effect to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance.
- (5) The "subsidiary company of the bank under special crisis management" set forth in paragraph (1), items (v) and (vi) means a company of which voting rights exceeding fifty hundredths of the voting rights held by all of its shareholders are held by the bank under special crisis management.

(Special Provisions for Requests for the Cash-Out of Shares of Special Controlling Shareholders)

Article 120-2 The provisions of Part II, Chapter 2, Section 4-2 of the Companies Act do not apply to special controlling shareholders of a bank under special crisis management; provided, however, that this does not apply when the DICJ has disposed of all shares of the bank under special crisis management.

(Crisis Management Accounts)

- Article 121 (1) If financial assistance is provided pursuant to a resolution under Article 110, paragraph (3) (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 119) or Article 118, paragraph (5), the DICJ is to transfer from an account (hereinafter referred to as "crisis management account") related to operations specified in Article 40-2, item (ii) (hereinafter referred to as "crisis management operations") to a general account the amount remaining after deducting expected costs for the payment of insurance proceeds with respect to an insured event of the financial institution in relation to the relevant financial assistance from the expected costs of the relevant financial assistance.
- (2) Any transfer from the crisis management account to the general account under the preceding paragraph will be deemed to be crisis management operations.

(Payment of Contributions)

Article 122 (1) If public notice is given under paragraph (4) of the following Article (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 124, paragraph (3)), a financial institution must, during the period specified in the relevant public notice, pay contributions to the DICJ to cover the costs incurred in carrying out the crisis management operations (excluding

- those in relation to the financial institution, etc. subject to specified confirmation prescribed in Article 126-2, paragraph (1) or the specified bridge financial institution, etc. prescribed in Article 126-34, paragraph (3), item (v)).
- (2) If public notice is given under the preceding paragraph, a financial institution is to submit documents specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance and pay contributions to the DICJ by the last day of each business year included in the period specified in the relevant public notice.
- (3) The amount of contributions prescribed in paragraph (1) will be calculated for each financial institution by dividing by twelve the total amount of its liabilities outstanding on the last day of the business year immediately preceding the business year that includes the due date for payment of the relevant contributions (excluding those specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance), multiplying the resulting amount by the number of months in the business year that includes the due date for payment of the relevant contributions, and multiplying the resulting amount by the contribution rate specified under paragraph (2) of the following Article.
- (4) The provisions of Article 50, paragraph (2) and Article 52 apply mutatis mutandis to the contributions prescribed in paragraph (1). In this case, the term "confirmation of eligibility, etc. prescribed in Article 65" in Article 50, paragraph (2), item (ii) will be deemed to be replaced with "confirmation of eligibility, etc. prescribed in Article 65 or specified confirmation of eligibility, etc. prescribed in Article 126-31," the term "the failed financial institution in relation to the confirmation of eligibility, etc." in the same item will be deemed to be replaced with "the failed financial institution in relation to the confirmation of eligibility, etc. or the specified failed financial institution, etc. prescribed in Article 126-28, paragraph (1) in relation to the specified confirmation of eligibility, etc. which is any of the persons listed in the items of Article 2, paragraph (1)," the term "an order to manage prescribed in Article 74, paragraph (1)" in item (iii) of the same paragraph will be deemed to be replaced with "an order to manage prescribed in Article 74, paragraph (1) or an order for specified management prescribed in Article 126-5, paragraph (1)," and the term "the financial institution under management in relation to the order to manage" in the same item will be deemed to be replaced with "the financial institution under management in relation to the order to manage or the financial institution, etc. prescribed in Article 126-2, paragraph (2) in relation to the which is any of the persons listed in the items of Article 2, paragraph (1)," and any other necessary technical replacement of terms will be specified by Cabinet Order.

(Decisions on Contributions or Specified Contributions)

Article 123 (1) Within three months of the end of each business year, the DICJ must report the following to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance with regard to income and expenditure in the crisis management account during the relevant business year:

- (i) the amount transferred from the crisis management account to the general account under Article 121, paragraph (1);
 - (ii) the amount of loss arising from the transfer of acquired shares, etc. or acquired loan claims or of acquired specified shares, etc. (meaning the Acquired specified shares, etc. prescribed in Article 126-24, paragraph (3); the same applies in the following item) or acquired specified loan claims (meaning the acquired specified loan claims prescribed in paragraph (2) of the same Article; the same applies in the same item) below their acquisition value or other causes;
 - (iii) the amount of profit arising from the transfer of acquired shares, etc. or acquired loan claims or of acquired specified shares, etc. or acquired specified loan claims above their acquisition value and other reasons;
 - (iv) the amount of contributions or the amount of specified contributions that has been received; and
 - (v) other matters specified by Cabinet Order.
- (2) In the event that a report prescribed in the preceding paragraph is received, the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance must, when they find it necessary, prescribe a contribution rate and payment period for contributions to be paid by a financial institution under paragraph (1) of the preceding Article (hereinafter referred to as "contributions" except in Article 126-39, paragraph (1)) or specified contributions to be paid by a financial institution, etc. under Article 126-39, paragraph (1) in each business year following the business year that includes the time of receipt of the relevant report (hereinafter referred to as the "time of report" in this paragraph); provided, however, that in any business year preceding the business year in which the time of report falls, when a contribution rate and payment period for the contributions or specified contributions in each business year after the business year in which the time of report falls are prescribed, the contribution rate and payment period for the contributions or specified contributions in each business year after the business year in which the relevant time of report falls will be prescribed by changing the contribution rate and payment period.
- (3) The contribution rate and payment period will be established by taking the following matters into consideration and in a manner that covers loss in the crisis management account with the contributions or specified contributions and does not subject any specific financial institution or financial institution, etc. to discriminatory treatment:
- (i) matters specified in each item of paragraph (1) in the business year in relation to the relevant report prescribed in paragraph (1); and

- (ii) the financial conditions of a financial institution or financial institution, etc.
- (4) Upon prescribing a contribution rate and payment period under paragraph (2), the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance must give public notice thereof in the Official Gazette.
- (5) The Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance may, when they find it necessary, request the DICJ to state its opinion or submit reports or materials in order to prescribe the contribution rate and payment period under paragraph (2).

(Change of the Contribution Rate)

Article 124 (1) When it becomes evident that there will be an excess or deficiency in the contributions or specified contributions due to fluctuations in interest on the borrowings of the DICJ, government subsidies prescribed in paragraph (1) of the following Article, or other causes (excluding those in relation to the particulars specified in each item of paragraph (1) of the preceding Article), the DICJ must report to that effect to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance.

- (2) The Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance may change a contribution rate and payment period prescribed under paragraph (2) of the preceding Article to the extent necessary to make adjustments for any excess or deficiency in the contributions or specified contributions in relation to the report prescribed in the preceding paragraph.
- (3) The provisions of paragraphs (4) and (5) of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to cases where the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance change a contribution rate and payment period under the preceding paragraph.

(Government Subsidies)

Article 125 (1) The government may provide subsidies to the DICJ for part of the costs required for the crisis management operations within the limit specified in a budget, only when it is found that, if the costs of the operations are to be funded solely with the contributions or specified contributions, the financial conditions of a financial institution or financial institution, etc. would deteriorate significantly and it may cause an extremely serious hindrance to maintaining an orderly credit system in Japan or cause severe disruption in the financial market or any other financial system in Japan.

- (2) In any business year in which no contributions or specified contributions are paid (limited to the business year following the business year that includes the day on which a government subsidy is received under the preceding paragraph), if there is any amount calculated as profit in the crisis management account resulting from the settlement of profits and losses pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance, the DICJ must pay the relevant amount to the national treasury after deducting the amount already paid to the national treasury under this paragraph from the total amount of government subsidies already received under the preceding paragraph.

- (3) Procedures for payment and other necessary matters concerning the amount prescribed in the preceding paragraph will be specified by Cabinet Order.

(Borrowing and DICJ Bonds)

Article 126 (1) The DICJ may, when it finds it necessary for carrying out the crisis management operations, borrow funds (including refinancing) from the Bank of Japan, a financial institution, or any other person or issue the DICJ bonds (including issuance for the purpose of refinancing the DICJ bonds) up to the amount specified by Cabinet Order with authorization from the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance.

- (2) The provisions of Article 42, paragraph (4) and Article 42-2 apply mutatis mutandis to cases where the DICJ borrows funds or issues the DICJ bonds under the preceding paragraph.

- (3) The DICJ bonds to be issued under paragraph (1) will be deemed to be the DICJ bonds issued under Article 42, paragraph (1) for the purpose of applying the provisions of Article 42, paragraphs (5) through (9).

Chapter VII-2 Measures for Orderly Resolution of Assets and Liabilities of Financial Institutions for Ensuring Financial System Stability

(Confirmation of the Necessity of Measures for Orderly Resolution of Assets and Liabilities of Financial Institutions for Ensuring Financial System Stability)

- (13) A person subject to specified confirmation will be deemed to be a financial institution, etc. with regard to application of the provisions of this Act even in cases where the license from the Prime Minister set forth in Article 4, paragraph (1) of the Banking Act for the relevant person has been rescinded, where the relevant license has lost its effect, or where any event specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance has occurred.

(Special Monitoring by the DICJ)

- Article 126-3 (1) If specified confirmation has been given, the Prime Minister (in the event that the financial institution, etc. subject to the monitoring under this paragraph (hereinafter referred to as "special monitoring")) is a labor bank, Rokinren banks, or a subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc., the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that it is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. or a subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin Bank, the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry; the same applies in paragraph (3), paragraph (4) (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 126-11, paragraph (2)), and paragraph (5), paragraph (1) of the same Article, Article 126-12, paragraph (1), and Article 126-15)) is to immediately designate the financial institution, etc. subject to the relevant specified confirmation as the person whose execution of business, and management and disposal of assets will be placed under the monitoring of the DICJ.
- (2) When the designation under the preceding paragraph (hereinafter referred to as "designation of special monitoring") has been made, the DICJ may give necessary advice, instructions, or recommendations (hereinafter referred to as "advice, etc." in this paragraph) for ensuring the implementation of the plan prepared pursuant to paragraph (5) and any other necessary advice, etc. to the financial institution, etc. subject to the relevant designation of special monitoring (hereinafter referred to as the "financial institution, etc. under special monitoring") with regard to the execution of its business, and management and disposal of its assets.
- (3) When the Prime Minister finds it necessary for avoiding the risk of severe disruption being caused to the financial system in Japan, they may order necessary measures to the financial institution, etc. under special monitoring with regard to execution of its business, and management and disposal of its assets while specifying the time limit by which the measures should be taken.
- (4) Upon making designation of special monitoring, the Prime Minister must notify the financial institution, etc. under special monitoring and the DICJ to that effect and give public notice thereof in the Official Gazette.
- (5) The Prime Minister may, when finding it necessary, request a financial institution, etc. under special monitoring to submit reports or materials with regard to the status of business and assets, etc. of the financial institution, etc. under special monitoring or order a financial institution, etc. under special monitoring to prepare a plan for its management and submit it to the Prime Minister and the DICJ.

(Special Monitoring Agents)

Article 126-4 (1) In the event that designation of special monitoring has been made, the DICJ may, when it finds necessary, entrust the whole or part of implementation of monitoring in relation to the relevant designation of special monitoring to a third party.

(2) With regard to entrustment under the preceding paragraph, the approval of the Prime Minister (in the event that the financial institution, etc. under special monitoring is a labor bank, a federation of labor banks, or a subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc., the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that it is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. or a subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin Bank, the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry; the same applies in the following paragraph) will be obtained.

(3) A special monitoring agent (meaning the third party to whom entrustment was made pursuant to paragraph (1); the same applies hereinafter) may receive advance payments of costs as well as remuneration determined by the Prime Minister.

(Orders for Specified Management)

Article 126-5 (1) If the Prime Minister (in the event that the financial institution, etc. in relation to the order for specified management prescribed in this paragraph is a labor bank, Rokinren banks, or a subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc., the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that it is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. or a subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin Bank, the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry; the same applies in paragraph (3) (including cases where applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 126-7, paragraph (2)), paragraph (2) and paragraph (3) of the following Article, Article 126-7, paragraph (1), Article 126-8, and Article 79, paragraphs (1) (including cases where applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to paragraph (3) of the same Article) and Article 84, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 126-9, and Article 126-10) finds that any of the following requirements is satisfied in a case where specified confirmation in relation to specified measures under item (ii) has been given, they may issue an order that the business and assets of the financial institution, etc. subject to the specified confirmation be placed under management of the DICJ (hereinafter referred to as an "order for specified management"). In this case, the provisions of Article 74, paragraph (1), paragraph (2), and paragraph (5) do not apply:

- (i) the conducting of the relevant financial institution, etc.'s business is particularly inappropriate; or
 - (ii) if a specified merger, etc. is not carried out with regard to the business or obligations of the financial institution, etc. and the financial institution, etc. discontinues all its businesses or is dissolved, severe disruption is likely to be caused to the financial system in Japan by the discontinuation of business or default of obligations.
- (2) If an order for specified management has been issued, the right to represent the financial institution, etc. subject to the order for specified management, execute its business, and manage and dispose of its assets will be vested exclusively in the DICJ. The same applies to the rights of a director and executive officer (in the event that the financial institution, etc. subject to the order for specified management is a Shinkin bank, etc., a director) prescribed in Article 828, paragraphs (1) and (2) of the Companies Act (including cases where these provisions are applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 28 of the Shinkin Bank Act, Article 52-2 (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 58, paragraph (7) of the same Act) and Article 61-7 of the same Act, Article 32 of the Small and Medium Sized Enterprises Cooperatives Act, Article 57 (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 57-3, paragraph (6) of the same Act) and Article 67 of the same Act, Article 28 of the Labor Bank Act, Article 57-2 (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 62, paragraph (7) of the same Act) and Article 65 of the same Act, and Article 30-15, Article 57, paragraph (6), Article 60-2, paragraph (5), and Article 171 of the Insurance Business Act), Article 831 of the Companies Act (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 24, paragraph (10) and Article 48-8 of the Shinkin Bank Act, Article 27, paragraph (8), Article 54, Article 82, paragraph (4) and Article 82-10, paragraph (4) of the Small and Medium Sized Enterprises Cooperatives Act, Article 24, paragraph (11) and Article 54 of the Labor Bank Act, and Article 30-8, paragraph (6), Article 41, paragraph (2), and Article 49, paragraph (2) of the Insurance Business Act), and Article 84-2, paragraph (2) and Article 96-16, paragraph (2) of the Insurance Business Act.
- (3) Upon issuing an order for specified management, the Prime Minister must notify the DICJ to that effect and give public notice thereof in the Official Gazette.
- (4) The provisions of Article 80 and Article 81, paragraph (1) of the Corporate Reorganization Act apply mutatis mutandis to the DICJ in the event that an order for specified management has been issued, and the provisions of Article 78 of the Act on General Incorporated Associations and General Incorporated Foundations apply mutatis mutandis to a financial institution, etc. subject to the order for specified management. In this case, the term "court" in Article 81, paragraph (1) of the Corporate Reorganization Act will be deemed to be replaced with "Prime Minister (in the event that the financial institution, etc. prescribed in Article 126-2, paragraph (2) of the deposit insurance Act subject to the order for specified management prescribed in Article 126-5, paragraph (1) of the same Act is a labor bank, Rokinren banks, or the subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc. prescribed in Article 126-2, paragraph (2), item (i) of the same Act, the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that it is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. or the subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin Bank prescribed in the same item, the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry)" and the term "its representative director or other representatives" in Article 78 of the Act on General Incorporated Associations and General Incorporated Foundations will be deemed to be replaced with "the deposit insurance corporation of Japan in the event that the order for specified management prescribed in Article 126-5, paragraph (1) of the Deposit Insurance Act has been issued."

- (5) A financial institution subject to an order for specified management will be deemed to be a financial institution subject to an order to manage under Article 74, paragraph (1) or paragraph (2) in applying the provisions of Article 69-3, paragraph (1) (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 127 and Article 128), and an insurance company or foreign insurance company, etc. subject to an order for specified management will be deemed to be the managed company prescribed in Article 242, paragraph (1) of the Insurance Business Act, and the DICJ in the event that an order for specified management has been issued will be deemed to be an insurance administrator in applying the provisions of Article 247, Article 250, paragraph (1), Article 254, paragraph (1), and Article 255-2, paragraph (1) (including penal provisions in relation to these provisions) of the same Act.
- (6) If an order for specified management has been issued for a financial institution, etc., special monitoring in relation to the relevant financial institution, etc. will be suspended until the order for specified management is concluded.

(DICJ Representatives)

- Article 126-6 (1) If an order for specified management has been issued, the DICJ may appoint an agent (hereinafter referred to as a "DICJ representative") who will conduct the whole or part of the business in relation to the order for specified management.
- (2) With regard to the appointment of a DICJ representative set forth in the preceding paragraph, the approval of the Prime Minister must be obtained.
- (3) A DICJ representative may receive advance payment of costs and receive the consideration specified by the Prime Minister.

(Rescission of an Order for Specified Management)

Article 126-7 (1) The Prime Minister must rescind the order for specified management, when finding that there is no longer any need for the relevant order for specified management.

(2) The provisions of Article 126-5, paragraph (3) apply mutatis mutandis to the case set forth in the preceding paragraph.

(Preparation and Submission of a Plan)

Article 126-8 In the event that an order for specified management has been issued, the Prime Minister may, when finding it necessary, request the DICJ to submit reports or materials with regard to the status of business and assets, etc. of the financial institution, etc. subject to the order for specified management or order a financial institution, etc. subject to the order for specified management to prepare and submit a plan for its management or to take other necessary measures.

(Application Mutatis Mutandis of Provisions Concerning Financial Administrators)

Article 126-9 The provisions of Article 79 apply mutatis mutandis to a financial institution, etc. subject to the order for specified management, the provisions of Article 82 apply mutatis mutandis to a DICJ representative, and the provisions of Articles 83 and 84 apply mutatis mutandis to the DICJ in the event that an order for specified management has been issued. In this case, the term "issued an order to manage or rescinded an order to manage" in Article 79, paragraph (1) will be deemed to be replaced with "issued an order for specified management (meaning the order for specified management prescribed in Article 126-5, paragraph (1); the same applies hereinafter) or rescinded an order for specified management," the term "office" in the same paragraph will be deemed to be replaced with "office (in the event that the head office or principal office is in a foreign state, the principal business office or office in Japan)," the term "a financial administrator" in paragraph (2) of the same Article will be deemed to be replaced with "the DICJ," the term "director, accounting advisor, corporate auditor or accounting auditor of a financial institution under management (in the event that the financial institution under management is a company with an audit and supervisory committee, a director, accounting advisor and accounting auditor, in the event that the financial institution under management is a company with a nominating committee, etc., a director, executive officer, accounting advisor or accounting auditor, and in the event that the financial institution under management is a Shinkin bank, etc., a director, inspector or accounting auditor)" in Article 83, paragraph (1) will be deemed to be replaced with "director, executive officer, member who conducts business, representative in Japan, accounting advisor, corporate auditor, or a person equivalent to any of these, or accounting auditor of the financial institution, etc. prescribed in Article 126-2, paragraph (2) subject to an order for specified management," and the term "financial institution under management" in Article 84, paragraph (1) will be deemed to be replaced with "financial institution, etc. prescribed in Article 126-2, paragraph (2) subject to an order for specified management," and any other necessary technical replacement of terms will be specified by Cabinet Order.

(Conclusion of Specified Management)

Article 126-10 The DICJ is to conclude the management of a financial institution, etc. subject to an order for specified management by transferring its business or taking any other necessary measures for avoiding the risk of severe disruption being caused to the financial system in Japan and other related measures within one year from the date of the order for specified management; provided, however, that in cases where it is impossible to conclude the management within the relevant period due to unavoidable circumstances, the relevant period may be extended for a period not exceeding one year with the approval of the Prime Minister.

(Revocation of a Special Monitoring Designation)

Article 126-11 (1) The Prime Minister must rescind the designation of special monitoring, when finding that there is no longer any need for the relevant designation of special monitoring.
(2) The provisions of Article 126-3, paragraph (4) apply mutatis mutandis to the case referred to in the preceding paragraph.

(Conclusion of Special Monitoring)

Article 126-12 (1) The DICJ is to conclude special monitoring of a financial institution, etc. in relation to designation of special monitoring by transferring its business or taking any other necessary measures for avoiding the risk of severe disruption being caused to the financial system in Japan and other related measures within one year from the date of the designation of special monitoring; provided, however, that in cases where it is impossible to conclude the special monitoring within the relevant period due to unavoidable circumstances, the relevant period may be extended for a period not exceeding one year with the approval of the Prime Minister.
(2) Upon concluding special monitoring pursuant to the preceding paragraph, the DICJ must notify the financial institution, etc. under special monitoring to that effect and give public notice thereof.

(Permission in Lieu of an Extraordinary Resolution of a Shareholders Meeting)

Article 126-13 (1) In the event that a financial institution, etc. under special monitoring that is a stock company is unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets or is likely to be unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets, or has suspended payment of obligations or is likely to suspend payment of obligations, the relevant financial institution, etc. under special monitoring may, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 111, paragraph (2), Article 171, paragraph (1), Article 199, paragraph (2), Article 204, paragraph (2), Article 205, paragraph (2), Article 447, paragraph (1), Article 466, Article 467, paragraph (1), items (i) through (ii)-2, Article 783, paragraph (1), and Article 804, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act and Article 136 of the Insurance Business Act, carry out the following matters with the permission of the court; in this case, with regard to application of the provisions of Article 172, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act in the case of carrying out the matters prescribed in item (i), the term "the following shareholders" in the same paragraph will be deemed to be replaced with "all shareholders," and the term "the day of the shareholders meeting under that paragraph" in the same paragraph will be deemed to be replaced with "the day on which the public notice set forth in Article 126-13, paragraph (11) of the Deposit Insurance Act (Act No. 34 of 1971) was given":

- (i) amendment of the articles of incorporation necessary for the issuance of class shares subject to wholly call, acquisition of all of the class shares subject to wholly call, determination of the subscription requirements prescribed in Article 199, paragraph (2) of the Companies Act in relation to the issuance of the shares for subscription prescribed in paragraph (1) of the same Article conducted together with the acquisition, determination of allotment of the shares for subscription prescribed in the same paragraph under Article 204, paragraph (2) of the same Act, or approval of a contract set forth in Article 205, paragraph (1) of the same Act under paragraph (2) of the same Article;
- (ii) reduction in the amount of stated capital;
- (iii) transfer of all or a material portion of its business;
- (iv) assignment of all or part of the shares or equity interest of its subsidiary company;
- (v) company split; and
- (vi) transfer of insurance contracts.

(2) In the event that a financial institution, etc. under special monitoring that is a Shinkin bank, etc. is unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets or is likely to be unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets, or has suspended payment of obligations or is likely to suspend payment of obligations, the relevant financial institution, etc. under special monitoring may, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 48-3 and Article 58, paragraph (1) of the Shinkin Bank Act, Article 53 and Article 57-3, paragraph (1) of the Small and Medium-Sized Enterprise Cooperatives Act, and Article 53 and Article 62, paragraph (1) of the Labor Bank Act, transfer its business with the permission of the court.

(3) In the event that a financial institution, etc. under special monitoring that is a mutual company (meaning the mutual company prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (5) of the Insurance Business Act; the same applies hereinafter) is unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets or is likely to be unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets, or has suspended payment of obligations or is likely to suspend payment of obligations, the relevant financial institution, etc. under special monitoring may, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 62-2, paragraph (1), items (i) through (ii)-2 and Article 136 of the same Act, carry out the following with the permission of the court:

(i) transfer of all or a material portion of its business;

(ii) assignment of all or part of the shares or equity interest of its subsidiary company; and

(iii) transfer of insurance contracts.

(4) In the event that a financial institution, etc. under special monitoring is unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets or is likely to be unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets, or has suspended payment of obligations or is likely to suspend payment of obligations, when the DICJ finds it to be inappropriate to have the director (in the case of a company with an audit and supervisory committee, a director who is an audit and supervisory committee member or another director), executive officer, accounting advisor, corporate auditor or accounting auditor (hereinafter referred to as the "officer, etc." in this Article) of the financial institution, etc. under special monitoring continue to carry out their duties, the DICJ may, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 339, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act (including cases where it is applied by replacing the terms pursuant to the provisions of Article 347, paragraph (1) of the same Act) and Article 403, paragraph (1) of the same Act, Article 35-8, paragraph (1), of the Shinkin Bank Act, Article 42, paragraph (1) of the Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises Cooperatives Act, Article 37-6, paragraph (1) of the Labor Bank Act, and Article 53-8, paragraph (1) and Article 53-27, paragraph (1) of the Insurance Business Act, dismiss the officer, etc. of the financial institution, etc. under special monitoring with the permission of the court.

(5) In the event that the DICJ intends to dismiss any officer, etc. of a financial institution, etc. under special monitoring under the preceding paragraph, when the number of officers, etc. will fail to meet the number prescribed by an Act or by the articles of incorporation, the DICJ may, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 329, paragraph (1) and Article 402, paragraph (2) of the Companies Act, Article 32, paragraph (3) of the Shinkin Bank Act, Article 35, paragraph (3) of the Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises Cooperatives Act, Article 32, paragraph (3) of the Labor Bank Act, and Article 52, paragraph (1) and Article 53-26, paragraph (2) of the Insurance Business Act, appoint an officer, etc. of the financial institution, etc. under special monitoring with the permission of the court.

(6) The officer, etc. (excluding an executive officer; hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph) of a financial institution, etc. under special monitoring appointed under the preceding paragraph will resign at the conclusion of the first annual shareholders meeting, ordinary general meeting (in cases where a general meeting of representatives is established, at which it is possible to appoint officers, etc., the ordinary general meeting of representatives), or annual general meeting of members (in cases where a general meeting of representatives is established, at which it is possible to appoint an executive officer, the annual general meeting of representatives) convened after the conclusion of the special monitoring, and an executive officer will resign at the completion of the first meeting of the board of directors held after the conclusion of the relevant shareholders meeting or annual general meeting of members (in cases where a general meeting of representatives is established, at which it is possible to appoint officers, etc., the annual general meeting of representatives).

(7) If the permission prescribed in paragraphs (1) through (5) has been granted, it will be deemed that a resolution of a shareholders meeting, class meeting (in the case of the Shinkin bank, etc., general meeting or general meeting of representatives, and in the case of a mutual company, general meeting of members or general meeting of representatives) or board of directors meeting has been adopted concerning matters in relation to the relevant permission. With regard to application of the provisions of Article 16, paragraph (1), Article 136-2, paragraph (1), and Article 250, paragraphs (3) and (5) of the Insurance Business Act in this case, the term "two weeks before the date of the shareholders meeting related to the resolution on the reduction (or, the date of the board of directors meeting where Article 447, paragraph (3) (Reductions in Amount of Capital) or Article 448, paragraph (3) (Reductions in Amount of Reserves) of the Companies Act)" in Article 16, paragraph (1) of the same Act will be deemed to be "a day within two weeks after the grant of the permission set forth in Article 126-13, paragraph (1) of the Deposit Insurance Act (Act No. 34 of 1971) in relation to the reduction," the term "two weeks before the date of the shareholders' meeting, etc. set forth in Article 136, paragraph (1) " in Article 136-2, paragraph (1) of the same Act will be deemed to be replaced with "a day within two weeks after the grant of the permission set forth in Article 126-13, paragraph (1) or paragraph (3) of the Deposit Insurance Act in relation to transfer of insurance contracts," and the term "the following paragraph" in Article 250, paragraph (3), item (i) of the same Act and the term "the preceding paragraph" in paragraph (5) of the same Article will be deemed to be replaced with "Article 126-13, paragraph (11) of the Deposit Insurance Act," and the provisions of paragraph (4) of the same Article do not apply.

- (8) In the event that a financial institution, etc. under special monitoring is unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets or is likely to be unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets, or has suspended payment of obligations or is likely to suspend payment of obligations, when the DICJ finds it to be inappropriate to have the representative in Japan of the financial institution, etc. under special monitoring continue to carry out their duties, the DICJ may, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 817, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act and Article 193, paragraph (1) of the Insurance Business Act, specify the representative in Japan of the financial institution, etc. under special monitoring with the permission of the court.
- (9) The representative in Japan of a financial institution, etc. under special monitoring specified pursuant to the preceding paragraph will resign at the conclusion of the special monitoring.
- (10) The district court which has jurisdiction over the location of the head office or principal office of the financial institution, etc. under special monitoring (in the event that the head office or principal office is in a foreign state, the principal business office or office in Japan) has jurisdiction over cases in relation to the permission prescribed in paragraphs (1) through (5) and paragraph (8) (hereinafter referred to as a "substituted permission" in this Article).
- (11) The court must, when it has made a substituted permission, serve a written decision thereof on the financial institution, etc. under special monitoring and give public notice of the outline of the decision.
- (12) The public notice under the preceding paragraph will be published in the Official Gazette.
- (13) A decision on the substituted permission takes effect as of the time of service thereof on the financial institution, etc. under special monitoring under paragraph (11).
- (14) Shareholders, members or association members of Shinkin banks, etc., members of mutual companies, or foreign companies or foreign insurance company, etc. may make an immediate appeal against a decision on the substituted permission within an unextendable period of two weeks from the date of the public notice set forth in paragraph (11).

- (15) The provisions of Article 5, Article 6, Article 7, paragraph (2), Article 40, Article 41, Article 56, paragraph (2), and Article 66, paragraphs (1) and (2) of the Non-Contentious Cases Procedures Act do not apply to cases in relation to the substituted permission.
- (16) The provisions of Article 88 apply mutatis mutandis to the case where substituted permission in relation to matters specified in paragraph (1), item (i), (ii), or (v) or matters prescribed in paragraph (4) or (5) has been granted.

(Requests for the Suspension of the Collection of Claims)

Article 126-14 When the DICJ finds that orderly resolution of assets and liabilities of the relevant financial institutions, etc. under special monitoring is likely to be hindered if a financial institution, etc. that is a creditor of a financial institution, etc. under special monitoring (in the event that the financial institution, etc. under special monitoring is a foreign bank branch, a creditor of the foreign bank prescribed in Article 10, paragraph (2), item (viii) of the Banking Act (hereinafter referred to as a "foreign bank") in relation to the relevant foreign bank branch) collects claims from the financial institution, etc. under special monitoring or exercises any other right of a creditor specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance, the DICJ must request the relevant financial institution, etc. to refrain from exercising the relevant right until transfer of business is conducted or any other necessary measures for avoiding the risk of severe disruption being caused to the financial system in Japan are taken.

(Opinions of the Prime Minister Regarding a Petition for the Commencement of Bankruptcy Proceedings)

Article 126-15 When a petition has been filed against a financial institution, etc. under special monitoring for commencement of bankruptcy proceedings (in the event that the financial institution, etc. under special monitoring is a foreign bank branch, commencement of bankruptcy proceedings of the foreign bank in relation to the relevant foreign bank branch), commencement of rehabilitation proceedings (in the event that the financial institution, etc. under special monitoring is a foreign bank branch, commencement of rehabilitation proceedings of the foreign bank in relation to the relevant foreign bank branch), commencement of reorganization proceedings (in the event that the financial institution, etc. under special monitoring is a foreign bank branch, commencement of reorganization proceedings of the foreign bank in relation to the relevant foreign bank branch), commencement of special liquidation (in cases where the financial institution, etc. under special monitoring is a foreign company, foreign bank branch, or foreign insurance company, etc.), commencement of liquidation under the provisions of Article 822, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 213 of the Insurance Business Act; the same applies hereinafter)) or recognition of foreign insolvency proceedings (in the event that the financial institution, etc. under special monitoring is a foreign bank branch, recognition of foreign insolvency proceedings of the foreign bank in relation to the relevant foreign bank branch), the Prime Minister may, before a ruling or order is given on the relevant petition, state that measures for orderly resolution of assets and liabilities of the relevant financial institution, etc. under special monitoring have been taken, and state any other matters concerning the relevant financial institution, etc. under special monitoring, and express opinions on the timing of the relevant ruling or order and other matters to the court.

(Movables Prohibited from Seizure)

Article 126-16 A movable or claim in relation to the business of a financial institution, etc. subject to specified confirmation in relation to specified measures under item (ii) which the specified assuming financial institution, etc. prescribed in Article 126-28, paragraph (1) or the specified assuming holding company, etc. prescribed in the same paragraph succeeds to or receives by transfer through specified merger, etc. (limited to those designated by the Prime Minister (in the event that the financial institution, etc. subject to specified confirmation in relation to specified measures under item (ii) is a labor bank, Rokinren banks, or a subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc., the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that it is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. or a subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin Bank, the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry)) may not be seized.

(Retention of Assets Within Japan)

Article 126-17 The Prime Minister (in the event that the financial institution, etc. subject to specified confirmation is a labor bank, Rokinren banks, or a subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc., the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that it is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. or a subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin Bank, the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry) may, when and to the extent that they find it necessary for smoothly implementing the orderly resolution of assets and liabilities of the financial institution, etc. subject to specified confirmation, order the relevant financial institution, etc. to retain part of its assets specified by Cabinet Order, within Japan, pursuant to the provisions of the Cabinet Order.

(Application Mutatis Mutandis of Provisions Concerning Financial Administrators)

Article 126-18 The provisions of Articles 76 and 86 apply mutatis mutandis to a financial institution, etc. under special monitoring (limited to a financial institution, etc. under special monitoring that is unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets or is likely to be unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets, or has suspended payment of obligations or is likely to suspend payment of obligations), the provisions of Article 82 apply mutatis mutandis to a special monitoring agent, and the provisions of Article 89 apply mutatis mutandis to a financial institution, etc. under special monitoring. In this case, the term "a bank, etc. or The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd." in Article 76, paragraph (1) will be deemed to be replaced with "a stock company"; the term "in the event that the financial institution under management set forth in the same paragraph is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd." in paragraph (2) of the same Article will be deemed to be replaced with "in the event that the financial institution under management set forth in the same paragraph is the subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc. prescribed in Article 126-2, paragraph (2), item (i), the term 'the Prime Minister' in the previous paragraph will be deemed to be replaced with 'the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare,' and in the event that it is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. or a subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin Bank"; the term "a financial institution under management" in Article 86, paragraph (1) will be deemed to be replaced with "a financial institution, etc. under special monitoring (limited to the financial institution, etc. under special monitoring prescribed in Article 126-3, paragraph (2) that is unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets or is likely to be unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets, or has suspended payment of obligations or is likely to suspend payment of obligations; hereinafter the same applies in this Article) and that is not the mutual company prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (5) of the Insurance Business Act"; the term "resolutions or decisions under Article 48-3 of the Shinkin Bank Act, Article 53 of the Small and Medium Sized Enterprises Cooperatives Act, or Article 53 of the Labor Bank Act, and" in the same paragraph will be deemed to be replaced with "resolutions or decisions under Article 48-3 of the Shinkin Bank Act, Article 53 of the Small and Medium Sized Enterprises Cooperatives Act, or Article 53 of the Labor Bank Act,."; the term "resolutions or decisions under Article 22, paragraph (2), Article 29, paragraph (4) or Article 35, paragraph (2) of the Act on Financial Institutions' Merger and Conversion" in the same paragraph will be deemed to be replaced with "resolutions or decisions under Article 22, paragraph (2), Article 29, paragraph (4) or Article 35, paragraph (2) of the Act on Financial Institutions' Merger and Conversion, and resolutions under Article 69, set forth in the same paragraph), and in the case of a Shinkin bank, etc., a general meeting (in cases where a general meeting of representatives is established, the general meeting of representatives)"; the term "In this case" in paragraph (7) of the same Article will be deemed to be replaced with "In this case, the term 'its shareholders, etc.' in paragraph (4) will be deemed to be replaced with 'its shareholders, etc. or, in the case of the mutual company prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (5) of the Insurance Business Act, its members (in cases where a general meeting of representatives is established, its representatives)'; the term 'meaning the shareholders meeting, etc. prescribed in Article 66, paragraph (2)' in the same paragraph will be deemed to be replaced with 'meaning the shareholders meeting, etc. prescribed in Article 66, paragraph (2) and, in the case of the mutual company prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (5) of the Insurance Business Act, a general meeting of members (in cases where a general meeting of representatives is established, the general meeting of representative)"; the term "the term 'a majority as prescribed in paragraph (1)'" in the same paragraph will be deemed to be replaced with "and the term 'a majority as prescribed in paragraph (1)'" and the term "a bank, etc. or The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd." in Article 89 will be deemed to be replaced with "a stock company"; and any other necessary technical replacement of terms will be specified by Cabinet Order.

(Loan of Funds Necessary for Avoiding the Risk of Severe Disruption Being Caused to the Financial System)

- Article 126-19 (1) In the event that the DICJ receives from a financial institution, etc. subject to specified confirmation in relation to specified measures under item (i) an application for loan of funds, etc. (meaning the loan of funds necessary for avoiding the risk of severe disruption being caused to the financial system in Japan or guarantee of obligations necessary for avoiding the risk of severe disruption being caused to the financial system in Japan), the DICJ may, when it finds it necessary, and following a resolution of the board, decide to provide the loan or the guarantee of obligations in relation to the relevant application within the limit necessary.
- (2) When a loan under the preceding paragraph has been provided or when the obligations in relation to guarantee of obligations under the same paragraph have been paid, the DICJ has the right to have its claims satisfied out of the assets of the financial institution, etc. in relation to the right to reimbursement based on the relevant loan or the relevant guarantee of obligations in preference over other creditors.
- (3) The order of the statutory lien under the preceding paragraph will be next to the general statutory lien under the provisions of the Civil Code.

(Revocation of Specified Confirmation Regarding Specified Measures Under Item (i))

Article 126-20 (1) If a financial institution, etc. subject to specified confirmation in relation to specified measures under item (i) falls under the financial institution, etc. specified in Article 126-2, paragraph (1), item (ii), the Prime Minister may, following deliberation by the council, rescind the relevant specified confirmation.

(2) The provisions of Article 126-2, paragraphs (3), (7) and (9) apply mutatis mutandis to revocation of the specified confirmation under the preceding paragraph.

(Submission of Plans Specifying Measures to Enhance Adequacy of Equity Capital or Otherwise Improve Financial Conditions)

Article 126-21 (1) A financial institution, etc. subject to specified confirmation in relation to specified measures under item (i) must, when the relevant financial institution, etc. and a financial institution, etc. which has the relevant financial institution, etc. as a subsidiary, etc. of a financial institution, etc. do not make an application prescribed in paragraph (1) or (3) of the following Article, submit a plan to the Prime Minister within the period prescribed in Article 126-2, paragraph (5), setting forth measures to enhance the adequacy of equity capital or otherwise improve the financial conditions by a means other than subscription for specified shares, etc. in relation to specified measures under item (i).

(2) If the Prime Minister finds that the plan submitted under the preceding paragraph by a financial institution, etc. subject to specified confirmation in relation to specified measures under item (i) is appropriate, the minister may, following deliberation by the council, rescind the specified confirmation in relation to the relevant financial institution, etc.

(3) The provisions of Article 126-2, paragraphs (3), (7) and (9) apply mutatis mutandis to revocation of the specified confirmation under the preceding paragraph.

(4) In the event that a financial institution, etc. subject to specified confirmation in relation to specified measures under item (i) and a financial institution, etc. which has the financial institution, etc. as a subsidiary, etc. of a financial institution, etc. have not made an application prescribed in paragraph (1) or (3) of the following Article within the period prescribed in Article 126-2, paragraph (5), when the relevant financial institution, etc. subject to specified confirmation in relation to specified measures under item (i) does not submit the plan prescribed in paragraph (1) within the relevant period, the Prime Minister may rescind the relevant specified confirmation.

(5) If the Prime Minister finds that the plan submitted by a financial institution, etc. under paragraph (1) is not appropriate, they may rescind the specified confirmation.

- (6) If the Prime Minister intends to rescind the specified confirmation in relation to specified measures under item (i) under the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs, they must hear the opinion of the Minister of Finance in advance.
- (7) The provisions of Article 126-2, paragraphs (3), (7) and (9) apply mutatis mutandis to revocation of the specified confirmation in relation to specified measures under item (i) under paragraph (4) or (5).

(Decisions on Subscription for Specified Shares)

Article 126-22 (1) A financial institution, etc. subject to specified confirmation in relation to specified measures under item (i) (excluding a financial institution, etc. which has suspended payment of obligations) may apply to the DICJ to carry out a subscription for specified shares, etc. (meaning subscription for shares other than preferred shares or the subscription for specified preferred shares, etc. prescribed in Article 126-28, paragraph (3); the same applies hereinafter) of the relevant financial institution, etc. to enhance the adequacy of equity capital or otherwise improve the financial conditions of the relevant financial institution, etc.

- (2) When the DICJ has received an application under the preceding paragraph, the DICJ must request a decision from the Prime Minister (in the event that the financial institution, etc. in relation to the relevant application is a labor bank, Rokinren banks, or a subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc., the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that it is the Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. or a subsidiary, etc. of The Shoko Chukin Bank, the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry) in joint name with the relevant financial institution, etc. as to whether or not to carry out the subscription for specified shares, etc. in relation to the relevant application.
- (3) A financial institution, etc. which has a financial institution, etc. subject to specified confirmation in relation to specified measures under item (i) (excluding a financial institution, etc. which has suspended payment of obligations) as a subsidiary, etc. of a financial institution, etc. may apply to the DICJ to carry out the subscription for specified shares, etc. of the relevant financial institution, etc. to enhance the adequacy of equity capital or otherwise improve the financial conditions of the relevant subsidiary, etc. of a financial institution, etc. subject to specified confirmation.
- (4) When the DICJ has received an application under the preceding paragraph, the DICJ must request a decision from the Prime Minister (in the event that the subsidiary, etc. of a financial institution, etc. in relation to the relevant application is a subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc., the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that it is a subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin Bank, the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry) in joint name with the financial institution, etc. that has made the application as to whether or not to carry out the subscription for specified shares, etc. in relation to the relevant application.

- (5) A financial institution, etc. subject to specified confirmation in relation to specified measures under item (i) that has made an application prescribed in paragraph (1) or a financial institution, etc. subject to specified confirmation in relation to specified measures under item (i) which is a subsidiary, etc. of a financial institution, etc. of the financial institution, etc. that has made an application prescribed in paragraph (3) (hereinafter referred to as "subject subsidiary, etc." in this Chapter) must submit to the Prime Minister (in the event that the financial institution, etc. in relation to the application set forth in paragraph (1) or the subject subsidiary, etc. in relation to the application set forth in paragraph (3) is a labor bank, Rokinren bank, or a subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc., the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that it is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. or a subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin Bank, the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry; the same applies in the following paragraph, Article 105, paragraphs (5) and (6) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to paragraph (7), and Article 126-24) a management soundness improvement plan (meaning a plan to improve sound business management; hereinafter the same applies in this Chapter) setting forth measures to streamline the management and to establish a responsible management system (including, in the event that a financial institution, etc. has made an application prescribed in paragraph (3), the management system of the relevant financial institution, etc.) and other measures specified by Cabinet Order. In this case, the subject subsidiary, etc. of the financial institution, etc. that is to make an application prescribed in paragraph (3) must submit the relevant plan in joint name with the relevant financial institution, etc.
- (6) The Prime Minister is to make a decision to carry out the subscription for specified shares, etc. in relation to specified measures under item (i) in relation to an application prescribed in paragraph (1) or (3) only if all of the following requirements are satisfied:
- (i) there are no serious difficulties associated with the disposal of the specified shares, etc. (meaning shares, etc., specified subordinated bonds (meaning bonds with a special clause of subordinated contents with regard to the payment of principal and interest, which fall under bonds specified by Cabinet Order as contributing to the adequacy of equity capital or otherwise improving the financial conditions of those other than a bank, etc., bank holding company, etc. or The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd.; the same applies hereinafter), equity investments of those other than stock companies and the cooperative structured financial institutions prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (1) of the Preferred Equity Investment Act, or claims in relation to funds) (including the following in the case of shares, etc., and including equivalents of the following in the case of specified subordinated bonds, equity investments of those other than stock companies and the cooperative structured financial institutions prescribed in the same paragraph, or claims in relation to funds) or loan claims acquired by the DICJ in connection with the subscription for specified shares, etc. in relation to specified measures under item (i);

(a) in the event that the specified shares, etc. are shares, the shares specified below:

1. in the event that the relevant shares are those for which a request for conversion into shares of another class (meaning the delivery of shares of another class in exchange for the acquisition of the relevant shares by their issuing company; hereinafter the same applies in this Chapter) can be made, shares of another class into which the relevant shares are converted pursuant to the request;
2. in the event that the relevant shares are convertible upon the occurrence of certain events, shares of another class into which the relevant shares are converted as a result of the occurrence; and
3. shares split or consolidated with respect to the relevant shares or the shares of another class specified in 1 or 2;

(b) in the event that the relevant specified shares, etc. are subordinated bonds, shares delivered through the exercise of share options attached to the relevant subordinated bonds and shares split or consolidated with respect thereto; and

(c) in the event that the relevant specified shares, etc. are preferred equity investments, preferred equity investments split with respect to the relevant preferred equity investments.

(ii) if a financial institution, etc. has made an application prescribed in paragraph (3), the financial institution, etc. is not unable to satisfy its obligations in full with its assets; and

(iii) the financial institution, etc. in relation to the application set forth in paragraph (1) or the subject subsidiary, etc. in relation to the application set forth in paragraph (3) is expected to implement the following measures through the reliable execution of the management soundness improvement plan, etc.:

(a) measures to streamline the management;

- (b) measures to clarify management responsibilities; and
 - (c) measures to clarify shareholder responsibilities.
- (7) The provisions of Article 105, paragraph (5) apply mutatis mutandis to the case of making a decision under the preceding paragraph; the provisions of paragraph (6) of the same Article apply mutatis mutandis to the case of having made a decision under paragraph (2) or (4), the provisions of paragraph (7) of the same Article apply mutatis mutandis to the case where a decision is made not to carry out subscription for specified shares, etc. in relation to specified measures under item (i) in relation to the application prescribed in paragraph (1) or (3); the provisions of paragraph (8) of the same Article apply mutatis mutandis to rescission of specified confirmation in relation to specified measures under item (i) under paragraph (7) of the same Article as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this paragraph; the provisions of Article 106, in the event that the application prescribed in paragraph (1) or (3) has been made (in the event that an application prescribed in paragraph (1) has been made, limited to applications in relation to subscription for shares), apply mutatis mutandis to the financial institution, etc. that has made the application prescribed in paragraph (1) and has received a decision under the preceding paragraph with regard to the relevant application and that is a stock company, or to the financial institution, etc. or its subject subsidiary, etc. that has made the application prescribed in paragraph (3) and that is a stock company; the provisions of Article 107 apply mutatis mutandis to the case where the DICJ carries out subscription for specified shares, etc. in accordance with a decision under the preceding paragraph; the provisions of Article 107-2 apply mutatis mutandis to the case where the application prescribed in paragraph (1) or (3) is for subscription for shares or subordinated bonds (limited to those with share options) or specified subordinated bonds (limited to those with share options) and a decision under the preceding paragraph has been made with regard to the relevant application; the provisions of Article 107-3 apply mutatis mutandis to shares with restricted voting right prescribed in Article 115 of the Companies Act that have been issued in accordance with a decision under the relevant paragraph by a financial institution, etc. subject to specified confirmation in relation to specified measures under item (i) or a financial institution, etc. with the relevant financial institution as its subject subsidiary, etc.; and the provisions of Article 107-4 apply mutatis mutandis to preferred equity investments that have been issued in accordance with a decision under the relevant paragraph by a financial institution that is subject to specified confirmation in relation to specified measures under item (i). In this case, the term "the Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd." in Article 105, paragraph (5) will be deemed to be replaced with "the Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. or a subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin Bank (meaning the subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin

(Publication of Plans Regarding Subscription for Specified Shares)

Article 126-24 (1) The Prime Minister is to, upon making a decision under Article 126-22, paragraph (6), make public the management soundness improvement plan submitted under paragraph (5) of the same Article; provided, however, that this does not apply to information whose disclosure is likely to cause disruption to the financial system, matters which are likely to lead to the divulgence of any secret of creditors or any other business customers of a financial institution, etc. that has submitted the management strengthening plan (including a financial institution, etc. and a subsidiary, etc. of the financial institution, etc. that have submitted the relevant management soundness improvement plan in joint name; hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph), or matters which are likely to bring undue disadvantage to the conduct of business by the relevant financial institution, etc. that has submitted the management soundness improvement plan.

(2) The Prime Minister may, until the time when the DICJ makes a disposal or receives redemption or repayment with respect to the whole of acquired specified shares, etc. or acquired specified loan claims (meaning loan claims acquired by the DICJ pursuant to subscription for specified shares, etc. in relation to specified measures under item (i); hereinafter the same applies in this Chapter), request a financial institution, etc. subject to specified confirmation in relation to the specified measures under item (i) (including a financial institution, etc. that has submitted a management soundness improvement plan under Article 126-22, paragraph (5) in joint name with the relevant financial institution, etc.) to report the status of implementation of the management soundness improvement plan submitted under the same paragraph and make the report public.

(3) The term "acquired specified shares, etc." as used in the preceding paragraph means the following:

(i) the specified shares, etc. (meaning shares, etc., specified subordinated bonds, equity investments of those other than stock companies and the cooperative structured financial institutions prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (1) of the Preferred Equity Investment Act, or claims in relation to funds; the same applies in the following item) acquired by the DICJ pursuant to subscription for specified shares, etc. in relation to specified measures under item (i) (including the following in the case of shares, etc., and including equivalents of the following in the case of specified subordinated bonds, equity investments of those other than stock companies and the cooperative structured financial institutions prescribed in the same paragraph, or claims in relation to funds):

(a) in the event that the specified shares, etc. are shares, the shares specified below:

1. in the event that the relevant shares are those for which a request for conversion into shares of another class can be made, shares of another class into which the relevant shares are converted pursuant to the request;
2. in the event that the relevant shares are convertible upon the occurrence of certain events, shares of another class into which the relevant shares are converted as a result of the occurrence; and
3. shares split or consolidated with respect to the relevant shares or the shares of another class specified in 1 or 2;

(b) in the event that the relevant specified shares, etc. are subordinated bonds, shares delivered through the exercise of share options attached to the relevant subordinated bonds and shares split or consolidated with respect thereto; and

(c) in the event that the relevant specified shares, etc. are preferred equity investments, preferred equity investments split with respect to the relevant preferred equity investments; and

(ii) the shares (including the following) allotted to the DICJ by a company that has become a wholly owning parent stock company in share exchange or wholly owning parent company incorporated through share transfer of a financial institution, etc. with respect to whom the DICJ has carried out the subscription for specified shares, etc. in relation to specified measures under item (i) and other specified shares, etc. specified by Cabinet Order:

- (a) in the event that the relevant shares are those for which a request for conversion into shares of another class can be made, shares of another class into which the relevant shares are converted pursuant to the request;
- (b) in the event that the relevant shares are convertible upon the occurrence of certain events, shares of another class into which the relevant shares are converted as a result of the occurrence; and
- (c) shares split or consolidated with respect to the relevant shares or the shares of another class specified in (a) or (b).

(Authorization for Share Exchange Regarding Specified Measures Under Item (i))

Article 126-25 (1) A financial institution, etc. (including a company prescribed in item (i) of the following paragraph in the event that the authorization set forth in this paragraph is given) with respect to which the DICJ has carried out the subscription for specified shares, etc. in accordance with a decision under Article 126-22, paragraph (6), which has issued acquired specified shares, etc. (meaning the acquired specified shares, etc. prescribed in paragraph (3) of the preceding Article; hereinafter the same applies in this Chapter) actually held by the DICJ (hereinafter referred to as "issuing financial institution, etc." in this Article) must obtain the authorization of the Prime Minister (in the event that the issuing financial institution, etc. is a subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc., the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that it is a subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin Bank, the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry; the same applies in the following paragraph) in advance when the relevant financial institution, etc. intends to effect a share exchange (limited to those through which the issuing financial institution, etc. becomes a wholly owned subsidiary company in share exchange) or share transfer (hereinafter referred to as "share exchange, etc." in this Article).

(2) The Prime Minister is to give the authorization set forth in the preceding paragraph only if all of the following requirements are satisfied:

- (i) a company that is to become, through the share exchange, etc., a wholly owning parent stock company in a share exchange or a wholly owning parent company incorporated through a share transfer of the issuing financial institution, etc. is a financial institution, etc. which has a financial

- institution, etc. as a subsidiary, etc. of a financial institution, etc. (including those that will be newly established);
- (ii) the type of acquired specified shares, etc. to be allotted to the DICJ through the share exchange, etc. is found to be the same as the type of acquired specified shares, etc. actually held by the DICJ prior to the relevant share exchange, etc., and the ratio of voting rights in relation to acquired specified shares, etc. actually held by the DICJ after the relevant share exchange, etc. to voting rights of all shareholders of the company prescribed in the preceding item is not significantly lower than the ratio of voting rights in relation to acquired specified shares, etc. held by the DICJ prior to the relevant share exchange, etc. to voting rights of all shareholders of the relevant issuing financial institution, etc.; and
 - (iii) there will be no difficulty in disposing of shares which are the acquired shares, etc. following the share exchange, etc.
- (3) If the issuing financial institution, etc. has carried out the share exchange, etc. following the authorization set forth in paragraph (1), the relevant issuing financial institution, etc. or a subsidiary, etc., that is the subject subsidiary, etc. (including the bridge subsidiary, etc. prescribed in paragraph (4) of the following Article) of the financial institution, etc., with respect to which the DICJ has carried out the subscription for specified shares, etc. in accordance with a decision under Article 126-22, paragraph (6) (limited to a decision in relation to the application set forth in paragraph (1) of the same Article), or with respect to which the DICJ has carried out the subscription for specified shares, etc. in accordance with a decision under Article 126-22, paragraph (6) (limited to a decision in relation to the application set forth in paragraph (3) of the same Article) must submit to the Prime Minister, in joint name with a company that has become, through the relevant share exchange, etc., a wholly owning parent stock company in share exchange or wholly owning parent company incorporated through share transfer of the relevant issuing financial institution, etc., replacing the management strengthening plan (meaning the plan submitted under Article 126-22, paragraph (5), this paragraph, or paragraph (3) of the following Article as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (4) of the following Article) that has been implemented, a new management soundness improvement plan stating, beyond the measures stated in the relevant management soundness improvement plan (excluding the part in relation to the management system of the financial institution, etc. in joint name with whom the relevant management soundness improvement plan was submitted), measures to establish a responsible management system in a company that has become, through the share exchange, etc., a wholly owning parent stock company in share exchange or wholly owning parent company incorporated through share transfer of the relevant issuing financial institution, etc., and other measures specified by Cabinet Order (in the event that the financial institution, etc. submitting the management soundness improvement plan is a subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc., the management soundness improvement plan will be submitted to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that it is a subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin Bank, the management soundness improvement plan will be submitted to the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry; the same applies in the following paragraph).

- (4) The provisions of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to the management soundness improvement plan submitted to the Prime Minister under the preceding paragraph. In this case, the term "financial institution, etc. ... (... that has submitted a management soundness improvement plan under Article 126-22, paragraph (5))" in paragraph (2) of the preceding Article will be deemed to be replaced with "financial institution, etc. ... that has submitted a management soundness improvement plan under paragraph (3) of the following paragraph (... that has submitted the relevant management soundness improvement plan.", and any other necessary technical replacement of terms will be specified by Cabinet Order.

(Authorization for Corporate Reorganization Regarding Specified Measures Under Item (i))

Article 126-26 (1) A financial institution, etc. (including a bridge financial institution, etc. prescribed in item (i) of the following paragraph in the event that the authorization set forth in this paragraph is given) with respect to which the DICJ has carried out the subscription for specified shares, etc. in accordance with a decision under Article 126-22, paragraph (6) (limited to a decision in relation to the application set forth in paragraph (1) of the same Article), and which is an issuer of acquired specified shares, etc. or obligor of acquired specified loan claims actually held by the DICJ (hereinafter referred to as "subject financial institution, etc." in this Article) must, when the financial institution, etc. intends to implement a merger, company split, takeover of all or part of rights and obligations concerning business through a company split, or transfer of business, etc. (hereinafter referred to as "corporate reorganization" in this Article), obtain the authorization of the Prime Minister (in the event that the subject financial institution, etc. is a labor bank, Rokinren banks, or a Subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc., the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that it is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. or a subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin Bank, the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry; the same applies in the following paragraph) in advance.

- (2) The Prime Minister is to give the authorization set forth in the preceding paragraph only if all of the following requirements are satisfied:
 - (i) a corporation that is to become an issuer of acquired specified shares, etc. or obligor of acquired specified loan claims held by the DICJ after the corporate reorganization is the subject financial institution, etc. or is another financial institution, etc. (including those that will be newly established; hereinafter referred to as "bridge financial institution, etc." in this Article) that succeeds to the whole of the business in relation to the relevant management soundness improvement plan (meaning the plan submitted under Article 126-22, paragraph (5) or the following paragraph) that has been implemented by the relevant subject financial institution, etc. (hereinafter referred to as "management strengthening operations" in this paragraph);
 - (ii) the strengthening of management of the subject financial institution, etc. (including the bridge financial institution, etc.) is not hindered as a result of the corporate reorganization;
 - (iii) it can be expected with certainty that, when the management strengthening operations are to be succeeded to, the succession will be conducted smoothly and appropriately;
 - (iv) there will be no difficulty in making a disposal or receiving redemption or repayment with respect to the relevant acquired specified shares, etc. or acquired specified loan claims following the corporate reorganization; and
 - (v) other requirements specified by Cabinet Order.
- (3) In the event that the subject financial institution, etc. has conducted the corporate reorganization following the authorization set forth in paragraph (1), when there is any bridge financial institution, etc. in relation to the relevant corporate reorganization, the relevant bridge financial institution, etc. must submit a management soundness improvement plan, setting forth measures to streamline the management, measures to establish a responsible management system, and other measures specified by Cabinet Order, to the Prime Minister (in the event that the relevant bridge financial institution, etc. is a labor bank, Rokinren banks, or a subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc., the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that it is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. or a subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin Bank, the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry).
- (4) The provisions of the preceding three paragraphs apply mutatis mutandis to the subject subsidiary, etc. of the financial institution, etc. with respect to which the DICJ has carried out the subscription for specified shares, etc. in accordance with a decision under Article 126-22, paragraph (6) (limited to a decision in relation to the application set forth in paragraph (3) of the same Article) or the financial institution, etc. (including the bridge financial institution, etc.) with respect to which the DICJ has carried out the subscription for specified shares, etc. in accordance with a decision under paragraph (6) of the same Article (limited to a decision in relation to an application under paragraph (1) of the same Article) that has ceased to be a subject financial institution, etc. as a result of the relevant share exchange or share transfer effected by the relevant financial institution, etc. (including a bridge subsidiary, etc. (meaning another financial institution, etc. as prescribed in paragraph (2), item (i) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this paragraph; hereinafter the same applies in this Article); hereinafter referred to as "specified subject subsidiary, etc." in this Article) that has been implementing a management soundness improvement plan (meaning a plan submitted under Article 126-22, paragraph (5), paragraph (3) of the preceding Article (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to paragraph (8)), the preceding paragraph as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this paragraph, or paragraph (7)). In this case, the term "merger" in paragraph (1) will be deemed to be replaced with "until the time that the DICJ has made a disposal or received redemption or repayment with respect to the whole of acquired specified shares, etc. or acquired specified loan claims in relation to the financial institution, etc. that has carried out the subscription for specified shares, etc. in accordance with a decision under Article 126-22, paragraph (6) in relation to the relevant management soundness improvement plan, merger"; the term "the subject financial institution, etc. is a labor bank, a federation of labor banks, or" in the same paragraph will be deemed to be replaced with "a specified subject subsidiary, etc. (meaning the specified subject subsidiary, etc. prescribed in paragraph (4); the same applies in the following paragraph and paragraph (3)) which has been implementing a management soundness improvement plan is"; the term "A corporation that is to become an issuer of acquired specified shares, etc. or obligor of acquired specified loan claims held by the DICJ after the corporate reorganization is the subject financial institution, etc. or is another financial institution, etc. (including those that will be newly established; hereinafter referred to as 'bridge financial institution, etc.' in this Article) that succeeds to the whole of the business in relation to the relevant management soundness improvement plan (meaning the plan submitted under Article 126-22, paragraph (5) or the following paragraph) that has been implemented by the relevant subject financial institution, etc." in paragraph (2), item (i) will be deemed to be replaced with "A financial institution, etc. that has submitted the relevant management strengthening plan in joint name with the relevant specified subject subsidiary, etc. is a financial institution, etc. which has, as a financial institution subsidiary, etc. the relevant specified subject subsidiary, etc. or another financial institution, etc. (including those that will be newly established; hereinafter referred to as 'bridge financial institution, etc.' in this Article) that succeeds to the whole of the business in relation to the relevant management soundness improvement plan after the corporate reorganization"; the term "the subject financial institution, etc. (including the bridge financial institution, etc.)" in item (ii) of the same paragraph will be deemed to be replaced with "a specified subject subsidiary, etc. that has been implementing a management strengthening plan (including the bridge subsidiary, etc.)"; and the term "setting forth measures to achieve the rationalization of management" in the preceding paragraph will be deemed to be replaced with "in joint name with the financial institution, etc. in joint name with whom the management soundness improvement plan set forth in item (i) of the preceding paragraph was submitted, setting forth measures to achieve the rationalization of management"; and any other necessary technical replacement of terms will be specified by Cabinet Order.

- (5) A specified financial institution, etc. (meaning the financial institution, etc. set forth in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article which is an issuer of acquired specified shares, etc. or obligor of acquired specified loan claims actually held by the DICJ, and including another financial institution, etc. as prescribed in item (i) of the following paragraph in the event that the authorization set forth in this paragraph is given or the company prescribed in paragraph (2), item (i) of the preceding Article as applied mutatis mutandis in paragraph (8) in the event that the authorization set forth in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article as applied mutatis mutandis in paragraph (8) is given which is an issuer of acquired specified shares, etc. or obligor of acquired specified loan claims actually held by the DICJ (hereinafter referred to as a "financial institution, etc. after corporate reorganization" in this Article); the same applies in the following paragraph) other than a subject financial institution, etc. must, when the specified financial institution, etc. intends to conduct corporate reorganization, obtain the authorization of the Prime Minister (in the event that the relevant specified financial institution, etc. is a labor bank, Rokinren banks, or a subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc., the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that it is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. or a subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin Bank, the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry; the same applies in the following paragraph) in advance.
- (6) The Prime Minister is to give the authorization set forth in the preceding paragraph only if all of the following requirements are satisfied:
- (i) a corporation that is to become an issuer of acquired specified shares, etc. or obligor of acquired specified loan claims held by the DICJ after the corporate

- reorganization is the specified financial institution, etc. or is another financial institution, etc. (including those that will be newly established) which has the subject subsidiary, etc. in relation to the relevant specified financial institutions, etc. as a subsidiary, etc. of a financial institution, etc.;
- (ii) the business management by the specified financial institution, etc. (including another financial institution, etc. prescribed in the preceding item) of the subject subsidiary, etc. in relation to the relevant specified financial institution, etc. is not hindered as a result of the corporate reorganization;
 - (iii) there will be no difficulty in making a disposal or receiving redemption or repayment with respect to the relevant acquired specified shares, etc. or acquired specified loan claims following the corporate reorganization; and
 - (iv) other requirements specified by Cabinet Order.
- (7) In the event that a specified financial institution, etc. (meaning the financial institution, etc. set forth in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article which is an issuer of acquired specified shares, etc. or obligor of acquired specified loan claims actually held by the DICJ) other than the subject financial institution, etc. or the financial institution, etc. after corporate reorganization has conducted corporate reorganization following the authorization set forth in paragraph (5), if there is another financial institution, etc. prescribed in item (i) of the preceding paragraph, the relevant specified financial institution, etc. or the specified subject subsidiary, etc. in relation to the financial institution, etc. after corporate reorganization must submit to the Prime Minister (in the event that the relevant specified subject subsidiary, etc. is a subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc., the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that it is a subsidiary, etc. of The Shoko Chukin Bank, the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry), in joint name with that other financial institution, etc., a new management strengthening plan to replace the management soundness improvement plan that has been implemented (meaning the management soundness improvement plan prescribed in paragraph (4)), stating, beyond the measures stated in the relevant management soundness improvement plan (excluding the part in relation to the management system of the financial institution, etc. in joint name with whom the relevant management soundness improvement plan was submitted), measures to establish a responsible management system in that other financial institution, etc., and other measures specified by Cabinet Order.
- (8) The provisions of Article 126-24, paragraph (1) apply mutatis mutandis to the management soundness improvement plans submitted to the Prime Minister (in the event that the financial institution, etc. that has submitted the management soundness improvement plan is a labor bank, Rokinren banks, or a subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc., the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that it is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. or a subsidiary, etc. of The Shoko Chukin Bank, the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry) under paragraph (3) (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to paragraph (4)) or the preceding paragraph, the provisions of Article 126-24, paragraph (2) apply mutatis mutandis to the financial institution, etc. (including the financial institution, etc. in joint name with whom these management soundness improvement plans have been submitted) that has submitted these management soundness improvement plans, and the provisions of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to a bridge financial institution, etc. that is an issuer of acquired specified shares, etc. actually held by the DICJ or the financial institution, etc. after corporate reorganization that is an issuer of acquired specified shares, etc. actually held by the DICJ. In this case, the terms "the subject subsidiary, etc. (including the bridge subsidiary, etc. prescribed in paragraph (4) of the following Article) of the financial institution, etc. with respect to which the DICJ has carried out the subscription for specified shares, etc. in accordance with a decision under Article 126-22, paragraph (6) (limited to a decision in relation to the application set forth in paragraph (1) of the same Article), or with respect to which the DICJ has carried out the subscription for specified shares, etc. in accordance with a decision under Article 126-22, paragraph (6) (limited to a decision in relation to the application set forth in paragraph (3) of the same Article)" in Article 126-22, paragraph (3) will be deemed to be replaced with "the specified subject subsidiary, etc. prescribed in paragraph (4) of the following Article," and any other necessary technical replacement of terms will be specified by Cabinet Order.

(Special Provisions for Requests for the Cash-Out of Shares of Special Controlling Shareholders)

Article 126-26-2 The provisions of Part II, Chapter 2, Section 4-2 of the Companies Act do not apply to special controlling shareholders of a financial institution, etc. (including the company, etc. prescribed in Article 126-25, paragraph (2), item (i) in the event that the authorization has been given under paragraph (1) of the same Article, the bridge financial institution, etc. prescribed in paragraph (2), item (i) of the preceding Article in the event that the authorization has been given under paragraph (1) of the same Article, and the financial institution, etc. after corporate reorganization prescribed in paragraph (5) of the same Article) for which the DICJ has conducted the subscription for specified shares, etc. based on a decision under Article 126-22, paragraph (6) and which has issued shares that are acquired specified shares, etc. actually held by the DICJ or subordinated bonds (limited to those with share options) or specified subordinated bonds (limited to those with share options).

(Disposal of Acquired Specified Shares or Acquired Specified Loan Claims)

Article 126-27 (1) The DICJ must, if it intends to transfer or make any other disposal of acquired specified shares, etc. or acquired specified loan claims, obtain approval from the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance (in the event that an issuer of the relevant acquired specified shares, etc. or obligor of acquired specified loan claims is a labor bank, Rokinren banks, or a subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc., from the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the event that an issuer of the relevant acquired specified shares, etc. or obligor of acquired specified loan claims is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. or a subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin Bank, from the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry; the same applies in the following paragraph).

(2) Upon making a disposal prescribed in the preceding paragraph, the DICJ must promptly report the details thereof to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance.

(Application for Specified Financial Assistance)

Article 126-28 (1) A financial institution, etc. undertaking a specified merger, etc. that is not a financial institution, etc. subject to specified confirmation in relation to specified measures under item (ii) (the financial institution, etc. subject to specified confirmation will be hereinafter referred to as a "specified failed financial institution, etc.," and the financial institution, etc. undertaking a specified merger, etc. will be hereinafter referred to as a "specified assuming financial institution, etc.") or a specified holding company, etc. (meaning a bank holding company, etc., an insurance holding company, etc. prescribed in Article 241, paragraph (2) of the Insurance Business Act (excluding those set forth in items (ii) and (iv) of the same paragraph) or a designated parent company; the same applies hereinafter) undertaking a specified merger, etc. that is not a specified failed financial institution, etc. (hereinafter referred to as a "specified assuming holding company, etc.") may apply to have the DICJ take the following measures to support the specified merger, etc. (hereinafter referred to as the "specified financial assistance"):

- (i) donation of money;
- (ii) loan or deposit of funds;
- (iii) purchase of assets;
- (iv) guarantee of obligations;

- (v) assumption of obligations;
 - (vi) subscription for specified preferred shares, etc.; and
 - (vii) collateralization of damage.
- (2) The term "specified merger, etc." as used in the preceding paragraph means the following:
- (i) a merger in which a financial institution, etc. that merges with a specified failed financial institution, etc. survives;
 - (ii) a merger in which a financial institution, etc. is established through the merger of a specified failed financial institution, etc. and another financial institution, etc.;
 - (iii) a transfer of business, etc. in which a specified failed financial institution, etc. transfers its business to another financial institution, etc.;
 - (iv) assumption of all or part of obligations of a specified failed financial institution, etc. by another financial institution, etc. (excluding those associated with a transfer of business, etc.; hereinafter referred to as "specified assumption of obligations");
 - (v) an acquisition of shares of a specified failed financial institution, etc. that is a stock company by another financial institution, etc. or specified holding company, etc. to implement matters specified by the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance as being necessary for ensuring sound and appropriate operation of the relevant specified failed financial institution, etc.;
 - (vi) an absorption-type company split to which a specified failed financial institution, etc. is a party where another financial institution, etc. succeeds to all or part of the rights and obligations held by the specified failed financial institution, etc. in relation to its business through the relevant absorption-type company split; and
 - (vii) an incorporation-type company split to which a specified failed financial institution, etc. is a party where the financial institution, etc. newly established through the relevant incorporation-type company split succeeds to all or part of the rights and obligations held by the specified failed financial institution, etc. in relation to its business through the relevant incorporation-type company split.
- (3) The term "subscription for specified preferred shares, etc." as used in paragraph (1), item (vi) means subscription for preferred shares, etc., subscription for specified subordinated bonds, loans for consumption made pursuant to specified subordinated loan agreements (meaning loans for consumption falling under those with a special clause of subordinated contents with regard to the payment of principal and interest, and which are specified by Cabinet Order as contributing to the adequacy of equity capital or otherwise improving the financial conditions of those other than a financial institution or bank holding company, etc.), subscription for equity investments of those other than stock companies and the cooperative structured financial institutions prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (1) of the Preferred Equity Investment Act, or contribution of funds.

- (4) The specified financial assistance provided to support a merger specified in paragraph (2), item (ii) or an incorporation-type company split specified in item (vii) of the same paragraph will be provided to the specified assuming financial institution, etc. or financial institution, etc. that will be established by the merger or the incorporation-type company split, and if there are two or more specified assuming financial institutions, etc. involved in the merger or the incorporation-type company split, the application prescribed in paragraph (1) will be made in the joint names of the relevant specified assuming financial institutions, etc.
- (5) The purchase of assets specified in paragraph (1), item (iii) will be conducted with respect to the assets of a specified failed financial institution, etc. in relation to a specified merger, etc. (meaning the specified merger, etc. prescribed in paragraph (2); the same applies hereinafter) or assets specified in each of the following items according to the category of specified merger, etc. specified in the item, and if the specified financial assistance in relation to the application prescribed in paragraph (1) includes the purchase of assets of a specified failed financial institution, etc. in relation to a specified merger, etc., the specified assuming financial institution, etc. or specified assuming holding company, etc. in relation to the specified merger, etc. applies to the DICJ in joint name with the relevant specified failed financial institution, etc. for the DICJ to purchase the relevant assets:
 - (i) a merger specified in paragraph (2), item (i): the assets of the financial institution, etc. surviving through the merger (limited to those that were the assets of the specified failed financial institution, etc. prior to the merger);
 - (ii) a merger specified in paragraph (2), item (ii): the assets of the financial institution, etc. that will be established by the merger (limited to those that were the assets of the specified failed financial institution, etc. prior to the merger);
 - (iii) a transfer of business, etc. specified in paragraph (2), item (iii): the assets of another financial institution, etc. prescribed in the same item that have been received through the relevant transfer of business, etc.;
 - (iv) the acquisition of shares specified in paragraph (2), item (v): the assets of a financial institution, etc. whose shares have been so acquired;
 - (v) the absorption-type company split specified in paragraph (2), item (vi): the assets of another financial institution, etc. set forth in the same item which the financial institution, etc. has succeeded to through the absorption-type company split; and
 - (vi) the incorporation-type company split specified in paragraph (2), item (vii):

the assets of the financial institution, etc. established through the incorporation-type company split (limited to those that were assets of the specified failed financial institution, etc. prior to the incorporation-type company split).

- (6) The collateralization of damage specified in paragraph (1), item (vii) will be performed with respect to the loan claims that are the assets prescribed in each of the preceding items according to the category of specified merger, etc. specified in the items.
- (7) A financial institution, etc. or specified holding company, etc. that has made an application under paragraph (1) or (5) must promptly report to that effect to the Prime Minister (in the case of a labor bank, Rokinren banks, or a subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc., to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the case of the Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. or a subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin Bank, to the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry).
- (8) Upon receiving an application under paragraph (1) or (5), the DICJ must promptly report to that effect to the Minister of Finance; provided, however, that this does not apply to cases where the financial institution, etc. that has made the relevant application is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. or a subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin Bank.
- (9) In the event that a resolution by the board prescribed in Article 64, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 126-31 is to be deliberated with respect to the specified financial assistance in relation to the application prescribed in paragraph (1) or (5) or Article 59-2, paragraph (1) or Article 60, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 126-31, the board may, when it finds that, in light of the financial conditions of the specified failed financial institution, etc., the specified financial assistance does not exceed the scope necessary to carry out the specified merger, etc. in relation to the relevant specified financial assistance, adopt a resolution to provide the specified financial assistance.

(Specified Confirmation of Eligibility)

Article 126-29 (1) With regard to a specified merger, etc. in relation to an application prescribed in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article or Article 59-2, paragraph (1) or Article 60, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 126-31, a specified failed financial institution, etc. and specified assuming financial institution, etc. or specified failed financial institution, etc. and specified assuming holding company, etc. in relation to the relevant specified merger, etc. must obtain the confirmation of the Prime Minister by the time the application under these provisions is made.

- (2) An application for the confirmation under the preceding paragraph will be made in the joint names of the specified failed financial institution, etc. and specified assuming financial institution, etc. or specified failed financial institution, etc. and specified assuming holding company, etc. prescribed in the preceding paragraph.

- (3) The Prime Minister may not grant confirmation under paragraph (1) unless all of the following requirements are satisfied:
 - (i) the specified merger, etc. contributes to the orderly resolution of assets and liabilities of the specified failed financial institution, etc. in relation to the relevant specified merger, etc.;
 - (ii) the specified financial assistance by the DICJ is indispensable for carrying out the specified merger, etc.; and
 - (iii) if the specified merger, etc. is not carried out for a specified assuming financial institution, etc., or a specified assuming holding company, etc. pertaining thereto or with regard to the business or obligations which are to be succeeded to or assumed through the specified merger, etc. from the specified failed financial institution, etc. in relation to the specified merger, etc. (in the event that the specified merger, etc. is the acquisition of shares prescribed in paragraph (2), item (v) of the preceding Article, the business or obligations of the specified failed financial institution, etc. in relation to the specified merger, etc.), and the specified failed financial institution, etc. discontinues all its business or is dissolved, severe disruption is likely to be caused to the financial system in Japan by the discontinuation of business or default of obligations.
- (4) The Prime Minister must, when granting confirmation under paragraph (1) to a labor bank, Rokinren labor banks, or a subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc., obtain consent from the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and when granting confirmation under paragraph (1) to The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. or a subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin Bank, obtain consent from the Minister of Finance and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry.
- (5) The Prime Minister must, when granting confirmation under paragraph (1), make clear which financial institution, etc. in relation to the relevant confirmation is a specified failed financial institution, etc.
- (6) Upon granting the confirmation under paragraph (1), the Prime Minister must notify the DICJ to that effect.
- (7) Upon receiving notice under the preceding paragraph, the DICJ must promptly report to that effect to the Minister of Finance.
- (8) In the event that a company seeking to acquire the shares of a specified failed financial institution, etc. will become a holding company which has a bank as its subsidiary company prescribed in Article 52-17, paragraph (1) of the Banking Act, a holding company which has a long-term credit bank as its subsidiary company prescribed in Article 16-2-4, paragraph (1) of the Long-

Term Credit Bank Act, or a holding company which has an insurance company as its subsidiary company prescribed in Article 271-18, paragraph (1) of the Insurance Business Act through the acquisition of the relevant shares, the Prime Minister may not grant confirmation under paragraph (1) until after they has granted the authorization set forth in Article 52-17, paragraph (1) of the Banking Act, Article 16-2-4, paragraph (1) of the Long-Term Credit Bank Act, or Article 271-18, paragraph (1) of the Insurance Business Act to the relevant company.

(Mediation of Specified Mergers)

Article 126-30 Even in cases where no application is being made under paragraph (2) of the preceding Article, if the Prime Minister finds that the business or obligations of a specified failed financial institution, etc. satisfies the requirements specified in paragraph (3), item (iii) of the preceding Article, they may provide mediation in writing with regard to the specified merger, etc. (excluding the merger specified in Article 126-28, paragraph (2), item (ii) and limited to those that contribute to the orderly resolution of assets and liabilities of the specified failed financial institution, etc. in relation to the relevant specified merger, etc. and for which the specified financial assistance by the DICJ is indispensable) between the relevant specified failed financial institution, etc. and another financial institution, etc. or that specified failed financial institution, etc. and a specified holding company, etc.

(Application Mutatis Mutandis of Provisions Concerning Financial Assistance)

Article 126-31 The provisions of Article 59-2 apply mutatis mutandis to a specified assuming financial institution, etc. undertaking a specified merger, etc. (limited to the transfer of business, etc. specified in Article 126-28, paragraph (2), item (iii) whereby a specified failed financial institution, etc. transfers part of its business to another financial institution, etc., the specified assumption of obligations, the absorption-type company split specified in item (vi) of the same paragraph where another financial institution, etc. succeeds to part of the rights and obligations held by the specified failed financial institution, etc. in relation to its business, or the incorporation-type company split specified in item (vii) of the same paragraph where the newly established financial institution, etc. succeeds to part of the rights and obligations held by the specified failed financial institution, etc. in relation to its business; the provisions of Article 60 apply mutatis mutandis to a financial institution, etc. designated by the Prime Minister of which specified merger, etc. is to be supported; the provisions of Article 62 (excluding paragraph (1)) apply mutatis mutandis to the mediation set forth in the preceding Article; the provisions of Article 64 (excluding paragraph (2)) apply mutatis mutandis to an application

(Specified Financial Assistance to Specified Re-assuming Financial Institutions)

Article 126-38 (1) A financial institution, etc. that is undertaking a specified re-succession and is not a specified bridge financial institution, etc. (hereinafter referred to as "specified re-succeeding financial institution, etc." in this Article), or a specified holding company, etc. undertaking a specified re-succession and is not a specified bridge financial institution, etc. (hereinafter referred to as a "specified re-succeeding specified holding company, etc." in this Article) may apply to have the DICJ provide the specified financial assistance (limited to that specified in Article 126-28, paragraph (1), item (iii), (vi) or (vii)) to support the specified re-succession.

(2) The term "specified re-succession" as used in the preceding paragraph means the following:

- (i) a merger in which a financial institution, etc. that merges with a specified bridge financial institution, etc. survives;
- (ii) a merger in which a financial institution, etc. is established through the merger of a specified bridge financial institution, etc. and another financial institution, etc.;
- (iii) a transfer by a specified bridge financial institution, etc. of all of its business (in the event that the DICJ purchases part of the assets of the specified bridge financial institution, etc., excluding the portion in relation to the assets to be purchased) to another financial institution, etc.;
- (iv) the acquisition of shares of a specified bridge financial institution, etc. by another financial institution, etc. or specified holding company, etc. to implement matters specified by the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance as being necessary for ensuring sound and appropriate operation of the specified bridge financial institution, etc.;
- (v) an absorption-type company split to which a specified bridge financial institution, etc. is a party where another financial institution, etc. succeeds to all of the rights and obligations held by the specified bridge financial institution, etc. in relation to its business (in the event that the DICJ purchases part of the assets of the relevant specified bridge financial institution, etc., excluding the portion in relation to the assets to be purchased) through the relevant absorption-type company split; and
- (vi) an incorporation-type company split to which a specified bridge financial institution, etc. is a party where the financial institution, etc. newly

- established through the relevant incorporation-type company split succeeds to all of the rights and obligations held by the specified bridge financial institution, etc. in relation to its business (in the event that the DICJ purchases part of the assets of the relevant specified bridge financial institution, etc., excluding the portion in relation to the assets to be purchased) through then relevant absorption-type company split.
- (3) The purchase of assets prescribed in paragraph (1) will be conducted with respect to the assets prescribed in each of the following items according to the category of the specified re-succession specified in each respective item:
- (i) a merger specified in item (i) of the preceding paragraph: the assets of the financial institution, etc. surviving through the merger (limited to those that were the assets of the specified bridge financial institution, etc. prior to the merger);
 - (ii) a merger specified in item (ii) of the preceding paragraph: the assets of the financial institution, etc. that will be established by the merger (limited to those that were the assets of the specified bridge financial institution, etc. prior to the merger);
 - (iii) transfer of the business specified in item (iii) of the preceding paragraph: the assets of another financial institution, etc. prescribed in the same item that have been received through the transfer of the relevant business;
 - (iv) the acquisition of shares specified in item (iv) of the preceding paragraph: the assets of a financial institution, etc. whose shares have been acquired;
 - (v) the absorption-type company split specified in item (v) of the preceding paragraph: the assets of another financial institution, etc. set forth in the same item which the relevant financial institution, etc. has succeeded to through the absorption-type company split; and
 - (vi) the incorporation-type company split specified in item (vi) of the preceding paragraph: the assets of the financial institution, etc. established through the incorporation-type company split (limited to those that were assets of the specified bridge financial institution, etc. prior to the incorporation-type company split).
- (4) The collateralization of damage prescribed in paragraph (1) will be conducted with respect to loan claims that are the assets prescribed in each item of the preceding paragraph according to the category of the specified re-succession specified in each respective item of the preceding paragraph.
- (5) The provisions of Article 126-28, paragraphs (4), (7), and (8), and Article 126-29, paragraph (1) apply mutatis mutandis to an application under paragraph (1); and the provisions of paragraphs (2) through (4) and paragraphs (6) through (8) of the Article apply mutatis mutandis to the confirmation set forth in paragraph (1) of the Article as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this paragraph. In this case, the term "provided to the specified assuming financial

- institution, etc." in Article 126-28, paragraph (4) will be deemed to be replaced with "provided to the specified re-succeeding financial institution, etc. (meaning the specified re-succeeding financial institution, etc. prescribed in Article 126-38, paragraph (1); the same applies hereinafter)"; the term "specified holding company, etc." in paragraph (7) of the same Article will be deemed to be replaced with "specified re-succeeding specified holding company, etc. (meaning the specified re-succeeding specified holding company, etc. prescribed in Article 126-38, paragraph (1); the same applies hereinafter); the term "a specified merger, etc. in relation to" in Article 126-29, paragraph (1) will be deemed to be replaced with "a specified re-succession (meaning the specified re-succession prescribed in Article 126-38, paragraph (2); the same applies hereinafter) in relation to"; the term "Article 126-31, a specified failed financial institution, etc." in the paragraph will be deemed to be replaced with "Article 126-31, a specified bridge financial institution, etc. (meaning the specified bridge financial institution, etc. prescribed in Article 126-34, paragraph (3), item (v); the same applies hereinafter)"; and any other necessary technical replacement of terms will be specified by Cabinet Order.
- (6) Even in cases where no application is made under Article 126-29, paragraph (2) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the preceding paragraph, the Prime Minister may, when finding that the business or obligations of a specified bridge financial institution, etc. satisfy the requirements specified in paragraph (3), item (iii) of the Article as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the preceding paragraph, provide mediation in writing with regard to the specified re-succession (excluding the merger specified in paragraph (2), item (ii) and limited to those that contribute to the orderly resolution of assets and liabilities of a financial institution, etc. under special monitoring which the relevant specified bridge financial institution, etc. has succeeded to and for which the specified financial assistance by the DICJ is indispensable) between the relevant specified bridge financial institution, etc. and another financial institution, etc. or the specified bridge financial institution, etc. and a specified holding company, etc.
- (7) The provisions of Article 62, paragraphs (2) and (4) through (6) apply mutatis mutandis to the mediation prescribed in the preceding paragraph; the provisions of Article 64 (excluding paragraph (2)) and Article 64-2 apply mutatis mutandis to the application under paragraph (1); the provisions of Article 64-3, paragraph (1) apply mutatis mutandis to a specified bridge financial institution whose shares set forth in paragraph (2), item (iv) are acquired by a specified re-succeeding financial institution, etc. or a specified re-succeeding specified holding company, etc.; the provisions of Article 64-3, paragraph (2) apply mutatis mutandis to a specified re-succeeding financial institution, etc., a specified re-succeeding specified holding company, etc., or a financial institution, etc. established by the merger set forth in paragraph (2), item (ii) or the incorporation-type company split prescribed in item (vi) of the same paragraph to which the DICJ provides the specified financial assistance (limited to those in relation to to subscription for subordinated bonds (limited to those with share options) or specified subordinated bonds (limited to those with share options)); the provisions of Article 65 and Article 66 apply mutatis mutandis to the financial institution, etc. or specified holding company, etc. that has received the confirmation prescribed in Article 126-29, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to paragraph (5) or that has received the mediation prescribed in the preceding paragraph; the provisions of Article 67 apply mutatis mutandis to the specified re-succeeding financial institution, etc.; the provisions of Article 68 apply mutatis mutandis to the specified financial assistance provided by the DICJ for specified re-succession; the provisions of Article 68-2 and Article 68-3 apply mutatis mutandis to a re-succeeding financial institution, etc. (meaning a specified re-succeeding financial institution, etc. (including a financial institution, etc. established by the merger or incorporation-type company split in relation to the relevant subscription for specified preferred shares, etc.) or a specified re-succeeding specified holding company, etc. (including the company prescribed in Article 68-2, paragraph (2) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this paragraph in the event that an approval has been obtained under Article 68-2, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this paragraph, and the bridge financial institution, etc. prescribed in Article 68-3, paragraph (4) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this paragraph in the event that an approval has been obtained under Article 68-3, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this paragraph); hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph) that has received the relevant specified financial assistance (limited to those in relation to the subscription for specified preferred shares, etc.; hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph); and the provisions of Article 68-4 apply mutatis mutandis to special controlling shareholders of a re-succeeding financial institution, etc. to which the DICJ has provided the relevant specified financial assistance and which has issued shares that are acquired specified preferred shares, etc. (meaning the acquired specified preferred shares, etc. prescribed in Article 64-2, paragraph (6) as applied mutatis mutandis by replacing the terms pursuant to this paragraph) actually held by the DICJ or subordinated bonds (limited to those with share options) or specified subordinated bonds (limited to those with share options). (Payment of Specified Contributions)

- Article 126-39 (1) When public notice is given under Article 123, paragraph (4) (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 124, paragraph (3)), a financial institution, etc. must, during the period specified in the relevant public notice, pay contributions (hereinafter referred to as "specified contributions") to the DICJ to cover the costs incurred in carrying out the crisis management operations (limited to those in relation to a financial institution, etc. subject to specified confirmation or a specified bridge financial institution, etc.).
- (2) If public notice is given under the preceding paragraph, a financial institution, etc. is to submit documents specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance and pay specified contributions to the DICJ by the last day of each business year included in the period specified in the relevant public notice. In this case, in the event that there is a bank holding company, long term credit bank holding company, insurance holding company, or designated parent company which has the relevant financial institution, etc. as a subsidiary, etc. of the financial institution, etc., the relevant financial institution, etc. is to submit the relevant documents and pay the specified contributions through the person, and in the event that there is no bank holding company, long term credit bank holding company, insurance holding company, or designated parent company which has the relevant financial institution, etc. as a subsidiary, etc. of the financial institution, etc. but there is a financial institution, etc. that has the relevant financial institution, etc. as a subsidiary, etc. of the financial institution, etc., the relevant financial institution, etc. is to submit the relevant documents and pay the specified contributions through the financial institution, etc. that has the relevant financial institution, etc. as a subsidiary, etc. of the financial institution, etc. which is specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance.

- (3) The amount of specified contributions prescribed in paragraph (1) will be calculated for each financial institution, etc. by dividing by twelve the total amount of its liabilities outstanding on the last day of the business year immediately preceding the business year that includes the due date for payment of the relevant specified contributions (excluding those specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance), multiplying the resulting amount by the number of months in the business year that includes the due date for payment of the relevant specified contributions, and multiplying the resulting amount by the contribution rate specified under Article 123, paragraph (2).
- (4) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the amount of specified contributions prescribed in paragraph (1) with regard to a paying financial institution (meaning a bank holding company, long term credit bank holding company, insurance holding company, or designated parent company, or a financial institution, etc. which has a financial institution, etc. as a subsidiary, etc. of the financial institution, etc. that is specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance as set forth in paragraph (2); hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph) and a subsidiary company of the relevant paying financial institution, and any other entity specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance as a corporation of which management is controlled by the paying financial institution (hereinafter referred to as the "paying financial institution, etc.") will be calculated for each financial institution, etc. that is a paying financial institution by dividing by twelve the amount obtained by multiplying the total amount of its liabilities outstanding on the balance sheet prepared with regard to the relevant paying financial institution, etc. on a consolidated basis pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance on the last day of the business year immediately preceding the business year that includes the due date for payment of the relevant specified contributions (excluding the liabilities specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance) (hereinafter referred to as the "consolidated total amount of liabilities" in this paragraph) by the rate specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance as the rate of the amount of liabilities of each the relevant financial institution, etc. to the consolidated total amount of liabilities, multiplying the resulting amount by the number of months in the business year that includes the due date for payment of the relevant specified contributions, and multiplying the resulting amount by the contribution rate specified under Article 123, paragraph (2).

- (5) The provisions of Article 50, paragraph (2) and Article 52 apply mutatis mutandis to the specified contributions set forth in paragraph (1). In this case, the term "exempt a financial institution" in Article 50, paragraph (2) will be deemed to be replaced with "exempt a financial institution, etc. (meaning the financial institution, etc. prescribed in Article 126-2, paragraph (2); the same applies hereinafter); the term "confirmation of eligibility, etc. prescribed in Article 65" in item (ii) of the same paragraph will be deemed to be replaced with "confirmation of eligibility, etc. prescribed in Article 65 or specified confirmation of eligibility, etc. prescribed in Article 126-31"; the term "failed financial institution" in the same item will be deemed to be replaced with "failed financial institution or the specified failed financial institution, etc. prescribed in Article 126-28, paragraph (1) in relation to the relevant specified confirmation of eligibility, etc."; the term "an order to manage prescribed in Article 74, paragraph (1)" in item (iii) of the same paragraph will be deemed to be replaced with "an order to manage prescribed in Article 74, paragraph (1) or an order for specified management prescribed in Article 126-5, paragraph (1),"; the term "financial institution under management in relation to the order to manage" in the same item will be deemed to be replaced with "financial institution under management in relation to the order to manage or the financial institution, etc. in relation to the relevant order for specified management"; and the term "financial institution" in Article 52, paragraph (1) will be deemed to be "financial institution, etc."; and any other necessary technical replacement of terms will be specified by Cabinet Order.

Chapter VIII Miscellaneous Provisions

(Loan of Funds for Refunding Deposits)

- Article 127 The provisions of Article 69-3 apply mutatis mutandis to cases where an application is received from a person specified in each item of Article 69-3, paragraph (1) for the loan of funds necessary for refunding the covered deposits, etc. (limited to the repayment for the covered deposits, etc. corresponding to the amount of insurance proceeds calculated under the insurance claim calculation provisions). In this case, the term "in relation to the relevant settlement obligations calculated under Article 54-2, paragraph (1) and Article 54, paragraph (3) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 54-2, paragraph (2)" in Article 69-3, paragraph (1) will be deemed to be replaced with "in relation to the relevant covered deposits, etc. calculated under the insurance claim calculation provisions."

(Loan of Funds Necessary for the Repayment of Types of Obligations Likely to Cause Severe Disruption to the Financial System)

Article 127-2 (1) In the event that the DICJ receives from any of the following persons an application for a loan of funds necessary for the repayment of the types of obligations that are found likely to cause severe disruption to the financial system in Japan due to their default, the DICJ may, when it finds it necessary, and following a resolution of the board, decide to provide the loan in relation to the relevant application to the extent necessary:

- (i) a financial institution, etc. subject to an order for specified management;
- (ii) a specified failed financial institution, etc. (excluding a foreign bank branch) that has become subject to a ruling for the commencement of bankruptcy proceedings or a specified failed financial institution, etc. (limited to a foreign bank branch) in relation to a foreign bank that has become subject to the ruling;
- (iii) a specified failed financial institution, etc. (excluding a foreign bank branch) that has become subject to an order to manage by a provisional administrator under Article 91, paragraph (1) of the Bankruptcy Act or a specified failed financial institution, etc. (excluding a foreign bank branch) in relation to a foreign bank that has become subject to the order;
- (iv) a specified failed financial institution, etc. (excluding a foreign bank branch) that has become subject to a ruling for the commencement of reorganization proceedings or a specified failed financial institution, etc. (limited to a foreign bank branch) of a foreign bank that has become subject to the ruling;
- (v) a specified failed financial institution, etc. (excluding a foreign bank branch) that has become subject to an order to manage by a provisional administrator under Article 30, paragraph (1) of the Corporate Reorganization Act or Article 22, paragraph (1) or Article 187, paragraph (1) of the Act on Special Measures for the Reorganization Proceedings of Financial Institutions or a Specified Failed Financial Institution, etc. (limited to a Foreign Bank Branch) of a foreign bank that has become subject to the order;
- (vi) a specified failed financial institution, etc. (excluding a foreign bank branch) that has become subject to an order to manage by a provisional administrator under Article 64, paragraph (1) of the Civil Rehabilitation Act or a specified failed financial institution, etc. (limited to a foreign bank branch) of a foreign bank that has become subject to the order;
- (vii) a specified failed financial institution, etc. (excluding a foreign bank branch) that has become subject to an order to manage by a provisional

- administrator under Article 79, paragraph (1) of the Civil Rehabilitation Act or a specified failed financial institution, etc. (limited to a foreign bank branch) of a foreign bank that has become subject to the order; and
- (viii) a specified failed financial institution, etc. (excluding a foreign company, a foreign bank branch, or a foreign insurance company, etc.) that has become subject to an order for commencement of special liquidation, a specified failed financial institution, etc. (limited to a foreign company, a foreign bank branch, or a foreign insurance company, etc.) that has become subject to an order for commencement of liquidation under Article 822, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act, a specified failed financial institution, etc. (limited to a foreign bank branch) for which liquidation has been commenced pursuant to Article 51, paragraph (1) of the Banking Act, or a specified failed financial institution, etc. (limited to a foreign insurance company, etc.) for which liquidation has been commenced pursuant to Article 212, paragraph (1) of the Insurance Business Act.
- (2) The provisions of Article 64, paragraph (3) apply mutatis mutandis to the cases where a decision is made under the preceding paragraph, and the provisions of Article 64, paragraph (4) apply mutatis mutandis to the cases where a decision to provide a loan is made under the preceding paragraph. In this case, the term "a merger, etc. to which a labor bank or Rokinren banks is a party" in paragraph (3) of the same Article will be deemed to be replaced with "a labor bank, Rokinren banks, or a subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc. prescribed in Article 126-2, paragraph (2), item (i)"; the term "a merger, etc. to which the Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. is a party" in the same paragraph will be deemed to be replaced with "the Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. or a subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin Bank prescribed in the same item"; and the term "a financial institution or bank holding company, etc." in paragraph (4) of the same Article will be deemed to be replaced with "a financial institution, etc. prescribed in Article 126-2, paragraph (2)."
- (3) The loan provided under paragraph (1) to a person specified in each of the following items will, in relation to creditors other than the DICJ in bankruptcy proceedings (in the event that the financial institution, etc. is a foreign bank branch, bankruptcy proceedings of the foreign bank in relation to the relevant foreign bank branch), reorganization proceedings (in the event that the financial institution, etc. is a foreign bank branch, reorganization proceedings of the foreign bank in relation to the relevant foreign bank branch), rehabilitation proceedings (in the event that the financial institution, etc. is a foreign bank branch, rehabilitation proceedings of the foreign bank in relation to the relevant foreign bank branch; the same applies in item (iii)) or special liquidation proceedings (in the event that the financial institution, etc. is a foreign company, a foreign bank branch, or a foreign insurance company, etc., liquidation proceedings under Article 822 of the Companies Act (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 213 of the Insurance Business Act), Article 51 of the Banking Act, or Article 212 of the Insurance Business Act) in relation to the relevant financial institution, etc. be deemed to be provided prior to the act prescribed in each respective item:

- (i) the specified failed financial institution, etc. specified in paragraph (1), item (ii): the relevant ruling for the commencement of bankruptcy proceedings;
- (ii) the specified failed financial institution, etc. specified in paragraph (1), item (iv): the relevant ruling for the commencement of reorganization proceedings;
- (iii) a specified failed financial institution, etc. that has become subject to a ruling for the commencement of rehabilitation proceedings: the relevant ruling for the commencement of rehabilitation proceedings; and
- (iv) the specified failed financial institution, etc. specified in paragraph (1), item (viii): the relevant order for commencement of special liquidation (in the event that the financial institution, etc. is a foreign company, a foreign bank branch, or a foreign insurance company, etc., the order for commencement of liquidation proceedings under Article 822, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act or commencement of liquidation under Article 51, paragraph (1) of the Banking Act or Article 212, paragraph (1) of the Insurance Business Act).

(Special Provisions of the Companies Act Concerning Refunding Deposits)

Article 127-3 The provisions of Article 69-4, paragraphs (3) through (5) apply mutatis mutandis to cases where a decision has been made to make the loan of funds under Article 69-3, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 127. In this case, the term "the repayment of the settlement obligations prescribed in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article" in Article 69-4, paragraph (3) will be deemed to be replaced with "refunding the deposits, etc. prescribed in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 127," the terms "the types of the settlement obligations to be repaid", "repayment" and "repaid" in Article 69-4, paragraphs (4) and (5) will be deemed to be replaced with "the types of the deposits, etc. to be returned," "refund" and "refunded", respectively.

(Special Provisions of the Bankruptcy Act Concerning Repayment of the Types of Obligations Likely to Cause Severe Disruption to the Financial System)

Article 127-4 (1) In the event that a decision has been made to loan funds under Article 127-2, paragraph (1) to a financial institution, etc. for which a ruling for the commencement of bankruptcy proceedings (in the event that the financial institution, etc. is a foreign bank branch, bankruptcy proceedings of the foreign bank in relation to the relevant foreign bank branch), a ruling for

- the commencement of reorganization proceedings (in the event that the financial institution, etc. is a foreign bank branch, reorganization proceedings of the foreign bank in relation to the relevant foreign bank branch), or a ruling for the commencement of rehabilitation proceedings (in the event that the financial institution, etc. is a foreign bank branch, rehabilitation proceedings of the foreign bank in relation to the relevant foreign bank branch) has been given, the court may, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 100, paragraph (1) of the Bankruptcy Act, Article 47, paragraph (1) of the Corporate Reorganization Act (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Articles 34 and 199 of the Act on Special Measures for the Reorganization Proceedings of Financial Institutions), and Article 85, paragraph (1) of the Civil Rehabilitation Act, in response to a petition filed by a bankruptcy trustee, a trustee in reorganization proceedings, or a rehabilitation debtor, etc. prescribed in Article 2, item (ii) of the same Act, grant permission for the repayment of the types of obligations that are found likely to cause severe disruption to the financial system in Japan by their default under Article 127-2, paragraph (1) or any other act for extinguishing the relevant obligations (hereinafter referred to as "repayment" in this Article).
- (2) The court must, upon granting the permission under the preceding paragraph, specify the types of obligations subject to the repayment, limit of the amount of repayment, and period of repayment (the last day of the relevant period must precede the last date of the period for filing proofs of claims).
- (3) When specifying the types of obligations subject to the repayment, limit of the amount of repayment, and period of repayment under the preceding paragraph, the court must hear the opinion of the DICJ in advance.

(Special Provisions of the Companies Act Concerning Repayment of the Types of Obligations Likely to Cause Severe Disruption to the Financial System)

Article 127-5 The provisions of Article 69-4, paragraphs (3) through (5) apply mutatis mutandis to the cases where a decision has been made to loan funds under Article 127-2, paragraph (1) to a specified failed financial institution, etc. that has become subject to an order for commencement of special liquidation or an order for commencement of liquidation under Article 822, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act or to a specified failed financial institution, etc. for which liquidation has been commenced pursuant to Article 51, paragraph (1) of the Banking Act or Article 212, paragraph (1) of the Insurance Business Act. In this case, the term "the settlement obligations prescribed in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article" in Article 69-4, paragraph (3) will be deemed to be replaced with "the types of obligations that are found likely to cause severe disruption to the financial system in Japan by their default under Article 127-2, paragraph (1)"; the term "to be repaid" in paragraph (4) of the same Article will be deemed to be replaced with "subject to the repayment or any other act for extinguishing the relevant obligations (hereinafter referred to as "repayment" in this Article"); and the term "the settlement obligations" in the same paragraph and paragraph (5) of the same Article will be deemed to be replaced with "the obligations"; and any other necessary technical replacement of terms will be specified by Cabinet Order.

(Loan of Funds to Prevent a Decline in Asset Value)

Article 128 The provisions of Article 69-3 (excluding paragraphs (3) and (4)) apply mutatis mutandis to cases where an application is received from a person specified in each item of Article 69-3, paragraph (1) (in the case of any person specified in Article 69-3, paragraph (1), item (i), limited to the time after a petition is filed for the commencement of bankruptcy proceedings, commencement of reorganization proceedings or commencement of rehabilitation proceedings or after an order for commencement of special liquidation is issued, and in the case of any person specified items (ii) through (viii) of the same paragraph, excluding a financial institution, etc. subject to specified confirmation) for the loan of funds necessary to prevent a decline in the value of loan claims or other assets held by the person. In this case, the term "up to the total amount of insurance proceeds in relation to the relevant settlement obligations calculated under Article 54-2, paragraph (1) and Article 54, paragraph (3) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 54-2, paragraph (2)" in Article 69-3, paragraph (1) will be deemed to be replaced with "within the limit necessary."

Article 128-2 (1) In the event that an application is received from any of the following persons (in the case of any person specified in item (i), limited to the time after a petition is filed for the commencement of bankruptcy proceedings (in the event that the person specified in the same item is a foreign bank branch, commencement of bankruptcy proceedings of the foreign bank in relation to the relevant foreign bank branch), commencement of reorganization proceedings (in the event that the person specified in the same item is a foreign bank branch, commencement of reorganization proceedings of the foreign bank in relation to the relevant foreign bank branch), or commencement of rehabilitation proceedings (in the event that the person specified in the same item is a foreign bank branch, commencement of rehabilitation proceedings of the foreign bank in relation to the relevant foreign bank branch) or after an order for commencement of special liquidation (in the event that the person specified in the same item is a foreign company, a foreign bank branch, or a foreign insurance company, etc., the order for commencement of liquidation proceedings under Article 822, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act or commencement of liquidation under Article 51, paragraph (1) of the Banking Act or Article 212, paragraph (1) of the Insurance Business Act) is issued) for the loan of funds necessary to prevent a decline in the value of loan claims or other assets held by the person, the DICJ may, when it finds it necessary, and following a resolution of the board, decide to provide the loan in relation to the relevant application to the extent necessary:

- (i) a financial institution subject to an order for specified management;
- (ii) a specified failed financial institution, etc. (excluding a foreign bank branch) that has become subject to a ruling for the commencement of bankruptcy proceedings or a specified failed financial institution, etc. (limited to a foreign bank branch) in relation to a foreign bank that has become subject to the ruling;
- (iii) a specified failed financial institution, etc. (excluding a foreign bank branch) that has become subject to an order to manage by a provisional administrator under Article 91, paragraph (1) of the Bankruptcy Act or a specified failed financial institution, etc. (limited to a foreign bank branch) of a foreign bank that has become subject to the order;
- (iv) a specified failed financial institution, etc. (excluding a foreign bank branch) that has become subject to a ruling for the commencement of reorganization proceedings or a specified failed financial institution, etc. (limited to a foreign bank branch) of a foreign bank that has become subject to the ruling;
- (v) a specified failed financial institution, etc. (excluding a foreign bank branch) that has become subject to an order to manage by a provisional administrator under Article 30, paragraph (1) of the Corporate Reorganization Act or Article 22, paragraph (1) or Article 187, paragraph (1) of the Act on Special Measures for the Reorganization Proceedings of Financial Institutions or a specified failed financial institution, etc. (limited to a foreign bank branch) of a foreign bank that has become subject to the order;
- (vi) a specified failed financial institution, etc. (excluding a foreign bank branch) that has become subject to an order to manage by a provisional administrator under Article 64, paragraph (1) of the Civil Rehabilitation Act or a specified failed financial institution, etc. (limited to a foreign bank branch) of a foreign bank that has become subject to the order;
- (vii) a specified failed financial institution, etc. (excluding a foreign bank branch) that has become subject to an order to manage by a provisional administrator under Article 79, paragraph (1) of the Civil Rehabilitation Act or a specified failed financial institution, etc. (limited to a foreign bank branch) of a foreign bank that has become subject to the order; and
- (viii) a specified failed financial institution, etc. (excluding a foreign company, a foreign bank branch, or a foreign insurance company, etc.) that has become subject to an order for commencement of special liquidation, a specified failed financial institution, etc. (limited to a foreign company, a foreign bank branch, or a foreign insurance company, etc.) that has become subject to an order for commencement of liquidation under Article 822, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act, a specified failed financial institution, etc. (limited to a foreign bank branch) for which liquidation has been commenced pursuant to Article 51, paragraph (1) of the Banking Act, or a specified failed financial institution, etc. (limited to a foreign insurance company, etc.) for which liquidation has been commenced pursuant to Article 212, paragraph (1) of the Insurance Business Act.

- (2) The provisions of Article 64, paragraph (3) apply mutatis mutandis to the cases where a decision is made under the preceding paragraph, and the provisions of Article 64, paragraph (4) apply mutatis mutandis to the cases where a decision to provide a loan is made under the preceding paragraph. In this case, the term "a merger, etc. to which a labor bank or Rokinren banks is a party" in paragraph (3) of the same Article will be deemed to be replaced with "a labor bank, Rokinren banks, or a subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc. prescribed in Article 126-2, paragraph (2), item (i)"; and the term "a merger, etc. to which The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. is a party" in the same paragraph will be deemed to be replaced with "The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. or a subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin Bank prescribed in the same item"; and any other necessary technical replacement of terms will be specified by Cabinet Order.

(Purchase of Assets)

- Article 129 (1) Beyond cases prescribed in Section 4 of Chapter III and the preceding Chapter, the DICJ may purchase assets held by a contracted bridge bank, bank under special crisis management, financial institution, etc. under special monitoring, or contracted specified bridge financial institution, etc.
- (2) In cases where the DICJ is to purchase assets under the preceding paragraph, it must comply with standards prescribed and publicly announced in advance by the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance.
- (3) Upon receiving an application under paragraph (1) for the purchase of assets from a contracted bridge bank, bank under special crisis management, financial institution, etc. under special monitoring, or contracted specified bridge financial institution, etc., the DICJ must, following a resolution of the board, decide without delay whether or not to carry out the purchase of assets in relation to the relevant application.
- (4) Upon making a decision under the preceding paragraph, the DICJ must immediately report matters in relation to the decision to the Prime Minister and the Minister of Finance.

- (5) Upon making a decision to purchase assets under paragraph (3), the DICJ is to conclude a contract for the purchase of assets with the relevant contracted bridge bank, bank under special crisis management, financial institution, etc. under special monitoring, or contracted specified bridge financial institution, etc.

(Special Provisions for Convocation Procedures for Shinkin Bank General Meetings)

Article 130 (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 45 of the Shinkin Bank Act, Article 49 of the Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises Cooperatives Act, and Article 49 of the Labor Bank Act, a general meeting of a Shinkin bank, etc. that has received the confirmation of eligibility, etc. or specified confirmation of eligibility, etc. may be held without the procedures of calling if all members (in the case of a labor bank, excluding individual members prescribed in Article 13, paragraph (1) of the Labor Bank Act) or all association members consent, for the purpose of deliberating a resolution to approve a transfer of business, etc. and any amendment to the articles of incorporation necessary to carry out the transfer of business, etc.

- (2) The provisions of the preceding paragraph apply mutatis mutandis to a general meeting of representatives for the purpose of deliberating a resolution to approve the matters prescribed in the preceding paragraph. In this case, the terms "all members (in the case of a labor bank, excluding individual members prescribed in Article 13, paragraph (1) of the Labor Bank Act) or all association members" and "Article 45 of the Shinkin Bank Act, Article 49 of the Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises Cooperatives Act, and Article 49 of the Labor Bank Act" in the same paragraph will be deemed to be replaced with "all representatives" and "Article 45 of the Shinkin Bank Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 49, paragraph (5) of the Act, Article 49 of the Small and Medium-Sized Enterprises Cooperatives Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 55, paragraph (6) of the same Act, and Article 49 of the Labor Bank Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 55, paragraph (5) of the same Act", respectively.

(Special Provisions for Procedures for Protection of Creditors in the Transfer of Business)

Article 131 (1) When a decision to provide financial assistance is made under Article 64, paragraph (1) for the purpose of supporting the transfer of business, etc. prescribed in Article 59, paragraph (2), item (iii) or a transfer of insured deposits, or when a decision to provide the specified financial assistance is made under Article 64, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to

Article 126-31 for the purpose of supporting the transfer of business, etc. prescribed in Article 126-28, paragraph (2), item (iii) or specified assumption of obligations, the assumption of obligations in relation to specified transfer of business, etc. (meaning the transfer of business, etc. prescribed in Article 59, paragraph (2), item (iii) or a transfer of insured deposits or the transfer of business, etc. prescribed in Article 126-28, paragraph (2), item (iii) or specified assumption of obligations, and including any transfer of assets associated therewith; hereinafter the same applies in this Article) and transfer of the contractual status may be carried out without consent from creditors in relation to obligations to be assumed by an assuming financial institution or a specified assuming financial institution, etc. through the relevant specified transfer of business, etc. or the other party to the contract in relation to the contractual status which an assuming financial institution or a specified assuming financial institution, etc. is to receive

- (2) The provisions of Article 466, paragraph (3) and Article 466-5, paragraph (1) of the Civil Code do not apply to the transfer of claims in the event that the manifestation of intention to restrict the transfer (meaning the manifestation of intention to restrict the transfer prescribed in Article 466, paragraph (2) of the same Code; the same applies in paragraphs (4) and (7)) has been made for the specified transfer of business, etc. in relation to a decision made under the preceding paragraph.
- (3) The provisions of Article 34 and Article 35 of the Banking Act (including cases where these provisions are applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 17 of the Long-Term Credit Bank Act, Article 89, paragraph (1) of the Shinkin Bank Act, Article 6, paragraph (1) of the Act on Financial Business by Cooperatives, and Article 94, paragraph (1) of the Labor Bank Act) and Article 50-2, paragraph (6) of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act do not apply to the specified transfer of business, etc. in relation to a decision made under paragraph (1).
- (4) Upon executing the specified transfer of business, etc. in relation to a decision made under paragraph (1), the failed financial institution and the assuming financial institution or the specified failed financial institution, etc. and the specified assuming financial institution, etc. must, within two weeks of the day of the relevant execution, give public notice explaining the outline of the content of the relevant specified transfer of business, etc. and stating that any creditors, obligors in relation to claims for which the manifestation of intention to restrict the transfer has been made, and the other party to the contract in relation to the contractual status who have any objection thereto should state the objection within a specified period of time, and must also give this notice to each of the individual known creditors other than the depositors, etc. and other creditors specified by Cabinet Order, obligors in relation to claims for which the manifestation of intention to restrict the transfer has been made, and the other party to the contract in relation to the contractual status.

(5) The period under the preceding paragraph cannot be less than one month.

(6) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (4), if a failed financial institution and assuming financial institution or the specified failed financial institution, etc. and specified assuming financial institution, etc. give public notice under that paragraph by means of a public notice as prescribed in the articles of incorporation (in the case of a foreign company, foreign bank branch, or foreign insurance company, etc., the method of public notice under Article 939, paragraph (2) or (4) of the Companies Act, Article 49-2, paragraph (1) of the Banking Act, or Article 217, paragraph (1) or (4) of the Insurance Business Act; the same applies hereinafter), beyond the Official Gazette, the failed financial institution and assuming financial institution or the specified failed financial institution, etc. and specified assuming financial institution, etc. will not be required to give separate notices under the provisions of paragraph (4).

(7) In the event that a creditor in relation to obligations that are to be assumed by an assuming financial institution or a specified assuming financial institution, etc. through the specified transfer of business, etc. in relation to a decision made under paragraph (1), obligors in relation to claims for which the manifestation of intention to restrict the transfer has been made that is to be received by an assuming financial institution or a specified assuming financial institution, etc., and the other party to the contract in relation to contractual status that is to be received by an assuming financial institution or a specified assuming financial institution, etc. (hereinafter referred to as the "transferred creditors, etc." in this paragraph) state objections within the period under paragraph (4), the assumption of obligations in relation to the specified transfer of business, etc., transfer of claims for which the manifestation of intention to restrict the transfer has been made, and transfer of contractual status (hereinafter referred to as the "assumption of obligations, etc." in this paragraph) in relation to the relevant transferred creditors, etc. will lose its effect retroactively as of the time of the relevant assumption of obligations, etc.; provided, however, that this does not prejudice the rights of a third party.

(8) In the event that creditors of a failed financial institution (limited to creditors in relation to the obligations of the failed financial institution other than those assumed by the assuming financial institution through the transfer of business, etc. set forth in Article 59, paragraph (2), item (iii) or the transfer of insured deposits prescribed in paragraph (1)) or creditors of a specified failed financial institution, etc. (limited to creditors in relation to the obligations of a specified failed financial institution, etc. other than those assumed by the specified assuming financial institution, etc. through the transfer of business, etc. set forth in Article 126-28, paragraph (2), item (iii) or the specified assumption of obligations prescribed in paragraph (1)) state objections within the period under paragraph (4), when any amount is owed to creditors of the failed financial institution or creditors of the specified failed financial institution, etc. with respect to their claims that can no longer be satisfied due to the specified transfer of business, etc. prescribed in paragraph (1), the creditors of the failed financial institution or creditors of the specified failed financial institution, etc. may claim the payment of the relevant amount from the assuming financial institution or the specified assuming financial institution, etc.

- (9) In the event that creditors of an assuming financial institution (limited to creditors in relation to the obligations of the assuming financial institution other than those assumed by the assuming financial institution through the transfer of business, etc. set forth in Article 59, paragraph (2), item (iii) or the transfer of insured deposits prescribed in paragraph (1)) or creditors of a specified assuming financial institution, etc. (limited to creditors in relation to the obligations of specified assuming financial institution, etc. other than those assumed by the specified assuming financial institution, etc. through the transfer of business, etc. set forth in Article 126-28, paragraph (2), item (iii) or the specified assumption of obligations prescribed in paragraph (1)) state objections within the period under paragraph (4), the assuming financial institution or specified assuming financial institution, etc. must make payment or provide equivalent security to the creditors or entrust equivalent assets to a trust company or financial institutions that conducts trust business for the purpose of ensuring that the creditors receive the payment; provided, however, that this does not apply when the specified transfer of business, etc. is unlikely to be detrimental to the creditors of the assuming financial institution or creditors of the specified assuming financial institution, etc.

(Special Provisions for Procedures for Changing Trustees in the Succession of Trust Business)

Article 132 (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 56, paragraph (1) and Article 57, paragraph (1) and paragraph (2) of the Trust Act (Act No. 108 of 2006) and Article 7 of the Act on Charitable Trusts (Act No. 62 of 1922), when there is a decision to provide financial assistance under Article 64, paragraph (1) to support the transfer of business of a failed financial institution or specified failed financial institution, etc. that conducts trust business under Article 1, paragraph (1) of the Act on Engagement in Trust Business by Financial Institutions to a financial institution that conducts trust business under Article 1, paragraph (1) of the same Act or there is a decision to provide the specified financial assistance under Article 64, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 126-31, the relevant failed financial institution or specified failed financial institution, etc. may, under a contract for the transfer of business with an assuming financial institution in relation to the financial assistance or a specified assuming financial institution, etc. in relation to the relevant specified financial assistance (hereinafter referred to as "new trustee" in this Article and the following Article), effect a change of trustees for trusts that have been assumed.

- (2) If a change of trustee is effected under the preceding paragraph, the new trustee (excluding the new trustee of the special purpose trust (meaning those prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (13) of the Act on Securitization of Assets (Act No. 105 of 1998); the same applies in the following Article); hereinafter the same applies in this Article) must immediately give public notice to the effect that any settlors of a trust subject to the change (hereinafter referred to as "transferred settlors" in this Article) or beneficiaries (hereinafter referred to as "transferred beneficiaries" in this Article) who have any objection thereto should state the objection within a specified period of time, and must also give notice of the same to all known transferred settlors individually and transferred beneficiaries other than those in relation to loan trusts and other trusts specified by Cabinet Order as trust in relation to standard trust contracts (referred to as "standard trusts" in paragraph (5)).
- (3) The period under the preceding paragraph cannot be less than one month.
- (4) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (2), if the new trustee gives public notice under that paragraph by means of public notice as prescribed in the articles of incorporation, beyond the Official Gazette, the new trustee is not required to give separate notices under the provisions of that paragraph.
- (5) The transfer beneficiaries of loan trusts, etc. (meaning the standard trusts specified by Cabinet Order as those to which settlors are entitled to all profits derived therefrom) who have raised objections within the period under paragraph (2) may request that the new trustee purchase the beneficiary rights of the relevant transfer beneficiaries at a fair price to which they would have been entitled if the change prescribed in paragraph (1) had not occurred.
- (6) If a request is made under the preceding paragraph, the new trustee must purchase beneficiary rights subject to the relevant request with the new trustee's own assets. In this case, Article 11 of the Loan Trust Act (Act No. 195 of 1952) does not apply.
- (7) The provisions of Article 75, paragraph (1), Article 76 and Article 77 of the Trust Act apply mutatis mutandis to cases where the change prescribed in paragraph (1) is made, and the provisions of Article 103, paragraph (6) and (7), Article 104, paragraphs (1) through (11), Article 262, paragraph (1) and (2), Article 263, and Article 264 of the same Act apply mutatis mutandis to the purchase request of own beneficiary rights under paragraph (5). In this case, any necessary technical replacement of terms will be specified by Cabinet Order.

- Article 132-2 (1) In the event that a change is made under paragraph (1) of the preceding Article with respect to a failed financial institution or specified failed financial institution, etc. that is a trustee of a special purpose trust, the new trustee must convene a meeting of rightholders (meaning the meeting of rightholders prescribed in Subsection 1 of Section 3 of Chapter III of Part III of the Act on Securitization of Assets; the same applies in the following paragraph) without delay and seek approval for the relevant change. In this case, the provisions of Article 244, paragraph (3) of the same Act do not apply.
- (2) When a meeting of rightholders rejects a proposal for the approval prescribed in the preceding paragraph, the duties of the new trustee in relation to the relevant special purpose trust will end.
- (3) The provisions of the main clause of Article 59, paragraph (4) of the Trust Act apply mutatis mutandis to the new trustee whose duties have ended pursuant to the preceding paragraph.
- (4) The provisions of Article 75, paragraph (1), Article 76 and Article 77 of the Trust Act apply mutatis mutandis to cases where a change is made under paragraph (1) of the preceding Article with respect to a failed financial institution or specified failed financial institution, etc. that is a trustee of a special purpose trust.

(Special Provisions on Procedures for the Transfer of Status as the Settlor)

- Article 132-3 (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 146, paragraph (1) of the Trust Act, when there is a decision to provide the specified financial assistance under Article 64, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 126-31 to support the transfer of business conducted by a specified failed financial institution, etc. that is the settlor of a trust, the relevant specified failed financial institution, etc. may transfer the status as the settlor of the trust agreement in relation to the relevant trust (limited to a trust in relation to a trust agreement concluded based on the provisions of Article 43-2, paragraph (2) of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act or any other trust specified by Cabinet Order as being equivalent thereto) based on the contract in relation to the business transfer concluded with the specified assuming financial institution, etc. in relation to the relevant specified financial assistance (hereinafter referred to as the "new settlor" in this Article) to the relevant new settlor.
- (2) When the status as the settlor of a trust agreement has been transferred under the preceding paragraph, the new settlor must immediately give public notice to the effect that any trustee of a trust subject to the relevant transfer (hereinafter referred to as "transferred trustees" in this paragraph and paragraph (5)) or beneficiaries (hereinafter referred to as "transferred beneficiaries" in paragraph (5)) who have any objection thereto should state the objection within a specified period of time, and must also give notice of the same to each individual transferred trustee.

(3) The period under the preceding paragraph cannot be less than one month.

(4) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (2), if the new settlor gives public notice under that paragraph by the means of public notice prescribed in the articles of incorporation, beyond the Official Gazette, the new settlor is not required to give separate notice under the provisions of that paragraph.

(5) In the event that the transferred trustees or transferred beneficiaries state objections within the period under paragraph (2), the transfer of the status of the settlor of the trust agreement in relation to the relevant transferred trustees or transferred beneficiaries loses its effect retroactively as of the time of the relevant transfer; provided, however, that this does not prejudice the rights of a third party.

(Special Provisions on Book-entry Procedures)

Article 132-4 (1) When there is a decision to provide the specified financial assistance under Article 64, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 126-31 to support the transfer of business conducted by a specified failed financial institution, etc. that is an account management institution (meaning the account management institution prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (4) of the Act on Book-Entry Transfer of Corporate Bonds and Share (Act No. 75 of 2001); hereinafter the same applies in this Article), and a contract in relation to the business transfer is concluded between the specified failed financial institution, etc. in relation to the relevant specified financial assistance and a specified assuming financial institution, etc., the accounts (limited to those on which the specified assuming financial institution, etc. will make book-entries as a result of the relevant business transfer) of participants (meaning the participants prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (3) of the same Act; hereinafter the same applies in this Article) opened by the specified failed financial institution, etc. will be deemed to be accounts of participants opened by the relevant specified assuming financial institution, etc.

(2) When there is a decision to provide the specified financial assistance under Article 64, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 126-31 to support the transfer of business conducted by a specified failed financial institution, etc. that is an account management institution, and a contract in relation to the business transfer is concluded between the specified failed financial institution, etc. in relation to the relevant specified financial assistance and a specified assuming financial institution, etc., the accounts (limited to those to describe or record book-entry company bonds for which the specified assuming financial institution, etc. or a participant of the specified assuming financial institution, etc. or of its lower-positioned institution (meaning the lower-positioned institution prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (9) of the Act on Book-Entry Transfer of Corporate Bonds and Share) has rights; hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph) which the specified failed financial institution, etc. had the book-entry institution prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (2) of the same Act (including the bank of Japan which is deemed to be a book-entry institution pursuant to Article 48 of the same Act) or another account management institution open will be deemed to be accounts which the relevant specified assuming financial institution, etc. has the institution open.

(Special Provisions for the Assignment of Revolving Mortgages)

- Article 133 (1) If a financial institution under management intends to assign a revolving mortgage together with all of the claims it should secure before the principal is established, through the transfer of business to a bridge bank or another financial institution (hereinafter referred to as the "bridge financial institution" in this Article), the relevant financial institution under management and the bridge financial institution may give public notice to the effect that any revolving mortgagors who have any objection to the following matters should state the objection to the relevant financial institution under management within a specified period of time, or may give individual notice of the same:
- (i) the fact that the relevant revolving mortgage is to be assigned by the relevant financial institution under management to the relevant bridge financial institution and the date thereof; or
 - (ii) the fact that the relevant claims are to continue to be secured by the relevant revolving mortgage even after it is assigned.
- (2) The period under the preceding paragraph cannot be less than two weeks.
- (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1), if a financial institution under management and the bridge financial institution give public notice under that paragraph by the means of public notice prescribed in the articles of incorporation, beyond the Official Gazette, the relevant financial institution under management and bridge financial institution are not required to give separate notices under the provisions of that paragraph.
- (4) If a revolving mortgagor in relation to the public notice or notice under paragraph (1) does not raise any objections with respect to the matters prescribed in each item of that paragraph within the period under that paragraph, it will be deemed that the revolving mortgagor has consented to the matters specified in paragraph (1), item (i) and that there has been an agreement on the matters specified in paragraph (1), item (ii) between the revolving mortgagors and the bridge financial institution in relation to the public notice or notice prescribed in paragraph (1).

- (5) If the revolving mortgagor has stated its objection to part of the matters specified in each item of paragraph (1), it will be deemed that it has stated objections to all of the matters specified in the same item.
- (6) The provisions of all preceding paragraphs apply mutatis mutandis to cases where a bridge bank or bank under special crisis management seeks to assign the revolving mortgage together with all of the claims to be secured thereby, before the principal is established through the transfer of business to another financial institution.

Article 133-2 (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 398-12, paragraph (1) of the Civil Code, a specified failed financial institution, etc., without obtaining the approval of the revolving mortgagor in relation to a revolving mortgage for securing claims transferred through a business transfer (the mortgage is hereinafter referred to as a "transferred revolving mortgage" in this Article and paragraphs (2) and (3) of the following Article, and the revolving mortgagor is hereinafter referred to as "transferred revolving mortgagor" in this Article), may assign the transferred revolving mortgage along with all of the claims to be secured thereby (hereinafter referred to as "transferred claims" in this Article) before the principal is fixed, through a business transfer to a specified bridge financial institution, etc. (meaning the specified bridge financial institution, etc. prescribed in Article 126-34, paragraph (3), item (v); the same applies in paragraph (7)) or any other financial institution, etc. (hereinafter referred to as "bridge financial institution, etc." in this Article). In this case, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 398-4, paragraph (1) of the same Code, it will be deemed that an agreement has been reached between the transferred revolving mortgagor and the bridge financial institution, etc. that the transferred revolving mortgage is to secure the transferred claims even after the assignment of the transferred revolving mortgage.

- (2) When a transferred revolving mortgage is assigned along with all of the transferred claims before the principal is fixed pursuant to the preceding paragraph, and the transferred revolving mortgage is to secure the transferred claims even after the assignment of the transferred revolving mortgage, the specified failed financial institution, etc. and the bridge financial institution, etc. must, within two weeks of the day of the relevant assignment, give public notice of the following matters and to the effect that any transferred revolving mortgagor who has any objection thereto should request that the principal secured be fixed within a specified period of time, and must also give notice of the same to each individual transferred revolving mortgagor:
 - (i) the fact that a transferred revolving mortgage was assigned by the specified failed financial institution, etc. to the bridge financial institution, etc.; and
 - (ii) the fact that the transferred revolving mortgage is to secure transferred

- claims even after the assignment of the transferred revolving mortgage.
- (3) The period under the preceding paragraph cannot be less than one month.
 - (4) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (2), if the specified failed financial institution, etc. and the bridge financial institution, etc. give public notice under that paragraph by the means of public notice prescribed in the articles of incorporation, beyond the Official Gazette, the specified failed financial institution, etc. and the bridge financial institution, etc. are not required to give a separate notice under the provisions of that paragraph.
 - (5) If a transferred revolving mortgage is assigned along with all of the transferred claims before the principal is fixed pursuant to paragraph (1), and the transferred revolving mortgage is to secure the transferred claims even after the assignment of the transferred revolving mortgage, the transferred revolving mortgagor may request that the principal secured be fixed; provided, however, that this does not apply when the period prescribed in paragraph (2) has passed.
 - (6) If a request is made under the preceding paragraph, the principal secured will be deemed to have been fixed at the time of the business transfer in relation to the transferred revolving mortgage under paragraph (1) concerning the transferred revolving mortgagor.
 - (7) The provisions of the preceding paragraphs apply mutatis mutandis to cases where a specified bridge financial institution, etc. intends to assign a revolving mortgage along with all of the claims to be secured thereby before the principal is fixed, through a business transfer to another financial institution, etc. In this case, necessary technical replacement of terms will be specified by Cabinet Order.

(Special Provisions for Application Procedures for the Registration of Revolving Mortgage Transfers)

- Article 134 (1) An application for registration of a transfer of a revolving mortgage in the cases prescribed in Article 133, paragraph (4) (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 133, paragraph (6)) will be accompanied by information proving that public notice or individual notice was given and that the revolving mortgagors did not raise any objection within the period under paragraph (1) of the preceding Article (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 133, paragraph (6)).
- (2) An application for the registration of a transfer of a transferred revolving mortgage in the cases prescribed in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to paragraph (7) of the same Article) must be accompanied by information proving that the specified failed financial institution, etc. has carried out a business transfer under paragraph (1) of the same Article.

(3) An application for the registration of alteration of a revolving mortgage or transferred revolving mortgage to the effect of adding claims in relation to transfer to the scope of claims to be secured by the revolving mortgage or transfer revolving mortgage in the cases prescribed in Article 133, paragraph (4) of the preceding Article (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 133, paragraph (6)) or paragraph (1) of the preceding Article (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to paragraph (7) of the same Article) may be made by the revolving mortgagee alone when the application is accompanied by the information prescribed in the preceding two paragraphs.

(Special Provisions for Taxation)

Article 135 (1) The registration under Article 79 (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 126-9) is not subject to the registration and license tax.

(2) In the event that a bridge bank has acquired any right relating to real assets through the assumption of business, etc. of a financial institution under management based on a decision specified in Article 91, paragraph (1), item (ii) under Article 91, paragraph (1) or (2) (referred to as "assumption of business, etc. based on decision" in the following paragraph) (limited to those that have been confirmed as appropriate assets to be held by the relevant bridge bank under Article 93, paragraph (2)), the registration of the relevant right relating to real assets transfer is not subject to the registration and license tax, as long as the registration is made within one year from the relevant acquisition as pursuant to the provisions of Order of the Ministry of Finance.

(3) For the purpose of applying to a Bridge Bank, the provisions of Article 62-3, Article 63, Article 68-68, and Article 68-69 of the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation, the transfer of land or any right on land acquired through the assumption of business, etc. based on decision (limited to those that have been confirmed as appropriate assets to be held by the relevant bridge bank under Article 93, paragraph (2)) (meaning the transfer prescribed in Article 62-3, paragraph (2), item (i), (a) of that Act) is not to constitute the transfer of land, etc. under Article 62-3, paragraph (2), item (i) of the same Act.

(Submission of Reports or Materials)

Article 136 (1) The Prime Minister (in the case of a labor bank, Rokinren banks, or a subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc., the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the case of The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. or a subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin Bank, the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry; the same applies in the following paragraph and the following Article) may, when finding it necessary to ensure the smooth implementation of this Act, require a financial institution, etc. (including a financial institution agent, etc. (meaning a financial institution agent, life insurance agent, non-life insurance agent, and financial instruments intermediary service provider; the same applies in the same paragraph, paragraph (1) of the same Article, and Article 149, paragraph (1), item (ii), (a))) or specified holding company, etc. to submit reports or materials with regard to the status of its business and assets.

- (2) The Prime Minister may, when and to the extent that they find it particularly necessary to ensure the smooth implementation of this Act, require a subsidiary, etc. of a financial institution, etc. or subsidiary company (meaning the subsidiary company prescribed in Article 2, item (iii) of the Companies Act; the same applies in the following paragraph, the following Article, and Article 139, paragraph (2), item (ii) of the financial institution, etc. or specified holding company, etc. or a person to whom business has been entrusted by the financial institution, etc. or specified holding company, etc. (excluding a financial institution agent, etc.; the same applies in the following paragraph and paragraphs (2) and (5) of the following Article) to submit reports or materials with regard to the status of business and assets of the relevant financial institution, etc. or specified holding company, etc.
- (3) A subsidiary, etc. of a financial institution, etc. or subsidiary company of the financial institution, etc. or specified holding company, etc., or a person to whom business has been entrusted by the financial institution, etc. or specified holding company, etc. may, if there are justifiable grounds, refuse to submit reports or materials under the preceding paragraph.

(On-Site Inspections)

Article 137 (1) The Prime Minister may, when finding it necessary to ensure the smooth implementation of this Act, authorize their officials to enter a business office (in the case of a Shinkin bank, etc. or mutual company, an office, and in the case of a foreign insurance company, etc., the branch office, etc. prescribed in Article 185, paragraph (1) of the Insurance Business Act) or any other facilities of a financial institution, etc. (including a financial institution agent, etc.) or specified holding company, etc. and ask questions on the status of its business and assets or inspect books, documents, and other items.

- (2) The Prime Minister may, when and to the extent that they find it to be particularly necessary in authorizing the entry, questioning, or inspection under the preceding paragraph, authorize the relevant officials to enter the facilities of a subsidiary, etc. of a financial institution, etc. or subsidiary company of the financial institution, etc. or specified holding company, etc. or the person to whom business has been entrusted by the financial institution, etc. or specified holding company, etc. and ask necessary questions concerning

- the questioning or inspection of the relevant financial institution, etc. or specified holding company, etc. or inspect books, documents, and other items.
- (3) In the case referred to in the preceding two paragraphs, the officials must carry a certificate of identification and produce it if requested by those concerned.
- (4) The authority to conduct on-site inspections prescribed in paragraphs (1) and (2) may not be construed as given for any criminal investigation.
- (5) The provisions of paragraph (3) of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to the questioning and inspection under paragraph (2) of a subsidiary, etc. of a financial institution, etc. or subsidiary company of the financial institution, etc. or specified holding company, etc., or a person to whom business has been entrusted by the financial institution, etc. or specified holding company, etc.
- (6) The Prime Minister may, when finding it necessary, authorize the DICJ to conduct the entry, questioning, or inspection (limited to those conducted to investigate the following matters) under paragraph (1) or (2); in this case, the DICJ is to authorize its officials to conduct the relevant entry, questioning, or inspection:
- (i) that the payment of insurance premiums under Article 50, paragraph (1) has been made appropriately;
 - (ii) that measures prescribed in Article 55-2, paragraph (4) and Article 58-3, paragraph (1) have been taken;
 - (iii) the expected amount of payment to be received for deposits and other claims prescribed in Article 71, paragraph (2); or
 - (iv) the status of execution of business and management and disposal of assets by the financial institution, etc. necessary for ensuring the smooth implementation of special monitoring under the preceding Chapter and other operations under the same Chapter, and operations incidental to the relevant operations.
- (7) The provisions of paragraphs (3) through (5) apply mutatis mutandis to the entry, questioning, or inspection under the preceding paragraph.

(Notice of the Commencement of Bankruptcy Proceedings of a Financial Institution)

- Article 137-2 (1) If a ruling for the commencement of bankruptcy proceedings is made with respect to a financial institution, the court clerk must notify the Prime Minister (in the case of a labor bank or Rokinren banks, the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the case of The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd., the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry) to that effect.
- (2) In bankruptcy proceedings of a financial institution, when notice is given under Article 197, paragraph (1) of the Bankruptcy Act (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 209, paragraph (3) of the same Act) or Article 204, paragraph (2) of the Bankruptcy Act, or permission is granted under Article 208, paragraph (1) of the same Act, a bankruptcy trustee must notify the DICJ to that effect.

(Effect of Cancellation of a Contract)

Article 137-3 (1) When giving the confirmation prescribed in Article 102, paragraph (1) or specified confirmation, the Prime Minister may, following deliberation by the council, make a decision to the effect that a clause providing for specified cancellation, etc. of a contract (limited to a contract which agrees that specified cancellation, etc. will become effective based on the reason that a related measure, etc. (meaning the relevant confirmation or specified confirmation, order to manage, designation of special monitoring, or order for specified management, or any other measure related to the relevant confirmation or specified confirmation; hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph and paragraph (4)) has been taken with regard to the financial institution or financial institution, etc. which is a party to the contract or a person specified in the contract, and which pertains to transactions specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance as those associated with financial market or any other financial system in Japan) based on the reason that a related measure, etc. has been taken with regard to the financial institution or financial institution, etc. in relation to the relevant confirmation or specified confirmation does not become effective during the period specified by the Prime Minister as a period necessary for implementing a business transfer or any other necessary measure for avoiding the risk of severe disruption being caused to the financial system in Japan, to the extent necessary for avoiding the risk of severe disruption being caused to the financial system in Japan (hereinafter referred to as the "period for implementing a measure" in this Article).

(2) The "specified cancellation, etc." set forth in the preceding paragraph means termination or cancellation of a contract, arising of a right to cancel a contract, forfeiture of the benefit of time with regard to claims in relation to a contract, the collective clearing prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (6) of the Act on Collective Clearing of Specified Financial Transaction Conducted by Financial Institutions (Act No. 108 of 1998) with regard to transactions in relation to a contract, and other effects specified by Cabinet Office Order and Order of the Ministry of Finance as being equivalent thereto.

(3) A decision under paragraph (1) takes effect as of the time of the relevant decision.

(4) Upon making a decision under paragraph (1), the Prime Minister must immediately give public notice of the fact and the period for implementing a measure in the Official Gazette, and notify the DICJ and the financial institution or financial institution, etc. in relation to the related measure, etc. subject to the relevant decision.

- (5) During the period for implementing a measure, the provisions of Article 58 of the Bankruptcy Act (including cases where it is applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 51 of the Civil Rehabilitation Act, Article 63 of the Corporate Reorganization Act, and Article 41, paragraph (3) and Article 206, paragraph (3) of the Act on Special Measures for the Reorganization Proceedings of Financial Institutions) do not apply to the contract for which a decision under paragraph (1) has been made.
- (6) With regard to application of the provisions of Article 3 of the Act on Collective Clearing of Specified Financial Transaction Conducted by Financial Institutions, etc., to a contract for which a decision under paragraph (1) has been made, during the period for implementing a measure, the grounds for collective clearing prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (4) of the same Act will be deemed to have not arisen.

(Order for Smoothly Implementing the Orderly Resolution of Assets and Liabilities of Financial Institutions)

Article 137-4 The Prime Minister (in the event that the financial institution, etc. in relation to the order prescribed in this Article is a labor bank, Rokinren banks, or a subsidiary, etc. of a labor bank, etc., the Prime Minister and the Minister of Health, Labour and Welfare, and in the case where it is The Shoko Chukin Bank, Ltd. or a subsidiary, etc. of the Shoko Chukin Bank, the Prime Minister, the Minister of Finance, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry) may, when a need for orderly resolution of assets and liabilities of the financial institution, etc. arises and they find that measures necessary for the smooth implementation thereof have not been taken, order the financial institution, etc. to take the relevant measures to the extent necessary by a specified time.

(International Cooperation)

Article 137-5 The DICJ must, when there is a need to carry out its operations in international cooperation, carry out the exchange of information with foreign governments, foreign local public entities, foreign central banks, international organizations, and other bodies equivalent thereto, along with other necessary operations.
