

Act on the Quota of Court Officials

(Act No. 53 of March 30, 1951)

The Act on the Quota of Court Officials (Act No.64 of 1947) is fully amended.

Article 1 The number of judges in the lower courts are as shown in the following table.

Classification	Number of Staff
Presidents of a high court	8 people
Judges	2, 155 people
Assistant judges	842 people
Summary court judges	806 people

Article 2 The number of court officials other than judges (excluding court execution officers, part-time staff, and those employed for a specified period of not more than two months, and those on administrative leave) is to be 21,744.