Article 10-2 When conducting an examination provided in Article 5, paragraph (1) of the Act which pertains to the license application under Article 3, paragraph (1) of the Act, the Prime Minister is to pay due regards to the following circumstances:

- (i) if the category of the license for which the application is filed is a life insurance business license as set forth in Article 3, paragraph (4) of the Act, that the applicant is expected to generate current net income or current net surplus in a single business year before the elapse of tenth business year after commencement of its business;
- (ii) if the category of the license for which the application is filed is a non-life insurance business license as set forth in Article 3, paragraph (5) of the Act, that the applicant is expected to generate current net income or current net surplus in a single business year before the elapse of fifth business year after commencement of its business;
- (iii) that, after the license is granted, the applicant is expected to maintain the benchmark for the soundness of its business management at an appropriate level;
- (iv) that the matters set forth in the documents prescribed in Article 4, paragraph (2), item (i) of the Act as attached to the written application for registration are adequate for securing the applicant's sound and proper

- business operation; and
- (v) that the applicant and its Subsidiary Company, etc. are expected to demonstrate sound income and expenditure results.

(Criteria for Examination of Statement of Business Procedures)

Article 11 The criteria to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 5, paragraph (1), item (iii), (e) of the Act is as follows:

- (i) that the terms and conditions of the insurance contract appropriately match the needs and convenience of Policyholders, etc. (meaning Policyholders, etc. as provided in Article 5, paragraph (1), item (iii), (a) of the Act; the same applies hereinafter);
- (ii) that, for the method of obtaining consent provided in (a) or (b) below in relation to the procedure set forth therein, respectively, a method to obtain the consent in writing or any other equivalent method is clearly provided:
- (a) conclusion of an insurance contract (including the modification to contracts which requires consent from the insured; hereinafter the same applies in the following item): consent under Article 38 or Article 67, paragraph (1) of the Insurance Act;
- (b) change of a beneficiary provided in Article 43, paragraph (1) or Article 72, paragraph (1) of the Insurance Act: consent under Article 45 or Article 74, paragraph (1) of that Act;
- (ii)-2 that, when the application of or any other procedures for conclusion of an insurance contract are to be handled by the use of devices connected to telecommunication lines made available for information processing, adequate measures are implemented so as to secure protection of Policyholders, etc. and appropriate business operation, in relation to identify confirmation of the applicants of insurance contracts, checking of physical conditions of the insured (excluding the case where the insured cannot be identified at the time of conclusion of the insurance contract), explanation of contract terms and conditions, information management and any other aspects as may be required for implementation of such procedures;
- (iii) that the method of disclosure of information on surrender value of an insurance contract is appropriate and bears no risk of negative impact on protection of Policyholders, etc., and that such method is clearly provided;
- (iii)-2 that, in the case of any of the following insurance contracts regarding which the Revocation, etc. of application as provided in Article 309, paragraph (1) of the Act is unacceptable due the ground of falling under any of the cases specified in Article 45, items (i) to (iv) of the Cabinet Order, such insurance contract may provide for an option for a Special Early Cancellation (meaning a cancellation of an insurance contract regarding which, for the purpose of calculation of the surrender value payable to the policyholders, the deduction from the Policyholder Value is treated as zero and the contract expenses deducted from the insurance premiums is added to the Policyholder Value, only for the period until the elapse of certain number of days not less than ten days counting from the execution date of the insurance contract or the dates close to it; the same applies in Article 53-12); provided, however, this does not apply to the case where the Revocation, etc. of the application is unacceptable on the ground of falling under any of the cases as specified in Article 309, paragraph (1), items (ii) to (v) of the Act or in Article 45, items (v) to (viii) of the Cabinet Order; or where the insurance contract contains a provision that the Insurance Company accepts the Revocation, etc. of the application if any of the cases specified in Article 45, items (i) to (iv) of the Cabinet Order applies:

- (a) insurance contracts as set forth in the items of Article 74;
- (b) an insurance contract (excluding the insurance contracts as referred to in (a) above) which entails potential risk that the surrender value may fall short of the total amount of insurance premiums, as a result of a fluctuation in indicators such as interest rate, value of currencies or quotations on the Financial Instruments Market (meaning the Financial Instruments Market as provided in Article 2, paragraph (14) of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act; the same applies hereinafter);
- (c) an insurance contract (excluding the insurance contracts referred to in (a) or (b) above) under which the amount of insurance proceeds, refunds or any other benefits (hereinafter referred to as "Insurance Proceeds, etc.") are indicated in foreign currencies;
- (iv) that, when the insurance as set forth in Article 3, paragraph (4), item (i) or (ii) of the Act is to be underwritten, the criteria for payment and the maximum limitation of the insurance proceeds are adequate;
- (v) that, in the case of an insurance contract for which a Special Account or an Accumulation Account is to be created, the structures for investment of the properties in such accounts are adequate;
- (vi) that the measures are clearly prescribed so that the documents specified in Article 227-2, paragraph (3), items (vi) through (ix) and Article 234-21-2, paragraph (1), items (iv) through (vii) are to be furnished to a policyholder or the matters to be stated in the documents are to be furnished by electronic or magnetic means provided in Article 227-2, paragraph (4) and Article 234-21-2, paragraph (2), and that signature or seals in acknowledgment of the receipt of those documents by the policyholder are to be obtained, or that similar measures are clearly prescribed;
- (vii) that, in the case of an insurance contract regarding which the Insurance Company undertakes that insurance premiums rate or any other terms and conditions thereunder may be modified (including addition to or deletion of the terms and conditions thereunder, and also including whole or partial cancellation thereof), in whole or in part, any of the following requirements is met:

- (a) that, when any of the terms and conditions under the insurance contract are subject to any modification, the requirement, the provisions subject to modification, the details of the modification, and the timing for informing the policyholder of such change are clearly provided; in such case, if, in connection with the contracts for Third-Sector Insurance, the provisions on the Right to Modification of Base Rate (meaning the right to effect any modification to the amount of insurance premiums or the amount of insurance proceeds by amending the incidence rate of insured events which served as the basis of calculation of insurance premiums as of the time of conclusion of the insurance contract (hereinafter referred to as the "Assumed Incidence Rate"), due to the reason that the Actual Incidence Rate of insured events (hereinafter referred to as "Actual Incidence Rate") deviate or will likely deviate from the estimation as of the time of conclusion of the insurance contract; the same applies hereinafter) is to be stated in the document as set forth in Article 4, paragraph (2), item (iii) of the Act, the criteria for judgment of eligibility for application of the recognition under Article 123, paragraph (1) of the Act which pertains to the exercise of such Right to Modification of Base Rate (referred to be "Criteria for Exercise of Right to Modification of Base Rates" in Article 53, paragraph (1), item (ii), (a) to (c), Article 227-2, paragraph (3), item (xi), (a) and Article 234-21-2, paragraph (1), item (ix), (a)) is clearly provided based on the indicator reflecting the figure of the Actual Incidence Rate against the Assumed Incidence Rate;
- (b) that, when the Insurance Company notifies the policyholder of any amendment to the terms and conditions under the insurance contract, the policyholder may effect non-retroactive cancellation of the insurance contract without suffering any disadvantage.

(Criteria for Examination of Statement of Calculation Procedures for Insurance Premiums and Policy Reserve)

Article 12 The criteria to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 5, paragraph (1), item (iv), (c) of the Act is as follows:

- (i) that the calculation of the Policyholder Value is not unreasonably disadvantageous to the Policyholder, etc.;
- (ii) that, with regard to the matters specified in the document (excluding the portion pertaining to the insurance premiums), a specific party is not treated in an unreasonably discriminatory manner; and
- (iii) that, when the automobile driving insurance (excluding automobile damage liability insurance as provided in Article 5 (Compulsory Execution of Contract for Liability Insurance or Liability Mutual Aid Insurance) of the Automobile Liability Security Act (Act No. 97 of 1955)) is to be underwritten, such insurance satisfies all of the following requirements:

- (a) that, when a risk factor is to be used for the purpose of calculation of net insurance premiums rate, such risk factor is one or more of the following factors:
  - 1. age;
  - 2. sex;
  - 3. driving history;
  - 4. purpose of use of automobile, such as business use or personal use;
  - 5. status of use of automobile, such as driving distance per year;
  - 6. districts;
  - 7. automobile type;
  - 8. whether the automobile is equipped with safety device; and
  - 9. the number of automobiles owned;
- (b) that the disparity of net insurance premiums rate based on the risk factors as provided in (a) above is provided in conformity with the statistics and actuarial methodology;
- (c) that the net insurance premiums rate pertaining to age, sex and district as provided in (a) above satisfies the requirements as set forth in the left columns of Appended Form hereto, in accordance with the categories as respectively set forth in the right columns;
- (d) that, if the documents as provided in Article 4, paragraph (2), item (iv) of the Act contain the description that the insurance premiums are subject to modification to the certain extent within the proximity of the insurance premiums for which the license has been granted, the maximum or minimum limit of such range is the amount of insurance premiums for which the license has been granted, plus or less 1.25 percent of such amount, respectively.

(Policies Excluded from Officer, etc. Liability Insurance Policies)

Article 23-21 The insurance contracts to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 430-3, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act, as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 53-38 of the Act following the deemed replacement of terms, are as follows:

- (i) an insurance contract of which insured persons include a mutual company that concludes an insurance contract with the insurer, and which is concluded for the main purpose of the insurer compensating for loss or damage that may be incurred by the mutual company as a result of the mutual company assuming liability to compensate for loss or damage caused to a third party in connection with its business or the mutual company becoming subject to a claim for such liability; and
- (ii) an insurance contract concluded for the main purpose of the insurer compensating for loss or damage that may be incurred by an officer, etc. as a result of the director or officer assuming liability to compensate for loss or damage caused to a third party or the director or officer becoming subject to a claim for such liability (excluding loss or damage that may be incurred by an officer, etc. as a result of the officer, etc. assuming liability to compensate for loss or damage caused to a third party or the officer, etc. becoming subject to a claim for such liability due to breaching the obligations in the course of duty, or neglecting the duty of the officer, etc.).

Subsection 2 Accounting

Division 1 Financial Statements

(Consideration of Accounting Practices)

Article 24 For the purpose of interpretation of the terms set forth in this Subsection and application of the provisions hereunder, business accounting standards that are generally accepted as fair and appropriate and other business accounting practices must be taken into account.

(Preparation of Account Books)

Article 24-2 The accounting books to be prepared by a Mutual Company pursuant to the provisions of Article 54-2, paragraph (1) of the Act must be prepared by means of written documents or Electronic or Magnetic Records.

(Assessment of Assets)

Article 24-3 (1) Unless otherwise provided for in the laws and regulations, with regard to the assets to be posted on the accounting book as referred to in the preceding Article, the acquisition value thereof must be posted on the accounting book.

- (2) With regard to assets subject to depreciation, depreciation must be implemented accordingly as of the last day of the business year (if the assets are to be assessed as of the day other than the last day of the business year, as of such day; hereinafter the same applies in this Subsection).
- (3) If, with regard to the assets set forth in the following items, it is required to post the prices respectively set forth therein as of the day of the business year, such prices must be posted:
  - (i) asset whose market value as of the last day of the business year is significantly lower than the acquisition cost as of that time (excluding the cases where it is found likely that the market value of such assets will recover to the level of the acquisition cost as of that time): the market value as of the last day of the business year; or
  - (ii) assets for which any unpredictable underdepreciation has occurred as of the last day of the business year, or assets for which underdepreciation loss is to be recognized as of that date: the amount after due reduction from the acquisition cost thereof as of that time.
- (4) If any monetary claim will likely to become uncollectible, the estimate of amount uncollectible as of the last day of the business year must be deducted.
- (5) With regard to claims, if the acquisition value thereof differs from the amount of claim, or if any other reasonable ground exists, appropriate prices may be posted.
- (6) With regard to the following assets, the market value or fair price as of the last day of the business year may be posted:
  - (i) assets whose market value as of the last day of the business year is lower than the acquisition cost thereof as of that time;
  - (ii) assets with market price (excluding the shares and bonds held to maturity (meaning bond certificates held with an intention to hold them until maturity (limited to bond certificates that were acquired with an intention to hold them until maturity) of the substantial subsidiary companies and affiliated companies); the same applies in Article 86-2, paragraph (3), item (ii) and Article 210-11-3, paragraph (3), item (ii)); and
  - (iii) beyond the assets set forth in the preceding two items, assets regarding which it is appropriate to post the market value or fair price as of the end of the last day of the business year.

(Valuation of Liabilities)

Article 24-4 (1) Unless otherwise provided for in the laws and regulations, with regard to liabilities to be posted on the accounting books as referred to in Article 24-2, the amount of the obligations must be posted on the accounting books.

- (2) With regard to the following liabilities, the market value or fair value thereof as of the last day of the business year may be posted:
- (i) Retirement Benefit Allowance (meaning the allowance to be transferred as of the last day of the business year, when the retirement lump-sum payment and retirement annuity or any other benefit similar thereto is to be paid to the employees after their retirement), and any other allowance to be recorded as the allowance for future expenses or losses (including deduction from profits; hereinafter the same applies in this item) by transferring, as the expenses or losses, the portion of the reasonable estimate amount to be borne in the business year;
  - (ii) the corporate bonds whose paid-in amount differ from the amount of obligations; and
  - (iii) beyond the liabilities set forth in the preceding two items, the liabilities regarding which it is appropriate to post market value or fair price thereof as of the last day of the business year.

(Prohibition of Re-Rating of Assets and Liabilities upon Entity Conversion)

Article 24-5 If a Mutual Company effects Entity Conversion (meaning Entity Conversion as provided in Article 86, paragraph (1) of the Act; hereinafter the same applies in this Article), it cannot amend the book value of its assets and liabilities, on the ground of such Entity Conversion.

(Assessment of Assets and Liabilities upon Absorption-Type Merger)

Article 24-6 (1) A Mutual Company Surviving the Absorption-Type Merger (meaning a Mutual Company Surviving the Absorption-Type Merger as provided in Article 160, item (i) of the Act; the same applies hereinafter) must, except for the case where the Absorption-type Merger (meaning the Absorption-type Merger as provided in Article 160 of the Act; hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph and the following Article) falls under the Acquisition of Control (meaning acquisition whereby a Mutual Company takes control over other companies or businesses of the other companies) by such Mutual Company Surviving the Absorption-Type Merger, and also excluding the cases where market value is to be posted to the Property Succeeded by Absorption-Type Merger (meaning the property to be succeeded to by a Mutual Company Surviving the Absorption-Type Merger, by means of Absorption-type Merger; hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph), post the book value immediately prior to the Absorption-type Merger of the Absorbed Company (meaning an Absorbed Company as provided in Article 169, paragraph (1) of the Act; the same applies in Article 24-12, paragraph (2)) to the Property Succeeded by Absorption-Type Merger.

- (2) The provisions of the preceding paragraph apply mutatis mutandis to the case of the Consolidation-type Merger (meaning the Consolidation-type Merger as provided in Article 161, paragraph (1) of the Act; the same applies in the following Article) whereby a Mutual Company is to be incorporated.

(Goodwill)

Article 24-7 In cases of Absorption-type Merger, Consolidation-type Merger or acquisition of business, a Mutual Company may record appropriate amount of goodwill as its assets or liabilities.

Articles 24-8 to 24-10: Deleted

(Valuation and Translation Adjustments)

Article 24-11 With regard to account books of a Mutual Company, the following items as well as any other items other than assets, liabilities or Funds, etc. (collectively meaning the funds, application money for funds, reserve for redemption of funds, reassessment reserve, deficit in reserve for redemption of funds, and surplus) may be recorded as the items in the net asset section, if it is found appropriate to do so:

- (i) the valuation difference of the assets or liabilities (including the net assets or liabilities generating from Transactions of Derivatives; hereinafter the same applies in this Article), if market value is to be posted to such assets or liabilities (excluding the amount to be recorded as surplus or losses; and also excluding the valuation difference as set forth in the following item and item (iii));
- (ii) profit and loss or valuation difference pertaining to the Hedge Accounting (meaning an accounting method for recognizing, within a same accounting period, the profit and loss pertaining to Hedging Instruments (meaning a transaction aimed at diminishing the risk of loss from price fluctuations, interest-rate fluctuations and exchange-rate fluctuations pertaining to assets (including those that are expected to definitely arise from future transactions; hereinafter the same applies in this item), liabilities (including those that are expected to definitely arise from future transactions; hereinafter the same applies in this item), or Derivative Transactions, which are objectively recognized as diminishing the risk of such loss; the same applies hereinafter) and the profit and loss pertaining to Hedged Items (meaning the assets, liabilities, or Derivative Transactions that are the subject of Hedging Instruments); the same applies hereinafter), when the Hedge Accounting is to be applied; and
- (iii) revaluation difference as provided in Article 7, paragraph (1) of the Act on Revaluation of Land (Act No. 34 of 1998).

(Special Provisions for Accounting Pertaining to Activities under Reorganization Plan)

Article 24-12 (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of this Cabinet Office Order, the matters related to goodwill or net assets to be recorded by the Company under Reorganization Proceedings (meaning a Company under Reorganization Proceedings as provided in Article 169, paragraph (7) (Definitions) of the Act on Special Treatment of Corporate Reorganization Proceedings and Other Insolvency Proceedings of Financial Institutions (Act No. 95 of 1996; hereinafter referred to as "Special Act for Reorganization")), or any other matters related to accounting of its activities performed in accordance with the Reorganization Plan (meaning the Reorganization Plan as provided in paragraph (2) of the same Article; hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph) are to be as set forth in the Reorganization Plan.

(2) When, under the Reorganization Plan (meaning the Reorganization Plan as provided in Article 2, paragraph (2) (Definitions) of the Corporate Reorganization Act and Article 169, paragraph (2) of the Special Act for Reorganization; the same applies in Article 90, paragraph (2), Article 168, paragraph (2) and Article 211-64, paragraph (2)), a Mutual Company (excluding a Company under Reorganization Proceedings as provided in paragraph (7) of the same Article), when effecting an Absorption-type Merger (meaning an Absorption-type Merger as provided in Article 270, paragraph (1) (Absorption-type Merger) and Article 361, paragraph (1) (Absorption-type Merger) of the Special Act for Reorganization; hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph), allocates fund whose contributors are constituted by the Reorganization Creditors, etc. (meaning Reorganization Creditors, etc. as set forth in Article 2, paragraph (13) of the Corporate Reorganization Act and Article 169, paragraph (13) of the Special Act for Reorganization; hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph) of the Company under Reorganization Proceedings (meaning a Company under Reorganization Proceedings as provided in Article 2, paragraph (7) of the Corporate Reorganization Act and Article 169, paragraph (7) of the Special Act for Reorganization; the same applies in Article 90, paragraph (2), Article 168, paragraph (2) and Article 211-64, paragraph (2)), the amount of the funds contributed by the Reorganization Creditors, etc. is also to be considered as the Consideration for Absorption-type Merger (meaning the properties delivered from the Mutual Company Surviving the Absorption-Type Merger to the members or shareholders of the Absorbed Company upon the implementation of the Absorption-type Merger) pertaining to such Absorption-type Merger.

(Balance Sheet as of Date of Incorporation)

Article 25 The balance sheet to be prepared pursuant to the provisions of Article

54-3, paragraph (1) of the Act must be prepared based on the accounting books of the Mutual Company as of the date of incorporation thereof.

(Financial Statements for Each Business Year)

- Article 25-2 (1) The document to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 54-3, paragraph (2) of the Act, is a statement of changes in funds, etc. prepared in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (3).
- (2) Financial statements for each business year and supplementary schedules thereto cover the period from the day immediately after the last day of the business year immediately preceding the relevant business year (if there is no such preceding business year, the date of incorporation) and the last day of the relevant business year.
- (3) Financial statements and supplementary schedules thereto for each business year which are to be prepared pursuant to the provisions of Article 54-3, paragraph (2) of the Act must be prepared based upon the accounting books for the relevant business year and in accordance with Appended Form No. 7 (or Appended Form No. 16-17, in the case of a Small Amount and Short Term Insurance Company; or Appended Form No. 7-2, in the case of a Company with Specified Transaction Account).
- (4) Business report and supplementary schedules thereto to be prepared pursuant to the provisions of Article 54-3, paragraph (2) of the Act must be prepared in accordance with Appended Form No. 7 (or Appended Form No. 16-17, in the case of a Small Amount and Short Term Insurance Company; or Appended Form No. 7-2, in the case of a Company with Specified Transaction Account).

(Consolidated Financial Statements)

- Article 25-3 (1) The statements to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 54-10, paragraph (1) of the Act, are the following statements to be prepared pursuant to the provisions of the following Article to Article 25-8:
- (i) a consolidated balance sheet;
  - (ii) consolidated profit and loss statement; and
  - (iii) consolidated statement of changes in funds, etc..
- (2) The Consolidated Financial Statements as referred to in the items of the preceding paragraph must be prepared in accordance with Appended Form No. 7-3, Sections 2-2, 2-3 and 2-6 (or Appended Form No. 16-20, Sections 2-2, 2-3 and 2-6, in the case of a Small Amount and Short Term Insurance Company).

(Consolidated Financial Year)

Article 25-4 The Consolidated Financial Statements for each business year

(hereinafter referred to as "Consolidated Financial Year") cover the period from the day immediately after the last day of the business year immediately preceding the relevant business year (if there is no such preceding business year, the date of incorporation) and the last day of the relevant business year.

(Scope of Consolidation)

Article 25-5 (1) A Mutual Company must include all of its Substantial Subsidiary Companies in the scope of consolidation; provided, however, that a Substantial Subsidiary Company which falls under any other following items is not included in the scope of consolidation:

(i) a Substantial Subsidiary Company, when the Mutual Company is found to have a temporary control over its decision-making body in charge of determination of financial and business policies (meaning a shareholders' meetings and any other organ equivalent thereto) is found to be tentative; and

(ii) a Substantial Subsidiary Company which, if included in the scope of consolidation, may substantially mislead the judgment of interested parties of the Mutual Company.

(2) Substantial Subsidiary Companies to be included in the scope of consolidation pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph which have little significance such that exclusion from the scope of consolidation would not give any negative impact on making the reasonable judgment regarding the status of properties and profit and losses of the corporate group, in terms of their assets and sales volume (including service profits) and other factors, may be excluded from the scope of consolidation.

(Substantial Companies Which Have Different Period of Business Year)

Article 25-6 (1) A Consolidated Substantial Subsidiary Company (meaning a Substantial Subsidiary Company included in the scope of consolidation; hereinafter the same applies in this Article and the following Article) for which the last day of the business year differs from the last day of the business year of the Mutual Company must, on the last day of the business year of the Mutual Company, settle the account as may be necessary for preparation of financial statements which serve the basis of preparation of the Consolidated Financial Statements; provided, however, this does not apply to the cases where the difference between the last day of the business year of the Consolidated Substantial Subsidiary Company and the last day of the business year of the Mutual Company do not exceed three months, and where the Consolidated Financial Statements are to be prepared based on the financial statements for the business year of the Consolidated Substantial Subsidiary Company.

(2) When the Consolidated Financial Statements are to be prepared pursuant to the provisions of the proviso to the preceding paragraph, an adjustment must be made in relation to the material discrepancies in accounting records pertaining to transactions among Consolidated Companies (which collectively means the Mutual Company and its Consolidated Substantial Subsidiary Companies; the same applies in the following Article), arising from the inconsistency between the last day of the business year of the Consolidated Substantial Subsidiary Company and the last day of the business year of the Mutual Company.

(Assessment of Assets and Liabilities of Consolidated Substantial Subsidiary Companies)

Article 25-7 For the purpose of preparing Consolidated Financial Statements, assets and liabilities of Consolidated Substantial Subsidiary Companies must be evaluated, investments by the Mutual Company in the Consolidated Substantial Subsidiary Companies must be offset against the corresponding equity in the Consolidated Substantial Subsidiary Companies, and any other necessary elimination of items between the Consolidated Companies must be made.

(Application of Equity Method)

Article 25-8 (1) Investments in any Non-consolidated Substantial Subsidiary Company (meaning a Substantial Company excluded from the scope of consolidation; hereinafter the same applies in this Article) and in Affiliated Company must be recorded on a consolidated balance sheet by indicating values calculated by the application of the Equity Method (meaning a method whereby an investment company corrects its investment amount for each business year, reflecting the fluctuation in the portions of the invested company's net assets, profit and loss to which the investor company is entitled; hereinafter the same applies in this Article); provided, however, that the Equity Method is not applied to investments in a Non-consolidated Substantial Subsidiary Company and Affiliated Company that falls under either of the following categories:

- (i) an Affiliated Company, where the Mutual Company is found to exert only a temporary influence on its decisions on financial and operational or business policies; or
- (ii) a Non-consolidated Subsidiary Company or Affiliated Company, where application of the Equity Method to it is found likely to mislead the judgment of interested parties of the Mutual Company.

(2) Where any Non-consolidated Subsidiary Company or Affiliated Company to which the Equity Method is to be applied pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph would not, in terms of profit, loss, or other factors, give any material influence on Consolidated Financial Statements even if it is excluded from the target of application of the Equity Method, such company may be excluded from the target of application of the Equity Method.

Division 2 Audit of Accounting Documents Concerning Mutual Company Other than Company with Accounting Auditors

(General Rules on Audit of Accounting Documents)

Article 26 (1) For the purpose of audit to be performed pursuant to the provisions of Article 54-4, paragraphs (1) and (2) and Article 54-10, paragraph (4) of the Act (limited to the audit pertaining to the Accounting Documents (excluding the balance sheet as of the time of incorporation; hereinafter the same applies in this Division and the following Division); hereinafter the same applies in this Subsection), the provisions of this Division and the following Division apply.

(2) The audit as provided in the preceding paragraph is to include the audit provided in Article 2, paragraph (1) (Business of Certified Public Accountants) of the Certified Public Accountants Act, as well as the procedures to verify the degree of consistency between information indicated on the Accounting Documents and information required to be indicated thereon, and to inform the interested parties the results thereof.

(Details of Audit Report of Company Auditors)

Article 26-2 A company auditor (excluding a company auditor of a Company with Accounting Auditor (meaning a stock company or mutual company with accounting auditors; the same applies in this Division)) must, upon receipt of the Accounting Documents, prepare an audit report in accordance with Appended Form No. 1-6.

(Details of Audit Report of Board of Company Auditors)

Article 26-3 (1) The board of company auditors (excluding the board of company auditors of the Company with Accounting Auditors; hereinafter the same applies in this Article and Article 26-2, paragraph (1)) must prepare its audit report (hereinafter referred to as the "Audit Report by Board of Company Auditors" in this Article) in accordance with Appended Form No. 1-7, based on the audit report prepared by the company auditor pursuant to the provisions of the preceding Article (hereinafter referred to the "Audit Report by Company Auditors" in this Article).

(2) When the board of company auditors prepares an Audit Report by Board of Company Auditors, it must discuss, for one or more occasions, the details of the Audit Report by Board of Company Auditors (excluding the details of each company auditor's Audit Report by Company Auditor to be noted if any discrepancy exists between the details of the Audit Report by Board of Company Auditors and that of the Audit Report by Company Auditors), by means of convocation of meetings or by means which enables simultaneous exchange of opinions through transmission of information.

(Time Limit for Notification of Audit Report)

Article 26-4 (1) A Specific Company Auditor must, until either of the following dates whichever comes later, notify the Specific Director of the content of the audit report (in the case of a company with board of company auditors, limited to the audit report of the board of company auditors prepared pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) of the preceding Article; hereinafter the same applies in this Article) on financial statements for each business year and supplementary schedules thereto:

- (i) the date when four weeks passes from the date of receipt of all financial statements;
- (ii) the date when one week passes from the date of receipt of the supplementary schedules to the financial statements; or
- (iii) if there is a date agreed upon between the Specific Directors and Specific Company Auditors, such date.

(2) Accounting Documents are deemed to have been audited by the company auditors on the day when the Specific Director receives the notification of the details of the audit report under the preceding paragraph.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, if the Specific Company Auditor fails to make a notification of the details of the audit report under paragraph (1) no later than the time limit specified in the same paragraph, the financial documents are deemed to have been audited by the company auditors on the day when the notification should have been made.

(4) The term "Specific Director" as provided in paragraphs (1) and (2) means the persons specified in the following items, in accordance with the categories as respectively set forth therein (if the Mutual Company is a company with accounting advisors, the persons specified in the respective items, as well as the accounting advisors):

- (i) when the recipient of the notification under paragraph (1) is designated: such person designated as the recipient of the notification;
- (ii) in cases other than those set forth in the preceding paragraph: the director who performed the duties of preparation of the Accounting Documents which require auditing.

(5) The term "Specific Company Auditor" as provided in paragraphs (1) and (3) means the persons set forth in the following items, in accordance with the categories of Mutual Companies as respectively set forth therein:

- (i) a company with company auditors (excluding a company with board of company auditors and a Company with Accounting Auditors): a person set forth in any of (a) to (c) below, in accordance with the categories of the cases as respectively set forth therein:
  - (a) if there are two or more company auditors, and when the company auditor who is to notify the details of the audit report under paragraph (1) is designated: the company auditor designated to make the notification;
  - (b) if there are two or more company auditors, and when the company auditor who is to notify the details of the audit report under paragraph (1) is not designated: all company auditors;
  - (c) cases other than those set forth in (a) or (b): company auditors;
- (ii) a company with board of company auditors (excluding a Company with Accounting Auditors): a person set forth in (a) or (b) below, in accordance with the categories of the cases as respectively set forth therein:

  - (viii) remuneration, etc. payable to Company Officers;
  - (viii)-2 the matters related to an indemnity contract (meaning an indemnity contract prescribed in Article 430-2, paragraph (1) (Indemnity Contract) of the Companies Act, as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 53-38 of the Act following the deemed replacement of terms);
  - (viii)-3 the matters related to an officers, etc. indemnification insurance policy (meaning an officers, etc. indemnification insurance policy as provided in Article 430-3, paragraph (1) (Insurance Policies Concluded for the Benefit of Officers) of the Companies Act, as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 53-38 of the Act following the deemed replacement of terms); and
  - (ix) if the company auditor, audit and supervisory committee or audit committee has raised any objection as to the implementation of the measures under this paragraph in relation to any of the matters to be stated in the business report (excluding the matters set forth in the preceding items), such matter.
- (4) In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, the director must inform the members of the characters, numbers, marks or any other types of symbols or a combination thereof created for the purpose of the online identification of the portion of the Automatic Public Transmission Server assigned for the purpose of implementing the measure under such paragraph, which enables information recipients to browse the details of such information by inputting it into the computers they use and to record the information into the file stored on such computers.
- (5) If, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (3), any part of the matters indicated on the business report are deemed to have been provided to members by the methods set forth in the items of paragraph (2), and where the company auditor, audit and supervisory committee or accounting auditor requests that the director is to notify the members of the fact that the business report actually provided to the members comprise a part of the business report audited for the purpose of preparation of the audit report or accounting audit report, the director must notify the members of such fact.

- (6) A director may, in addition to the Notice of Calling of the annual general meeting of members, notify the methods to inform the members of the matters after the amendment if any event occurs which requires amendment to the matters to be stated in the business report within the period between the day of dispatching Notice of Calling of the annual general meeting of members and the day immediately prior to the date of the annual general meeting of members.
- (7) The provisions of paragraph (3) do not preclude taking measures to keep members able to access the information pertaining to the matters listed in each item of the same paragraph by Electronic or Magnetic Means.

(Provision of Consolidated Financial Statements)

Article 29-3 (1) When the Consolidated Financial Statements are to be provided to members pursuant to the provisions of Article 54-5 of the Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 54-10, paragraph (6) of the Act following the deemed replacement of terms, and where the Notice of Calling of the annual general meeting of members is to be given by the method set forth in the following items, the Consolidated Financial Statements must be provided in accordance with the method as respectively set forth in the relevant item:

- (i) provision of written documents: the method as specified in (a) or (b) below, in accordance with the categories of the cases as respectively set forth therein:
- (a) when the Consolidated Financial Statements are prepared in the form of written documents: provision of written documents stating the matters contained in those written documents; or
- (b) when the Consolidated Financial Statements are prepared in the form of Electronic or Magnetic Records: provision of written documents stating the matters set forth in the Electronic or Magnetic Records;
- (ii) provision by way of Electronic or Magnetic Means: the method as specified in (a) or (b) below, in accordance with the categories of the cases as respectively set forth therein:
- (a) when the Consolidated Financial Statements are prepared in the form of written documents: provision of the matters contained in those written documents, by way of Electronic or Magnetic Means; or
- (b) when the Consolidated Financial Statements are prepared in the form of Electronic or Magnetic Records: provision of the matters set forth in the Electronic or Magnetic Records, by way of Electronic or Magnetic Means.

- (2) For the purpose of application of the preceding paragraph if an accounting audit report or audit report pertaining to the Consolidated Financial Statements as set forth in the same paragraph has been prepared and where it is prescribed that the details of the accounting audit report or audit report are also provided to the members, the term "Consolidated Financial Statements" in item (i), (a) and (b), and item (ii), (a) and (b) of the same paragraph is deemed to be replaced with "Consolidated Financial Statements (including accounting audit report or audit report pertaining to the Consolidated Financial Statements)".
- (3) In the case where the articles of incorporation provide that measures for electronic provision (meaning the measures for electronic provision provided in Article 325-2 (Provisions in the Articles of Incorporation to the Effect that Measures for Electronic Provision Will be Taken) of the Companies Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 41, paragraph (1) or Article 49, paragraph (1) of the Act; hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph), and if there is a financial audit report or an audit report concerning the consolidated financial statements set forth in paragraph (1), and if it is prescribed that its details are also to be provided to members, measures for electronic provision may be taken with respect to the information concerning the matters stated or recorded in the accounting audit report or audit report, in lieu of the provision under the preceding two paragraphs.
- (4) When providing the Consolidated Financial Statements, the matters to be indicated on the consolidated balance sheet, consolidated profit and loss statement or consolidated statement of changes in funds, etc. pertaining to the consolidated business year prior to the relevant consolidated business year (hereinafter referred to as the "Carry-forward Items") may also be provided. In this case, if, due to amendment in accounting policies or any other justifiable reason, any of the Carry-forward Items as of the time of provision of the Consolidated Financial Statements differs from the items approved or reported at the annual general meeting of members pertaining to the consolidated business year prior to the relevant consolidated business year, the provision of the Carry-forward Items so amended is not precluded.
- (5) When, for the period between the time of dispatching a Notice of Calling of the annual general meeting of members and the day when three months passes from the day of the annual general meeting of members, the measure (limited to the method specified in Article 14-5, paragraph (1), item (i), (b), which is to be implemented by the use of Automatic Public Transmission Server connected to the Internet) is implemented so as to keep members accessible to information pertaining to the matters to be included in the relevant Consolidated Financial Statements (including the accounting audit report and audit report pertaining to the Consolidated Financial Statements, in the cases provided in paragraph (2)) by Electronic or Magnetic Means, such matters are deemed to have been provided to the members by the method specified in paragraph (1) in accordance with the categories of the cases as respectively set forth in the items of the same paragraph, for the purpose of application of provisions of the same paragraph; provided, however, that this is limited to the case where it is provided for in the articles of incorporation that the measure referred to in this paragraph is implemented.

- (6) In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, the director must notify the members of the characters, numbers, marks or any other types of symbols or a combination thereof created for the purpose of the online identification of the portion of the Automatic Public Transmission Server assigned for the purpose of implementing the measure under such paragraph, which enables the information recipients to browse the details of such information by inputting it into the computers they use and to record the information into the file stored on such computers.
- (7) When, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (5), any part of the matters indicated on the Consolidated Financial Statements are deemed to have been provided to members by the methods set forth in the items of paragraph (1), and the company auditor, accounting auditor, audit and supervisory committee or audit committee requests that the director is to notify the members of the fact that the Consolidated Financial Statements actually provided to the members comprise a part of the Consolidated Financial Statements audited for the purpose of preparation of the audit report or accounting audit report, the director must notify the members such fact.
- (8) A director may, in addition to the Notice of Calling of the annual general meeting of members, notify the methods to inform the members of the matters after the amendment if any event occurs which requires amendment to the matters to be stated in the Consolidated Financial Statements within the period between the day of dispatching Notice of Calling of the annual general meeting of members and the day immediately prior to the date of the annual general meeting of members.

(Requirements for Application of Special Provisions for Approval of Financial Statements)

Article 29-4 The requirement to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 54-6, paragraph (4) of the Act, is to fall under all of the following items (excluding item (iii), in the case of a Mutual Company which is a company with company auditors but is not a company with board of company auditors):

- (i) the amount recorded in the item of application money for funds;

- (ii) the amount recorded in the item of reassessment reserve;
  - (iii) the amount recorded in the item of valuation difference on available-for-sale securities (meaning the valuation difference on available-for-sale securities recorded in the section of net assets; the same applies hereinafter) (limited to the case where the amount is not less than zero);
  - (iv) the amount recorded in the item of deferred gain or loss on hedges (meaning gains or losses or market value valuation differences on hedging instruments that are deferred until the gains or losses on hedged items are recognized; the same applies hereinafter);
  - (v) the amount recorded in the item of land revaluation difference (meaning land revaluation difference provided in Article 7, paragraph (2) of the Act on Revaluation of Land (Act No. 34 of 1998); the same applies in item (vi) of the following paragraph) (limited to the case where the amount is not less than zero).
- (2) The amount to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 55, paragraph (2), item (v) of the Act is the following amounts recorded on the balance sheet as of the last day of the Most Recent Business Year:
- (i) the amount recorded in the item of application money for funds;
  - (ii) the amount recorded in the item of reassessment reserve;
  - (iii) when the Goodwill, etc. Adjustment Amount (meaning the amount of goodwill recorded on the asset section divided by two, plus the amount recorded as deferred assets; hereinafter the same applies in this item) falls under the case specified in any of (a) to (c) below, the amount respectively set forth therein:
    - (a) when the Goodwill, etc. Adjustment Amount is not more than the Amount of Funds, etc. (meaning the total amount of the funds, application money for funds, reserve for redemption of funds, reassessment reserve, and loss reserve; hereinafter the same applies in this item): zero;
    - (b) when the Goodwill, etc. Adjustment Amount is not more than the total of the Amount of Funds, etc. and deficit in reserve for redemption of funds as of the last day of the Most Recent Business Year (excluding the cases set forth in item (a)): the amount of such Goodwill, etc. Adjustment Amount, less the Amount of Funds, etc.;
    - (c) when the Goodwill, etc. Adjustment Amount exceeds the total of the Amount of Funds, etc. and deficit in reserve for redemption of funds as of the last day of the Most Recent Business Year: the amount set forth in the following items, in accordance with the categories of the cases as respectively set forth therein:
      - 1. when the amount obtained by dividing the goodwill amount as of the last day of the Most Recent Business Year by two is not more than the total of the Amount of Funds, etc. and the deficit in reserve for redemption of funds as of the last day of the Most Recent Business Year: the amount of such Goodwill, etc. Adjustment Amount, less the Amount of Funds, etc.;

2. when the amount obtained by dividing the goodwill amount as of the last day of the Most Recent Business Year by two exceeds the total of the Amount of Funds, etc. and the deficit in reserve for redemption of funds as of the last day of the Most Recent Business Year: the total of the amount of the deficit in reserve for redemption of funds as of the last day of the Most Recent Business Year, and the amount recorded as deferred assets;
- (iv) any other amount recorded in the item of valuation difference on available-for-sale securities (limited to the case where the amount is not less than zero);
- (v) the amount recorded in the item of deferred gain or loss on hedges;
- (vi) the amount recorded in the item of land revaluation difference (limited to the case where the amount is not less than zero).

(Formula for Calculation of Distribution of Surplus)

Article 30-2 When a Mutual Company distributes surplus to its members, it must calculate the amount of surplus to be distributed in accordance with the types of the insurance contracts categorized by the distinctiveness thereof, and must implement such distribution by one or more of the methods set forth in the following items (or in items (i), (ii) and (iv), in the case of a Mutual Company which falls under the category of Small Amount and Short Term Insurance Company):

- (i) to distribute the amount of the insurance premiums paid by the members and gains generating from investment of money received as insurance premiums, less the amount of insurance proceeds, refund or any other benefit, operating expenditure and any other costs;
- (ii) to specify the amount of surplus to be distributed, as categorized by the grounds of the distribution; to calculate the respective amount pertaining to each insurance contract based on the policy reserve, insurance proceeds or any other base amount; and to distribute the total of such amounts;
- (iii) to specify the amount of surplus to be distributed, as categorized by the insurance periods, etc.; and to distribute the amount pertaining to each insurance contract calculated depending upon the policy reserve, insurance premiums or any other base amount; or
- (iv) any other method equivalent to the methods set forth in the preceding three items.

(Creation of Accumulation Account)

Article 30-3 (1) A Mutual Company which is an Insurance Company may, for the purpose of the implementation of surplus distribution in a fair and equitable manner, set up an account so that it may manage all or the part of the properties corresponding to the amount of policy reserve pertaining to the insurance contract with an option of maturity refund paid after the expiration of the insurance period, in segregation from any other properties (hereinafter referred to as "Accumulation Account" in this Article).

(2) The accounting of the properties belonging to the Accumulation Account must be segregated from the accounting of the properties belonging to other Accumulation Accounts or from any other account than the Accumulation Accounts, and must be stated in the accounting books specifically designated.

(3) A Mutual Company which is an Insurance Company may not, unless with approval from the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency or except for the case of transfer of money to another account by the method specified in the document under Article 4, paragraph (2), item (ii) of the Act, conduct any of the following acts:

(i) to transfer the properties belonging to the Accumulation Account to other Accumulation Accounts or any other account than the Accumulation Accounts; or

(ii) to transfer the properties not belonging to the Accumulation Account to the Accumulation Account.

(4) When a Mutual Company which is an Insurance Company intends to obtain the approval under the preceding paragraph, it must submit to the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency the written application for approval, with a written statement of reasons attached thereto.

(Amount of Surplus Subject to Multiplication by Certain Ratio)

Article 30-4 The amount to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 55-2, paragraph (2) of the Act, is the amount of the surplus not disposed for the period, less the total of the following amounts (such amount is up to the amount of net asset on the balance sheet as provided in Article 55, paragraph (2) of the Act, less the total of the amount set forth in the items of the same paragraph):

(i) the amount of the surplus carried over from the previous period;

(ii) the amount of reversal for the purpose of voluntary reserve;

(iii) the amount paid as Interest from Fund as referred to in Article 55, paragraph (1) of the Act;

(iv) the amount to be set aside in the relevant accounting settlement period, as the loss reserves as set forth in Article 58 of the Act;

(v) the amount to be set aside in the relevant accounting settlement period, as the reserve for redemption of funds as set forth in Article 56 of the Act;

- (vi) the amount of voluntary reserve to be set aside in the net asset section in the relevant accounting period, in preparation of allocation to redemption of funds (provided that the amount is up to the amount of the funds (if the company has any funds regarding which the scheduled date of the full redemption thereof is not fixed, the amount of funds is excluded), divided by the number of accounting settlement periods included in the period between the payment date thereof to the scheduled date for the full redemption thereof (if the company has funds regarding which the payment dates or scheduled dates of full redemption are not the same, the total of the amount calculated for the respective types of fund));
- (vii) the amount provided in Article 30, paragraph (2), item (iii);
- (viii) the reversal amount, when the reversal amount of members' dividend reserve as provided in item (i), paragraph (1) of the following Article is included in the surplus for the accounting settlement period.

(Reserve for Distribution of Surplus)

Article 30-5 (1) The reserve to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 55-2, paragraph (2) of the Act, is as follows:

- (i) members' dividend reserve; and
  - (ii) members' dividend equilibrium reserve.
- (2) The members' dividend reserve as set forth in item (i) of the preceding paragraph is to be recorded in the liabilities section of the balance sheet, as the reserve in preparation of distribution of surplus to members.
- (3) A Life Insurance Mutual Company (meaning a Mutual Company which has obtained the life insurance business license under Article 3, paragraph (4) of the Act) may not transfer to the members' dividend reserve referred to in paragraph (1), item (i) the amount in excess of the total of the amount set forth in the following items (in the case of the account closing period, including the amount transferred to the following amounts, on the ground of disposition of surplus):
- (i) the amount of Reserved Dividend (meaning the dividend distributed to members, which are reserved with interests);
  - (ii) the amount of Unpaid Dividend (meaning the unpaid dividends distributed to members, excluding the Reserved Dividend as provided in the preceding item) (in the case of the accounting period, including the amounts scheduled to be distributed in the subsequent period);
  - (iii) the amount of Dividend Payable on Expiry (meaning the dividend payable upon expiry of all insurance contracts, calculated based on the presumption that all insurance contracts have expired); and
  - (iv) any other amount equivalent to those set forth in the preceding three items, as calculated in accordance with the formula designated in the document set forth in Article 4, paragraph (2), item (iv) of the Act.

- (4) A Mutual Company which is a Small Amount and Short Term Insurance Company may not transfer to the members' dividend reserve as referred to in paragraph (1), item (i) the amount in excess of the total of the following amount (in the case of the account closing period, including the amount transferred to the following amount, on the ground of the disposition of surplus):
- (i) the amount of Unpaid Dividend (meaning the unpaid dividends distributed to members) (in the case of the account closing period, including the amounts scheduled to be distributed in the subsequent period); and
  - (ii) the amount of scheduled dividends to be distributed in the subsequent, multiplied by five-hundredth.
- (5) The members' dividend equilibrium reserve as set forth in paragraph (1), item (ii) is to be recorded in the net asset section of the balance sheet, as the voluntary reserve for the purpose of stabilizing the amount of surplus to be distributed to members.
- (6) When the members' dividend reserve or the members' dividend equilibrium reserve as provided in paragraph (1) is reversed, the total of the reversal amount, less the amount allocated to distribution of surplus to members, must be set aside as the members' dividend reserve or the members' dividend equilibrium reserve; provided, however, that this does not apply to the cases where the remaining amount is allocated to compensation of losses, payment of the Interest from Fund, provision of loss reserve, or provision of reserve for redemption of funds.

(Reserve Ratio)

Article 30-6 The ratio to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 55-2, paragraph (3) of the Act, is 20 percent.

(Application for Authorization for Exception to Provision of Members' Dividend Reserve)

Article 30-7 (1) When a Mutual Company intends to obtain the authorization under Article 55-2, paragraph (5) of the Act, it must submit to the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency or Other Official a written application for authorization, with the following documents attached thereto:

- (i) a written statement of reasons;
- (ii) minutes of a general meeting of members or Member Representatives Meeting (in a case where, pursuant to the provisions of Article 319, paragraph (1) (Omission of Resolution of Shareholders Meetings) of the Companies Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 41, paragraph (1) of the Act following the deemed replacement of terms, a resolution of a general meeting of members is deemed to have been made, the document certifying that the company falls under the relevant case; the same applies hereinafter); and

(iii) a document containing any other matters which would serve as reference information.

(2) When the application under the preceding paragraph is filed, the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency or Other Official is to examine whether the soundness in management of the Mutual Company would be prejudiced and protection of Policyholders, etc. would be hindered, unless the amount to be set aside for the accounting period as the reserve set forth in the items of Article 30-5, paragraph (1) is the product after the multiplication by the ratio pertaining to the application, judging from the status of business or properties of the Mutual Company which has filed the application for authorization.

(Directors Held Liable in Relation to Payment of Interest from Fund)

Article 30-8 (1) The officers to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 55-3, paragraph (1), item (i) of the Act, are as follows:

(i) directors and executive officers who took charge of the duties related to delivery of money pertaining to Payment of Interests from Fund, etc.

(meaning the Payment of Interests from Fund, etc. as provided in Article 55-3, paragraph (1) of the Act; hereinafter the same applies in this Article);

(ii) directors and executive officers who gave explanation on matters related to the Payment of Interests from Fund, etc., at the annual general meeting of members (or the annual Member Representatives Meeting, if a Member Representatives Meeting is organized; hereinafter the same applies in this Article) at which the matters related to Payment of Interests from Fund, etc. was resolved;

(iii) directors who casted affirmative vote on Payment of Interests from Fund, etc. at the board of directors meeting at which the matters related to Payment of Interests from Fund, etc. was resolved; and

(iv) if the company auditor, audit and supervisory committee, audit committee or accounting auditor requested the report on calculation of the maximum limit of interest payment (meaning the maximum limit of interest payment as provided in Article 55, paragraph (1) of the Act) or maximum limit of redemption, etc. (meaning the maximum limit of redemption as provided in paragraph (2) of the Article), the director or executive officer who made the report in response to such request.

(2) The officers to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 55-3, paragraph (1), item (ii) of the Act, are as follows:

(i) the director who submitted the item on the agenda for the annual general

- meeting of members; and
- (ii) when the submission of the item on the agenda under the preceding item was made by the resolution of the board of directors meeting, the directors who casted affirmative votes on such submission at the board of directors meeting.

(Amount of Claim Pertaining to Insurance Contract)

Article 43 The amount to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 88, paragraph (6) of the Act, is as follows: the amount set forth in item (i), in the case of a Life Insurance Company; the total of the amounts set forth in items (ii) and (iii), in the case of a Non-Life Insurance Company; or the amount set forth in item (ii), in the case of a Small Amount and Short Term Insurance Company:

- (i) the amount to be set aside for the insured, as of the time of the public notice under Article 88, paragraph (2) of the Act (hereinafter referred to as the "Public Notice" in this Article);

- (ii) the amount of the insurance premiums corresponding to the Unexpired Period (meaning the insurance period provided for in an insurance contract, outstanding as of the time of the public notice); and
- (iii) the amount to be set aside as the refund reserve as set forth in Article 70, paragraph (1), item (iii), as of the time of the public notice.

(Calculation of Members' Amount of Contribution)

Article 44 (1) The amount calculated in accordance with the provisions of Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 90, paragraph (2) (including the cases where applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 96-6, paragraph (2) (including the cases where applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 96-8, paragraph (2) of the Act)), is the total of the amount of contribution per insurance contract concluded between the converting Mutual Company's member and the Mutual Company.

(2) The amount of contribution per insurance contract as provided in the preceding paragraph is the amount set forth in item (i) less the amount set forth in item (ii) for each Insurance Contract Category of the insurance contract provided by the Mutual Company (hereinafter referred to as "Insurance Contract Category" in this Article), and then further calculated based on the amount of policy reserve, insurance proceeds, insurance premiums and any other base amount for each insurance contract falling under the relevant Insurance Contract Category:

- (i) with regard to insurance contracts concluded with members, the total of the insurance premiums paid by the members and gains generating from investment of money received as insurance premiums, less the amount allocated for disbursements such as payment of the insurance proceeds, refund or any other benefits, operating expenditure and any other costs;
- (ii) with regard to insurance contracts concluded with members, the amount of assets to be reserved so as to secure the performances of obligations under insurance contracts.

(Market Price for Processing of Fractions of Less Than One Share Upon Issuance of Shares)

Article 44-2 The method specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 234, paragraph (2) of the Companies Act (Processing of Fractions of Less Than One Share) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 90, paragraph (3) of the Act (including the cases where applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 96-6, paragraph (2) of the Act (including the cases where applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 96-8, paragraph (2) of the Act)); hereinafter the same applies in this Article) following the deemed replacement of terms, is the method whereby the amount listed in the following items is treated as the price of shares provided in each item, in accordance with the categories of the respective cases set forth therein:

- (i) if the shares are sold through a market transaction: the sale price of the transaction; or
- (ii) in cases other than the case set forth the preceding item: the higher of the following prices:
  - (a) the closing price of the shares on the market on which the shares are traded, as of the day when the shares were sold pursuant to the provisions of Article 234, paragraph (2) of the Companies Act as applied mutatis mutandis by replacing certain terms pursuant to Article 90, paragraph (3) of the Act (hereinafter referred to as the "Sales Date" in this item) (if no sale and purchase transaction was consummated on the Sales Date, or where the Sales Date falls on a non-business day of the market, the contract price of the sale and purchase transaction effected for the first time thereafter); or
  - (b) in cases where, as of the Sales Date, the shares are the target of a Tender Offer, etc., the price of the shares provided for in the contract pertaining to the Tender Offer, etc. as of the Sales Date.

(Calculation of Amount of Surplus in Entity Conversion)

Article 45 (1) The amount calculated in accordance with the formula to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 91, paragraph (3) of the Act, is the amount calculated as the net asset as of the time of the Entity Conversion of the converting Mutual Company, multiplied by the proportion of the amount set forth in item (ii) to the amount set forth in item (i):

- (i) the amount of total assets of the converting Mutual Company as of the time of the Entity Conversion, which is evaluated by the same method as those used for the purpose of calculation of the total amount of members' contributions as referred to in Article 44, paragraph (1), less the total of the following amounts:
  - (a) the amount set forth in Article 44, paragraph (2), item (ii);
  - (b) with regard to the insurance contract under Article 63, paragraph (1) of the Act, the amount of assets to be secured for the purpose of performance of obligations under insurance contracts, which is evaluated by the same method as those used for the purpose of calculation of the amount set forth in Article 44, paragraph (2), item (ii);
  - (c) the amount of assets to be secured for the purpose of performance the converting Mutual Company of its obligations at the time of the Entity Conversion, which is evaluated by the same method as those used for the

- purpose of calculation of the amount set forth in Article 44, paragraph (2), item (ii) (excluding the amounts set forth in (a) and (b)); and
- (ii) the amount set forth in the preceding paragraph, less the total of the amount of members' contributions as provided in an Article 44, paragraph (1).
- (2) if the amount recorded in the net asset section or liability section of the balance sheet of the converted stock company decreases due to any of the grounds as set forth in the following items, the Amount of Surplus in Entity Conversion may be reduced accordingly with such reduction:
- (i) compensation of loss by the allocation of surplus, capital reserve or retained earnings reserve;
  - (ii) reduction in the amount of stated capital;
  - (iii) addition to the insurance premiums reserve under Article 69, paragraph (1), item (i) or Article 70, paragraph (1), item (i), (a) by way of effecting amendment to the document set forth in Article 4, paragraph (2), item (iv) of the Act;
  - (iv) reversal of Price Fluctuation Reserve under Article 115, paragraph (1) of the Act; or
  - (v) reversal of Contingency Reserve under Article 69, paragraph (1), item (iii) or Article 70, paragraph (1), item (ii)-2.

(Amount of Capital Reserve)

- Article 45-2 (1) The matters necessary for accounting related to the Entity Conversion to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 91, paragraph (4) of the Act, are to be as set forth in this Article.
- (2) The amount to be recorded by the converted stock company upon the Entity Conversion as its capital reserve is the amount of net assets as of the time of Entity Conversion (excluding the valuation and translation adjustment, etc.), less the amount of stated capital as set forth in Article 86, paragraph (4), item (v) of the Act.
- (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the amount of the loss reserves of the converting Mutual Company as of the time of Entity Conversion may be treated as the amount not required to be recorded as capital reserve; provided, however, that in such case, the amount of such loss reserves must be recorded as the retained earnings reserve of the converted stock company.
- (4) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (2), the amount equivalent to the amount of surplus (excluding the loss reserves under the preceding paragraph) reserved by the converting Mutual Company at the time of its Entity Conversion may be treated as the amount not required to be recorded as capital reserve.

- (4) In lieu of the delivery of a document provided in paragraph (1), a life insurance agent or a non-life insurance agent may provide the matters to be stated in the document by the electronic or magnetic means, with the consent from the customer, as specified in the following paragraph. In this case, it is deemed that the life insurance agent or the non-life insurance agent has made the delivery.
- (5) When a life insurance agent or a non-life insurance agent intends to provide the matters referred to in the preceding paragraph by electronic or magnetic means, the life insurance agent or the non-life insurance agent must indicate the types and the details of the electronic or magnetic means listed in the items of Article 14-10 that the life insurance agent or the non-life insurance agent intends to use to the customer and obtain prior consent in writing or by electronic or magnetic means.
- (6) A life insurance agent or a non-life insurance agent who has obtained the consent under the preceding paragraph may not provide the matters to be stated in the document to the customer by electronic or magnetic means when the customer states, either in writing or by the electronic or magnetic means, to the effect that the customer will not receive the provisions of the matters by electronic or magnetic means; provided, however, that this does not apply if the customer has given consent under the provisions of the same paragraph again.

Article 53-5 Deleted.

(Treatment of Non-Disclosure Finance Information Concerning Customers of Financial Institution Falling under Person in Specified Relationship)

Article 53-6 (1) An Insurance Company must take measures to ensure that any non-disclosure finance information concerning a Customer handled by a financial institution (meaning a financial institution provided in Article 53-4, paragraph (3)) that falls under a Person in Specified Relationship (meaning a Person in Specified Relationship provided in paragraph (2) of the same Article) with the Insurance Company while conducting its business (excluding business pertaining to insurance solicitation) (such non-disclosure finance information means information concerning customers' deposits, exchange trades, or borrowing of funds or other non-disclosure information concerning customers' financial transactions or assets which may come to knowledge of any the officers or employees in the course of their duties (excluding information provided in Article 53-9 and special non-disclosure information provided in Article 53-10)) is not to be used for any business pertaining to insurance solicitation without obtaining prior consent from the Customer in writing or by any other appropriate means.

- (2) In lieu of consent in writing from a Customer under the preceding paragraph, an Insurance Company may provide the matters to be stated in the document by the Electronic or Magnetic Means by obtaining consent from the Customer, as prescribed in the following paragraph. In this case, it is deemed that the Insurance Company has obtained consent in writing from the Customer.
- (3) When an Insurance Company intends to provide the matters to be stated in the document pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, it must indicate the types and the details of the Electronic or Magnetic Means listed in the items of Article 14-10 that it intends to use to the Customer and obtain prior consent in writing or by the Electronic or Magnetic Means.
- (4) An Insurance Company that has obtained the consent under the preceding paragraph may not obtain prior consent from the Customer by the Electronic or Magnetic Means when the Customer states, either in writing or by the Electronic or Magnetic Means, to the effect that the Customer may not give consent by the Electronic or Magnetic Means; provided, however, that this does not apply if the Customer has given consent under the provisions of the same paragraph again.

(Specified Transaction Account)

Article 53-6-2 (1) When an Insurance Company carries out specified transactions and meets all the following requirements, it must establish a special account (hereinafter referred to as a "Specified Transaction Account") so as to deal specified transactions and property for specified transactions separately from other transactions and property. In this case, this does not preclude an Insurance Company that does not meet either or any of the following requirements from establishing a Specified Transaction Account:

- (i) that the largest sum of the account for Trading Securities and account for Trading Securities Sold for Short Sales between the term end prior to the

- most recent term end and the most recent term end is not less than 100 billion yen and not less than the amount equivalent to 10 percent of the net assets as of the term end prior to the most recent term end; and

(Unavoidable Grounds for Carrying out Transactions with Person in Specified Relationship)

Article 54 (1) The inevitable grounds to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in the proviso to Article 100-3 of the Act are as follows:

- (i) when the Insurance Company conducts transactions or acts that give disadvantages to the Insurance Company, in light of the ordinary terms and conditions of its transactions, with a Specified Insurance Company (meaning a Bankrupt Insurance Company (meaning a Bankrupt Insurance Company provided in Article 260, paragraph (2) of the Act; hereinafter the same applies in this item) and an Insurance Company and a foreign Insurance Company that succeeds to the rights and duties of a Bankrupt Insurance Company in whole or in part) that fall under the category of a Person in Specified Relationship (meaning a Person in Specified Relationship provided in the main clause of Article 100-3 of the Act; hereinafter the same applies in this paragraph, the following Article, and Article 54-3) with the Insurance

- Company, when it is likely to cause detriment to the continuation of the Specified Insurance Company's business if the transactions or acts are not conducted;
- (ii) when the Insurance Company has a Foreign Insurer as its Subsidiary Corporation, etc. or an Affiliated Corporation, etc. (limited to cases where there are any inevitable grounds that the Insurance Company cannot establish a branch or other business office in the state where the Foreign Insurer is located), when it is likely to cause detriment to the continuation of the Foreign Insurer's business if the Insurance Company does not carry out transactions or acts with the Foreign Insurer under similar conditions as those under which it carries out transactions or acts between its head office and its branches or other business offices;
  - (iii) if the deterioration of the business conditions of a Person in Specified Relationship with the Insurance Company is likely to damage the soundness of the Insurance Company's business conditions, and the Insurance Company conducts transactions or acts that give disadvantages to the Insurance Company, in light of the ordinary terms and conditions of its transactions, with the Person in Specified Relationship, based on a plan for the rational improvement of business conditions of the Person in Specified Relationship, when it is deemed necessary and indispensable to conduct the transactions or acts for improving the business conditions of the Person in Specified Relationship; or
  - (iv) beyond what is set forth in the preceding three items, when the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency specifies, in advance, it as being necessary for the Insurance Company to conduct transactions or acts that give disadvantages to the Insurance Company, in light of the ordinary terms and conditions of its transactions, with the Person in Specified Relationship.
- (2) The requirements specified by Cabinet Office Order that is provided for in the proviso to Article 100-3 of the Act is that all of the following requirements be met for transactions and acts undertaken between the insurance company and a subsidiary company (limited to an insurance company other than the relevant insurance company) of the insurance holding company (limited to one that is not itself a subsidiary company of another insurance company or insurance holding company) that has the relevant insurance company as its subsidiary company, which puts the insurance company at a disadvantage in light of the ordinary conditions of its transactions (hereinafter referred to as a "specified transaction, etc." in this paragraph):
- (i) the performance of the specified transaction, etc. by the insurance company is unlikely to damage the soundness of the management of the insurance company; and

- (ii) the insurance company has clearly specified the conditions for the specified transaction, etc.

(Transactions with Person in Specified Relationship)

Article 54-2 The transactions or acts to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 100-3, item (ii) of the Act are as follows:

- (i) transactions carried out with a Customer of the Person in Specified Relationship, wherein the Insurance Company carries out with a person other than a Customer of the Person in Specified Relationship who is deemed to be similar to a Customer of the Person in Specified Relationship, in light of the type and size of its business and its financial conditions, etc., under conditions that are disadvantageous to the Insurance Company compared to those for ordinary transactions with a Customer of the Person in Specified Relationship for the same type and the same volume under similar circumstances (limited to transactions on condition that the Person in Specified Relationship and a Customer of the Person in Specified Relationship concludes a contract pertaining to the business to be conducted by the Person in Specified Relationship);
- (ii) transactions that are deemed be more disadvantageous to the Person in Specified Relationship, compared to conditions for transactions that the Insurance Company carries out with a person other than the Person in Specified Relationship who is deemed to be similar to the Person in Specified Relationship, in light of the type and size of its business and its financial conditions, etc., for the same type and the same volume under similar circumstances; or
- (iii) transactions or acts conducted so as to evade the prohibitions under Article 100-3, of the Act, irrespective of the name under which such transactions or acts are to be conducted.

(Application for Approval for Transactions with Person in Specified Relationship)

Article 54-3 (1) When an Insurance Company intends to obtain approval set forth in the proviso to Article 100-3 of the Act with respect to the existence of unavoidable grounds, it must submit to the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency a written application for approval, with a written statement of reasons and a document containing any other matters which would serve as reference information attached to the document.

- (2) When the application for approval under the preceding paragraph has been filed, the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency is to examine whether there are any inevitable grounds listed in Article 54, paragraph (1) that the Insurance Company that has filed the application conducts transaction or acts listed in the items of Article 100-3 of the Act.

Article 54-3-2 (1) When an insurance company seeks to obtain approval relating to the satisfaction of the requirements under the proviso to Article 100-3 of the Act, it must attach the following documents to a written application for approval and submit them to the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency:

- (iv) if, as of the last day of the business year, there exists any Material Event, etc., such fact and the details thereof, analysis of such Material Event, etc., and the details of the measures to be taken in order to eliminate or improve

- such Material Event, etc.; and
- (v) in the case of a corporation, etc. subject to special business accounting standards, etc., the business accounting standards adopted by it.
- (2) The places to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 111, paragraph (2) of the Act, are the places provided in paragraph (2) of the preceding Article.

Article 59-4 (1) The explanatory documents prepared pursuant to the provisions of Article 11, paragraphs (1) and (2) of the Act must be made available for public inspection within four months from the end of the business year of the Insurance Company, and must be maintained accessible for the period before the commencement of public inspection of each of the explanatory documents pertaining to the business year immediately prior to the relevant business year.

- (2) If, due to any inevitable grounds, an Insurance Company is unable to make available for public inspection the explanatory documents by the period provided in the preceding paragraph, it may, with an approval from the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency in advance, postpone the submission.
- (3) When an Insurance Company intends to obtain the approval under the preceding paragraph, it must submit to the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency a written application for approval, with a written statement of reasons.
- (4) When the application for approval under the preceding paragraph has been filed, the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency is to examine whether the Insurance Company which has filed the application has any inevitable reason for postponing the public inspection under paragraph (1).

Article 59-5 The places to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 111, paragraph (4) of the Act, are the places provided in Article 59-2, paragraph (2).

Article 59-6 An Insurance Company must, for each quarter, make an effort to disclose the matters which would serve as reference information for policyholders provided in Article 111, paragraph (6) and any other customers so that they may acquire knowledge on the status of business and properties of the Insurance Company and its Subsidiary Company, etc. which are especially important (including the matters to be separately designated by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency)

(Application for Authorization of Recording of Gain on Assessment of Shares with Market Price)

Article 60 (1) When an Insurance Company intends to obtain an authorization under Article 112, paragraph (1) of the Act, it must submit to the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency the written application for authorization as well as the following documents:

- (i) the issues, quantities, acquisition value, market price and assessment value of the shares to be revaluated;
  - (ii) the document specifying the amount of profit to be recorded upon the revaluation;
  - (iii) a document specifying the reserves provided in the following Article, for which the profit recorded upon the revaluation is to be reserved, as well as the amount to be reserved; and
  - (iv) a document containing any other matters which would serve as reference information.
- (2) When the application for authorization under the preceding paragraph is filed, the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency is to examine whether the reserve by the Insurance Company which has filed an application for the authorization (hereinafter referred to as the "Applicant Insurance Company" in this paragraph) of the amount specified in the items of the following Article based upon the profits recorded by revaluation of shares with market price would facilitate assurance and improvement of profit of Policyholders, etc.

(Reserve of Gain on Valuation of Shares with Market Price)

Article 61 The reserves to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 112, paragraph (2) of the Act, are as follows:

- (i) in the case of a Life Insurance Stock Company (meaning a stock company which is an Insurance Company with a life insurance license under Article 3, paragraph (4) of the Act; the same applies in Article 64, paragraph (1)), the policy reserve, or policy dividend reserve as set forth in Article 64, paragraph (1);
- (ii) in the case of a Non-Life Insurance Stock Company (meaning a stock company which is a Non-Life Insurance Company with a non-life insurance license under Article 3, paragraph (5) of the Act; the same applies in Article 63), the policy reserve; and
- (iii) in the case of a Mutual Company, the policy reserve, or the members' dividend reserve under Article 30-5, paragraph (1), item (i).

(Depreciation of Incorporation Expenses)

Article 61-2 The amount to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 113 of the Act, is as follows:

- (i) the amount disbursed as the remuneration and other special benefit under Article 28, item (iii) (Matters to Be Described or Recorded in Articles of Incorporation) of the Companies Act or incorporation expenses as set forth in item (iv) of the same Article (including the authentication fee for articles of incorporation and the expenses set forth in the items of Article 5 of the Regulation for Enforcement of the Companies Act) (in the case of a Mutual Company, including the remuneration and other special benefit under Article 24, paragraph (1), item (ii) of the Act and incorporation expenses set forth in item (iii) of the same paragraph (including the authentication fee for articles of incorporation and the expenses set forth in the items of Article 20)); and (ii) the amount disbursed for preparation of starting business.

(Method of Calculation of Policy Dividends)

Article 62 When a stock company which is an Insurance Company distributes policy dividends, it must calculate the amount to be distributed as policy dividends in accordance with the types categories by the distinctive natures of the insurance contracts, and must implement such distribution by one or more of the methods set forth in the following items:

- (i) method to distribute the amount based on the proceeds of investment of insurance premiums paid by the policyholders or money received as insurance premiums, less the amount of Insurance Proceeds, refund or any other benefit, expenditure of operating expenses and any other costs;
- (ii) method to recognize the amount to be distributed as policy dividends based on the insurance period, etc. and to distribute the amount calculated in accordance with the policy reserve, insurance premiums or any other base amount which pertains to each insurance contract;
- (iii) method to recognize the amount to be distributed as policy dividends based on the insurance period, etc. and to distribute the amount calculated in accordance with the policy reserve, insurance premiums or any other base amount which pertains to each insurance contract; or
- (iv) any other method equivalent to the methods set forth in the preceding three items.

(Establishment of Accumulation Account)

Article 63 The provisions of Article 30-3 apply mutatis mutandis to a stock company which is an Insurance Company. In this case, the term "distribute the surplus" in paragraph (1) of the same Article is deemed to be replaced with "distribute the policy dividends".

(Policy Dividend Reserve)

Article 64 (1) The reserve to be set aside by the stock company which is an Insurance Company for the purpose of allocation to the policy dividend is the policy dividend reserve.

(2) A Life Insurance Stock Company may not transfer to the policy dividend reserve under the preceding paragraph the amount in excess of the total of the following amount:

- (i) the amount of Reserved Dividend (meaning the dividend distributed to policyholders, which are reserved with interests);
- (ii) the amount of Unpaid Dividend (meaning the unpaid dividends distributed to policyholders, which exclude the Reserved Dividend as provided in the preceding item) (in the case of the accounting period, including the amounts scheduled to be distributed in the subsequent business year);
- (iii) the amount of Dividend Payable on Expiry (meaning the dividend payable at the time of expiry of the insurance contract, calculated based on the presumption that all insurance contracts have expired); and
- (iv) any other amount calculated in accordance with the formula designated in the document set forth in Article 4, paragraph (2), item (iv) of the Act as the amount equivalent to those set forth in the preceding three items.

(Assets Covered by Price Fluctuation Reserve)

Article 65 The assets to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 115, paragraph (1) of the Act, are as follows; provided, however, that the assets belonging to the special account, assets pertaining to the business set forth in Article 99, paragraph (1) of the Act and properties belonging to the special transaction account are not to be included:

- (i) shares issued by a domestic corporation, and any other assets to be specified by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency;
- (ii) shares issued by a foreign corporation, and any other assets to be specified by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency;
- (iii) yen-denominated bond certificates and any other assets to be specified by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency (provided, however, that the assets provided in Article 8, paragraph (21) of the Regulation on Financial Statements may be excluded);
- (iv) assets which may give rise to losses from the fluctuation in the quotes in foreign exchange, such as bond certificates, deposit and loans denominated in foreign currencies; and
- (v) gold bullion.

(Calculation of Price Fluctuation Reserve)

Article 66 An Insurance Company must reserve the amount not less than the total of the amount obtained, after itemizing the assets held as of the account closing period by the assets respectively set forth in the left column of the following table, by multiplying the book value of each asset by the ratio set forth in the column of the Reserve Threshold as specified in the same table as the Price Fluctuation Reserve specified in Article 115, paragraph (1) of the Act. In this case, the maximum amount of such Price Fluctuation Reserve is the total of the amount obtained, after itemizing the assets held as of the time of account closing period by the assets respectively set forth in the left column of that table, by multiplying the book value of each asset by the ratio set forth in the column of the Maximum Limit of Reserve as specified in the same table.

Covered Assets	Reserve Threshold	Maximum Limit of Reserve
Assets specified in Article 65, item (i)	0.0015	0.1
Assets specified in Article 65, item (ii)	0.0015	0.075
Assets specified in Article 65, item (iii)	0.0002	0.01
Assets specified in Article 65, item (iv)	0.001	0.05
Assets specified in Article 65, item (v)	0.003	0.125

(Application for Authorization of Exemption from Reserving Price Fluctuation Reserve)

Article 67 (1) When an Insurance Company intends to obtain an authorization under the proviso to Article 115, paragraph (1) or the proviso to paragraph (2) of the same Article, it must submit to the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency a written application for authorization, attaching thereto Financial Statements (meaning the financial documents as set forth in Article 435, paragraph (2) (Preparation and Retention of Financial Statements) of the Companies Act applied pursuant to Article 13 of the Act following the deemed replacement of terms or those provided in Article 54-3, paragraph (2) of the Act; the same applies in Article 82 and Article 85) or documents equivalent thereto.

(2) When the application under the preceding paragraph is filed, the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency is to examine whether there exist any inevitable grounds, in light of status of business or properties of the Insurance Company which has filed the application for authorization.

(Contracts Covered by Regular Policy Reserve)

Article 68 (1) The insurance contract to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 116, paragraph (2) of the Act, is one of the insurance contracts concluded by a Life Insurance Company on or after the enforcement of the Act, which does not fall under any of the contracts specified in the following items:

- (i) insurance contract wherein the policy reserve fluctuates depending on the value of the properties belonging to the special account;
  - (ii) insurance contracts under which the insurance premiums reserve under item (i), paragraph (1) of the following Article are not be set aside;
  - (iii) insurance contract which provides that the Insurance Company may amend the coefficients serving the basis of calculation of the policy reserve and insurance premiums in accordance with the policy conditions;
  - (iv) any other contracts to be designated by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency as the insurance contract not suitable for adding necessary provisions as to the criteria for the coefficients serving the basis of calculation of the policy reserve as provided in Article 116, paragraph (2) of the Act.
- (2) Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, among the insurance contracts concluded by an Insurance Company on or after the day to be specified by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency (or insurance contracts whose insurance period starts on or after the day to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, if the Insurance Company is a Non-Life Insurance Company; the same applies in the following paragraph), the insurance contracts to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 116, paragraph (2) of the Act, is not to fall under any of the following items:
- (i) insurance contract wherein the policy reserve fluctuates depending on the value of the properties belonging to the special account;
  - (ii) insurance contracts under which the Insurance Premium Reserve under item (i), paragraph (1) of the following Article, or refund reserve under Article 70, paragraph (1), item (iii) are not be set aside; or insurance contracts under which the Insurance Premium Reserve under item (i), (a) of the same paragraph are not to be calculated;
  - (iii) insurance contract which provides that the Insurance Company may amend the coefficients serving the basis of calculation of the policy reserve and insurance premiums in accordance with the policy conditions (excluding the insurance contracts under which the policy conditions guarantees the minimum interest rate exceeding the scheduled interest rate serving the basis of calculation of the policy reserve at the time of conclusion of the insurance, as determined by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency pursuant to the provisions of Article 116, paragraph (2) of the Act); and
  - (iv) any other contracts to be designated by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency as the insurance contract not suitable for adding necessary provisions as to the criteria for the coefficients serving the basis of calculation of the policy reserve as provided in Article 116, paragraph (2) of the Act.

- (3) Notwithstanding the preceding two paragraphs, among the insurance contracts concluded by an Insurance Company on or after the day to be specified by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency, the insurance contracts to be specified by Cabinet Office Order, as provided in Article 116, paragraph (2) of the Act, is not to fall under any of the following items:
