Chapter I General Provisions

(Purpose)

Article 1 The purpose of this Act is to ensure fairness in commodity price formation, in purchases and sales and other transactions in commodities, and for receiving requests, etc. of transactions, etc. in commodity markets, as well as to facilitate the production and distribution of commodities, by, inter alia, providing for the organization of commodity exchanges, the management of transactions in commodity markets, and other matters; and by ensuring their sound operation, as well as by ensuring that persons conducting commodity derivatives business do so appropriately, thereby contributing to the sound development of the national economy and to the protection of requesting parties, etc. in receiving requests, etc. of transactions, etc. in commodity markets.

(Definitions)

Article 2 (1) The term "commodity" as used in this Act means the following goods:

- (i) agricultural products, forest products, livestock products, fishery products, and food and drink among goods manufactured or processed using these products as ingredients or materials, and other goods specified by Cabinet Order;
 - (ii) minerals as prescribed in Article 3, paragraph (1) of the Mining Act (Act No. 289 of 1950), other minerals specified by Cabinet Order, and goods obtained by smelting or refining these minerals;
 - (iii) beyond what is stated in the preceding two items, goods which are specified by Cabinet Order as ingredients or materials that are important to the national economy and are highly likely to be the subject of transactions similar to futures transactions due to extreme fluctuation of their prices (including those that are already the subject of futures transactions or those similar to futures transactions); and
 - (iv) electric power (limited to electric power that is subject to transactions by unit of a certain amount of electric power during a fixed period of time; the same applies below).
- (2) The term "commodity index" as used in this Act means a numerical value that comprehensively expresses the price level of two or more types of goods that are commodities, a numerical value calculated based on the price difference between one type of goods that are commodities, and the price of another type of goods that are commodities, or a numerical value calculated otherwise based on the prices of two or more types of goods or electric power that are commodities.
- (3) The term "futures transaction" as used in this Act means one of the following transactions conducted in a commodity market in accordance with the standards and methods specified by a commodity exchange:

- (i) a purchase and sale transaction in which the parties promise to deliver and receive a commodity and its value at a fixed time in the future, which the parties may settle by paying and receiving the difference in values if they re-sell or buy back the commodity that is the subject of the purchase and sale;
- (ii) a transaction in which the parties promise to pay and receive money calculated based on the difference between the contract price (meaning the price of a commodity for which the parties agree in advance (including a numerical value that expresses the price level of a single commodity or any other numerical value calculated based on the price of a single commodity; the same applies in this item); the same applies below) and the actual price (meaning the actual price of the relevant commodity at a fixed time in the future; the same applies below);
- (iii) a transaction in which the parties promise to pay and receive money calculated based on the difference between the numerical value of a commodity index for which the parties agree in advance (referred to below as the "agreed figure") and the actual numerical value of the commodity index at a fixed time in the future (referred to below as the "actual figure");
- (iv) a transaction in which the first party agrees to grant the second party the right to close one of the following transactions between them by a unilateral manifestation of the second party's intention alone (referred to below as an "option") and the second party agrees to pay the value of that option:
 - (a) the transaction referred to in item (i);
 - (b) the transaction referred to in item (ii) (including equivalent transactions that are specified by a commodity exchange);
 - (c) the transaction referred to in the preceding item (including equivalent transactions that are specified by a commodity exchange);
 - (d) the transaction referred to in the following item (including equivalent transactions that are specified by a commodity exchange);
 - (e) the transaction referred to in item (vi) (including equivalent transactions that are specified by a commodity exchange).
- (v) a transaction in which the parties mutually promise that, for a commodity whose volume they have set, the first party will pay money to the second based on the rate of change in the agreed price for that commodity during the period they have agreed to, and the second party will pay money to the first party based on the rate of change in the agreed price for that commodity during the period they have agreed to;
- (vi) a transaction in which the parties mutually promise that, for a commodity whose volume they have set, the first party will pay money to the second party based on the rate of change in the agreed-upon commodity index for that commodity during the period they have agreed to, and the second party will pay money to the first party based on the rate of change in that agreed-

- upon commodity index during the period they have agreed to; and
- (vii) a transaction which is similar to a transaction that is stated in one of the preceding items and that is specified by Cabinet Order.
- (4) The term "commodity exchange" as used in this Act means a member commodity exchange or an incorporated commodity exchange.
- (5) The term "member commodity exchange" as used in this Act means a mutual association with a membership system that has been established under this Act for the main purpose of opening and operating the necessary markets for conducting futures transactions in commodities or commodity indices.
- (6) The term "incorporated commodity exchange" as used in this Act means a stock company that opens and operates the necessary market for conducting futures transactions in commodities or commodity indices after obtaining the license referred to in Article 78.
- (7) The term "listed commodity" as used in this Act means one type or two or more types of goods or electric power that are commodities specified by a commodity exchange in its articles of incorporation or operational rules as those required to be traded in a single commodity market, which are subject to the license referred to in Article 9 or in Article 78, or the authorization referred to in Article 155, paragraph (1) or Article 156, paragraph (1).
- (8) The term "listed commodity index" as used in this Act means one commodity index or two or more commodity indices specified by a commodity exchange in its articles of incorporation or operational rules as transactions related to the indices are required to be traded in a single commodity market, which are subject to the license referred to in Article 9 or in Article 78, or the authorization referred to in Article 155, paragraph (1) or Article 156, paragraph (1).
- (9) The term "commodity market" as used in this Act means the market that a commodity exchange opens and operates for each single kind of listed commodity or listed commodity index in order to carry out the transactions provided for in one of the following items in accordance with the category stated in that item:
- (i) the commodity market for a listed commodity: among transactions stated in paragraph (3), item (i), transactions stated in item (ii) of that paragraph or transactions stated in item (v) of that paragraph, or the transactions stated in item (vii) of that paragraph related to the listed commodity, transactions that are specified by Cabinet Order as being similar to those transactions;
 - (ii) the commodity market for a listed commodity index: among transactions stated in paragraph (3), item (iii), transactions stated in item (vi) of that paragraph, or the transactions stated in item (vii) of that paragraph related to the listed commodity index, transactions that are specified by Cabinet Order as being similar to those transactions;

(10) The term "transaction in a commodity market" as used in this Act includes, in addition to a transaction stated in one of the items of the preceding paragraph, a transaction prescribed in one of the following items in accordance with the category stated in that item, which a commodity exchange has decided to effect pursuant to the provisions of its articles of incorporation or operational rules:

- (i) the commodity market for a listed commodity: one of the following transactions:
 - (a) a transaction stated in paragraph (3), item (iii) or (vi) related to a commodity index for which the goods or electric power subject to the commodity index constitute or include that listed commodity;
 - (b) a transaction stated in paragraph (3), item (iv) related to a transaction stated in (a), (b), or (d) of that item related to that listed commodity;
 - (c) a transaction stated in paragraph (3), item (iv) related to a transaction stated in (c) or (e) of that item related to a commodity index for which the goods or electric power subject to the index constitute or include that listed commodity;
 - (d) a purchase and sale transaction of that listed commodity (other than a transaction falling under the transaction stated in paragraph (3), item (i); the same applies in this item) ;
 - (e) a transaction in which the first party agrees to grant the second party the right to close a purchase and sale transaction between them for that listed commodity by a unilateral manifestation of the second party's intention alone (referred to below as "spot option") and the second party agrees to pay the value of that spot option;
 - (f) one of the following transactions related to a commodity index for which the listed commodity or the goods or electric power subject to the index constitute or include that listed commodity:
 - 1. a transaction in which the parties mutually promise that, for a commodity whose volume they have set, the first party will pay money to the second party based on the rate of change in the agreed price for a commodity during the period they have agreed to, and the second party will pay money to the first party based on the rate of change in the agreed price for a commodity other than that commodity during the period they have agreed to;
 - 2. a transaction in which the parties mutually promise that, for a commodity whose volume they have set, the first party will pay money to the second party based on the rate of change in the agreed price for the commodity during the period they have agreed to, and the second party will pay money to the first party based on the rate of change in an agreed-upon commodity index during the period they have agreed to;

3. a transaction in which the parties mutually promise that, for a commodity whose volume they have set, the first party will pay money to the second party based on the rate of change in an agreed-upon commodity index during the period they have agreed to, and the second party will pay money to the first party based on the rate of change in an agreed-upon commodity index during the period they have agreed to.
 - (g) a transaction in which the first party agrees to grant the second party the right to close one of the transactions listed in (f) above between them by a unilateral manifestation of the second party's intention alone (referred to below as a "specified swap option") and the second party agrees to pay the value of that specified swap option;
 - (h) a transaction which is similar to one of the transactions referred to in (a) through (g) and which is specified by Cabinet Order;
 - (ii) the commodity market for a listed commodity index: a transaction stated in paragraph (3), item (iv) related to a transaction stated in (c) or (e) of that item connected with that listed commodity index and any other transaction which is similar to those transactions and which is specified by Cabinet Order.
- (11) The term "commodity exchange holding company" as used in this Act means a stock company whose subsidiary company (meaning a subsidiary company prescribed in Article 3-2, paragraph (3)) is an incorporated commodity exchange incorporated with the authorization referred to in in Article 96-25, paragraph (1) or that has obtained the authorization referred to in that paragraph or the proviso to paragraph (3) of that Article.
- (12) The term "foreign commodity market" as used in this Act means a market that is similar to a commodity market and that is located in a foreign country.
- (13) The term "foreign commodity market transaction" as used in this Act means a transaction that is conducted in a foreign commodity market and that is similar to a transaction in a commodity market.
- (14) The term "over-the-counter commodity derivatives transaction" as used in this Act means any of the following transactions carried out outside a commodity market, foreign commodity market, or a financial instruments exchange market (meaning a financial instruments exchange market as defined in Article 2, paragraph (17) of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act (Act No. 25 of 1948); the same applies below) (excluding transactions conducted at the facilities stated in each of the items of Article 331):
- (i) a purchase and sale transaction in which the parties promise to deliver and receive a commodity and its value at a fixed time in the future, which the parties may settle by paying and receiving the difference in values if they sell back or buy back the commodity that is the subject of the purchase and

- sale;
- (ii) a transaction in which the parties promise to pay and receive money calculated based on the difference between the contract price and the actual price, or a similar transaction;
 - (iii) a transaction in which the parties promise to pay and receive money calculated based on the difference between the agreed figure and the actual figure, or a similar transaction;
 - (iv) a transaction in which the first party agrees to grant the second party the right to close one of the following transactions between them by a unilateral manifestation of the second party's intention alone, and the second party agrees to pay the value of the transaction, or a similar transaction:
 - (a) the transaction stated in item (i);
 - (b) the transaction stated in item (ii);
 - (c) the transaction stated in the preceding item; or
 - (d) the transaction stated in item (vi);
 - (v) a transaction in which the first party agrees to grant the second party the right, by a unilateral manifestation of the second party's intention alone, to effect a transaction in which the parties pay and receive money calculated based on the difference between the price they have agreed upon in advance as the price for a commodity if the party manifests the intention to close the transaction (including a numerical value that expresses the price level of the commodity or any other numerical value calculated based on the price of the commodity; the same applies below in this item), or the numerical value they have agreed upon in advance as that for the commodity index if the party manifests that intention, and the current price of that commodity or numerical value of that commodity index at the time that the party actually manifests that intention, and the second party agrees to pay the value of the transaction, or a similar transaction ;
 - (vi) a transaction in which the parties mutually promise that, for a commodity whose volume they have set, the first party will pay money to the second party based on the rate of change in the agreed price or commodity index for a commodity during the period they have agreed to, and the second party will pay money to the first party based on the rate of change in the agreed price or commodity index for a commodity during the period they have agreed to or a similar transaction; or
 - (vii) beyond what is stated in the preceding items, a transaction which has a similar economic nature as those transactions and which is specified by Cabinet Order as a transaction for which it is found necessary to ensure the public interest or the protection of the parties to the transaction.
- (15) The term "commodity derivatives transaction" as used in this Act means a transaction in a commodity market, a foreign commodity market transaction, or an over-the-counter commodity derivatives transaction (other than an over-the-counter commodity derivatives transaction specified by Cabinet Order as one that, in consideration of its content and other factors, is found unlikely to result in insufficient protection of the parties to the transaction, and an over-the-counter commodity derivatives transaction conducted with or on behalf of a party specified by order of the competent ministry as being highly skilled in those transactions or with a stock company whose amount of stated capital is at least the amount specified by order of the competent ministry (the excluded transaction is referred to as an "excluded over-the-counter commodity derivatives transaction" in Article 349, paragraph (1)).

- (16) The term "trading participant" as used in this Act means a person that may participate in transactions in a commodity market that is operated by an incorporated commodity exchange, based on the trading qualification granted pursuant to the provisions of Article 82, paragraph (1).

Chapter II Commodity Exchange

Section 1 General Provisions

(Scope of Business)

Article 3 (1) A commodity exchange must not conduct business other than the business of opening the necessary markets for effecting futures transactions for a commodity or commodity index (referred to below as the "business of opening a commodity market"), and appraising the quality of listed commodities, issuing publications, and business incidental to them; provided, however, that a commodity exchange that obtains the authorization of the competent minister pursuant to order of the competent ministry may engage in business that is connected with opening a commodity market and business incidental to it; the business of opening a market for trading carbon dioxide equivalent quotas (meaning carbon dioxide equivalent quotas as prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (7) of the Act on Promotion of Global Warming Countermeasures (Act No. 117 of 1998); the same applies below) and business incidental to it; the business of opening a financial instruments market (meaning a financial instruments market as prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (14) of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act; the same applies below) and business incidental to it (limited to cases in which the business is conducted by an incorporated commodity exchange); or financial instruments debt assumption services, etc. (meaning financial instruments obligation assumption services, etc. as prescribed in Article 156-3, paragraph (1), item (vi) of that Act; the same applies below) and business incidental to it.

(2) The competent minister may attach conditions to the authorization referred to in the proviso to the preceding paragraph.

(3) The conditions referred to in the preceding paragraph must be the minimum necessary to ensure the public interest or the fairness of transactions, or for protecting the requesting parties.

(4) If an application is filed for the authorization referred to in the proviso to paragraph (1) and the competent minister finds that the applicant's engagement in the business which the application concerns is likely to impair confidence in the public nature of the business of the commodity exchange or to obstruct the sound and proper administration of the business of opening a commodity market or business incidental to it, the minister must not grant the authorization.

(Scope of Subsidiary Companies)

Article 3-2 (1) A commodity exchange must not have a company other than one engaging in the business of opening a commodity market or business incidental to it as its subsidiary company; provided, however, that a commodity exchange that has obtained the authorization of the competent minister pursuant to order of the competent ministry may have as its subsidiary company a company engaging in business that is connected with the business of opening a commodity market, and business incidental to it; a company engaging in the business of opening markets for trading carbon dioxide equivalent quotas and business incidental to it; a company engaging in the business of opening financial instruments exchange markets and business incidental to it; or a company engaging in business that is connected with the opening of a financial instruments exchange market and business incidental to it.

- (2) The provisions of paragraphs (2) through (4) of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to the authorization referred to in the proviso to the preceding paragraph. In this case, in paragraph (4) of that Article, the phrase "the business which the application concerns" is deemed to be replaced with "the subsidiary company which the application concerns" and the term "business of opening a commodity market" is deemed to be replaced with "the commodity exchange's opening of a commodity market".
- (3) The term "subsidiary company" as used in the preceding two paragraphs means a company in which a corporation holds the majority of all shareholders' or all members' voting rights (for a stock company, this excludes voting rights of shares that may not be exercised for all matters that are subject to resolution at a shareholders meeting, and includes voting rights of shares that are deemed to have voting rights pursuant to the provisions of Article 879, paragraph (3) of the Companies Act (Act No. 86 of 2005); the same applies below in this paragraph and in Article 196, paragraph (2)). In this case, a company in which a corporation and one or more of its subsidiary companies hold the majority of all shareholders' or members' voting rights, or in which one or more of a corporation's subsidiary companies hold the majority of all shareholders' or members' voting rights, is deemed to be the subsidiary company of that corporation.

(Names or Trade Names)

Article 4 (1) Commodity exchanges must use the characters "取引所" (pronounced "torihikijo", meaning "exchange") in its name or trade name.

- (2) A person that is not a commodity exchange must not use a word in their name or trade name which could give rise to the misconception that they are a commodity exchange.

(Restriction on the Opening of Markets)

Article 5 (1) A commodity exchange must not open a market (including a commodity market for which its time limit for opening specified in the articles of incorporation has passed, or for which the term for a change of scope as prescribed in Article 11, paragraph (4), or Article 102, paragraph (3) has ended) other than the commodity markets prescribed by the articles of incorporation (in the case of an incorporated commodity market, the articles of incorporation or operational rules; the same applies below in this paragraph and Article 105).

- (2) A commodity exchange must not open two or more commodity markets for a single kind of listed commodity or listed commodity index.

(Self-Regulatory Services)

Article 5-2 (1) A commodity exchange must perform self-regulatory services in an appropriate manner, in accordance with this Act and its article of incorporation and other rules, in order to ensure the fairness of transactions in the commodity market, as well as to protect requesting parties.

- (2) The term "self-regulatory services" as used in the preceding paragraph means the following services conducted in respect of a commodity market:

- (i) the investigation of compliance with this Act by members, etc., orders based on this Act, or dispositions made by the competent minister based on this Act (referred to below as "this Act, etc." in Article 96-22, Article 96-34, Article 96-40, Article 159, Article 160, and Article 165), with the articles of incorporation, operational rules, entrustment contract regulations, dispute resolution rules, and other rules of the commodity exchange, and with the principle of good faith in transactions;
- (ii) business related to expulsion and other dispositions against members, etc.; and
- (iii) other business specified by order of the competent ministry as necessary for ensuring the fairness of transactions in a commodity market and protecting requesting parties.

(Prohibition of Establishing Facilities Similar to Commodity Markets)

Article 6 (1) It is prohibited for any person to establish a facility (excluding a financial instruments exchange market) in which transactions that are similar to futures transactions in commodities or commodity indices are conducted (including indices similar to commodity indices).

- (2) It is prohibited for any person to conduct transactions that are similar to futures transactions in a facility referred to in the preceding paragraph.

Section 2 Member Commodity Exchange

Subsection 1 Establishment

(Legal Personality)

Article 7 (1) A member commodity exchange is to be a corporation.

(2) A member commodity exchange must not conduct business for profit.

(Address)

Article 8 The address of a member commodity exchange is the address at which its principal office is located.

(License for Establishment)

Article 9 A person seeking to establish a member commodity exchange must obtain the license of the competent minister to do so.

(Requirements for Establishment)

Article 10 (1) In order to establish a member commodity exchange, 20 or more persons that seek to become its members must become the founders for each commodity market to be established.

(2) With regard to the founders, the persons prescribed in each of the following items in accordance with the category of commodity market stated in that item must constitute the majority of the founders of a single commodity market:

(i) a commodity market for a listed commodity: persons who have, in the course of trade, engaged in the purchase and sale of the goods or electric power included in the listed commodity (referred to below as "component products of listed commodities"), acted as an intermediary, broker, or agent for the purchase and sale, or in the course of trade, engaged in the production, the processing or the use of component products of listed commodities (in the case of electric power, engaged in the purchase or sale, acted as an intermediary, broker, or agent for the purchase and sale, or conducted other acts specified by order of the competent ministry; these acts are referred to below as the "purchase and sale, etc.") for one year or more on a continuous basis;

(ii) the commodity market for a listed commodity index: persons who have, in the course of trade, engaged in the purchase and sale, etc. of goods or electric power subject to the commodity index regarding the listed commodity index (referred to below as the "products underlying the listed commodity index") for one year or more on a continuous basis.

(Articles of Incorporation)

Article 11 (1) The founders must prepare the articles of incorporation of the member commodity exchange, and if the articles of incorporation are prepared in the form of a document, the founders must sign the document or have their names and seals affixed to the document.

(2) The following matters must be stated or recorded in the articles of incorporation referred to in the preceding paragraph:

- (i) description of the business;
 - (ii) the name;
 - (iii) the office address;
 - (iv) the matters concerning membership qualification;
 - (v) the amount of one unit of contribution and the timing and method of its payment;
 - (vi) the matters concerning joining and withdrawing as a member;
 - (vii) the matters concerning the guarantee funds and clearing margins;
 - (viii) the matters concerning the sharing of costs among members;
 - (ix) the matters concerning audits of and sanctions against members;
 - (x) the matters concerning the fixed number of officers and their term of office and appointment;
 - (xi) the matters concerning general meetings of members;
 - (xii) the matters concerning the binding effect that the articles of incorporation, operational rules, entrustment contract regulations, and dispute resolution rules have on contracts between members enter into outside the commodity market;
 - (xiii) the following matters concerning the commodity market:
 - (a) the listed commodity or listed commodity index;
 - (b) the types of transaction for each listed commodity or listed commodity index; and
 - (c) the settlement method for transactions;
 - (xiv) the business year;
 - (xv) the matters concerning the appropriation of surplus and disposal of losses; and
 - (xvi) the means of public notice (meaning the means by which the member commodity exchange issues public notice (other than public notice that must be issued through publication in the Official Gazette pursuant to the provisions of this Act or other laws); the same applies below).
- (3) The amount of costs of establishment to be borne by the member commodity exchange and the remuneration that the founders are to receive does not come into effect unless it is stated or recorded in the articles of incorporation.
- (4) If the term of existence of the member commodity exchange, the time limit for opening of the commodity market, or the term for a change of scope of the commodity market (meaning the term during which the scope of a listed commodity or a listed commodity index of a commodity market (excluding a fixed-term commodity market prescribed in Article 155, paragraph (3), item (ii)) can be changed (other than a discontinuation or narrowing of the scope; the same applies below in Article 155); the same applies below in this paragraph and Article 155) has been decided in addition to the matters stated in the items of paragraph (2), the term of existence, time limit for opening, or term for a change of scope is to be stated or recorded in the articles of incorporation of the member commodity exchange.

- (5) The articles of incorporation referred to in paragraph (1) may be prepared in the form of an electronic or magnetic record (meaning a record prepared in electronic form, magnetic form, or any other form that cannot be perceived by the human senses, which is used in computer data processing and specified by order of the competent ministry; the same applies below). In such a case, the measures in place of signing names or affixing the names and seals which are specified by order of the competent ministry must be taken for the information recorded in that electronic or magnetic record.
- (6) A member commodity exchange may specify one of the following means as the means of public notice in its articles of incorporation, in addition to the means of posting a notice at the office of the member commodity exchange:
- (i) publication in the Official Gazette;
 - (ii) publication in a daily newspaper that publishes information about current events; or
 - (iii) electronic public notice (meaning, among the means of public notice, measures of making the information that is required to be publicized available to many and unspecified persons by an electronic or magnetic means (meaning an electronic or magnetic means prescribed in Article 2, item (xxxiv) of the Companies Act (Act No. 86 of 2005)), which is prescribed in that item; the same applies below).
- (7) If a member commodity exchange specifies in its articles of incorporation that the means stated in item (iii) of the preceding paragraph is the means of public notice, it is sufficient for the member commodity exchange to specify in the articles of incorporation that electronic public notice is the means of public notice. In this case, either of the means stated in item (i) or (ii) of that paragraph may be specified as the means of public notice for cases in which public notice cannot be given by electronic public notice as a result of an accident or other unavoidable circumstances.
- (8) If a member commodity exchange issues a public notice as an electronic public notice, the member commodity exchange must do so continuously until the day specified in each of the following items in accordance with the category of public notice stated in that item:
- (i) a public notice stating that an objection may be raised within the period specified in the public notice: the day on which that period expires; or
 - (ii) a public notice other than one stated in the preceding item: the day on which one month has passed from the publication of the public notice.
- (9) The provisions of Article 940, paragraph (3), Article 941, Article 946, Article 947, Article 951, paragraph (2), Article 953, and Article 955 of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis when a member commodity exchange issues public notice pursuant to the provisions of this Act or other laws by electronic public notice. In this case, the phrase "Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs, in cases.... pursuant to these provisions" in Article 940, paragraph (3) of the Companies Act is deemed to be replaced with "Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 11, paragraph (8) of the Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act, in cases.... pursuant to that paragraph," the term "Article 440, paragraph (1)" in Article 941 of that Act is deemed to be replaced with "Article 68-3 of the Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act", and any other technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

- (10) In addition to the matters stated in the items of paragraph (2), the matters which do not come into effect unless prescribed in the articles of incorporation pursuant to the provisions of this Act, and any other matters that do not violate this Act, may be stated or recorded in the articles of incorporation of a member commodity exchange.

(Application for Membership)

Article 12 (1) Before establishing a member commodity exchange, the founders must notify a person seeking to become a member of the exchange of the following matters:

- (i) the matters stated or recorded in the articles of incorporation;
- (ii) the names or trade names and addresses of the founders;
- (iii) the method, due date, and place for the payment of contribution; and
- (iv) that the application for membership may be canceled if an organizational meeting has not been entered into by a certain time.

- (2) After the establishment of a member commodity exchange, the president must notify a person seeking to become a member of the following matters:

- (i) the date of establishment;
- (ii) the matters stated or recorded in the articles of incorporation;
- (iii) the names and addresses of the officers;
- (iv) the method, due date, and place for the payment of contribution.

- (3) A person seeking to become a member of a member commodity exchange (including a founder) must deliver to the founders (or to the president after the establishment of the exchange; the same applies in the following paragraph) a document stating the person's name and address, the number of units of contribution that the person will make, and the listed commodity or listed commodity index that the person seeks to trade in the commodity market.

- (4) With the consent of the founders, in place of delivering the document referred to in the preceding paragraph, a person seeking to become the member of a member commodity exchange may provide the founders with the matters that are required to be stated in the document referred to in that paragraph by electronic or magnetic means (meaning a means that makes use of an electronic data processing system or a means that makes use of any other information and communications technology, which is specified by order of the competent ministry; the same applies below) pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Order. In this case, the person seeking to become a member is deemed to have delivered the document referred to in that paragraph.

(Organizational Meetings)

- Article 13 (1) After preparing the articles of incorporation, the founders must invite persons seeking to become members, and hold the organizational meeting within five days after the day on which 10 days have passed since the due date for the payment of the contribution provided for in paragraph (1), item (iii) of the preceding Article.
- (2) The founders must pay the full amount of contribution before the organizational meeting.
 - (3) Approval of the articles of incorporation and decisions about other matters that are necessary for the establishment of the member commodity exchange must be decided by a resolution of an organizational meeting.
 - (4) The articles of incorporation may be amended at an organizational meeting; provided, however, that this does not apply to the matters concerning membership qualification.
 - (5) Proceedings of the organizational meeting are decided by at least a two-thirds majority of the votes of the attendees, at a meeting in which at least half of the persons seeking to become members (limited to those that have paid the full amount of the contribution) are present.
 - (6) If a resolution is adopted at an organizational meeting concerning the meeting's postponement or continuation, the provisions of the main clause of Article 59, paragraph (8) and paragraph (10) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to paragraph (8) of this Article do not apply.
 - (7) The minutes of the proceedings of an organizational meeting must be prepared pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.
 - (8) The provisions of Article 33, the main clause of Article 59, paragraph (8), and Article 59, paragraph (10) apply mutatis mutandis to an organizational meeting; the provisions of Article 830, Article 831, Article 834 (limited to the part related to items (xvi) and (xvii)), Article 835, paragraph (1), Article 836, paragraphs (1) and (3), Article 837, Article 838, Article 846, and Article 937, paragraph (1) (limited to the part related to item (i) (g)) (excluding the part related to company auditors), of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis to an action for a declaratory judgment as to the absence or invalidity of a resolution at an organizational meeting or an action seeking the rescission of the resolution.

(Application for Permission)

Article 14 (1) Following an organizational meeting, the founders must enter the following matters in a written application for the license referred to in Article 9, and submit the written application to the competent minister without delay:

- (i) the name;
 - (ii) the location of the office;
 - (iii) the listed commodity or listed commodity index;
 - (iv) the names and addresses of the officers;
 - (v) the names or trade names of the members and the listed commodity or listed commodity index in the commodity market in which the members conduct transactions.
- (2) The articles of incorporation, operational rules, entrustment contract regulations, dispute resolution rules, market transactions surveillance committee rules, and other documents specified by order of the competent ministry must be attached to the written application referred to in the preceding paragraph.

(Criteria for License and Hearing of Opinions)

Article 15 (1) If the competent minister finds that an application for the license referred to in Article 9 conforms to the following criteria, the minister must give a license:

- (i) the volume of transactions is expected to be sufficient for ensuring fair and smooth futures transactions in the listed commodity or listed commodity index which the application concerns, and in light of the status of transactions of the component products of listed commodities or the products underlying the listed commodity index (referred below to as the "component products of listed commodities, etc."), it is necessary and appropriate for a member commodity exchange on which those futures transactions are conducted to be established in order to facilitate the production and distribution of the component products of listed commodities, etc.;
- (ii) if the founders seek to open a commodity market for a listed commodity, the situation conforms to the criteria specified by Cabinet Order as a situation in which it is appropriate for the component products of listed commodities to be traded on a single commodity market, in light of the status of transactions of the persons conducting purchase and sales, etc. of component products of listed commodities in the course of trade, and in light of other circumstances of economic activities related to the component products of listed commodities;
- (iii) if the founders seek to open a commodity market with two or more commodity indices as a single listed commodity index, the majority of the goods or electric power underlying those two or more commodity indices are

- to be the same;
- (iv) the provisions of the articles of incorporation, operational rules, entrustment contract regulations, dispute resolution rules, and market transactions surveillance committee rules do not violate laws and regulations, and the method or management of trade, qualification of members, maximum number of members if it is specified, matters of deposits, if the obligation to deposit a special deposit is specified, and other matters prescribed in the articles of incorporation, operational rules, entrustment contract regulations, dispute resolution rules, and market transactions surveillance committee rules are appropriate and sufficient for ensuring the fairness of transactions in the commodity market and for protecting requesting parties; or
 - (v) the member commodity exchange which the application concerns is organized in a manner that conforms to the provisions of this Act.
- (2) If an application for the license referred to in Article 9 falls under one of the following items, the competent minister must not give the permission referred to in that Article notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph:
- (i) there is a person falling under one of the following persons among the founders:
 - (a) a person specified by order of the competent ministry as one incapable of carrying out their duties properly due to mental or physical disorder;
 - (b) a person that has become subject to an order of commencement of bankruptcy proceedings and has not been released from bankruptcy restriction, or a person that is treated in the same manner under the laws and regulations of a foreign country;
 - (c) a person that has been sentenced to imprisonment without work or a heavier punishment (including an equivalent sentence under foreign laws and regulations) or to a fine (including an equivalent sentence under foreign laws and regulations) pursuant to this Act or pursuant to the provisions of a foreign law or regulation that is equivalent to this Act, and for whom five years have not passed since the day on which the person finished serving the sentence or ceased to be subject to the sentence;
 - (d) a person that has had the authorization referred to in Article 96-19, paragraph (1), Article 96-31, paragraph (1), Article 96-25, paragraph (1) or the proviso to paragraph (3) revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 96-22, paragraph (1), Article 96-34, paragraph (1), or Article 96-40, paragraph (1); a person that has had the license referred to in Article 9, the license referred to in Article 78, Article 167, Article 190, paragraph (1), Article 332, paragraph (1) or Article 342, paragraph (1) revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 159, paragraph (1) or (2), Article 186, paragraph (1) or (2), Article 235, paragraph (3), Article 236, paragraph (1), or Article 340, paragraph (1) (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to

- Article 345); a person that has had the registration referred to in Article 240-2, paragraph (1) revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 240-23, paragraph (1); and for whom five years have not passed since the day of the revocation, or a person that had obtained the same kind of permission, license, or registration in a foreign state pursuant to the provisions of a foreign law or regulation which is equivalent to this Act (including registration or any other administrative disposition similar to the permission, license, or registration; referred to as "permission, etc." in (f)) and that has had the permission, etc. revoked, and for whom five years have not passed since the day of the revocation;
- (e) a person that has been expelled from a commodity exchange or an equivalent facility in a foreign state pursuant to the provisions of Article 160, paragraph (1) or the provisions of a foreign law or regulation that are equivalent to those provisions (including any other equivalent administrative disposition under foreign laws and regulations; the same applies in (g) and (h)) or whose trading qualification has been revoked, and for whom five years have not passed since the day of the expulsion or revocation;
- (f) in the cases in which a person that had obtained the authorization referred to in Article 96-19, paragraph (1) or Article 96-31, paragraph (1) (referred to below as a "major shareholder" in this item) has had that authorization revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 96-22, paragraph (1) or Article 96-34, paragraph (1); a commodity exchange holding company that has had the authorization referred to in Article 96-25, paragraph (1) or the proviso to paragraph (3) of that Article revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 96-40, paragraph (1); a commodity exchange that has had the permission referred to in Article 9 or the license referred to in Article 78 revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 159, paragraph (1) or (2); a commodity clearing organization that has had the license referred to in Article 167 revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 186, paragraph (1) or (2); a commodity derivatives broker that has had the license referred to in Article 190, paragraph (1) revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 235, paragraph (3) or Article 236, paragraph (1); a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider that has had the registration referred to in Article 240-2, paragraph (1) revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 240-23, paragraph (1); a corporation that is the establisher of a type 1 specified facility (meaning the establisher of a type 1 specified facility as prescribed in Article 331, item (ii); the same applies below in this item) or the establisher of a type 2 specified facility (meaning the establisher of a type 2 specified facility as prescribed in Article 331, item (iii); the same applies below in this item) has had the license referred to in Article 332, paragraph (1) or Article 342, paragraph (1) revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 340, paragraph (1) (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 345); a person who was an officer of the major shareholder, commodity exchange holding company, commodity exchange, commodity clearing organization, commodity derivatives broker, commodity derivatives intermediary service provider, the establisher of a type 1 specified facility or type 2 specified facility within 30 days before the date of revocation and for whom five years have not passed since the day of the revocation; or in the case in which a corporation that had obtained similar permission, etc. in a foreign state has had that permission, etc. revoked pursuant to the provisions of a foreign law or regulation that is equivalent to this Act, a person who was an officer of the corporation and for whom five years have not passed since the day of the revocation;

- (g) in the case in which a member, etc. of a commodity exchange which is a foreign corporation or a member, etc. of a foreign facility equivalent to a commodity exchange have been expelled from the commodity exchange or the facility pursuant to an order under the provisions of Article 160, paragraph (1) or under the provisions of an equivalent foreign law or regulation, or has had their trading qualification revoked, a person who was an officer of the corporation within 30 days before the date of expulsion or revocation and for whom five years have not passed since the day of the expulsion or revocation;
- (h) an officer that has been dismissed pursuant to an order under the provisions of Article 96-40, paragraph (2), Article 159, paragraph (3), Article 160, paragraph (1), Article 186, paragraph (4), Article 236, paragraph (2), or Article 240-23, paragraph (2), or under the provisions of an equivalent foreign law or regulation and for whom five years have not passed since the day of the dismissal;
- (i) a person for whom one year has not passed after becoming subject to a court order under the provisions of Article 328, paragraph (1) or a foreign court order under the provisions of an equivalent foreign law or regulation;
- (j) a person stated in Article 331, paragraph (1), item (iii) of the Companies Act;
- (k) a minor that does not have the same capacity to act as an adult in business, and whose legal representative falls under any of sub-items (a) through (j), or sub-item (l);
- (l) a corporation that has a person that falls under one of sub-items (a) through (k) as an officer;
- (ii) if a written application or documents that are required to be attached to the written application contain a false statement about a material matter.

- (3) If an application is filed for the license referred to in Article 9 and the term of existence of a member commodity exchange or the time limit for opening of the commodity market is stated or recorded in the articles of incorporation, the criteria stated in paragraph (1), item (i) are to be replaced by the criteria that the volume of transactions is not expected to fall short in terms of ensuring fair and smooth futures transactions in the listed commodity or listed commodity index which the application concerns, and that, in light of the status of transactions of the component products of listed commodities, etc., the establishment of a member commodity exchange in which the futures transactions are conducted does not and is not likely to cause significant hindrance to the production and distribution of the component products of listed commodities, etc., and for the application of the criteria and the criteria referred to in items (ii) and (iii) of that paragraph, the competent minister is to make a judgment on those criteria for the term of existence or the term until the time limit for opening.
- (4) The competent minister must not give the license referred to in Article 9 until after three months have passed since the day the public notice under the provisions of Article 352 (limited to the part related to item (iii)) has been issued.
- (5) If the competent minister finds that an application for the license referred to in Article 9 does not conform to one of the items of paragraph (1) or falls under one of the items of paragraph (2), the minister must notify the applicant of this in advance, request the applicant or their representative to appear, and have an employee of the ministry conduct a hearing of opinions so as to give that person an opportunity to submit evidence for the purpose of clarification.
- (6) In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, if the person whose opinion is to be heard fails to appear at the hearing of opinions without legitimate grounds, the competent minister is not required to conduct the hearing of opinions.
- (7) When notifying a person referred to in paragraph (5), the competent minister must give the notice by stating the matters of the hearing of opinions, and the location and date for the hearing of opinions.
- (8) The hearing of opinions referred to in paragraph (5) must be opened to the public; provided, however, that this does not apply if the competent minister finds it necessary to keep confidential information related to the business of the person whose opinion is to be heard secret, or finds it necessary in the public interest.
- (9) If the competent minister finds it necessary in order to conduct the hearing of opinions referred to in paragraph (5), the minister may request a witness to appear and hear their opinion, request a witness to submit an opinion or report, or ask an expert witness to appear and have them give an expert opinion.

- (10) If an application is filed for the license referred to in Article 9 and the term of existence of a member commodity exchange or the time limit for opening of the commodity market is stated or recorded in the articles of incorporation, the competent minister must issue a notice of whether the permission was granted or not to the applicant within four months from the day the public notice under the provisions of Article 352 (limited to the part related to item (iii)) was given.
- (11) If the competent minister does not issue the notice referred to in the preceding paragraph within the period stated in that paragraph, the license referred to in Article 9 is deemed to have been given on the final day of that period.

(Time of Establishment and Its Notification)

- Article 16 (1) A member commodity exchange is established when its establishment is registered.
- (2) A member commodity exchange must notify the competent minister of its establishment within two weeks from the day of its establishment.

(Transfer of Affairs to the President)

- Article 17 If license referred to in Article 9 is granted (including the case pursuant to the provisions of Article 15, paragraph (11)), the founders must hand over the affairs of the member commodity exchange to the president without delay.

(Application Mutatis Mutandis of the Companies Act)

- Article 18 (1) The provisions of Articles 53 through 56 of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis to the founders of a member commodity exchange.
- (2) The provisions of Part VII, Chapter II, Section 2 (excluding Article 847, paragraph (2), Article 847-2, Article 847-3, Article 849, paragraph (2), paragraph (3), items (ii) and (iii), and paragraphs (6) through (11), Article 849-2, item (ii) and (iii), Article 851, and Article 853, paragraph (1), items (ii) and (iii)) of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis to an action to enforce the liability of the founders of a member commodity exchange. In this case, the term "Ministry of Justice Order" in Article 847, paragraphs (1) and (4) of that Act is to be replaced with "order of the competent ministry", and any other necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.
- (3) The provisions of Article 828, paragraph (1) (limited to the part related to item (i)) and paragraph (2) (limited to the part related to item (i)), Article 834 (limited to the part related to item (i)), Article 835, paragraph (1), Article 836, paragraphs (1) and (3), Articles 837 through 839, and Article 846 of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis to an action to invalidate the establishment of a member commodity exchange.

(Changing the Name of an Officer or Member)

- Article 19 (1) If matter stated in Article 14, paragraph (1), item (iv) or (v) changes, the member commodity exchange must submit a written notification of change stating the fact to the competent minister without delay.
- (2) The written notification of change referred to in the preceding paragraph must be accompanied by a document proving the change and the document specified by order of the competent ministry.

(Registration of Establishment)

- Article 20 (1) A registration of establishment of a member commodity exchange must be made at the locality of its principal office within two weeks from the day on which the license referred to in Article 9 is given.
- (2) The following information must be registered for the registration referred to in the preceding paragraph:
- (i) the purpose;
 - (ii) the name;
 - (iii) the location of the office;
 - (iv) the term of existence or grounds for dissolution, if specified;
 - (v) the total amount of contribution;
 - (vi) the amount for one unit of contribution and the method of its payment;
 - (vii) the name, address, and qualification of the person with representative authority;
 - (viii) the means of public notice;
 - (ix) if the provisions of the articles of incorporation referred to in Article 11, paragraph (6) specify electronic public notice as the means of public notice, the following matters:
 - (a) the matters that are necessary for making the information required to be given by electronic public notice available to many and unspecified persons, and that are specified by Ministry of Justice Order;
 - (b) if there are provisions in the articles of incorporation pursuant to the provisions of the second sentence of Article 11, paragraph (7), those provisions.

(Registration of Changes)

- Article 21 (1) When a change occurs to a matter stated in one of the items of paragraph (2) of the preceding Article regarding a member commodity exchange, a registration of the change must be made at the locality of its principal office within two weeks from the day the change occurred.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, it is sufficient to register a change to the matter stated in paragraph (2), item (v) of the preceding Article within four weeks from the last day of each business year.

(Registration of the Relocation of the Principal Office to the Jurisdictional District of Another Registry Office)

Article 22 If a member commodity exchange relocates its principal office to the jurisdictional district of another registry office, it must register the relocation at the former locality, and register the information stated in the items of Article 20, paragraph (2) at the new location, within two weeks from the day of relocation.

(Registration of a Provisional Disposition to Suspend Execution of Duties)

Article 23 If an order for a provisional disposition to suspend the person representing a member commodity exchange from executing their duties, or to appoint a person that is to perform that person's duties, or an order to change or revoke such a provisional disposition, a registration to that effect must be made at the locality of the principal office of the member commodity exchange.

Article 24 Deleted

(Competent Registry Offices and Registers)

Article 25 (1) The legal affairs bureau or the district legal affairs bureau, or the branch office or sub-branch office of that bureau that has jurisdiction over the locality of the principal office of the member commodity exchange, is in charge of the affairs concerning registration of a member commodity exchange as the competent registry office.

(2) A registry office keeps a register of member commodity exchanges.

(Application for Registration of Establishment)

Article 26 (1) A registration of establishment of a member commodity exchange is made by the filing of an application by the person that is to represent the member commodity exchange.

(2) The written application for a registration of the establishment of a member commodity exchange must be accompanied by the articles of incorporation, and documents proving that payment of the contribution have been made and proving the qualifications of the person that is to represent the member commodity exchange.

(Application for Registration of Changes)

Article 27 A written application for the registration of a change to a matter stated in one of the items of Article 20, paragraph (2) must be accompanied by a document proving the change to the particular.

(Procedure for Registering the Invalidity of Establishment)

Article 28 The provisions of Article 937, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act (limited to the part related to item (i), (a)) apply mutatis mutandis when a judgment upholding a claim related to an action seeking to invalidate the establishment of a member commodity exchange becomes final and binding.

(Application, Mutatis Mutandis of the Commercial Registration Act)

Article 29 The provisions of Articles 2 through 5, Articles 7 through 15, Articles 17 through 19-3, Articles 21 through 23-2, Article 24 (excluding items (xiv) and (xv)), Articles 25 through 27, Articles 51 through 53, Articles 132 through 137, and Articles 139 through 148 of the Commercial Registration Act (Act No. 125 of 1963) apply mutatis mutandis to the registration of a member commodity exchange.

Subsection 2 Membership

Article 30 Deleted.

(Disqualifying Conditions)

Article 31 (1) A person that falls under any of the following items may not become a member:

- (i) a person specified by order of the competent ministry as a person who is incapable of carrying out their duties properly due to mental or physical disorder;
- (ii) a person that falls under any of the persons referred to in Article 15, paragraph (2), item (i), sub-items (b) through (j);
- (iii) a minor that does not have the same capacity to act as an adult in business and whose legal representative falls under any of the persons referred to in the preceding two items or the following item; or
- (iv) a corporation whose officers include a person who falls under one of the persons referred to in the preceding three items.

(2) With regard to the application of the provisions of item (ii) of the preceding paragraph (limited to the part related to Article 15, paragraph (2), item (i), sub-items (c) through (e), and sub-item (i)) and item (iv) of the preceding paragraph, the corporation that survives a merger or the corporation established in a merger is deemed to be the same corporation as the corporation that disappeared in the merger.

(Contributions)

Article 32 (1) A member must make a contribution of one or more units.

- (2) Contributions may not be made using property other than money.
- (3) The amount for one unit of contribution must be uniform.
- (4) In addition to a member bearing the expenses under the provisions of Article 34 and bearing the amount of loss under the provisions of Article 45, paragraph (3), a member's liability for the obligations of a member commodity exchange is limited to the amount of their contribution.
- (5) A member may not duly assert against a member commodity exchange by offsetting the payment of contribution.

(Voting Rights and Election Rights)

- Article 33 (1) A member has a single voting right and a single right to elect officers, regardless of the number of units of contribution.
- (2) A member may exercise a voting right or election right by a written ballot or through a proxy regarding the matters that have been notified in advance pursuant to the provisions of Article 59, paragraph (8). In this case, a person may not act as a proxy unless that person has the qualifications specified in the articles of incorporation.
 - (3) In place of exercising a voting right by written ballot pursuant to the preceding paragraph, a member may exercise a voting right by electronic or magnetic means, pursuant to the provisions of the articles of incorporation.
 - (4) A person that exercises a voting right or an election right pursuant to the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs is deemed to be present at the relevant meeting.
 - (5) A proxy must submit a document certifying the representative authority to the member commodity exchange. In this case, if the articles of incorporation provide that a voting right may be exercised by electronic or magnetic means, the proxy may prove the representative authority through electronic or magnetic means in place of submitting the document.

(Imposing Expenses)

- Article 34 (1) A member commodity exchange may impose expenses on its members pursuant to the provisions of the articles of incorporation.
- (2) The provisions of Article 32, paragraph (5) apply mutatis mutandis to the payment of the expenses referred to in the preceding paragraph.

(Membership)

- Article 35 (1) A person that, at the time of establishment of a member commodity exchange, seeks to join the member commodity exchange and has finished paying the full amount of the contribution the person has undertaken, becomes a member of the member commodity exchange at the time of its incorporation.

- (2) A person that, at the time of establishment of a member commodity exchange, seeks to join the member commodity exchange but has not finished making the payment prescribed in the preceding paragraph by the time of the incorporation of the member commodity exchange, is deemed to have canceled the application for membership at the time of the incorporation of the member commodity exchange.
- (3) A person seeking to join a member commodity exchange after its incorporation becomes a member at the time that, pursuant to the provisions of the articles of incorporation, the person obtains the member commodity exchange's consent to join, finishes paying the full amount of the contribution that the person has undertaken, and finishes paying the membership fee, if the member commodity exchange has specified that it will require the payment of the full amount of contribution and collection of the membership fee; or at the time that, the person acquires the whole or a part of a member's equity interest, and finishes paying the membership fee, if the member commodity exchange has specified that it will require the acquisition of the whole or a part of a member's equity interest and collection of the membership fee.
- (4) If a person that is qualified to become a member seeks to join a member commodity exchange, the member commodity exchange must not refuse the membership without legitimate grounds.

(Transfer of Equity Interests)

- Article 36 (1) A member may transfer the whole or a part of their equity interest to a member or a person that is qualified to become a member, pursuant to the provisions of the articles of incorporation.
- (2) If a person that is qualified to become a member seeks to acquire equity interest, the acquisition must be governed by the same rules as those for joining the member commodity exchange.
 - (3) A person that acquires equity interest succeeds to the rights and obligations of the person transferring that equity interest.

(Succession to Shares)

- Article 37 (1) If a member dies and that member's heir or legatee (referred to below as the "heir, etc." in this Article) is a member, the person succeeds to the equity interest of the decedent and the rights and obligations of the decedent concerning the equity interest. In this case, the heir, etc. must notify the member commodity exchange of that fact without delay.
- (2) If a member dies and the heir, etc. is a person that is qualified to become a member, the person may succeed to the equity interest of the decedent and the rights and obligations of the decedent concerning the equity interest upon obtaining the member commodity exchange's consent for joining the member commodity exchange within the period specified in the articles of incorporation.

- (3) Once an heir, etc. succeeds to the equity interest of the decedent and to the rights and obligations of the decedent concerning the equity interest pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the heir, etc. is deemed to have become a member at the decedent's time of death.
- (4) In the case referred to in paragraph (1) or (2), if there are two or more heirs, etc., the provisions of these paragraphs apply only to one heir, etc. that has been selected with the consent of all the heirs, etc.

(Prohibition on Joint Ownership of Equity Interest)

Article 38 No member may jointly own equity interest.

(Succession to Rights and Obligations Connected with Transactions)

Article 39 A person that has succeeded to the equity interest of a member and to the rights and obligations connected with the equity interest pursuant to the provisions of Article 37, paragraph (1) or (2) succeeds to the rights and obligations connected with the transactions that the member has conducted in the commodity market.

(Succession to Member Status)

Article 40 If a member merges, the corporation surviving the merger or the corporation established in the merger succeeds to the member status.

(Voluntary Withdrawal)

- Article 41 (1) A member may withdraw from a member commodity exchange with 30 days' advance notice.
- (2) The period of advance notice referred to in the preceding paragraph may be extended by the articles of incorporation; provided, however, that the period may not exceed one year.

(Involuntary Withdrawal)

Article 42 Beyond what is provided for in the preceding Article and Article 44, paragraph (1), a member is to withdraw from the member commodity exchange for the following reasons:

- (i) all of the commodity markets in which the person trades have been closed pursuant to the provisions of Article 70;
- (ii) transfer of the whole of the member's shares;
- (iii) member's death or dissolution; or
- (iv) member's expulsion.

(Expulsion)

- Article 43 (1) With the exception of expulsion pursuant to the provisions of Article 99, paragraph (5) and expulsion by order of the competent minister pursuant to the provisions of Article 160, paragraph (1), a member is to be expelled through a resolution of the general meeting of members as provided in Article 61, in respect of a member for whom a reason as specified by the articles of incorporation exists.
- (2) In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, a member commodity exchange must send a document stating the fact and the reason for the expulsion to the member by 10 days before the day of the general meeting of members, and must give the member an opportunity to provide an explanation at the general meeting of members.
- (3) Expulsion may not be asserted against a member unless the expelled member is notified of the expulsion.

(Withdrawal Due to Attachment of Equity Interests)

- Article 44 (1) A creditor that has attached the equity interest of a member may have the member withdraw from a member commodity exchange; provided, however, that the creditor must give 30 days' advance notice to the member commodity exchange and the member.
- (2) The advance notice referred to in the proviso to the preceding paragraph ceases to be effective if the member referred to in that paragraph makes payment or provides suitable collateral to the creditor referred to in in that paragraph.
- (3) Attachment of the equity interest of a member is also effective against the right to claim a refund of the equity interest.

(Refunding Equity Interests)

- Article 45 (1) A member that has withdrawn from the member commodity exchange may receive a refund of the whole or a part of their equity interest pursuant to the provisions of the articles of incorporation.
- (2) The equity interest referred to in the preceding paragraph is decided based on the property of the member commodity exchange as of the last day of the month preceding the month that includes the day on which the member has withdrawn from the member commodity exchange.
- (3) In calculating the equity interest referred to in the preceding paragraph, if a debt cannot be repaid in full out of the property of the member commodity exchange, the member commodity exchange may file a claim against the member who has withdrawn for payment of the amount of loss that they are liable to bear.
- (4) A claim under paragraph (1) or the preceding paragraph expires by prescription if not exercised within two years after the withdrawal.

- (5) A member commodity exchange may suspend the refund of the equity interest until the member that has withdrawn pays their debt in full to the member commodity exchange.

Subsection 3 Organizations

(Officers)

Article 46 (1) A member commodity exchange has the following officers:

One president;

Two or more directors;

Two or more auditors.

(Authority of the President and Directors)

Article 47 (1) The president represents the member commodity exchange and presides over its affairs.

- (2) The director, pursuant to the provisions of the articles of incorporation, represents the member commodity exchange, assists the president in administering the affairs of the member commodity exchange, acts as a proxy in handling the duties of the president if the president is unavailable, and performs the duties of the president if the position is vacant.

- (3) The execution of the affairs of a member commodity exchange is decided by a majority vote of the president and directors, unless otherwise specified by the articles of incorporation.

(Delegation of the Authority of the President and Directors)

Article 47-2 The president and directors may delegate their authority for specific actions to another person, unless the delegation is prohibited by the articles of incorporation or a resolution of the general meeting of members.

(Authority of Auditors)

Article 48 (1) An auditor audits the affairs of the member commodity exchange.

- (2) An auditor may request the president or a director to give a report on the affairs or examine the state of the affairs and the property of the member commodity exchange at any time.

- (3) An auditor must examine the documents that the president seeks to submit to a general meeting of members, and report their opinions to the general meeting of members.

(Disqualifying Conditions for Officers)

Article 49 (1) A person falling under a person referred to in one of Article 15, paragraph (2), item (i), sub-items (a) through (k) may not become the officer of a member commodity exchange.

- (2) If an officer of a member commodity exchange comes to fall under a person provided for in the preceding paragraph, the officer loses their position.

(Appointment of Officers)

Article 50 (1) The members elect the officers of a member commodity exchange at a general meeting of members pursuant to the provisions of the articles of incorporation, with the exception of the directors that are appointed pursuant to the provisions of the following paragraph; provided, however, that the persons seeking to become members elect the officers at the time of establishment at the organizational general meeting:

- (2) If there are special provisions in the articles of incorporation, the president appoints the number of directors specified by the articles of incorporation with the consent of the majority of the directors.

(Relationship Between a Member Commodity Exchange and Officers)

Article 50-2 The relationship between a member commodity exchange and its officers is governed by the provisions concerning delegation.

(Term of Office of Officers)

Article 51 (1) The term of office of an officer is a period of not more than three years, as specified by the articles of incorporation.

- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the term of office of an officer at the time of establishment is the period decided at the organizational meeting; provided, however, that the period may not exceed one year.

(Provisional Directors and Provisional Auditors)

Article 52 The competent minister may appoint a provisional director or provisional auditor if there is no person to perform the duties of a director or auditor and the minister finds it necessary to do so.

(Responsibilities of the President and Directors)

Article 53 (1) If the president or a director neglects their duties, the president and directors are held jointly and severally liable for damages to the member commodity exchange.

- (2) If the president or a director performs an act that violates a law or regulation or the articles of incorporation, even if this was based on a resolution of the general meeting of members, the president and directors are held jointly and severally liable for damages to third parties.

(Request for the Dismissal of Officers)

- Article 54 (1) A member may request the dismissal of an officer, with the joint signatures of at least one-fifth of all the members. In this case, with regard to the request, the officer which the request concerns loses their position, if there is consent of at least two-thirds of the members present at a general meeting of members with the presence of at least half of all members.
- (2) A request for dismissal under the preceding paragraph must be made simultaneously for the president and all of the directors or simultaneously for all of the auditors; provided, however, that this does not apply if the dismissal is requested due to the violation of a law or regulation, the articles of incorporation, or the operational rules.
- (3) To make a request for dismissal under the provisions of paragraph (1), a document stating the reason for the request must be submitted to the president.
- (4) If a request for dismissal under the provisions of paragraph (1) is made, the president must submit the request for discussion to a general meeting of members and send the document under the provisions of the preceding paragraph to the officer which the request concerns by 10 days before the day of the general meeting of members, and must give that officer an opportunity to provide an explanation at the general meeting of members.
- (5) The provisions of Article 59, paragraphs (3), (6), and (7) apply mutatis mutandis to the case referred to in the preceding paragraph.

(Prohibition on the Concurrent Holding of Positions by Officers)

- Article 55 (1) The officer of a member commodity exchange must not hold the position of officer at another commodity exchange.
- (2) It is prohibited for the president or a director to concurrently hold the position of auditor at the member commodity exchange where the person is serving as president or director, and for an auditor to concurrently hold the position of employee, president, or director at the member commodity exchange where the person is serving as auditor.

(Prohibition of Self-Contract of Directors)

- Article 56 When a member commodity exchange enters into a contract with the president or a director, an auditor represents the member commodity exchange. The same applies to litigation between a member commodity exchange and the president or a director.

(Keeping and Inspection of Articles of Incorporation)

- Article 57 (1) A member commodity exchange must keep copies of the articles of incorporation and operational rules at each office of the member commodity exchange, and must keep a register of members at its principal office.

- (2) A member commodity exchange must keep the minutes of general meetings of members at its principal office for 10 years, and must keep copies of those minutes at its secondary offices for five years.
- (3) The following information concerning each member must be stated or recorded in the register of members:
- (i) the name or trade name and the address;
 - (ii) the date of membership;
 - (iii) the number of units of contribution, the amount of contribution, and the date of payment;
 - (iv) the listed commodity or listed commodity index of the commodity market on which the member conducts transactions; and
 - (v) if it is a commodity derivatives broker, the license date.
- (4) A member or creditor of a member commodity exchange may make the following requests at any time during the business hours of the member commodity exchange; provided, however, that in making the request stated in item (ii) or (iv), the member or creditor must pay the cost specified by the member commodity exchange:
- (i) a request to inspect a document referred to in paragraph (1) or (2);
 - (ii) a request for issuance of a certified copy or extract of a document referred to in paragraph (1) or (2);
 - (iii) if an electronic or magnetic record has been prepared in place of a document referred to in paragraph (1) or (2), a request to inspect a device that displays the information that has been recorded in that electronic or magnetic record by the means specified by order of the competent ministry; and
 - (iv) a request to be provided with the information that has been recorded in an electronic or magnetic record referred to in the preceding item by an electronic or magnetic means specified by order of the competent ministry, or a request to be issued a document that states the information.
- (5) If a member commodity exchange has received a request under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, it must not refuse the request without legitimate grounds.

(Application, Mutatis Mutandis of the Companies Act)

Article 58 The provisions of Article 424 and Article 430 of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis to the president, directors and corporate auditors, the provisions of Part VII, Chapter II, Section 2 (excluding Article 847, paragraph (2), Article 847-2, Article 847-3, Article 849, paragraph (2), paragraph (3), items (ii) and (iii), and paragraphs (6) through (11), Article 849-2, items (ii) and (iii), Article 851, and Article 853, paragraph (1), items (ii) and (iii)) of the Act apply mutatis mutandis to an action for pursuing the responsibilities of the president, directors and corporate auditors, the provisions of Article 349, paragraphs (4) and (5), Article 350, Article 354 and Article 361, paragraphs (1) (excluding items (iii) through (v)) and (4) of the Act apply mutatis mutandis to the president and directors and the provisions of Article 53 apply mutatis mutandis to the corporate auditors. In this case, the phrase "paragraph (1) of the preceding Article" in Article 424 of the Act is deemed to be replaced with "Article 53, paragraph (1) of the Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act," the term "an officer, etc." in Article 430 of the Act is to be replaced with "the president or a director," the term "another officer, etc." in the same Article is deemed to be replaced with "a corporate auditor," the term "Ministry of Justice Order" in Article 847, paragraphs (1) and (4) of the Act is to be replaced with "order of the competent ministry", and any other technical replacement is to be specified by Cabinet Order.

(Calling of a General Meeting of Members)

- Article 59 (1) The president must call an ordinary general meeting of members once every business year pursuant to the provisions of the articles of incorporation.
- (2) The president may call an extraordinary general meeting of members pursuant to the provisions of the articles of incorporation, whenever the president finds this necessary.
- (3) If a member submits a document stating the purpose of a meeting and the grounds for convening a meeting to the president to request the call of a general meeting of members with the consent of at least one-fifth of all the members, the president must call an extraordinary general meeting of members within 20 days from the day of the request.
- (4) In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, if the articles of incorporation provide that a voting right is to be exercised by electronic or magnetic means, in place of submitting the document under the provisions of that paragraph, a member may submit the purpose and grounds that are required to be stated in that document by electronic or magnetic means. In this case, a member that has submitted the purpose and grounds that are required to be stated in the document by electronic or magnetic means is deemed to have submitted that document.
- (5) In providing the purpose and grounds that are required to be stated in a document by the electronic or magnetic means (excluding any means specified by order of the competent ministry) referred to in the first sentence of the preceding paragraph, the purpose and grounds are deemed to have reached the president at the time that they are recorded in a file on a computer used by the president.
- (6) If there is no person to perform the duties of the president, or if a request stated in paragraph (3) is made but the president fails to implement convening procedures without legitimate grounds for failing to do so, an auditor must call a general meeting of members without delay.

- (7) In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, if there is no person to perform the duties of auditor, or if an auditor does not go through the procedures referred to in that paragraph without legitimate grounds, the member referred to in paragraph (3) may call a general meeting of members with the approval of the competent minister.
- (8) In order to call a general meeting of members, a written notice to call the meeting must be sent to each member by 10 days before the day of the meeting; provided, however, that this period may be shortened by the articles of incorporation with regard to calling a meeting prescribed in paragraph (2), (3), (6), or the preceding paragraph.
- (9) The purpose of the meeting must be stated or recorded in the notice referred to in the preceding paragraph.
- (10) In place of sending a written notice under the provisions of paragraph (8), a person that calls a general meeting of members may send the notice by electronic or magnetic means, with the consent of the members and pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Order. In this case, the person that has sent the notice by electronic or magnetic means to call a general meeting of members is deemed to have sent the written notice under the provisions of that paragraph.

(Matters to be Resolved at General Meetings of Members)

Article 60 In addition to what is specifically provided for in this Act, the following matters require a resolution of a general meeting of members:

- (i) changes to the articles of incorporation;
- (ii) approval of the balance sheet, profit and loss statement, business report, and proposed appropriation of surplus, or proposed disposal of losses;
- (iii) the method of imposing and collecting expenses;
- (iv) dissolution;
- (v) merger;
- (vi) expulsion of a member; and
- (vii) any other matters specified by the articles of incorporation.

(Matters that Require a Special Resolution of a General Meeting of Members)

Article 61 The matters stated in item (i) and items (iv) through (vi) of the preceding Article require a resolution to be passed with at least a two-thirds majority vote of the members present, at a meeting in which at least half of all members are present.

(Proceedings of General Meetings of Members)

Article 62 (1) Unless specifically provided for in this Act or in the articles of incorporation, proceedings of general meeting of members are decided by the majority vote of the members present, and the chairperson makes the decision in the event of a tie.

(2) The chairperson is appointed at a general meeting of members.

(3) The chairperson is not entitled to take part in a resolution of a general meeting of members as a member.

(4) Only the matters for which notice is given in advance pursuant to the provisions of Article 59, paragraph (8) may be resolved at a general meeting of members; provided, however, that this does not apply if otherwise provided for in the articles of incorporation.

(5) The minutes of a general meeting of members must also be signed by the auditors present.

(Resolutions for Postponement or Continuation)

Article 62-2 If a resolution has been made to postpone or continue the meeting at a general meeting of members, the provisions of the main clause of Article 59, paragraph (8) do not apply.

(Minutes)

Article 62-3 The minutes of a general meeting of members must be prepared pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.

(Application, Mutatis Mutandis of the Companies Act)

Article 63 The provisions of Article 830, Article 831, Article 834 (limited to the part related to items (xvi) and (xvii)), Article 835, paragraph (1), Article 836, paragraphs (1) and (3), Article 837, Article 838, Article 846, and Article 937, paragraph (1) (limited to the part that involves item (i) (g)) of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis to an action for a declaratory judgment as to the absence or invalidity of a resolution of a general meeting of members or an action seeking the rescission of the resolution.

Subsection 4 Accounts

(Loss Reserves)

Article 64 (1) A member commodity exchange must set aside at least ten percent of surplus for each business year as loss reserves pursuant to the provisions of the articles of incorporation.

(2) The reserves referred to in the preceding paragraph may not be reduced, except in the case of allocating them to loss compensation.

(Prohibition of Distribution of Surplus)

Article 65 A member commodity exchange may not distribute its surplus.

(Preparation of Account Settlement Documents)

Article 66 (1) A member commodity exchange must prepare an inventory of property, balance sheet, profit and loss statement, business report, and proposed appropriation of surplus or proposed disposal of losses (referred to below as "account settlement documents, etc.") pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.

(2) Account settlement documents, etc. may be prepared as electronic or magnetic records.

(Submission of Account Settlement Documents)

Article 67 The president must submit or provide to the auditors account settlement documents, etc. (including electronic or magnetic records, if these documents have been prepared as electronic or magnetic records or if electronic or magnetic records are prepared in place of documents) by two weeks before the day of an ordinary general meeting of members.

(Approval and Reporting of Account Settlement Documents)

Article 68 (1) Account settlement documents, etc. (excluding the inventory of property and business report) must be approved by an ordinary general meeting of members.

(2) The president must report the content of the business report at an ordinary general meeting of members.

(Keeping and Inspection of Account Settlement Documents)

Article 68-2 (1) A member commodity exchange must keep the account settlement documents, etc. at its principal office for five years, beginning from the day two weeks before the day of the relevant ordinary general meeting of members.

(2) A member commodity exchange must keep a copy of account settlement documents, etc. at its secondary offices for three years, beginning from the day two weeks before the day of the relevant ordinary general meeting of members; provided, however, that this does not apply if the account settlement documents, etc. have been prepared as electronic or magnetic records and a measure specified by order of the competent ministry as a measure that enables a secondary office to respond to the requests stated in items (iii) and (iv) of the following paragraph has been taken:

(3) The member or creditor of a member commodity exchange may make the following requests to the member commodity exchange at any time during its business hours; provided, however, that in making the request stated in item (ii) or (iv), the member or creditor must pay the cost specified by the member commodity exchange:

- (i) if account settlement documents, etc. have been prepared as documents, a request to inspect the documents or their copies;
- (ii) a request for issuance of a certified copy or extract of the documents referred to in the preceding item;
- (iii) if account settlement documents, etc. have been prepared as electronic or magnetic records, a request to inspect a device that displays the information that has been recorded in that electronic or magnetic record by the means specified by order of the competent ministry;
- (iv) a request to be provided with the information that has been recorded in an electronic or magnetic record referred to in the preceding item by an electronic or magnetic means specified by order of the competent ministry, or a request to be issued a document that states the information.

(Public Notice of Balance Sheets)

Article 68-3 A member commodity exchange must issue public notice of its balance sheet pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry without delay, after the conclusion of an ordinary general meeting of members.

Subsection 5 Dissolution and Liquidation

(Dissolution of Member Commodity Exchange)

Article 69 A member commodity exchange is to dissolve due to the following grounds:

- (i) the expiration of the term of existence or the occurrence of grounds for dissolution specified in the articles of incorporation;
- (ii) a resolution of a general meeting of members;
- (iii) a merger (limited to a merger in which the member commodity exchange disappears; the same applies in Articles 71 and 72);
- (iv) an order of commencement of bankruptcy proceedings;
- (v) a revocation of license for establishment;
- (vi) the number of members becomes 10 or less for all of its commodity markets.

(Closure of Some Commodity Markets)

Article 70 If the number of members conducting transactions in a commodity market that a member commodity exchange operates becomes 10 or less, the member commodity exchange must suspend the transactions in that commodity market and file an application for authorization for a change to the articles of incorporation pursuant to the provisions of Article 155, paragraph (1), unless the commodity market is to be dissolved for the reason stated in item (vi) of the preceding Article.

(Liquidators)

Article 71 If a member commodity exchange is dissolved, the president or a director becomes the liquidator, unless it is dissolved in a merger or due to an order of commencement of bankruptcy proceedings; provided, however, that this does not apply if another person is appointed at a general meeting of members.

(Distribution of Residual Assets)

Article 71-2 Residual assets must be distributed based on a member's number of units of contribution.

(Registration of Dissolution)

Article 72 If a member commodity exchange is dissolved, the dissolution must be registered at the locality of its principal office within two weeks from the dissolution, unless it is dissolved in a merger or due to an order of commencement of bankruptcy proceedings.

(Registration of Completion of Liquidation)

Article 73 Once a liquidation is complete, the completion of liquidation must be registered at the location of the principal office within two weeks from the day of the approval referred to in Article 507, paragraph (3) of the Companies Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 77, paragraph (1).

(Application for Registration of Dissolution)

Article 74 (1) A document certifying the reason for dissolution must be attached to the written application to register the dissolution of a member commodity exchange, and if the president or director that represents the member commodity exchange is not the liquidator, a document certifying that the liquidator is the person that is to represent the member commodity exchange must be attached to the written application.

(2) If a member commodity exchange is dissolved by the competent minister's disposition to revoke the permission for establishment, the registration of its dissolution is made at the request of the competent minister

(Application for the Registration of the Completion of Liquidation)

Article 75 A document certifying that the approval referred to in Article 507, paragraph (3) of the Companies Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 77, paragraph (1) has been obtained must be attached to the written application for a registration under the provisions of Article 73.

(Approval of a Merger of Member Commodity Exchanges)

Article 76 (1) A merger in which member commodity exchanges constitute all or part of the parties (excluding a merger referred to in Article 145, paragraph (1)) does not become effective without the authorization of the competent minister.

(2) If a member commodity exchange is dissolved for one of the following reasons, the person that was its representative must notify the competent minister of the fact without delay:

- (i) the expiration of the term of existence or the occurrence of grounds for dissolution specified in the articles of incorporation;
- (ii) a resolution of a general meeting of members;
- (iii) an order of commencement of bankruptcy proceedings; or
- (iv) the number of members becomes 10 or less for all of its commodity markets.

(Application, Mutatis Mutandis of the Companies Act)

Article 77 (1) The provisions of Article 475 (excluding items (i) and (iii)), Article 476, Article 478, paragraphs (2) and (4), Article 479, paragraphs (1) and (4), Article 481, Article 482, paragraph (2), Article 483, paragraphs (4) through (6), Article 484, Article 485, Article 492, paragraphs (1) through (3), Articles 499 through 503, Article 507, Article 868, paragraph (1), Article 869, Article 870, paragraph (1) (limited to the part related to item (i)), Article 871, Article 872 (limited to the part related to item (iv)), Article 874 (limited to the part related to items (i) and (iv)), Article 875, and Article 876 of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis to the liquidation of a member commodity exchange. In this case, the term "Ministry of Justice Order" in Article 492, paragraph (1) and Article 507, paragraph (1) of that Act is deemed to be replaced with "order of the competent ministry", and the phrase "give public notice in the Official Gazette" in Article 499, paragraph (1) of that Act is deemed to be replaced with "issue public notice".

(2) The provisions of Article 48, paragraphs (2) and (3), Article 50-2, Article 53, Articles 55 through 57, Article 59, Article 62-3, and Articles 66 through 68-3 of this Act and the provisions of Article 361, paragraph (1) (excluding items (iii) through (v)) and paragraph (4), Article 424, Article 430, Article 599, and Article 600 of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis to the liquidators of a member commodity exchange, and the provisions of Part VII, Chapter II, Section 2 (excluding Article 847, paragraph (2), Article 847-2, Article 847-3, Article 849, paragraph (2), paragraph (3), items (ii) and (iii), and paragraphs (6) through (11), Article 849-2, items (ii) and (iii), Article 851, and Article 853, paragraph (1), items (ii) and (iii)) of that Act apply mutatis mutandis to an action pursuing the liability of the liquidators of a member commodity exchange. In this case, the phrase "inventory of property, balance sheet, profit and loss statement, business report, and proposed appropriation of surplus or proposed disposal of losses" in Article 66, paragraph (1) is deemed to be replaced with "inventory of property, balance sheet, and business report", the phrase "paragraph (1) of the preceding Article" in Article 424 of the Companies Act is deemed to be replaced with "Article 53, paragraph (1) of the Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act", the phrase "Order of the Ministry of Justice" in Article 847, paragraphs (1) and (4) of that Act is deemed to be replaced with "order of the competent ministry", and any other technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

- (3) The court supervising the liquidation of a member commodity exchange may seek opinions of or commission an investigation to the competent minister.
- (4) The competent minister may state an opinion to the court prescribed in the preceding paragraph.
- (5) The provisions of Article 71, paragraph (1) of the Commercial Registration Act apply mutatis mutandis to the registration of the dissolution of a member commodity exchange.

Section 3 Incorporated Commodity Exchanges

Subsection 1 General Provisions

(License of an Incorporated Commodity Exchange)

Article 78 A person that seeks to become an incorporated commodity exchange must obtain a license from the competent minister.

(Applications for License)

Article 79 (1) A person seeking to obtain the license referred to in the preceding Article must submit a written application stating the following information to the competent minister:

- (i) the trade name;
- (ii) amount of stated capital;
- (iii) the location of the head office, branch offices, and any other business offices;
- (iv) the listed commodity or listed commodity index;
- (v) the names and addresses of the officers; and
- (vi) the names or trade names of the trading participants and the listed commodity or listed commodity index of the commodity market in which the trading participants will conduct transactions, and the fact that the trading participant has continuously engaged in the purchase and sale, etc. of the component products of listed commodities etc. in the course of trade for one year or more, if applicable.

- (2) The articles of incorporation, operational rules, entrustment contract regulations, dispute resolution rules, market transactions surveillance committee rules, and other documents specified by order of the competent ministry must be attached to the written application referred to in the preceding paragraph.

(Licensing Criteria)

Article 80 (1) If the competent minister finds that an application for the license referred to in Article 78 conforms to the following criteria, the minister must grant the license:

- (i) the license applicant is a stock company whose stated capital is at least the amount specified by Cabinet Order;
- (ii) the commodity market which the application concerns conforms to the criteria prescribed in the following sub-items in accordance with the category of commodity market stated in each sub-item:
 - (a) a commodity market for a listed commodity: the total number of trading participants that seek to conduct transactions in the commodity market is 20 or more, and the majority of them have continuously engaged in the purchase and sale, etc. of the component products of listed commodities of the commodity market in the course of trade for one year or more; or
 - (b) a commodity market for a listed commodity index: the total number of trading participants that seek to conduct transactions in the commodity market is 20 or greater, and the majority of them have continuously engaged in the purchase and sale, etc. of the products underlying the listed commodity index of the commodity market in the course of trade for one year or more;
- (iii) the volume of transactions is expected to be sufficient for ensuring fair and smooth futures transactions in the listed commodity or listed commodity index which the application concerns, and in light of the status of transactions of the component products of listed commodities, etc., it is necessary and appropriate for the license applicant to become an incorporated commodity exchange in which the futures transactions are conducted, in order to facilitate the production and distribution of the component products of listed commodities, etc.;
- (iv) if the applicant seeks to open a commodity market for a listed commodity, the situation conforms to the criteria specified by Cabinet Order as a situation in which it is appropriate for the component products of listed commodities to be traded on a single commodity market, in light of the status of transactions of the persons conducting purchase and sales, etc. of component products of listed commodities in the course of trade, and in light

- of circumstances of economic activities related to the component products of listed commodities;
- (v) if the applicant seeks to open a commodity market with two or more commodity indices as a single listed commodity index, most of the goods or electric power underlying those two or more commodity indices are the same;
 - (vi) the provisions of the articles of incorporation, operational rules, entrustment contract regulations, dispute resolution rules, and market transactions surveillance committee rules do not violate laws and regulations, and the method or management of trade, qualification of trading participants, maximum number of trading participants if it is specified, matters of deposits if the obligation to deposit a special deposit is specified, and other matters prescribed in the articles of incorporation, operational rules, entrustment contract regulations, dispute resolution rules, and market transactions surveillance committee rules are appropriate and sufficient for ensuring the fairness of transactions in the commodity market and for protecting requesting parties;
 - (vii) the license applicant has a sufficient personnel structure to operate a commodity market in an appropriate manner;
 - (viii) the license applicant is to be organized in a manner that conforms to the provisions of this Act as an incorporated commodity exchange;
 - (ix) the license applicant has in place the following organizations:
 - (a) a board of company directors;
 - (b) a board of company auditors, an audit and supervisory committee, or nominating committee, etc. (meaning a nominating committee, etc. prescribed in Article 2, item (xii) of the Companies Act; the same applies in Article 96-27, paragraph (2), item (i), (b)); and
 - (c) a financial auditor.
- (2) If an application for the license referred to in Article 78 falls under one of the following items, the competent minister must not grant the license referred to in that Article notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph:
- (i) the license applicant matches a person referred to in one of Article 15, paragraph (2), item (i), sub-items (c) through (e), sub-item (i), or sub-item (l); or
 - (ii) the written application or documents that are required to be attached to the written application include a false statement about a material particular.
- (3) If an application is filed for the license referred to in Article 78 in which the applicant's term of existence as an incorporated commodity exchange or the time limit for opening of the commodity market is stated or recorded in the operational rules, the criteria stated in paragraph (1), item (iii) is replaced by the criteria that in light of the fact that the volume of transactions is not expected to fall short in terms of ensuring fair and smooth futures transactions of the listed commodity or listed commodity index which the application concerns, and the status of transactions of the component products of listed commodities, etc., the applicant becoming an incorporated commodity exchange in which the futures transactions are conducted does not and is not likely to cause a significant hindrance to the production and distribution of the component products of listed commodities, etc., and for the application of these criteria and the criteria referred to in items (iv) and (v) of that paragraph, the competent minister is to make a judgment on those criteria for the term of existence or the period until the time limit for opening.

(4) The provisions of Article 15, paragraphs (4) through (11) apply mutatis mutandis to the license referred to in Article 78.

(Articles of Incorporation)

Article 81 In addition to the matters stated in the items of Article 27 of the Companies Act, the following matters must be stated in the articles of incorporation of an incorporated commodity exchange:

- (i) the matters related to audits of and sanctions against trading participants;
- (ii) the matters concerning the binding effect of the articles of incorporation, operational rules, entrustment contract regulations, and dispute resolution rules on contracts between trading participants enter into outside the commodity market;
- (iii) the matters concerning the commodity market;
- (iv) if a self-regulatory committee will be established, an indication of this.

(Special Provisions on the Scope of the Subsidiary Companies of an Incorporated Commodity Exchange)

Article 81-2 If an incorporated commodity exchange is operating a financial instruments exchange market by obtaining the authorization referred to in the proviso to Article 3, paragraph (1) or the license referred to in Article 80, paragraph (1) of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 3-2, paragraph (1), the incorporated commodity exchange may have a company engaging in the business of operating a financial instruments exchange market and other incidental business as its subsidiary company (meaning a subsidiary company as prescribed in Article 3-2, paragraph (3)), without obtaining the authorization of the competent minister.

(Trading Participants of Incorporated Commodity Exchanges)

Article 82 (1) Pursuant to the provisions of the operational rules, an incorporated commodity exchange may grant a person trading qualification for conducting transactions in the commodity markets it operates.

- (2) An incorporated commodity exchange must not grant trading qualification to a person falling under a person referred to in one of Article 15, paragraph (2), item (i), sub-items (b) through (j) or the items of Article 31, paragraph (1) (excluding item (ii)).
- (3) A corporation surviving a merger or a corporation established by a merger is deemed to be the same corporation as that which has been extinguished as a result of the merger with regard to the application of the provisions of the preceding paragraph (limited to the part related to Article 15, paragraph (2), item (i), sub-items (c) through (e), and sub-item (i), and Article 31, paragraph (1), item (iv)).

(Succession to the Status of Trading Participants)

Article 83 If a trading participant merges, the corporation surviving the merger or the corporation established by the merger succeeds to the status of trading participant.

(Forfeiture of Trading Qualifications)

Article 84 (1) A trading participant may forfeit the trading qualification granted pursuant to the provisions of Article 82, paragraph (1) with 30 days' advance notice.

- (2) The period of advance notice referred to in the preceding paragraph may be extended by the operational rules; provided, however, that the period may not exceed one year.
- (3) Beyond what is provided for in paragraph (1), a trading participant forfeits the trading qualification granted pursuant to the provisions of Article 82, paragraph (1) for the following reasons:
 - (i) all of the commodity markets in which the person conducts transactions have been closed pursuant to the provisions of Article 95;
 - (ii) death or dissolution; or
 - (iii) revocation of trading qualification.

(Changes to the Names of Officers or Trading Participants)

- Article 85 (1) If a matter stated in Article 79, paragraph (1), item (iii), (v), or (vi) (excluding the location of the head office) changes, the incorporated commodity exchange must submit a written notification of change stating that fact to the competent minister without delay.
- (2) The written notification of change referred to in the preceding paragraph must be accompanied by a document proving the change and documents specified by order of the competent ministry.

(Limitations on the Holdings of Voting Rights)

- Article 86 (1) It is prohibited for any person to acquire or possess voting rights (excluding voting rights of shares that do not allow voting rights to be exercised on all matters that may be resolved at shareholders meeting and including voting rights of shares that are deemed to have voting rights pursuant to the provisions of Article 879, paragraph (3) of the Companies Act; the same applies below) constituting twenty percent or more (or fifteen percent or more, if there is a fact that is specified by order of the competent ministry as a fact that is presumed to have material influence on decisions about financial and operational policies; referred to below as the "threshold holding ratio" in this Article, Subsection 3, and Article 96-40, paragraph (4)) of voting rights of all the shareholders in an incorporated commodity exchange (including voting rights of shares that cannot be asserted against the issuer pursuant to the provisions of Article 147, paragraph (1) or Article 148, paragraph (1) of the Act on the Book-Entry Transfer of Bonds and Shares (Act No. 75 of 2001) and excluding those specified by order of the competent ministry in consideration of the manner in which they are acquired or held and other circumstances; referred to below as "subject voting rights" in this Section); provided, however, that this does not apply to voting rights acquired or possessed by a commodity exchange, commodity exchange holding company, financial instruments exchange (meaning a financial instruments exchange as prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (16) of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act and limited to a financial instruments exchange specified by Cabinet Order; the same applies below), or financial instruments exchange holding company (meaning a financial instruments exchange holding company as prescribed in paragraph (18) of that Article and limited to a financial instruments exchange holding company specified by Cabinet Order; the same applies below).
- (2) If the number of subject voting rights that the person holds does not increase or in any other case specified by order of the competent ministry, the provisions of the main clause of the preceding paragraph do not apply to a person that is to acquire or hold a number of subject voting rights in an incorporated commodity exchange which is equal to or greater than the threshold holding ratio of voting rights of all the shareholders in an incorporated commodity exchange.
- (3) In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, a person that comes to acquire or hold a number of subject voting rights that is greater than the threshold holding ratio of voting rights of all the shareholders in an incorporated commodity exchange (referred to below as a "specified holder" in this Article) must notify the competent minister without delay that that person has become a specified holder and other matters specified by order of the competent ministry.
- (4) In the case referred to in paragraph (2), a specified holder must take the necessary measures to become the holder of a number of subject voting rights in the incorporated commodity exchange which is less than the threshold holding ratio within three months from the day on which the person has become a specified holder; provided, however, that this does not apply if the specified holder is a local government, etc. provided for in Article 96-19, paragraph (1) and has obtained the authorization of the competent minister pursuant to the provisions of that paragraph.

- (5) With regard to application of the provisions of the preceding paragraphs to the case stated in one of the following items, the person is deemed to have acquired or to hold the subject voting rights specified in each item:
- (i) a person that has or is to have the authority to exercise the subject voting rights in an incorporated commodity exchange, or the authority to give instructions on the exercise of those voting rights pursuant to the provisions of a money trust contract or other contracts or based on the provisions of laws: the subject voting rights in question;
 - (ii) a person that is related to the person in question through a shareholding relationship, familial relationship, or other special relationship specified by Cabinet Order, has acquired or holds the subject voting rights in an incorporated commodity exchange: the subject voting rights acquired or held by the person with the special relationship to the person in question.
- (6) The necessary matters for the application of the provisions of the preceding paragraphs are specified by Cabinet Order.

(Submission of Notification of Holding Subject Voting Rights)

Article 86-2 (1) A person that has become the holder of subject voting rights exceeding five percent of voting rights of all the shareholders in an incorporated commodity exchange (referred to below as a "holder of subject voting rights" in this paragraph) must submit a notification of holding subject voting rights to the competent minister that states the subject voting rights holding rate (meaning the rate arrived at by dividing the number of subject voting rights held by the holder of subject voting rights by the number of voting rights of all the shareholders in the incorporated commodity exchange), the purpose of the holding, and other matters specified by order of the competent ministry pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry without delay.

- (2) The provisions of paragraph (5) of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis when the provisions of the preceding paragraph are applicable.

(Collection of Reports from and On-Site Inspections of Persons Submitting Notifications of Holding Subject Voting Rights)

Article 86-3 (1) The competent minister may order the person submitting a notification of holding subject voting rights referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article to submit reports or materials that should serve as a reference on their business or property, or may have ministry employees enter that person's office or business office and inspect their books and documents or any other articles (limited to an inspection necessary in relation to the statements in the notification of holding subject voting rights) when the minister finds it necessary to do so for the enforcement of this Act.

- (2) An employee conducting an on-site inspection pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph must carry an identification card and present it to the persons concerned.
- (3) The authority for an on-site inspection under the provisions of paragraph (1) must not be construed as being granted for criminal investigation purpose.

(Public Inspection of the Total Number of Issued Shares)

Article 87 An incorporated commodity exchange must make its total number of issued shares, the number of voting rights of all the shareholders, and other matters specified by order of the competent ministry available for public inspection, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.

(Authorization for Reduction of Stated Capital)

- Article 88 (1) If an incorporated commodity exchange seeks to reduce its stated capital, it must obtain the authorization of the competent minister pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.
- (2) If an incorporated commodity exchange seeks to increase its stated capital, it must notify the competent minister pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.

(Provisional Company Directors and Provisional Company Auditors)

- Article 89 (1) The competent minister may appoint a provisional company director, provisional representative director, provisional executive officer, provisional representative executive officer, or provisional company auditor if there is no one to perform the duties of the company director, representative director, executive officer, representative executive officer, or company auditor of an incorporated commodity exchange and the minister finds this necessary
- (2) The provisions of Article 346, paragraphs (2) and (3), Article 351, paragraphs (2) and (3); and Article 401, paragraphs (3) and (4) of the Companies Act (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 403, paragraph (3) and Article 420, paragraph (3) of that Act) do not apply to an incorporated commodity exchange.

(Registration by Request of the Competent Minister)

Article 90 (1) If the competent minister appoints a provisional company director, provisional representative director, provisional executive officer, provisional representative executive officer, or provisional company auditor pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) of the preceding Article, the minister must commission the registry office in the locality of the head office of the incorporated commodity exchange to register this.

(2) If the competent minister commissions a registration pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the written commission must be accompanied by a document certifying that the minister has made a disposition related to the grounds that caused the registration.

(Prohibition on the Concurrent Holding of Positions by Officers)

Article 91 (1) An officer of an incorporated commodity exchange must not hold the position of officer at another commodity exchange.

(2) The provisions of the preceding paragraph apply mutatis mutandis to the liquidators of an incorporated commodity exchange.

(Disqualifying Conditions for Officers)

Article 92 The provisions of Article 49 apply mutatis mutandis to officers of an incorporated commodity exchange.

(Keeping and Inspection of Operational Rules)

Article 93 (1) An incorporated commodity exchange must keep its operational rules at each of its business offices, and must keep a trading participant register at its head office.

(2) The following information on each trading participant must be stated or recorded in a trading participant register:

(i) the name or trade name and address;

(ii) the date trading qualification was acquired;

(iii) the listed commodity or listed commodity index of the commodity market in which transactions are conducted; and

(iv) if it is a commodity derivatives broker, the license date.

(3) The provisions of Article 57, paragraphs (4) and (5) apply mutatis mutandis to the operational rules and trading participant register that are kept pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1). In this case, the phrase "The member or creditor of a member commodity exchange" in paragraph (4) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "The shareholder, trading participant, or creditor of an incorporated commodity exchange"; the phrase "during the business hours of the member commodity exchange" in that paragraph is deemed to be replaced with "during the business hours of the incorporated commodity exchange"; the phrase "specified by the member commodity exchange" in the proviso to that paragraph is deemed to be replaced with "specified by the incorporated commodity exchange"; and the term "member commodity exchange" in paragraph (5) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "incorporated commodity exchange".

- (4) A trading participant of an incorporated commodity exchange may make the requests stated in the items of Article 31, paragraph (2) of the Companies Act with regard to the articles of incorporation of an incorporated commodity exchange; provided, however, that in making the request stated in item (ii) or (iv) of that paragraph, the trading participant must pay the expenses specified by the incorporated commodity exchange.

(Expiration of Licenses)

Article 94 (1) If an incorporated commodity exchange falls under one of the following items, the license under Article 78 ceases to be effective:

- (i) the term of existence as an incorporated commodity exchange specified by its operational rules has expired;
 - (ii) the incorporated commodity exchange transfers all of its business through a split or a business transfer;
 - (iii) the number of trading participants becomes 10 or less for all of its commodity markets;
 - (iv) the incorporated commodity exchange is dissolved;
 - (v) a judgment invalidating its establishment, merger (but only if the entity to be established by the merger is an incorporated commodity exchange), or incorporation-type company split (but only if the entity to be established by the incorporation-type company split is an incorporated commodity exchange) has become final and binding.
- (2) If the license of an incorporated commodity exchange has expired pursuant to the provisions of item (ii), (iii), or (v) of the preceding paragraph, the person that is or was its representative must notify the competent minister of that fact without delay.

(Closure of Some Commodity Markets)

Article 95 If the number of trading participants conducting transactions in a commodity market that an incorporated commodity exchange operates becomes 10 or less, the incorporated commodity exchange must suspend the transactions in that commodity market and file an application for the authorization to change its operational rules under the provisions of Article 156, paragraph (1), except in the case that falls under paragraph (1), item (iii) of the preceding Article.

(Authorization of Mergers of Incorporated Commodity Exchanges)

Article 96 (1) The following matters do not become effective without the authorization of the competent minister:

- (i) a resolution of a shareholders meeting to dissolve an incorporated commodity exchange;
 - (ii) a merger in which an incorporated commodity exchange constitutes all or some of the parties (excluding a merger referred to in Article 145, paragraph (1)).
- (2) If an incorporated commodity exchange is dissolved for a reason other than one stated in the preceding paragraph, the person that was its representative must notify the competent minister of that fact without delay; provided, however, that this does not apply to cases specified by order of the competent ministry.

Subsection 2 Self-Regulatory Committees

(Authority)

- Article 96-2 (1) An incorporated commodity exchange may have in place a self-regulatory committee pursuant to the provisions of its articles of incorporation.
- (2) A self-regulatory committee makes decisions on matters related to self-regulatory services (meaning self-regulatory services as prescribed in Article 5-2, paragraph (2); the same applies below in this Subsection) of the incorporated commodity exchange that has in place the self-regulatory committee (referred to below as a "specified incorporated commodity exchange" in this Subsection).
- (3) A self-regulatory committee is deemed to be entrusted by the board of directors to decide the matters related to self-regulatory services.
- (4) The self-regulatory committee of a specified incorporated commodity exchange may not entrust executive officers or company directors with decisions on matters related to self-regulatory services.
- (5) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 362, paragraph (4), Article 399-13, paragraphs (4) through (6), and Article 416, paragraph (4) of the Companies Act, the board of directors of a specified incorporated commodity exchange may not appoint executive officers or directors with decisions on matters related to the appointment of members of the self-regulatory committee prescribed in paragraph (2) of the following Article or the removal of members of the self-regulatory committee prescribed in Article 96-5, paragraph (1).

(Organization)

- Article 96-3 (1) A self-regulatory committee must be composed of three or more members of the committee, and the majority of those members must be outside company directors.
- (2) Members of a self-regulatory committee are appointed from among the company directors of a specified incorporated commodity exchange and appointed by resolution of the board of directors.

- (3) The resolution referred to in the preceding paragraph is adopted by a majority (or, if a higher proportion is specified in the articles of incorporation, at least that proportion) of the company directors that are entitled to participate in the vote and are present, and by a majority of those company directors (or, if a higher proportion is provided for in the articles of incorporation, at least that proportion), and by a majority of the outside company directors that are present at the meeting.
- (4) A self-regulatory committee has a chairperson, and the chairperson is designated from among the outside company directors by a vote among the members of the self-regulatory committee.
- (5) The chairperson of a self-regulatory committee presides over the affairs of the self-regulatory committee.
- (6) A self-regulatory committee must designate in advance, a person from among the members of the self-regulatory committee who performs the duties of the chairperson of the self-regulatory committee when the chairperson is unavailable.

(Term of Office)

- Article 96-4 (1) The term of office of a member of a self-regulatory committee is to be until the conclusion of the annual shareholders meeting in the last business year that ends within one year from the time the member was selected.
- (2) A member of a self-regulatory committee may be reappointed only four times.

(Removal from Positions)

- Article 96-5 (1) A member of a self-regulatory committee may be removed by resolution of the board of directors of the specified incorporated commodity exchange.
- (2) The resolution referred to in the preceding paragraph is adopted by a majority (or, if a higher proportion is provided for in the articles of incorporation, at least that proportion) of company directors that are entitled to participate in the vote are present, and by a majority of those company directors (or, if a higher proportion is provided for in the articles of incorporation, at least that proportion), and by the majority of the members of the self-regulatory committee that are present at the meeting.
 - (3) If there is a vacancy resulting from a shortfall in the number of members of a self-regulatory committee provided for in Article 96-3, paragraph (1), a member of the self-regulatory committee that has left the position due to the expiration of the term of office or that has resigned, continues to have rights and obligations as a member of the self-regulatory committee until a newly selected self-regulatory committee member (including a person that will temporarily perform the duties of a member of the self-regulatory committee referred to in the following paragraph) assumes the position.

- (4) In the case prescribed in the preceding paragraph, if the court finds it necessary, it may appoint a person to temporarily perform the duties of a member of the self-regulatory committee, upon petition of an interested party.
- (5) If the court appoints a person to temporarily perform the duties of a member of the self-regulatory committee as referred to in the preceding paragraph, it may specify the amount of the remuneration to be paid to the person by the specified incorporated commodity exchange.
- (6) The provisions of Article 868, paragraph (1), Article 870, paragraph (1) (limited to the part related to item (i)), Article 871, Article 872 (limited to the part related to item (iv)), Article 874 (limited to the part related to item (i)), Article 875, and Article 876 of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis if the petition referred to in paragraph (4) is filed. In this case, the necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

(Appointment and Dismissal of Directors)

Article 96-6 The provisions of Article 96-3, paragraph (3) apply mutatis mutandis when a specified incorporated commodity exchange which is a company with a board of company auditors, or a company with an audit and supervisory committee decides the content of a proposal regarding the appointment or dismissal of a company director which is to be submitted to the shareholders meeting.

(Handling of Emergency Cases)

Article 96-7 (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 96-2, paragraphs (2) and (3), if the representative director or representative executive officer of a specified incorporated commodity exchange finds it particularly necessary for ensuring the public interest or the protection of requesting parties, and there is urgent necessity in light of the circumstances, the representative director or representative executive officer may make a decision on a disposition against a member, etc. or on any other matter specified by order of the competent ministry related to self-regulatory services.

- (2) If a specified incorporated commodity exchange makes a decision on a disposition against a member, etc. or on any other matter specified by order of the competent ministry related to self-regulatory services pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the representative director or representative executive officer of the specified incorporated commodity exchange must promptly report this to the self-regulatory committee.

(Enjoinment of Acts of Executive Officers or Company Directors)

Article 96-8 (1) If the executive officer or company director of a specified incorporated commodity exchange performs an act or is likely to perform an act that violates a decision of the self-regulatory committee with regard to self-regulatory services, and if that act is likely to significantly hinder the appropriate operation of self-regulatory services, a member of the self-regulatory committee may demand the executive officer or company director to cease that act.

(2) In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, if the court issues a provisional disposition ordering the executive officer or director referred to in that paragraph to cease that act, the court is not to have the executive officer or company director provide security.

(Treatment of Changes in Operational Rules)

Article 96-9 A specified incorporated commodity exchange must obtain the consent of the self-regulatory committee if it seeks to change or discontinue a matter specified in the operational rules or other rules of the specified incorporated commodity exchange, which is specified by order of the competent ministry as being related to self-regulatory services.

(Convenors)

Article 96-10 A self-regulatory committee is called by the chairperson of the committee prescribed in Article 96-3, paragraph (4) (or by the person that performs the duties of the chairperson of the self-regulatory committee as prescribed in Article 96-3, paragraph (6) when the chairperson of the self-regulatory committee is unavailable; the same applies in the following Article and Article 96-12, paragraph (1)).

(Demand for Calling Meetings)

Article 96-11 A member of a self-regulatory committee may call a meeting of the self-regulatory committee by indicating the purpose of a self-regulatory committee meeting and the reasons for the calling.

(Procedures for Calling Meetings)

Article 96-12 (1) To call a meeting of the self-regulatory committee, the chairperson of the self-regulatory committee must send a notice to each member of the self-regulatory committee at least one week before the day of the self-regulatory committee meeting (or, if a shorter period of time has been specified by the self-regulatory committee, that period).

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, a meeting of the self-regulatory committee may be held without going through the procedures for calling meetings, with the consent of all members of the self-regulatory committee.

- (3) If there is a request from the self-regulatory committee, the executive officer, company director, accounting advisor, or financial auditor of a specified incorporated commodity exchange must attend a meeting of the self-regulatory committee and provide explanations of the matters requested by the self-regulatory committee.

(Resolutions)

Article 96-13 (1) Resolutions of self-regulatory committees are adopted by a majority of the members of the self-regulatory committee that are entitled to participate in the vote are present and by a majority of those members of the self-regulatory committee, and a majority of the members of the self-regulatory committee who are outside company directors that are present at the meeting.

- (2) A member of the self-regulatory committee with a special interest in the resolution referred to in the preceding paragraph may not participate in the vote.
- (3) The minutes of the proceedings of a self-regulatory committee meeting must be prepared pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry, and if the minutes are prepared in writing, the members of the self-regulatory committee present at the meeting must sign them or affix their names and seals to them.
- (4) The member of the self-regulatory committee that the self-regulatory committee appoints must report the content of the resolution to the board of directors without delay after a resolution under the provisions of paragraph (1) is adopted.
- (5) The minutes referred to in paragraph (3) may be prepared as electronic or magnetic records. In this case, the relevant persons must use the measures in place of signing or affixing their names and seals which are prescribed by order of the competent ministry, for the information that is recorded in the electronic or magnetic records.
- (6) Beyond what is provided for in the preceding paragraphs, necessary matters for the proceedings of the meeting and other matters necessary for the operation of the self-regulatory committee are specified by the self-regulatory committee.

(Minutes)

Article 96-14 (1) A specified incorporated commodity exchange must keep the minutes referred to in paragraph (3) of the preceding Article at its head office for a period of ten years beginning from the day of the self-regulatory committee meeting.

- (2) The company directors of the incorporated commodity exchange may inspect or copy the following:
 - (i) if the minutes referred to in the preceding paragraph are prepared in writing, the document; and;
 - (ii) if the minutes referred to in the preceding paragraph are prepared as electronic or magnetic records, a device that displays the information that has been recorded in the electronic or magnetic records by the means specified by order of the competent ministry.
- (3) If it is necessary in order for a shareholder of the incorporated commodity exchange to exercise their rights, the shareholder may make a request to inspect or copy the information stated in the items of the preceding paragraph concerning the minutes referred to in paragraph (1), with the permission of the court.
- (4) The provisions of the preceding paragraph apply mutatis mutandis if it is necessary for a creditor of the incorporated commodity exchange to pursue the liability of the members of the self-regulatory committee, or if it is necessary for a shareholder or member of the person that has the incorporated commodity exchange as its subsidiary company to exercise their voting rights.
- (5) The court may not give the permission referred to in paragraph (3) (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph; the same applies below in this Article) if the court finds that inspection or copying which the request referred to in that paragraph concerns is likely to cause substantial detriment to the incorporated commodity exchange, to a person that has the incorporated commodity exchange as its subsidiary company, or to a subsidiary company of the incorporated commodity exchange.
- (6) The provisions of Article 868, paragraph (1), Article 869, Article 870, paragraph (2) (limited to the part related to item (i)), Article 870-2, the main clause of Article 871, Article 872 (limited to the part related to item (v)), Article 872-2, the main clause of Article 873, Article 875, and Article 876 of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis to the permission referred to in paragraph (3). In this case, the necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

(Omission of Reports)

Article 96-15 If the executive officer, company director, accounting advisor, or financial auditor of a specified incorporated commodity exchange notifies all members of the self-regulatory committee of the matters that are required to be reported to the self-regulatory committee, they are not required to report those matters to the self-regulatory committee.

(Public Inspections)

Article 96-16 A specified incorporated commodity exchange must make the register of the members of the self-regulatory committee available for public inspection.

(Decisions on Execution of Duties of Self-Regulatory Committees)

Article 96-17 The board of directors of a specified incorporated commodity exchange must decide on the matters that are specified by order of the competent ministry as necessary for a self-regulatory committee to execute its duties.

(Attendance of Company Auditors)

Article 96-18 A company auditor of a specified incorporated commodity exchange which is a company with a board of company auditors, or an audit and supervisory committee member appointed by the audit and supervisory committee of a specified incorporated commodity exchange which is a company with an audit and supervisory committee, or an audit committee member appointed by the audit committee of a specified incorporated commodity exchange which is a company with a nominating committee, etc. may attend the self-regulatory committee meeting of the specified incorporated commodity exchange and state their opinions, if the audit committee member finds it necessary.

Subsection 3 Major Shareholders

(Authorization)

Article 96-19 (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of the main clause of Article 86, paragraph (1), pursuant to the provisions of the order of the competent minister and by obtaining the authorization of the competent minister, a local government or any other person specified by Cabinet Order (referred to below as the "local government, etc." in this Article, Article 96-28, paragraph (4), and Article 96-31) may acquire or hold a number of subject voting rights that is equal to or greater than the threshold holding ratio, but is not greater than 50 percent of all shareholders' voting rights in an incorporated commodity exchange.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph and the main clause of Article 86, paragraph (1), a local government, etc. that has obtained the authorization referred to in the preceding paragraph may acquire or hold subject voting rights exceeding 50 percent of all shareholders' voting rights in an incorporated commodity exchange, if the number of subject voting rights that it holds does not increase or in any other case specified by order of the competent ministry.

- (3) In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, a local government, etc. that has come to acquire or hold subject voting rights exceeding 50 percent of all shareholders' voting rights in an incorporated commodity exchange (referred to below as a "specified holding entity, etc." in this Article) must notify the competent minister without delay that it has become a specified holding entity, etc., and of any other matters specified by order of the competent ministry.
- (4) In the case referred to in paragraph (2), a specified holding entity, etc. must take the necessary measures to become the holder of a number of subject voting rights that constitutes 50 percent or less of all shareholders' voting rights in an incorporated commodity exchange, within three months from the day on which it has become a specified holding entity, etc.
- (5) When a specified holding entity, etc. has become a holder of a number of subject voting rights that constitutes 50 percent or less of all shareholders' voting rights in an incorporated commodity exchange pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, it must notify the competent minister of this without delay.
- (6) The provisions of Article 3, paragraph (2) and paragraph (3) apply mutatis mutandis to the authorization referred to in paragraph (1).

(Criteria for Authorization)

Article 96-20 (1) When an application is filed for the authorization referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article, the competent minister must examine whether the application conforms to the criteria listed in the following items:

- (i) the exercise of the subject voting rights by an applicant for authorization is not likely to impair the sound and appropriate operation of the business of the incorporated commodity exchange; and
 - (ii) the applicant for authorization has a sufficient understanding of the public nature of the business of a commodity exchange.
- (2) If the competent minister finds that the application conforms to the criteria referred to in the preceding paragraph as a result of having conducted an examination pursuant to the provisions of the paragraph, the minister must grant the authorization, except in a case that falls under one of the following items:
- (i) the applicant for authorization is a person falling under any of the following persons:
 - (a) a person specified by order of the competent ministry as a person who is incapable of exercising the right of shareholders properly due to mental or physical disorder;

- (b) a person who falls under any the persons referred to in Article 15, paragraph (2), item (i), sub-items (b) through (j);
- (c) a minor that does not have the same capacity to act as an adult in business whose legal representative falls under any of the persons referred to in sub-item (a), (b), or (d);
- (d) a corporation whose officers include a person who falls under any of the persons referred to in sub-items (a) through (c);
- (ii) the written application or documents that are required to be attached to the written application include a false statement about a material particular.

(Collection of Reports and On-Site Inspections)

Article 96-21 (1) The competent minister may order the major shareholder of an incorporated commodity exchange (meaning a person that has obtained the authorization referred to in Article 96-19, paragraph (1); the same applies below in this Subsection) to submit reports or materials that should serve as a reference on the business or property of the incorporated commodity exchange, or may have ministry employees enter the office or business office of the major shareholder and inspect their books and documents or any other articles (limited to inspection necessary in relation to the business or property of the incorporated commodity exchange) when the minister finds it necessary to do so for the enforcement of this Act.

- (2) The provisions of the preceding paragraph apply mutatis mutandis to a financial instruments exchange or financial instruments exchange holding company that holds a number of subject voting rights in an incorporated commodity exchange which is equal to or greater than the threshold holding ratio but is not greater than 50 percent.
- (3) The provisions of Article 86-3, paragraphs (2) and (3) apply mutatis mutandis to an on-site inspection under the provisions of paragraph (1) (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the preceding paragraph).

(Supervisory Dispositions)

Article 96-22 (1) If the major shareholder of an incorporated commodity exchange violates this Act, etc., or if the competent minister finds that the act of a major shareholder is likely to impair the sound and appropriate operation of the business of an incorporated commodity exchange, the minister may revoke the authorization referred to in Article 96-19, paragraph (1) granted to the major shareholder, or may order other measures necessary for supervision to be taken against the major shareholder.

- (2) A person whose authorization referred to in Article 96-19, paragraph (1) has been revoked pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph must take the necessary measures to become the holder of a number of subject voting rights in an incorporated commodity exchange which is less than the threshold holding ratio, within three months from the date that the authorization is revoked.

- (3) The competent minister may ask a witness to appear and hear their opinion or ask a witness to submit an opinion or report, or ask an expert witness to appear and have them give an expert opinion if the minister finds it necessary to do so when the minister seeks to make the disposition pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1).
- (4) The proceedings taking place on the date for a hearing on the revocation of authorization under the provisions of paragraph (1) must be opened to the public; provided, however, that this does not apply if the competent minister finds it necessary to keep necessary in order to maintain the confidential information related to the business of the person that is to become subject to the disposition, or finds it necessary in the public interest.
- (5) The provisions of paragraph (1) apply mutatis mutandis to a commodity exchange, commodity exchange holding company, financial instruments exchange, or financial instruments exchange holding company that holds a number of subject voting rights in an incorporated commodity exchange that is equal to or greater than the threshold holding ratio, but is not greater than 50 percent; and the provisions of paragraph (3) apply mutatis mutandis to the disposition pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this paragraph.

(Expiration of Authorization)

- Article 96-23 (1) If the major shareholder of an incorporated commodity exchange comes to fall under one of the following items, the authorization referred to in Article 96-19, paragraph (1) ceases to be effective:
- (i) the major shareholder has failed to become a holder of a number of subject voting rights that is equal to or greater than the threshold holding ratio within six months from the date on which they obtain authorization;
 - (ii) the major shareholder has become the holder of a number of subject voting rights that is less than the threshold holding ratio; or
 - (iii) the major shareholder has become a commodity exchange, commodity exchange holding company, financial instruments exchange, or financial instruments exchange holding company.
- (2) If an authorization ceases to be effective pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph (in the case under item (iii) of that paragraph, this is limited to when the major shareholder becomes a financial instruments exchange or financial instruments exchange holding company), the person that was formerly a major shareholder must notify the competent minister of this without delay.

(Application, Mutatis Mutandis of Provisions on Subject Voting Rights)

Article 96-24 The provisions of Article 86, paragraph (5) apply mutatis mutandis when the provisions of Article 96-19, paragraphs (1) through (5), Article 96-20, paragraph (1), Article 96-21, paragraph (2), Article 96-22, paragraph (2) and paragraph (5), and paragraph (1) of the preceding Article are applicable.

Subsection 4 Commodity Exchange Holding Companies

(Authorization)

Article 96-25 (1) A person seeking to have an incorporated commodity exchange as their subsidiary company, or a person seeking to incorporate a company that is to have an incorporated commodity exchange as their subsidiary company, must obtain the authorization of the competent minister in advance; provided, however, that this does not apply if a commodity exchange, financial instruments exchange, or financial instruments exchange holding company is to have an incorporated commodity exchange as its subsidiary company.

(2) If the number of subject voting rights that a person holds does not increase or in any other case specified by order of the competent ministry, the provisions of the preceding paragraph do not apply if the person is to have an incorporated commodity exchange become its subsidiary company.

(3) In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, a company that comes to have an incorporated commodity exchange as its subsidiary company (referred to below as a "specified holding company" in this Article) must take necessary measures for it to cease to be a company that has an incorporated commodity exchange as its subsidiary company, within three months from the day on which it becomes a specified holding company; provided, however, that this does not apply if the specified holding company obtains the authorization of the competent minister as a company that has an incorporated commodity exchange as its subsidiary company.

(4) The provisions of Article 96-19, paragraphs (3) and (5) apply mutatis mutandis to a specified holding company. In this case, the term "the preceding paragraph" in paragraph (3) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "Article 96-25, paragraph (2)"; the term "the preceding paragraph" in paragraph (5) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "Article 96-25, paragraph (3)"; and the phrase "becomes the holder of a number of subject voting rights that constitutes 50 percent or less of all shareholders' voting rights in an incorporated commodity exchange" in that paragraph is deemed to be replaced with "ceases to be a company that has an incorporated commodity exchange as its subsidiary company".

(5) The provisions of Article 3, paragraphs (2) and (3) apply mutatis mutandis to the authorization referred to in paragraph (1) and the proviso to paragraph (3).

(Application for Authorization)

Article 96-26 (1) A person seeking the authorization referred to in paragraph (1) or the proviso to paragraph (3) of the preceding Article must submit a written application for authorization stating the following matters to the competent minister:

- (i) the trade name;
 - (ii) the amount of stated capital;
 - (iii) the location of the head office, branch offices, and other business offices; and
 - (iv) the names and addresses of the officers.
- (2) The articles of incorporation and the documents specified by order of the competent ministry must be attached to the written application referred to in the preceding paragraph.
- (3) In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, if the articles of incorporation have been prepared in the form of an electronic or magnetic record, electronic or magnetic records may be attached to the written application in place of documents.

(Examination Criteria for Authorization)

Article 96-27 (1) When an application is filed for the authorization pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) of the preceding Article, the competent minister must examine whether the application conforms to the following criteria:

- (i) the applicant for authorization or the company to be incorporated with the authorization (referred to below as an "applicant, etc. for authorization" in this Article) is a person whose sole purpose is to have an incorporated commodity exchange, an incorporated commodity exchange and a commodity exchange affiliated company (meaning a company engaging in business incidental to the operation of a commodity market; a company engaging in business that is connected to the business of operating a commodity market and business incidental to it; a company engaging in the business of opening a market for trading carbon dioxide equivalent quotas and business incidental to it; a company engaging in the business of opening a financial instruments exchange market and business incidental to it; a company engaging in business that is connected to the business of opening a financial instruments exchange market and business incidental to it; the same applies in Article 96-36) as its subsidiary company;
- (ii) the applicant, etc. for authorization and the incorporated commodity exchange that is to become its subsidiary company have good prospects in terms of expected income and expenditure;

- (iii) in light of its personnel structure, the applicant, etc. for authorization has the knowledge and experience to conduct business management of the incorporated commodity exchange that is to become its subsidiary company in an appropriate and fair manner; and
 - (iv) the applicant for authorization has sufficient social credibility.
- (2) If, as a result of having conducted an examination pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the competent minister finds that the application conforms to the criteria referred to in that paragraph, the minister must grant the authorization, except in a case that falls under one of the following items:
- (i) the applicant, etc. for authorization is not a stock company (meaning a stock company with the following organizations):
 - (a) a board of directors;
 - (b) a company auditor, audit and supervisory committee, or nominating committee, etc.;
 - (ii) the applicant for authorization is a person that has been sentenced to a fine (including an equivalent sentence under foreign laws and regulations) pursuant to the provisions of this Act or pursuant to a foreign law or regulation that is equivalent to this Act, and for whom five years have not passed since the day on which the person finished serving the sentence or ceased to be subject to the sentence;
 - (iii) the applicant for authorization is a person that has had their authorization revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 96-22, paragraph (1), Article 96-34, paragraph (1), or Article 96-40, paragraph (1), has had their permission revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 159, paragraph (1) or paragraph (2), Article 186, paragraph (1) or paragraph (2), Article 235, paragraph (3), Article 236, paragraph (1), or Article 340, paragraph (1) (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 345), or has had their registration revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 240-23, paragraph (1), and for whom five years have not passed since the date of the revocation, or is a person that had obtained the same kind of authorization, permission, or registration in a foreign state pursuant to the provisions of a foreign law or regulation that is equivalent to this Act (including a license or other administrative disposition similar to the authorization, permission, or registration) and has had the authorization, permission, or registration revoked, and for whom five years have not passed since the date of the revocation;
 - (iv) the applicant, etc. for authorization has a person falling under one of the persons referred to in Article 15, paragraph (2), item (i), sub-items (a) through (k) as an officer; or
 - (v) the written application for authorization or documents that are required to be attached to the written application or an electronic or magnetic record includes a false statement or false record about a material particular.

(Limitation on Holding of Voting Rights)

- Article 96-28 (1) It is prohibited for any person to acquire or hold a number of subject voting rights that constitute twenty percent or more (or fifteen percent or more, if there is a fact that is specified by order of the competent ministry as a fact that is presumed to have a material influence on decisions about financial and operational policies; referred to below as "threshold holding ratio" in this Subsection (excluding Article 96-40, paragraph (4))) of all shareholders' voting rights in a commodity exchange holding company; provided, however, that this does not apply if a commodity exchange or a financial instruments exchange acquires or holds the subject voting rights.
- (2) If the number of subject voting rights that a person holds does not increase or in any other case specified by order of the competent ministry, the provisions of the main clause of the preceding paragraph do not apply to the person that is to acquire or hold a number of subject voting rights in a commodity exchange holding company which is equal to or greater than the threshold holding ratio of all shareholders' voting rights.
- (3) In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, a person that has come to acquire or hold a number of subject voting rights in a commodity exchange holding company that is equal to or greater than the threshold holding ratio of all shareholders' voting rights (referred to below as a "specified holder" in this Article) must notify the competent minister without delay that the person has become a specified holder and of other matters specified by order of the competent ministry.
- (4) In the case referred to in paragraph (2), a specified holder must take necessary measures to become the holder of a number of subject voting rights in a commodity exchange holding company which is less than the threshold holding ratio within three months from the day on which that person has become a specified holder; provided, however, that this does not apply if the specified holder is a local government, etc. and the local government, etc. obtains the authorization referred to in Article 96-31, paragraph (1).
- (5) The necessary matters for the application of the provisions of the preceding paragraphs are specified by Cabinet Order.

(Submission of Notifications of Holding Subject Voting Rights)

Article 96-29 A person that has become a holder of subject voting rights exceeding five percent of all shareholders' voting rights in a commodity exchange holding company (referred to below as "holder of subject voting rights" in this Article) must submit a notification of holding subject voting rights to the competent minister, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry and without delay, in which the subject voting rights holding rate (meaning the rate obtained by dividing the number of subject voting rights held by the holder of subject voting rights by the number representing all shareholders' voting rights in the commodity exchange holding company), the purpose of the holding, and other matters specified by order of the competent ministry are stated.

(Collection of Reports from and On-Site Inspections of Persons Submitting Notifications of Holding Subject Voting Rights)

- Article 96-30 (1) The competent minister may order the person submitting a notification of holding subject voting rights referred to in the preceding Article to submit reports or materials that should serve as a reference on their business or property, or may have ministry employees enter the person's office or business office and inspect their books and documents or any other article (limited to inspection necessary in relation to the statements in the notification of holding subject voting rights) when the minister finds it necessary to do so for the enforcement of this Act.
- (2) The provisions of Article 86-3, paragraphs (2) and (3) apply mutatis mutandis to an on-site inspection referred to in the preceding paragraph.

(Authorization Related to Major Shareholders)

- Article 96-31 (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of the main clause of Article 96-28, paragraph (1), pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry and by obtaining the authorization of the competent minister, a local government, etc. may acquire or hold a number of subject voting rights that is equal to or greater than the threshold holding ratio, but is not greater than 50 percent of all shareholders' voting rights in a commodity exchange holding company.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph and the main clause of Article 96-28, paragraph (1), a local government, etc. that has obtained the authorization referred to in the preceding paragraph may acquire or hold subject voting rights exceeding 50 percent of all shareholders' voting rights in a commodity exchange holding company if the number of subject voting rights that it holds does not increase or in any other case specified by order of the competent ministry.
- (3) In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, a local government, etc. that has come to acquire or hold subject voting rights exceeding 50 percent of all shareholders' voting rights in a commodity exchange holding company (referred to below as a "specified holding entity, etc." in this Article) must take necessary measures to become the holder of a number of subject voting rights that constitutes 50 percent or less of all shareholders' voting rights in the commodity exchange holding company, within three months from the day on which it has become a specified holding entity, etc.

- (4) The provisions of Article 96-19, paragraphs (3) and (5) apply mutatis mutandis to a specified holding entity, etc. In this case, the term "the preceding paragraph" in paragraph (3) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "Article 96-31, paragraph (2)" and the term "the preceding paragraph" in paragraph (5) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "Article 96-31, paragraph (3)".
- (5) The provisions of Article 3, paragraphs (2) and (3) apply mutatis mutandis to the authorization referred to in paragraph (1).

(Criteria for Authorization for Major Shareholders)

- Article 96-32 (1) When an application is filed for the authorization referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article, the competent minister must examine whether the application conforms to the following criteria:
- (i) the exercise of the subject voting rights by an applicant for authorization is not likely to impair the sound and appropriate operation of the business of an incorporated commodity exchange that is the subsidiary company of the commodity exchange holding company; and
 - (ii) the applicant for authorization has a sufficient understanding of the public nature of the business of a commodity exchange.
- (2) The provisions of Article 96-20, paragraph (2) apply mutatis mutandis to the authorization referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article. In this case, the term "the preceding paragraph" in Article 96-20, paragraph (2) is deemed to be replaced with "Article 96-32, paragraph (1)".

(Collection of Reports and On-Site Inspections of Major Shareholders)

- Article 96-33 (1) The minister may order the major shareholder of a commodity exchange holding company (meaning a person that has obtained the authorization referred to in Article 96-31, paragraph (1); the same applies in this Subsection below) to submit reports or materials that should serve as a reference on the business or property of the commodity exchange holding company or an incorporated commodity exchange that is its subsidiary company, or may have ministry employees enter the office or business office of the major shareholder and inspect their books and documents or any other articles (limited to inspection necessary in relation to the business or property of the commodity exchange holding company or of an incorporated commodity exchange that is its subsidiary company) when the competent minister finds it necessary to do so for the enforcement of this Act.
- (2) The provisions of the preceding paragraph apply mutatis mutandis to a financial instruments exchange that holds a number of subject voting rights in a commodity exchange holding company that is equal to or greater than the threshold holding ratio, but is not greater than 50 percent.

- (3) The provisions of Article 86-3, paragraphs (2) and (3) apply mutatis mutandis to an on-site inspection under the provisions of paragraph (1) (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the preceding paragraph).

(Supervisory Dispositions for Major Shareholders)

Article 96-34 (1) If a major shareholder of a commodity exchange holding company violates this Act, etc., or if the competent minister finds that the act of a major shareholder is likely to impair the sound and appropriate operation of the business of an incorporated commodity exchange that is the subsidiary company of the commodity exchange holding company, the minister may revoke the authorization referred to in Article 96-31, paragraph (1), or may order other measures necessary for supervision over the major shareholder.

- (2) A person whose authorization referred to in Article 96-31, paragraph (1) has been revoked pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, must take necessary measures to become the holder of a number of subject voting rights in a commodity exchange holding company which is less than the threshold holding ratio, within three months from the date of the revocation of that authorization.

- (3) The provisions of Article 96-22, paragraph (3) apply mutatis mutandis to a disposition pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1), and the provisions of paragraph (4) of that Article apply mutatis mutandis to a hearing on the revocation of authorization pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1).

- (4) The provisions of paragraph (1) apply mutatis mutandis to a commodity exchange or financial instruments exchange that holds a number of subject voting rights in a commodity exchange holding company which is equal to or greater than the threshold holding ratio, but is not greater than 50 percent; the provisions of Article 96-22, paragraph (3) apply mutatis mutandis to the disposition pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this paragraph.

(Expiration of Authorization for Major Shareholders)

Article 96-35 (1) If a major shareholder of a commodity exchange holding company comes to fall under one of the following items, the authorization referred to in Article 96-31, paragraph (1) ceases to be effective:

- (i) a major shareholder has failed to become the holder of a number of subject voting rights that is equal to or greater than the threshold holding ratio within six months from the date of obtaining authorization;
- (ii) a major shareholder has become the holder of a number of subject voting rights that is less than the threshold holding ratio;

- (iii) a major shareholder has become a commodity exchange or a financial instruments exchange
- (2) If authorization ceases to be effective pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph (in the case under item (iii) of that paragraph, this is limited to when the major shareholder becomes a financial instruments exchange), the person that was formerly the major shareholder must notify the competent minister of this without delay.

(Scope of Business)

- Article 96-36 (1) A commodity exchange holding company may not conduct any business other than the business management of an incorporated commodity exchange and of the commodity exchange affiliated companies which are its subsidiary companies and business incidental to those businesses.
- (2) In performing its business a commodity exchange holding company must endeavor to ensure appropriate business management of the incorporated commodity exchange that is its subsidiary company or of the incorporated commodity exchange and commodity exchange affiliated companies that are its subsidiary companies, so as not to impair the confidence in the public nature of the business of the incorporated commodity exchange that is its subsidiary company, and the sound and appropriate operation of its business.

(Scope of Subsidiary Companies)

- Article 96-37 (1) A commodity exchange holding company must not have a company that engages in business other than the business of operating a commodity market and business incidental to it as its subsidiary company; provided, however, that if a commodity exchange holding company obtains the authorization of the competent minister pursuant to order of the competent ministry, the commodity exchange holding company may have as its subsidiary company a company engaging in business that is connected with the business of operating a commodity market and business incidental to it, a company engaging in the business of opening a market for trading carbon dioxide equivalent quotas and business incidental to it, a company engaging in the business of opening a financial instruments exchange market and business incidental to it, or a company engaging in business that is connected with the business of opening a financial instruments exchange market and business incidental to it.
- (2) The provisions of Article 3, paragraphs (2) through (4) apply mutatis mutandis to the authorization referred to in the proviso to the preceding paragraph. In this case, the phrase "the applicant's engagement in business which the application concerns" in paragraph (4) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "the applicant having the company which the application concerns as its subsidiary company", and the phrase "business of operating a commodity market" in that paragraph is deemed to be replaced with "business of operating a commodity market of a commodity exchange".

(Revocation of Authorization)

Article 96-38 If a commodity exchange holding company is discovered to have fallen under one of the items of Article 96-27, paragraph (2) at the time it obtained the authorization referred to in Article 96-25, paragraph (1) or in the proviso to paragraph (3), the competent minister may revoke its authorization.

(Collection of Reports and On-Site Inspections)

Article 96-39 (1) , The competent minister may order a commodity exchange holding company or its subsidiary company to submit reports or materials that should serve as a reference on the business or property of that commodity exchange holding company, or may have ministry employees enter the office or business office of a commodity exchange holding company or its subsidiary company and inspect its books and documents or any other articles (for its subsidiary company, limited to inspection necessary in connection with the business or property of the commodity exchange holding company) when the minister finds it necessary to do so for the enforcement of this Act.

(2) The provisions of Article 86-3, paragraphs (2) and (3) apply mutatis mutandis to an on-site inspection under the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

(Supervisory Dispositions)

Article 96-40 (1) If a commodity exchange holding company violates this Act, etc., and if the competent minister finds that the act of a commodity exchange holding company is likely to impair the sound and appropriate operation of the business of an incorporated commodity exchange which is its subsidiary company, or if a commodity exchange holding company fails to take the necessary measures to correct the act of its subsidiary company despite being likely that such an act will impair the sound operation of the business of an incorporated commodity exchange which is a subsidiary company of that commodity exchange holding company, the competent minister may revoke the authorization granted to the commodity exchange holding company under Article 96-25, paragraph (1), the proviso to Article 96-25, paragraph (3), or the proviso to Article 96-37, paragraph (1), or may order other measures necessary for supervision over the commodity exchange holding company.

(2) If an officer of a commodity exchange holding company violates this Act, etc., the competent minister may order the commodity exchange holding company to dismiss that officer.

(3) A commodity exchange holding company that has had the authorization referred to in Article 96-25, paragraph (1) or the proviso to paragraph (3) of that Article revoked pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) must promptly take the necessary measures for it to cease to be a company that has an incorporated commodity exchange as its subsidiary company.

- (4) If the measures referred to in the preceding paragraph are taken but the person that has taken those measures remains the holder of a number of subject voting rights in an incorporated commodity exchange which is equal to or greater than the threshold holding ratio, the date on which the person ceases to be a company that has the incorporated commodity exchange as its subsidiary company is deemed to be the date on which the person becomes a specified holder referred to in Article 86, paragraph (4), and the provisions of that paragraph apply.
- (5) The provisions of Article 96-22, paragraph (3) apply mutatis mutandis to a disposition pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) or (2), and the provisions of paragraph (4) of that Article apply mutatis mutandis to a hearing regarding the rescission of authorization or an order to dismiss an officer pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) or (2).

(Expiration of Authorization)

Article 96-41 (1) If a commodity exchange holding company comes to fall under one of the following items, the authorization referred to in Article 96-25, paragraph (1) or in the proviso to paragraph (3) of that Article ceases to be effective:

- (i) the company ceases to be a company that has an incorporated commodity exchange as its subsidiary company (excluding cases that are specified by order of the competent ministry in consideration of the manner in which the voting rights in the incorporated commodity exchange are acquired or held, or of any other circumstances);
 - (ii) the company is dissolved
 - (iii) a judgment invalidating its incorporation, merger (but only if the company to be incorporated in the merger is a commodity exchange holding company), or incorporation-type company split (but only if the company incorporated in the incorporation-type company split is a commodity exchange holding company) becomes final and binding; or
 - (iv) the company fails to become a company that has an incorporated commodity exchange as its subsidiary company within six months from the date on which it has obtained authorization.
- (2) If an authorization ceases to be effective pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the person that was the commodity exchange holding company must notify the competent minister of this without delay.

(Application, Mutatis Mutandis of Provisions on Subject Voting Rights)

Article 96-42 The provisions of Article 86, paragraph (5) apply mutatis mutandis when Article 96-25, paragraph (2), Article 96-19, paragraph (3) and paragraph (5) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to paragraph (4) of that Article, Article 96-28, paragraphs (1) through (4), Article 96-29, Article 96-31, paragraphs (1) through (3), Article 96-19, paragraph (3) and paragraph (5) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to paragraph (4) of that Article, Article 96-32, paragraph (1), Article 96-33, paragraph (2), Article 96-34, paragraph (2) and paragraph (4), Article 96-35, paragraph (1), and Article 96-40, paragraph (4) are applicable.

(Application, Mutatis Mutandis of Provisions on Supervisory Dispositions)

Article 96-43 The provisions of Article 96-36, paragraph (2) and Article 96-40, paragraph (1) apply mutatis mutandis to a commodity exchange that has an incorporated commodity exchange as its subsidiary company or to a commodity exchange that has a commodity exchange holding company as its subsidiary company; the provisions of Article 96-36, paragraph (2), Article 96-39, and Article 96-40, paragraph (1) apply mutatis mutandis to a financial instruments exchange or financial instruments exchange holding company that has an incorporated commodity exchange as its subsidiary company or to a financial instruments exchange that has a commodity exchange holding company as its subsidiary company; the provisions of Article 96-22, paragraph (3) apply mutatis mutandis to a disposition pursuant to the provisions of Article 96-40, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this Article.

Section 4 Transactions in Commodity Markets

(Trading Qualification)

- Article 97 (1) Transactions in a commodity market operated by a member commodity exchange may only be conducted by a member of that member commodity exchange.
- (2) Transactions in a commodity market operated by an incorporated commodity exchange may only be conducted by a trading participant of that commodity market.
- (3) The provisions of the preceding two paragraphs do not apply if a person conducts a commodity clearing transaction with which the person is entrusted by the member referred to in paragraph (1) or the trading participant referred to in the preceding paragraph.

(Trading Qualification in Respect of Agreements on Intermarket Linkage)

Article 98 (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding Article, a commodity exchange, pursuant to the provisions of its articles of incorporation (or the operational rules, if it is an incorporated commodity exchange; the same applies in paragraph (1) of the following Article, Article 100, Article 101, paragraph (1), Article 109, paragraph (1), Article 113, paragraph (1) (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 114), and Article 114), may grant the member, etc. of another commodity exchange (including a facility in a foreign state equivalent to a commodity exchange; the same applies in the following paragraph) with which the commodity exchange has entered into an agreement on intermarket linkage, qualification for conducting transactions in a commodity market of that commodity exchange, within the scope of conducting transactions to complete the settlement of transactions based on the agreement on intermarket linkage.

- (2) An agreement on intermarket linkage prescribed in the preceding paragraph means an agreement under which a commodity exchange and another commodity exchange mutually acknowledge that the members, etc. of another commodity exchange or the members, etc. of the commodity exchange may conduct transactions in the commodity market of the commodity exchange or in the commodity market of another commodity exchange for completing the settlement for transactions for which settlement has not been completed in the commodity market (including a market in a foreign state equivalent to a commodity market; the same applies below in this paragraph) of another commodity exchange or for which settlement has not been completed in the commodity market of the commodity exchange.
- (3) A person granted trading qualification by a commodity exchange pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) is deemed to be a member, etc., within the scope of purpose prescribed in that paragraph, with regard to the application of the provisions of Article 101, paragraphs (1) through (4), Article 103, Article 104, paragraphs (3) and (4), Article 108, paragraph (1), Articles 113 through 115, Article 118, Article 157, Article 159, paragraph (1), Article 160, paragraph (1), Article 165, Article 179, and Article 188. In this case, the term "withdraws from" in Article 113, paragraph (1) (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 114 and Article 188) is deemed to be replaced with "forfeits the qualification for conducting transactions in" and the term "expel that member" in Article 160, paragraph (1) and Article 165 is deemed to be replaced with "revoke the member's qualification that enables them to trade".

(Amount of Net Assets of Members)

- Article 99 (1) A commodity exchange must specify the minimum amount of net assets of a member, etc. trading in that commodity market for each commodity market in its articles of incorporation, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry; provided, however, that this does not apply if settlement is made by the method stated in Article 105, item (ii) or (iii) in that commodity market.

- (2) In deciding the minimum amount of net assets of a member, etc. pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, a commodity exchange must ensure that the minimum amount of net assets of a member, etc. trading in two or more commodity markets or in the commodity market of another commodity exchange is higher than the minimum amount of net assets of other members, etc.
- (3) If the net assets of a member, etc. fall below the minimum amount under the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs, the commodity exchange must suspend the member's transactions in the commodity market and report this to the competent minister without delay.
- (4) In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, if the net assets of the member, etc. reach or exceed the minimum amount under the provisions of paragraph (1) or (2) within six months from the day of the suspension of the member's transactions in the commodity market, the commodity exchange must cancel the suspension of transactions pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph and report this to the competent minister without delay.
- (5) In the case referred to in paragraph (3), if the net assets of the member or trading participant does not reach the minimum amount under the provisions of paragraph (1) or (2) within the period prescribed in the preceding paragraph, the commodity exchange must expel the member or revoke the trading participant's trading qualification without delay.
- (6) If a commodity exchange suspends transactions pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (3), or expels a member or revokes a trading participant's trading qualification pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the commodity exchange must notify that person to that effect without delay, indicating the reason for this.
- (7) The amount of net assets referred to in paragraphs (1) through (5) must be an amount arrived at by deducting the total amount of debts from the total amount of assets, and must be calculated pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.

(Number of Members)

Article 100 For each commodity market, a commodity exchange may set a maximum number of members, etc. that trade in that commodity market, or of members, etc. that are entrusted to trade in that commodity market, by specifying the number in its articles of incorporation.

(Guarantee Funds)

Article 101 (1) A member, etc. must deposit guarantee funds with the commodity exchange for each commodity market in which the member, etc. trades, pursuant to the provisions of the articles of incorporation.

- (2) A member, etc. must not trade in a commodity market until they have deposited the guarantee funds referred to in the preceding paragraph.
- (3) Securities (meaning national government bond certificates, local government bond certificates, bond certificates issued by a corporation pursuant to special laws, corporate bond certificates and share certificates purchased and sold in a financial instruments exchange market, and other securities specified by Cabinet Order) may be used as guarantee funds.
- (4) The allocation price of the securities referred to in the preceding paragraph must not exceed the price calculated pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry in consideration of the market price.
- (5) A person that requests a member, etc. that is a commodity derivatives broker with transactions in a commodity market (referred to as the "transaction requesting party" in the following paragraph and Article 108, paragraph (2)) has the right to receive payment from the guarantee funds of the member, etc. of that commodity market for a claim arising from that request, in preference over other creditors.
- (6) If rights to receive preferential payment as referred to in the preceding paragraph conflict with each other, the right of a transaction requesting party that is not a member, etc. takes precedence over the right of a transaction requesting party that is a member, etc.
- (7) A commodity exchange must not offset a claim held by a member, etc. that it has acquired by performing business of assuming commodity transaction debts against its obligations to that member, etc. related to guarantee funds.

(Operational Rules)

Article 102 (1) A commodity exchange must establish detailed regulations on the following matters (excluding the matters stated in items (i) through (iii) and item (v) for a member commodity exchange) in connection with the commodity markets it operates, for each of its commodity markets, in its operational rules:

- (i) the matters concerning its trading participants;
- (ii) the matters concerning guarantee funds;
- (iii) the matters concerning clearing margins;
- (iv) the goods or electric power which are commodities, commodity indices, or options (including spot options and specified swap options) underlying the transactions in the commodity market;
- (v) the types of transaction for each listed commodity or listed commodity index;
- (vi) the transaction period;
- (vii) the start and end of a transaction;

- (viii) the suspension of a transaction;
 - (ix) the matters concerning the conclusion of transaction contracts and of its restrictions;
 - (x) delivery and other methods of settlement; and
 - (xi) in addition to the matters stated in the preceding items, necessary matters concerning trading.
- (2) With regard to the matters stated in item (ix) of the preceding paragraph, a commodity exchange must specify that measures may be taken to limit fluctuations in the quotations or the volume of transactions for which settlement has not been completed.
- (3) In addition to the matters stated in the item of paragraph (1), if the term of existence as an incorporated commodity exchange, the time limit for opening of a commodity market, or the term for a change of scope (meaning the period during which the scope of a listed commodity or a listed commodity index of a commodity market (excluding a fixed-term commodity market prescribed in Article 156, paragraph (5), item (ii)) is changed (excluding discontinuation or narrowing of the scope; the same applies in that Article); the same applies below in this paragraph and that Article) of a commodity market has been decided, that term of existence, time limit for opening, or term for a change of scope is to be stated or recorded in the operational rules of an incorporated commodity exchange.

(Clearing Margin)

- Article 103 (1) A commodity exchange must receive a deposit of clearing margin from the person prescribed in each of the following items in accordance with the category stated in that item, in connection with transactions in a commodity market (limited to transactions in a commodity market for which settlement is made by the method stated in Article 105, item (i), and excluding those stated in Article 2, paragraph (10), item (i), (d); the same applies below in this Article) pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry:
- (i) if a member, etc. conducts a transaction in a commodity market on their own account, or conducts a transaction in a commodity market with which they have been entrusted (limited to transactions with which they have been entrusted after receiving a deposit of customer margin based on the provisions of the following paragraph): the member, etc.;
 - (ii) if a member, etc. conducts a transaction in a commodity market with which they have been entrusted (excluding a transaction with which they have been entrusted by a person that has entrusted the brokerage of the request (referred to below as a "broker" in this Article)) (excluding the case stated in the preceding item): the person entrusting the member, etc. with that transaction (meaning the person that requests the member, etc. with the - transaction in the commodity market, who is not a broker; the same applies in the following paragraph);

- (iii) if a member, etc. conducts a transaction in a commodity market with which they have been entrusted (limited to one with which they have been entrusted by a broker that has received a deposit of brokerage margin based on the provisions of paragraph (3)) (excluding the case stated in item (i)): the broker; or
 - (iv) if a member, etc. conducts a transaction in a commodity market with which they have been entrusted (limited to a transaction with which they have been entrusted by a broker) (excluding the case stated in item (i) and the preceding item): the person that entrusted the brokerage of a request of that transaction (referred to below as the "brokerage requesting party" in this Article).
- (2) In becoming entrusted with a transaction in a commodity market, a member, etc. may have the requesting party or the broker (or the brokerage requesting party, if the transaction is one with which the member, etc. has been entrusted by a broker that has not received deposit of the brokerage margin based on the provisions of the following paragraph from the brokerage requesting party) deposit a customer margin with the member, etc. by obtaining the consent of that person, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.
 - (3) In becoming entrusted with brokerage of a request of a transaction in a commodity market, a broker may have the brokerage requesting party deposit brokerage margin with the broker, with the consent of that person, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.
 - (4) A commodity exchange must manage the clearing margin deposited based on the provisions of paragraph (1), pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.
 - (5) The securities prescribed in Article 101, paragraph (3) or a warehouse receipt certifying retention of a listed commodity that is listed on a commodity market and that can be made the subject of delivery in order to settle a transaction in a commodity market operated by the commodity exchange or by another commodity exchange may be used as the clearing margin referred to in paragraph (1), the requesting party margin referred to in paragraph (2), or the brokerage margin referred to in paragraph (3).
 - (6) The provisions of Article 101, paragraph (4) apply mutatis mutandis to the allocation price of the securities or warehouse receipt referred to in the preceding paragraph.
 - (7) In the case referred to in paragraph (2) or (3), the member, etc. referred to in paragraph (2) or the broker referred to in paragraph (3) (referred to below as the "member, etc. or broker" in this paragraph and paragraph (10)), with the approval of the competent minister and pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry, may enter into a contract with a bank or other financial institution specified by order of the competent ministry (referred to below as a "bank, etc.") to have an amount corresponding to the required clearing margin deposited with a commodity exchange on their behalf as instructed by the commodity exchange, and notify the commodity exchange of this.

- (8) In the case referred to in paragraph (1), item (i) (limited to one in which a member, etc. conducts a transaction in a commodity market on their own account) or in the case referred to in item (ii) or (iv) of that paragraph, the member, etc. prescribed in item (i) of that paragraph, the requesting party of the transaction on the commodity market prescribed in item (ii) of that paragraph, or the brokerage requesting party prescribed in item (iv) of that paragraph (referred to below as a "member, etc., requesting party of the transaction, or brokerage requesting party" in this Article), pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry, may enter into a contract with a bank, etc. to have an amount corresponding to the required clearing margin deposited with the commodity exchange for a bank, etc. and the member, etc., a requesting party or brokerage requesting party of the transaction as instructed by the commodity exchange, and notify the commodity exchange of this.
- (9) In the cases referred to in the preceding two paragraphs, the commodity exchange may grant a grace period for the deposit of the whole or a part of the clearing margin corresponding to the amount of money to be deposited with the commodity exchange under the contract, but only as long as the contract remains in effect.
- (10) A commodity exchange must instruct a bank, etc. that has enter into a contract referred to in paragraph (7) with a member, etc. or broker, or instruct that member, etc. or broker to deposit an amount of money with the commodity exchange that corresponds to the required clearing margin or the clearing margin for which it has granted a grace period pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph if it finds it necessary to do so for ensuring the fairness of transactions in a commodity market or for the protection of requesting parties.
- (11) A commodity exchange must instruct a member, etc., a bank, etc. that has entered into a contract referred to in paragraph (8) with the requesting party or brokerage requesting party, or the member, etc., a requesting party or a brokerage requesting party of a transaction, or a person that entrusts brokerage to deposit an amount of money with the commodity exchange that corresponds to the required clearing margin or the clearing margin for which it has granted a grace period pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (9) if it finds it necessary to do so for ensuring the fairness of transactions in a commodity market.

(Grading of Listed Commodities)

Article 104 (1) The method of grading, the grade table, and other matters concerning the grading of a listed commodity must be specified by the operational rules.

(2) In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, if a national standard has been set for the grading of a listed commodity for transactions in a commodity market, the commodity exchange must comply with that standard.

(3) A member, etc. must comply with the grading conducted by a commodity exchange pursuant to the provisions of the operational rules.

(4) If it is necessary to appoint a grader, a commodity exchange must appoint the grader from among persons other than the members, etc. of the commodity exchange.

(5) The grader referred to in the preceding paragraph must be an employee of the commodity exchange; provided, however, that this does not apply if the approval of the competent minister has been obtained.

(Settlement of Transactions)

Article 105 Settlement of transactions in commodity markets must be made for each commodity market, by one of the methods stated in the following items, pursuant to the provisions of the articles of incorporation:

(i) through the commodity exchange;

(ii) by a commodity exchange assuming the obligations arising from transactions in a commodity market that it operates, with the approval referred to in Article 173, paragraph (1); or

(iii) by a commodity clearing organization assuming the obligations arising from transactions in a commodity market (other than the method stated in the preceding item).

(Prohibition to Defer Settlement of Transactions)

Article 106 Transactions in a commodity market must not be settled by deferring the performance period, unless this is caused by a delay in grading by the commodity exchange or other causes attributable to the commodity exchange (including a commodity clearing organization that performs business of assuming commodity transaction debts for the commodity market, for a commodity market in which settlement is made by the method stated in item (iii) of the preceding Article).

(Notification of Irregular Start of Trading)

Article 107 When a commodity exchange has conducted transactions for the first time after the day on which it became possible to open a commodity market, or if it has irregularly opened, closed, or suspended trading, or cancelled a suspension, the commodity exchange must notify the competent minister to that effect without delay, for each commodity market.

(Damages Caused by Default)

- Article 108 (1) If a member, etc. (limited to a member, etc. that is a clearing participant, if settlement is to be made by the method stated in Article 105, item (ii) or (iii); the same applies below in this Article) causes damage to another member, etc. or a commodity clearing organization as a result of defaulting on an obligation arising from a transaction in a commodity market, the member, etc. or commodity clearing organization that incurred the damages has the right to receive payment out of the guarantee funds for the commodity market related to the transactions by the member, etc. that has caused the damage, and out of the clearing margin for those transactions (limited to the margin for transactions conducted on the member's, etc. own account), in preference over other creditors.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the right of a transaction requesting party to receive preferential payment pursuant to the provisions of Article 101, paragraph (5) takes precedence over the right of a member, etc. or commodity clearing organization concerning the guarantee funds referred to in that paragraph.

(Special Deposits)

- Article 109 (1) If settlement is to be made by the method stated in Article 105, item (i), a commodity exchange may have a member, etc. deposit a special deposit for each commodity market on which the member, etc. trades, pursuant to the provisions of the articles of incorporation.
- (2) A member, etc. has the right to receive payment for a claim based on a party's default on an obligation arising from a transaction in a commodity market, out of the guarantee funds or clearing margin prescribed in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article pursuant to the provisions of the that paragraph, and if this amount is still insufficient, the member, etc. has the right to receive payment in preference over other creditors out of the special deposit of the member, etc. that is the other party to the transaction for that commodity market
- (3) If a member, etc. receives payment out of a special deposit pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, and the amount is still insufficient, the member, etc. has the right to receive payment out of special deposit of the other member, etc. for that commodity market, in preference over other creditors and in accordance with the amount of their special deposit; provided, however, that this is limited to the amount that remains after deducting from the shortfall the amount obtained by multiplying the shortfall by the percentage of the amount of the member's, etc. special deposit for the commodity market to the total amount of special deposits for that commodity market of a member's, etc. other than the member, etc. that was the counterparty to the transactions prescribed in the preceding paragraph.

- (4) If a payment under the preceding paragraph has been made, the other members, etc. prescribed in that paragraph have the right to claim reimbursement from the member, etc. that was the counterparty to the transactions prescribed in paragraph (2).

(Method of Managing Guarantee Funds)

Article 110 A commodity exchange may not manage funds that have been deposited as guarantee funds or special deposits, other than through holding national government bonds or any other method specified by order of the competent ministry.

(Disclosure of Total Transaction Volume)

Article 111 A commodity exchange must promptly notify its members, etc. of and also disclose the following matters concerning a commodity market it operates, pursuant to order of the competent ministry:

- (i) the daily total transaction volume; and
- (ii) the amount of consideration for which a transaction is closed, or the contract price or agreed figure (referred to below as the "contract price, etc.") which is specified by order of the competent ministry.

(Reporting of Quotations and Transaction Volume)

Article 112 A commodity exchange must report the following matters concerning a commodity market it operates to the competent minister, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry:

- (i) the daily and monthly quotations, transaction volumes, and other matters specified by order of the competent ministry;
- (ii) if the daily volume of transactions conducted by a single member, etc. on their own account for which settlement has not been completed exceeds the volume that is specified by order of the competent ministry for each commodity market, or if the status of transactions in a commodity market satisfies the requirement specified by order of the competent ministry, the name of the member, etc., the relevant volume, and other matters specified by order of the competent ministry.

(Completing Settlement for Transactions Conducted Before Withdrawal or Forfeiture of Trading Qualification)

trading participant forfeits trading qualification in an incorporated commodity exchange, and the member or trading participant has not completed settlement for a transaction in a commodity market, the commodity exchange must have that person or the person that succeeds to the rights and obligations related to the transactions that have not been settled (referred to below as the "successor" in this Article) or another member, etc. (limited to another member, etc. who is able to trade in the relevant commodity market; the same applies below in this Article) complete settlement for the transactions, pursuant to the provisions of the articles of incorporation, unless there is a person that succeeds to those rights and obligations pursuant to the provisions of Article 37, paragraph (1) or (2), Article 40, or Article 83.

(2) In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, the person or their successor (other than a successor that is a member or trading participant) is deemed to be a member or trading participant, to the extent required to complete the settlement of those transactions.

(3) If a commodity exchange has another member, etc. complete settlement of the transactions pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1), a entrustment contract is deemed to be established between the person or their successor and that member, etc.

(Completion of Settlement of Transactions in Cases of Suspension of Transactions)

Article 114 The provisions of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis if transactions of a member, etc. in a commodity market are suspended pursuant to the provisions of this Act or the articles of incorporation of the commodity exchange.

(Separate Accountings in the Books and Preservation of Books)

Article 115 A member, etc. must keep their accounting for transactions in a commodity market separate from that for other transactions in their books as well as preserve their books and other documents related to business pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.

(Prohibition of Wash Trading and Accommodation Trading)

Article 116 It is prohibited for any person to perform the following acts:

- (i) to conduct a purchase and sale transaction in a commodity market, without the intention to transfer ownership of the listed commodity (for electric power, the right to be supplied with electric power);
- (ii) to engage in wash trading in a commodity market, or to engage in trading in a commodity market under false pretenses, avoiding the use of one's name;
- (iii) to make an offer for a transaction in a commodity market after colluding with another person in advance to offer to conduct a transaction for oneself at the same time that the person makes an offer that will allow that transaction to be completed for the same amount of consideration or for the same contract price, etc.;

- (iv) to conduct a series of transactions in a commodity market which is likely to mislead people into believing that the transactions in a commodity market are thriving or which is likely to change the quotations on that commodity market, either independently or jointly with another person;
- (v) to request or be requested with one of the acts stated in the preceding items, or to be requested with the brokerage of the request;
- (vi) conducting transactions in a commodity market and making a purchase and sale or other transaction of component products of listed commodities, etc. or other transactions outside the commodity market with the intention of causing quotations on the commodity market to fluctuate;
- (vii) to spread information that quotations on a commodity market will fluctuate due to one's own or another party's market manipulation in relation to transactions in a commodity market; or
- (viii) to conduct transactions in a commodity market and intentionally make a false representation about a material particular or a representation about a material particular that is likely to be misleading.

(Compensatory Liability of Persons That Have Engaged in Wash Trading)

Article 117 (1) A person that has violated the provisions of the preceding Article is liable to compensate for damages that a person conducting a transaction in the commodity market or a person entrusting a person with the transaction, incurs in conducting or entrusting a transaction based on the amount of consideration or contract price, etc. that is formed due to that violation.

(2) A claim for damages under the provisions of the preceding paragraph is extinguished by prescription if it is not exercised within one year from the time the claimant learns that an act in violation of the provisions of the preceding Article has taken place, or within three years from the time the act has taken place.

(Restriction on Transactions by Members)

Article 118 If an excessive volume of transactions are conducted or are likely to be conducted through an act of buying up, selling off, or any other method, or an unfair amount of consideration or contract price, etc. is formed or is likely to be formed on a commodity market, and the competent minister may issue orders on the matters specified in each of the following items to the persons stated in that item when the minister finds it necessary to do so in order to maintain order in the commodity market and to protect the public interest:

- (i) a member, etc.: restrictions on transactions in a commodity market or on becoming entrusted with the transactions;
- (ii) a commodity exchange: to take measures to limit fluctuations in the quotations or volume of transactions for which settlement has not been completed in a commodity market that the commodity exchange operates, to change the amount of clearing margins, or other matters specified by order of the competent ministry as matters for ensuring the fairness of transactions in a commodity market;
- (iii) a commodity clearing organization: to change the amount of clearing margin or other matters specified by order of the competent ministry as matters for ensuring the fairness of transactions in a commodity market.

(Entrustment Contract Regulations)

Article 119 A commodity exchange must establish detailed regulations concerning the following matters in its entrustment contract regulations:

- (i) requirements for becoming entrusted with transactions in a commodity market, etc. (excluding commodity clearing transactions; the same applies in item (iii));
- (ii) delivery and other methods of settlement;
- (iii) necessary matters in becoming entrusted with transactions in a commodity market, etc., other than the matters stated in the preceding two items.

(Resolution of Disputes)

Article 120 (1) When a commodity exchange receives an application for mediation from a member, etc., commodity derivatives broker, or requesting party that is party to a dispute that has arisen between members, etc., between commodity derivatives brokers, or between a commodity derivatives broker and a requesting party concerning a transaction in that commodity exchange's commodity market, the commodity exchange is to act as an intermediary pursuant to the provisions of its dispute resolution rules.

(2) A commodity exchange must establish detailed regulations concerning the following matters in its dispute resolution rules:

- (i) the procedures for applying for intermediation;
- (ii) the intermediation method;
- (iii) beyond what is stated in the preceding two items, necessary matters concerning intermediation.

Section 5 Entity Conversions

(Entity Conversions from Member Commodity Exchanges to Incorporated Commodity Exchanges)

Article 121 A member commodity exchange may become an incorporated commodity exchange through an entity conversion.

(Entity Conversion Plan)

Article 122 (1) In order to implement the entity conversion referred to in the preceding Article (referred to below as "entity conversion" in this Section), a member commodity exchange must prepare an entity conversion plan and have the plan approved by a resolution of a general meeting of members.

(2) The provisions of Article 61 apply mutatis mutandis to the resolution referred to in the preceding paragraph.

(3) To call the general meeting of members referred to in paragraph (1), an outline of the entity conversion plan and the articles of incorporation of the stock company after the entity conversion (referred to below as the "incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion") must be presented.

(4) When a member commodity exchange implements an entity conversion, the member commodity exchange must provide for the following matters in its entity conversion plan:

(i) the purpose, trade name, location of the head office, and total number of authorized shares of the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion;

(ii) beyond what is stated in the preceding item, matters that are specified by the articles of incorporation of the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion;

(iii) the names of company directors and the name of the financial auditor of the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion;

(iv) the matters prescribed in the each of the following in accordance with the category of cases stated in the item:

(a) if the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion is a company with an accounting advisor: the name of the accounting advisor of the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion; or

(b) if the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion is a company with company auditors (including a stock company whose articles of incorporation provide that the scope of audits by a company auditor is limited to matters related to accounting): the names of the company auditors of the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion.

(v) the number of shares in the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion which the members of the member commodity exchange implementing the entity conversion are to acquire upon entity conversion (if the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion is a company with class shares, the classes of shares and the number of shares in each class) or the method of calculating the number of the shares;

- (vi) the matters of the allotment of the shares referred to in the preceding item to members of the member commodity exchange implementing the entity conversion;
 - (vii) if, upon entity conversion, the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion is to deliver money to the members of the member commodity exchange implementing the entity conversion in place of their equity interest, the amount of money or the method of calculating the amount;
 - (viii) in the case prescribed in the preceding item, the matters concerning the allotment of money referred to in that item to members of the member commodity exchange implementing the entity conversion;
 - (ix) the matters concerning the amount of stated capital and reserves of the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion;
 - (x) the day on which the entity conversion is to come into effect (referred to below as the "effective date" in this Section); and
 - (xi) beyond what is stated in the preceding items, the matters specified by order of the competent ministry.
- (5) If an incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion is a company with an audit and supervisory committee, the matters stated in item (iii) of the preceding paragraph (limited to the matters regarding company directors of an incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion) must be specified separately for company directors who are audit and supervisory committee members and other company directors.

(Keeping and Inspection of Documents Related to Entity Conversion Plans)

- Article 123 (1) A member commodity exchange implementing an entity conversion must keep the documents or electronic or magnetic records that state or contain the content of the entity conversion plan and other matters specified by order of the competent ministry at its principal office, during the period from 10 days before the day of the general meeting of members as referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article until the day preceding the day on which the entity conversion comes into effect
- (2) The member or creditor of a member commodity exchange implementing an entity conversion may make the following requests to the member commodity exchange at any time during its business hours; provided, however, that in making the request stated in item (ii) or (iv), the member or creditor must pay the cost specified by the member commodity exchange implementing the entity conversion:
- (i) a request to inspect a document referred to in the preceding paragraph;
 - (ii) a request for issuance of a certified copy or extract of a document referred to in the preceding paragraph;

- (iii) a request to inspect a device that displays the information that has been recorded in an electronic or magnetic record referred to in the preceding paragraph by the means specified by order of the competent ministry; and
 - (iv) a request to be provided with the information recorded in an electronic or magnetic record referred to in the preceding paragraph by an electronic or magnetic means specified by order of the competent ministry, or a request to be issued a document that states the information.
- (3) If a member commodity exchange implementing an entity conversion has received a request under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, it must not refuse the request without legitimate grounds.

(Objections by Creditors)

- Article 124 (1) The creditor of a member commodity exchange implementing an entity conversion may state an objection to the member commodity exchange with regard to the entity conversion.
- (2) A member commodity exchange implementing an entity conversion must issue public notice of the following matters in the Official Gazette, and must issue a notice of those matters to its known creditors individually; provided, however, that the period referred to in item (ii) may not be shorter than one month:
- (i) that an entity conversion will be implemented;
 - (ii) that creditors may state an objection within a certain period.
- (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, if a member commodity exchange implementing an entity conversion issues public notice under the provisions of that paragraph in the Official Gazette as well as by the means of public notice stated in Article 11, paragraph (6), item (ii) or (iii) in accordance with the provisions of the articles of incorporation pursuant to the provisions of that paragraph, the member commodity exchange is not required to give individual notice under the provisions of the preceding paragraph.
- (4) If a creditor does not state an objection within the period referred to in paragraph (2), item (ii), the creditor is deemed to have approved the entity conversion.
- (5) If a creditor states an objection within the period referred to in paragraph (2), item (ii), the member commodity exchange implementing the entity conversion must make a payment or provide suitable collateral to the creditor, or deposit suitable property with a trust company, etc. (meaning a trust company or a financial institution engaged in trust business (meaning a financial institution that has obtained the authority under Article 1, paragraph (1) of the Act on Engagement in Trust Business by Financial Institutions (Act No. 43 of 1943)); the same applies below) for the purpose of ensuring that the creditor receives the payment; provided, however, that this does not apply if the entity conversion is not likely to harm the creditor.

(Keeping and Inspection of Documents on the Progress of the Entity Conversion Procedure)

Article 125 (1) The incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion must keep the documents or electronic or magnetic records referred to in Article 123, paragraph (1) and documents or electronic or magnetic records that state or contain the progress of the procedure pursuant to the provisions of the preceding Articles and other matters specified by order of the competent ministry as those related to entity conversion at its head office, during the period of six months from the day on which the entity conversion comes into effect.

(2) The shareholder or creditor of an incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion may make the following requests to the incorporated commodity exchange at any time during its business hours; provided, however, that in making the request stated in item (ii) or (iv), the shareholder or creditor must pay the cost specified by the member commodity exchange implementing the entity conversion:

(i) a request to inspect a document referred to in the preceding paragraph;

(ii) a request for issuance of a certified copy or extract of a document referred to in the preceding paragraph;

(iii) a request to inspect a device that displays the information that has been recorded in an electronic or magnetic record referred to in the preceding paragraph by the means specified by order of the competent ministry; or

(iv) a request to be provided with the information that has been recorded in an electronic or magnetic record referred to in the preceding paragraph by an electronic or magnetic means specified by order of the competent ministry, or a request to be issued a document that states the information.

(3) If an incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion has received a request under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, it must not refuse the request without legitimate grounds.

(Allotment of Shares to Members)

Article 126 (1) The member of a member commodity exchange is to receive an allotment of shares in the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion or an allotment of money, as specified by the entity conversion plan.

(2) The provisions of Article 234, paragraphs (1) through (5), Article 868, paragraph (1), Article 869, Article 871, Article 874 (limited to the part related to item (iv)), Article 875, and Article 876 of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis if shares or money is allotted pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph. In this case, the necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

(Amount Required to be Reported as Stated Capital)

Article 127 The amount that is required to be reported as the stated capital of an incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion is specified by order of the competent ministry.

(Amount Required to be Reported as Capital Reserves)

Article 128 The amount that is required to be reported as the capital reserves at the time of entity conversion and other matters necessary for the calculation at the time of entity conversion are specified by order of the competent ministry.

(Issuance of Shares upon Entity Conversion)

Article 129 At the time of an entity conversion, a member commodity exchange may issue shares in the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion, in addition to allotting shares under the provisions of Article 126, paragraph (1). In this case, the member commodity exchange must specify the following matters in the entity conversion plan:

- (i) the number of shares issued pursuant to the provisions of this Article (referred to below as the "shares issued upon entity conversion" in this Section) (if it is a company with class shares, the classes and the number of shares issued upon entity conversion; the same applies below in this Section);
- (ii) the amount to be paid for the shares issued upon entity conversion (meaning the amount of money to be paid or property other than money to be delivered in exchange for a single share issued upon entity conversion; the same applies below in this Section) or the method of calculating the amount;
- (iii) if property other than money is to be the subject of contribution, that fact and the content and value of the property;
- (iv) the date for the payment of money or for the delivery of the property referred to in the preceding item to be made in exchange for a share issued upon entity conversion; and
- (v) the matters concerning the increased stated capital or capital reserves.

(Offers Involving Shares Issued upon Entity Conversion)

Article 130 (1) A member commodity exchange must notify a person that seeks to make an offer to subscribe for shares issued upon entity conversion of the following matters:

- (i) the trade name of the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion;
- (ii) the matters stated in the items of the preceding Article;
- (iii) if money is to be paid, the place that handles the payments; and

- (iv) beyond what is stated in the preceding three items, matters that are specified by order of the competent ministry.
- (2) A person making an offer to subscribe for shares issued upon entity conversion must deliver a document stating the following matters to the member commodity exchange:
 - (i) the name and address of the person that offers to subscribe;
 - (ii) the number of the shares issued upon entity conversion for which the person seeks to subscribe.
- (3) A person making the offer referred to in the preceding paragraph may provide a member commodity exchange with the matters that are required to be stated in the document referred to in that paragraph by electronic or magnetic means with the consent of the member commodity exchange and pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Order, in place of delivering the document referred to in the preceding paragraph. In this case, the person making the offer is deemed to have delivered the document referred to in that paragraph.
- (4) If a matter stated in the items of paragraph (1) changes, the member commodity exchange must immediately notify a person that has made the offer referred to in paragraph (2) (referred to below as an "offeror" in this Section) of that fact and the particular that has changed.
- (5) It is sufficient for a notice or demand that a member commodity exchange issues to an offeror to be sent to the address referred to in paragraph (2), item (i) (or, if the offeror notifies the member commodity exchange of another place or contact address for receiving notices or demands, that place or contact address).
- (6) The notice or demand referred to in the preceding paragraph is deemed to have arrived at the time that the notice or demand would normally arrive.

(Allotment of Shares Issued upon Entity Conversion)

Article 131 (1) A member commodity exchange must decide which persons among the offerors the shares issued upon entity conversion are to be allotted to, and decide the number of the shares issued upon entity conversion to be allotted to those persons. In this case, the member commodity exchange may reduce the number of shares issued upon entity conversion to be allotted to those offerors to below the number referred to in paragraph (2), item (ii) of the preceding Article.

- (2) A member commodity exchange must notify an offeror of the number of shares issued upon entity conversion that will be allotted to the offeror no later than the day preceding the due date referred to in Article 129, item (iv).

(Subscription for Shares Issued upon Entity Conversion)

Article 131-2 An offeror becomes a subscriber for shares issued upon entity conversion, with respect to the number of shares issued upon entity conversion allotted to that offeror by the member commodity exchange.

(Performance of Contributions)

- Article 131-3 (1) On the due date referred to in Article 129, item (iv), a subscriber for shares issued upon entity conversion (excluding a person delivering the property referred to in Article 129, item (iii) (referred to below as "property contributed in kind" in this Section)) must pay the full amount of the amount to be paid in for each share issued upon entity conversion, at the place that handles the payment of the bank, etc. (meaning a bank, etc. prescribed in Article 34, paragraph (2) of the Companies Act) specified by the member commodity exchange.
- (2) On the due date referred to in Article 129, item (iv), a subscriber for shares issued upon entity conversion (limited to a person that delivers the property contributed in kind) must deliver the property contributed in kind that is equivalent to the full amount to be paid for each share issued upon entity conversion.
- (3) A subscriber for shares issued upon entity conversion may not offset their obligation to make the payment under the provisions of paragraph (1) or the delivery under the provisions of the preceding paragraph (referred to below as the "performance of contributions" in this Section) against a claim that the subscriber has against the member commodity exchange.
- (4) The transfer of the right to become the shareholder of shares issued upon entity conversion through the performance of contributions may not be asserted against the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion.
- (5) If a subscriber for shares issued upon entity conversion fails to make the performance of contributions, they lose the right to become the shareholder of shares issued upon entity conversion through the performance of contributions

(Time of Becoming Shareholders)

Article 131-4 A subscriber for shares issued upon entity conversion becomes the shareholder of the shares issued upon entity conversion for which the subscriber has made the performance of contributions, on the day on which the entity conversion comes into effect.

(Restriction on the Invalidity or Rescission of a Subscription)

- Article 131-5 (1) The provisions of the proviso to Article 93, paragraph (1) and Article 94, paragraph (1) of the Civil Code (Act No. 89 of 1896) do not apply to the manifestation of an intention to make an offer to subscribe for shares issued upon entity conversion or the allotment of those shares.
- (2) Once one year has passed since the day on which an entity conversion comes into effect or once the subscriber for shares issued upon entity conversion exercises a right with respect to those shares, the subscriber may not rescind the subscription for shares issued upon entity conversion due to a mistake, fraud, or duress.

(Application, Mutatis Mutandis of the Companies Act When Property Other than Money is the Subject of Contribution)

Article 131-6 The provisions of Article 207, Article 212 (excluding paragraph (1), item (i)), Article 213 (excluding paragraph (1), items (i) and (iii)), Article 868, paragraph (1), Article 870 (limited to the part related to items (i) and (iv)); Article 871, Article 872 (limited to the part related to item (iv)), Article 874 (limited to the part related to item (i)), Article 875, and Article 876 of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis to the case prescribed in Article 129, item (iii). In this case, in Article 207, paragraph (1), paragraph (7) and paragraph (9), items (ii) through (v) and Article 212, paragraph (1), item (ii) and paragraph (2) of the Companies Act, the term "Article 199, paragraph (1), item (iii)" is deemed to be replaced with "Article 129, item (iii) of the Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act"; in Article 207, paragraph (4), paragraph (6), and paragraph (9), item (iii) and Article 213, paragraph (1), item (ii) of that Act, the term "Ministry of Justice Order " is deemed to be replaced with "order of the competent ministry", in Article 207, paragraph (8) and Article 212, paragraph (2) of that Act, the phrase "subscription for an offered share or a contract referred to in Article 205, paragraph (1)" is deemed to be replaced with "subscription for an offered share", in Article 207, paragraph (10), item (i) of that Act, the phrase "A company director, accounting advisor, company auditor or executive officer" is deemed to be replaced with "The president, director, or auditor of a member commodity exchange", in Article 212, paragraph (1), item (ii) of that Act, the term "Article 209, paragraph (1)" is deemed to be replaced with "Article 131-4 of the Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act", in Article 870, item (vii) of that Act, the phrase "Article 199, paragraph (1), item (iii) or Article 236, paragraph (1), item (iii)" is deemed to be replaced with "Article 129, item (iii) of the Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act", and other necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

(Application, Mutatis Mutandis of the Companies Act to Liabilities of Subscribers to the Shares Issued upon Entity Conversion in Cases of Falsifying the Performance of Contributions)

Article 131-7 The provisions of Article 209, paragraphs (2) and (3), Article 213-2, and Article 213-3 of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis to shares issued upon entity conversion. In this case, the term "Article 208, paragraph

(1)" in Article 213-2, paragraph (1), item (i) of that Act is deemed to be replaced with "Article 131-3, paragraph (1) of the Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act", the term "Article 208, paragraph (2)" in item (ii) of that paragraph is deemed to be replaced with "Article 131-3, paragraph (2) of the Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act," the terms "directors (including executive officers in the case of a company with a nominating committee, etc.)" and "Ministry of Justice Order" in Article 213-3, paragraph (1) of that Act are deemed to be replaced with "the president or directors of a member commodity exchange" and "order of the competent ministry," respectively, and other necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

(Authorization for Entity Conversion)

Article 132 (1) An entity conversion does not become effective without the authorization of the competent minister.

(2) A person seeking the authorization referred to in the preceding paragraph must submit a written application to the competent minister stating the matters specified in Article 79, paragraph (1), items (i) through (iii), item (v), and item (vi) concerning the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion.

(3) A document stating the content of the entity conversion plan, the articles of incorporation, operational rules, entrustment contract regulations, dispute resolution rules, and market transactions surveillance committee rules of the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion, and other documents specified by order of the competent ministry must be attached to the written application referred to in the preceding paragraph.

(Criteria for Authorization)

Article 133 (1) If the competent minister finds that an application for the authorization referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article conforms to the following criteria, the minister must grant an authorization:

(i) the amount of stated capital of the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion is equal to or greater than the amount specified by Cabinet Order as referred to in Article 80, paragraph (1), item (i);

(ii) the provisions of the articles of incorporation, operational rules, entrustment contract regulations, dispute resolution rules, and market transactions surveillance committee rules of the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion do not violate laws and regulations, and the method or management of trade, qualification of trading participants, maximum number of trading participants if it is specified, matters of deposits, if the obligation to deposit a special deposit is specified, and other matters prescribed in the articles of incorporation, operational rules,

- entrustment contract regulations, dispute resolution rules, and market transactions surveillance committee rules are appropriate and sufficient for ensuring the fairness of transactions in the commodity market and for protecting requesting parties;
- (iii) the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion is to have a sufficient personnel structure to appropriately operate the commodity market; or
 - (iv) the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion is to be organized as an incorporated commodity exchange in a manner that conforms to the provisions of this Act.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, if an application for the authorization referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article falls under one of the following items, the competent minister must not grant the authorization referred to in that paragraph:
- (i) the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion has a person falling under a person referred to in Article 15, paragraph (2), item (i), sub-items (a) through (k) as an officer;
 - (ii) the application or a document that is required to be attached includes a false statement about a material particular.
- (3) The provisions of Article 15, paragraphs (5) through (9) apply mutatis mutandis to the authorization referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article.
- (4) A stock company that has undergone an entity conversion by obtaining the authorization referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article is deemed to have received the license referred to in Article 78 at the time of entity conversion.
- (5) A member that has been trading on a commodity market operated by a member commodity exchange that is to implement entity conversion, and that seeks to trade in a commodity market operated by the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion which is the same as that commodity market (meaning a commodity market in which transactions are conducted for the same listed commodity or listed commodity index by the same method of trade; the same applies in Article 149, paragraphs (2) and (4)) is deemed to have been granted the trading qualification referred to in Article 82, paragraph (1) for that commodity market at the time of entity conversion.

(Registration)

Article 134 (1) Once a member commodity exchange implements an entity conversion, it must register the dissolution for the member commodity exchange implementing the entity conversion, and register the incorporation for the incorporated commodity exchange at the location of the principal office and the head office after the entity conversion, within two weeks from the day on which the entity conversion becomes effective.

(2) In addition to the documents specified in Article 18, Article 19, and Article 46 of the Commercial Registration Act, the following documents must be attached to the written application for registration of incorporation referred to in the preceding paragraph:

- (i) the entity conversion plan;
- (ii) the articles of incorporation;
- (iii) the minutes of the proceedings of the general meeting of members concerning the entity conversion of the member commodity exchange implementing the entity conversion;
- (iv) a document certifying that the company directors of the incorporated commodity exchange after the entity conversion (or, if the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion is a company with company auditors (including a stock company whose articles of incorporation provide that audits by company auditors are limited to matters related to accounting), the company directors and company auditors) have accepted the assumption of office;
- (v) a document certifying the amount of net assets that the member commodity exchange before entity conversion has at the time of the entity conversion;
- (vi) if an accounting advisor or a financial auditor has been appointed for the incorporated commodity exchange after entity conversion, the documents stated in the items of Article 54, paragraph (2) of the Commercial Registration Act;
- (vii) if an administrator of the shareholder register has been appointed, a document certifying that the contract with that person has been entered into;
- (viii) if public notice or demand under Article 124, paragraph (2) (or, if public notice is issued in the Official Gazette as well as by publication in a daily newspaper that publishes matters on current events or electronic public notice pursuant to the provisions of the paragraph (3) of that Article, public notice through those means) has been issued and a creditor has stated an objection, a document certifying that payment has been made or suitable collateral has been provided to the creditor or that suitable property has been deposited in trust for the purpose of enabling the creditor to receive the payment, or that the entity conversion is unlikely to harm the creditor;
- (ix) if shares have been issued upon entity conversion pursuant to the provisions of Article 129, the following documents:
 - (a) a document certifying that offers to subscribe for shares have been made;
 - (b) if money is the subject of contributions, a document certifying that the payments under the provisions of Article 131-3, paragraph (1) have been made; and

- (c) if property other than money is the subject of contribution, the following documents:
1. if an inspector has been appointed, a document stating the investigation report by the inspector and their attached documents; or
 2. in the case stated in Article 207, paragraph (9), item (iii) of the Companies Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 131-6, a document certifying the market price of the securities;
 3. in the case stated in Article 207, paragraph (9), item (iv) of the Companies Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 131-6, a document stating the verification prescribed in that item and its attached documents;
 4. in the case stated in Article 207, paragraph (9), item (v) of the Companies Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 131-6, the account book stating the monetary claim referred to in that item;
- (d) if a judicial decision related to a report by an inspector has been rendered, a certified copy of that judicial decision.
- (3) The provisions of Article 76 and Article 78 of the Commercial Registration Act apply mutatis mutandis to the registration of the entity conversion of a member commodity exchange referred to in paragraph (1).

(Coming into Effect of Entity Conversions)

- Article 135 (1) A member commodity exchange implementing an entity conversion becomes an incorporated commodity exchange on the effective date or the day on which it obtains the authorization of the competent minister referred to in Article 132, paragraph (1), whichever comes later.
- (2) A member commodity exchange implementing an entity conversion is deemed to have changed its articles of incorporation in respect of the matters stated in Article 122, paragraph (4), items (i) and (ii), in accordance with the provisions on those matters, on the day on which the entity conversion comes into effect.
- (3) The member of a member commodity exchange implementing an entity conversion becomes the shareholder of the shares referred to in Article 122, paragraph (4), item (v), in accordance with the provisions on the matters stated in item (vi) of that paragraph, on the day on which the entity conversion comes into effect.
- (4) The provisions of the preceding three paragraphs do not apply if the procedure under Article 124 has not been completed or if the entity conversion is canceled.

Article 136 Deleted.

(Actions to Invalidate Entity Conversions)

Article 137 The provisions of Article 828, paragraph (1) (limited to the part related to item (vi)) and paragraph (2) (limited to the part related to item (vi)), Article 834 (limited to the part related to item (vi)), Article 835, paragraph (1), Articles 836 through 839, Article 846, and Article 937, paragraph (3) (limited to the part related to item (i)) of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis to an action to invalidate an entity conversion. In this case, the phrase "the head office of each company" in that paragraph is deemed to be replaced with "the head office of the incorporated commodity exchange and the principal office of the member commodity exchange".

(Delegation to Cabinet Order)

Article 138 Beyond what is provided for in this Act, necessary matters for the entity conversion of a commodity exchange are specified by Cabinet Order.

Section 6 Mergers

Subsection 1 General Provisions

Article 139 (1) A member commodity exchange may merge with another member commodity exchange or with an incorporated commodity exchange. In this case, the commodity exchanges that implement the merger must enter into a merger agreement.

(2) If a member commodity exchange implements an absorption-type merger (meaning the merger of a commodity exchange with another commodity exchange, in which the commodity exchange surviving the merger (referred to below as the "commodity exchange surviving the absorption-type merger" in this Section) succeeds to all of the rights and obligations of the commodity exchange that disappears in the merger (referred to below as the "commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger" in this Section); the same applies below) or a consolidation-type merger (meaning the merger of two or more commodity exchanges, in which the commodity exchange incorporated in the merger (referred to below as the "commodity exchange incorporated in the consolidation-type merger" in this Section) succeeds to all of the rights and obligations of the commodity exchange dissolved as a result of the merger (referred to below as the "commodity exchange dissolved in the consolidation-type merger" in this Section); the same applies below), the commodity exchange surviving the absorption-type merger or the commodity exchange incorporated in the consolidation-type merger must be the entity prescribed in each of the following items in accordance with the category stated in that item:

- (i) a merger between a member commodity exchange and a member commodity exchange: a member commodity exchange;
- (ii) a merger between a member commodity exchange and an incorporated commodity exchange: an incorporated commodity exchange.

Subsection 2 Mergers Between Member Commodity Exchanges

 - (b) if the incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger is a company with a company auditor (including a stock company whose articles of incorporation provide that the scope of audits by a company auditor is limited to matters related to accounting): the name of the person that is to become the company auditor at the time of the establishment of the incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger.
 - (vi) the number of shares in the incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger (or, for a company with class shares, the classes of shares and the number of shares in each class) that the incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger is to deliver to members of the member commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger or shareholders of the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger in place of their equity interest or shares at the time of the consolidation-type merger, or the method of calculating that number, and the matters concerning the amount of stated capital or reserves of the incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger;

- (vii) the matters concerning the allotment of the shares referred to in the preceding item to members of the member commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger, or shareholders of the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger (excluding the commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger);
- (viii) if the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger has issued share options, the following matters concerning share options in or money of the incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger it is to deliver to the holders of share options in the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger at the time of the consolidation-type merger in place of the share options in the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger:
 - (a) if share options in the incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger are delivered to the holders of share options in the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger, the content and number of share options or the method of calculating the number;
 - (b) in the case prescribed in sub-item (a), if share options in the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger referred to in sub-item (a) are share options that are attached to bonds with share options, the fact that the incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger will succeed to the obligations regarding the bonds related to the bonds with share options, the classes of bonds subject to the succession, and the total amounts of the bonds in each class or the method of calculating the amounts; or
 - (c) if money is to be delivered to the holders of share options in the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger, the amount of that money or the method of calculating the amount; or
- (ix) in the case prescribed in the preceding item, the matters concerning the allotment of share options in the incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger or of the money referred to in that item to the holders of share options in the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger.
- (2) If an incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger is a company with an audit and supervisory committee, the matters stated in item (iv) of the preceding paragraph (limited to the matters regarding the persons to become company directors at the time of the establishment of the incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger) must be specified separately for the persons to become company directors who are audit and supervisory committee members at the time of the establishment of the incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger and the persons to become other company directors.

- (3) In the case referred to in paragraph (1), if the whole or a part of the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger is a company with class shares, the following matters may be specified as the matters stated in item (vii) of that paragraph (limited to matters concerning the shareholders of the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger; the same applies in the following paragraph) in accordance with the features of the classes of shares issued by the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger:
- (i) if it decides not to allot shares in the incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger to shareholders of a certain class of shares, that fact and the class of those shares; or
 - (ii) beyond what is stated in the preceding item, if it decides to handle the allotment of shares in the incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger differently for each class of shares, that fact and the content of such different handling.
- (4) In the case prescribed in paragraph (1), the provisions concerning the matters stated in item (vii) of that paragraph must provide that shares in the incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger will be issued in proportion to the number of shares (if the matters stated in item (ii) of the preceding paragraph are provided for, the number of shares in each class) held by the shareholders of the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger (excluding shareholders of the commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger and shareholders of the class of shares referred to in item (i) of the preceding paragraph).

Subsection 4 Merger Procedures for Member Commodity Exchanges

(Procedures for Member Commodity Exchanges Dissolved in Absorption-Type Mergers)

- Article 144 (1) A member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger must keep documents or electronic or magnetic records that state or record the content of the absorption-type merger agreement and the matters specified by order of the competent ministry at its principal office, during the period from the day which is 10 days before the day of the general meeting of members as referred to in paragraph (4) until the day on which the absorption-type merger comes into effect.
- (2) The member or creditor of a member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger may make the following requests to the member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger at any time during - its business hours; provided, however, that in making the request stated in item (ii) or (iv), the member or creditor must pay the cost specified by the member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger:

- (i) a request to inspect a document referred to in the preceding paragraph;
 - (ii) a request for issuance of a certified copy or extract of a document referred to in the preceding paragraph;
 - (iii) a request to inspect a device that displays the information that has been recorded in an electronic or magnetic record referred to in the preceding paragraph by the means specified by order of the competent ministry; or
 - (iv) a request to be provided with the information that has been recorded in an electronic or magnetic record referred to in the preceding paragraph by an electronic or magnetic means specified by order of the competent ministry, or a request to be issued a document that states the information.
- (3) If a member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger has received a request under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, it must not refuse the request without legitimate grounds.
- (4) A member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger must gain approval for the absorption-type merger agreement by a resolution of a general meeting of members by the day preceding the effective date.
- (5) When an absorption-type merger is in violation of laws and regulations or the articles of incorporation and the members of the member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger are likely to suffer disadvantages, the members of the member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger may demand the member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger to refrain from implementing the absorption-type merger.
- (6) The provisions of Article 124 apply mutatis mutandis to a member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger.
- (7) A member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger may change the effective date by an agreement with the commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger.
- (8) In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, the member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger must issue public notice of the new effective date by the day preceding the former effective date (or, if the new effective date comes before the former effective date, by the day preceding the new effective date).
- (9) If the effective date is changed pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (7), the new effective date is deemed to be the effective date and the provisions of this Section apply.

(Procedures for Member Commodity Exchanges Surviving Absorption-Type

Mergers)

- Article 144-2 (1) A member commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger must keep documents or electronic or magnetic records that state or record the content of the absorption-type merger agreement and the matters specified by order of the competent ministry at its principal office, during the period from the day which is 10 days before the day of the general meeting of members referred to in the following paragraph until the day on which six months have passed from the day the absorption-type merger comes into effect.
- (2) A member commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger must obtain approval for the absorption-type merger agreement by a resolution of a general meeting of members by the day preceding the effective date.
- (3) When an absorption-type merger is in violation of laws and regulations or the articles of incorporation and the members of the member commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger are likely to suffer disadvantages, the members of the member commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger may demand the member commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger to refrain from implementing the absorption-type merger.
- (4) The provisions of Article 124 apply mutatis mutandis to a member commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger.
- (5) A member commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger must prepare a document or an electronic or magnetic record that states or records the matters concerning the rights and obligations of the member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger to which the member commodity exchange surviving the absorption-type merger has succeeded to as a result of the absorption-type merger, and also states or records other matters specified by order of the competent ministry as being related to the absorption-type merger, without delay after the day on which the absorption-type merger comes into effect.
- (6) A member commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger must keep the document or electronic or magnetic record referred to in the preceding paragraph at its principal office, during a six-month period beginning from the day on which the absorption-type merger comes into effect.
- (7) The member or creditor of a member commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger may make the following requests to the member commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger at any time during its business hours; provided, however, that in making the request stated in item (ii) or (iv), the member or creditor must pay the cost specified by the member commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger:
- (i) a request to inspect a document referred to in paragraph (1) or the preceding paragraph;
 - (ii) a request for issuance of a certified copy or extract of a document referred - to in paragraph (1) or the preceding paragraph;

 - (iii) a request to inspect a device that displays the information that has been recorded in an electronic or magnetic record referred to in paragraph (1) or the preceding paragraph by the means specified by order of the competent ministry;
 - (iv) a request to be provided with the information that has been recorded in an electronic or magnetic record referred to in paragraph (1) or the preceding paragraph by an electronic or magnetic means specified by order of the competent ministry, or a request to be issued a document that states the information.
- (8) If a member commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger has received a request under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, it must not refuse that request without legitimate grounds.

(Procedures for a Member Commodity Exchange Dissolved in a Consolidation-Type Merger)

- Article 144-3 (1) A member commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger must keep documents or electronic or magnetic records that state or record the content of the consolidation-type merger agreement and the matters specified by order of the competent ministry at its principal office, during the period from the day which is 10 days before the day of the general meeting of members referred to in paragraph (4) until the day of the establishment of the commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger.
- (2) The member and a creditor of a member commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger may make the following requests to a member commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger at any time during its business hours; provided, however, that in making the request stated in item (ii) or (iv), the member or creditor must pay the cost specified by the member commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger:
- (i) a request to inspect a document referred to in the preceding paragraph;
 - (ii) a request for issuance of a certified copy or extract of a document referred to in the preceding paragraph;
 - (iii) a request to inspect a device that displays the information that has been recorded in an electronic or magnetic record referred to in the preceding paragraph by the means specified by order of the competent ministry; or
 - (iv) a request to be provided with the information that has been recorded in an electronic or magnetic record referred to in the preceding paragraph by an electronic or magnetic means specified by order of the competent ministry, or a request to be issued a document that states the information.
- (3) If a member commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger has received a request under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, it must not refuse the request without legitimate grounds.

- (4) A member commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger must obtain approval for the consolidation-type merger agreement by a resolution of a general meeting of members.
- (5) When a consolidation-type merger is in violation of laws and regulations or the articles of incorporation and the members of the member commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger are likely to suffer disadvantages, the members of the member commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger may demand the member commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger to refrain from implementing the consolidation-type merger.
- (6) The provisions of Article 124 apply mutatis mutandis to a member commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger.

(Procedures for Member Commodity Exchanges Established by Consolidation-Type Mergers)

- Article 144-4 (1) The provisions of Section 2, Subsection 1 (excluding Article 7, Article 8, Article 11, paragraph (2), paragraph (4), and the first sentence of paragraph (5), Article 16, paragraph (1), Article 19, Article 20, paragraph (2), Articles 21 through 25, and Article 27) do not apply to the establishment of a member commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger.
- (2) The articles of incorporation of a member commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger are prepared by the member commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger.
 - (3) A member commodity exchange established in a consolidation-type merger must prepare the documents or electronic or magnetic records that state or record the rights and obligations of the member commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger to which the member commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger will succeed as a result of the consolidation-type merger, and also state or contain other matters specified by order of the competent ministry as matters related to the consolidation-type merger, without delay after the day of its establishment.
 - (4) a member commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger must keep the documents or electronic or magnetic records referred to in the preceding paragraph and documents or electronic or magnetic records that state or record the content of the consolidation-type merger agreement and other matters specified by order of the competent ministry at its principal office, during the six-month period beginning from its establishment.
 - (5) The member or creditor of a member commodity exchange incorporated in a consolidation-type merger may make the following requests to the member commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger at any time during its business hours; provided, however, that in making the request stated in item (ii) or (iv), the member or creditor must pay the cost specified by the member commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger:

- (i) a request to inspect a document referred to in the preceding paragraph;
 - (ii) a request for issuance of a certified copy or extract of a document referred to in the preceding paragraph;
 - (iii) a request to inspect a device that displays the information that has been recorded in an electronic or magnetic record referred to in the preceding paragraph by the means specified by order of the competent ministry;
 - (iv) a request to be provided with the information that has been recorded in an electronic or magnetic record referred to in the preceding paragraph by an electronic or magnetic means specified by order of the competent ministry, or a request to be issued a document that states the information.
- (6) If a member commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger has received a request under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, it must not refuse the request without legitimate grounds.

Subsection 5 Merger Procedures for Incorporated Commodity Exchanges

Division 1 Procedures for the Incorporated Commodity Exchanges Surviving Absorption-Type Mergers

(Keeping and Inspection of Documents Related to Absorption-Type Merger Agreements)

Article 144-5 (1) An incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger (limited to the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger in an absorption-type merger between a member commodity exchange and an incorporated commodity exchange; the same applies below in this Division) must keep documents or electronic or magnetic records that state or record the content of the absorption-type merger agreement and other matters specified by order of the competent ministry at its head office, during the period from one of the following days, whichever comes the earliest, until the day on which six months have elapsed since the day on which the absorption-type merger comes into effect:

- (i) if approval for the absorption-type merger agreement must be obtained by a resolution of a shareholders meeting (including a general meeting of class shareholders), the day which is two weeks before the day of the shareholders meeting;
- (ii) the day of the notice under the provisions of Article 144-8, paragraph (1) or the day of the public notice under the provisions of paragraph (2) of that

- Article, whichever comes earlier; or
- (iii) the day of the public notice under the provisions of Article 144-11, paragraph (2) or the day of the demand under the provisions of that paragraph, whichever comes earlier.
- (2) The shareholder or creditor of an incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger may make the following requests to the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger at any time during its business hours; provided, however, that in making the request stated in item (ii) or (iv), the shareholder or creditor must pay the cost specified by the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger:
- (i) a request to inspect a document referred to in the preceding paragraph;
 - (ii) a request for issuance of a certified copy or extract of a document referred to in the preceding paragraph;
 - (iii) a request to inspect a device that displays the information that has been recorded in an electronic or magnetic record referred to in the preceding paragraph by the means specified by order of the competent ministry; or
 - (iv) a request to be provided with the information that has been recorded in an electronic or magnetic record referred to in the preceding paragraph by an electronic or magnetic means specified by order of the competent ministry, or a request to be issued a document that states the information.
- (3) If an incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger has received a request under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, it must not refuse the request without legitimate grounds.

(Approval of Absorption-Type Merger Agreements)

- Article 144-6 (1) An incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger must obtain approval for the absorption-type merger agreement by a resolution of a shareholders meeting by the day preceding the effective date.
- (2) In the following cases, the directors must explain that fact at the shareholders meeting referred to in the preceding paragraph:
- (i) the amount specified by order of the competent ministry as the amount of obligations of the member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger to which the incorporated commodity exchange surviving the absorption-type merger will succeed (referred to as the "amount of succeeded obligations" in the following item) exceeds the amount specified by order of the competent ministry as the amount of assets of the member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger to which the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger will succeed (referred to as the "amount of succeeded assets" in the following item); or
 - (ii) the amount of money to be delivered to members of the member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger by the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger exceeds the amount arrived at by deducting the amount of succeeded obligations from the amount of succeeded assets.

- (3) If the assets of the member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger to be succeeded to include shares in the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger, the company directors must explain the matters concerning those shares at the shareholders meeting referred to in paragraph (1).
- (4) If the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger is a company with class shares, and the shares, etc. that are to be delivered to the members of the member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger are shares in the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger, the absorption-type merger does not come into effect without a resolution of a general meeting of class shareholders consisting of class shareholders of the classes of shares referred to in Article 142, item (ii), (a) (limited to shares with a restriction on transfer which are not specified in the articles of incorporation referred to in Article 199, paragraph (4) of the Companies Act) (if there are two or more classes of shares associated with those class shareholders, without the resolution of each general meeting of class shareholders whose constituents are the class shareholders categorized by the class of those two or more classes of shares); provided, however, that this does not apply if there is no shareholder that is able to exercise a voting right at the general meeting of class shareholders.
- (5) The resolution of a shareholders meeting referred to in paragraph (1) must be adopted by at least a two-thirds majority (or, if a larger ratio is specified by the articles of incorporation, that ratio) of the votes of the shareholders present, at a meeting in which shareholders holding a majority (or, if a ratio of one-third or more is specified by the articles of incorporation, at least that ratio) of the voting rights of the shareholders that are able to exercise voting rights at the shareholders meeting are present. In this case, in addition to the requirement for the resolution, the incorporated commodity exchange surviving the absorption-type merger is not precluded from providing in its articles of incorporation that consent of a certain number or more of the shareholders is required or other requirements.
- (6) The provisions of the preceding paragraph apply mutatis mutandis to the general meeting of class shareholders referred to in paragraph (4).

(When Approvals for Absorption-Type Merger Agreements are not Required)
Article 144-7 (1) The provisions of paragraphs (1) through (3) of the preceding Article do not apply if the ratio of the amount stated in item (i) to the amount stated in item (ii) does not exceed one-fifth (or, if a smaller ratio is specified by the articles of incorporation of the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger, that ratio); provided, however, that this does not apply in the case stated in the items of paragraph (2) of that Article or if the whole or a part of the shares, etc. to be delivered to the members of the member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger are shares with a restriction on transfer in the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger and the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger is a public company (meaning a public company as prescribed in Article 2, item (v) of the Companies Act; the same applies below in this Section).

(i) the sum of the following amounts:

(a) the amount arrived at by multiplying the number of shares in the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger that will be delivered to the members of the member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger by the amount of net assets per share (meaning the amount of net assets per share as prescribed in Article 141, paragraph (2) of the Companies Act); and

(b) the sum of the amounts of money that will be delivered to the members of the member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger;

(ii) the amount calculated in the method specified by order of the competent ministry as the amount of net assets of the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger.

(2) In the case prescribed in the main clause of the preceding paragraph, if shareholders holding the number of shares specified by order of the competent ministry (limited to shares for which voting rights may be exercised at the shareholders meeting referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article) notify the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger that they are against the absorption-type merger within two weeks from the day of the notice referred to in paragraph (1) of the following Article or within two weeks from the day of the public notice referred to in paragraph (2) of that Article, the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger must obtain approval for the absorption-type merger agreement by a resolution of a shareholders meeting, by the day preceding the effective date.

(3) The provisions of paragraph (5) of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to the shareholders meeting referred to in the preceding paragraph.

(Notices to Shareholders)

Article 144-8 (1) An incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger must notify its shareholders that the absorption-type merger will

- be implemented, as well as notify the name and address of the member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger (in the case prescribed in Article 144-6, paragraph (3), including the matters concerning the shares referred to in that paragraph) by 20 days before the effective date.
- (2) In the following cases, public notice may be substituted for the notice under the provisions of the preceding paragraph:
- (i) if the incorporated commodity exchange surviving the absorption-type merger is a public company; or
 - (ii) if the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger has obtained approval for the absorption-type merger agreement by a resolution of the shareholders meeting referred to in Article 144-6, paragraph (1).
- (3) The provisions of Article 940, paragraph (1) (limited to the part related to item (i)) and paragraph (3) of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis if the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger issues the public notice referred to in the preceding paragraph by the means stated in Article 939, paragraph (1), item (iii) of that Act. In this case, the necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

(Demands to Refrain from Implementing Absorption-Type Mergers)

Article 144-9 When an absorption-type merger is in violation of laws and regulations or articles of incorporation and the shareholders of the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger are likely to suffer disadvantages, the shareholders of the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger may demand the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger to refrain from implementing the absorption-type merger; provided, however, that this does not apply to cases prescribed in the main clause of Article 144-7, paragraph (1) (excluding the case prescribed in paragraph (2) of that Article).

(Share Purchase Demands)

- Article 144-10 (1) If an absorption-type merger is to be implemented, a dissenting shareholder may demand that the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger purchase its shares at a fair price; provided, however, that this does not apply to cases prescribed in the main clause of Article 144-7, paragraph (1) (excluding the case prescribed in paragraph (2) of that Article).
- (2) The "dissenting shareholder" prescribed in the preceding paragraph means a shareholder provided for in each of the following items for the case stated in that item:
- (i) a resolution of a shareholders meeting (including a general meeting of class shareholders) is required in order to implement the absorption-type merger: the following shareholders:

- (a) a shareholder that has notified the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger that they are against the absorption-type merger before the shareholders meeting, and has dissented to the absorption-type merger at the shareholders meeting (limited to a shareholder that is able to exercise a voting right at the shareholders meeting); or
 - (b) a shareholder that is not able to exercise a voting right at the shareholders meeting;
 - (ii) cases other than that prescribed in the preceding item: all shareholders.
- (3) The provisions of Article 797, paragraphs (5) through (9), Article 798, Article 868, paragraph (1), Article 870, paragraph (2) (limited to the part related to item (ii)), Article 870-2, the main clause of Article 871, Article 872 (limited to the part related to item (v)), Article 872-2, the main clause of Article 873, Article 875, and Article 876 of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis to a demand under the provisions of paragraph (1). In this case, the necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

(Objection by Creditors)

- Article 144-11 (1) The creditor of an incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger may state an objection to the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger with regard to the absorption-type merger.
- (2) An incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger must issue public notice of the following matters in the Official Gazette and must issue a notice of those matters to its known creditors (including the bond administrator (meaning the bond administrator referred to in Article 702 of the Companies Act; the same applies below) or the bond administration assistant (meaning the bond administration assistant referred to in Article 714-2 of the Companies Act; the same applies below), if there is a bond administrator or a bond administration assistant) individually; provided, however, that the period referred to in item (iv) may not be less than one month:
- (i) that an absorption-type merger is to be implemented;
 - (ii) the name and address of the member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger;
 - (iii) the matters specified by order of the competent ministry as those concerning the financial statements of the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger; and
 - (iv) that a creditor may state an objection within a certain period.
- (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, if the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger issues the public notice under the provisions of that paragraph in the Official Gazette as well as by the means stated in Article 939, paragraph (1), item (ii) or (iii) of the Companies Act in accordance with the provisions of the articles of incorporation under the provisions of that paragraph, the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger is not required to make individual demands under the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

- (4) If a creditor does not state an objection within the period referred to in paragraph (2), item (iv), the creditor is deemed to have approved the absorption-type merger.
- (5) If a creditor states an objection within the period referred to in paragraph (2), item (iv), the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger must make a payment or provide suitable collateral to the creditor, or deposit suitable property with a trust company, etc. for the purpose of ensuring that the creditor receives the payment; provided, however, that this does not apply if the absorption-type merger is unlikely to harm the creditor.
- (6) The provisions of Article 940, paragraph (1) (limited to the part related to item (iii)) and paragraph (3) of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis if the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger issues the public notice under the provisions of paragraph (2) by the means stated in Article 939, paragraph (1), item (iii) of that Act. In this case, the necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.
- (7) In order for the bondholders to state an objection pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1), a resolution of a bondholder meeting is required. In such a case, the court may extend the period for stating an objection for the bondholders, upon the petition of an interested person.
- (8) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the bond administrator may state an objection on behalf of the bondholders; provided, however, that this does not apply if it is otherwise provided in the contract for a request under the provisions of Article 702 of the Companies Act.
- (9) The provisions of Article 868, paragraph (4), Article 870, paragraph (1) (limited to the part related to item (viii)), the main clause of Article 871, Article 872 (limited to the part related to item (iv)), Article 875, and Article 876 of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis to a case related to the petition referred to in paragraph (7).

(Keeping and Inspection of Documents Related to Absorption-Type Mergers)

Article 144-12 (1) An incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger must prepare documents or electronic or magnetic records that state or record the matters of the rights and obligations of the member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger to which the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger has succeeded as a result of the absorption-type merger, and of other matters specified by order of the competent ministry as being related to the absorption-type merger, without delay after the day on which the absorption-type merger comes into effect.

- (2) The incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger must keep the documents or electronic or magnetic records referred to in the preceding paragraph at its head office, during the six-month period beginning from the day on which an absorption-type merger comes into effect.
- (3) The member or creditor of an incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger may make the following requests to the incorporated commodity exchange surviving the absorption-type merger at any time during its business hours; provided, however, that in making the request stated in item (ii) or (iv), the member or creditor must pay the cost specified by the incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger:
 - (i) a request to inspect a document referred to in the preceding paragraph;
 - (ii) a request for issuance of a certified copy or extract of a document referred to in the preceding paragraph;
 - (iii) a request to inspect a device that displays the information that has been recorded in an electronic or magnetic record referred to in the preceding paragraph by the means specified by order of the competent ministry; or
 - (iv) a request to be provided with the information that has been recorded in an electronic or magnetic record referred to in the preceding paragraph by an electronic or magnetic means specified by order of the competent ministry, or a request to be issued a document that states the information.
- (4) If an incorporated commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger has received a request under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, it must not refuse the request without legitimate grounds.

Division 2 Procedures for Incorporated Commodity Exchanges Dissolved in Consolidation-Type Mergers

(Keeping and Inspection of Documents Related to Consolidation-Type Merger Agreements)

Article 144-13 (1) An incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger (limited to the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger by a consolidation-type merger implemented between a member commodity exchange and an incorporated commodity exchange; the same applies below in this Division) must keep documents or electronic or magnetic records that state or record the content of the consolidation-type merger agreement and the matters specified by order of the competent ministry at its head office, during the period from one of the following days, whichever comes the earliest, until the day on which the consolidation-type merger comes into effect:

- (i) the day two weeks before the shareholders meeting referred to in paragraph (1) of the following Article;
 - (ii) if approval for the consolidation-type merger agreement must be obtained by a resolution of a general meeting of class shareholders, the day two weeks before the day of the general meeting of class shareholders;
 - (iii) the day of the notice under the provisions of Article 144-15, paragraph (1) or the day of the public notice under the provisions of paragraph (2) of that Article, whichever comes earlier; or
 - (iv) the day of the public notice under the provisions of Article 144-11, paragraph (2) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 144-19 or the day of the demand under the provisions of Article 144-11, paragraph (2), whichever comes earlier.
- (2) The shareholder or creditor of an incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger may make the following requests to the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger at any time during its business hours; provided, however, that in making the request stated in item (ii) or (iv), the shareholder or creditor must pay the cost specified by the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger:
- (i) a request to inspect a document referred to in the preceding paragraph;
 - (ii) a request for issuance of a certified copy or extract of a document referred to in the preceding paragraph;
 - (iii) a request to inspect a device that displays the information that has been recorded in an electronic or magnetic record referred to in the preceding paragraph by the means specified by order of the competent ministry; or
 - (iv) a request to be provided with the information that has been recorded in an electronic or magnetic record referred to in the preceding paragraph by an electronic or magnetic means specified by order of the competent ministry, or a request to be issued a document that states the information.
- (3) If an incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger has received a request under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, it must not refuse the request without legitimate grounds.

(Approval of Consolidation-Type Merger Agreements)

- Article 144-14 (1) An incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger must obtain approval for the consolidation-type merger agreement by a resolution of a shareholders meeting.
- (2) The resolution of a shareholders meeting referred to in the preceding paragraph must be adopted by at least a two-thirds majority (or, if a larger ratio is specified in the articles of incorporation, that ratio) of the votes of the shareholders present, at a meeting in which the shareholders holding the majority (or, if a ratio of one-third or more is specified in the articles of incorporation, at least that ratio) of the voting rights of shareholders that are able to exercise a voting right at the shareholders meeting are present. In this case, in addition to the requirement for the resolution, the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger is not precluded from providing in its articles of incorporation that consent of a certain number or more of votes from the shareholders is required or other requirements.

- (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, if the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger is a public company and the whole or a part of the shares in the incorporated commodity exchange incorporated in the consolidation-type merger that are to be delivered to shareholders of the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger are shares with a restriction on transfer, a resolution of a shareholders meeting referred to in paragraph (1) (excluding a shareholders meeting of a company with class shares) must be made by the resolution prescribed in Article 309, paragraph (3) of the Companies Act.
- (4) If the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger is a company with class shares and the whole or a part of shares in the incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger that are to be delivered to shareholders of the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger are shares with a restriction on transfer, the consolidation-type merger does not come into effect without a resolution of a general meeting of class shareholders consisting of the class shareholders of the class of shares (other than shares with a restriction on transfer) that is subject to the allotment of shares with a restriction on transfer (or, if there are two or more classes of shares associated with those class shareholders, without the resolutions of each general meeting of class shareholders whose constituents are the class shareholders categorized by those two or more classes of shares); provided, however, that this does not apply if no shareholder is able to exercise a voting right at the general meeting of class shareholders.
- (5) The resolution of the general meeting of class shareholders referred to in the preceding paragraph must be adopted by a majority vote that constitutes at least two-thirds (or, if a higher ratio is specified in the articles of incorporation, that ratio) of the votes of a half or more (or, if a higher ratio is specified in the articles of incorporation, at least that ratio) of the number of shareholders that are able to exercise voting rights at the general meeting of class shareholders.

(Notices to Shareholders)

- Article 144-15 (1) The incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger must notify its shareholders and registered pledgees of its shares (meaning registered pledgees of shares prescribed in Article 149, paragraph (1) of the Companies Act) as well as holders of its share options and registered pledgees of its share options (meaning registered pledgees of share options prescribed in Article 270, paragraph (1) of that Act) that the consolidation-type merger is to be implemented, and the name or trade name and address of the other commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger and of the incorporated commodity exchange incorporated in a consolidation-type merger, within two weeks from the day of the resolution of the shareholders meeting referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article.
- (2) Public notice may be substituted for the notice under the provisions of the preceding paragraph.
- (3) The provisions of Article 940, paragraph (1) (limited to the part related to item (iv)) and paragraph (3) of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis if the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger issues the public notice referred to in the preceding paragraph by the means stated in Article 939, paragraph (1), item (iii) of the Companies Act. In this case, the necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

(Demand to Refrain from Implementing Consolidation-Type Mergers)

Article 144-16 When an absorption-type merger is in violation of laws and regulations or the articles of incorporation and the shareholders of the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger are likely to suffer disadvantages, the shareholders of the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger may demand the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in an incorporation-type merger to refrain from implementing the absorption-type merger.

(Share Purchase Demands)

- Article 144-17 (1) If a consolidation-type merger is to be implemented, the following shareholders may demand that an incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger purchase their shares at a fair price:
- (i) a shareholder that has notified the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger that they are against the consolidation-type merger before the shareholders meeting (including a general meeting of class shareholders) to approve the consolidation-type merger agreement, and has dissented to the consolidation-type merger at the shareholders meeting (limited to a shareholder that is able to exercise a

- voting right at the shareholders meeting); or
- (ii) a shareholder that is not able to exercise a voting right at the shareholders meeting.
- (2) The provisions of Article 806, paragraphs (5) through (9), Article 807, Article 868, paragraph (1), Article 870, paragraph (2) (limited to the part related to item (ii)), Article 870-2, the main clause of Article 871, Article 872 (limited to the part related to item (v)), Article 872-2, the main clause of Article 873, Article 875, and Article 876 of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis to a demand under the provisions of the preceding paragraph. In this case, the necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

(Demands for Purchases of Share Options)

- Article 144-18 (1) If a consolidation-type merger is to be implemented, the holder of a share option in the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger may demand that the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger purchase their share option at a fair price.
- (2) The provisions of Article 808, paragraphs (5) through (10), Article 809, Article 868, paragraph (1), Article 870, paragraph (2) (limited to the part related to item (ii)), Article 870-2, the main clause of Article 871, Article 872 (limited to the part related to item (v)), Article 872-2, the main clause of Article 873, Article 875, and Article 876 of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis to a demand under the provisions of the preceding paragraph. In this case, the necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

(Provisions to be Applied Mutatis Mutandis)

- Article 144-19 The provisions of Article 144-11 apply mutatis mutandis to the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger.

Division 3 Procedures for the Incorporated Commodity Exchanges Established by Consolidation-Type Mergers

(Special Provisions on the Establishment of Incorporated Commodity Exchanges)

- Article 144-20 (1) The provisions of Part II, Chapter I (excluding Article 27 (excluding items (iv) and (v)), Article 29, Article 31, Article 37, paragraph (3), Article 39, and Articles 47 through 49) of the Companies Act do not apply to the establishment of an incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger (limited to the incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger as a result of a consolidation-type merger between a member commodity exchange and a incorporated commodity exchange; the same applies below in this Division).

- (2) The articles of incorporation of the incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger are prepared by the commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger.

(Keeping and Inspection of Documents Related to Consolidation-Type Merger Agreements)

- Article 144-21 (1) An incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger must prepare documents or electronic or magnetic records that state or record the matters of the rights and obligations of the commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger to which the incorporated commodity exchange incorporated in the consolidation-type merger will succeed as a result of the consolidation-type merger and other matters specified by order of the competent ministry as being related to the consolidation-type merger, without delay after the day of its establishment.
- (2) an incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger must keep the documents or electronic or magnetic records referred to in the preceding paragraph and documents or electronic or magnetic records that state or contain the content of the consolidation-type merger agreement and other matters specified by order of the competent ministry at its head office, during the six-month period beginning from its establishment.
- (3) The shareholder or creditor of an incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger may make the following requests to the incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger at any time during its business hours; provided, however, that in making the request stated in item (ii) or (iv), the shareholder or creditor must pay the cost specified by the incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger:
- (i) a request to inspect a document referred to in the preceding paragraph;
 - (ii) a request for issuance of a certified copy or extract of a document referred to in the preceding paragraph;
 - (iii) a request to inspect a device that displays the information that has been recorded in an electronic or magnetic record referred to in the preceding paragraph by the means specified by order of the competent ministry; or
 - (iv) a request to be provided with the information that has been recorded in an electronic or magnetic record referred to in the preceding paragraph by an electronic or magnetic means specified by order of the competent ministry, or a request to be issued a document that states the information.
- (4) If an incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger has received a request under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, it must not refuse the request without legitimate grounds.

Subsection 6 Effectuation of Mergers

(Authorization of Mergers)

Article 145 (1) A merger in which commodity exchanges constitute all or part of the parties (limited to a merger in which the person surviving the merger or the person established by the merger is a commodity exchange) does not come into effect without the authorization of the competent minister.

(2) A person seeking the authorization referred to in the preceding paragraph must submit a written application to the competent minister stating the following matters concerning the commodity exchange surviving the merger or the commodity exchange established by the merger (referred below to as the "commodity exchange resulting from a merger") (excluding the matters stated in item (ii), if the commodity exchange resulting from a merger is a member commodity exchange) :

(i) their name or trade name;

(ii) the amount of stated capital;

(iii) the location of their offices or head office, the branch offices, and other business offices;

(iv) the listed commodity or listed commodity index;

(v) the names and addresses of the officers; and

(vi) the names or trade names of the members, etc. and the listed commodity or listed commodity index of the commodity market in which the members, etc. will trade.

(3) Documents stating the content of the merger agreement, the articles of incorporation, operational rules, entrustment contract regulations, dispute resolution rules, and market transactions surveillance committee rules for the commodity market resulting from a merger, and documents specified by order of the competent ministry must be attached to the written application referred to in the preceding paragraph.

(Criteria for Authorization)

Article 146 (1) If the competent minister finds that an application for the authorization referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article conforms to the following criteria (excluding the criteria stated in items (i) and (vi), if the commodity exchange resulting from a merger is a member commodity exchange), the minister must grant the authorization:

(i) the amount of stated capital of the commodity exchange resulting from a merger is at least the amount specified by Cabinet Order as referred to in Article 80, paragraph (1), item (i);

(ii) the volume of transactions is expected to be sufficient for ensuring fair and smooth futures transactions of the listed commodity or listed commodity index related to the application and in light of the status of transactions of the component products of listed commodities, etc., it is necessary and appropriate for the commodity exchange in which the futures transactions are conducted to survive the merger, or to establish a commodity exchange in which the futures transactions are to be conducted by the merger, in order to facilitate the production and distribution of the component products of listed commodities, etc.;

- (iii) if the applicant seeks to open a commodity market for a listed commodity, the situation conforms to the criteria specified by Cabinet Order as a situation in which it is appropriate for the component products of listed commodities to be traded on a single commodity market in light of the status of transactions of the persons conducting purchase and sales, etc. of component products of listed commodities in the course of trade, and in light of other circumstances of economic activities related to the component products of listed commodities;
 - (iv) if the applicant seeks to open a commodity market with two or more commodity indices as a single listed commodity index, the majority of the goods or electric power underlying those two or more commodity indices are the same;
 - (v) the provisions of the articles of incorporation, operational rules, entrustment contract regulations, dispute resolution rules, and market transactions surveillance committee rules of the commodity exchange resulting from a merger do not violate laws and regulations, and the method or management of trade, qualification of members, etc., maximum number of members, etc. if it is specified, matters of deposits if the obligation to deposit a special deposit is specified, and other matters prescribed in the articles of incorporation, operational rules, entrustment contract regulations, dispute resolution rules, and market transactions surveillance committee rules are appropriate and sufficient for ensuring the fairness of transactions in the commodity market and for protecting requesting parties;
 - (vi) the commodity exchange resulting from a merger is to have a sufficient personnel structure to appropriately operate the commodity market;
 - (vii) the commodity exchange resulting from a merger is to be organized in a manner that conforms to the provisions of this Act as a commodity exchange;
 - (viii) it is fully expected that the commodity exchange resulting from a merger will smoothly and appropriately succeed to the business related to transactions in the commodity markets operated by the commodity exchanges that will disappear in the merger.
- (2) If an application for the authorization referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article falls under one of the following items, the competent minister must not grant the authorization referred to in that paragraph notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph:

- (i) the commodity exchange resulting from a merger has a person matching the person referred to in Article 15, paragraph (2), item (i), sub-items (a) through (k) as an officer; or
 - (ii) the written application or documents that are required to be attached to the written application includes a false statement about a material particular.
- (3) If an application is filed for the authorization referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article and the term of existence of the commodity exchange (for a incorporated commodity exchange, its term of existence as an incorporated commodity exchange) or the time limit for opening of the commodity market is stated or recorded in the articles of incorporation (for an incorporated commodity exchange, its operational rules), the criterion stated in paragraph (1), item (ii) is replaced by the criteria that the volume of transactions is not expected to fall short in terms of ensuring fair and smooth futures transactions in the listed commodity or listed commodity index which the application concerns, and that, in light of the status of transactions of the component products of listed commodities, etc., the commodity exchange in which the futures transactions are conducted to survive the merger, or a commodity exchange in which the futures transactions are conducted to be established by the merger does not and is not likely to cause significant hindrance to the production and distribution of the component products of listed commodities, etc., and for the application of these criteria and the criteria referred to in items (iii) and (iv) of that paragraph, the competent minister is to make a judgment on those criteria for the term of existence or the term until the time limit for opening.
- (4) The provisions of Article 15, paragraphs (5) through (11) apply mutatis mutandis to the authorization referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article. In this case, the term "item (iii)" in Article 15, paragraph (10) is deemed to be replaced with "item (vi)".

(Registration of Absorption-type Mergers)

- Article 147 (1) If a member commodity exchange has implemented an absorption-type merger and the commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger is a member commodity exchange, it must register the dissolution for the commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger and register the change for the commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger, within two weeks from the day on which the absorption-type merger comes into effect at the location of the principal office.
- (2) If a member commodity exchange has implemented an absorption-type merger and the commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger is an incorporated commodity exchange, it must register the dissolution for the commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger and register the change for the commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger, within two weeks from the day on which the absorption-type merger comes into effect at the location of the principal office and head office.

(Registration of Consolidation-Type Mergers)

Article 147-2 (1) If a member commodity exchange is to implement a consolidation-type merger and the commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger is a member commodity exchange, it must register the dissolution for the commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger and register the establishment for the commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger, within two weeks from whichever of the following days is the latest at the location of the principal office. With regard to the application of Article 20, paragraph (2) in such a case, the phrase "referred to in the preceding paragraph" in that paragraph is deemed to be replaced with "for the establishment of the commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger":

- (i) the day of the resolution of a general meeting of members referred to Article 144-3, paragraph (4);
- (ii) the day that the procedure under the provisions of Article 124 as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 144-3, paragraph (6) has been completed;
- (iii) the day the commodity exchanges dissolved in a consolidation-type merger have decided through an agreement;
- (iv) the day that the authorization referred to in Article 145, paragraph (1) has been obtained.

(2) If a member commodity exchange is to implement a consolidation-type merger and the commodity exchange established by the consolidation-type merger is an incorporated commodity exchange, it must register the dissolution for the commodity exchange dissolved in the consolidation-type merger and register the establishment for the commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger, within two weeks from whichever of the following days is the latest at the location of the principal office and head office:

- (i) the day of the resolution of a shareholders meeting referred to in Article 144-14, paragraph (1);
- (ii) if a resolution of a general meeting of class shareholders is required for a consolidation-type merger, the day of that resolution;
- (iii) the day on which 20 days have elapsed since the day the notice under the provisions of Article 144-15, paragraph (1) has been made, or the day the public notice referred to in paragraph (2) of that Article has been given;

- (iv) the day on which the procedure referred to in Article 144-11 as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 144-19 has been completed; or
- (v) the days stated in the items of the preceding paragraph.

(Coming into Effect of Mergers)

Article 148 (1) A commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger succeeds to the rights and obligations of a commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger (including rights and obligations that are based on permission, license, authorization, or any other disposition by an administrative agency in relation to the business conducted by the commodity exchange; the same applies in paragraph (3)) on the effective date or on the day it obtains the authorization of the competent minister referred to in Article 145, paragraph (1), whichever is later.

- (2) The dissolution of the commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger as a result of an absorption-type merger may not be asserted against a third party until after the absorption-type merger has been registered.
- (3) A commodity exchange established in a consolidation-type merger succeeds to the rights and obligations of the commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger on the day of its establishment.
- (4) In the cases prescribed in the provisions stated in the following items, the member of a member commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger or a member commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger, or the shareholder of a incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger, becomes a shareholder of the shares under the provisions stated in each of the following items in accordance with the matters stated in each item, on the day on which the absorption-type merger comes into effect, or the day of the establishment of the incorporated commodity exchange established in a consolidation-type merger:
 - (i) the provisions of Article 142, item (ii), (a): the matters stated in item (iii) of that Article; or
 - (ii) the provisions of Article 143, paragraph (1), item (vi): the matters stated in item (vii) of that paragraph.
- (5) A share option in an incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger extinguishes on the day of the establishment of the incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidation-type merger.

Article 149 (1) An entity that is established by obtaining the authorization referred to in Article 145, paragraph (1) is deemed to have obtained the license referred to in Article 9 or the license referred to in Article 78 at the time of the establishment.

- (2) If there are transactions that have been closed on the commodity market of a commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger or commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger, whose settlement has not been completed, unless the commodity exchange resulting from a merger opens a commodity market that is the same as the commodity market related to those transactions (including the same type of commodity market specified by Cabinet Order), the commodity exchange resulting from a merger must open a commodity market that is the same as that of the commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger or commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger, to the extent required to complete the settlement of those transactions.

- (3) The provisions of Article 5, paragraph (1) do not apply if the commodity exchange resulting from a merger opens a commodity market pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph.
- (4) Transactions that have been closed on the commodity market of the commodity exchange dissolved in an absorption-type merger or commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger, and whose settlement has not been completed, are deemed to be transactions that have been closed on the same commodity market as that of the commodity exchange resulting from a merger (including the same type of commodity market specified by Cabinet Order) under the same conditions.

(Treatment of Fractions)

Article 150 The provisions of Article 234, paragraphs (1) through (5), Article 868, paragraph (1), Article 869, Article 871, Article 874 (limited to the part related to item (iv)), Article 875, and Article 876 of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis to the absorption-type merger referred to in Article 142 and the consolidation-type merger referred to in Article 143, paragraph (1). In such a case, the necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

(Submission of Share Certificates)

Article 151 (1) The provisions of Article 219, paragraph (1) (limited to the part related to item (vi)), paragraph (2) (limited to the part related to item (iv)), and paragraph (3), Article 220, Article 293, paragraph (1) (limited to the part related to item (iii)) and paragraph (2) (limited to the part related to item (iv)), paragraph (3) and paragraph (5) of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis to the incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger. In this case, the necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

- (2) The provisions of Article 940, paragraph (1) (limited to the part related to item (i)) and paragraph (3) of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis if an incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger issues the public notice under the provisions of Article 219, paragraph (1) or Article 293, paragraph (1) of that Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the preceding paragraph by the means stated in Article 939, paragraph (1), item (iii) of that Act; the provisions of Article 940, paragraph (1) (limited to the part related to item (iii)) and paragraph (3) apply mutatis mutandis if an incorporated commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger issues the public notice under the provisions of Article 220, paragraph (1) of that Act (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 293, paragraph (5) of that Act, as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the preceding paragraph) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the preceding paragraph by the means stated in Article 939, paragraph (1), item (iii) of that Act. In this case, the necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

- (3) The provisions of Article 154, paragraph (2) (limited to the part related to item (iii)) and Article 272, paragraph (3) (limited to the part related to item (iii)) of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis to an incorporated commodity exchange established by a consolidated-type merger. In this case, the necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

(Application, Mutatis Mutandis of the Commercial Registration Act)

Article 152 (1) The provisions of Article 79, Article 80 (excluding items (ii), (vi), (ix), and (x)), Article 81 (excluding items (iii), (vi), (ix), and (x)), Article 82, and Article 83 of the Commercial Registration Act apply mutatis mutandis to the registration of a member commodity exchange as the result of a merger in a case stated in Article 139, paragraph (2), item (i). In this case, the phrase "trade name and the head office" in Article 79 of that Act is to be replaced with "name and the principal office"; the term "amount of stated capital" in Article 80, item (iv) of that Act is deemed to be replaced with "total amount of contribution"; the term "head office" in item (v) of that Article and Article 81, item (v) of that Act is deemed to be replaced with "office"; the phrase "when a company dissolved in an absorption-type merger is a membership company, a document proving the consent of all members (if special provisions exist in the articles of incorporation, the procedures under those provisions)" in Article 80, item (vii) of that Act is deemed to be replaced with "minutes of the general meeting of members regarding the merger of the member commodity exchange implementing the absorption-type merger"; the term "the following documents" in Article 81 of that Act is deemed to be replaced with "the following documents and a document proving the qualification of the person with the authority of representation"; the phrase "when a company dissolved in an incorporation-type merger is a membership company, a document proving the consent of all members (if special provisions exist in the articles of incorporation, the procedure under such provisions)" in item (vii) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "minutes of the general meeting regarding the merger of the member commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger"; the term "the head office" in Article 82, paragraph (2) and Article 83 of that Act is deemed to be replaced with "the principal office"; any other necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

- (2) The provisions of Article 79, Article 80 (excluding items (vi), (ix), and (x)), and Articles 81 through 83 of the Commercial Registration Act apply mutatis mutandis to the registration of a member commodity exchange or incorporated commodity exchange as the result of a merger in a case stated in Article 139, paragraph (2), item (ii). In this case, the phrase "trade name and the head office" in Article 79 of that Act is deemed to be replaced with "name and the principal office or the head office"; the term "head office" in Article 80, item (v) of that Act is deemed to be replaced with "office"; the phrase "when a company dissolved in an absorption-type merger is a membership company, a document proving the consent of all members (if special provisions exist in the articles of incorporation, the procedure under those provisions)" in item (vii) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "the minutes of the general meeting of members regarding the merger of the member commodity exchange surviving an absorption-type merger"; the term "head office" in Article 81, item (v) of that Act is deemed to be replaced with "head office or office"; the phrase "when a company dissolved in an incorporation-type merger is a membership company, a document proving the consent of all members (if special provisions exist in the articles of incorporation, the procedure under those provisions)" in item (vii) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "the minutes of the general meeting of members regarding the merger of the member commodity exchange dissolved in a consolidation-type merger"; any other necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

(Action to Invalidate a Merger)

Article 153 The provisions of Article 828, paragraph (1) (limited to the part related to item (vii) and item (viii)) and paragraph (2) (limited to the part related to item (vii) and item (viii)), Article 834 (limited to the part related to item (vii) and item (viii)), Article 835, paragraph (1), Articles 836 through 839, Article 843 (excluding paragraph (1), item (iii) and item (iv) and the proviso to paragraph (2)), Article 846, and Article 937, paragraph (3) (limited to the part related to item (ii) and item (iii)) of the Companies Act apply mutatis mutandis to an action to invalidate a merger referred to in Article 139, paragraph (1); the provisions of Article 868, paragraph (6), Article 870, paragraph (2) (limited to the part related to item (vi)), Article 870-2, the main clause of Article 871,

Article 872 (limited to the part related to item (v)), Article 872-2, the main clause of Article 873, Article 875, and Article 876 of that Act apply mutatis mutandis to a petition referred to in Article 843, paragraph (4) of that Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to this Article. In this case, the phrase "the head office of each company" in Article 937, paragraph (3) of that Act is deemed to be replaced with "the head office of each incorporated commodity exchange or the principal office of each member commodity exchange".

(Delegation to Cabinet Order)

Article 154 (1) Beyond what is provided for in this Act, necessary matters for the merger of commodity exchanges are specified by Cabinet Order.

(2) The amount that is required to be reported as capital reserves at the time of a merger and other necessary matters for the calculation at the time of a merger are specified by order of the competent ministry.

Section 7 Supervision

(Changes to the Articles of Incorporation)

Article 155 (1) Changes to the articles of incorporation of a commodity exchange does not come into effect without the authorization of the competent minister.

(2) If a commodity exchange seeks the authorization referred to in the preceding paragraph, it must submit a written application by attaching the documents specified by order of the competent ministry to the competent minister.

(3) If an application is filed by a member commodity exchange for the authorization referred to in paragraph (1) and the competent minister finds the application to conform to the criteria prescribed in each of the following items in accordance with the category stated in that item, the minister must grant the authorization:

(i) an application concerning the operation of a commodity market (other than what is stated in the following item): the following criteria:

(a) the total number of members of the member commodity exchange seeking to open the commodity market who seek to trade on that commodity market, and the persons that seek to become members of the member commodity exchange and trade on the commodity market (limited to those that have finished paying the full amount of their contribution) is 20 or more and the majority of them are persons specified in the items of Article 10, paragraph (2);

(b) the criteria stated in Article 15, paragraph (1), items (i) through (iv);

(ii) an application concerning the opening of a fixed-term commodity market (meaning the commodity market of a member commodity exchange whose term of existence is stated or recorded in the articles of incorporation, or a commodity market whose time limit for opening is stated or recorded in the articles of incorporation; the same applies below in this Article): the following criteria:

- (a) the criteria stated in (a) of the preceding item;
 - (b) the volume of transactions is not expected to fall short in terms of ensuring fair and smooth futures transactions in the listed commodity or listed commodity index that the application concerns, and in light of the status of transactions of the component products of listed commodities, etc., opening a commodity market in which the futures transactions are conducted does not and is not likely to significantly hinder the production or distribution of the component products of listed commodities, etc.;
 - (c) the criteria stated in Article 15, paragraph (1), items (ii) through (iv);
 - (iii) an application concerning a change of scope of a listed commodity or listed commodity index (limited to those for which the term for a change of scope is specified) of a commodity market (excluding a fixed-term commodity market) or the abolition of the term of existence of a member commodity exchange, the time limit for opening of a commodity market, or the term for a change of scope: the criteria stated in Article 15, paragraph (1), items (i) through (iv);
 - (iv) an application concerning a change of scope of a listed commodity or listed commodity index (limited to those for which the term for a change of scope is specified) of a commodity market (excluding a fixed-term commodity market), or a change of scope of a listed commodity or a listed commodity index on a fixed-term commodity market, or to a change of the term of existence of a member commodity exchange, the time limit for opening of a commodity market, or the term for a change of scope: the following criteria:
 - (a) the volume of transactions is not expected to fall short in terms of ensuring fair and smooth futures transactions in the listed commodity or listed commodity index which the application concerns, and, in light of the status of transactions of the component products of listed commodities, etc., the change of scope of a listed commodity or a listed commodity index or the change of the term of existence of the member commodity exchange, the time limit for opening of the commodity market, or the change of the term for a change of scope does not and is not likely to cause significant hindrance to the production or distribution of the component products of listed commodities, etc.;
 - (b) the criteria stated in Article 15, paragraph (1), items (ii) through (iv);
 - (v) beyond what is stated in the preceding items: the criteria stated in Article 15, paragraph (1), item (iv).

- (5) The provisions of Article 103, paragraph (4) apply mutatis mutandis to the commodity clearing organization referred to in paragraph (1). In this, the term "paragraph (1)" in paragraph (4) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "Article 179, paragraph (1)".
- (6) The provisions of Article 103, paragraphs (5) and (6) apply mutatis mutandis to the clearing margin referred to in paragraph (1), the customer margin referred to in paragraph (2), the brokerage margin referred to in paragraph (3), and the clearing brokerage margin referred to in paragraph (4).
- (7) The provisions of Article 103, paragraphs (7), (9), and (10) apply mutatis mutandis to the cases referred to in paragraphs (2) through (4). In this, the phrase "the member, etc. referred to in paragraph (2) or the broker referred to in paragraph (3)" in paragraph (7) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "the member, etc. referred to in Article 179, paragraph (2), the broker referred to in paragraph (3) of that Article, or the clearing broker referred to in paragraph (4) of that Article"; the phrase "the member, etc. or broker" in that paragraph and paragraph (10) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "the member, etc. or broker, etc."; the term "commodity exchange" referred to in paragraphs (7), (9), and (10) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "commodity clearing organization"; and the term "the preceding two paragraphs" in paragraph (9) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "Article 103, paragraph (7) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 179, paragraph (7) following the deemed replacement of terms".

- (8) The provisions of Article 103, paragraphs (8), (9), and (11) apply mutatis mutandis to the case referred to in paragraph (1), item (i), (a) (limited to the case in which a member, etc. conducts a transaction in a commodity market on their own account), (b), or (d) or in paragraph (1), item (ii), (a) (limited to the case in which a clearing participant conducts a commodity clearing transaction on the account of the member, etc. that has entrusted them with the transaction), (b), or (d). In this case, the phrase "the member, etc. prescribed in item (i) of that paragraph, the requesting party of the transaction in the commodity market which is prescribed in item (ii) of that paragraph, or the brokerage requesting party that is prescribed in item (iv) of that paragraph" in paragraph (8) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "the member, etc. prescribed in Article 179, paragraph (1), item (i), (a), the requesting party of the transaction on the commodity market which is prescribed in (b) of that item, the brokerage requesting party that is prescribed in (d) of that item, the member, etc. prescribed in Article 179, paragraph (1), item (ii) (a), the clearing brokerage requesting party that is prescribed in (b) of that item, or the requesting party that makes a request to the clearing broker that is prescribed in (d) of that item"; the phrase "member, etc., person entrusting transactions, or brokerage requesting party " in that paragraph and paragraph (11) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "member, etc., person entrusting transactions, or brokerage requesting party, the clearing brokerage requesting party, or the requesting party that makes a request to the clearing broker"; the term "commodity exchange" in paragraphs (8), (9), and (11) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "commodity clearing organization"; and the phrase "the preceding two paragraphs" in paragraph (9) of that Article is to be replaced with "Article 103, paragraph (8) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 179, paragraph (8) following the deemed replacement of terms".

(Clearing Deposits)

- Article 180 (1) A commodity clearing organization may have a clearing participant deposit clearing funds in order to guarantee the performance of its obligations to the commodity clearing organization, pursuant to the provisions of its operational method statement.
- (2) If a commodity clearing organization incurs a loss as a result of a clearing participant's non-performance of obligations, the commodity clearing organization has the right to receive payment in preference over other creditors out of the clearing funds of the clearing participant that has caused the loss.
- (3) If a commodity clearing organization receives payment out of the clearing deposit referred to in the preceding paragraph pursuant to the provisions of that paragraph and the amount is still insufficient, the commodity clearing organization has the right to receive payment in preference over other creditors out of the clearing funds of the clearing participants other than the clearing participant referred to in that paragraph, in accordance with the amount of their clearing deposits.
- (4) If a payment under the provisions of the preceding paragraph is made, the other clearing participants prescribed in that paragraph have the right to claim reimbursement from the clearing participant that has caused the loss prescribed in paragraph (2).
- (5) The provisions of Article 110 apply mutatis mutandis to a clearing deposit. In this case, the term "commodity exchange" in the same Article is deemed to be replaced with "commodity clearing organization".

(Settlement of Outstanding Obligations)

- Article 181 (1) If a commodity clearing organization has specified in its operational method statement the means of settling outstanding obligations if special liquidation proceedings, bankruptcy proceedings, or reorganization proceedings have commenced for a clearing participant (outstanding obligations mean obligations arising from transactions in a commodity market, over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions, or subject transactions prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (28) of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act that a clearing member has conducted, and which the commodity clearing organization has assumed from the other parties to the transactions or has novated or in any other method borne as business of assuming commodity transaction debts, etc. or as financial instruments obligation assumption services and obligations arising from those transactions that the commodity clearing organization has assumed from the clearing participant; and claims (limited to claims with the same contents as the obligations) that the commodity clearing organization has acquired against the clearing participant as the value of the obligations which have arisen out of those transactions and which the commodity clearing organization has assumed, taken over, novated, or in any other way borne for that clearing participant; the same applies below in this paragraph), and those proceedings commence for a clearing member, the calculation of the amount of the claim that the commodity clearing organization or the clearing participant has in terms of outstanding obligations, and other means of settlement, are to be made in accordance with the provisions of the operational method statement of the commodity clearing organization.

- (2) The claims provided for in the preceding paragraph which a commodity clearing organization has are bankruptcy claims, rehabilitation claims, or reorganization claims, and the claims provided for in that paragraph which a clearing participant has are claims to the property that belongs to the bankruptcy estate, the property of the rehabilitation debtor, the property of a reorganizing company, or the property of a reorganizing cooperative financial institution.

(Authorization to Change the Articles of Incorporation or Operational Method Statements)

Article 182 A change to the articles of incorporation or operational method statement of a commodity clearing organization does not come into effect unless it receives the authorization of the competent minister pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.

(Authorization for Dissolution)

Article 183 A resolution on the discontinuation of the business of assuming commodity transaction debts of a commodity clearing organization or a resolution on the dissolution of a commodity clearing organization does not come into effect without the authorization of the competent minister.

(Collection of Reports and On-Site Inspections)

Article 184 (1) The competent minister may order a commodity clearing organization or its clearing participant to submit reports or materials that should serve as a reference on its business or assets, or may have ministry employees enter the office or business office of a commodity clearing organization or its clearing participant and inspect its books and documents or any other article related to its business when the minister finds it necessary to do so for the enforcement of this Act.

- (2) The provisions of Article 157, paragraphs (4) and (5) apply mutatis mutandis to the on-site inspection under the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

(Business Improvement Orders)

Article 185 The competent minister may order the commodity clearing organization to the extent necessary to change its articles of incorporation, operational method statement or other rules to change its business methods, or to take other measures necessary for improving its business operations or the state of its property if the minister finds it necessary and appropriate to do so for the proper and reliable performance of the business of assuming commodity transaction debts.

(Supervisory Dispositions)

Article 186 (1) The competent minister may revoke the commodity clearing organization's license under Article 167 or its approval under the proviso to Article 170, paragraph (2) or Article 173, paragraph (1), or may order it to suspend all or a part of its business for a fixed period not exceeding six months if a commodity clearing organization violates this Act, an order based on this Act, or a disposition made by the minister based on this Act (referred to below as "this Act, etc." in this Article), and the competent minister finds it necessary and appropriate to do so for the proper and reliable performance of the business of assuming commodity transaction debts.

(2) If the competent minister discovers that a written application for the license referred to in Article 167, the approval referred to the proviso to Article 170, paragraph (2) or Article 173, paragraph (1), or the authorization referred to in Article 182, or their attached documents contain a false statement about a material particular or lacks a statement of material fact, the minister may revoke the license, approval, or authorization.

(3) If a commodity exchange that has obtained the approval referred to in Article 173, paragraph (1) has had its license referred to in Article 9 or license referred to in Article 78 revoked, or if the commodity exchange falls under one of the items of Article 69 or of Article 94, paragraph (1), the approval ceases to be effective.

(4) If the competent minister discovers that a person has become the officer of a commodity clearing organization by wrongful means or if the officer of a commodity clearing organization violates this Act, etc., the minister may order the commodity clearing organization to dismiss that officer.

(Application, Mutatis Mutandis of Special Provisions on the Means of Conducting Hearings)

Article 187 The provisions of Article 158, paragraph (2) apply mutatis mutandis to the disposition under the provisions of the preceding two Articles, and the provisions of Article 159, paragraph (4) apply mutatis mutandis to a hearing on the revocation of permission, license, approval, or authorization or on an order to dismiss an officer under the provisions of the preceding Article.

Section 2 Miscellaneous Provisions

(Application, Mutatis Mutandis of Provisions on the Completion of Settlement of Transactions)

Article 188 The provisions of Article 113 (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 114) apply mutatis mutandis to a commodity clearing transaction if the member that requests a person with the commodity clearing transaction withdraws from a member commodity exchange, if the trading participant that requests a person with the commodity clearing transaction loses trading qualification on an incorporated commodity exchange, or if transactions in a commodity market are suspended for the member, etc. that requests a person with the commodity clearing transactions, and the settlement of those commodity clearing transactions has not been completed.

(Delegation to Cabinet Order)

Article 189 Beyond what is provided for in Article 167 through the preceding Article, necessary matters concerning commodity clearing organizations, etc. are specified by Cabinet Order.

Chapter IV Commodity Derivatives Brokers

Section 1 Licensing

(License for Commodity Derivatives Business)

Article 190 (1) Commodity derivatives business may only be conducted by a person that has been licensed by the competent minister.
(2) The license referred to in the preceding paragraph loses its effect due to the expiration of the license period unless it is renewed every six years.

(Licensing Conditions)

Article 191 (1) Conditions may be attached to the license referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article (including the renewal of a license referred to in paragraph (2) of that Article; the same applies below).
(2) The conditions referred to in the preceding paragraph must be the minimum necessary to maintain order in the commodity markets or to protect the requesting parties, etc.

(Application for License)

Article 192 (1) A person seeking to obtain the license referred to in Article 190, paragraph (1) must submit a written application stating the following matters to the competent minister:

- (i) the trade name or name;
 - (ii) the amount of net assets;
 - (iii) the names and locations of the head office, branch offices, business offices, and any other offices;
 - (iv) the names and addresses of the officers;
 - (v) the category of business in relation to the acts stated in the items of Article 2, paragraph (22);
 - (vi) other matters specified by order of the competent ministry.
- (2) The articles of incorporation, certificate of registered information, balance sheet, profit and loss statement, and documents specified by order of the competent ministry must be attached to the written application referred to in the preceding paragraph.
- (3) The provisions of Article 99, paragraph (7) apply mutatis mutandis to the amount of net assets referred to in paragraph (1), item (ii).

(Licensing Criteria)

Article 193 (1) The competent minister must not grant the license referred to in Article 190, paragraph (1) unless the minister finds that the application for the license referred to in that paragraph conforms to all of the following items:

- (i) the license applicant falls under either of the following sub-items:
 - (a) a stock company (or, in the case of a corporation incorporated in accordance with the laws and regulations of a foreign state, the same type of corporation as a stock company, which has a business office or an office in Japan); or
 - (b) a corporation other than a stock company, or a person domiciled in a foreign state (other than one falling under (a)), which is specified by Cabinet Order.
- (ii) the license applicant has sufficient financial basis to soundly perform commodity derivatives business and has good prospects in terms of expected income and expenditures of the commodity derivatives business;
- (iii) the license applicant has the knowledge and experience to fairly and appropriately perform their commodity derivatives business, has sufficient social credibility, and their performance of commodity derivatives business is not likely to result in insufficient protection of requesting parties, etc.;
- (iv) the license applicant is not a person who falls under any of the persons referred to in Article 15, paragraph (2), item (i), sub-items (c) through (e), sub-item (i), or sub-item (l); and
- (v) the written application or documents that are required to be attached to the written application contain no false statement about a material particular.

- (2) With regard to the application of the provisions of item (ii) of the preceding paragraph, if the amount of net assets of a license applicant is below the amount prescribed by order of the competent ministry as the amount that is necessary in order to protect requesting parties, etc., the applicant is considered not to have sufficient financial basis to soundly perform its commodity derivatives business.

(Procedures for Dispositions)

Article 194 The provisions of Article 15, paragraphs (5) through (9) apply mutatis mutandis to the license referred to in Article 190, paragraph (1).

(Matters Requiring Notification)

- Article 195 (1) If a commodity derivatives broker comes to fall under one of the following cases, the business operator must submit a written notification of this to the competent minister within two weeks from the day in question:
- (i) the business operator changes a matter stated in Article 192, paragraph (1), item (i), or items (iii) through (vi);
 - (ii) the business operator discontinues business related to the acts stated in Article 2, paragraph (22), items (i) and (ii) at all the business offices and offices that have been established in Japan;
 - (iii) the business operator commences, suspends, or resumes commodity derivatives business;
 - (iv) the business operator files a petition to commence bankruptcy proceedings, rehabilitation proceedings, or reorganization proceedings; or
 - (v) the business operator falls under any other case specified by order of the competent ministry.
- (2) The documents specified by order of the competent ministry must be attached to the written notification referred to in the preceding paragraph.

(Notification of Concurrent Business)

- Article 196 (1) If a commodity derivatives broker seeks to engage in a business other than the commodity derivatives business or business incidental to it (other such business is referred to below as "concurrent business"), the commodity derivatives broker must submit a written notification of this to the competent minister, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry. The same applies if the commodity derivatives broker seeks to change a particular for which they have submitted notification, or if they discontinue the concurrent business.
- (2) If a commodity derivatives broker gains a controlling interest in another corporation (meaning a relationship with another corporation in which the commodity derivatives broker holds voting rights equivalent to at least a half of all shareholders' or all members' voting rights in that corporation (including voting rights in respect of shares that cannot be asserted against the issuer pursuant to the provisions of Article 147, paragraph (1) or Article 148, paragraph (1) of the Act on Book-Entry Transfer of Corporate Bonds and Shares or a relationship specified by order of the competent ministry as one that enables the commodity derivatives broker to substantially control the business activities of that corporation), the commodity derivatives broker must submit a written notification of this to the competent minister without delay, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry. The same applies if a matter for which they have submitted notification changes or if their controlling interest ceases to exist.

(Notifications of Discontinuance of Business)

Article 197 (1) If a commodity derivatives broker comes to fall under any of the following items, the person stated in each item must notify the competent minister of this within 30 days from the day in question:

- (i) the business operator discontinues commodity derivatives business: the commodity derivatives broker;
 - (ii) the business operator disappears in a merger: the officer that represented the commodity derivatives broker;
 - (iii) the business operator is dissolved due to an order of commencement of bankruptcy proceedings: the bankruptcy trustee;
 - (iv) the business operator is dissolved for reasons other than a merger or an order of commencement of bankruptcy proceedings: the liquidator;
 - (v) the business operator has the whole or a part of their commodity derivatives business succeeded to in a company split: the commodity derivatives broker; or
 - (vi) the business operator transfers the whole or a part of their commodity derivatives business: the commodity derivatives broker.
- (2) If a commodity derivatives broker comes to fall under any of the items of the preceding paragraph (but only if they transfer the whole of the commodity derivatives business in a company split, if they fall under item (v) of that paragraph; only if they transfer the whole of the commodity derivatives business, if they fall under item (vi) of that paragraph), the commodity derivatives broker's license under Article 190, paragraph (1) ceases to be effective.
- (3) If a commodity derivatives broker seeks to discontinue commodity derivatives business, conduct a merger (limited to one in which the corporation surviving the merger or the corporation incorporated in the merger does not engage in commodity derivatives business), or dissolve for reasons other than a merger or an order of commencement of bankruptcy proceedings, by 30 days before that day, the business operator must issue public notice to that effect, as well as post a notice of the fact in a place easily seen by the public at all of their business offices and offices, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.

- (4) If a commodity derivatives broker issues public notice under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, they must immediately notify the competent minister of this.
- (5) If a commodity derivatives broker issues public notice under the provisions of paragraph (3), they must promptly close the transactions in the commodity market that they have conducted on the requesting parties' accounts and return the property deposited by the requesting parties in relation to their commodity derivatives business and the property that the commodity derivatives broker possesses based on the requesting parties' accounts, without delay.

(Restrictions on the Use of Trade Names)

Article 197-2 A person that is not a commodity derivatives broker must not use a word in their trade name or name which could give rise to the misconception that they are commodity derivatives brokers.

Section 2 Eligible Requesting Parties

(Obligation to Notify Eligible Requesting Parties)

Article 197-3 If a commodity derivatives broker receives an offer for a commodity transaction contract from an eligible requesting party (limited to one stated in Article 2, paragraph (25), item (vii) or (viii)), and has not enter into a commodity transaction contract with the eligible requesting party in the past, the business operator must notify the eligible requesting party, by the time the commodity transaction contract which that application concerns is enter into, that the eligible requesting party may make a request under the provisions of paragraph (1) of the following Article.

(Cases in which an Eligible Requesting Party is Deemed to be a General Requesting Party)

Article 197-4 (1) An eligible requesting party (limited to one stated in Article 2, paragraph (25), item (vii) or (viii)) may request a commodity derivatives broker to treat them as a customer other than an eligible requesting party or eligible business specialist (referred to below as "general customer") in relation to a commodity transaction contract.

- (2) If a commodity derivatives broker receives a request under the preceding paragraph, they must approve the request by the time they solicit the requester to enter into the first commodity transaction contract after then, or by the time they enter into the contract.

- (3) Before a commodity derivatives broker approves the request pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, they must deliver a document stating the following matters to the eligible requesting party that submitted the request under paragraph (1) (referred to below the "requester" in this Article):
- (i) the day on which the request is approved pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph (referred to below as the "approval date" in this Article);
 - (ii) an indication that they will treat the requester as a general customer if they solicit the requester to enter into a commodity transaction contract, or enter into a commodity transaction contract with the requester on or after the approval date;
 - (iii) other matters provided by order of the competent ministry.
- (4) With the consent of the requester and pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Order, in place of delivering the document under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, a commodity derivatives broker may provide the requester with the matters that are required to be stated in that document by means of an electronic data processing system or by any other means of using information and communications technology specified by order of the competent ministry. In this case, the commodity derivatives broker is deemed to have delivered the document.
- (5) With regard to the application of the provisions of this Act (other than this Section), if a commodity derivatives broker gives the approval under paragraph (2) or delivers the document under the provisions of paragraph (3), and the requester is a person stated in one of the following items, the requester is deemed to be a general customer:
- (i) the other party to the commodity derivatives broker's solicitation to enter into a commodity transaction contract on or after the approval date;
 - (ii) the other party with which the commodity derivatives broker enters into a commodity transaction contract on or after the approval date.
- (6) If the preceding paragraph applies to a requester with regard to the conclusion of a commodity transaction contract (limited to one enter into for the commodity derivatives broker to act as an agent as provided for in one of the items of Article 2, paragraph (22); referred to below as a "specified commodity transaction contract" in this paragraph and paragraph (8)), before the commodity derivatives broker concludes a commodity transaction contract on behalf of the requester based on the specified commodity transaction contract, they must notify the other commodity derivatives broker with which the commodity transaction contract is to be enter into (referred to below as the "counterparty commodity derivatives broker" in the following paragraph and

- paragraph (8)) that the requester is deemed to be a general customer in relation to that commodity transaction contract.
- (7) If a commodity derivatives broker gives notice under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the provisions of the preceding Article do not apply to the counterparty commodity derivatives broker.
- (8) If a commodity derivatives broker that has entered into a specified commodity transaction contract gives notice under the provisions of paragraph (6), the requester is deemed to be a general customer with regard to the commodity transaction contracts that the commodity derivatives broker enters into with the counterparty commodity derivatives broker on behalf of the requester based on the specified commodity transaction contract, and the provisions of this Act (excluding this Section) apply.
- (9) If a requester newly becomes a person that falls under one of Article 2, paragraph (25), items (i) through (iii), or item (vi) on or after the approval date, the provisions of paragraphs (5) through (8) do not apply to the requester after the day on which the requester becomes that person.
- (10) A requester that has obtained the approval under the provisions of paragraph (2) may request the commodity derivatives broker to treat them as an eligible requesting party with regard to a commodity transaction contract.
- (11) Before a commodity derivatives broker approves the request referred to in the preceding paragraph (referred to below as a "request for reinstatement"), they must obtain the consent of the person making the request for reinstatement (referred to below as a "person requesting reinstatement" in this Article) in writing using a document stating the date on which they will approve the request for reinstatement and the matters specified by order of the competent ministry.
- (12) With the consent of the person requesting reinstatement and pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Order, in place of obtaining the consent in writing under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, a commodity derivatives broker may obtain consent to treat the person requesting reinstatement as an eligible requesting party by means of an electronic data processing system or any other means of using information and communications technology specified by order of the competent ministry. In this case, the commodity derivatives broker is deemed to have obtained written consent.
- (13) Once a commodity derivatives broker approves a request for reinstatement with the consent of the person requesting reinstatement pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (11), the provisions of paragraphs (5), (6), and (8) do not apply during the period from the day on which the request is approved to the day preceding the day on which the business operator gives the new approval under paragraph (2).

(When Customers Other Than Eligible Requesting Parties Are Corporations Deemed to Be Eligible Requesting Parties)

Article 197-5 (1) A corporation (other than an eligible requesting party, eligible business specialist, or corporation prescribed in Article 197-9, paragraph (1)) may request a commodity derivatives broker to treat it as eligible requesting party with regard to a commodity transaction contract.

(2) Before approving a request under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, a commodity derivatives broker must obtain the consent of the corporation that has made the request (referred to below as the "requester" in this Article) using a document that states the following matters. In this case, the business operator must set the due date specified in item (ii) to the day on which one year has elapsed counting from the approval date specified in item (i) (or, in the case specified by order of the competent ministry, a day before one year elapses, which is specified by order of the competent ministry):

- (i) the day on which they give the approval under the provisions of this paragraph (referred to below as the "approval date" in this Article);
- (ii) the last day of the period during which they will treat the requester as an eligible requesting party in soliciting the requester to enter into a commodity transaction contract or in concluding a commodity transaction contract with the requester (referred to below as the "due date" in this Article);
- (iii) a statement to the effect that the requester understands the following matters:
 - (a) if an eligible requesting party offers a commodity transaction contract to the commodity derivatives broker or enters into a commodity transaction contract with the commodity derivatives broker, the matters specified by order of the competent ministry as the content of special provisions for the application of this Act, if an eligible requesting party is solicited to enter into a commodity transaction contract by a commodity derivatives broker;
 - (b) if a person that is inappropriate to be treated as an eligible requesting party in relation to the commodity transaction contracts, in light of their knowledge, experience, and the state of their property, will be treated as eligible requesting party, it is likely to result in insufficient protection of that person;
- (iv) in soliciting the requester to enter into a commodity transaction contract before the due date, or in concluding a commodity transaction contract with the requester before the due date, an indication that the business operator will treat the requester as an eligible requesting party;
- (v) in soliciting the requester to enter into a commodity transaction contract on or after the due date, or in concluding a commodity transaction contract with the requester after the due date, an indication that the business operator will treat the requester as a general customer;

- (vi) an indication that the requester may request the commodity derivatives broker to treat them as a general customer;
 - (vii) other matters specified by order of the competent ministry.
- (3) The provisions of paragraph (12) of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to the consent in writing under the provisions of the preceding paragraph.
- (4) Regarding o the application of the provisions of this Act (excluding this Section), when a commodity derivatives broker gives the approval under paragraph (2) and the requester gives the consent in writing under the provisions of that paragraph, if the requester is a person stated in one of the following items, the requester is deemed to be an eligible requesting party:
- (i) a person that the commodity derivatives broker solicits to enter into a commodity transaction contract during the period from the approval date to the due date; or
 - (ii) a person with which the commodity derivatives broker enters into a commodity transaction contract during the period from the approval date to the due date.
- (5) If the preceding paragraph applies to a requester in relation to the conclusion of a commodity transaction contract (limited to one enter into for the commodity derivatives broker to act as an agent as provided for in one of the items of Article 2, paragraph (22); referred to below as the "specified commodity transaction contract" in this paragraph and the following paragraph), before the commodity derivatives broker enters into a commodity transaction contract on behalf of the requester based on the specified commodity transaction contract, the business operator must notify the other commodity derivatives broker with which the commodity transaction contract is to be enter into (referred to below as a "counterparty commodity derivatives broker" in the following paragraph) that the requester is deemed to be an eligible requesting party in relation to the commodity transaction contract.
- (6) If a commodity derivatives broker that has enter into a specified commodity transaction contract gives notice under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the requester is deemed to be an eligible requesting party in relation to the commodity transaction contract that the commodity derivatives broker enters into with the counterparty commodity derivatives broker on behalf of the requester based on the specified commodity transaction contract, and the provisions of this Act (excluding this Section) apply.
- (7) From the day that the period specified by order of the competent ministry has passed counting from the approval date until the due date, the requester may request the commodity derivatives broker to continue to treat them as an eligible requesting party after the due date.
- (8) If a commodity derivatives broker approves the request referred to in the preceding paragraph (referred to below as "request for renewal" in this Article) on or before the due date, the approval is deemed to have been given on the day following the due date.

- (9) If a commodity derivatives broker is to approve the request for renewal, the provisions of paragraphs (2) through (8) apply mutatis mutandis to the approval. In this case, the phrase "the day on which they give the approval under this paragraph" in paragraph (2), item (i) is deemed to be replaced with "the day that is deemed to be the day on which they have given the approval pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (8)" and the phrase "approval under the provisions of paragraph (2)" in paragraph (4) is deemed to be replaced with "approval under the provisions of paragraph (8)".
- (10) A requester that has obtained the approval under paragraph (2) may request a commodity derivatives broker to treat them as a general customer on or after the approval date.
- (11) If a commodity derivatives broker receives a request under the preceding paragraph (referred to below as "request for reinstatement" in this Article), they must approve the request for reinstatement by the time they solicit the requester to conclude the first commodity transaction contract after then, or by the time they conclude the contract.
- (12) Before a commodity derivatives broker approves a request for reinstatement, they must deliver a document that states the date on which they will approve the request for reinstatement and other matters specified by order of the competent ministry to the corporation that has made the request for reinstatement.
- (13) The provisions of paragraph (4) of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to the delivery of a document under the provisions of the preceding paragraph.
- (14) If a commodity derivatives broker approves the request for reinstatement pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (11), the provisions of paragraphs (4) through (9) do not apply during the period from the day on which they approve the request for reinstatement until the day preceding the day on which they newly give the approval under the provisions of paragraph (2).

(When Customers Other Than Eligible Requesting Parties That Are Individuals Are Deemed to Be Eligible Requesting Parties)

Article 197-6 (1) An individual who satisfies the requirements specified by order of the competent ministry for a person who is equivalent to an eligible requesting party in light of the person's knowledge and experience and the state of property (excluding a person falling under Article 2, paragraph (25), item (iii) or the member, etc. of a commodity exchange) may request a commodity derivatives broker to treat them as eligible requesting party in relation to commodity transaction contracts.

- (2) If a commodity derivatives broker receives a request under the preceding paragraph, they must deliver a document that states the matters specified in paragraph (2), item (iii), (a) and (b) of the preceding Article to the individual that has made the request (referred to below as the "requester" in this Article) and confirm that the requester falls under the person prescribed in the preceding paragraph.
- (3) The provisions of Article 197-4, paragraph (4) apply mutatis mutandis to the delivery of a document under the provisions of the preceding paragraph.
- (4) From the day that the period specified by order of the competent ministry has passed counting from the date of the approval under paragraph (2) of the preceding Article as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to paragraph (6) (referred to as the "approval date" in the following paragraph) until the due date specified in paragraph (2), item (ii) of the preceding Article as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to paragraph (6), the requester may request the commodity derivatives broker to continue to treat them as an eligible requesting party after the end date.
- (5) A requester who has obtained the approval referred to in paragraph (2) of the preceding Article as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the following paragraph may request the commodity derivatives broker to treat them as a general customer on or after the approval date.
- (6) The provisions of paragraphs (2) through (6) of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis when a commodity derivatives broker approves the request referred to in paragraph (1), the provisions of paragraphs (8) and (9) of that Article apply mutatis mutandis when a commodity derivatives broker approves the request referred to in paragraph (4), and the provisions of paragraphs (11) through (14) of that Article apply mutatis mutandis when a commodity derivatives broker approves the request referred to in the preceding paragraph. In this case, the term "the corporation that has made the request" in paragraph (2) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "the requester provided for in Article 197-6, paragraph (2)" and the phrase "the corporation that has made the request for reinstatement" in paragraph (12) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "the person that has made the request referred to in Article 197-6, paragraph (5)", and any other necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

(Obligation to Notify Eligible Business Specialists)

Article 197-7 If a commodity derivatives broker receives an offer for a commodity transaction contract from an eligible business specialist, and has not enter into a commodity transaction contract (limited to contracts related to commercial derivative transactions of which the underlying commodities are goods for which the eligible business specialist buys and sells, acts as a mediator, intermediary or agent for buying and selling or engages in the production, the processing or the use in the course of trade or other goods specified by order of the competent ministry as being related to those goods, or electric power which the eligible business specialist buys and sells, acts as a mediator, intermediary or agent for buying and selling, or conducts other acts specified by order of the competent ministry in the course of trade; (the same applies below in this Article to Article 197-9 and Article 220-4, paragraph (2), item (ii)) in the past with the eligible business specialist, the commodity derivatives broker must notify the eligible business specialist by the time the commodity transaction contract which that application concerns is entered into, that the eligible business specialist may make an offer under the provisions of paragraph (1) of the following Article.

(When Eligible Business Specialists Are Deemed to Be General Requesting Parties)

Article 197-8 (1) Eligible business specialists may make a request to a commodity derivatives broker to treat them as a general customer in relation to a commodity transaction contract.

(2) The provisions of Article 197-4, paragraphs (2) through (13) apply mutatis mutandis to eligible business specialists. In this case, the term "specified requesting party" in paragraphs (3), (10), and (12) of that Article is to be replaced with "eligible business specialist", and any other necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

(When Corporations Other Than Eligible Requesting Parties or Eligible Business Specialists Are Deemed to Be Eligible Business Specialists)

Article 197-9 (1) A corporation (excluding eligible requesting parties and eligible business specialists) seeking to file an application for a commodity transaction contract may request that a commodity derivatives broker treat it as eligible business specialists, if the corporation, in the course of trade, buys or sells, acts as a mediator, intermediary or agent for the buying and selling, or engages in the production, the processing or the use of all the goods that are the underlying commodities of commodity derivatives transactions entered into based on commodity transaction contract or other goods specified by order of the competent ministry as being related to those goods, or in the course of trade, buys or sells, acts as a mediator, intermediary or agent for the buying and selling, or conducts other acts specified by order of the competent ministry of electric power that are the underlying commodities.

(2) The provisions of Article 197-5, paragraphs (2) through (14) apply mutatis mutandis to the corporation prescribed in the preceding paragraph. In this case, the term "eligible requesting party" in paragraph (2), items (ii) through (iv) of that Article and paragraphs (4) through (7) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "eligible business specialist", and any other necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

(Delegation to Cabinet Order)

Article 197-10 Beyond what is prescribed in this Section, procedures when an eligible requesting party (limited to one stated in Article 2, paragraph (25), item (vii) or (viii)) is deemed to be a general customer, procedures when a customer other than an eligible requesting party, eligible business specialist, or a corporation prescribed in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article is deemed to be an eligible requesting party, procedures when an eligible business specialist is deemed to be a general customer, or procedures when a corporation prescribed in that paragraph is deemed to be an eligible business specialist, and other necessary matters for the application of the provisions of this Section are specified by Cabinet Order.

Section 3 Services

(Posting of Signs)

Article 198 (1) A commodity derivatives broker must post a sign specified by order of the competent ministry in a conspicuous place at each business office or office.

(2) A person other than a commodity derivatives broker must not post the sign referred to in the preceding paragraph or a similar sign.

(Prohibition of Lending One's Name)

Article 199 A commodity derivatives broker must not have another person engage in commodity derivatives business using their name.

(Registration of Sales Representative)

Article 200 (1) A commodity derivatives broker must have their officers and employees that engage in the following acts on behalf of the commodity derivatives broker (that person is referred to below as a "sales representative") registered by the competent minister:

- (i) the acts stated in the items of Article 2, paragraph (22);
- (ii) soliciting the request of transactions in a commodity market (other than a commodity clearing transaction; the same applies below in this Chapter) or soliciting requests for acting as an intermediary, broker, or agent in entrusting a person with the transactions;
- (iii) soliciting requests for brokerage of a person's request with commodity

- clearing transactions or soliciting requests for acting as an intermediary, broker, or agent in entrusting a person with the transactions;
- (iv) soliciting the request of foreign commodity market transactions (other than those similar to commodity clearing transactions; the same applies below in this Chapter) or soliciting requests for acting as an intermediary, broker, or agent in entrusting a person with the transactions;
 - (v) soliciting requests for brokerage of a person's request with foreign commodity market transactions that are similar to commodity clearing transactions, or soliciting requests for acting as an intermediary, broker, or agent in entrusting a person with the transactions;
 - (vi) soliciting offers for over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions or soliciting requests for acting as an intermediary, broker, or agent in entrusting a person with the transactions.
- (2) A commodity derivatives broker must not have a person other than a sales representative to which a registration under the preceding paragraph concerns (referred to below as a "registered sales representative") perform the duties of a sales representative.
- (3) A commodity derivatives broker seeking to obtain registration pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) must submit a written application stating the following matters to the competent minister:
- (i) the name or trade name of the registration applicant and the name of their representative; and
 - (ii) the following matters with regard to the sales representative which the application for registration concerns:
 - (a) the name, date of birth, and address;
 - (b) whether the person is an officer or an employee;
 - (c) whether the person has experience of performing the duties of a sales representative (including one pertaining to the registration under the provisions of paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 240-11; the same applies below in this item and paragraph (1), items (ii) and (iii) of the following Article), and if the person has experience of performing the duties of a sales representative, the trade name or name of the commodity derivatives broker or commodity derivatives intermediary service provider to which the person belonged and the period during which the person performed those duties; and
 - (d) whether the person has experience of performing commodity derivatives intermediation services, and if the person has experience of performing commodity derivatives intermediation services, the period during which the person performed the services.
- (4) A curriculum vitae of the sales representative that seeks to be registered and the documents specified by order of the competent ministry must be attached to the written application referred to in the preceding paragraph.

- (5) When an application for registration under the provisions of paragraph (3) is filed, the competent minister must immediately register the name, date of birth, and matters specified by order of the competent ministry in the register except in the case that falls under the provisions of paragraph (1) of the following Article.
- (6) Upon making a registration under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the competent minister must notify the registration applicant of this in writing without delay.
- (7) The registration referred to in paragraph (1) ceases to be effective upon the expiration of the registration period unless it is renewed every six years.

(Refusal of Registration of Sales Representatives)

Article 201 (1) If the sales representative which an application for registration concerns falls under one of the following items, or if the written application or documents that are required to be attached to the written application contain a false statement about a material particular or lack a statement of a material fact, the competent minister must refuse the registration:

- (i) a person that falls under one of the persons referred to in Article 15, paragraph (2), item (i), sub-items (a) through (k);
 - (ii) a person whose registration as sales representative has been revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 204, paragraph (1) (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 240-11), and for whom five years have not passed since the day of the revocation;
 - (iii) a person who is registered as a sales representative belonging to a commodity derivatives broker or commodity derivatives intermediary service provider other than the registration applicant; or
 - (iv) a person who has obtained the registration referred to in Article 240-2, paragraph (1).
- (2) The provisions of Article 15, paragraphs (5) through (9) apply mutatis mutandis to a refusal of registration under the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

(Authority of a Sales Representatives)

Article 202 A sales representative is deemed to have the authority to perform all acts out of court in relation to the acts stated in the items of Article 200, paragraph (1) on behalf of the commodity derivatives broker to which the sales representative belongs; provided, however, that this does not apply if the counterparty acts in bad faith.

(Notification Regarding Sales Representatives)

Article 203 If any of the following circumstances arise for a registered sales representative, the commodity derivatives broker must notify the competent minister of this without delay:

- (i) there is a change in a matter stated in Article 200, paragraph (3), item (ii), (a) or (b);
- (ii) the registered sales representative comes to fall under one of the persons referred to in Article 15, paragraph (2), item (i), sub-items (a) through (k) (with regard to sub-items (d) through (i) of that item, this is limited to the part that is related to the provisions of a foreign law or regulation that is equivalent to this Act or to the facility of a foreign state equivalent to a commodity exchange);
- (iii) the registered sales representative no longer performs the duties of a sales representative due to retirement or other reasons.

(Revocation of the Registration of Sales Representatives)

Article 204 (1) If the competent minister discovers that a registered sales representative has been registered by wrongful means, or if a registered sales representative falls under one of the following items, the minister may revoke the registration or order the registered sales representative to suspend their duties for a fixed period not exceeding two years:

- (i) the registered sales representative has come to fall under one of the persons referred to in Article 15, paragraph (2), item (i), sub-items (a) through (k) (with regard to (d) of that item, this is limited to the part that is related to the revocation of the license referred to in Article 332, paragraph (1) or Article 342, paragraph (1) or to the provisions of a foreign law or regulation that is equivalent to this Act);
 - (ii) the registered sales representative has violated a law or regulation, or is found to have committed an extremely inappropriate act in relation to duties as a sales representative.
- (2) If the competent minister decides to render a disposition based on the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the minister must notify the commodity derivatives broker that has had the sales representative registered of this in writing.
- (3) The provisions of Article 158, paragraph (2) apply mutatis mutandis to a disposition under the provisions of paragraph (1), and the provisions of Article 159, paragraph (4) apply mutatis mutandis to a hearing on the revocation of a registration under the provisions of paragraph (1).

(Deletion of the Registration of a Sales Representative)

Article 205 The competent minister deletes the registration of a sales representative from the register in the following cases:

- (i) the competent minister revokes the registration of the sales representative pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) of the preceding Article;
- (ii) the commodity derivatives broker to which the sales representative belongs is dissolved or the business operator discontinues commodity derivatives business; or
- (iii) the competent minister confirms that the sales representative will no longer perform duties as a sales representative due to retirement or other reasons.

(Registration Work by a Commodity Futures Association for the Registration of Sales Representatives)

- Article 206 (1) The competent minister may have a commodity futures association prescribed in Article 241, paragraph (1) (referred to below as an "association" in this Article through Article 208, Article 239, and Article 240-5, item (v)) conduct the work concerning the registration prescribed in Article 200, Article 201, and the preceding three Articles, which concerns the sales representative of a commodity derivatives broker that belongs to that association (referred to below as "registration work" in this Article and Article 208) pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.
- (2) If the competent minister decides to have an association conduct registration work pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the minister is not to conduct the registration work.
 - (3) If an association is to conduct registration work pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1), it must specify the matters concerning the registration of sales representatives in its articles of incorporation and obtain the approval of the competent minister.
 - (4) If an association that conducts registration work pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) makes a registration under the provisions of Article 200, paragraph (5), makes a change to the registration related to the notification under the provisions of Article 203, renders a disposition under the provisions of Article 204, paragraph (1) (excluding the revocation of a registration), or deletes a registration under the provisions of the preceding Article, it must notify the competent minister of this pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.
 - (5) The competent minister may order the association to take the measure prescribed in that paragraph if an association that conducts registration work pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) fails to take a measure prescribed in Article 204, paragraph (1) even though the registered sales representative of a commodity derivatives broker that belongs to the association falls under item (i) or (ii) of that paragraph, and the minister finds it necessary and appropriate to do so for maintaining the order in the commodity market or for the protection of requesting parties.

- (6) The provisions of Article 158, paragraph (2) apply mutatis mutandis to the order under the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

(Payment of Registration Fees)

Article 207 (1) A commodity derivatives broker that seeks to have a sales representative registered must pay a registration fee to the national government (or the association, if the sales representative is registered with an association pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) of the preceding Article) pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Order.

- (2) A registration fee under the preceding paragraph which has been paid to an association is the revenue of the association.

(Requests for Administrative Review)

Article 208 A commodity derivatives broker that is dissatisfied with the inaction concerning an application for registration under the provisions of Article 200, paragraph (3), a refusal of registration under the provisions of Article 201, paragraph (1), or a disposition under the provisions of Article 204, paragraph (1) of an association that conducts registration work pursuant to the provisions of Article 206, paragraph (1), may request the competent minister for an administrative review. In this case, the competent minister is deemed to be a higher administrative authority of the association with regard to application of the provisions of Article 25, paragraphs (2) and (3), Article 46, paragraphs (1) and (2), and Article 49, paragraph (3) of the Administrative Complaint Review Act (Act No. 68 of 2014).

(Restrictions on the Disposal of Articles Possessed by Commodity Derivatives Brokers)

Article 209 (1) A commodity derivatives broker must not use an article in their possession on deposit by an requesting party, etc. or in the requesting party's account as collateral, nor lend or otherwise dispose of the article contrary to the purpose of the commodity transactions contract, without obtaining the consent of the requesting party, etc. in writing.

- (2) With the consent of the requesting party, etc. and pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Order, in place of the consent in writing under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, a commodity derivatives broker may obtain consent on the use of an article in their possession on deposit by the requesting party, etc. as collateral, or to lend or disposal of the article by means of using an electronic data processing system or other means of using information and communications technology specified by order of the competent ministry. In this case, the commodity derivatives broker is deemed to have obtained the consent in writing.

(Segregation of Customer Properties)

Article 210 In order to ensure the performance of obligations arising from the commodity derivatives business, a commodity derivatives broker must take the measures specified in each of the following items for the properties specified in those items, in order to preserve those properties:

- (i) money, securities, and other articles deposited by an requesting party, etc., and property equivalent to the value of the money, securities, and other articles in the requesting party's account (excluding articles specified by order of the competent ministry; the money, securities, and other articles are referred to as "requesting party's assets" in Article 304, Article 306, paragraph (1), and Article 311, paragraph (1)) (the property is referred to as "property subject to preservation" in Article 300, item (iii) and Article 309), in relation to transactions in a commodity market: to deposit the property with an requesting party protection fund (meaning a requesting party protection fund prescribed in Article 270), to deposit the property with a trust company, etc. separately from the commodity derivatives broker's own property, or take other measures specified by order of the competent ministry; or
- (ii) money, securities, and other articles deposited by an requesting party, etc., and property equivalent to the value of the money, securities, and other articles in the accounts of requesting parties, etc. (excluding articles specified by order of the competent ministry), in relation to foreign commodity market transactions and over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions: to deposit the property with a trust company, etc. separately from the commodity derivatives broker's own property, or take other measure specified by order of the competent ministry.

(Net Assets Regulation Ratio)

Article 211 (1) A commodity derivatives broker (other than a bank or any other person specified by Cabinet Order; the same applies below in this Article and Article 235) must calculate the ratio of the amount of net assets to the amount calculated pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry as the amount for covering any potential risks arising from commodity derivatives transactions in association with the fluctuation of quotations and other factors (referred to below as the "net assets regulation ratio"), and notify the competent minister of that ratio at the end of each month and when specified by order of the competent ministry.

- (2) A commodity derivatives broker must ensure that its net assets regulation ratio does not fall below 120 percent.

- (3) A commodity derivatives broker must prepare a document stating its net assets regulation ratio as of the last day of March, June, September, and December of each year, keep the document at all of its business offices and offices, and make the document available for public inspection for a three-month period beginning from the day one month after the last day.
- (4) The provisions of Article 99, paragraph (7) apply mutatis mutandis to the amount of net assets under paragraph (1).

(Prohibition of Trading Against Oneself)

Article 212 If a commodity derivatives broker is entrusted with a transaction in a commodity market, etc. or is entrusted with a foreign commodity market transaction, etc. (meaning a foreign commodity market transaction, intermediation, brokerage, or agency for entrusting a person with that transaction, brokerage for the request of foreign commodity market transactions that are similar to commodity clearing transactions, or intermediation, brokerage, or agency for entrusting a person with the brokerage; the same applies below in this Chapter), the broker must not close the transaction by becoming the counterparty themselves instead of conducting the transaction in the commodity market, etc. with which they have been entrusted.

(Principle of Honesty and Fairness)

Article 213 A commodity derivatives broker and their officers and employees must execute business with honesty and fairness to customers.

(Regulations of Advertising)

Article 213-2 (1) When advertising the content of their commodity derivatives business or performing similar acts specified by order of the competent ministry, a commodity derivatives broker must indicate the following matters pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry:

- (i) the trade name or name of the commodity derivatives broker;
 - (ii) the fact of being a commodity derivatives broker; and
 - (iii) the matters concerning the content of its commodity derivatives business which are specified by Cabinet Order as material matters that would affect the decision of the customer.
- (2) When advertising the content of its commodity derivatives business or performing similar acts specified by order of the competent ministry, a commodity derivatives broker must not make an indication that is significantly contradictory to the facts or particularly misleading about the prospect of profiting from performing the act stated in one of the items of Article 2, paragraph (22), or about the matters specified by order of the competent ministry.

(Prohibition of Unjust Solicitation)

Article 214 A commodity derivatives broker must not perform any of the following acts:

- (i) providing a customer with a conclusive assessment of a matter that is uncertain or with information that could mislead the customer into believing that a matter that is uncertain is actually certain, and conducting a solicitation stated in one of Article 200, paragraph (1), items (ii) through (vi);
- (ii) providing a customer with false information concerning the conclusion of a commodity transaction contract or its solicitation;
- (iii) becoming entrusted with a transaction in a commodity market, etc. or a foreign commodity market transaction, etc. without receiving instructions from the customer with regard to the volume, amount of consideration, contract price, etc., or other matters specified by order of the competent ministry (excluding a request of the conclusion of a commodity investment advisory contract (meaning a commodity investment advisory contract prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (2) of the Act for the Regulation of Business in Commodity Investment; the same applies below in the following Article and Article 240-16, paragraph (1), item (i), (d)) with the customer and other acts specified by order of the competent ministry as being unlikely to lack in requesting party protection or harm the fairness of transactions);
- (iv) becoming entrusted with a transaction in a commodity market (limited to one stated in Article 2, paragraph (3), item (i); the same applies below in this item) by a customer and, before issuing the offer on the trade with which they are entrusted, conducting a transaction in a commodity market at a more advantageous price than the price for the trade with which they are entrusted (meaning a price that is lower than the price involved in the entrusted transaction, if buying; and a price that is higher than the price involved in the entrusted transaction, if selling) with the purpose of closing the same trade as the one with which they have been entrusted, in the commodity market on which they are entrusted with the trade on their own account; or becoming entrusted with a foreign commodity market transaction (limited to one that is equivalent to the transaction stated in item (i) of that paragraph; the same applies below in this item) by a customer and, before issuing the offer on the trade with which they are entrusted, conducting a foreign commodity market transaction at a more advantageous price than the price for the trade with which they are entrusted (meaning a price that is lower than the price involved in the entrusted transaction, if buying; and a price that is higher the price involved in the entrusted transaction, if selling) with the purpose of closing the same trade as the one with which they are entrusted, in the foreign commodity market on which they are entrusted with the trade on their own account;

- (v) conducting a solicitation stated in one of Article 200, paragraph (1), items (ii) through (vi) to a customer that has manifested the intention not to make a request or offer under items (ii) through (vi) of that paragraph (including an intention that indicates a wish not to be solicited to entrust or make that offer);
- (vi) conducting a solicitation stated in one of Article 200, paragraph (1), items (ii) through (vi) to a customer, in a manner that is likely to make the customer uncomfortable;
- (vii) before conducting a solicitation to conclude a commodity transaction contract, to solicit a customer to conclude the contract without confirming whether or not the customer wishes to be solicited after telling the customer their trade name or name and the fact that it is a solicitation for the conclusion of a commodity transaction contract;
- (viii) in respect of transactions in a commodity market, etc. or foreign commodity market transactions, etc., recommending a customer to make the volume and maturity in a sale, purchase, or other equivalent trade of component products of listed commodities, etc. (including commodities equivalent to component products of listed commodities, etc. of a foreign commodity market) the same as the volume and maturity of a corresponding transaction (meaning a transaction that reduces the losses arising from the transaction);
- (ix) visiting or telephoning a customer that has not requested to be solicited to conclude a commodity transaction contract (limited to one specified by Cabinet Order in consideration of the content of the commodity transaction contract and other circumstances, as a contract for which it is particularly necessary to ensure the protection of the requesting party, etc.; the same applies below in this item), and soliciting the customer to conclude a commodity transaction contract (excluding acts specified by order of the competent ministry as not likely to be insufficient in protecting requesting parties, etc. or in harming the fairness of transactions);
- (x) beyond what is provided for in the preceding items, acts which are specified by order of the competent ministry as acts that do not protect the requesting party, etc. or that harm the fairness of transactions.

(Prohibited Acts when Engaging in Business Under a Commodity Investment Advisory Contract)

Article 214-2 When engaging in business under a commodity investment advisory contract, a commodity derivatives broker must not perform the following acts:

- (i) conducting a commodity derivatives transaction on their own account or soliciting a person to conclude a commodity transaction contract using information on the business under a commodity investment advisory contract;
- (ii) beyond what is stated in the preceding item, acts which are specified by order of the competent ministry as acts that do not protect the requesting party, etc. or that harm the fairness of transactions.

(Prohibition of Compensation for Losses)

Article 214-3 (1) A commodity derivatives broker may not perform any of the following acts:

- (i) making an offer or promise, or having a third party make an offer or promise, in relation to a commodity derivatives transaction (excluding one specified by Cabinet Order as unlikely to harm the fairness of transactions; the same applies below in this Article), to a customer or to a person designated by the customer, that if the customer (if a trust company, etc. conducts commodity derivatives transactions on the account of a person that has created a trust based on a trust agreement, this includes the person that has created the trust; the same applies below in this Article) incurs a loss from the commodity derivatives transaction, or if a predetermined amount of profit does not accrue from the commodity derivatives transaction, the business operator or a third party will provide the customer or a third party with an economic benefit to cover the whole or part of the loss or to supplement their profits;
 - (ii) making an offer or promise, or having a third party make an offer or promise, in relation to a commodity derivatives transaction, to a customer or to a person designated by the customer, that the business operator or a third party will provide the customer or a third party with an economic benefit to cover the whole or part of a loss that the customer has incurred in relation to the commodity derivatives transaction, or to add to the profits that the customer has accrued in relation to the transaction;
 - (iii) providing an economic benefit to a customer or third party, or having a third party provide an economic benefit to a customer or third party, in relation to a commodity derivatives transaction, in order to cover the whole or part of a loss that the customer has incurred in relation to that commodity derivatives transaction, or in order to add to the profit that the customer has accrued in relation to the transaction.
- (2) The customer of a commodity derivatives broker must not perform any of the following acts:
- (i) making or having a third party make the promise referred to in item (i) of the preceding paragraph (but only if that promise is based on a request that

- the customer has personally made or had a third party make), with a commodity derivatives broker or a third party in relation to a commodity derivatives transaction;
- (ii) making or having a third party make the promise referred to in item (ii) of the preceding paragraph (but only if that promise is based on a request that the customer has personally made or had a third party make), with a commodity derivatives broker or a third party in relation to a commodity derivatives transaction; or
- (iii) receiving an economic benefit that is provided as referred to in item (iii) of the preceding paragraph or having a third party receive the economic benefit (but only if this is based on a promise referred to in one of the preceding two items, if that promise is based on a request that the customer has personally made or had a third party make, and if the economic benefit is provided based on a request that the customer has personally made or had a third party make) from a commodity derivatives broker or a third party in relation to a commodity derivatives transaction.
- (3) The provisions of paragraph (1) do not apply if the offer, promise, or provision of an economic benefit referred to in the items of that paragraph is made in order to cover the whole or a part of a loss incurred due to problematic conduct (meaning problematic conduct specified by order of the competent ministry as referred to in Article 221, paragraph (2); the same applies in this paragraph and the following paragraph below); provided, however, that with regard to the offer or promise referred to paragraph (1), item (ii) or the provision referred to in item (iii) of that paragraph, this only applies if the commodity derivatives broker has received confirmation from the competent minister in advance that the loss to be covered was incurred due to problematic conduct, or in other cases specified by order of the competent ministry.
- (4) The provisions of paragraph (2) do not apply if the promise referred to in item (i) or (ii) of that paragraph is a promise to cover the whole or part of a loss incurred due to problematic conduct, or if the provision of an economic benefit referred to in item (iii) of that paragraph is provided in order to cover the whole or part of a loss incurred due to problematic conduct.
- (5) A person seeking the confirmation referred to in the proviso to paragraph (3) must submit to the competent minister a written application stating the fact for which confirmation is sought and other matters specified by order of the competent ministry, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry, by attaching a document specified by order of the competent ministry as a necessary document for proving the fact.

(Principle of Suitability)

Article 215 A commodity derivatives broker must conduct commodity derivatives business so that they will not conduct a solicitation that is found to be inappropriate in light of the knowledge, experience, and status of property and the purpose of concluding a commodity transaction contract of the customer, and compromise the protection of the requesting party, etc. or risk compromising the protection of the requesting party, etc.

(Conformity to Entrustment Contract Regulations)

Article 216 A commodity derivatives broker must comply with the entrustment contract regulations established by the commodity exchange in becoming entrusted with transactions in a commodity market, etc.

(Delivery of Documents Before Conclusion of Commodity Transaction Contracts)

Article 217 (1) If a commodity derivatives broker seeks to conclude a commodity transactions contract, they must deliver a document stating the following matters to the customer in advance, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry:

- (i) the following matters, if there is a possibility that the amount of trading under the commodity transaction contract (for transactions stated in Article 2, paragraph (3), item (iv), this means the transactions stated in (a) through (e) of that item which is closed when the right referred to in that is exercised; for transactions stated in paragraph (14), item (iv) of that Article, this means the transactions stated in (a) through (d) of the that item which is closed when the right referred to in that item is exercised; for transactions stated in item (v) of that paragraph, this means a transaction resulting in the parties paying and receiving money as prescribed in that item which is closed when the right referred to in that item is exercised) (the amount of trading means the amount arrived at by multiplying the price of the trades, contract price, or agreed figure by the quantity or volume of the trade) will exceed the amount of the clearing margin, brokerage margin, clearing brokerage margin, or other security deposit, or any other amounts specified by order of the competent ministry (referred to below as the "clearing margin, etc." in this paragraph and Article 220-2, paragraph (1)) required to be deposited by the customer for the transaction:
 - (a) an indication that there is a possibility that the amount of trading will exceed the amount of the clearing margin, etc.;
 - (b) the ratio of the amount of trading to the amount of clearing margin, etc. (if this ratio cannot be calculated, an indication of this and the reason for it).
- (ii) an indication that there is a risk of the customer incurring a loss in relation to the transactions under the commodity transaction contract due to fluctuation in the quotations on the commodity market, or fluctuation of price of commodities or commodity indices, and if there is also a risk that the amount of the loss will exceed the amount of clearing margin, etc., an indication of this;

(iii) beyond what is provided for in the preceding two items, matters concerning the commodity transaction contract which are specified by Cabinet Order as material matters that affect the decision of the customer;

(iv) beyond what is provided for in the preceding three items, an outline of the commodity transaction contract and other matters specified by order of the competent ministry.

(2) With the consent of the customer and pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Order, in place of delivering a document under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, a commodity derivatives broker may provide the customer with the matters that are required to be stated in that document by means of using an electronic data processing system or by any other means of using information communications technology which is specified by order of the competent ministry. In this case, the commodity derivatives broker that provides the customer with the matters that are required to be stated in the document by those means is deemed to have delivered the document.

(Obligation of Explanation and Liability for Damages of Commodity Derivatives Brokers)

Article 218 (1) When a commodity derivatives broker seeks to conclude a commodity transaction contract, they must explain the matters stated in the items of paragraph (1) of the preceding Article to the customer in advance, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.

(2) The explanation referred to in the preceding paragraph must be provided in a manner and to the extent necessary for the explanation to be understood by the customer in light of the customer's knowledge, experience, status of property, or the purpose of concluding the commodity transaction contract.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1) or the main clause of Article 240-18, paragraph (1), if a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider has been entrusted with one commodity transaction contract by two or more commodity derivatives brokers or a commodity derivatives broker (individually referred to below as a "commodity derivatives broker, etc." in this paragraph), and they are required to provide an explanation about the matters stated in each item of paragraph (1) of the preceding Article to the customer pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) or the main clause of Article 240-18, paragraph (1), if either of the commodity derivatives brokers, etc. provides an explanation about those matters, the other commodity derivatives broker, etc. is not required to explain those matters; provided however, that this does not apply if the other commodity derivatives broker, etc. is a person specified by Cabinet Order.

- (4) When a commodity derivatives broker must provide an explanation to a customer pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1), if the business operator violates the provisions of Article 214 (limited to the part related to item (i)) or fails to explain the matters stated in paragraph (1), items (i) through (iii) of the preceding Article, they are liable to compensate for any damage that arises in relation to the commodity transaction contract of the customer due to the failure.

(Obligation to Clarify the Conditions of Transactions in Advance)

Article 219 (1) Before a commodity derivatives broker seeks to conclude a commodity transaction contract, they must clarify which of the categories of transactions referred to in the items of Article 2, paragraph (22) the acts they will perform for the customer fall under.

- (2) When taking an order for an over-the-counter commodity derivatives transaction from a customer, a commodity derivatives broker must clearly indicate to the customer in advance whether the commodity derivatives broker will close the transaction as the counterparty to the customer or will act as an intermediary, broker, or agent to close the transaction.

(Notice of Closing of Transactions)

Article 220 (1) When a transaction under a commodity transaction contract is closed, the commodity derivatives broker must notify the requesting party, etc. of the volume and the amount of consideration or the contract price, etc., and the closing date for each type of transaction that has been closed, and of any other matters specified by order of the competent ministry in writing without delay; provided, however, that this does not apply in the cases that are specified by order of the competent ministry as those in which, in consideration of the content of the commodity transaction contract and other circumstances, it is found that even if the document is not delivered to the requesting party, etc., this does not compromise the public interest or the protection of requesting parties, etc.

- (2) The provisions of Article 217, paragraph (2) apply mutatis mutandis to a notice in writing under the provisions of the preceding paragraph. In this, in paragraph (2) of that Article, the term "customer" is to be replaced with "requesting party, etc.", the phrase "provide the customer with" is to be replaced with "notify the requesting party, etc. of", the phrase "provides the customer with" is to be replaced with "notifies the requesting party, etc. of", and the phrase "deemed to have delivered the document" is to be replaced with "deemed to have given the notice in writing".

(Delivery of Documents Regarding the Receipt of a Clearing Margin)

Article 220-2 (1) When a commodity derivatives broker receives a deposit of clearing margin, etc. in relation to their commodity derivatives business which an requesting party, etc. is required to deposit, they must immediately deliver a document stating the fact to the requesting party, etc., pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.

(2) The provisions of Article 217, paragraph (2) apply mutatis mutandis to the delivery of a document under the provisions of the preceding paragraph. In this case, the term "customer" in paragraph (2) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "requesting party, etc."

(Application, Mutatis Mutandis of the Act on the Provision of and the Development of Environment for Using Financial Services)

Article 220-3 The provisions of Articles 7 through 10 of the Act on the Provision of and the Development of Environment for Using Financial Services (Act No. 101 of 2000) apply mutatis mutandis to the conclusion of a commodity transaction contract by a commodity derivatives broker. In this case, the term "the preceding Article" in Article 7, paragraph (1) of that Act is deemed to be replaced with "Article 218, paragraph (4) of the Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act"; the phrase "due to the failure of the financial instruments provider, etc. to explain important matters or due to providing a conclusive evaluation, etc." in that paragraph and Article 8 of that Act is to be replaced with "due to violation of the provisions of Article 214 of the Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act (limited to the part related to item (i)) or due to failure to explain the matters stated in Article 217, paragraph (1), items (i) through (iii) of that Act"; and the phrase "contract pertaining to the sale of the financial instruments" in Article 10, paragraph (2), item (i) of that Act is deemed to be replaced with "commodity transaction contract"; and any other necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

(Exemption from Application of Prohibited Acts)

Article 220-4 (1) The provisions stated in each of the following items do not apply if the person specified in that item is an eligible requesting party; provided, however, that this does not apply to cases specified by order of the competent ministry as those likely to compromise the public interest or the protection of eligible requesting parties:

(i) the provisions of Article 213-2, Article 214, items (v), (vii), and (ix), and Article 215: the person to which the commodity derivatives broker conducts the solicitation referred to in one of Article 200, paragraph (1), items (ii) through (vi); and;

- (ii) the provisions of Article 209, Article 214, item (viii), and Article 217 through the preceding Article: the person from which the commodity derivatives broker receives the offer for a commodity transaction contract or with which the commodity derivatives broker enters into the commodity transaction contract.
- (2) The provisions stated in each of the following items do not apply if the person specified in that item is an eligible business specialist; provided, however, that this does not apply to cases specified by order of the competent ministry as being likely to harm the public interest or the protection of eligible business specialists:
 - (i) the provisions of Article 213-2, Article 214, items (v), (vii), and (ix), and Article 215: the person to which the commodity derivatives broker conducts a solicitation referred to in one of Article 200, paragraph (1), items (ii) through (vi); and
 - (ii) the provisions of Article 209, Article 214, item (viii), and Article 217 through the preceding Article: the person from which the commodity derivatives broker receives an offer for a commodity transaction contract or with which the commodity derivatives broker enters into a commodity transaction contract.

(Liability Reserve for Commodity Trading)

- Article 221 (1) A commodity derivatives broker must set aside a liability reserve for commodity trading based on the transaction volume of commodity derivatives transactions, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.
- (2) The liability reserves for commodity trading referred to in the preceding paragraph must not be used for cases other than allocating to cover a loss that arises due to problematic conduct concerning an act stated in one of the items of Article 2, paragraph (22), which is specified by order of the competent ministry; provided, however, that this does not apply if the approval of the competent minister has been obtained.

(Preparation of Books)

- Article 222 A commodity derivatives broker must prepare and preserve books for commodity derivatives transactions pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.

(Separate Accountings in Books)

- Article 223 A commodity derivatives broker must separate the accounting for transactions on their own account and for transactions on the requesting party's accounts in their books, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry, in respect of transactions in a commodity market and foreign commodity market transactions.

(Submission of Written Reports)

Article 224 (1) A commodity derivatives broker must prepare a business report for each business year and submit it to the competent minister within three months from the end of each business year, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.

(2) In addition to the business report prescribed in the preceding paragraph, a commodity derivatives broker must submit a written report on the commodity derivatives business and the status of the property of the commodity derivatives broker to the competent minister, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.

Section 4 Mergers, Company Splits, and Business Transfers

(Mergers and Company Splits)

Article 225 (1) In the case of a merger in which a commodity derivatives broker is all or part of the parties (excluding a case when the entity surviving the merger between a corporation that is a commodity derivatives broker and a corporation that is not a commodity derivatives broker is the corporation that is a commodity derivatives broker) or a company split (limited to those in which part of the commodity derivatives business is succeeded to), the corporation surviving the merger or incorporated in the merger, or the corporation succeeding to the commodity derivatives business as a result of the company split succeeds to the status of commodity derivatives broker, if the authorization of the competent minister has been obtained for the merger or company split.

(2) A commodity derivatives broker seeking to obtain the authorization referred to in the preceding paragraph must submit a written application to the competent minister stating the matters specified in the items of Article 192, paragraph (1) concerning the corporation surviving the merger or incorporated in the merger (referred to below as "surviving corporation after merger" in this Article) or the corporation that succeeds to the whole or part of the commodity derivatives business (referred to below as "succeeding corporation in a company split" in this Article).

(3) The written merger agreement or company split agreement and other documents specified by order of the competent ministry must be attached to the written application referred to in the preceding paragraph.

(4) The competent minister must not grant the authorization referred to in paragraph (1) unless the minister finds that the application for the authorization referred to in that paragraph conforms to all of the following items:

- (i) the surviving corporation after merger or the succeeding corporation in a company split satisfies the requirements stated in the items of Article 193, paragraph (1); and
- (ii) it is fully expected that the commodity derivatives business will be succeeded to in a smooth and appropriate manner.

Article 226 Deleted.

Article 227 Deleted.

(Business Transfers)

Article 228 (1) If a commodity derivatives broker transfers the whole or part of their commodity derivatives business, the transferee succeeds to the status of a commodity derivatives broker, provided that the transferor and the transferee have obtained the authorization of the competent minister for the transfer and acquisition.

- (2) A commodity derivatives broker seeking to obtain the authorization referred to in the preceding paragraph must submit a written application to the competent minister stating the matters specified in the items of Article 192, paragraph (1) concerning the person acquiring the whole or part of their commodity derivatives business in the business transfer.
- (3) The written transfer agreement and other documents specified by order of the competent ministry must be attached to the written application referred to in the preceding paragraph.
- (4) The competent minister must not grant the authorization referred to in paragraph (1) unless the minister finds that the application for the authorization referred to in that paragraph conforms to all of the following items:
 - (i) the transferee company satisfies the requirements stated in the items of Article 193, paragraph (1); and
 - (ii) it is fully expected that the commodity derivatives business will be succeeded to in a smooth and appropriate manner.

(Disposition Procedures)

Article 229 The provisions of Article 15, paragraphs (5) through (9) apply mutatis mutandis to the authorization referred to in Article 225, paragraph (1) and paragraph (1) of the preceding Article.

(Delegation to Cabinet Order)

Article 230 Beyond what is provided for in this Act, necessary matters related to the merger, company split, or business transfer of a commodity derivatives broker are specified by Cabinet Order.

Section 5 Supervision

(Collection of Reports and On-Site Inspections)

Article 231 (1) The competent minister may order a commodity derivatives broker to submit reports or materials that should serve as a reference on their business or assets, or may have ministry employees enter the business office or office of a commodity derivatives broker to inspect their books and documents or any other article related to their business when the minister finds it necessary to do so for the enforcement of this Act.

(2) The competent minister may order a person conducting transactions with a commodity derivatives broker to submit reports or materials that should serve as a reference on the business or assets of the commodity derivatives broker when the minister finds it particularly necessary to do so for the enforcement of this Act.

(3) An on-site employee may have a commodity derivatives broker present a document certifying the storage of the listed commodity to the manager of that place, and enter the place and inspect the listed commodity in the presence of the commodity derivatives broker if the on-site inspection is conducted pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1), and the employee finds it necessary to do so in order to achieve the purpose of the inspection to inspect the listed commodity that the commodity derivatives broker owns or that has been deposited with the broker which is stored at a place other than their business office or office.

(4) The provisions of Article 157, paragraphs (4) and (5) apply mutatis mutandis to the on-site inspection under the provisions of paragraph (1) and the preceding paragraph.

(Business Improvement Orders)

Article 232 (1) The competent minister may order a commodity derivatives broker to the extent necessary to take measures necessary for improving the state of their property or the operation of their commodity derivatives business if the minister finds it necessary and appropriate to do so for maintaining order in a commodity market or for the protection of requesting parties, etc.

(2) In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, if the competent minister finds that the status of the property of the commodity derivatives broker or the operation of their commodity derivatives business falls under any of the following items, the minister may order the commodity derivatives broker to the extent necessary to suspend the transactions in the commodity market or the commodity derivatives business for a fixed period not exceeding three months:

- (i) if the ratio of the total amount of liabilities to the amount of net assets exceeds the ratio specified by order of the competent ministry;
 - (ii) if the ratio of the total amount of current assets to the total amount of current liabilities falls below the ratio specified by order of the competent ministry; or
 - (iii) beyond what is stated in the preceding two items, in the case specified by order of the competent ministry as a case in which it is necessary to order the suspension of transactions in the commodity market or the commodity derivatives business in order to rectify the status of property or the operation of commodity derivatives business.
- (3) The total amount of liabilities referred to in item (i) of the preceding paragraph and the total amount of current assets and the total amount of current liabilities referred to in item (ii) of that paragraph must be calculated pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.
- (4) The provisions of Article 99, paragraph (7) apply mutatis mutandis to the amount of net assets referred to in paragraph (2), item (i).

(Recommendations)

Article 233 The competent minister may recommend that the commodity derivatives broker take the necessary measures for its concurrent business or the business of the corporation over which the commodity derivatives broker has a controlling interest prescribed in Article 196, paragraph (2) if the minister finds it necessary to do so for ensuring sound execution of the commodity derivatives business of a commodity derivatives broker.

(Retention of Assets in Japan)

Article 234 The competent minister may order a commodity derivatives broker to retain the part of its assets specified by Cabinet Order in Japan if the minister finds it necessary and appropriate to do so for maintaining order in a commodity market or for the protection of requesting parties, etc.

(Order Concerning Net Assets Regulation Ratio)

Article 235 (1) The competent minister may order the business operator to the extent necessary to change the business methods of commodity derivatives business, to deposit their property, or to take other measures necessary for supervision if a commodity derivatives broker is in violation of the provisions of Article 211, paragraph (2), and the minister finds it necessary and appropriate to do so for protecting requesting parties, etc.

- (2) The competent minister may order the commodity derivatives broker to the extent necessary to suspend their commodity derivatives business for a fixed period not exceeding three months if a commodity derivatives broker is in violation of Article 211, paragraph (2) (limited to cases when the net assets regulation ratio is below 100 percent), and the minister finds it necessary and appropriate to do so for protecting requesting parties, etc.
- (3) The competent minister may revoke the commodity derivatives broker's license under Article 190, paragraph (1) if the minister orders the suspension of commodity derivatives business pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, and the minister finds that the net assets regulation ratio of the commodity derivatives broker on the day when three months have elapsed since the day of the order continues to be below 100 percent and that the status of the net assets regulation ratio of the commodity derivatives broker is not likely to recover.

(Supervisory Dispositions)

Article 236 (1) If a commodity derivatives broker falls under any of the following items, the competent minister may revoke the commodity derivatives broker's license under Article 190, paragraph (1) and order the suspension of transactions in the commodity market or the commodity derivatives business for a fixed period not exceeding six months:

- (i) the business operator has come to fall under one of Article 15, paragraph (2), item (i), sub-item (c), (d) (limited to the part related to the revocation of the license referred to in Article 332, paragraph (1) or Article 342, paragraph (1) and the part related to the provisions of a foreign law or regulation that is equivalent to this Act), (e), (i), or (l);
- (ii) the business operator no longer conforms to Article 193, paragraph (1), item (i);
- (iii) the amount of the business operator's net assets has fallen below the amount specified by order of the competent ministry as referred to in Article 193, paragraph (2);
- (iv) the business operator has obtained the license referred to in Article 190, paragraph (1) by wrongful means;
- (v) the business operator has violated this Act (excluding Article 211, paragraph (2)), an order based on this Act, or a disposition made by the competent minister based on this Act, or the conditions attached to the license referred to in Article 190, paragraph (1);
- (vi) the business operator has failed to commence commodity derivatives business within three months from the day on which it became possible to commence the business, or they have continuously suspended business for three months or more without legitimate grounds; or

- (vii) there is a risk that the business operator will become insolvent, in light of the state of their business or property.
- (2) If an officer of a commodity derivatives broker performs an act that falls under item (v) of the preceding paragraph, the competent minister may order the commodity derivatives broker to dismiss the officer.

(Application, Mutatis Mutandis of Special Provisions on the Method of Conducting Hearings)

Article 237 The provisions of Article 158, paragraph (2) apply mutatis mutandis to the disposition under the provisions of Article 232, paragraph (1) or paragraph (2), or the preceding three Articles and the provisions of Article 159, paragraph (4) apply mutatis mutandis to a hearing on the revocation of a license or an order to dismiss an officer under the provisions of Article 235, paragraph (3) or the preceding Article.

(Completion of Settlement of Transactions)

- Article 238 (1) The provisions of Article 197, paragraph (5) apply mutatis mutandis to the person that was a commodity derivatives broker when a commodity derivatives broker has come to fall under one of the following items:
- (i) the broker's license under Article 190, paragraph (1) is revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 235, paragraph (3) or Article 236, paragraph (1); or
 - (ii) the broker's license under Article 190, paragraph (1) has ceased to be effective pursuant to the provisions of Article 190, paragraph (2) or Article 197, paragraph (2) (limited to the part related to paragraph (1), items (i) through (iv) of that Article (with regard to item (ii) of that paragraph, limited to the part related to the merger when the corporation surviving the merger or the corporation incorporated in the merger does not conduct commodity derivatives business)).
- (2) The person that was the commodity derivatives broker in the case stated in the items of the preceding paragraph is deemed to be a commodity derivatives broker, to the extent required to close the commodity derivative transactions on the account of the requesting party, etc.
- (3) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1), if a commodity exchange finds it inappropriate to have the commodity derivatives broker complete the settlement of transactions in a commodity market for ensuring the fairness of transactions on a commodity market or protecting requesting parties, the commodity exchange must have another member, etc. (limited to another member, etc. that is able to conduct transactions in the commodity market; the same applies in this Article below) complete the settlement of those transactions, pursuant to the provisions of its articles of incorporation (or operational rules for an incorporated commodity exchange)..

- (4) If a commodity exchange has another member, etc. complete the settlement of transactions pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, an entrustment agreement is deemed to be established between that member, etc. and requesting party of the transactions.

(Supervision of Non-Member Commodity Derivatives Brokers)

Article 239 The competent minister must appropriately supervise the business of a commodity derivatives broker that has not joined an association or that is not a member, etc. of a commodity exchange, taking into account the articles of incorporation and any other rules of the association or the commodity exchange, so that their business does not disrupt the order in the commodity market or fails to protect requesting parties, etc.

(Respecting the Voluntary Efforts of Commodity Derivatives Brokers)

Article 240 In supervising commodity derivatives brokers, the competent minister must give consideration to respect the voluntary efforts of commodity derivatives brokers to conduct their business.

Chapter IV-2 Commodity Derivatives Intermediary Service Providers

Section 1 General Provisions

(Registration)

Article 240-2 (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 190, paragraph (1), a person that is registered by the competent minister may engage in commodity derivatives intermediation services.

- (2) The registration referred to in the preceding paragraph ceases to be effective upon the expiration of the registration period, unless it is renewed every six years.

(Applications for Registration)

Article 240-3 (1) A person seeking the registration referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article must submit a written application for registration stating the following matters to the competent minister:

- (i) the name or trade name of the applicant;
- (ii) if the applicant is a corporation, the names of the officers;
- (iii) the name and location of the business office or office at which the commodity derivatives intermediation services are conducted;
- (iv) the trade name or name of the commodity derivatives broker of which transactions are requested (referred to below as "requested commodity derivatives broker" in this Chapter and the following Chapter);
- (v) if the applicant conducts other business, the category of that business; and

- (vi) other matters specified by order of the competent ministry.
- (2) The following documents must be attached to the written application for registration referred to in the preceding paragraph:
 - (i) a document pledging that the applicant does not fall under Article 240-5, paragraph (1), item (i) or (ii);
 - (ii) if the applicant is a corporation, the articles of incorporation and certificate of registered information (including documents equivalent to them); and
 - (iii) other documents specified by order of the competent ministry.

(Registration in a Register)

- Article 240-4 (1) When an application is filed for the registration referred to in Article 240-2, paragraph (1), the competent minister must register the following matters in the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider register, unless the minister refuses the registration pursuant to the provisions of the following Article:
- (i) the matters stated in the items of paragraph (1) of the preceding Article; and
 - (ii) the date of registration and the registration number.
- (2) The competent minister must make the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider register available for public inspection.

(Refusals of Registration)

- Article 240-5 The competent minister must refuse the registration of an applicant if the applicant falls under any of the following items, or if the written application or documents that are required to be attached to the written application contain a false statement about a material matter or lacks a statement of a material fact:
- (i) a person falling under one of the persons referred to in Article 31, paragraph (1), items (i) through (iii), if the registration applicant is an individual;
 - (ii) a person falling under one of the persons referred to in Article 15, paragraph (2), item (i), sub-items (c) through (e), sub-item (i), or sub-item (l), if the registration applicant is a corporation;
 - (iii) a person whose other business is found to be contrary to the public interest;
 - (iv) a person that is found not to have the knowledge and experience to properly conduct commodity derivatives intermediation services; or
 - (v) the registration applicant has any requested commodity derivatives broker that is not a member of the Commodity Futures Association; or
 - (vi) a commodity derivatives broker.

(Notification of Changes)

- Article 240-6 (1) If a matter stated in one of the items of Article 240-3, paragraph (1) or any other matter specified by order of the competent ministry changes, a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider must submit a written notification indicating this to the competent minister within two weeks from the day of the change.
- (2) When the competent minister accepts a notification under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the minister must register the matters notified in the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider register.
- (3) The documents specified by order of the competent ministry must be attached to the written notification referred to in paragraph (1).

(Notifications of Discontinuation of Business)

- Article 240-7 (1) If a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider comes to fall under any of the following items, the person specified in that item must notify the competent minister of this within 30 days from that day:
- (i) the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider discontinues commodity derivatives intermediation services: the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider;
 - (ii) the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider that is an individual dies: the heir;
 - (iii) the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider that is a corporation has disappeared in a merger: the officer that represented the corporation;
 - (iv) the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider that is a corporation has dissolved due to an order of commencement of bankruptcy proceedings: the bankruptcy trustee;
 - (v) the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider that is a corporation has dissolved due to reasons other than a merger or an order of commencement of bankruptcy proceedings: the liquidator; or
 - (vi) the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider has all of their commodity derivatives intermediation service succeeded to in a company split: the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider; or
 - (vii) the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider transfers all of their commodity derivatives intermediation services: the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider.
- (2) If a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider comes to fall under any of the items of the preceding paragraph, or no longer has a requested commodity derivatives broker, or obtains the license referred to in Article 190, paragraph (1), the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider's registration under Article 240-2, paragraph (1) loses its effect.

(Restrictions on the Use of Trade Names)

Article 240-8 A person that is not a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider must not use a word in their trade name or name which could give rise to the misconception that they are a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider.

Section 2 Services

(Posting of Signs)

Article 240-9 (1) A commodity derivatives intermediary service provider must post a sign designated by order of the competent ministry in a conspicuous place at each business office or office.

(2) A person other than a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider must not post the sign referred to in the preceding paragraph or a sign similar to the sign.

(Prohibition of Lending One's Name)

Article 240-10 A commodity derivatives intermediary service provider must not have another person engage in commodity derivatives intermediation services using their name.

(Application, Mutatis Mutandis)

Article 240-11 The provisions of Articles 200 through 208 apply mutatis mutandis to commodity derivatives intermediary service providers. In this case, the necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

(Principle of Honesty and Fairness)

Article 240-12 A commodity derivatives intermediary service provider and their officers and employees must provide their services to customers with honesty and fairness.

(Regulations of Advertising)

Article 240-13 (1) When advertising the content of their commodity derivatives intermediation service or performing any similar acts specified by order of the competent ministry, a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider must indicate the following matters pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry:

- (i) the name or trade name of the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider;
- (ii) the fact that the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider is a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider and their registration

- number; and
 - (iii) the matters concerning the content of the commodity derivatives intermediation services conducted by the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider which are specified by Cabinet Order as material matters that would affect the decision of customers.
- (2) When advertising the content of their commodity derivatives intermediation services or performing any similar act specified by order of the competent ministry, a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider must not make an indication that is significantly contradictory to the facts or particularly misleading about the prospect of profiting from conducting a commodity derivatives transaction, or about the matters specified by order of the competent ministry.

(Clear Indication of Trade Names)

Article 240-14 If a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider seeks to perform intermediation stated in the items of Article 2, paragraph (22) (referred to below as "acts of commodity derivatives intermediary services" in this Chapter), they must clearly indicate the following matters to the customers in advance:

- (i) the trade name or the name of the requested commodity derivatives broker;
- (ii) the fact that the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider does not have the authority to represent the requested commodity derivatives broker;
- (iii) the purpose of the provisions of the following Article; and
- (iv) other matters provided by order of the competent ministry.

(Prohibition of Deposits of Money)

Article 240-15 A commodity derivatives intermediary service provider must not receive a deposit of money or securities from a customer for any reason, or have a person specified by Cabinet Order as being closely related to the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider deposit customer's money or securities, with regard to their commodity derivatives intermediation services.

(Prohibited Acts)

Article 240-16 A commodity derivatives intermediary service provider must not perform any of the following acts:

- (i) Performing any of the following acts in relation to commodity derivatives intermediation services:
 - (a) An act that falls under the act referred to in Article 214, paragraph (1), item (i);
 - (b) an act that falls under the act referred to in Article 214, paragraph (1),

- item (ii); or
- (c) an act that falls under the act referred to in Article 214, paragraph (1), items (v) through (ix); or
- (d) when conducting business under a commodity investment advisory contract, an act of soliciting a customer by using information about a commodity investment (meaning commodity investment prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (1) of the Act on Regulation of Business Regarding Commodity Investment) that the service provider is making for another customer;
- (ii) an act of conducting a transaction in a commodity market (excluding commodity clearing transactions), a foreign commodity market transaction, or an over-the-counter commodity derivatives transaction on their own account, using the trend of orders in commodity derivatives transactions made by customers for the service provider's commodity derivatives intermediation services or other special information learned in conducting commodity derivatives intermediation services; or
- (iii) Beyond what is stated in the preceding two items, acts of commodity derivatives intermediary services which are specified by order of the competent ministry as acts that compromise the protection of requesting parties, etc. or that are likely to harm the fairness of transactions.

(Application, Mutatis Mutandis of Provisions on Commodity Derivatives Brokers in Relation to the Prohibition of Compensation of Loss)

Article 240-17 T The provisions of Article 214-3, paragraphs (1), (3) and (5), and Article 215 apply mutatis mutandis to commodity derivatives intermediary service providers; the provisions of Article 214-3, paragraphs (2) and (4) apply mutatis mutandis to the customers of a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider. In this case, the term "the commodity derivatives broker" in paragraph (3) of that Article is to be replaced with "a requested commodity derivatives broker of the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider", and any other necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

(Obligation of Explanation and Liability for Damages of Commodity Derivatives Intermediary Service Providers)

Article 240-18 (1) If a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider seeks to perform acts of commodity derivatives intermediary services, they must explain the matters stated in the items of Article 217, paragraph (1) to the customer in advance, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry; provided, however, that this does not apply if the explanation is not required pursuant to the provisions of Article 218, paragraph (3).

- (2) The explanation referred to in the preceding paragraph must be provided in a manner and to the extent necessary for the explanation to be understood by the customer in light of the customer's knowledge, experience, status of property, or the purpose of concluding the customer's commodity transaction contract.
- (3) If a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider is required to give an explanation to a customer pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1), and the service provider has violated the provisions of Article 240-16 (limited to the part related to item (i), (a)) or has failed to explain the matters stated in Article 217, paragraph (1), items (i) through (iii), they are liable to compensate for any damage that arises in relation to the customer's commodity transaction contract due to the violation or failure.

(Application, Mutatis Mutandis of the Act on the Provision of and the Development of Environment for Using Financial Services)

Article 240-19 The provisions of Articles 7 through 10 of the Act on the Provision of and the Development of Environment for Using Financial Services apply mutatis mutandis to the acts of commodity derivatives intermediary services performed by a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider. In this case, the term "the preceding Article" in Article 7, paragraph (1) of that Act is to be replaced with "Article 240-18, paragraph (3) of the Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act"; the phrase "due to the failure of the financial instruments provider, etc. to explain important matters or due to providing conclusive evaluation, etc." in that paragraph and Article 8 of that Act is to be replaced with "due to violation of the provisions of Article 240-16 of the Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act (limited to the part related to item (i), (a)) or due to failure to explain the matters stated in Article 217, paragraph (1), items (i) through (iii) of that Act"; and the phrase "contract regarding the sale of the financial instruments" in Article 10, paragraph (2), item (i) of that Act is deemed to be replaced with "commodity transaction contract"; and any other necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Cabinet Order.

(Preparation of Books)

Article 240-20 A commodity derivatives intermediary service provider must prepare and preserve books related to commodity derivatives intermediation services pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.

(Submission of Written Reports)

Article 240-21 A commodity derivatives intermediary service provider must prepare a business report for each business year and submit it to the competent minister within three months from the end of each business year, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.

Section 3 Supervision

(Collection of Reports and On-Site Inspections)

- Article 240-22 (1) The competent minister may order a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider to submit reports or materials that should serve as a reference on their business, or may have ministry employees enter the office or a business office of a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider to inspect their books and documents or any other article related to their business when the minister finds it necessary to do so for the enforcement of this Act.
- (2) The competent minister may order a person that conducts a transaction with a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider to submit reports or materials that should serve as a reference on the business of the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider if the minister finds it particularly necessary to do so for the enforcement of this Act.
- (3) The provisions of Article 157, paragraphs (4) and (5) apply mutatis mutandis to the on-site inspection under the provisions of paragraph (1).

(Supervisory Dispositions)

- Article 240-23 (1) If a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider falls under any of the following items, the competent minister may revoke the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider's registration under Article 240-2, paragraph (1), order the suspension of all or part of their commodity derivatives intermediation services for a fixed period not exceeding six months, or order other matters necessary for supervision:
- (i) if the service provider comes to fall under any of Article 15, paragraph (2), item (i), sub-item (c), (d) (limited to the part related to the provisions of a foreign law or regulation that is equivalent to this Act), (e), (i), or (l);
 - (ii) if the service provider obtains the registration referred to in Article 240-2, paragraph (1) by wrongful means;
 - (iii) if the service provider violates this Act, an order based on this Act, or a disposition made by the competent minister based on this Act.
- (2) If the officer of a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider performs an act that falls under item (iii) of the preceding paragraph, the competent minister may order the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider to dismiss the officer.

(Deletion of Registrations)

- Article 240-24 If a registration referred to in Article 240-2, paragraph (1) loses its effect pursuant to the provisions of Article 240-7, paragraph (2), or the competent minister revokes a registration referred to in Article 240-2, paragraph (1) pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) of the preceding Article, the minister must delete the registration.

(Application, Mutatis Mutandis)

Article 240-25 The provisions of Article 15, paragraphs (5) through (9) apply mutatis mutandis to the registration referred to in Article 240-2, paragraph (1), the provisions of Article 158, paragraph (2) apply mutatis mutandis to the disposition under the provisions of Article 240-23, the provisions of Article 159, paragraph (4) apply mutatis mutandis to a hearing on the revocation of registration or an order to dismiss an officer under the provisions of Article 240-23, and the provisions of Article 240 apply mutatis mutandis to commodity derivatives intermediary service providers. In this case, the phrase "not to conform to one of the items of paragraph (1) or to fall under one of the items of paragraph (2)" in Article 15, paragraph (5) is deemed to be replaced with "to fall under one of the items of Article 240-5".

Section 4 Miscellaneous Provisions

(Requested Commodity Derivatives Brokers' Liability for Damages)

Article 240-26 The requested commodity derivatives broker of a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider is liable to compensate for damages caused to a customer in relation to the commodity derivatives intermediation services performed by the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider to which they have entrusted the services; provided, however, that this does not apply if the requested commodity derivatives broker has exercised due care in entrusting the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider with those services, and has endeavored to prevent the damage that the intermediary service provider causes to the customer in relation to the acts of commodity derivatives intermediary services that the intermediary service provider performs..

Chapter V Commodity Futures Association

- Article 250 (1) A change in the articles of incorporation, sanction rules, or dispute resolution rules of an association does not become effective without the authorization of the competent minister.
- (2) If an association seeks to obtain the authorization referred to in the preceding paragraph, it must submit a written application to the competent minister by attaching the documents specified by order of the competent ministry..
- (3) If a matter stated in Article 247, paragraph (1), item (ii) or (iii) changes, the association must notify the competent minister of this without delay. The same applies if an association prepares, changes, or abolishes its rules (other than the articles of incorporation, sanction rules, and dispute resolution rules).
- (4) The provisions of Article 248, paragraph (1), item (i) apply mutatis mutandis to the authorization referred to in paragraph (1).

Section 3 Association Members

(Association Membership Qualification)

- Article 251 (1) A commodity derivatives broker is the only person that is qualified to become an association member.
- (2) Except in the case stated in paragraph (5), an association must specify in its articles of incorporation that any commodity derivatives broker may join the association as an association member.
- (3) An association must specify in its articles of incorporation that it will endeavor to prevent any fraudulent act, act of manipulating quotations, collection of unreasonable fees and costs, or other acts of unfair profiting by association members and commodity derivatives intermediary service providers and promote the principle of good faith in transactions.

- (4) An association must specify in its articles of incorporation that it will endeavor to prevent acts that violate laws and regulations or the articles of incorporation or other rules of the association and secure requesting parties' trust, by having association members develop internal rules and the administrative structure of the association members and the commodity derivatives intermediary service providers that have the association members as requested commodity derivatives brokers, in order for the association members to comply with laws and regulations, and the articles of incorporation and other rules of the association.
- (5) An association may specify in its articles of incorporation that if a person that has been ordered to suspend transactions in a commodity market or commodity derivatives business or has been expelled from an association or a commodity exchange or has become subject to a disposition of the revocation of trading qualification as a result of violating this Act, an order based on this Act, or a disposition made by the competent minister based on this Act, or of violating the articles of incorporation or other rules of an association or a commodity exchange or performing an act that is contrary to the principle of good faith in transactions, the association may refuse membership of the person.

(Public Inspection of the Register)

Article 252 An association must make its register of association members available for public inspection.

(Sanction Rules)

Article 253 An association must specify in its articles of incorporation that if an association member or a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider that has an requested commodity derivatives broker as an association member violates this Act, an order based on this Act, or a disposition made by the competent minister based on this Act, violates the articles of incorporation, dispute resolution rules, or other rules of an association or a commodity exchange, or performs an act that is contrary to the principle of good faith in transactions, the association will impose a monetary sanction on the association member, order the suspension or restriction of the rights of the association member prescribed in the articles of incorporation, or expel the association member pursuant to the provisions of the sanction rules.

Section 4 Organizations

(Officers)

Article 254 An association has one president, two or more directors, and two or more auditors as its officers.

(Authority of the President and Directors)

Article 255 (1) The president represents the association and presides over its affairs.

(2) A director, pursuant to the provisions of the articles of incorporation, represents the association, assists the president in administering the affairs of the association, acts as a proxy in handling the duties of the president if the president is unavailable, and performs the duties of the president if the position is vacant..

(Authority of the Auditors)

Article 256 (1) The auditors audit the affairs of the association.

(2) An auditor may request the president or a director to give a report about the affairs or examine the state of the affairs or property of the association, at any time.

(3) An auditor must inspect the documents that the president seeks to submit to a general meeting of association members and report their opinions to the general meeting of association members.

(Disqualifying Conditions for Officers)

Article 257 The provisions of Article 49 apply mutatis mutandis to the officers of an association.

(Provisional Director or Provisional Auditor)

Article 258 The competent minister may appoint a provisional director or provisional auditor if there is no person to perform the duties of a director or an auditor and the minister finds it necessary to do so.

Section 5 Dispute Resolutions

(Complaint Resolutions)

Article 259 (1) If the customer, etc. of an association member or a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider files for the resolution of a complaint related to the business conducted by that association member or commodity derivatives intermediary service provider, the association must provide consultation, provide necessary advice to the requester, and investigate the circumstances of the complaint, as well as notify the association member or commodity derivatives intermediary service provider of the content of the complaint and demand the association member or service provider to process the complaint promptly.

- (2) An association may demand an association member or commodity derivatives intermediary service provider to provide a written or oral explanation or to submit materials if finds it finds it necessary to do so for resolving the complaint which the request referred to in the preceding paragraph concerns.
- (3) If an association member or commodity derivatives intermediary service provider has received a demand under the provisions of the preceding paragraph from the association, they must not refuse the demand without legitimate grounds for doing so.
- (4) An association must fully inform its association members or commodity derivatives intermediary service provider about any request referred to in paragraph (1), the circumstances which the complaint concerns, and the outcome of the resolution.

(Arbitration and Conciliation Committee)

Article 260 An association must specify in its dispute resolution rules that it will establish an arbitration and conciliation committee (referred to as a "committee" in the following Article) comprising of committee members with relevant expertise in futures transactions and satisfying other requirements specified by order of the competent ministry, for the purpose of conducting arbitration and conciliation of any dispute that arises between association members or between an association member or a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider and their customer in relation to a commodity derivatives transaction, etc. (referred to as a "dispute about a commodity derivatives transaction, etc." in the following Article).

(Implementation of Arbitration and Conciliation)

- Article 261 (1) If an association member, commodity derivatives intermediary service provider, or customer who is a party to a dispute about a commodity derivatives transaction, etc. makes a request for arbitration or conciliation, the association is to conduct arbitration or conciliation by the committee without delay, pursuant to the provisions of its dispute resolution rules.
- (2) An association must specify detailed regulations concerning the following matters in its dispute resolution rules:
 - (i) the procedures for requesting arbitration and conciliation;
 - (ii) the method of arbitration and conciliation; and
 - (iii) beyond what is stated in the preceding two items, the necessary matters for arbitration and conciliation.
 - (3) If it is necessary for the smooth implementation of arbitration and conciliation, an association may demand a commodity exchange to submit materials or to provide other necessary cooperation.

Section 6 Dissolutions

Article 262 (1) An association is to dissolve due to the following grounds:

- (i) an occurrence of grounds for dissolution specified by the articles of incorporation;
 - (ii) a resolution of a general meeting of association members;
 - (iii) an order of commencement of bankruptcy proceedings; or
 - (iv) a revocation of authorization for establishment.
- (2) If an association is dissolved pursuant to the provisions of items (i) through (iii) of the preceding paragraph, the association must notify the competent minister of this without delay.
- (3) Beyond what is provided for in the preceding two paragraphs, necessary matters for the dissolution of an association are specified by Cabinet Order.

Section 7 Supervision

(Collection of Reports and On-Site Inspections)

- Article 263 (1) The competent minister may order an association or an association member to submit reports or materials that should serve as a reference on its business or property, or may have ministry employees enter the office or business office of an association or association member and inspect their books and documents or any other article related to their business when the minister finds it necessary to do so for the enforcement of this Act.
- (2) The provisions of Article 157, paragraphs (4) and (5) apply mutatis mutandis to the inspection under the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

(Business Improvement Orders)

- Article 264 The competent minister may order an association to the extent necessary to change its articles of incorporation, sanction rules, dispute resolution rules, or other rules, or to take other measures necessary for improving its business operations if the minister finds it necessary and appropriate to do so for achieving fair and smooth commodity derivatives transactions, etc. or for the protection of requesting parties, etc.

(Supervisory Dispositions for Associations)

- Article 265 (1) The competent minister may revoke an association's authorization for the establishment, order the suspension of all or a part of its business for a fixed period not exceeding one year, order prohibition of its business in part, or order dismissal of its officer if the association violates this Act, an order based on this Act, a disposition made by the competent minister based on this Act, its articles of incorporation, or other rules (referred to below as "this Act, etc." in this Article) or if, even though an association member or commodity derivatives intermediary service provider has violated this Act, etc., the association fails to exercise the powers granted under this Act, an order based on this Act, or its articles of incorporation, or fails to take other necessary measures to have the association member or commodity derivatives intermediary service provider observe this Act, etc., and the minister finds it necessary and appropriate to do so for achieving fair and smooth commodity derivatives transactions, etc. or for the protection of requesting parties, etc.

(2) If the competent minister discovers that a written application for the authorization referred to in Article 245 or Article 250, paragraph (1) or its attached document that contains a false statement about a material particular or lacks a statement of a material fact, the minister may revoke the authorization.

(3) If the competent minister discovers that a person has become the officer of an association by wrongful means or if the officer of an association has violated this Act, an order based on this Act, or a disposition made by the competent minister based on this Act, the minister may order the association to dismiss the officer.

(Application, Mutatis Mutandis of Special Provisions on the Method of Conducting Hearings)

Article 266 The provisions of Article 158, paragraph (2) apply mutatis mutandis to the dispositions under the provisions of the preceding two Articles and the provisions of Article 159, paragraph (4) apply mutatis mutandis to a hearing on the revocation of authorization or on an order to dismiss an officer under the provisions of the preceding Article.

Section 8 Miscellaneous Provisions

(Duty of Confidentiality of Officers and Employees of Associations)

Article 267 It is prohibited for the officer or employee of an association, or a person that has held one of these positions, to divulge or misappropriate any secret learned in the course of duty.

(Submission of Business Summary Reports)

Article 268 An association must submit the following documents to the competent minister within three months from the day of the commencement of every business year:

(i) a business summary report for the previous business year and the business plan for the relevant business year;

- (ii) the inventory of property as of the end of the previous business year; and
- (iii) the income and expenditure statement for the previous business year and the budget statements for the relevant business year.

Chapter VI Requesting Party Protection Funds

Section 1 General Provisions

(General Requesting Parties)

- Article 269 (1) The term "general requesting party" as used in this Chapter means the customer of the domestic business office or office of a commodity derivatives broker (limited to a commodity derivatives broker performing the acts stated in Article 2, paragraph (22), item (i) or (ii) in the course of trade, at a business office or office in Japan; the same applies below in the Chapter) that requests the commodity derivatives broker with a transaction in a commodity market, etc. (excluding a commodity clearing transaction; the same applies in the following paragraph) (excluding a commodity derivatives broker, a qualified institutional investor prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (3), item (i) of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act, a commodities investment advisor, and other persons specified by Cabinet Order).
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, if one commodity derivatives broker requests another commodity derivatives broker with a transaction in a commodity market, etc. (limited to one stated in Article 2, paragraph (21), item (i) or (iii)) on its general requesting party's account, the commodity derivatives broker is deemed to be the general requesting party of the other commodity derivatives broker, and the provisions of this Chapter apply.

(Purpose)

- Article 270 The purpose of a requesting party protection fund is to protect requesting parties by making payments to general requesting parties pursuant to the provisions of Article 306, paragraph (1) and through other services, thereby maintaining the credibility of commodity markets.

(Legal Personality and Address)

- Article 271 (1) A requesting party protection fund is a corporation.
- (2) The address of a requesting party protection fund is to be at the locality of its principal office.

(Name)

- Article 272 (1) A requesting party protection fund must use the characters "委託者保護基金" (with a pronunciation of "itakusha hogo kikin", and with the literal meaning of "requesting party protection fund") in its name.

- (2) A person that is not a requesting party protection fund must not use the characters "委託者保護基金" in their name.

(Registrations)

Article 273 (1) A requesting party protection fund must be registered pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Order.

- (2) The matters that are required to be registered pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph may not be asserted against a third party until after their registration.

(Capacity in Respect of Tortious Acts)

Article 274 A requesting party protection fund is liable to compensate for damages that its president or directors caused to another person in the performance of their duties.

Section 2 Members

(Qualification of Members)

Article 275 (1) A commodity derivatives broker is the only person that is qualified to become a member of a requesting party protection fund.

- (2) If a commodity derivative business operator seeks to join a requesting party protection fund, the fund must not refuse membership or attach unreasonable conditions to membership, unless membership is restricted based on legitimate grounds.

(Obligation to Join)

Article 276 (1) A commodity derivatives broker must join any one of the requesting party protection funds as a member.

- (2) A person seeking to engage in commodity derivatives business after obtaining the license under Article 190, paragraph (1) (limited to a person seeking to perform an act stated in Article 2, paragraph (22), item (i) or (ii) in the course of trade at a domestic business office or office), or a person seeking to perform an act stated in Article 2, paragraph (22), item (i) or (ii) in the course of trade at a business office or office in Japan by giving a notification referred to in Article 195, paragraph (1), item (i) (limited to a notification related to Article 192, paragraph (1), item (v)) (limited to a person that is not a member of a requesting party protection fund) must take the procedures for joining any one of the requesting party protection funds before filing the application for the license or giving the notification.
- (3) A person that has taken the procedures for joining a requesting party protection fund pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph becomes a member of the requesting party protection fund at the time the license referred to in that paragraph is granted or the notification referred to in that paragraph is accepted.

- (4) When a commodity derivatives broker joins a requesting party protection fund or changes the requesting party protection funds they belong to, they must notify the competent minister of this without delay.

(Withdrawals)

Article 277 (1) A commodity derivatives broker that is a member of a requesting party protection fund withdraws from the requesting party protection fund they belong to for the following reasons, as a matter of course:

- (i) revocation of their license under Article 190, paragraph (1) pursuant to the provisions of Article 235, paragraph (3) or Article 236, paragraph (1); or
- (ii) expiration of their license under Article 190, paragraph (1) pursuant to the provisions of Article 190, paragraph (2) or Article 197, paragraph (2).

- (2) A commodity derivatives broker may not withdraw from the requesting party protection fund they belong to except in the following cases:

- (i) the withdrawal is for a reason stated in one of the items of the preceding paragraph;
- (ii) they submit the notification referred to in Article 195, paragraph (1), item (ii); or
- (iii) they become a member of another requesting party protection fund with the approval of the competent minister.

- (3) A person that withdraws from a requesting party protection fund for the reason stated in either item (i) or (ii) of the preceding paragraph is deemed to continue to be a commodity derivatives broker that is a member of the requesting party protection fund for the purpose of the application of the provisions of Articles 302 through 311.

- (4) Even if a commodity derivatives broker withdraws from a requesting party protection fund they belong to (excluding a case of withdrawal pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1)), they incur the obligation to pay the amount calculated by the requesting party protection fund pursuant to the provisions of the operational rules as the amount of expenses that the withdrawn commodity derivatives broker should bear out of the amount of the expenses required for the services (limited to services referred to in Article 306, paragraph (1) and Article 308, paragraph (1)) that the requesting party protection fund provides for a commodity derivatives broker that has come to fall under one of the items of Article 303, paragraph (1) or the items of paragraph (3) of that Article before the commodity derivatives broker withdrew from the requesting party protection fund.

- (5) When an application for the approval referred to in paragraph (2), item (iii) is filed, the competent minister must not grant the approval unless the application satisfies the following requirements:
- (i) the commodity derivatives broker has repaid in full the obligation they bear as a member to the requesting party protection fund from which they seek to withdraw, by the time of filing the application for approval, and their performance of the obligation prescribed in the preceding paragraph is expected to be reliable; or
 - (ii) the commodity derivatives broker has undertaken the procedures for joining another requesting party protection fund as a member.

Section 3 Establishment

(Requirements for Establishment)

- Article 278 (1) In order to establish a requesting party protection fund, 20 or more commodity derivatives brokers that seek to become its members must become the founders.
- (2) After preparing the articles of incorporation and operational rules, the founders must invite persons to become members and hold an organizational meeting and issue public notice of the articles of incorporation and the operational rules together with the time and place of the meeting by two weeks before the day of the organizational meeting.
- (3) Approval of the articles of incorporation and operational rules and decisions about other matters that are necessary for the establishment of the requesting party protection fund must be adopted by a resolution of the organizational meeting.
- (4) The articles of incorporation and operational rules may be amended at an organizational meeting.
- (5) The proceedings of an organizational meeting pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (3) are decided by at least a two-thirds majority of the votes of those present, at a meeting in which at least half of the commodity derivatives brokers that have proposed that they will become members to the founders before the opening of the organizational meeting (referred to below as an "expected member" in this Article) and the founders are present.
- (6) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 292, paragraph (2), the matters that are necessary for the business operations in the business year that includes the day of the establishment of a requesting party protection fund (including the budget and funding plans) may be decided by a resolution of the organizational meeting.
- (7) The provisions of the main clause of Article 295 apply mutatis mutandis to the proceedings of the organizational meeting under the provisions of the preceding paragraph. In this case, the term "all members" in the main cause of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "the commodity derivatives brokers that have proposed they will become members to the founders before the opening of the organizational meeting and the founders".

- (8) Each of the expected members holds an equal voting right for the organizational meeting.
- (9) An expected member not attending an organizational meeting may vote in writing or by proxy.
- (10) In place of exercising a voting right by written ballot pursuant to the preceding paragraph, the expected member referred to in that paragraph may exercise a voting right by electronic or magnetic means, pursuant to the provisions of the articles of incorporation.
- (11) A person that exercises a voting right pursuant to the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs is deemed to be present at the relevant meeting.
- (12) The provisions of paragraphs (8), (9), and the preceding paragraph do not apply if otherwise provided for in the articles of incorporation.
- (13) If a resolution of an organizational meeting concerns the relationship between the requesting party protection fund and a specific expected member, that expected member has no voting right.

(Application for Authorization)

- Article 279 (1) The founders must obtain approval for establishment by submitting a written application for authorization stating the following matters to the competent minister, without delay after the conclusion of the organizational meeting:
- (i) the name;
 - (ii) the amount of net assets;
 - (iii) the office address; and
 - (iv) the names and addresses of the officers and the trade names of the members.
- (2) The articles of incorporation, operational rules, and documents specified by order of the competent ministry must be attached to the written application for authorization referred to in the preceding paragraph.
- (3) The provisions of Article 99, paragraph (7) apply mutatis mutandis to the amount of net assets referred to in paragraph (1), item (ii).

(Criteria for Authorization)

- Article 280 (1) If the competent minister finds that the application for authorization referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article conforms to all of the criteria stated in the following items, the minister must grant authorization for establishment:

- (i) the procedures for establishment and the content of the articles of incorporation and operational rules conform to laws and regulations;
 - (ii) the written application for authorization, the articles of incorporation, and the operational rules contain no false statements;
 - (iii) no person matching one of the persons referred to in Article 15, paragraph (2), item (i), sub-items (a) through (k) is among the officers;
 - (iv) the amount of net assets is three billion yen or more;
 - (v) it is found to be certain that the business operations will be conducted appropriately; and
 - (vi) the organization of the requesting party protection fund which the application concerns conforms to the provisions of this Act.
- (2) The provisions of Article 15, paragraphs (5) through (9) apply mutatis mutandis to the authorization referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article.

(Transfer of Affairs to the President)

Article 281 Upon obtaining authorization for establishment, the founders must hand over the affairs of the requesting party protection fund to the president without delay.

(Registration)

Article 282 (1) A requesting party protection fund is established by registering its establishment at the locality of its principal office.

- (2) When the registration of establishment referred to in the preceding paragraph has been made, the requesting party protection fund must notify the competent minister of this without delay.

Section 4 Management

(Matters Required to Be Stated in the Articles of Incorporation)

Article 283 (1) The following matters must be stated in the articles of incorporation of a requesting party protection fund:

- (i) the purpose;
- (ii) the name;
- (iii) the location of its office;
- (iv) the following matters concerning its members:
 - (a) qualification as a member;
 - (b) joining and withdrawing as a member; and
 - (c) audits of and sanctions against members.
- (v) the matters concerning its general meetings;
- (vi) the matters concerning its officers;

- (vii) the matters concerning the management council;
 - (viii) the matters concerning finance and accounting;
 - (ix) the matters concerning changes to the articles of incorporation;
 - (x) the matters concerning dissolution; and
 - (xi) the means of public notice.
- (2) A change to the articles of incorporation does not come into effect without the authorization of the competent minister.
- (3) If a matter stated in Article 279, paragraph (1), item (iv) changes, the requesting party protection fund must notify the competent minister of this without delay.

(Officers)

Article 284 A requesting party protection fund has one president, two or more directors, and one or more auditors as officers.

(Authority of the Officers)

- Article 285 (1) The president represents the requesting party protection fund and presides over its affairs.
- (2) Pursuant to the provisions of the articles of incorporation, a director represents the requesting party protection fund, assists the president in administering the affairs of the requesting party protection fund, acts as a proxy in handling the duties of the president if the president is unavailable, and performs the duties of the president if the position is vacant.
- (3) The execution of the business of a requesting party protection fund is decided by a majority vote of the president and directors, unless otherwise specified by the articles of incorporation.
- (4) An auditor audits the affairs of a requesting party protection fund.
- (5) An auditor may submit opinions to the president or the competent minister based on the result of an audit, if the auditor finds this to be necessary.
- (6) An officer loses the position of officer upon coming to fall under one of Article 15, paragraph (2), item (i), sub-items (a) through (k).

(Appointment, Term of Office and Dismissal of Officers)

- Article 286 (1) An officer is appointed and dismissed at a general meeting pursuant to the provisions of the articles of incorporation; provided, however, that the officers at the time of establishment are appointed at the organizational meeting.
- (2) The appointment (excluding the appointment of the officers at the time of establishment) and dismissal of the officers of a requesting party protection fund under the provisions of the preceding paragraph does not come into effect without the authorization of the competent minister.

- (3) The term of office of an officer is a period of not more than two years specified by the articles of incorporation.
- (4) An officer may be reappointed.
- (5) If an officer is found to have become an officer through wrongful means, or if an officer has violated a law or regulation, a disposition by a government agency based on a law or regulation, or the articles of incorporation, the competent minister may order the requesting party protection fund to dismiss the officer.

(Prohibition on the Concurrent Holding of Positions by Auditors)

Article 287 An auditor must not concurrently hold the position of president, director, member of the management council, or employee of the requesting party protection fund.

(Restriction on the Representative Authority)

Article 288 The president or a director has no representative authority with respect to any matter in which the interests of the requesting party protection fund conflict with those of the president or the directors. In this case, an auditor represents the requesting party protection fund.

(Provisional Directors or Provisional Auditors)

Article 289 The competent minister may appoint a provisional director or provisional auditor if there is no person to perform the duties of a director or an auditor and the minister finds it necessary to do so.

(General Meetings)

- Article 290 (1) The president must call an ordinary general meeting once every business year, pursuant to the provisions of the articles of incorporation.
- (2) The president may call an extraordinary general meeting when the president finds this to be necessary.
 - (3) When calling a general meeting has been requested by at least one-fifth of all members by presenting the subject matter of the meeting, the president must call an extraordinary general meeting; provided, however, that a proportion other than one-fifth of the members may be specified in the articles of incorporation.

(Calling of General Meetings)

Article 291 A calling notice for a general meeting (meaning an ordinary general meeting referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article or an extraordinary general meeting referred to in paragraph (2) of that Article; the same applies below in this Chapter) must specify the subject matter of the meeting, and must be sent by the means specified in the articles of incorporation by at least five days before the day of the meeting.

(Matters to Be Resolved at General Meetings)

Article 292 (1) Only a matter of which advance notice is given pursuant to the provisions of the preceding Article may be resolved at a general meeting; provided, however, that this does not apply if otherwise provided for in the articles of incorporation.

- (2) Beyond what is specifically provided for in this Act, the following matters require a resolution of a general meeting to be adopted:
- (i) a change to the articles of incorporation;
 - (ii) a decision on or change to the budget or funding plan;
 - (iii) a change to the operational rules;
 - (iv) settlement of accounts;
 - (v) dissolution; and
 - (vi) beyond what is stated in the preceding items, matters which are specified in the articles of incorporation.
- (3) At a general meeting, the members may request an auditor to audit the business of the requesting party protection fund and report the results.

(Voting Rights of Members)

- Article 293 (1) Each of the members holds an equal voting right.
- (2) A member not attending a general meeting may vote in writing or by proxy.
- (3) In place of exercising a voting right by written ballot pursuant to the preceding paragraph, the member referred to in the preceding paragraph may exercise a voting right by electronic or magnetic means, pursuant to the provisions of the articles of incorporation.
- (4) A person that exercises a voting right pursuant to the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs is deemed to be present at the relevant meeting.
- (5) The provisions of paragraphs (1), (2) and the preceding paragraph do not apply if otherwise provided for in the articles of incorporation.

(When a Member Has No Voting Right)

Article 294 If a resolution concerns the relationship between the requesting party protection fund and a specific member, the member has no voting right.

(Proceedings of General Meetings)

Article 295 The proceedings of a general meeting are decided by a majority vote of the attendees, at a meeting in which at least half of all members are present, and by the chairperson in the event of a tie; provided, however, that decisions of the proceedings stated in Article 292, paragraph (2), items (i), (iii), and (v) are made by at least a two-thirds majority vote of the attending members.

(Management Councils)

Article 296 (1) A requesting party protection fund establishes a management council in order to properly conduct its business.

(2) In the following cases, the president must hear the opinion of the management council in advance:

- (i) when making a certification pursuant to the provisions of Article 304;
- (ii) when specifying the matters that are required to be specified pursuant to the provisions of Article 305, paragraph (1);
- (iii) when deciding whether or not to provide a loan under the provisions of Article 308, paragraph (4); or
- (iv) when deciding other material matters related to the operation of the business of the requesting party protection fund.

(3) A management council is composed of not more than eight members.

(4) The members are appointed by the president from among the persons with relevant expertise necessary to properly operate the business of the requesting party protection fund, with the authorization of the competent minister.

(Appointment of Employees)

Article 297 The employees of a requesting party protection fund are appointed by the president.

(Duty of Confidentiality of the Officers and Employees)

Article 298 (1) It is prohibited for the officer or employee of a requesting party protection fund, a member of the management council, or a person that has held one of these positions, to divulge or misappropriate any secret learned in the course of duty.

(2) It is prohibited for the officer or employee of a requesting party protection fund, a member of the management council, or a person that has held one of these positions, to use information learned in the course of duty for a purpose other than for the business of the requesting party protection fund.

(Positions of Officers and Employees)

Article 299 Regarding the application of the Penal Code (Act No. 45 of 1907) and other penal provisions, the officers and employees of a requesting party protection fund and the members of the management council are deemed to be employees engaged in public service pursuant to laws and regulations.

Section 5 Business

(Scope of Business)

Article 300 A requesting party protection fund performs the following businesses in order to achieve the purpose prescribed in Article 270:

- (i) making payments to a general requesting party pursuant to the provisions of Article 306, paragraph (1);
- (ii) lending of funds pursuant to the provisions of Article 308, paragraph (1);
- (iii) acceptance and management of deposits of the property subject to preservation pursuant to the provisions of Article 309;
- (iv) business that contributes to the prompt repayment of liabilities of a general requesting party prescribed in Article 310;
- (v) acts in and out of court prescribed in Article 311, paragraph (1);
- (vi) the collection and management of dues (meaning dues prescribed in Article 277, paragraph (4) and Article 314, paragraph (1); the same applies in paragraph (1), item (ii) of the following Article);
- (vii) business incidental to the business stated in the preceding items.

(Operational Rules)

Article 301 (1) The operational rules of a requesting party protection fund must state the following matters:

- (i) the matters concerning the businesses and their execution;
 - (ii) the matters concerning the dues (including matters concerning the method of calculating them and their payment); and
 - (iii) other matters specified by order of the competent ministry.
- (2) If a requesting party protection fund seeks to change its operational rules, it must obtain the authorization of the competent minister.

(Submission of Reports or Materials)

Article 302 (1) If it is necessary for conducting its business, a requesting party protection fund may request a commodity derivatives broker that is its member to submit reports or materials that should serve as a reference on the state of the business or property of the commodity derivatives broker.

(2) A commodity derivatives broker that has been requested to submit reports or materials that should serve as a reference on the state of their business or property pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph must submit the reports or materials without delay.

(3) At the request of a requesting party protection fund, the competent minister may issue materials to the requesting party protection fund or have the requesting party protection fund inspect them, if the minister finds that this is particularly necessary in order for the requesting party protection fund to conduct business.

(Notice to Requesting Party Protection Funds)

- Article 303 (1) If a commodity derivatives broker that is a member of a requesting party protection fund falls under one of the following items, the broker must immediately notify the requesting party protection fund they belong to of this:
- (i) when their license under Article 190, paragraph (1) is revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 235, paragraph (3) or Article 236, paragraph (1);
 - (ii) when their license under Article 190, paragraph (1) has ceased to be effective pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2) of that Article;
 - (iii) when they file a petition to commence bankruptcy proceedings, rehabilitation proceedings, reorganization proceedings, or special liquidation;
 - (iv) when they discontinue commodity derivatives business (including when they discontinue performing an act stated in Article 2, paragraph (22), item (i) or (ii) in the course of trade at all business offices and offices established in Japan) or has dissolved, or has issued public notice of the discontinuance or dissolution of commodity derivatives business pursuant to the provisions of Article 197, paragraph (3);
 - (v) when they become subject to an order to suspend commodity derivatives business pursuant to the provisions of Article 236, paragraph (1) (limited to a case falling under item (vii) of that paragraph); or
 - (vi) beyond what is stated in the preceding items, a case which is specified by Cabinet Order as being likely to result in insufficient protection of requesting parties.
- (2) If a requesting party protection fund receives a notice under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, they must immediately report this to the competent minister.
- (3) If one of the following situations occurs to a commodity derivatives broker that is a member of a requesting party protection fund, the competent minister must immediately notify the fund to which the broker belongs of this:
- (i) when the competent minister revokes their license under Article 190, paragraph (1) pursuant to the provisions of Article 235, paragraph (3) or Article 236, paragraph (1);
 - (ii) when the competent minister orders the suspension of commodity derivatives business pursuant to the provisions of Article 236, paragraph (1) (limited to a case falling under item (vii) of that paragraph);
 - (iii) when their license under Article 190, paragraph (1) ceases to be effective pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2) of that Article; or
 - (iv) in a case equivalent to the preceding three items, and the competent minister finds it necessary to give a notice.

(Certification of Difficulty to Repay the Liabilities of General Requesting Parties)

Article 304 If a requesting party protection fund receives a notice under the provisions of paragraph (1) or (3) of the preceding Article (including when a notice referred to in paragraph (1) of that Article is not given, but the requesting party protection fund learns that its member falls under one of the items of that paragraph), it must make a certification without delay on whether it is difficult for the commodity derivatives broker which the notice concerns (including a commodity derivatives broker that the requesting party protection fund has learned falls under one of the items of paragraph (1), when a notice under that paragraph is not given; referred to below as the "commodity derivatives broker that is the subject of a notice") to smoothly repay the liabilities concerning the return of requesting party's assets to their general requesting party (referred to below as "liabilities of a general requesting party" in this Chapter), unless it is found to be unlikely that not making a certification would result in insufficient protection of the requesting party.

(Public Notice of Certification)

Article 305 (1) Pursuant to the preceding Article, if a requesting party protection fund makes a certification that it is difficult for the commodity derivatives broker that is the subject of a notice to smoothly repay the liabilities of general requesting party, the requesting party protection fund must promptly specify the period for notification and the place of notification for the request referred to in paragraph (1) of the following Article and any other matters specified by Cabinet Order and issue public notice of it.

(2) If a public notice under the provisions of Article 197, paragraph (1) of the Bankruptcy Act (Act No. 75 of 2004) (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 209, paragraph (3) of that Act) or a notice under paragraph (5) is issued, or if any other situation specified by Cabinet Order occurs with regard to the commodity derivatives broker that is subject to the certification referred to in the preceding paragraph (referred to below as the "certified commodity derivatives broker") after the requesting party protection fund issues public notice pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the requesting party protection fund may change the period of notification for which public notice was given pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

(3) If a requesting party protection fund changes the period of notification pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, it must issue public notice of the matters concerning the change without delay.

(4) If a requesting party protection fund specifies the matters prescribed in paragraph (1) or changes the period of notification pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2), it must immediately report this to the competent minister.

- (5) The bankruptcy trustee must notify the requesting party protection fund when they have given the notice under the provisions of Article 197, paragraph (1) of the Bankruptcy Act (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 209, paragraph (3) of that Act) or Article 204, paragraph (2) of that Act or when they have obtained the permission under the provisions of Article 208, paragraph (1) of that Act concerning the bankruptcy proceedings of a certified commodity derivatives broker.

(Payment of Claims to Be Compensated)

- Article 306 (1) At the request of the general requesting party of a certified commodity derivatives broker, the requesting party protection fund is to pay the amount calculated pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry on any claim that the general requesting party has against the certified commodity derivatives broker as of the day that the requesting party protection fund has issued public notice pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) of the preceding Article (limited to a claim for the requesting party assets of the general requesting party), and which the requesting party protection fund, pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Order, finds to be difficult for the certified commodity derivatives broker to repay smoothly (referred to below as the "claims to be compensated").
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, a requesting party protection fund is not to make the payment referred to in that paragraph to the officer of the certified commodity derivatives broker or any other person specified by Cabinet Order.
- (3) The request referred to in paragraph (1) may only be made within the period of notification for which public notice is issued pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) or (3) of the preceding Article; provided, however, that this does not apply if the requesting party protection fund finds there to be compelling circumstances such as a natural disaster for the failure to make the request within the period of notification..

(Amount of Payment)

- Article 307 (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of the paragraph (1) of the preceding Article, if the general requesting party of a certified commodity derivatives broker which has made the request referred to in that paragraph has incurred an obligation to the certified commodity derivatives broker, the amount that the requesting party protection fund is required to pay pursuant to the provisions of that paragraph is equivalent to the amount arrived at when the amount of the obligation is deducted from the amount provided for in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article.
- (2) With regard to the application of the provisions of paragraph (1) of the preceding Article and the preceding paragraph, if a commodity derivatives broker is deemed to be a general requesting party pursuant to the provisions of Article 269, paragraph (2), each general requesting party that has caused the commodity derivatives broker to be deemed a general requesting party has the position of a general requesting party.

- (3) If the amount that is required to be paid pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) of the preceding Article and paragraph (1) exceeds the amount specified by Cabinet Order, the amount specified by the Cabinet Order is the amount that is required to be paid.
- (4) If a requesting party protection fund makes the payment referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article, it acquires a claim to be compensated related to that payment and in accordance with the amount it pays, pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Order.

(Loans of Funds for Refunds)

Article 308 (1) At the application of a commodity derivatives broker that is the subject of a notice, a requesting party protection fund may lend the commodity derivatives broker that is the subject of the notice (other than a certified commodity derivatives broker) the necessary funds for making prompt repayment of liabilities of general requesting parties (referred to below as a "loan of funds for refunds") within the scope of the amount found to be necessary.

- (2) A commodity derivatives broker that is the subject of a notice filing an application for a loan of funds for refunds must be certified by the competent minister that they satisfy all of the following requirements with regard to the loan of funds for refunds (referred to below as "certification of eligibility" in this Article), by the time they file the application:
 - (i) providing a loan of funds for refunds is found to be necessary for the prompt repayment of liabilities of general requesting parties;
 - (ii) it is found to be certain that the money from a loan of funds for refunds is to be used for the prompt repayment of liabilities of general requesting parties.
- (3) Upon granting a certification of eligibility, the competent minister must notify the requesting party protection fund to which the commodity derivatives broker that has obtained the certification of eligibility belongs of this.
- (4) Upon receiving an application for a loan of funds for refunds from a commodity derivatives broker that is the subject of a notice, a requesting party protection fund must decide whether to provide the loan of funds for refunds which the application concerns.
- (5) When a requesting party protection fund has made the decision referred to in the preceding paragraph, it must immediately report the matter concerning the decision to the competent minister.

(Acceptance and Management of Deposits of Property Subject to Preservation)

Article 309 A requesting party protection fund may accept and manage a deposit of all or a part of the property subject to preservation from a commodity derivatives broker that is a member, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.

(Business for Contributing to Prompt Repayment of Liabilities)

Article 310 A requesting party protection fund may be entrusted by a commodity derivatives broker that is a member to conduct business as the trust administrator of the commodity derivatives broker and any other business specified by order of the competent ministry, in order to contribute to the prompt repayment of liabilities of general requesting parties.

(Preservation of the Claims of General Requesting Parties)

Article 311 (1) A requesting party protection fund may be entrusted by the general requesting party of a commodity derivatives broker that is the subject of a notice, to conduct any and all acts in and out of court which are necessary for preserving the fulfillment of the claim that the general requesting party has against the commodity derivatives broker that is the subject of the notice (limited to a claim for the requesting party assets of the general requesting party) on behalf of the general requesting party.

(2) A requesting party protection fund must conduct the acts referred to in the preceding paragraph in a fair and sincere manner on behalf of the general requesting party.

(3) A requesting party protection fund must conduct the acts referred to in paragraph (1) for a general requesting party with the due care of a prudent manager.

Article 312 Deleted.

Section 6 Dues

(Funds for Requesting Party Protection)

Article 313 (1) A requesting party protection fund is to establish funds to be allocated to cover the costs required for the services stated in Article 300, paragraph (1), items (i) and (ii) (referred to below as "funds for requesting party protection").

(2) The funds for requesting party protection must not be used unless they are allocated to cover the costs required for the business stated in Article 300, paragraph (1), items (i) and (ii).

(Dues)

Article 314 (1) A commodity derivatives broker must pay dues to the requesting party protection fund they belong to, pursuant to the provisions of the operational rules, in order to allocate the dues to funds for requesting party protection.

(2) Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, a requesting party protection fund may exempt a commodity derivatives broker that is the subject of a notice from paying dues, pursuant to the provisions of its operational rules.

(Method of Calculating the Amount of Dues)

Article 315 (1) The amount of the dues referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article is the amount calculated by the calculation method specified in the operational rules.

(2) The method of calculating the dues referred to in the preceding paragraph must be specified so as to conform to the following criteria:

(i) the finances of the requesting party protection fund will be balanced in the long term in light of the estimated amount of costs required for the payments referred to in Article 306, paragraph (1) and the loan of funds for refunds referred to in Article 308, paragraph (1); and

(ii) no particular commodity derivatives broker is to be treated in a discriminatory manner.

(3) If a commodity derivatives broker fails to pay dues by the due date for payment specified in the operational rules, they must pay arrears to the requesting party protection fund they belong to.

(4) The amount of arrears is calculated by multiplying the amount of unpaid dues by an annual rate of 14.5 percent, based on the number of days from the day following the due date for payment until the day of the payment.

Section 7 Finance and Accounting

(Business Years and Separate Accountings)

Article 316 (1) The business year of a requesting party protection fund is from April 1 through March 31 of the following year; provided, however, that the business year that includes the day of the establishment of the requesting party protection fund is from the day of its establishment until the following March 31.

(2) A requesting party protection fund must carry out separate accounting for each account specified by order of the competent ministry.

(Submission of Budget and Financial Plans)

Article 317 A requesting party protection fund must prepare budget and financial plans and submit them to the competent minister each business year before the commencement of the relevant business year (with regard to the business year that includes the day of the establishment of the requesting party protection fund, this means without delay after its establishment) pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry. The same applies if the requesting party protection fund changes the budget and financial plan.

(Submission of Financial Statements)

Article 318 (1) Within three months from the first day of a business year (excluding the business year that includes the day of establishment of the requesting party protection fund), a requesting party protection fund, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry, must prepare an inventory of property, balance sheet, profit and loss statement, business report, and statement of accounts (referred to below as "financial statements, etc." in this Article) for the previous business year, submit them to the competent minister, and have them approved by the minister.

(2) When a requesting party protection fund submits the financial statements, etc. to the competent minister pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, an auditor's written opinion on the financial statements, etc. must be attached to them.

(3) A requesting party protection fund must keep a copy of the financial statements, etc. that have been approved by the competent minister pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) at the office of the requesting party protection fund and provide them for public inspection.

(Reserve Funds)

Article 319 (1) A requesting party protection fund must set aside all of the surplus for each business year as reserve funds.

(2) The reserve funds referred to in the preceding paragraph may be allocated to cover deficits carried over from the previous business year, or may be transferred to funds for requesting party protection.

(3) The reserve funds referred to in paragraph (1) must not be broken down other than for the case referred to in the preceding paragraph.

(Restrictions on Investment of Funds)

Article 320 A requesting party protection fund must not invest the surplus funds that arise in the course of business or the funds for requesting party protection, other than by the following means:

- (i) holding national government bonds and other securities designated by the competent minister;
- (ii) depositing them in a financial institution designated by the competent minister; or
- (iii) other means specified by order of the competent ministry.

(Delegation to Order of the Competent Ministry)

Article 321 Beyond what is provided for in this Act, necessary matters concerning finance and accounting of a requesting party protection fund are specified by order of the competent ministry.

Section 8 Supervision

(Collection of Reports and On-Site Inspections)

Article 322 (1) The competent minister may order a requesting party protection fund or its members to submit reports or materials that should serve as a reference on their business or property, or may have ministry employees enter the office or business office of a requesting party protection fund or its members, and inspect their books and documents or any other article related to their business when the minister finds it necessary to do so for the enforcement of this Act.

(2) The provisions of Article 157, paragraphs (4) and (5) apply mutatis mutandis to the inspection under the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

(Business Improvement Orders)

Article 323 The competent minister may order a requesting party protection fund to change its articles of incorporation or operational rules, or issue any other order concerning its business that is necessary for supervision if the minister finds it necessary and appropriate to do so in the public interest or for the protection of requesting parties.

(Revocation of Approvals)

Article 324 (1) The competent minister may revoke authorization for establishment of a requesting party protection fund if the requesting party protection fund violates a law or regulation, a disposition by a government agency based on a law or regulation, or its articles of incorporation or operational rules, or if the minister finds that it will be difficult for a requesting party protection fund to continue its business due to the status of its business or property, and the minister finds it necessary and appropriate to do so in the public interest or for the protection of requesting parties.

(2) The provisions of Article 158, paragraph (2) apply mutatis mutandis to a disposition under the provisions of the preceding Article and the preceding paragraph, and the provisions of Article 159, paragraph (4) apply mutatis mutandis to a hearing on the revocation of the authorization under the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

Section 9 Dissolution

(Grounds for Dissolution)

Article 325 (1) A requesting party protection fund is to dissolve due to the following grounds:

- (i) a resolution of a general meeting; or
 - (ii) the revocation of authorization for establishment.
- (2) Dissolution due to the grounds stated in item (i) of the preceding paragraph does not come into effect without the authorization of the competent minister.

(Appointment of Liquidators)

Article 326 In the case of a dissolution under the provisions of paragraph (1), item (i) of the preceding Article, a liquidator is appointed at a general meeting, and in the case of a dissolution under the provisions of item (ii) of that paragraph, a liquidator is appointed by the competent minister.

(Disposal of Residual Assets)

- Article 327 (1) If there are residual assets after the payment of the obligations of a requesting party protection fund, a liquidator must, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry, vest the residual assets in other requesting party protection funds that the members are to join.
- (2) Beyond what is provided in the preceding paragraph, necessary measures concerning the dissolution of a requesting party protection fund may be specified by Cabinet Order, to the extent considered reasonably necessary.

Chapter VII Miscellaneous Provisions

(Prohibition Orders by the Court)

- Article 328 (1) The court may issue an order to prohibit an act to a person that has performed or has attempted to perform the act in violation of this Act, upon petition of the competent minister if the court finds it urgently necessary and finds it appropriate to do so to protect the public interest.
- (2) The prohibition order referred to in the preceding paragraph is to be issued only when an unrecoverable situation has occurred, and the order is to be promptly revoked when it becomes no longer necessary.
- (3) The court may revoke or change an order issued pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

- (4) The cases provided for in paragraph (1) and the preceding paragraph fall under the jurisdiction of the district court that has jurisdiction over the domicile of the respondent.
- (5) The judicial decision provided for in paragraphs (1) and (3) is rendered pursuant to the Non-Contentious Case Procedures Act (Act No. 14 of 1898).

(Prohibition of Gambling by Quotations)

Article 329 Unless a commodity derivatives broker or a person that has filed a notification referred to in Article 349, paragraph (1) is the other party, it is prohibited for any person to perform an act for the purpose of paying and receiving the difference between the sale price and the purchase price using quotations on a commodity market without recourse to transactions in a commodity market.

Article 330 Deleted.

(Exclusion of Application of Prohibition on Establishment of Facilities Similar to Commodity Markets)

Article 331 The provisions of Article 6 do not apply to the following facilities:

- (i) a facility that meets the requirements specified by Cabinet Order as a facility in which only the following transactions for a commodity (limited to one that does not fall under a listed commodity which a public notice under the provisions of Article 352 concerns; the same applies below in this Article) or a commodity index are conducted (limited to an index other than one that falls under a listed commodity index which a public notice under the provisions of that Article concerns or one that is similar to the listed commodity index; the same applies below in this Article):
 - (a) transactions which are similar to futures transactions which a person that engages in the purchase and sale, etc. of the commodity in the course of trade for commodities conducts for their own business on their own account; or
 - (b) transactions which are similar to futures transactions which a person that engages in the purchase and sale, etc. of the commodity underlying the commodity index in the course of trade for commodity indices conducts for their own business on their own account;
- (ii) a facility prescribed in paragraph (1) of the following Article which is established by a person that has obtained a license referred to in that paragraph (referred to as the "establisher of a type 1 specified facility" in Articles 334 through 341); or
- (iii) a facility prescribed in Article 342, paragraph (1) which is established by a person that has obtained a license referred to in that paragraph (referred to as the "establisher of a type 2 specified facility" in Articles 344 and 345).

(License to Establish Facilities Similar to Type 1 Specified Commodity Markets)

Article 332 (1) A person seeking to establish a facility that meets the requirements specified by Cabinet Order as a facility in which the following transactions (excluding a facility in which only the transactions stated in items (i) and (ii) are conducted) for a commodity (limited to one that does not fall under a listed commodity which a public notice under the provisions of Article 352 concerns; the same applies below in this paragraph) or commodity index (limited to an index other than one that falls under a listed commodity index which a public notice under the provisions of that Article concerns or is similar to the listed commodity index; the same applies below in this paragraph) are conducted (the facility is referred to below as a "facility similar to a type 1 specified commodity market") must be licensed by the competent minister to do so:

- (i) transactions which are similar to futures transactions, and which a person that engages in the purchase and sale, etc. of the commodity in the course of trade conducts for their own business on their own account for commodities, by a method of deciding the prices and other terms of trade based on negotiations between the parties through the facility, or by other methods specified by order of the competent ministry;
 - (ii) transactions which are similar to futures transactions, and which a person that engages in the purchase and sale, etc. of a commodity underlying the commodity index in the course of trade for their own business on their own account for commodity indices conducts, by the methods prescribed in the preceding item; or
 - (iii) transactions which are similar to futures transactions, and which a bank or other persons specified by Cabinet Order conduct for their own business on their own account for commodities or commodity indices by the methods provided for in item (i).
- (2) A person seeking to obtain a license pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph must submit a written application stating the following matters to the competent minister:
- (i) their name or trade name and address;
 - (ii) if it is a corporation, the names and addresses of the officers;
 - (iii) the commodity or commodity index underlying the transactions;
 - (iv) the method of trade;
 - (v) the names or trade names of the persons that participate in trading in the facility similar to a type 1 specified commodity market, for each commodity or commodity index subject to transactions (the person is referred to as a "type 1 specified facility trading participant" in this paragraph and the following Article below);

- (vi) if a type 1 specified facility Trading Participant engages in the purchase and sale, etc. of a commodity (limited to the commodity which the application concerns or a commodity underlying the commodity index which the application concerns) in the course of trade, the commodity;
 - (vii) the date on which the facility similar to a type 1 specified commodity market is scheduled to be established; and
 - (viii) other matters specified by order of the competent ministry.
- (3) The business plan and other documents specified by order of the competent ministry must be attached to the written application referred to in the preceding paragraph.

(Licensing Criteria)

Article 333 (1) If the competent minister finds that an application for the license referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article conforms to the following criteria, the minister must grant the license:

- (i) the facility is intended for conducting only the transactions stated in paragraph (1), items (i) through (iii) of the preceding Article;
 - (ii) the commodity which the application concerns does not fall under a listed commodity which a public notice under the provisions of Article 352 concerns, or the commodity index which the application concerns is other than an index that falls under a listed commodity index under the provisions of that Article or an index similar to the listed commodity index;
 - (iii) the method of trade which the application concerns conforms to the method of trade prescribed in paragraph (1), item (i) of the preceding Article;
 - (iv) for each commodity underlying the transactions or for each commodity index underlying the transactions, persons that engage in the purchase and sale, etc. of the commodity in the course of trade or persons that engage in the purchase and sale, etc. of the commodity subject to the commodity index in the course of trade, account for the majority of the type 1 specified facility Trading Participants; and
 - (v) the content and method of business are necessary and appropriate for ensuring the public interest and the fairness of transactions.
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, if an application for the license referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article falls under one of the following items, the competent minister must not grant the license referred to in paragraph (1) of that Article:
- (i) the license applicant matches one of the persons referred to in the items of Article 31, paragraph (1); or

- (ii) the written application or documents that are required to be attached to the written application contain a false statement about a material particular.
- (3) The provisions of Article 15, paragraphs (5) through (9) apply mutatis mutandis to the license referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article.

(Successions)

- Article 334 (1) If the establisher of a type 1 specified facility transfers all of their business or if an inheritance, merger, or split (limited to succession of the whole business) involving the establisher of a type 1 specified facility occurs, the person that acquires the whole business or an heir (if there are two or more heirs, and the heir that will succeed to the business is selected by their unanimous consent, that person; the same applies below in this Article), the corporation surviving the merger, the corporation incorporated in the merger, or the corporation that succeeds to the whole business in the split, succeeds to the status of that establisher of a type 1 specified facility; provided, however, that this does not apply if the corporation surviving the merger, corporation incorporated in the merger, or corporation that succeeds to the whole business in the split falls under one of the items of Article 31, paragraph (1).
- (2) A person that succeeds to the status of an establisher of a type 1 specified facility pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph must notify the competent minister of this without delay.

(Permission for Changes)

- Article 335 (1) If an establisher of a type 1 specified facility seeks to change a matter stated in Article 332, paragraph (2), item (iii) or (iv), they must obtain the permission of the competent minister.
- (2) If an establisher of a type 1 specified facility seeks to obtain the permission referred to in the preceding paragraph, they must submit a written application to the competent minister by attaching the documents specified by order of the competent ministry.
- (3) If there is a change to the matters stated in Article 332, paragraph (2), item (i), (ii), (v), (vi), or (viii), an establisher of a type 1 specified facility must notify the competent minister of this without delay, and if they seek to make a change to the matters stated in item (vii) of that paragraph, they must notify the competent minister of this in advance.
- (4) The provisions of Article 333 apply mutatis mutandis to the permission referred to in paragraph (1).

(Preparation of Books)

- Article 336 (1) An Establisher of a type 1 specified facility must prepare and preserve books for the transactions at the facility similar to a type 1 specified commodity market, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.

- (2) An establisher of a type 1 specified facility must report the matters specified by order of the competent ministry regarding their business to the competent minister each month, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.

(Notification of Closure of a Facility)

Article 337 (1) If an establisher of a type 1 specified facility closes a facility similar to a type 1 specified commodity market, they must notify the competent minister of this without delay.

- (2) If an establisher of a type 1 specified facility closes a facility similar to a type 1 specified commodity market, their license ceases to be effective.

(Report and On-site Inspections)

Article 338 (1) When the competent minister finds it necessary for the enforcement of this Act, the minister may order an establisher of a type 1 specified facility to submit reports or materials that should serve as a reference on their business, or may have ministry employees enter the office or business office of the establisher of a type 1 specified facility and inspect books and documents or any other article related to their business.

- (2) The provisions of Article 157, paragraphs (4) and (5) apply mutatis mutandis to the inspection under the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

(Business Improvement Orders)

Article 339 (1) The competent minister may order the establisher of a type 1 specified facility to take necessary measures for improving their business operations if the minister finds that there is a risk of harming the interests of a person that engages in the purchase and sale, etc. of a commodity underlying the transactions in the course of trade, or a person that engages in the purchase and sale, etc. of a commodity subject to a commodity index that is underlying the transactions in the course of trade, or finds it necessary and appropriate to do so in order to ensure the public interest or the fairness of transactions concerning the business operations of an establisher of a type 1 specified facility.

- (2) The provisions of Article 158, paragraph (2) apply mutatis mutandis to a disposition under the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

(Revocation of License)

Article 340 (1) If an establisher of a type 1 specified facility falls under any of the following items, the competent minister may revoke their license, or order the suspension of all or a part of their business for a fixed period not exceeding six months:

- (i) when the establisher violates this Act, an order based on this Act, or a disposition based on this Act or the order;
 - (ii) when the establisher comes to fall under any of the provisions of Article 15, paragraph (2), item (i), sub-items (b) through (j) (with regard to (d) of that item, limited to the part related to the revocation of the license under Article 190, paragraph (1) or Article 342, paragraph (1), and the part related to the provisions of a foreign law or regulation that is equivalent to this Act) or the provisions of the items of Article 31, paragraph (1) (excluding item (ii));
 - (iii) when the establisher fails to establish a facility similar to type 1 specified commodity market within three months after receiving permission, or continuously suspends transactions in the facility for three months or more, without legitimate grounds for doing so;
 - (iv) when the establisher has obtained the license under Article 332, paragraph (1) or the permission under Article 335, paragraph (1) by wrongful means; or
 - (v) when a facility similar to a type 1 specified commodity market that the establisher has established no longer conforms to the criteria stated in the items of Article 333, paragraph (1).
- (2) The provisions of Article 158, paragraph (2) apply mutatis mutandis to a disposition under the provisions of the preceding paragraph and the provisions of Article 159, paragraph (4) apply mutatis mutandis to a hearing on the revocation of a license pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

(Register)

Article 341 (1) The competent minister must keep a register of establishers of Type 1 Specified Facilities which states the matters specified in Article 332, paragraph (2), items (i), (iii), and (iv), and other matters specified by order of the competent ministry concerning the establishers of Type 1 Specified Facilities.

- (2) The competent minister must make the register of establishers of Type 1 Specified Facilities available for public inspection.

(License to Establish Facilities Similar to Type 2 Specified Commodity Markets)

Article 342 (1) A person seeking to establish a facility that meets the requirements specified by Cabinet Order as a facility in which the following transactions for a commodity (limited to one that falls under a listed commodity which a public notice under Article 352 concerns and which is specified by order of the competent ministry; the same applies below in this paragraph) or commodity index (limited to an index falling under a listed commodity index which a public notice under that Article concerns, or an index similar to the listed commodity index, which is specified by order of the competent ministry; the same applies below in this paragraph) are conducted (the facility is referred to below as a "facility similar to a type 2 specified commodity market") must be licensed by the competent minister:

- (i) transactions which are similar to futures transactions, and which a person that engages in the purchase and sale, etc. of a commodity in the course of trade conducts for their own business based on their own account for commodities, by a method for deciding the prices and other terms of the trade based on negotiations between the parties through the facility, or by other methods specified by order of the competent ministry;
 - (ii) transactions which are similar to futures transactions, and which a person that engages in the purchase and sale, etc. of a commodity subject to the commodity index in the course of trade conducts for their own business on their own account for commodity indices, by the methods provided for in the preceding item;
 - (iii) transactions which are similar to futures transactions, and which a bank or other persons specified by Cabinet Order conducts for their own business on their own account for commodities or commodity indices, by the methods provided for in item (i).
- (2) A person seeking to obtain a license pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph must submit a written application stating the following matters to the competent minister:
- (i) their name or trade name and address;
 - (ii) if the person is a corporation, the names and addresses of the officers;
 - (iii) the commodity or commodity index underlying the transactions;
 - (iv) the method of trade;
 - (v) the names or trade names of the persons that participate in transactions at the facility similar to a type 2 specified commodity market, for each commodity or commodity index underlying the transactions (the person is referred to as a "type 2 specified facility trading participant" in this paragraph and the following Article below);
 - (vi) if a type 2 specified facility trading participant engages in the purchase and sale, etc. of a commodity (limited to the commodity which the application concerns or the commodity subject to the commodity index which the application concerns) in the course of trade, the commodity;
 - (vii) the date on which the facility similar to a type 2 specified commodity market is scheduled to be established; and
 - (viii) other matters specified by order of the competent ministry.
- (3) The business plan and documents specified by order of the competent ministry must be attached to the written application referred to in the preceding paragraph.

(Licensing Criteria)

Article 343 (1) If the competent minister finds that an application for permission referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article conforms to the following criteria, the minister must grant the permission:

- (i) the facility is intended for conducting only the transactions stated in paragraph (1), items (i) through (iii) of the preceding Article;
 - (ii) the method of trade which the application concerns conforms to the method of trade prescribed in paragraph (1), item (i) of the preceding Article;
 - (iii) there is no risk of causing a hindrance to the sound operation of a commodity exchange that lists the commodity underlying the transactions, the commodity index underlying the transactions, or a commodity index similar to the commodity index;
 - (iv) for each commodity underlying the transactions and for each commodity index underlying the transactions, persons that engage in the purchase and sale, etc. of the commodity in the course of trade or persons that engage in the purchase and sale, etc. of the commodity subject to the commodity index in the course of trade, account for the majority of the type 2 specified facility trading participants; and
 - (v) the content and method of business are necessary and appropriate for ensuring the public interest and the fairness of transactions
- (2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding paragraph, if an application for the license referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article falls under any of the following items, the competent minister must not grant the license referred to in that paragraph:
- (i) the license applicant falls under one of the provisions of the items of Article 31, paragraph (1);
 - (ii) the written application or documents that are required to be attached to the written application contain a false statement about a material particular.
- (3) The provisions of Article 15, paragraphs (5) through (9) apply mutatis mutandis to the license referred to in paragraph (1) of the preceding Article.

(Business Improvement Orders)

Article 344 (1) If the competent minister finds that there is a risk of causing hindrance to the sound operation of a commodity exchange that lists the commodity underlying the transactions, the commodity index underlying the transactions, or a commodity index similar to the commodity index, or a risk of harming the interests of a person that engages in the purchase and sale, etc. of the commodity underlying the transactions in the course of trade or a person that engages in the purchase and sale, etc. of the commodity subject to the commodity index that is underlying the transactions in the course of trade, or if the minister finds it necessary and appropriate in order to ensure the public interest or the fairness of transactions concerning the business operations of the establisher of a type 2 specified facility, the minister may order the establisher of a type 2 specified facility to take necessary measures for improving their business operations.

- (2) The provisions of Article 158, paragraph (2) apply mutatis mutandis to a disposition under the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

(Application, Mutatis Mutandis)

Article 345 The provisions of Articles 334 through 338, Article 340, and Article 341 apply mutatis mutandis to the establisher of a type 2 specified facility. In this case, the term "Article 332, paragraph (2), item (iii) or (iv)" in Article 335, paragraph (1) is deemed to be replaced with "Article 342, paragraph (2), item (iii) or (iv)"; the term "Article 332, paragraph (2), item (i), (ii), (v), (vi), or (viii)" in paragraph (3) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "Article 342, paragraph (2), item (i), (ii), (v), (vi), or (viii)"; the term "Article 333" in paragraph (4) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "Article 343"; the term "facility similar to a type 1 specified commodity market" in Article 336, paragraph (1) and Article 337 is deemed to be replaced with "facility similar to a type 2 specified commodity Market"; the term "Article 342, paragraph (1)" in Article 340, paragraph (1), item (ii) is deemed to be replaced with "Article 332, paragraph (1)"; the term "facility similar to a type 1 specified commodity market" in item (iii) of that paragraph is deemed to be replaced with "facility similar to a type 2 specified commodity market"; the term "Article 332, paragraph (1) or Article 335, paragraph (1)" in item (iv) of that paragraph is deemed to be replaced with "Article 342, paragraph (1) or Article 335, paragraph (1) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 345"; the terms "facility similar to a type 1 specified commodity market" and "the items of Article 333, paragraph (1)" in item (v) of that paragraph are deemed to be replaced with "facility similar to a type 2 specified commodity market" and "the items of Article 343, paragraph (1)", respectively; the terms "Article 332, paragraph (2), items (i), (iii), and (iv)" and "register of establishers of Type 1 Specified Facilities" in Article 341, paragraph (1) are deemed to be replaced with "Article 342, paragraph (2), items (i), (iii), and (iv)" and "register of establishers of type 2 specified facilities", respectively; the term "register of establishers of type 1 specified facilities" in paragraph (2) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "register of establishers of type 2 specified facilities".

(Transitional Measures for the Opening of Commodity Markets)

- Article 346 (1) If a commodity or commodity index becomes a listed commodity or listed commodity index and public notice of this is issued pursuant to the provisions of Article 352, when a facility stated in Article 331, item (i) or (ii) for that commodity or commodity index has already been opened at the time the public notice is issued and there are transactions similar to futures transactions for which settlement has not been completed at the facility, the provisions of Article 6 do not apply to the transactions similar to futures transactions which are conducted in order to settle those transactions, nor to the establishment of the facility in which those transactions are conducted.
- (2) If a commodity or commodity index becomes a listed commodity (limited to a commodity prescribed in Article 342, paragraph (1)) or listed commodity index (limited to a commodity index prescribed in that paragraph) and public notice of this is issued pursuant to the provisions of Article 352, when a facility stated in Article 331, item (ii) for that commodity or commodity index has already been opened at the time the public notice is issued, the establisher of the facility is deemed to have obtained the license referred to in Article 342, paragraph (1), limited to the period until the day on which one month has passed since the day of the public notice.
- (3) If a person that is deemed to have obtained the license referred to in Article 342, paragraph (1) pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph has not obtained the license referred to in that paragraph on the day on which one month has passed since the day of the public notice, and there are transactions similar to futures transactions for which settlement has not been completed at the facility established by the person that is deemed to have obtained the license, the provisions of paragraph (1) apply mutatis mutandis to transactions similar to futures transactions which are conducted for settling those transactions and to the establishment of the facility in which those transactions are conducted.
- (4) If a commodity becomes one that does not fall under a listed commodity which a public notice under Article 352 concerns or a commodity index becomes an index other than one that falls under a listed commodity index which a public notice under that Article concerns or an index similar to the listed commodity index and a public notice of this is issued pursuant to the provisions of that Article, when a facility stated in Article 331, item (iii) regarding the commodity or the commodity index has already been opened at the time the public notice is issued, the establisher of the facility is deemed to have obtained the license referred to in Article 332, paragraph (1); provided, however, this does not apply if the facility falls under a facility stated in Article 331, item (i).

(Delegation to Cabinet Order)

Article 347 In addition to what is provided for in Article 331 through the preceding Article, necessary matters for the establishment of a facility similar to a type 1 specified commodity market or a facility similar to a type 2 specified commodity market are specified by Cabinet Order.

(Relationship with Other Laws and Regulations)

Article 348 The provisions of Article 6 do not apply to a facility similar to a financial futures market, and it is governed by the provisions of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act.

(Notification by Specified Over-the-Counter Commodity Derivatives Brokers)

Article 349 (1) A person that seeks to engage in either over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions whose underlying commodity is a commodity that falls under a listed commodity which a public notice prescribed in Article 352 concerns, or over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions with an underlying commodity index that falls under a listed commodity index which a public notice prescribed in that Article concerns, or an underlying commodity index similar to the listed commodity index (referred to below as a "specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives transaction") in the course of trade among the out-of-scope over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions, must notify the competent minister of the following matters, pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry. The same applies if a person that engages in specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions in the course of trade (referred to below as "specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives broker") seeks to change a matter notified to the minister.

- (i) their name or trade name;
 - (ii) the name and location of the business office or office;
 - (iii) the commodity or commodity index that will be subject to the specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions; and
 - (iv) other matters specified by order of the competent ministry.
- (2) The competent minister must prepare a register of specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives brokers, and make it available for public inspection.
- (3) The provisions of Article 214-3, paragraphs (1), (3), and (5) apply mutatis mutandis to a specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives broker and the provisions of paragraphs (2) and (4) of that Article apply mutatis mutandis to the customers of a specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives broker. In this case, the term "commodity derivatives transactions" in the items of paragraph (1) and the items of paragraph (2) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions".
- (4) A specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives broker must prepare and preserve books for specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions pursuant to the provisions of order of the competent ministry.

- (5) The competent minister may order a specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives broker to submit reports or materials on their business for specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions (referred to below as "specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions business"), or may have ministry employees enter the office or business office of the specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives broker and inspect the status of specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions business or books and documents or any other article related to specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions business when the minister finds it necessary for the enforcement of this Act.
- (6) The provisions of Article 157, paragraphs (4) and (5) apply mutatis mutandis to the on-site inspection under the provisions of the preceding paragraph.
- (7) The competent minister may order a specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives broker to the extent necessary to take the necessary measures for improving the operation of the specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions business if the minister finds it necessary and appropriate to do so for maintaining order in a commodity market.
- (8) If a specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives broker violates this Act, an order based on this Act, or a disposition rendered by the competent minister based on this Act, the competent minister may order the specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives broker to suspend all or a part of their specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions business for a fixed period not exceeding three months.
- (9) If a commodity or a commodity index becomes a listed commodity or a listed commodity index and public notice of this is issued pursuant to the provisions of Article 352, a person that is conducting specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions in the course of trade for which the commodity or listed commodity index, or a commodity index similar to the listed commodity index is the subject of transactions at the time the public notice is issued, must file the notification referred to in paragraph (1) before one month passes counting from the day of the public notice.

(Cooperation in Investigations with Foreign Regulatory Authorities for Commodity Futures)

Article 349-2 (1) If the competent minister finds it appropriate to comply with a request from a regulatory authority that is responsible for enforcing a foreign law or regulation that is equivalent to this Act (referred to below as a "foreign regulatory authority for commodity futures" in this Article) for cooperation in an administrative investigation it conducts in order to enforce a foreign law or regulation under its jurisdiction that is equivalent to this Act, the minister

- may order a person that conducts a commodity derivatives transaction with a counterparty in that foreign state, or any other concerned party or witness, to submit reports or materials that should serve as a reference, to the extent that is found to be necessary and appropriate in order to respond to the request.
- (2) The competent minister may not render the disposition under the provisions of the preceding paragraph in cases that fall under any of the following items:
- (i) the foreign regulatory authority for commodity futures has not given assurance that it will comply with a similar request from Japan;
 - (ii) it is found that if the disposition is rendered based on the request by the foreign regulatory authority for commodity futures, this is likely to have a material adverse impact on the fair price formation or production and distribution of commodities in Japan, or to be detrimental to Japan's interests; or
 - (iii) it is found that there is a risk of the content of the report or materials submitted pursuant to the disposition under the provisions of the preceding paragraph being used for a purpose other than the purpose of contributing to the performance of its functions at the foreign regulatory authority for commodity futures.
- (3) If the request for cooperation under paragraph (1) is made for the purpose of an administrative disposition by the foreign regulatory authority for commodity futures based on a foreign law or regulation that is equivalent to this Act (limited to one that restricts the rights of the person subject to the disposition or imposes a duty on that person), the competent minister is to consult with the Minister for Foreign Affairs before complying with the request.
- (4) Appropriate measures must be taken for the reports and materials submitted pursuant to a disposition under the provisions of paragraph (1), to ensure that their content will not be used for criminal proceedings undertaken in a court or by a judge in a foreign country.
- (5) The necessary matters for the application of the provisions of the preceding paragraphs are specified by Cabinet Order.

(Request of Expenses by Witnesses or Experts)

Article 350 A witness or an expert who is ordered to appear or provide an expert opinion pursuant to the provisions of Article 15, paragraph (9) (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 80, paragraph (4), Article 133, paragraph (3), Article 146, paragraph (4), Article 155, paragraph (6), Article 156, paragraph (7), Article 169, paragraph (3) (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 173, paragraph (4)), Article 194; Article 201, paragraph (2), Article 229, Article 240-25, Article 248, paragraph (2), Article 280, paragraph (2), Article 333, paragraph (3) (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 335, paragraph (4)), Article 343, paragraph (3)

(including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 335, paragraph (4) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 345 following the deemed replacement of terms)), Article 96-22, paragraph (3) (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 96-22, paragraph (5), Article 96-34, paragraphs (3) and (4), Article 96-40, paragraph (5), and Article 96-43), or Article 158, paragraph (2) (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 159, paragraph (5), Article 160, paragraph (2), Article 187, Article 204, paragraph (3) (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 240-11), Article 206, paragraph (6) (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 240-11), Article 237, Article 240-25, Article 266, Article 324, paragraph (2), Article 339, paragraph (2), Article 340, paragraph (2) (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 345) and Article 344, paragraph (2)) may request travel expenses, a daily allowance, and other costs, pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Order.

(Calculation of the Number of Founders)

Article 351 To calculate the number of founders, members, or persons who seek to become members, or trading participants prescribed in Article 10, Article 69, item (vi), Article 70, Article 80, paragraph (1), item (ii), Article 94, paragraph (1), item (iii), Article 95, or Article 155, paragraph (3), item (i), (a), a person that engages in the purchase and sale, etc. of component products of listed commodities, etc. in two or more commodity markets in the course of trade is deemed to be one person for each of the commodity markets.

(Public Notice)

Article 352 In the following cases, the competent minister must issue public notice in the Official Gazette with regard to the matters concerning the listed commodity or listed commodity index and any other matters specified by order of the competent ministry, without delay:

- (i) the competent minister has made a disposition of permission or non-permission under the provisions of Article 9 or Article 78 (including as applied pursuant to Article 15, paragraph (11) (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 80, paragraph (4) and Article 146, paragraph (4)));
- (ii) the time limit for opening or the term for a change of scope referred to in Article 11, paragraph (4) or Article 102, paragraph (3) has passed or ended for a commodity market;
- (iii) a written application for permission is submitted pursuant to the provisions of Article 14, paragraph (1) or Article 79, paragraph (1);
- (iv) there has been a dissolution pursuant to the provisions of Article 69 (excluding a dissolution due to the grounds stated in item (v) of that Article)

- or lapse of a license pursuant to the provisions of Article 94, paragraph (1);
- (v) the competent minister has made a disposition of authorization or refusing authorization pursuant to the provisions of Article 132, paragraph (1) or Article 145, paragraph (1);
- (vi) a written application for authorization under the provisions of Article 132, paragraph (2) or Article 145, paragraph (2) is submitted;
- (vii) the competent minister has made a disposition of authorization or refusing authorization under the provisions of Article 155, paragraph (1) or Article 156, paragraph (1) (limited to a disposition involving a change in the scope of a listed commodity or listed commodity index) (including as applied pursuant to Article 15, paragraph (11) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 155, paragraph (6), item (ii) or Article 156, paragraph (7), item (ii));
- (viii) a written application for authorization under the provisions of Article 155, paragraph (2) or Article 156, paragraph (2) is submitted (limited to an authorization related to change of the scope (other than the abolishment or narrowing of the scope) of a listed commodity or listed commodity index);
- (ix) the competent minister has revoked the permission under Article 9 or the license under Article 78 pursuant to the provisions of Article 159, paragraph (1), item (i) or (ii), or paragraph (2); or

(Technical Replacement of Terms in Applying the Provisions of this Act to Foreign Corporations)

Article 353 If a commodity derivatives broker is a corporation established pursuant to a law or regulation of a foreign country or a person domiciled in a foreign country, the technical replacement of terms in applying the provisions of this Act to the commodity derivatives broker and other necessary matters for the application of the provisions of this Act are specified by Cabinet Order.

(Competent Minister, Order of the Competent Ministry, and Delegation of Authority)

Article 354 (1) The competent ministers under this Act are as follows:

- (i) the Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries, for commodity exchanges that only operate commodity markets whose listed commodities are only commodities related to the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries (meaning the commodities specified by Cabinet Order; the same applies below) or commodity markets in which the listed commodities consist only of commodity indices whose underlying goods are only commodities related to the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries (referred below to as "commodity markets related to the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries"); for major shareholders of incorporated commodity exchanges that only operate commodity markets related to the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries (meaning those that have obtained the authorization referred to in Article 96-19, paragraph (1); the same applies below in this Article); for commodity exchange holding companies with a subsidiary company that is an incorporated commodity exchange that only operates commodity markets related to the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries, and the major shareholders of the commodity exchange holding companies (meaning those that have obtained the authorization referred to in Article 96-31, paragraph (1); in this Article the same applies below); for commodity clearing organizations that only perform business of assuming commodity transaction debts for commodity markets related to the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries; for establishers of facilities similar to type 1 specified commodity markets or facilities similar to type 2 specified commodity markets on which transactions are conducted only for commodities related to the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries or on which transactions are conducted only for commodity indices whose only underlying goods are commodities related to the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries; and for specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives brokers related to specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions whose underlying goods are only commodities related to the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries;

(ii) the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry, for commodity exchanges that only operate commodity markets whose listed commodities are only commodities related to the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry (meaning commodities other than commodities related to the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries; the same applies below); for commodity markets whose listed commodities are only commodity indices whose underlying goods or electric power are only commodities related to the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry (referred to below as "commodity markets related to the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry"); for major shareholders of incorporated commodity exchanges that only operate commodity markets related to the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry; for major shareholders of commodity exchange holding companies whose subsidiary company is an incorporated commodity exchange that only operates commodity markets related to the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry, and the major shareholders of the commodity exchange holding companies; for commodity clearing organizations that perform business of assuming commodity transaction debts only for commodity markets related

- to the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry; for establishers of facilities similar to type 1 specified commodity markets or facilities similar to type 2 specified commodity markets in which transactions are only conducted for commodities related to the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry or on which transactions are only conducted for commodity indices whose only underlying goods or electric power are commodities related to the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry; and for specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives brokers related to specified over-the-counter commodity derivative transactions whose underlying goods are only commodities related to the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry;
- (iii) the Minister of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries, and the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry, for commodity exchanges, major shareholders of incorporated commodity exchanges, commodity exchange holding companies, major shareholders of commodity exchange holding companies, commodity clearing organizations, establishers of facilities similar to type 1 specified commodity markets, establishers of facilities similar to type 2 specified commodity markets, and specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives brokers other than those stated in the preceding two items, and for commodity derivatives brokers, commodity derivatives intermediary service providers, commodity futures associations, and requesting party protection funds.
- (2) The order of the competent ministry in this Act is Order of the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries or Order of the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry.
- (3) The competent minister may delegate a part of the authority granted pursuant to this Act to the head of a local branch bureau, pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Order.

(Relationship with the Prime Minister)

- Article 354-2 (1) Before rendering one of the following dispositions to a commodity exchange or commodity exchange holding company, the competent minister is to notify the Prime Minister of that fact:
- (i) revocation of the authorization referred to in Article 96-25, paragraph (1) or the proviso to paragraph (3) of that Article, pursuant to the provisions of Article 96-38 or Article 96-40, paragraph (1) (limited to a revocation related to a commodity exchange holding company whose subsidiary company is a company engaging in the business of opening a financial instruments exchange market);
- (ii) revocation of the authorization referred to in the proviso to paragraph (1) of Article 96-37, pursuant to the provisions of Article 96-40, paragraph (1) (limited to a revocation involving a company that is to have a company

- engaging in the business of opening a financial instruments exchange market as its subsidiary company);
- (iii) revocation of the license under Article 9 or the license under Article 78, pursuant to the provisions of Article 159, paragraph (1) or (2) (limited to a revocation involving an incorporated commodity exchange that engages in the business of opening a financial instruments market under the authorization referred to in the proviso to Article 3, paragraph (1) or the license referred to in Article 80, paragraph (1) of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act, or a commodity exchange whose subsidiary company is a company engaging in the business of opening a financial instruments exchange market with the authorization referred to in the proviso to Article 3-2, paragraph (1));
- (iv) revocation of the authorization referred to in the proviso to Article 3, paragraph (1) pursuant to the provisions of Article 159, paragraph (1), item (iv) (limited to a revocation involving the business of opening a financial instruments market); or
- (v) revocation of the authorization referred to in the proviso to Article 3-2, paragraph (1) pursuant to the provisions of Article 159, paragraph (1), item (v) (limited to a revocation involving a company that is to have a company engaging in the business of opening a financial instruments exchange market as its subsidiary company).
- (2) The competent minister may request the Prime Minister to take necessary measures based on that Act if the minister finds it necessary to do so for preventing the commodity-related market derivative transactions prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (8), item (i) of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act from causing material adverse impact on the production and distribution of commodities.

(Transitional Measures)

Article 355 If an order is established, amended, or repealed based on this Act, the order may provide for the necessary transitional measures (including transitional measures for penal provisions) to the extent considered reasonably necessary for the establishment, amendment, or repeal of the order.

Supplementary Provisions [Extract]

(Effective Date)

- (1) This Act comes into effect on the day on which 15 days have elapsed from the date of promulgation; provided, however, that the provisions of Article 8 (including the penal provisions related to the provisions), Chapter XV, and paragraph (2), paragraph (3), and paragraphs (7) through (11) of the Supplementary Provisions come into effect on the date of promulgation.

(Repeal of the Commodity Exchange Act)

- (2) The Commodity Exchange Act (Act No. 5 of 1893; referred to below as the "former Act") is repealed.
- (3) Prior laws continue to govern the applicability of penal provisions to acts committed before the repeal of the former Act.

(Special Provisions on Disqualifying Conditions for Members)

- (6) Regarding the application of the provisions of Article 24, paragraph (1), item (ii), those punished by a fine pursuant to the provisions of the former Act or the former Stock Exchange Act of Japan (Act No. 44 of 1943) are deemed to be those punished by a fine pursuant to this Act.

(Special Provisions on Appointment of the Chairperson and Members of the Council)

- (7) When enforcing the provisions of Chapter XV while the Diet is closed, the Prime Minister may appoint the initial chairperson and members of the council without obtaining the consent of both Houses of the Diet, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 139, paragraph (2).
- (8) When the Prime Minister has appointed the initial chairperson and members of the council pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the Prime Minister must request the subsequent approval by both Houses of the Diet on the appointment referred to in the preceding paragraph at the first Diet session held after the appointment. In this case, if the subsequent approval by both Houses could not be obtained, the Prime Minister must dismiss the chairperson and members immediately.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 176 of June 1, 1951] [Extract]

- (1) This Act comes into effect on the day of promulgation.
- (3) Prior laws continue to govern the applicability of penal provisions to acts committed before the enforcement of this Act, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 7.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 211 of June 8, 1951] [Extract]

- (1) This Act shall come into effect on July 1, 1951.

- (4) Prior laws continue to govern the applicability of penal provisions to acts committed before the enforcement of this Act.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 90 of April 12, 1952]

- (1) This Act comes into effect on the day of promulgation.
(2) Prior laws continue to govern the applicability of penal provisions to acts committed before the enforcement of this Act.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 92 of May 10, 1954] [Extract]

- (1) The effective date of this Act is specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding three months from the date of promulgation.
(2) A commodity exchange which has obtained the registration stated in Article 9, paragraph (5) before the amendment at the time of the enforcement of this Act is deemed to have received the permission stated in Article 8-2 after the amendment.
(3) Prior laws continue to govern the applicability of penal provisions to acts committed before the enforcement of this Act.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 82 of April 20, 1962] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act comes into effect on April 1, 1963.

(Definitions)

Article 2 The term "new Act" as used in these Supplementary Provisions means the Commercial Code as amended by this Act, and the "former Act" means the Commercial Code in force before this Act came into effect.

(Principles)

Article 3 Except as otherwise provided, the new Act also applies to matters that have arisen before the enforcement of this Act; provided, however, that this does not preclude the effects that have arisen from the provisions of the former Act.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 126 of July 9, 1963] [Extract]

This Act comes into effect as of the date on which the Commercial Registration Act comes into effect (April 1, 1964).

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 97 of July 29, 1967] [Extract]

- (1) This Act comes into effect on the day specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding six months from the date of promulgation.
- (2) With regard to a person that has received registration as a commodity broker (referred to below as a "commodity broker") pursuant to the provisions of the Commodity Exchange Act before its amendment (referred to below as the "former Act") at the time of the enforcement of this Act, the provisions of the former Act (excluding Article 42, Article 42-2, Article 44, Article 46, paragraph (2) (limited to the part related to brokerage deposits), Article 47, Article 49 (limited to the part related to the establishment of business offices or offices, or to the addition of commodities), Article 50, Article 91, paragraph (1) (limited to the part related to restriction on solicitation of request), Article 93, Article 94, and Article 97, and penal provisions regarding those provisions) remain in force only for commodities related to the registration (excluding those related to the license under Article 41, paragraph (1) of the Commodity Exchange Act after the amendment (referred to below as the "new Act"); the same applies below), for three years from the date on which this Act comes into effect.
- (3) With regard to a commodity broker, the provisions of Article 49, Article 50, Article 53-3, Article 91-2, Article 93, Article 94, paragraph (1), Articles 97 through 97-6, Article 119, paragraph (2), and Article 120, paragraphs (2) through (4) of the new Act, the penal provisions regarding those provisions, and the provisions of Article 20-3 and Article 57 of the Act on Special Measures Concerning Taxation (Act No. 26 of 1957) amended by the provisions of paragraph (9), only for commodities related to the registration, apply to the person by deeming the person as a futures commission merchant stated in the new Act for each of those commodities, during the period prescribed in the preceding paragraph. In this case, "must not start accepting entrusted operations" in Article 97-2, paragraph (3) is deemed to be replaced with "must not accept request of purchase and sale transactions in a commodity market; provided, however, that this does not apply to cases in which the transactions are conducted within the scope of the purpose to complete the settlement of the purchase and sale transactions in a commodity market related to the request."
- (5) With regard to the application of the provisions of Article 97-3, paragraph (1), a person that has requested a commodity business operator with purchase and sale transactions in a commodity market before the enforcement of this Act, is deemed to have requested a futures commission merchant with the purchase and sale transactions in a commodity market.
- (6) A person that has their registration as a commodity business operator revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 52, paragraph (1) or Article 123 of the former Act is deemed to have had their license revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 52, paragraph (1) or Article 123 of the new Act on the day of the revocation.

- (7) Prior laws continue to govern the applicability of penal provisions to acts committed before the enforcement of this Act (with regard to a commodity broker, before the expiration of the period during which the former Act remains in force pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2)).
- (8) Beyond what is provided for in paragraph (2) through the preceding paragraph, transitional measures necessary for the enforcement of this Act are specified by Cabinet Order.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 23 of April 2, 1974] [Extract]

This Act comes into effect on the day specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding six months from the date of promulgation.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 56 of July 15, 1974] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act comes into effect on the day specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding six months from the date of promulgation.

(Transitional Measures)

Article 2 With regard to the application of the provisions of Article 41, paragraph (4) after the amendment to the license under paragraph (1) of that Article before the amendment which a futures commission merchant holds at the time of the enforcement of this Act, the term "every four years" in that paragraph is deemed to be replaced with "if the person did not have their license renewed by the day on which four years have elapsed from the effective date of the Act for Partial Revision of the Commodity Exchange Act (Act No. 65 of 1975), or every four years after the renewal."

Article 3 With regard to the application of the provisions of Article 47-2, paragraph (2) after the amendment to a futures commission merchant that has a controlling interest prescribed in that paragraph at the time of the enforcement of this Act, the term "without delay" in that paragraph is deemed to be replaced with "by the day on which 30 days have elapsed from the date on which the Act for Partial Revision of the Commodity Exchange Act (Act No. 65 of 1975) comes into effect".

Article 4 Prior laws continue to govern the applicability of penal provisions to acts committed before the enforcement of this Act.

Article 5 Beyond what is provided for in the preceding three Articles, transitional measures necessary for the enforcement of this Act are specified by Cabinet Order.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 87 of July 5, 1978] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 (1) This Act comes into effect on the date of promulgation.

Act Prescribing Adjustments to the Relevant Acts to Coordinate with the Enforcement of the Act Partially Amending the Commercial Code (Act No. 75 of June 9, 1981) [Extract]

(Transitional Measures for Accounts of Commodity Exchanges)

Article 20 The provisions of Article 12 of the Supplementary Provisions of the Act Partially Amending the Commercial Code apply mutatis mutandis to the accounts of commodity exchanges and documents required to be prepared by the president for the account closing period.

(Transitional Measures for Actions Seeking Revocation of Resolutions at General Meetings of Members)

Article 53 If a resolution has been made at a general meeting of members (shain sokai), an assembly (sokai) (including a representatives' meeting (sodaikai)), a general meeting of assembly members (giin sokai), a general meeting of members (kaiin sokai) or meeting of members (jogiinkai) or organizational meeting (soritsu sokai) before the enforcement of this Act pursuant to the provisions of the related Acts before amendment, prior laws continue to govern an action seeking the revocation or alteration of the resolution or seeking a declaration of nonexistence or invalidity of the resolution after the enforcement of this Act.

(Transitional Measures for the Application of Penal Provisions)

Article 54 Prior laws continue to govern the applicability of penal provisions to acts committed before the enforcement of this Act and to acts committed after the enforcement of this Act regarding matters which prior laws continue to govern pursuant to the provisions of the Supplementary Provisions of the Act Partially Amending the Commercial Code applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 6, paragraph (2), Article 17, or Article 20, or pursuant to the provisions of the preceding Article.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 75 of June 9, 1981] [Extract]

This Act comes into effect as of the date on which the Act for Partial Revision of the Commercial Code comes into effect (October 1, 1982).

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 78 of December 2, 1983]

- (1) This Act (excluding Article 1) comes into effect on July 1, 1984.
- (2) Transitional measures necessary for organizations, etc. which have been established under the provisions of Acts as of the day preceding the date on which this Act comes into effect, which are to be established under the provisions of the National Government Organization Act or the provisions of Cabinet Order based on the provisions of related laws amended by this Act (referred to below as the "related Cabinet Order") after the date this Act comes into effect, and other transitional measures necessary for the establishment, amendment, or repeal of the related Cabinet Order accompanying the enforcement of this Act may be specified by Cabinet Order.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 81 of June 11, 1988] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act comes into effect on the day on which 20 days have elapsed from the date of promulgation; provided, however, that the provisions stated in the following items come into effect on the date specified in each item:

- (i) The parts related to the provisions of Article 151-3, paragraphs (2) through (4), Article 151-5, and Article 151-7 among the provisions that add one Chapter after Chapter IV of the Real Property Registration Act in Article 1 of this Act; the provisions amending the Table of Contents of the Commercial Registration Act, and the parts related to the provisions of Article 113-2, Article 113-3, Article 113-4, paragraph (1), paragraphs (4) and (5), and Article 113-5 among the provisions that add one Chapter after Chapter III of that Act in Article 2 of this Act; the provisions of Articles 8 through 10 of the Supplementary Provisions: the day specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding one year from the date of promulgation.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 91 of December 22, 1989] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act comes into effect on the day specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding two years from the date of promulgation.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 52 of June 27, 1990] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act comes into effect on the day specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding three months from October 1, 1990; provided, however, that the provisions amending Article 54-2, the provisions which add one Article after Article 92, the provisions amending Article 97-2 (excluding the provisions amending paragraph (2) of that Article, the part that amends the term "purchase and sale transactions" in the provisions amending paragraph (3) of that Article to "transactions" and the part that amends the term "by Cabinet Order" in the provisions amending paragraph (5) of that Article to "by order of the competent ministry"), the provisions that amend Article 97-3, paragraph (2), the provisions that amend Article 97-4, the provisions amending Article 97-11, paragraph (3) (limited to the part that amends the phrase "the amount as specified in the payment contract" to "the contracted payment amount"), the provisions amending Article 146 (limited to the part that adds the term "Article 54-2, paragraph (2)" after the term "Article 52, paragraph (3)"), the provisions amending Article 161, item (i), the provisions amending Article 164 (limited to the part that adds one item after item (ii) of that Article), and the provisions amending Article 166, items (i) and (ii) (limited to the part that adds the term "Article 54-2, paragraph (2)" after the term "Article 52, paragraph (3)") comes into effect on April 1, 1991.

(Transitional Measures for License for Exchanges)

- Article 2 (1) A commodity exchange that has obtained the license under Article 8-2 of the Commodity Exchange Act before amendment (referred to below as the "former Act") at the time of the enforcement of this Act is deemed to be a commodity exchange established with the permission under Article 8-2 of the Commodity Exchange Act after the amendment (referred to below as the "new Act").
- (2) A commodity market that has been opened by a commodity exchange deemed to have been established with the permission under Article 8-2 of the new Act (referred to below as an "exchange under the former Act") pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph (the commodity market is referred to below as a "former market") at the time of the enforcement of this Act is deemed to be a commodity market referred to in Article 2, paragraph (7) of the new Act opened by an exchange under the former Act.
- (3) A listed commodity related to a former market which is listed at the time of the enforcement of this Act is deemed to be a commodity that an exchange under the former Act has specified in its articles of incorporation as a listed commodity referred to in Article 2, paragraph (4) of the new Act.
- (4) The type of purchase and sale transactions which have been conducted in a former market at the time of the enforcement of this Act are deemed to be transactions that an exchange under the former Act has specified in its articles of incorporation as transactions stated in Article 2, paragraph (6), item (i) or paragraph (8), item (i), (d) of the new Act related to listed commodities.

(Transitional Measures for License for Futures Commission Merchants)

Article 3 (1) A person that has obtained the license under Article 41, paragraph (1) of the former Act (referred to below as a "license under the former Act") at the time of the enforcement of this Act is deemed to have obtained a license under Article 41, paragraph (1) related to a person stated in paragraph (2), item (i) of that Article of the new Act (referred to below as a "license under the new Act").

(2) With regard to the application of the provisions of Article 41, paragraph (4) of the new Act to a person that is deemed to have obtained a license under the new Act pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the day when the person obtained a license under the former Act is deemed to be the day when the person obtained a license under the new Act.

(3) With regard to the application of the provisions of Article 46, paragraph (1) and Article 47, paragraph (1), item (i) of the new Act to a person that is deemed to have obtained a license under the new Act pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1), the phrase "in the following cases (in the cases stated in item (ii) or (iii) for a futures commission merchant that obtained a license for second class business of accepting a request of commodity transactions)" in Article 46, paragraph (1) of the new Act is deemed to be replaced with "in the cases stated in item (ii) or (iii)," and "matters stated in Article 43, paragraph (1), item (i), (i)-2, or (iii) (matters stated in item (i) or (iii) of the paragraph for a futures commission merchant that obtained a license for second class business of accepting consignment of commodity transactions)" in Article 47, paragraph (1), item (i) of the new Act is deemed to be replaced with "matters stated in Article 43, paragraph (1), item (i) or (iii)", during the period from the effective date of this Act to the day on which the person has their license under Article 41, paragraph (4) of the new Act renewed.

(4) With regard to the application of the provisions of Article 24, paragraph (1), items (iii) and (iv) of the new Act to a person that has had their license under the former Act revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 52, paragraph (1) or Article 123 of the former Act, the person is deemed to have had their license under the new Act revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 52, paragraph (1) or Article 123 of the new Act on the day of the revocation.

(Transitional Measures for Restrictions on the Use of the Name of Futures Commission Merchant Association)

Article 4 The provisions of Article 54-4 of the new Act do not apply to a person that was, at the time of the enforcement of this Act, using words which could give rise to the misconception that the person is the futures commission merchant association or a futures commission merchant association member in their name, for six months after the enforcement of this Act.

(Transitional Measures for Trading Margins)

Article 5 The trading margins which have already been deposited with an exchange under the former Act pursuant to the provisions of Article 79, paragraph (1) of the former Act at the time of the enforcement of this Act are deemed to be clearing margins that the member has deposited with the exchange under the former Act pursuant to the provisions of Article 79, paragraph (1) of the new Act.

(Transitional Measures for Designation of Payment Organizations)

Article 6 A person that has already received a designation under Article 97-2, paragraph (3) of the former Act at the time of the enforcement of this Act is deemed to have received a designation under Article 97-2, paragraph (3) of the new Act.

(Transitional Measures for Authorization for Dispute Resolution Rules)

Article 7 (1) An exchange under the former Act must prepare dispute resolution rules and obtain the authorization of the competent minister within 30 days from the date on which this Act comes into effect.

(2) The provisions of Article 15, paragraph (1), item (iv) and paragraph (9) of the new Act apply mutatis mutandis to the authorization referred to in the preceding paragraph.

(3) If an exchange under the former Act has violated the provisions of paragraph (1), the competent minister may revoke the permission for its establishment or order suspension of all or a part of its business for a fixed period not exceeding one year.

(4) If an exchange under the former Act has violated the disposition under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the representative, agent, employee, or other worker of the exchange who has committed the act is subject to punishment by imprisonment for not more than one year or a fine of not more than a million yen, or both.

(5) If the representative, agent, employee, or other worker of an exchange under the former Act has committed a violation referred to in the preceding paragraph, not only the offender, but also the exchange under the former Act is subject to punishment by a fine referred to in the preceding paragraph.

(Transitional Measures for Application of the Exemption Provisions on Prohibition of Establishing Facilities Similar to Commodity Markets)

- Article 8 (1) The competent minister is to give public notice in the Official Gazette with regard to the locations where former markets have been opened and the listed commodities in the former markets which have already been listed at the time of the enforcement of this Act on the date on which this Act comes into effect.
- (2) With regard to the listed commodities related to the public notice under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the listed commodities are deemed to be listed commodities for which public notice has been given pursuant to the provisions of Article 147-2 of the new Act, and the provisions of Article 145-3 of the new Act apply.
- (3) The provisions of Article 148, paragraph (1) of the new Act apply mutatis mutandis to the competent minister referred to in paragraph (1).

(Transitional Measures for Penal Provisions)

Article 9 Prior laws continue to govern the applicability of penal provisions to acts committed before the enforcement of this Act.

(Delegation of Other Transitional Measures to Cabinet Order)

Article 10 Beyond what is provided for in Article 2 through the preceding Article of the Supplementary Provisions, transitional measures necessary for the enforcement of this Act are specified by Cabinet Order.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 73 of June 5, 1992] [Extract]

(Transitional Measures)

(2) Prior laws continue to govern a merger related to a merger agreement entered into before the enforcement of this Act, even after the enforcement of this Act.

(Transitional Measures for the Application of Penal Provisions)

(3) Prior laws continue to govern the applicability of penal provisions to acts committed before the enforcement of this Act and acts committed after the enforcement of this Act to which the provisions previously in force are to remain applicable pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 42 of April 22, 1998] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act comes into effect on the day specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding one year from the date of promulgation; provided, however, that the provisions stated in the following items come into effect on the date specified in each item:

- (i) the provisions of Article 8 of the Supplementary Provisions: the date of promulgation;
- (ii) the provisions amending Article 15 (excluding the provisions amending paragraph (1), item (iv) of that Article); the provisions amending Article 17; the provisions amending Article 20 and the provisions amending Article 147-2: the day on which three months have elapsed from the date of promulgation; and
- (iii) the provisions amending the title of Article 97 and the provisions amending paragraph (1) of that Article (limited to the part that deletes the term "collecting commission fees, and"): December 31, 2004

(Transitional Measures for the License for Exchanges)

- Article 2 (1) Prior laws continue to govern the disposition of permission or non-permission of the application for permission filed before the enforcement of the provisions stated in item (ii) of the preceding Article, pursuant to the provisions of Article 8-2 of the Commodity Exchange Act before the amendment by the provisions of that item, for which a disposition of permission or non-permission has not been made at the time of the enforcement of the provisions stated in that item.
- (2) Prior laws continue to govern the disposition of authorization or refusal of authorization of the application for authorization filed before the enforcement of the provisions stated in item (ii) of the preceding Article, pursuant to the provisions of Article 20, paragraph (1) of the Commodity Exchange Act before the amendment by the provisions of that item, for which a disposition of authorization or refusal of authorization has not been made at the time of the enforcement of the provisions stated in that item.

(Transitional Measures for the Authorization for Market Transaction Surveillance Committee Rules)

- Article 3 (1) A commodity exchange which has already obtained the permission under Article 8-2 of the Commodity Exchange Act before the amendment by this Act (referred below to as the "former Act") at the time of the enforcement of this Act must prepare market transactions surveillance committee rules and file an application for authorization with the competent minister within 30 days from the date on which this Act comes into effect (referred to below as the "effective date").
- (2) The provisions of Article 15, paragraph (1), item (iv) of the Commodity Exchange Act amended by this Act (referred to below as the "new Act") apply mutatis mutandis to the authorization referred to in the preceding paragraph.

- (3) If an exchange under the former Act has violated the provisions of paragraph (1), the competent minister may revoke the license for its establishment or order suspension of all or a part of its business for a fixed period not exceeding one year.
- (4) If an exchange under the former Act has violated the disposition under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the representative, agent, employee, or other worker of the exchange under the former Act who has committed the act is subject to punishment by imprisonment for not more than two years or a fine of not more than three million yen, or both.
- (5) If the representative, agent, employee, or other worker of an exchange under the former Act has committed a violation referred to in the preceding paragraph, not only the offender is subject to punishment but also the exchange under the former Act is subject to punishment by a fine of not more than 300 million yen.

(Transitional Measures for the License for Futures Commission Merchants)

- Article 4 (1) A person that has already obtained a license under Article 41, paragraph (1) of the former Act related to a person stated in paragraph (2), item (i) of that Article or a person stated in item (ii) of that paragraph (referred to below as a "license under the former Act") at the time of the enforcement of this Act, is deemed to have obtained a license under Article 126, paragraph (1) of the new Act related to a person stated in paragraph (2), item (i) of that Article or a person stated in item (ii) of that paragraph of the new Act (referred to below as a "license under the new Act"), respectively, with regard to types of licenses including a commodity market related to the license under the former Act (meaning types of licenses prescribed in Article 126, paragraph (2) of the new Act; the same applies below), deeming a commodity market related to a license under the former Act to be a commodity market where the entrustment of transactions is in a commodity market under Article 128, paragraph (1), item (iv) of the new Act is accepted.
- (2) With regard to a person that is deemed to have obtained a license under the new Act pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph and deemed to have obtained two or more licenses for a single type of license, the provisions of this Act apply, deeming the two or more licenses to be one license.
 - (3) With regard to the application of the provisions of Article 126, paragraph (4) of the new Act to a person that is deemed to have obtained a license under the new Act pursuant to the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs, the day on which the person obtained a license under the former Act (for a person whose two or more licenses are deemed to be one license pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the day on which the person obtained the last license of the two or more licenses) is deemed to be the day on which the person obtained a license under the new Act.

- (4) The conditions attached to a license under the former Act pursuant to the provisions of Article 42, paragraph (1) of the former Act are deemed to be the conditions attached to a license under the new Act pursuant to the provisions of Article 127, paragraph (1) of the new Act.
- (5) With regard to the application of the provisions of Article 24, paragraph (1), items (iii) and (iv), Article 129, paragraph (1), item (v), item (viii) and paragraph (2), Article 136-6, paragraph (1), item (i), Article 136-8, item (ii), Article 136-9, paragraph (1), item (i), Article 136-28, paragraph (1), item (i), Article 136-32, paragraph (1), item (i), Article 136-43, paragraph (1), items (iv) and (v), and Article 136-52 of the new Act to a person that has had their license under the former Act revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 52, paragraph (1) or Article 123 of the former Act, the person is deemed to have had their license under the new Act revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 136-27, paragraph (1) or Article 136-32, paragraph (1) of the new Act on the day of the revocation.

(Transitional Measures for the Establishment of Secondary Business Offices)

Article 5 When a license under Article 46, paragraph (1) has been obtained before the effective date for the cases stated in paragraph (1), item (ii) or (iii) of that Article of the former Act, in which a secondary business office is established or the location of the head office or a secondary business office is changed after the effective date, the notification under the provisions of Article 132, paragraph (1) of the new Act is not necessary.

(Transitional Measures for Sales Representatives)

- Article 6 (1) A futures commission merchant (meaning one prescribed in Article 41, paragraph (3) of the former Act; the same applies below) who has already obtained registration as sales representative (meaning one prescribed in Article 91-2, paragraph (1) of the former Act; the same applies below) granted by an exchange under the former Act pursuant to the provisions of Article 91-2, paragraph (1) of the former Act at the time of the enforcement of this Act, is deemed to have obtained the registration granted by the competent minister pursuant to the provisions of Article 136-4, paragraph (1) of the new Act.
- (2) An exchange under the former Act must notify the matters for which it has obtained registration pursuant to the provisions of Article 91-2, paragraph (1) of the former Act to the competent minister within 10 days from the effective date.
- (3) Regarding the application of the provisions of Article 136-4, paragraph (7) of the new Act to a futures commission merchant that is deemed to have obtained the registration as sales representative pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) of that Article pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1), the day on which the last registration under the provisions of Article 91-2, paragraph (1) of the former Act was obtained by the futures commission merchant is deemed to be the day on which they obtained the registration under the provisions of Article 136-4, paragraph (1) of the new Act.

(Transitional Measures for Restrictions on the Use of the Names of Commodity Futures Associations)

Article 7 The provisions of Article 136-39 of the new Act do not apply to a person that was, at the time of the enforcement of this Act, using words which could give rise to the misconception that the person is a commodity futures association or its member in their name, for six months after the enforcement of this Act.

(Transitional Measures for the Futures Commission Merchant Associations)

Article 8 (1) If the futures commission merchant association prescribed in Article 54-3, paragraph (1) of the former Act (referred to below as the "association under the former Act") has already been established at the time of the enforcement of this Act, the association under the former Act may change its articles of incorporation and obtain the authorization of the competent minister, pursuant to the provisions of Article 136-41 and Article 136-44 of the new Act, even before the effective date.

- (2) If the association under the former Act seeks to obtain the authorization referred to in the preceding paragraph, it must establish sanction rules and dispute resolution rules and obtain authorization of the competent minister for those rules at the same time.
- (3) The provisions of Article 136-43, paragraph (1), item (i) of the new Act apply mutatis mutandis to the authorization referred to in the preceding paragraph.
- (4) The changes to the articles of incorporation that obtained the authorization referred to in paragraph (1) and the sanction rules and dispute resolution rules that obtained the authorization referred to in paragraph (2) come into effect on the effective date.

(Transitional Measures for Penal Provisions)

Article 9 Prior laws continue to govern the applicability of penal provisions to acts committed before the enforcement of this Act.

(Delegation of Other Transitional Measures to Cabinet Order)

Article 10 Beyond what is provided for in Article 2 through the preceding Article of the Supplementary Provisions, transitional measures necessary for the enforcement of this Act are specified by Cabinet Order.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 107 of June 15, 1998] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 43 of May 12, 2004] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act comes into effect on the day specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding one year from the date of promulgation; provided, however, that the provisions stated in the following items come into effect on the date specified in each item:

- (i) the provisions which change Chapter VI to Chapter VII and add one Chapter before that Chapter (limited to the part related to Article 299 and Article 314): the day on which the first registration under Article 293 of the Commodity Exchange Act amended by this Act (referred to below as the "new

- Act") becomes effective;
- (ii) the provisions of Article 5, Article 7, paragraph (1), Article 14, paragraphs (1) and (2), Article 18, Article 19, paragraphs (1) through (4), and paragraph (7), and Article 23 of the Supplementary Provisions: the date of promulgation of this Act;
 - (iii) the provisions of Article 30 and Article 33 of the Supplementary Provisions: the day specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding nine months from the date of promulgation; and
 - (iv) the provisions of Article 31 of the Supplementary Provisions: the date of the promulgation of the Act for Partial Revision of the Commercial Code, etc. for Introducing a System of Electronic Public Notice (Act No. 87 of 2004) or the date of promulgation of this Act, whichever comes later.

(Transitional Measures for the Permission for Commodity Exchanges)

Article 2 A commodity exchange which has, at the time of the enforcement of this Act, already obtained the permission under Article 8-2 of the Commodity Exchange Act before the amendment by this Act (referred to below as the "former Act") is deemed to be a member commodity exchange established with the license under Article 9 of the new Act.

(Transitional Measures for the Registration of Commodity Exchanges)

Article 3 The information registered in a commodity exchange register referred to in Article 109, paragraph (2) of the former Act concerning a commodity exchange before the enforcement of the new Act pursuant to the provisions of Articles 102 through 108 of the former Act is deemed to have been registered in a member commodity exchange register referred to in Article 25, paragraph (2) of the new Act on the effective date of this Act (referred to below as the "effective date") pursuant to the provisions of Articles 20 through 24, Article 72, Article 73, or Article 147 of the new Act.

(Transitional Measures for Membership Guarantee Funds)

Article 4 The membership guarantee funds (excluding those required to be allocated for damages, for which the provisions previously in force are to remain applicable pursuant to the provisions of Article 9 of the Supplementary Provisions) which have already been deposited pursuant to the provisions of Article 38, paragraph (1) of the former Act at the time of the enforcement of this Act are deemed to be guarantee funds deposited pursuant to the provisions of Article 101, paragraph (1) of the new Act.

(Transitional Measures for Changes in Articles of Incorporation of Commodity Exchanges)

Article 5 A commodity exchange must make changes to its articles of incorporation, operational rules, entrustment contract regulations, dispute resolution rules, and market transactions surveillance committee rules pursuant to the provisions of Article 155 and Article 156 of the new Act which are necessary for the enforcement of this Act and obtain the authorization of the competent minister by the effective date. In this case, the authorization becomes effective as of the effective date.

(Transitional Measures for Clearing Margins)

Article 6 (1) The clearing margins (limited to those for transactions conducted on a commodity exchange member's own account and excluding those to be allocated for damages, for which the provisions previously in force are to remain applicable pursuant to the provisions of Article 9 of the Supplementary Provisions) which have already been deposited pursuant to the provisions of Article 79, paragraph (1) of the former Act at the time of the enforcement of this Act, are deemed to be clearing margins which are deposited pursuant to the provisions of Article 103, paragraph (1) of the new Act (limited to those required to be deposited by a member, etc. stated in item (i) of that paragraph for transactions in a commodity market conducted on their own account in the case stated in that item) if the clearing margins are for transactions for which settlement is made by the method stated in Article 105, item (i) of the new Act, and are deemed to be clearing margins which are deposited pursuant to the provisions of Article 179, paragraph (1) of the new Act (in the case stated in item (i) of that paragraph, limited to those to be deposited by a member, etc. stated in (a) of that item for transactions in a commodity market conducted on the member's own account in the case stated in (a) of that item, and in the case stated in item (ii) of that paragraph, limited to those required to be deposited by a member, etc. stated in (a) of that item for commodity clearing transactions which the member, etc. requests to a clearing participant based on their own account in the case stated in (a) of that item) if the clearing margins are for transactions for which settlement is made by the method stated in Article 105, item (ii) of the new Act.

(2) A commodity exchange must return the clearing margins (limited to those for transactions requested by a person to a member of the commodity exchange which is to be conducted on the person's own account and excluding those to be allocated for damages, for which the provisions previously in force are to remain applicable pursuant to the provisions of Article 9 of the Supplementary Provisions) which have already been, at the time of the enforcement of this Act, deposited pursuant to the provisions of Article 79, paragraph (1) of the former Act, without delay, to the member who deposited the clearing margins after the enforcement of this Act.

(Transitional Measures for the Business of Assuming Commodity Transaction Debts)

Article 7 (1) If a commodity exchange which has conducted a business equivalent to the business of assuming commodity transaction debts (meaning the business of assuming commodity transaction debts prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (12) of the new Act; the same applies below) pursuant to the provisions of Article 81, paragraph (2) of the former Act before the enforcement of this Act seeks to continue to conduct the business, the commodity exchange must obtain the approval of the competent minister by the effective date pursuant to the provisions of Article 173 of the new Act. In this case, the approval becomes effective as of the effective date.

(2) When a commodity exchange has obtained approval pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the special clearing funds (limited to those deposited by a member who became a clearing participant of the commodity exchange as a commodity clearing organization on the effective date, and excluding those required to be allocated for damages, for which the provisions previously in force are to remain applicable pursuant to the provisions of Article 9 of the Supplementary Provisions) which have already been deposited with the commodity exchange pursuant to the provisions of Article 81, paragraph (3) of the former Act at the time of the enforcement of this Act are deemed to be clearing deposits deposited with the commodity exchange as the commodity clearing organization pursuant to the provisions of Article 180, paragraph (1) of the new Act.

(3) Out of the special clearing funds which have already been deposited pursuant to the provisions of Article 81, paragraph (3) of the former Act at the time of the enforcement of this Act, a commodity exchange must return the portion other than what are deemed to be clearing deposits pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph (excluding the portion required to be allocated for damages, for which the provisions previously in force are to remain applicable pursuant to the provisions of Article 9 of the Supplementary Provisions) to the member who deposited the special clearing fund, without delay, after the enforcement of this Act.

(Transitional Measures for Special Deposits)

Article 8 The special deposit (excluding that required to be allocated for damages, for which the provisions previously in force are to remain applicable pursuant to the provisions of the following Article) which has already been deposited pursuant to the provisions of Article 84-2, paragraph (1) of the former Act at the time of the enforcement of this Act is deemed to be special deposit deposited pursuant to the provisions of Article 109, paragraph (1) of the new Act.

(Transitional Measures for Compensation for Damages due to Default)

Article 9 Prior laws continue to govern the compensation for damages caused by a member of a commodity exchange to other members or to the commodity exchange due to non-performance of obligations arising from the transactions in a commodity market before the effective date.

(Transitional Measures for Security for Acceptance of Requests)

- Article 10 (1) A commodity exchange must return the security deposit for acceptance of a request (excluding money related to payment or recovery, for which the provisions previously in force are to remain applicable pursuant to the provisions of the following paragraph or paragraph (3)) which has already been deposited pursuant to the provisions of Article 97-2, paragraph (1) of the former Act at the time of the enforcement of this Act, to the member who deposited the security deposit for acceptance of a request, without delay, after the enforcement of this Act.
- (2) Prior laws continue to govern the payment of security deposit for acceptance of a request for a claim which was made pursuant to the provisions of Article 97-3, paragraph (1) of the former Act before the effective date by a person that requested transactions in a commodity market to a member of a commodity exchange.
- (3) Prior laws continue to govern the payment and recovery of security deposit for acceptance of a request deposited by a person that was a futures commission merchant when the permission under Article 126, paragraph (1) of the former Act ceased to be effective or the permission under that paragraph was revoked before the effective date.

(Transitional Measures for Completion of the Settlement of Transactions)

Article 11 If the permission under Article 126, paragraph (1) of the former Act was revoked, the permission under that paragraph ceased to be effective, or acceptance of a request of transactions in a commodity market was suspended pursuant to the provisions of the former Act or the articles of incorporation of a commodity exchange, before the effective date, or the permission under that paragraph ceased to be effective on the effective date (excluding cases in which the permission under Article 126, paragraph (1) of the former Act ceased to be effective pursuant to the provisions of Article 14, paragraph (4) of the Supplementary Provisions) and the person that was a futures commission merchant has not completed settlement of transactions in a commodity market related to the request by the effective date, the provisions previously in force remain applicable with regard to the transactions.

(Supervisory Disposition and Penal Provisions for Commodity Exchanges)

- Article 12 (1) If a commodity exchange has violated the provisions of Article 5, Article 6, paragraph (2), Article 7, paragraph (3), or Article 10, paragraph (1) of the Supplementary Provisions, the competent minister may revoke the permission for its establishment or order suspension of all or a part of its business for a fixed period not exceeding one year.
- (2) If a commodity exchange has violated the disposition under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the representative, agent, employee, or other worker of the commodity exchange is subject to punishment by imprisonment for not more than two years or by a fine of not more than three million yen, or both.
- (3) If the representative, agent, employee, or other worker of a commodity exchange has committed a violation stated in the preceding paragraph concerning the business or property of the commodity exchange, not only the offender is subject to punishment but also the exchange is subject to punishment by a fine of not more than 300 million yen.

(Transitional Measures for Customer Margins)

- Article 13 (1) A futures commission merchant must deposit money and securities (excluding those specified by order of the competent ministry) which have already been, at the time of the enforcement of this Act, deposited as customer margins pursuant to the provisions of Article 97, paragraph (1) of the former Act, with a commodity exchange that has opened the commodity market related to the transactions in the case that settlement of the transactions is to be made by the method stated in Article 105, item (i) of the new Act, and with a commodity exchange which conducts the business of assuming commodity transaction debts for the transactions in the case that settlement of the transactions is to be made by the method stated in item (ii) of that Article, without delay after the enforcement of this Act.
- (2) Money and securities deposited with a commodity exchange pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph are deemed to be clearing margins which are deposited pursuant to the provisions of Article 103, paragraph (1) of the new Act (limited to those required to be deposited by a requesting party stated in item (ii) of that paragraph in the case stated in that item) with regard to transactions whose settlement is to be made by the method stated in Article 105, item (i) of the new Act, and deemed to be clearing margins which are deposited pursuant to the provisions of Article 179, paragraph (1) of the new Act (in the case stated in item (i) of that paragraph, limited to those required to be deposited by a requesting party stated in (b) of that item in the case stated in (b) of that item, and in the case stated in item (ii) of that paragraph, limited to those required to be deposited by a person entrusting clearing brokerage stated in (b) of that item in the case stated in (b) of that item) with regard to transactions whose settlement is made by the method stated in Article 105, item (ii) of the new Act.

- (3) If a futures commission merchant has violated the provisions of paragraph (1), the competent minister may revoke the license of the futures commission merchant under Article 190 of the new Act, order the suspension of transactions in a commodity market or business of accepting a request of commodity transactions (meaning the business of accepting a request of commodity transactions prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (17) of the new Act; the same applies below) for a fixed period not exceeding six months, order a change of the method of the business of accepting a request of commodity transactions, or order other matters necessary for supervision.
- (4) A person that has violated an order under the provisions of the preceding paragraph is subject to punishment by imprisonment for not more than two years or a fine of not more than three million yen, or both.
- (5) If the representative, agent, employee, or other worker of a futures commission merchant has committed a violation referred to in the preceding paragraph concerning the business or property of the futures commission merchant, not only the offender is subject to punishment but also the futures commission merchant is subject to punishment by a fine of not more than 300 million yen.

(Transitional Measures for the License for Futures Commission Merchants)

- Article 14 (1) A person that seeks to obtain a license under Article 190, paragraph (1) of the new Act may file an application for the license pursuant to the provisions of Article 192 of the new Act even before the effective date.
- (2) If an application for a license has been filed pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the competent minister may grant the license pursuant to the provisions of Articles 190 through 194 of the new Act even before the effective date. In this case, a person that has obtained the license is deemed to have obtained the license under Article 190, paragraph (1) of the new Act on the effective date.
 - (3) If a disposition has not been rendered for an application for a license under paragraph (1) at the time of the enforcement of this Act, a person that has filed the application (limited to a person that has already obtained a license under Article 126, paragraph (1) of the former Act at the time of the enforcement of this Act) is deemed to have obtained the license under Article 190, paragraph (1) of the new Act, until the disposition is rendered.
 - (4) Regarding a person that is deemed to have obtained the license under Article 190, paragraph (1) of the new Act pursuant to the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs, the license under Article 126, paragraph (1) of the former Act ceases to be effective on the effective date.

(Transitional Measures for Public Notice of Discontinuation of Business)

Article 15 The provisions of Article 197, paragraph (3) of the new Act apply to discontinuation, merger (limited to a merger in which the corporation surviving the merger or the corporation established by the merger does not engage in business of accepting a request of commodity transactions), or dissolution due to any reason other than the merger or bankruptcy, of the business of accepting a request of commodity transactions, on and after the day on which 30 days have elapsed from the effective date.

(Transitional Measures for Delivery of a Document and Explanation Before the Conclusion of Entrustment Contracts)

Article 16 The provisions of Article 217 and Article 218 of the new Act apply to entrustment contracts (meaning entrustment contracts prescribed in Article 217, paragraph (1) of the new Act) which are entered into by a futures commission merchant after the enforcement of this Act.

(Transitional Measures for Registration of Sales Representatives)

Article 17 (1) A sales representative (limited to one concerning a person that is deemed to have obtained a license under Article 190, paragraph (1) of the new Act pursuant to the provisions of Article 14, paragraph (2) or (3) of the Supplementary Provisions) who has already been registered pursuant to the provisions of Article 136-4, paragraph (1) of the former Act at the time of the enforcement of this Act, is deemed to have been registered pursuant to the provisions of Article 200, paragraph (1) of the new Act on the effective date. In this case, the provisions of paragraph (6) of that Article do not apply.
(2) In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, the period prescribed in Article 200, paragraph (7) of the new Act is to be calculated from the day of registration or renewal of registration under the former Act.

(Transitional Measures for Establishment of Requesting Party Protection Membership Corporations)

Article 18 (1) A person (limited to a person that has obtained a license in accordance with the provisions of Articles 190 through 194 of the new Act, pursuant to the provisions of Article 14, paragraph (2) of the Supplementary Provisions) who seeks to become a founder or a member of a requesting party protection membership corporation (meaning a requesting party protection membership corporation prescribed in Article 269, paragraph (4) of the new Act; the same applies below) may prepare articles of incorporation, hold an organizational meeting, and perform other acts necessary for establishing the requesting party protection membership corporation and acts necessary for joining the requesting party protection membership corporation, pursuant to the provisions of Chapter VI, Section 2 of the new Act, even before the effective date.

- (2) A requesting party protection membership corporation established before the effective date pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph may file an application for registration under Article 293 of the new Act, file an application for the authorization of operational rules under Article 302, paragraph (1) of the new Act, and perform preparatory acts necessary for these applications, pursuant to the provisions of Chapter VI, Section 3 of the new Act, even before the effective date.
- (3) If an application for registration under Article 293 of the new Act or an application for authorization for operational rules under Article 302, paragraph (1) of the new Act was filed pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the competent minister may grant the registration or authorization even before the effective date pursuant to the provisions of Articles 293 through 295, or Article 302 of the new Act. In this case, the registration or authorization becomes effective as of the effective date.

(Transitional Measures for Succession of Business to Requesting Party Protection Funds)

- Article 19 (1) The Association of Compensation Funds for Consigned Liabilities in Commodity Futures, Inc. (referred to below as the "Association of Compensation Funds" in this Article) established on October 31, 1975 may propose to the requesting party protection membership corporation that the requesting party protection membership corporation should succeed to any and all businesses conducted by and any and all assets and liabilities held by the Association of Compensation Funds until the date specified by Cabinet Order.
- (2) If a proposal under the provisions of the preceding paragraph has been made, a requesting party protection membership corporation must obtain authorization at a general meeting (meaning a general meeting prescribed in Article 285, paragraph (1) of the new Act; the same applies in the following paragraph and paragraph (4)) of the requesting party protection membership corporation when it seeks to approve the proposal.
 - (3) When a requesting party protection membership corporation files an application for registration under Article 293 of the new Act (including registration pursuant to the provisions of Article 293 of the new Act which is to be made before the effective date pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (3) of the preceding Article; the same applies below in this Article), and when the corporation has already obtained a resolution of approval of a general meeting pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, it must file an application with the competent minister for approval for succession from the Association of Compensation Funds, together with an application for the registration.

- (4) When a requesting party protection membership corporation has obtained a resolution of approval of a general meeting pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2) after applying for registration under Article 293 of the new Act, the corporation must file an application for the authorization from the competent minister without delay.
- (5) When authorization under paragraph (3) or the preceding paragraph has been granted, business operated by and assets and liabilities held by the Association of Compensation Funds are to be succeeded by the requesting party protection membership corporation (referred to as the "requesting party protection fund" in paragraphs (8) and (9)) as a requesting party protection fund (meaning the requesting party protection fund prescribed in Article 296 of the new Act; the same applies below) on the day on which the requesting party protection membership corporation received the authorization (when the day is before the day on which the requesting party protection membership corporation related to the authorization received registration under Article 293 of the new Act (or when the day is before the effective date in cases where the requesting party protection membership corporation received registration in accordance with the provisions of Article 293 of the New Act before the effective date pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (3) of the preceding Article), on the effective date), and the Association of Compensation Funds is to be dissolved at that time. In this case, the provisions on the dissolution and liquidation of corporations in other laws and regulations do not apply.
- (6) The registration of dissolution when the Association of Compensation Funds has been dissolved pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph is specified by Cabinet Order.
- (7) Regarding the application of the provisions of Article 295, paragraph (1) (limited to the part related to item (i)) when a requesting party protection membership corporation has simultaneously filed an application for registration under Article 293 of the new Act and an application for authorization for succession from the Association of Compensation Funds pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (3), the term "is" in that item is deemed to be replaced with "is (with regard to an application for registration filed together with an application for authorization pursuant to the provisions of Article 19, paragraph (3) of the Supplementary Provisions of the Act for Partial Revision of the Commodity Exchange Act (Act No. 43 of 2004), calculation is to be done by including the assets and liabilities held by the Association of Compensation Fund related to the application for authorization, if the competent minister seeks to grant the authorization)".

- (8) The requesting party protection fund which succeeded to the businesses of the Association of Compensation Funds pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (5) may conduct businesses of the Association of Compensation Funds related to the succession (referred to as "succeeded businesses" in the following paragraph), notwithstanding the provisions of Article 301 of the new Act.
- (9) If the requesting party protection fund referred to in the preceding paragraph conducts business specified by order of the competent ministry as being similar to the business stated in Article 269, paragraph (3), item (i) of the new Act among the succeeded businesses, the business is deemed to be business stated in that item

(Transitional Measures for Restrictions on the Use of the Names of Requesting Party Protection Funds)

Article 20 (1) The provisions of Article 271, paragraph (2) of the new Act do not apply to a person that has already been using the words for "requesting party protection membership corporation" in their name at the time of the enforcement of this Act, until the day on which six months have elapsed from the effective date.

- (2) The provisions of Article 297, paragraph (2) of the new Act do not apply to a person that has already been using the words for "requesting party protection fund" in their name at the time of the enforcement of this Act, until the day on which six months have elapsed from the effective date.

(Effect of Dispositions)

Article 21 The dispositions made, procedures taken, and other acts performed pursuant to the provisions of the former Act before the effective date, for which corresponding provisions exist in the new Act, are deemed to have been made, taken, or performed pursuant to the corresponding provisions of the new Act, except as otherwise provided by these Supplementary Provisions.

(Transitional Measures for the Application of Penal Provisions)

Article 22 Prior laws continue to govern the applicability of penal provisions to acts committed before the effective date.

(Delegation of Other Transitional Measures to Cabinet Order)

Article 23 In addition to what is provided for in Article 2 through the preceding Article of the Supplementary Provisions, transitional measures necessary for the enforcement of this Act (including transitional measures for penal provisions) are specified by Cabinet Order.

(Review)

Article 24 The government is to review the commodity exchange system revised by this Act within five years after the enforcement of this Act, taking into account of the implementation status of the provisions amended by this Act and the changes in social and economic situations surrounding the commodity futures markets, and when the government finds it necessary, is to take the required measures based on the results of the review.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 76 of June 2, 2004] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act comes into effect on the date on which the Bankruptcy Act (Act No. 75 of 2004; referred to as the "new Bankruptcy Act" in paragraph (8) of the following Article, and Article 3, paragraph (8), Article 5, paragraph (8), paragraphs (16), and (21), Article 8, paragraph (3) and Article 13 of the Supplementary Provisions) comes into effect.

(Transitional Measures for the Application of Penal Provisions)

Article 12 Prior laws continue to govern the applicability of penal provisions to acts committed before the effective date and to acts committed on or after the effective date, when prior laws continue to govern pursuant to the provisions of Article 2, paragraph (1), Article 3, paragraph (1), Article 4, Article 5, paragraphs (1), (9), (17), (19), and (21), and Article 6, paragraphs (1) and (3) of the Supplementary Provisions.

(Delegation to Cabinet Order)

Article 14 In addition to what is provided for in Article 2 through the preceding Article of the Supplementary Provisions, transitional measures necessary for the enforcement of this Act are specified by Cabinet Order.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 87 of June 9, 2004] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act comes into effect on the day specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding one year from the date of promulgation

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 88 of June 9, 2004] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act comes into effect as of the day specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding five years from the date of promulgation (referred to below as the "effective date").

(Transitional Measures pertaining to the Application of Penal Provisions)

Article 135 With regard to the application of penal provisions to acts committed before the enforcement of this Act (with regard to the provisions prescribed in the proviso to Article 1 of the Supplementary Provisions, the relevant provisions; the same applies below in this Article) and acts committed after the enforcement of this Act for which the provisions previously in force are to remain applicable pursuant to the provisions of these Supplementary Provisions and for which the provisions before the amendment are to remain in force, prior laws continue to govern.

(Delegation of Other Transitional Measures to Cabinet Order)

Article 136 (1) In addition to what is provided for in these Supplementary Provisions, transitional measures necessary for the enforcement of this Act are specified by Cabinet Order.

Act Prescribing Adjustments to the Relevant Acts to Coordinate with the Enforcement of the Real Property Registration Act (Act No. 124 of June 18, 2004)
[Extract]

(Transitional Measures upon Partial Amendment of the Commercial Registration Act)

Article 53 (1) Except as otherwise provided in this Article, the provisions of the Commercial Registration Act as amended by the provisions of the preceding Article (referred to below as the "New Commercial Registration Act") also apply to matters that have arisen before the enforcement of this Act; provided, however, that this does not preclude the effects that have arisen from the provisions of the Commercial Registration Act before the amendment by the provisions of the preceding Article (referred to below as the "Former Commercial Registration Act").

- (2) The provisions of Article 1-2, item (i), Article 7, Articles 10 through 12, Article 13, Article 17, paragraph (4), and Article 18 of the New Commercial Registration Act apply to the affairs designated by the Minister of Justice as affairs to be handled by an electronic data processing system (meaning the data processing system referred to in Article 113-2, paragraph (1) of the Former Commercial Registration Act; the same applies in paragraph (4)) for each registry office, from the day of the designation.
- (3) The designation under the provisions of the preceding paragraph must be made by means of public notice.
- (4) Notwithstanding the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs, the affairs that are to be handled by an electronic data processing system at the registry office designated as referred to in Article 113-2, paragraph (1) of the Former Commercial Registration Act at the time of the enforcement of this Act are deemed to have been designated pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2) on the effective date of this Act.

- (5) Until the designation under the provisions of paragraph (2) is made, the provisions of Article 7, Article 10, Article 11, paragraph (1), Article 12, paragraph (1), Article 13, paragraph (1), and Article 18 of the Former Commercial Registration Act remain in force with regard to affairs that have not been designated under the provisions of paragraph (2).
- (6) The provisions of Article 10, paragraph (2) of the New Commercial Registration Act (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 12, paragraph (2) of the New Commercial Registration Act) do not apply to affairs that have not been designated pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2) (including affairs that are not deemed to have been designated pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (4)) at the registry office that has jurisdiction in the locality of the business office of a party (in the case of a foreign company that has no business office in Japan, the domicile of its representative in Japan) with regard to the subject matter of the request.
- (7) The provisions of Article 13, paragraph (2) of the New Commercial Registration Act apply mutatis mutandis to the payment of fees referred to in Article 10, Article 11, paragraph (1), and Article 12, paragraph (1) of the Former Commercial Registration Act that remain in force pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (5). In this case, the phrase "Article 10 through the preceding Article" in Article 13, paragraph (2) of the New Commercial Registration Act is deemed to be replaced with "Article 10, Article 11, paragraph (1), and Article 12, paragraph (1) of this Act before the amendment by the provisions of Article 52 of the Act Prescribing Adjustments to the Relevant Acts to Coordinate with the Enforcement of the Real Property Registration Act (Act No. 124 of 2004) that remain in force pursuant to the provisions of Article 53, paragraph (5) of that Act," And the phrase "Article 10, paragraph (1) or (2), Article 11, or Article 12, paragraph (1), or Article 10, paragraph (2) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 12, paragraph (2)" in the proviso to Article 13, paragraph (2) of the New Commercial Registration Act is deemed to be replaced with "Article 11, paragraph (1) or Article 12, paragraph (1) of this Act before the amendment by the provisions of Article 52 of the Act Prescribing Adjustments to the Relevant Acts to Coordinate with the Enforcement of the Real Property Registration Act that remain in force pursuant to the provisions of Article 53, paragraph (5) of that Act."
- (8) With regard to the application of the provisions of Article 38, paragraph (2), Article 67, item (iii) (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 77 of the New Commercial Registration Act), Article 89-3, paragraph (1), item

(iii), Article 89-7, paragraph (1), item (iii), and Article 104, paragraph (3) of the New Commercial Registration Act, a certified copy or an extract of the register prescribed in Article 11, paragraph (1) of the Former Commercial Registration Act that has been issued before the enforcement of this Act is deemed to be a certificate of registered information. The same applies to a certified copy or an extract of the register prescribed in Article 11, paragraph (1) of the Former Commercial Registration Act that remains in force pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (5).

- (9) Prior laws continue to govern an application for registration filed before the enforcement of this Act.
- (10) The designation referred to in Article 113-7, paragraph (1) of the Former Commercial Registration Act that exists at the time of the enforcement of this Act is deemed to be the designation referred to in Article 56-2, paragraph (1) of the New Commercial Registration Act.
- (11) Beyond what is provided for in the preceding paragraphs, transitional measures necessary for the procedure for registration upon the partial amendment of the Commercial Registration Act by the provisions of the preceding Article are specified by Ministry of Justice Order.

Article 91 (3) The provisions of Article 53 apply mutatis mutandis to transitional measures upon the partial amendment of the Acts specified in the following items pursuant to the provisions of this Act stated in the respective items. In this case, the necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Ministry of Justice Order.

- (i) through (x) omitted; and
- (xi) Article 29: the Commodity Exchange Act.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 124 of June 18, 2004] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act comes into effect on the date on which the new Real Property Registration Act comes into effect.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 147 of December 1, 2004] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act comes into effect on the day specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding six months from the date of promulgation.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 154 of December 3, 2004] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act comes into effect as of the day specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding six months from the date of promulgation (referred to below as the "effective date").

(Effect of Dispositions)

Article 121 The dispositions made, procedures taken, and other acts performed pursuant to the provisions of the respective laws (including orders based on them; the same applies below in this Article) before the enforcement of this Act, for which corresponding provisions exist in the respective Acts after the amendment, are deemed to have been made, taken, or performed pursuant to the corresponding provisions of the respective laws after the amendment, except as otherwise provided by these Supplementary Provisions.

(Transitional Measures for Penal Provisions)

Article 122 With regard to the application of penal provisions to acts committed after the enforcement of this Act, to acts committed before the enforcement of this Act, acts for which the provisions previously in force are to remain applicable pursuant to the provisions of these Supplementary Provisions, and acts for which the provisions before the amendment are to remain in force pursuant to the provisions of these Supplementary Provisions, prior laws continue to govern.

(Delegation of Other Transitional Measures to Cabinet Order)

Article 123 In addition to what is provided for in these Supplementary Provisions, transitional measures necessary for the enforcement of this Act are specified by Cabinet Order.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 159 of December 8, 2004] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act comes into effect on July 1, 2005.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 165 of December 10, 2004] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 (1) This Act comes into effect on the day specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding six months from the date of promulgation; provided, however, that the provisions of Articles 4 and 5 of the Supplementary Provisions come into effect on the date of promulgation.
Act Prescribing Adjustments to the Relevant Acts to Coordinate with the Enforcement of the Companies Act (Act No. 87 of July 26, 2005) [Extract]

(Transitional Measures upon Partial Amendment of the Commodity Exchange Act)

- Article 402 (1) Prior laws continue to govern the establishment of a member commodity exchange under the articles of incorporation prepared pursuant to the provisions of Article 11 of the Commodity Exchange Act before the amendment by the provisions of the preceding Article (referred to below as the "Former Commodity Exchange Act" in this Article) on the effective date; provided, however, that registered information of the registration of establishment is governed by the Commodity Exchange Act as amended by the provisions of the preceding Article (referred to below as the "New Commodity Exchange Act" in this Article).
- (2) With regard to the application of the provisions of Article 15, paragraph (2), item (i), (j) of the New Commodity Exchange Act, a person that has been sentenced to punishment for violating the provisions of the Former Commercial Code, the Former Limited Liability Companies Act, and the Act on Special Provisions of the Former Commercial Code (including the provisions of the Former Commercial Code when prior laws continue to govern pursuant to the provisions of Chapter II, Section 1, Subsection 2; the provisions of the Former Limited Liability Companies Act when prior laws continue to govern pursuant to the provisions of Chapter I, Section 2; and the provisions of the Act on Special Provisions of the Former Commercial Code when prior laws continue to govern pursuant to the provisions of Chapter I, Section 4) is deemed to have been sentenced to punishment for violating the provisions of the Companies Act.
- (3) Prior laws continue to govern the liquidation of a member commodity exchange when a member commodity exchange dissolves due to the grounds stated in the items of Article 69 of the Former Commodity Exchange Act that have arisen before the effective date; provided, however, that registered information of the registration on liquidation is governed by the New Commodity Exchange Act.
- (4) Prior laws continue to govern an entity conversion or merger for which an entity conversion plan or written merger agreement has been prepared before the effective date; provided, however, that registered information of the registration on entity conversion or merger is governed by the New Commodity Exchange Act and the Companies Act.
- (5) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 181, paragraph (1) of the New Commodity Exchange Act, prior laws continue to govern the liquidation proceedings in a case regarding the liquidation of a clearing participant (meaning the clearing participant prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (14) of the Former Commodity Exchange Act) that is pending at the time of the enforcement of this Act.

- (6) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 195, paragraph (1), item (iii) and Article 303, paragraph (1), item (iii) of the New Commodity Exchange Act, prior laws continue to govern the notification to the competent minister or the notice to the requesting party protection fund by a futures commission merchant (meaning the futures commission merchant prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (18) of the Former Commodity Exchange Act) when a petition for commencement of liquidation has been filed before the effective date.
- (7) Prior laws continue to govern an action to invalidate the establishment of a member commodity exchange, action to invalidate an entity conversion or action to invalidate a merger, which has been filed before the effective date.
- (8) When a member has, before the effective date, demanded the filing of an action referred to in Article 267, paragraph (1) of the Former Commercial Code as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 196 of the Former Commercial Code as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 18 of the Former Commodity Exchange Act, an action referred to in Article 267, paragraph (1) of the Former Commercial Code as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 58 of the Former Commodity Exchange Act, or an action referred to in Article 267, paragraph (1) of the Former Commercial Code as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 77, paragraph (2) of the Former Commodity Exchange Act, prior laws continue to govern the action.
- (9) Prior laws continue to govern the liquidation of a member commodity exchange when a judgment upholding the claim in an action to invalidate the establishment of a member commodity exchange that has been filed before the effective date becomes final and binding; provided, however, that registered information of the registration on liquidation is governed by the New Commodity Exchange Act.
- (10) Prior laws continue to govern the proceedings of a non-contentious case (excluding a case concerning liquidation; the same applies in the following paragraph) under the provisions of the Former Commodity Exchange Act for which a petition has been filed or a judicial decision has been made before the effective date.
- (11) The preceding paragraph also applies to the proceedings of a non-contentious case when prior laws continue to govern pursuant to the provisions of this Article.
- (12) Except as otherwise provided in this Article, the provisions of the New Commercial Registration Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the New Commodity Exchange Act apply to matters that have arisen before the effective date; provided, however, that this does not preclude the effects that have arisen from the provisions of the Former Commercial Registration Act as - applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the Former Commodity Exchange Act.

- (13) Except as otherwise provided for in this Article, the dispositions made, procedures taken, and other acts performed pursuant to the provisions of the Former Commercial Registration Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the Former Commodity Exchange Act before the effective date are deemed to have been made, taken, or performed pursuant to the corresponding provisions of the New Commercial Registration Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the New Commodity Exchange Act.
- (14) Prior laws continue to govern the procedure for registration regarding an application for registration filed before the effective date.
- (15) Prior laws continue to govern materials that are required to be attached to a written application for registration when a matter that is required to be registered has arisen before the effective date.
- (16) The designation under the provisions of Article 56-2, paragraph (1) of the Former Commercial Registration Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 29 of the Former Commodity Exchange Act that exists at the time of enforcement of this Act is deemed to be the designation under the provisions of Article 249, paragraph (1) of the New Commercial Registration Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 29 of the New Commodity Exchange Act.
- (17) Prior laws continue to govern the procedure for registration when an application is filed for registration of the establishment of a member commodity exchange which prior laws continue to govern pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1).
- (18) Prior laws continue to govern the procedure for registration when an application is filed for registration of an entity conversion or merger of a member commodity exchange which prior laws continue to govern pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (4).
- (19) Beyond what is provided for in paragraph (12) through the preceding paragraph, transitional measures necessary for the procedure for registration upon the partial amendment of the Commercial Registration Act by the provisions of the preceding Article are specified by Ministry of Justice Order.
- (20) When prior laws continue to govern pursuant to the provisions of this Article, the necessary technical replacement of terms is specified by Order of the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries and Order of the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry.

(Transitional Measures for Penal Provisions)

Article 527 Prior laws continue to govern the applicability of penal provisions to acts committed before the effective date, and acts committed on or after the effective date if prior laws are supposed to continue to govern pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

(Delegation to Cabinet Order)

Article 528 Beyond what is provided for in this Act, transitional measures necessary for the repeal or amendment of laws pursuant to the provisions of this Act are specified by Cabinet Order.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 87 of July 26, 2005] [Extract]

This Act comes into effect on the date on which the Companies Act comes into effect; provided, however, that the provisions stated in the following items come into effect on the date specified in each item:

- (i) the provisions of Article 242: the date of promulgation of this Act.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 50 of June 2, 2006]

This Act comes into effect on the date on which the Act on General Incorporated Associations and General Incorporated Foundations comes into effect.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 65 of June 14, 2006] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act comes into effect as of the day specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding one year and six months from the date of promulgation (referred to below as the "effective date").

(Transitional Measures upon Partial Amendment of the Commodity Exchange Act)

Article 189 (1) The provisions of the Commodity Exchange Act as amended by Article 12 (referred to as the "new Commodity Exchange Act" in this Article below) apply to the business of accepting a request of commodity transactions prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (17) of the new Commodity Exchange Act to be conducted after the enforcement of this Act, and prior laws continue to govern the business of accepting a request of commodity transactions prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (17) of the Commodity Exchange Act before the amendment by Article 12 that has been conducted before the enforcement of this Act.

- (2) If a futures commission merchant (meaning a futures commission merchant prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (18) of the new Commodity Exchange Act) has provided explanation about the matters equivalent to those prescribed in Article 217, paragraph (1) of the new Commodity Exchange Act pursuant to the provisions of Article 218, paragraph (1) of the new Commodity Exchange Act, before the enforcement of this Act, the provisions of the new Commodity Exchange Act apply by deeming that the explanation is the explanation that has been provided pursuant to the provisions of that paragraph.

(Transitional Measures for the Application of Penal Provisions)

Article 218 With regard to the application of penal provisions to acts committed before the enforcement of this Act (for the provisions stated in the items of Article 1 of the Supplementary Provisions, the relevant provisions; the same applies below in this Article) and acts committed after the enforcement of this Act for which the provisions previously in force are to remain applicable pursuant to the provisions of these Supplementary Provisions and for which the provisions before the amendment are to remain in force pursuant to the provisions of these Supplementary Provisions, prior laws continue to govern.

(Delegation of Other Transitional Measures to Cabinet Order)

Article 219 (1) In addition to what is provided for in these Supplementary Provisions, transitional measures necessary for the enforcement of this Act are specified by Cabinet Order.

(2) The transitional measures necessary for the procedures for registration associated with the partial amendment of the Securities Exchange Act pursuant to the provisions of Article 3 are specified by Ministry of Justice Order.

(Reviews)

Article 220 The government is to review the implementation status of this Act within five years after this Act comes into effect, and, is to take required measures based on the results of the review when the government finds it necessary to do so.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 74 of July 10, 2009] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act comes into effect on the day specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding one year and six months from the date of promulgation (referred to below as the "effective date"); provided, however, that the provisions stated in the following items come into effect as of the date specified in each item:

(i) the provisions of Article 5, Article 17, paragraph (1), Article 24, Article 25, and Article 28 of the Supplementary Provisions: the date of promulgation of this Act;

- (ii) the provisions of Article 1 of this Act and Article 6 of the Supplementary Provisions: the day specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding three months from the date of promulgation; or
- (iii) the provisions of Article 2 of this Act and Article 4, Article 7, paragraphs (1) and (2), Article 8 (excluding paragraphs (1) and (7)), Article 14, Article 17, paragraphs (3) and (4), Articles 18 through 20, and Article 26 of the Supplementary Provisions; the provisions amending the Appended Table 1 of the Residential Basic Book Act (Act No. 81 of 1967) in Article 32 of the Supplementary Provisions (limited to the part in row (lxxx) that adds the phrase "authorization under Article 96-19, paragraph (1), notification under paragraph (3) of that Article (including as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 96-25, paragraph (4) and Article 96-31, paragraph (4) of that Act), authorization under Article 96-25, paragraph (1) or the proviso to paragraph (3), notification under Article 96-28, paragraph (3) or Article 96-29, authorization under Article 96-31, paragraph (1), of that Act" to "notification under Article 85, paragraph (1), that Act"; the provisions of Article 42 of the Supplementary Provisions: the day specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding one year from the date of promulgation.

(Transitional Measures upon Appeal of the Act on the Request and Other Matters Relating to Futures Transaction in Foreign Commodity Markets)

Article 3 If a business operator engaged in futures transactions in foreign commodity markets (meaning a business operator engaged in futures transactions in foreign commodity markets prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (5) of the Act on the Request and Other Matters Relating to Futures Transaction in Foreign Commodity Markets before the appeal pursuant to the provisions of the preceding Article (referred to below as the "former Act on Futures Transaction in Foreign Commodity Markets")) has not completed the performance of obligations based on buying or selling regarding a contract on futures transactions in foreign commodity markets prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (6) of the former Act on Futures Transaction in Foreign Commodity Markets which was entered into before the effective date, the business operator may complete the performance of the obligations without obtaining permission under Article 190, paragraph (1) of the Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act as amended by the provisions of Article 3 (referred to below as the "new Act"). In this case, the provisions of the former Act on Futures Transaction in Foreign Commodity Markets related to the performance of the obligations remain in force.

(Transitional Measures for the Report on Quotations and Transaction Volume)

Article 4 Prior laws continue to govern a report pursuant to the provisions of Article 112, paragraph (2) of the Commodity Exchange Act before the amendment by Article 2 that has not been made before the effective date of the provisions stated in Article 1, item (iii) of the Supplementary Provisions.

(Transitional Measures for Changes to Articles of Incorporation of Commodity Exchanges)

Article 5 A commodity exchange is to change its articles of incorporation, operational rules, entrustment contract regulations, dispute resolution rules, and market transactions surveillance committee rules in accordance with the provisions of Article 155 and Article 156 of the Commodity Exchange Act amended by the provisions of Article 1, which will be required upon the enforcement of this Act, and obtain the authorization of the competent minister by the effective date of the provisions stated in Article 1, item (ii) of the Supplementary Provisions. In this case, the authorization becomes effective as of the effective date of the provisions stated in that item.

(Supervisory Dispositions and Penal Provisions for Commodity Exchanges)

- Article 6 (1) If a commodity exchange has violated the provisions of the preceding Article, the competent minister may revoke the license for its establishment or order suspension of all or a part of its business for a fixed period not exceeding one year.
- (2) If a commodity exchange has violated the disposition under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the representative, agent, employee, or other worker of the commodity exchange who has committed the act is subject to punishment by imprisonment for not more than two years or by a fine of not more than three million yen, or both.
- (3) If the representative, agent, employee, or other worker of a commodity exchange has committed a violation referred to in the preceding paragraph, not only the offender is subject to punishment but also the commodity exchange is subject to punishment by a fine of not more than 300 million yen.

(Transitional Measures for the License of Commodity Derivatives Brokers)

- Article 7 (1) A person that seeks to obtain a license under Article 190, paragraph (1) of the new Act may file an application for the license pursuant to the provisions of Article 192 of the new Act even before the effective date.
- (2) If an application for a license has been filed pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the competent minister may grant the license pursuant to the provisions of Articles 190 through 194 of the new Act even before the effective date. In this case, the person that has obtained the license is deemed to have obtained the license under Article 190, paragraph (1) of the new Act on the effective date.

- (3) If a disposition has not been rendered for an application for a license under paragraph (1) at the time of the enforcement of this Act, a person that filed the application is deemed to have obtained a license under Article 190, paragraph (1) of the new Act until the disposition is rendered.
- (4) If a person that was a futures commission merchant (meaning a futures commission merchant prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (18) of the Commodity Exchange Act before the amendment by Article 3 (referred to below as the "former Act"); the same applies below) (excluding one deemed to have obtained a license under Article 190, paragraph (1) of the new Act pursuant to the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs) has not completed transactions in a commodity market related to the entrustment by the effective date, the provisions previously in force remain applicable to the transactions.
- (5) The provisions of Article 197, paragraph (5) of the new Act apply mutatis mutandis to cases in which a person that was a futures commission merchant (limited to those deemed to have obtained a license under Article 190, paragraph (1) of the new Act pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (3)) has been rendered a disposition that the license will not be granted for the application for the license under paragraph (1).

(Transitional Measures for Public Notice of Discontinuation of Business)

- Article 8 (1) The provisions of Article 197, paragraph (3) of the new Act apply to the discontinuation of business (meaning commodity derivatives business prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (22) of the new Act; the same applies below), merger (limited to a merger in cases in which a corporation surviving the merger or a corporation established by the merger does not engage in commodity derivatives business), or dissolution due to reasons other than a merger or order of commencement of bankruptcy proceedings (referred to below as "discontinue, etc." in this Article) of commodity derivatives business on and after the day on which 30 days have elapsed from the effective date, except in the cases prescribed in the following paragraph.
- (2) If a person that was a futures commission merchant before the effective date and has filed an application for a license under paragraph (1) of the preceding Article (referred to below as a "specified futures commission merchant" in this Article) seeks to discontinue, etc. their commodity derivatives business, the specified futures commission merchant must, by 30 days before that day, give a public notice to that effect, as well as post a notice of that fact in a place easily seen by the public at all of its business offices pursuant to the provisions of Article 197, paragraph (3) of the new Act.
 - (3) If a specified futures commission merchant has given a public notice under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the specified futures commission merchant must immediately notify the competent minister to that effect.

- (4) If a specified futures commission merchant has given a public notice under paragraph (2), the specified futures commission merchant must promptly complete the transactions in a commodity market which they have conducted on the requesting party's account and return the property deposited by the requesting party for the transactions in a commodity market and the property which the specified futures commission merchant possesses based on their own account without delay.
- (5) A person who falls under any of the following items is subject to punishment by imprisonment for not more than one year or by a fine of not more than three million yen, or both:
- (i) a person who has failed to give a public notice under the provisions of paragraph (2) or who has given a false public notice; or
 - (ii) a person who has failed to give a notification under the provisions of paragraph (3) or who has given a false notification.
- (6) If the representative, agent, employee, or other worker of a specified futures commission merchant has committed a violation referred to in the preceding paragraph regarding the business of the specified futures commission market, not only the offender is subject to punishment but also the specified futures commission merchant is subject to punishment by a fine of not more than three million yen.
- (7) A public notice given and posted pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2) before the effective date is deemed to be a public notice given and posted pursuant to the provisions of Article 197, paragraph (3) of the new Act.

(Transitional Measures for Restrictions on the Use of the Names of Commodity Derivatives Brokers)

Article 9 The provisions of Article 197-2 of the new Act do not apply to a person that was using words in their name or trade name which could give rise to the misconception that the person is a commodity derivatives broker at the time of the enforcement of this Act, for six months after the effective date.

(Transitional Measures for the Obligation to Notify Eligible Requesting Parties)

Article 10 (1) If a commodity derivatives broker (meaning a commodity derivatives broker prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (23) of the new Act and including those deemed to have obtained a license under Article 190, paragraph (1) of the new Act pursuant to the provisions of Article 7, paragraph (3) of the Supplementary Provisions; the same applies below) has received, for the first time on or after the effective date, an offer of a commodity transaction contract (meaning a commodity transaction contract prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (24) of the new Act; the same applies below) from a customer

(limited to a person stated in Article 2, paragraph (25), items (vii) and (viii) of the new Act), and the commodity derivatives broker has notified the customer, before the effective date, that the customer may make a request under the provisions of Article 197-4, paragraph (1) of the new Act on or after the effective date, pursuant to the provisions of Article 197-3 of the new Act, the commodity derivatives broker is deemed to have given a notification prescribed in that Article to the customer.

- (2) If a commodity derivatives broker has received an offer of a commodity transaction contract (limited to those regarding commodity derivatives transactions prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (15) of the New Act, for which the underlying commodities prescribed in paragraph (27) of that Article are goods regarding which an eligible business specialist (meaning the eligible business specialist prescribed in paragraph (26) of that Article; the same applies in this paragraph below) engages in purchase and sale, etc. in the course of trade or other goods specified by order of the competent ministry stated in Article 197-7 of the New Act as being related to them) from a customer (limited to an eligible business specialist) for the first time on or after the effective date, and the commodity derivatives broker has notified the customer, before the effective date, that the customer may make a request under the provisions of Article 197-8, paragraph (1) of the new Act on or after the effective date, pursuant to the provisions of Article 197-7 of the new Act, the commodity derivatives broker is deemed to have given a notification prescribed in that Article to the customer.

(Transitional Measures for Registration of Sales Representatives of Commodity Derivatives Brokers)

- Article 11 (1) A sales representative who has already obtained a registration pursuant to the provisions of Article 200, paragraph (1) of the former Act at the time of the enforcement of this Act (limited to one regarding a futures commission merchant who is deemed to have obtained a license under Article 190, paragraph (1) of the new Act pursuant to the provisions of Article 7, paragraph (2) or (3) of the Supplementary Provisions) is deemed to have obtained a registration pursuant to the provisions of Article 200, paragraph (1) of the new Act on the effective date. In this case, the provisions of paragraph (6) of that Article do not apply.
- (2) In the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, the period prescribed in Article 200, paragraph (7) of the new Act is to be calculated from the day of registration or renewal of registration under the former Act
- (3) A commodity derivatives broker may have a person other than a sales representative who has obtained registration pursuant to the provisions of Article 200, paragraph (1) of the new Act perform the duties of sales representatives (excluding acceptance of a request or solicitation of a request of transactions, etc. in a commodity market (meaning transactions, etc. in a commodity market prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (16) of the former Act and excluding commodity clearing transactions prescribed in paragraph (15) of that Article)) for six months from the effective date, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 200, paragraph (2) of the new Act. The same applies if an application for registration under Article 200, paragraph (1) has been filed for the person during that period, until the day on which the commodity derivatives broker receives a notice to the effect that registration will be granted for the application, or until the day on which the commodity derivatives broker receives a notice to the effect that registration will not be granted for the application after the lapse of that period.

- (4) A register under the provisions of Article 200, paragraph (5) of the former Act that exists at the time of the enforcement of this Act is deemed to be a register under the provisions of Article 200, paragraph (5) of the new Act.

(Transitional Measures for Delivery of Documents Before Conclusion of Commodity Transaction Contracts)

Article 12 With regard to a commodity transaction contract entered into on or after the effective date, if a commodity derivatives broker has delivered a document pursuant to the provisions of Article 217, paragraph (1) of the new Act, concerning matters equivalent to those prescribed in that paragraph, or provided matters that are required to be stated in a document prescribed in that paragraph pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (2) of that Article, before the effective date, the commodity derivatives broker is deemed to have delivered the document pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (1) of that Article.

(Transitional Measures for Obligation of Explanation of Commodity Derivatives Brokers)

Article 13 With regard to a commodity transaction contract entered into on or after the effective date, if a commodity derivatives broker has provided explanations pursuant to the provisions of Article 218, paragraph (1) of the new Act, concerning matters equivalent to those prescribed in Article 217, paragraph (1) of the new Act, before the effective date, the commodity derivatives broker is deemed to have provided explanations pursuant to the provisions of Article 218, paragraph (1) of the new Act..

(Transitional Measures for the Application for Authorization Regarding Mergers)

Article 14 (1) A person that is deemed to have obtained a license under Article

190, paragraph (1) of the new Act pursuant to the provisions of Article 7, paragraph (2) of the Supplementary Provisions and seeks to obtain authorization under Article 225, paragraph (1) or Article 228, paragraph (1) of the new Act may file an application for the authorization pursuant to the provisions of Article 225 or Article 228 of the new Act even before the effective date.

- (2) If an application for authorization has been filed pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the competent minister may grant the authorization pursuant to the provisions of Article 225 or Article 228 of the new Act even before the effective date. In this case, a person that has obtained the authorization is deemed to have obtained the authorization under Article 225, paragraph (1) or Article 228, paragraph (1) of the new Act on the effective date.

(Transitional Measures for Registration of Commodity Derivatives Intermediary Service Providers)

Article 15 (1) A person that has been engaging in specified commodity derivatives intermediation services (meaning to engage in any of the intermediation acts prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (22), items (ii) through (v) of the new Act, entrusted by a commodity derivatives broker in the course of trade for the commodity derivatives broker; (the same applies below in this Article) at the time of the enforcement of this Act (referred to below as a "provisional commodity derivatives intermediary service provider" in this Article) may continue to engage in specified commodity derivatives intermediation services for six months from the effective date (if, during that period, the provisional commodity derivatives intermediary service provider has been rendered a disposition that refuses the registration under Article 240-2, paragraph (1) of the new Act or has been ordered to discontinue their specified commodity derivatives intermediation services pursuant to the provisions of Article 240-23, paragraph (1) of the new Act as applied pursuant to the following paragraph following the deemed replacement of terms, until the day on which the disposition is rendered or the discontinuation of services is ordered), notwithstanding the provisions of Article 190, paragraph (1) and Article 240-2, paragraph (1) of the new Act. The same applies, if a provisional commodity derivatives intermediary service provider (limited to those who have not received a disposition that refuses the registration under that Article nor have been ordered to discontinue their specified commodity derivatives intermediation services pursuant to the provisions of Article 240-23, paragraph (1) of the new Act as applied pursuant to the following paragraph following the deemed replacement of terms) has filed an application for registration referred to in Article 240-2, paragraph (1) of the new Act within six months from the effective date, and that period has elapsed, until the time when a disposition that grants or refuses the registration is rendered for the application.

- (2) If a provisional commodity derivatives intermediary service provider is to continue to engage in specified commodity derivatives intermediation services pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the provisions of Articles 240-12 through 240-22, Article 240-23 (excluding paragraph (1), item (ii)), and Article 240-26 of the new Act (including penal provisions related to these provisions) apply to the provisional commodity derivatives intermediary service provider, by deeming them to be a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (29) of the new Act. In this case, "The fact that they are a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider, and their registration number" in Article 240-13, paragraph (1), item (ii) of the new Act is to be replaced with "The fact that they are a provisional commodity derivatives intermediary service provider," and "revoke the registration granted to the commodity derivatives service provider under Article 240-2, paragraph (1)" in Article 240-23, paragraph (1) of the new Act is deemed to be replaced with "order the discontinuation of their specified commodity derivatives intermediation services".
- (3) Regarding the application of the provisions of Article 240-5, item (i) of the new Act in cases in which a provisional commodity derivatives intermediary service provider who is an individual, has been ordered to discontinue their specified commodity derivatives intermediation services pursuant to the provisions of Article 240-23, paragraph (1) of the new Act as applied pursuant to the preceding paragraph following the deemed replacement of terms, the person is deemed to be a person falling under Article 15, paragraph (2), item (i), (f) of the new Act until the day on which five years have elapsed from the day on which the person is ordered to discontinue the services.
- (4) Regarding the application of the provisions of Article 240-5, item (ii) of the new Act in cases in which a provisional commodity derivatives intermediary service provider, who is a corporation, has been ordered to discontinue their specified commodity derivatives intermediation services pursuant to the provisions of Article 240-23, paragraph (1) of the new Act as applied pursuant to paragraph (2) following the deemed replacement of terms, the provisional commodity derivatives intermediary service provider, who is a corporation that has been ordered to discontinue the services, is deemed to be a person whose registration under Article 240-2, paragraph (1) of the new Act has been revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 240-23, paragraph (1) of the new Act, and the day on which the corporation is ordered to discontinue the services is deemed to be the day on which its registration under Article 240-2, paragraph (1) of the new Act has been revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 240-23, paragraph (1) of the new Act.

(Transitional Measures for Restriction on the Use of the Names of Commodity Derivatives Intermediary Service Providers)

Article 16 The provisions of Article 240-8 of the new Act do not apply to a person that was using a word in their name or trade name which could give rise to the misconception that the person is a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider at the time of the enforcement of this Act, for six months on or after the effective date.

(Transitional Measures for the Authorization for Commodity Futures Associations)

Article 17 (1) If a commodity futures association prescribed in Article 241, paragraph (1) of the former Act (referred to below as an "association under the former Act" in this paragraph) has already been established at the time of the enforcement of this Act, or an association under the former Act has been established during the period from the date of promulgation of this Act to the day preceding the effective date, the association under the former Act may change its articles of incorporation, sanction rules, and dispute resolution rules necessary to become a commodity futures association prescribed in Article 241, paragraph (1) of the new Act, and receive the authorization of the competent minister by that day.

(2) If authorization referred to in the preceding paragraph is granted, the changes to the articles of incorporation, sanction rules, and dispute resolution rules prescribed in that paragraph come into effect on the effective date.

(3) A person that is deemed to have obtained a license under Article 190, paragraph (1) of the new Act pursuant to the provisions of Article 7, paragraph (2) of the Supplementary Provisions may file an application for authorization under Article 245 of the new Act pursuant to the provisions of Article 247 of the new Act even before the effective date.

(4) If an application for authorization is filed pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the competent minister may grant the authorization even before the effective date pursuant to the provisions of Articles 245 through 248 of the new Act. In this case, the person that has obtained the authorization is deemed to have obtained the authorization under Article 245 of the new Act on the effective date.

(Transitional Measures for Requesting Party Protection Funds)

Article 18 (1) A person (limited to a person that is deemed to have obtained a license under Article 190, paragraph (1) of the new Act pursuant to the provisions of Article 7, paragraph (2) of the Supplementary Provisions and who seeks to engage in the acts stated in Article 2, paragraph (22), item (i) or (ii) of the new Act in the course of trade at a business office or office in Japan) who seeks to become a founder or a member of a requesting party protection fund prescribed in Article 270 of the new Act (referred to below as a "new requesting party protection fund" in this Article through Article 22 of the Supplementary Provisions) may prepare articles of incorporation, hold an organizational meeting, and perform other acts necessary for establishing the new requesting party protection fund, acts necessary for joining the new requesting party protection fund, and acts necessary for the operation of the business of the new requesting party protection fund for the business year that includes the date of its establishment, pursuant to the provisions of Chapter VI (excluding Articles 279 and 280) of the new Act, even before the effective date.

- (2) A founder of a new requesting party protection fund may file an application for authorization for establishing the new requesting party protection fund and obtain the authorization of the competent minister pursuant to the provisions of Articles 279 and 280 of the new Act, even before the effective date. In this case, the authorization becomes effective as of the effective date.

Article 19 (1) A requesting party protection fund prescribed in Article 296 of the former Act (referred to below as a "former requesting party protection fund") may become a new requesting party protection fund by changing its articles of incorporation and performing other acts necessary to become a new requesting party protection fund, and by obtaining the authorization of the competent minister pursuant to the provisions of Articles 279 and 280 of the new Act, during the period from the effective date of the provisions stated in Article 1, item (iii) of the Supplementary Provisions to the day preceding the effective date (referred to as the "transitional period" in the following Article).

- (2) The authorization referred to in the preceding paragraph becomes effective on the effective date.
- (3) With regard to the application of the new Act to a former requesting party protection fund that has obtained the authorization under paragraph (1), the authorization referred to in that paragraph is deemed to be the authorization for establishing a new requesting party protection fund.
- (4) The necessary matters for the registration of a former requesting party protection fund that has obtained the authorization under paragraph (1) are specified by Cabinet Order.
- (5) A new requesting party protection fund related to a former requesting party protection fund that has obtained the authorization under paragraph (1) may conduct businesses specified by order of the competent ministry as being businesses similar to those stated in Article 300, item (i) of the new Act, notwithstanding the provisions of that Article. In this case, the provisions of Article 313 and Article 374, item (xxi) of the new Act apply to those businesses by deeming them to be businesses stated in that item.

- (6) Beyond what is provided for in the preceding paragraphs, necessary matters for the authorization stated in paragraph (1) are specified by Cabinet Order.

Article 20 (1) A former requesting party protection fund which has not obtained the authorization under paragraph (1) of the preceding Article during the transitional period is dissolved on the expiration date of the transitional period, notwithstanding the provisions of Articles 290 and 312 of the former Act.

- (2) With regard to dissolution and liquidation in the case referred to in the preceding paragraph, the provisions of Articles 291 and 292 of the former Act remain in force. In this, the phrase "requesting party protection fund (meaning a requesting party protection fund prescribed in Article 296)" in that Article is deemed to be replaced with "requesting party protection fund (meaning a requesting party protection fund prescribed in Article 270 of the Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act)".

- (3) Beyond what is provided for in the preceding two paragraphs, necessary matters concerning a former requesting party protection fund which has not obtained the authorization under paragraph (1) of the preceding Article are specified by Cabinet Order.

Article 21 If a former requesting party protection fund has obtained the authorization under Article 19, paragraph (1) of the Supplementary Provisions, the provisions of Articles 302 through 311 of the new Act apply to a person that is deemed, at the time of the enforcement of this Act, to be a futures commission merchant that is a member of the former requesting party protection fund pursuant to the provisions of Article 300, paragraph (1) of the former Act, by deeming the person to be a commodity derivatives broker that is a member of a new requesting party protection fund related to the former requesting party protection fund.

(Transitional Measures for the Payment to General Requesting Parties)

Article 22 If a former requesting party protection fund has obtained the authorization under Article 19, paragraph (1) of the Supplementary Provisions, payment to be made by the former requesting party protection fund, before the effective date to a general requesting party of a futures commission merchant related to the certification under Article 304 of the former Act is to be made by a new requesting party protection fund related to the former requesting party protection fund pursuant to the provisions then in force.

(Transitional Measures for Notification by Specified Over-The-Counter Commodity Derivatives Brokers)

Article 23 A person that is engaging in specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions (meaning specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions prescribed in Article 349, paragraph (1) of the new Act; the same applies below in this Article) in the course of trade at the time of the enforcement of this Act, may engage in specified over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions in the course of trade without making a notification under that paragraph, for one month from the effective date.

(Effect of Dispositions)

Article 24 The dispositions made, procedures taken, and other acts performed pursuant to the provisions of the respective laws before amendment (including orders based on them; the same applies below in this Article) before the enforcement of this Act (for the provisions stated in each item of Article 1 of the Supplementary Provisions, the relevant provisions; the same applies in the following Article), for which corresponding provisions exist in the amended laws, are deemed to have been made, taken, or performed pursuant to the corresponding provisions of the respective laws after the amendment, except as otherwise provided for by these Supplementary Provisions.

(Transitional Measures for the Application of Penal Provisions)

Article 25 Prior laws continue to govern the application of penal provisions to acts committed before this Act comes into effect and acts committed after this Act comes into effect for which the provisions previously in force are to remain applicable pursuant to the provisions of these Supplementary Provisions.

(Delegation of Other Transitional Measures to Cabinet Order)

Article 28 In addition to what is provided for in Articles 3 through 25 of the Supplementary Provisions, transitional measures necessary for the enforcement of this Act (including transitional measures regarding penal provisions) are specified by Cabinet Order.

(Review)

Article 29 The government is to review the commodity derivatives system amended by this Act within five years after the enforcement of this Act, taking into account of the implementation status of the provisions amended by this Act and the changes in social and economic situations surrounding commodity derivatives, and when the government finds it necessary, is to take the required measures based on the results of the review.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 32 of May 19, 2010] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act comes into effect on the day specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding one year from the date of promulgation; provided, however, that the provisions stated in the following items come into effect on the date specified in each item:

- (i) the provisions amending Article 2, paragraph (28) of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act in Article 1 (limited to the part that amends the phrase ", derivative transactions or other transactions specified by a Cabinet Order" to ", derivative transactions (excluding transactions specified by Cabinet Order as those that are found not to hinder the public interest or protection of investors, taking into account of the status of transactions, impact on the Japanese capital market, and other circumstances), or other transactions specified by a Cabinet Order as being incidental or related to the transactions") and the provisions amending Article 205-2-3, item (ix) of that Act; the provisions of Article 4; the provisions amending Article 49, paragraphs (1) and (2) of the Trust Business Act in Article 5; the provisions of Articles 13 and 14 of the Supplementary Provisions: the date of promulgation.

(Adjustment Provisions upon Partial Amendment of the Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act)

Article 7 (1) If the effective date is before the date on which the Act for Partial Revision of the Commodity Exchange Act and the Act on Regulations of Business Regarding Commodities Investment (Act No. 74 of 2009) comes into effect, in the preceding Article (including the title), "Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act" is deemed to be replaced with "Commodity Exchange Act," ", over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions" is deemed to be replaced with "or over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions," "has taken over" is deemed to be replaced with "has taken over," and "business of assuming commodity transaction debts, etc." is deemed to be replaced with "business of assuming commodity transaction debts".

(2) In the case prescribed in the preceding paragraph, in Article 3 of the Act for Partial Revision of the Commodity Exchange Act and the Act on Regulations of Business Regarding Commodities Investment, in the provisions that amend Article 181, paragraph (1) of the Commodity Exchange Act (Act No. 239 of 1950), ", over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions" is deemed to be replaced with "or over-the-counter commodity derivatives transactions," and "adds ..." to "adds ..., and amends the term 'business of assuming commodity transaction debts' to 'business of assuming commodity transaction debts, etc.'".

(Transitional Measures for the Application of Penal Provisions)

Article 13 Prior laws continue to govern the applicability of penal provisions to acts committed before the enforcement of this Act (for the provisions stated in the items of Article 1 of the Supplementary Provisions, the relevant provisions).

(Delegation to Cabinet Order)

Article 14 (1) In addition to what is provided for in Articles 2 through 5 and the preceding Article of the Supplementary Provisions, transitional measures necessary for the enforcement of this Act (including transitional measures regarding penal provisions) are specified by Cabinet Order.

Act Prescribing Adjustments to the Relevant Acts to Coordinate with the Enforcement of the Non-Contentious Case Procedures Act and the Domestic Relations Case Procedure Act [Act No. 53 of May 25, 2011] [Extract]

(Transitional Measures for Penal Provisions)

Article 168 Beyond what is provided for in Article 6 or Article 7, prior laws continue to govern the applicability of penal provisions to acts committed before the enforcement and acts committed after the enforcement when prior laws continue to govern pursuant to the other provisions of this Act.

(Delegation to Cabinet Order)

Article 169 Beyond what is provided for in this Act, transitional measures necessary for the repeal or amendment of laws pursuant to the provisions of this Act are specified by Cabinet Order.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 53 of May 25, 2011]

This Act comes into effect on the date on which the new Non-Contentious Cases Procedures Act comes into effect.

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act comes into effect as of the day specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding one year from the date of promulgation (referred to below as the "effective date").

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 74 of June 24, 2011] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act comes into effect on the day on which 20 days have elapsed from the date of promulgation.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 86 of September 12, 2012] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act comes into effect on the day specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding one year and six months from the date of promulgation; provided, however, that the provisions stated in the following items come into effect on the date specified in each item:

- (i) the provisions of Article 4, paragraph (13) and Article 18 of the Supplementary Provisions: the date of promulgation;
- (ii) the provisions of Article 1 and the following Article of this Act and Article 17 of the Supplementary Provisions: the day specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding one year from the date of promulgation.

(Transitional Measures for the Application of Penal Provisions)

Article 17 Prior laws continue to govern the applicability of penal provisions to acts committed before the enforcement of this Act (for the provisions stated in Article 1, items (ii) and (iii) of the Supplementary Provisions, the relevant provisions).

(Delegation to Cabinet Order)

Article 18 In addition to what is provided for in Articles 2 through 5 and the preceding Article of the Supplementary Provisions, transitional measures necessary for the enforcement of this Act (including transitional measures regarding penal provisions) are specified by Cabinet Order.

(Review)

Article 19 The government is to review the implementation status of the provisions amended by this Act within five years after the enforcement of this Act, and when the government finds it necessary, is to take the required measures based on the results of the review.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 69 of June 13, 2014] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act comes into effect on the day on which the Administrative Complaint Review Act (Act No. 68 of 2014) comes into effect.

(Principles of Transitional Measures)

Article 5 Unless otherwise provided for in these Supplementary Provisions, prior laws continue to govern any appeals on dispositions or other acts or inactions of administrative authorities which relate to dispositions or other acts of administrative authorities made before the enforcement of this Act or to inactions of administrative authorities regarding applications made before the enforcement of this Act.

(Transitional Measures Concerning Litigation)

- Article 6 (1) Prior laws continue to govern the filing of an action with regard to matters for which an action may be filed only after a determination, decision or any other act is made by an administrative authority in relation to an appeal pursuant to the provisions of laws before the amendment by this Act and for which the statutes of limitation for filing an action have expired before the enforcement of this Act without the appeal having been filed (if the relevant appeal may be filed only after a determination, decision or any other act is made by an administrative authority in relation to another appeal, including matters for which the statute of limitations for filing an action has expired before the enforcement of this Act without another appeal having been filed).
- (2) Prior laws continue to govern the filing of an action for revocation of a disposition or any other act against which an objection has been filed pursuant to the provisions of laws before the amendment by the provisions of this Act (including cases where prior laws continue to govern pursuant to the provisions of the preceding Article) and for which an action for revocation may be filed only after a determination on a request for review is made pursuant to the provisions of laws as amended by the provisions of this Act.
- (3) Prior laws continue to govern an action for revocation of a determination, decision or any other act made by an administrative authority in relation to an appeal that has been filed before the enforcement of this Act.

(Transitional Measures Concerning Penal Provisions)

Article 9 Prior laws continue to govern the applicability of penal provisions to acts committed before the enforcement of this Act and acts committed after the enforcement of this Act when prior laws continue to govern pursuant to the provisions of Article 5 and the preceding two Articles of the Supplementary Provisions.

(Delegation of Other Transitional Measures to Cabinet Order)

Article 10 Beyond what is provided for in Article 5 to the preceding Article of the Supplementary Provisions, transitional measures necessary for the enforcement of this Act (including transitional measures concerning penal provisions) are specified by Cabinet Order.

Supplementary Provisions [Act No. 72 of June 18, 2014] [Extract]

(Effective Date)

Article 1 This Act comes into effect on the date specified by Cabinet Order within a period not exceeding two years and six months from the date of promulgation; provided, however, that the provisions stated in the following items come into effect as of the date specified in each item:

(i) the provisions of Article 9 to Article 11, Article 20, Article 22 (limited to the part relating to Article 20, paragraph (1) of the Supplementary Provisions), Article 27, Article 29 (limited to the part relating to item (i)), Article 30 (excluding item (iv) to item (vi)), Article 31 (limited to the part relating to Article 29, item (i) and Article 30 (excluding item (iv) to item (vi)) of the Supplementary Provisions), and Article 40 of the Supplementary Provisions: the date of promulgation

(Transitional Measures upon Partial Amendment of the Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act)

Article 32 (1) A person actually engaging in the provisional commodity derivatives business (meaning to conduct acts stated in Article 2, paragraph (22), item (v) of the Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act after the amendment pursuant to the provisions of Article 2 (referred to below as the "New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act" in this Article and the following Article) with regard to the electric power prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (1), item (iv) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act (simply referred to below as the "electric power" in paragraph (1) of the following Article) in the course of trade at the time of the enforcement of this Act (such person is referred to as a "provisional commodity derivatives broker" in this Article and paragraph (1) of the following Article below) may continue to engage in the provisional commodity derivatives business for six months from the effective date (if a disposition of non-permission has been made for an application for a license stated in Article 190, paragraph (1) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act, or discontinuance of the provisional commodity derivatives business was ordered pursuant to the provisions of Article 236, paragraph (1) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act as applied following the deemed replacement of terms under the provisions of the following paragraph during the relevant period, until the day on which the disposition was made or the day on which the discontinuance was ordered), notwithstanding the provisions of Article 190, paragraph (1) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act. If a provisional commodity derivatives broker (limited to a person that has not received a disposition of non-permission with regard to an application for a license under the same paragraph and has not been ordered to discontinue specified commodity derivatives business pursuant to the provisions of Article 236, paragraph (1) of the New Commodity Derivatives Act as applied following the deemed replacement of terms under the provisions of the following paragraph) has filed an application for a license under Article 190, paragraph (1) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act within six months from the effective date, and if the relevant period has elapsed, the same applies until a disposition of permission or non-permission is made with regard to the application.

(2) A provisional commodity derivatives broker who continues to engage in the provisional commodity derivatives business pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph is to be deemed as a commodity derivatives broker as prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (23) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act and the provisions of Article 213, Article 213-2, Article 214 (excluding item (iii), item (iv), and item (viii)), Article 214-2 to Article 215, Article 217, Article 218, Article 219, paragraph (2), Article 220 to Article 220-3, Article 220-4, paragraph (2), Article 222, Article 231, Article 232, and Article 236 (excluding paragraph (1), item (ii) to item (iv)) (including penal provisions relating to these provisions) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act apply to them . In this case, the phrase "the fact of being a commodity derivatives broker" in Article 213-2, paragraph (1), item (ii) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act is to be replaced with "the fact of being a provisional commodity derivatives broker (meaning the provisional commodity derivatives broker prescribed in Article 32, paragraph (1) of the Supplementary Provisions of the Act Partially Amending the Electricity Business Act (Act No. 72 of 2014))", and the phrase "revoke the commodity derivatives broker's license under Article 190, paragraph (1)" in Article 236, paragraph (1) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act is deemed to be replaced with "order the discontinuance of the provisional commodity derivatives business (meaning the provisional commodity derivatives business prescribed in Article 32, paragraph (1) of the Supplementary Provisions of the Act Partially Amending the Electricity Business Act)".

(3) When a provisional commodity derivatives broker has been ordered to discontinue the provisional commodity derivatives business pursuant to the provisions of Article 236, paragraph (1) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act as applied following the deemed replacement of terms under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, with regard to the application of the provisions of Article 193, paragraph (1), item (iv) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act, the provisional commodity derivatives broker who was ordered to discontinue the business is deemed to be a person whose license under Article 190, paragraph (1) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act was revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 236, paragraph (1) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act, and the day on which the discontinuance was ordered is deemed to be the day on which the license was revoked.

Article 33 (1) A person actually engaging in the specified commodity derivatives intermediation services (meaning to act as the intermediary as prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (22), item (v) of the New Commodity Derivatives Act with regard to the electric power in the course of trade under a request from a provisional commodity derivatives broker for the relevant provisional commodity derivatives broker; the same applies below in this Article) at the time of the enforcement of this Act (the person is referred to below as a "provisional commodity derivatives intermediary service provider" in this Article) may continue to engage in the specified commodity derivatives intermediation services for six months from the effective date (if a disposition of non-permission has been made for an application for registration stated in Article 240-2, paragraph (1) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act, or discontinuance of the specified commodity derivatives intermediation services was ordered pursuant to the provisions of Article 240-23, paragraph (1) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act as applied following the deemed replacement of terms under the provisions of the following paragraph during the relevant period, until the day on which the disposition was made or the day on which the discontinuance was ordered), notwithstanding the provisions of Article 190, paragraph (1) and Article 240-2, paragraph (1) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act. If a provisional commodity derivatives intermediary service provider (limited to a person that has not received a disposition of non-permission with regard to an application for registration under the same paragraph and has not been ordered to discontinue specified commodity derivatives intermediation services pursuant to the provisions of Article 240-23, paragraph (1) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act as applied following the deemed replacement of terms under the provisions of the following paragraph) has filed an application for registration under Article 240-2, paragraph (1) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act within six months from the effective date, and if the relevant period has elapsed, the same applies until a disposition of permission or non-permission of registration is made with regard to the application.

(2) A provisional commodity derivatives intermediary service provider who continues to engage in the specified commodity derivatives intermediation services pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph is to be deemed as a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider as prescribed in Article 2, paragraph (29) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act and the provisions of Article 240-12 to Article 240-20, Article 240-22, Article 240-23 (excluding paragraph (1), item (ii)), and Article 240-26 (including penal provisions relating to these provisions) of the New Commodity Derivatives

Transaction Act apply to them. In this case, the phrase "the fact of being a commodity derivatives intermediary service provider and their registration number" in Article 240-13, paragraph (1), item (ii) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act is deemed to be replaced with "the fact of being a provisional commodity derivatives intermediary service provider (meaning the provisional commodity derivatives intermediary service provider prescribed in Article 33, paragraph (1) of the Supplementary Provisions of the Act Partially Amending the Electricity Business Act (Act No. 72 of 2014))" and the phrase "revoke the commodity derivatives intermediary service provider's registration under Article 240-2, paragraph (1)" in Article 240-23, paragraph (1) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act is deemed to be replaced with "order the discontinuance of the specified commodity derivatives intermediation services (meaning the specified commodity derivatives intermediation services prescribed in Article 33, paragraph (1) of the Supplementary Provisions of the Act Partially Amending the Electricity Business Act)".

- (3) When a provisional commodity derivatives intermediary service operator that is an individual has been ordered to discontinue the specified commodity derivatives intermediation services pursuant to the provisions of Article 240-23, paragraph (1) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act as applied following the deemed replacement of terms under the provisions of the preceding paragraph, with regard to the application of the provisions of Article 240-5, item (i) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act, the relevant person is deemed to be a person falling under Article 15, paragraph (2), item (i), (f) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act for the period until the day on which five years have elapsed from the day on which the discontinuance was ordered.
- (4) When a provisional commodity derivatives intermediary service operator that is a corporation has been ordered to discontinue the specified commodity derivatives intermediation services pursuant to the provisions of Article 240-23, paragraph (1) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act as applied following the deemed replacement of terms under the provisions of paragraph (2), with regard to the application of the provisions of Article 240-5, item (ii) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act, the provisional commodity derivatives intermediary service operator that is the corporation to which the discontinuance of the services was ordered is deemed to be a person whose registration stated in Article 240-2, paragraph (1) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act was revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 240-23, paragraph (1) of the New Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act and the day on which the discontinuance was ordered is deemed to be the day on which the registration was revoked.

(Effects of Dispositions)

Article 38 A disposition, procedure or any other act rendered, taken or conducted pursuant to the provisions of laws before the enforcement of this Act (including orders based on it ; the same applies below in this Article), for which the relevant laws amended by this Act have equivalent provisions, is deemed to have been rendered, taken or conducted pursuant to the equivalent provisions of those laws amended by this Act, unless otherwise provided for in these Supplementary Provisions.

(Transitional Measures for Penal Provisions)

Article 39 Prior laws continue to govern the applicability of penal provisions to acts committed before the effective date and acts committed on or after the effective date when prior laws continue to govern pursuant to the provisions of these Supplementary Provisions.

(Delegation to Cabinet Order)

Article 40 (1) Beyond what is provided for in Article 2 to the preceding Article, Article 44, Article 47, Article 57, Article 59, Article 61, Article 68, and Article 70 of the Supplementary Provisions, transitional measures necessary for the enforcement of this Act (including transitional measures concerning penal provisions) are specified by Cabinet Order

Act Prescribing Adjustments to the Relevant Acts to Coordinate with the Enforcement of the Act Partially Amending the Companies Act (Act No. 91 of June 27, 2014) [Extract]

(Transitional Measures upon Partial Amendment of the Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act)

- Article 95 (1) With regard to the shares issued upon entity conversion (meaning the shares issued upon entity conversion prescribed in Article 129, item (i) of the Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act before the amendment pursuant to the provisions of the preceding Article (referred to as the "Former Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act" in this Article below) in cases where an entity conversion plan stated in Article 122, paragraph (1) of the Former Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act has been approved before the effective date, the provisions of Article 131-7 of the Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act after the amendment pursuant to the provisions of the preceding Article do not apply.
- (2) Prior laws continue to govern an absorption-type merger or a consolidation-type merger prescribed in Article 139, paragraph (2) of the Former Commodity Derivatives Transaction Act for which a merger contract has been entered into before the effective date.

(Transitional Measures Concerning Penal Provisions)

Article 117 Prior laws continue to govern the applicability of penal provisions to acts committed before the effective date and acts committed on or after the effective date in cases where prior laws continue to govern pursuant to the provisions of this Act.

(Delegation to Cabinet Order)

Article 118 Beyond what is provided for in this Act, transitional measures necessary for the enforcement of this Act are specified by Cabinet Order.
