(Content of a Contract That Replaces a Business Security Deposit)

Article 13-3 If a life insurance company, etc. engaged in insurance proceeds trust business (meaning the insurance proceeds trust business as prescribed in Article 99, paragraph (3) of the Act; the same applies below; the term "life insurance company, etc. engaged in insurance proceeds trust business" means a life insurance company or a foreign life insurance company, etc. (including an underwriting member of a person that has obtained a specified life insurance business license as referred to in Article 219, paragraph (4) of the Act and that is deemed to be a foreign life insurance company, etc. pursuant to the provisions of Article 240, paragraph (1), item (i) of the Act) that engages in insurance proceeds trust business; the same applies below) concludes a contract as prescribed in Article 11, paragraph (3) of the Trust Business Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 99, paragraph (8) of the Act, the company must have a bank or other financial institution specified by Cabinet Office Order as the other party to that contract, and the terms and conditions of the contract must satisfy the following requirements:

- (i) that, when an order of the Prime Minister under Article 11, paragraph (4) of the Trust Business Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 99, paragraph (8) of the Act has been issued, the business security deposit in the amount so ordered is to be deposited without delay on behalf of the life insurance company, etc. engaged in insurance proceeds trust business;

- (ii) that the contract is effective for a period of one year or longer; and
- (iii) that the contract may not be canceled, and the terms and conditions of the contract may not be changed, unless approved by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency.

(Procedures for the Enforcement of Rights in Connection with Business Security Deposits)

Article 13-4 (1) A person who holds rights pursuant to Article 11, paragraph (6) of the Trust Business Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 99, paragraph (8) of the Act (simply referred to below as "rights" in this Article) may file a petition for the enforcement of the rights with the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency.

(2) If a petition referred to in the preceding paragraph is filed, and the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency finds the petition to have reasonable grounds, the Commissioner must issue a public notice notifying persons who have a right to the business security deposit that they must declare their rights within a fixed period of time not shorter than 60 days and that they are to be excluded from the distribution process if they fail to declare their rights within that period, and the Commissioner must also notify the person who filed the petition under the preceding paragraph (referred to below as the "petitioner" in this Article) and the depositor (if the depositor has deposited the full amount of the business security deposit under Article 11, paragraph (1) of the Trust Business Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 99, paragraph (8) of the Act on behalf of a life insurance company, etc. engaged in insurance proceeds trust business based on the contract referred to in paragraph (3) of that Article and in response to the order issued under paragraph (4) of that Article, including the life insurance company, etc. engaged in insurance proceeds trust business; the same applies in paragraphs (4) and (5)) of that fact.

(3) Once the public notice under the preceding paragraph is given, even if the petitioner withdraws a petition, this does not prevent the procedures from proceeding.

(4) The Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency must assess the rights without delay after the period of time referred to in paragraph (2) has elapsed. In this case, the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency must give public notice of the date and place in advance, and notify the depositor of the information, and provide the petitioner, the person who has declared their rights within the designated period, and the depositor with an opportunity to present evidence and state their opinions as to the existence of the rights and the amount of the claims secured by the rights.

- (5) The Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency must, without delay, prepare a distribution list based on the results of the assessment under the preceding paragraph, give public notice of the list, and notify the depositor of that list.
- (6) The distribution is to be implemented in accordance with the distribution list referred to in the preceding paragraph, after 110 days have elapsed since the day on which the public notice under the preceding paragraph was given.
- (7) If securities (including book-entry transfer bonds as defined in Article 278, paragraph (1) of the Act on Book-Entry Transfer of Corporate Bonds and Shares (Act No. 75 of 2001); the same applies below) have been deposited, and if it is necessary for the enforcement of the rights, the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency may realize the securities. In this case, the expenses incurred in relation to the realization of the securities are deducted from the proceeds of the realization.

(Recovery of Business Security Deposits)

Article 13-5 (1) A life insurance company, etc. engaged in insurance proceeds trust business, its successor, or the person that has deposited the business security deposit on behalf of the life insurance company, etc. engaged in insurance proceeds trust business may recover the full amount of the business security deposit it has deposited, with the approval of the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency, when it comes to fall under any of the cases stated in the following items:

- (i) when the life insurance company, etc. engaged in insurance proceeds trust business has relocated its head office, etc. (meaning its head office or principal office for an insurance company; meaning its principal branch in Japan as defined in Article 187, paragraph (1), item (iv) of the Act; and meaning its principal branch in Japan as defined in Article 220, paragraph (1), item (v) of the Act; the same applies in Article 47, paragraphs (1) through (3)), thereby resulting in a change to the official depository as prescribed in Article 11, paragraph (1) of the Trust Business Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 99, paragraph (8) of the Act, and when the full amount of the business security deposit is deposited with the new official depository;
- (ii) when any of the following cases applies and the transfer of the trust property to the new trustee or assignment of trust property to its right holder is completed:
 - (a) when the license referred to in Article 3, paragraph (1) of the Act has been revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 133 or Article 134 of the

- Act;
- (b) when the license referred to in Article 185, paragraph (1) of the Act has been revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 205 or Article 206 of the Act;
 - (c) when the license referred to in Article 219, paragraph (1) of the Act has been revoked pursuant to the provisions of Article 231 or Article 232 of the Act;
 - (d) when the license referred to in Article 219, paragraph (1) of the Act has ceased to be effective pursuant to the provisions of Article 236 of the Act;
 - or
 - (e) when the license referred to in Article 3, paragraph (1) or Article 185, paragraph (1) of the Act has ceased to be effective pursuant to the provisions of Article 273 of the Act.
- (2) If a life insurance company, etc. engaged in insurance proceeds trust business concludes a contract as prescribed in Article 11, paragraph (3) of the Trust Business Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 99, paragraph (8) of the Act, or makes any changes to the content of the contract, and notifies the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency of this, and if the amount of the business security deposit (including the contract amount (meaning the contract amount as defined in Article 11, paragraph (3); the same applies below in this paragraph)) for the life insurance company, etc. engaged in insurance proceeds trust business exceeds the amount required to be deposited pursuant to paragraphs (1) and (2) of that Article, the life insurance company, etc. engaged in insurance proceeds trust business or the person that has deposited the business security deposit on behalf of the life insurance company, etc. engaged in insurance proceeds trust business may recover all or part of the amount exceeding the deposited amount, only to the extent of the amount obtained after deducting the contract amount from the business security deposit, with the approval of the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency.

(Special Provisions on Conditionally Licensed Foreign Life Insurance Companies)

Article 22 (1) For the purpose of application of the provisions of Article 195 of the Act in relation to a foreign insurance company, etc. licensed pursuant to Article 185, paragraph (1) of the Act under the conditions referred to in Article 188, paragraph (1) of the Act (referred to below as a "conditionally licensed foreign life insurance company, etc." in this Article and Article 24), the terms "for each business year" and "within a reasonable period of time following the end of the business year" in that Article are deemed to be replaced with "for each business year designated by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency as found necessary by the Commissioner" and "no later than the date designated by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency", respectively.

(2) For the purpose of application of the provisions of Article 110, paragraph (1) of the Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 199 of the Act in relation to a conditionally licensed foreign life insurance company, etc., the term "for each business year in Japan" in that paragraph is deemed to be replaced with "for each business year in Japan that is designated by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency as found necessary by the Commissioner".

(3) For the purpose of application of the provisions of Article 203 of the Act in relation to a conditionally licensed foreign life insurance company, etc., the term "Article 187, paragraph (3), items (ii) through (iv)" in that Article is deemed to be replaced with "Article 187, paragraph (3), item (ii)".

(4) For the purpose of application of provisions of Articles 123 through 125 of the Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 207 of the Act to cases where a conditionally licensed foreign insurance company, etc. seeks to change the particulars specified in the document stated in Article 187, paragraph (3), item (ii) of the Act, the phrase "the documents stated in Article 187, paragraph (3), items (ii) through (iv)" in Article 123, paragraph (1) of the Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 207 of the Act is deemed to be replaced with "the documents stated in Article 187, paragraph (3), item (ii)"; the phrases "particulars stated in each of the following items" and "standards prescribed in each item" in Article 124 of the Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 207 of the Act are deemed to be replaced with "particulars stated in item (i)" and "standards prescribed in that item", respectively; the phrase "the documents stated in Article 187, paragraph (3), items (ii) and (iii)" in item (i)" in that Article is deemed to be replaced with "the documents stated in Article 187, paragraph (3), item (ii)"; and the phrase "the standards stated in Article 5, paragraph (1), item (iii), (a) through (e) of or item (iv), (a) through (c)" in Article 125 of the Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 207 of the Act are deemed to be replaced with "the standards stated in Article 5, paragraph (1), item (iii), (a) through (e)".

(Special Provisions on License Application Procedures)

Article 23 (1) When the provisions of Article 188, paragraph (1) of the Act apply, a foreign insurer filing an application for a license under Article 185, paragraph (1) of the Act (referred to below as "application for a conditional license" in this Article) must, in addition to the particulars listed in the items of Article 187, paragraph (1) of the Act, add a statement in its written application for a license under that paragraph, to the effect that its business will be limited to that related to insurance contracts in which the amounts of insurance proceeds are denominated in foreign currencies and the other parties to the contracts are the parties specified in Article 20.

(2) For the purpose of application of the provisions of Article 187, paragraph (3) of the Act in relation to a foreign insurer filing an application for a conditional license, the term "the following documents" in that paragraph is deemed to be replaced with "the documents stated in items (i) and (ii)".

(3) For the purpose of application of the provisions of Article 5, paragraph (1) of the Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 187, paragraph (5) of the Act where an application for a conditional license has been filed, the term "the following standards" in the provisions other than that of each item listed in that paragraph is deemed to be replaced with "the standards stated in items (i) through (iii)"; and the term "Article 187, paragraph (3), items (ii) and (iii)" in item (iii) of that paragraph is deemed to be replaced with "Article 187, paragraph (3), item (ii)".

(Amount to Be Deposited by a Foreign Insurance Company)

Article 24 The amount specified by Cabinet Order as prescribed in Article 190, paragraph (1) of the Act is two hundred million yen for a foreign insurance company, etc. (excluding a conditionally licensed foreign insurance company, etc.); and ten million yen for a conditionally licensed foreign insurance company, etc.

(Content of a Contract in Lieu of All or Part of Deposit)

Article 25 If a foreign insurance company, etc. concludes a contract referred to in Article 190, paragraph (3) of the Act, the company must have a bank or other financial institution specified by Cabinet Office Order as the other party to that contract, and the terms and conditions of the contract must satisfy the following requirements:

- (i) that, when an order of the Prime Minister under Article 190, paragraph (4) of the Act has been issued, deposit in the amount specified by the order will be deposited without delay on behalf of the foreign insurance company, etc.;
- (ii) that the contract is effective for a period of one year or longer; and
- (iii) that the contract may not be canceled, and the terms and conditions of the contract may not be changed, unless the company has obtained approval from the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency.

(Procedures for the Enforcement of Rights)

Article 26 (1) A person who holds rights under Article 190, paragraph (6) of the Act (simply referred to below as the "rights" in this Article through Article 28) may file a petition for the enforcement of the rights with the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency.

- (2) When a petition referred to in the preceding paragraph is filed, and if the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency finds the petition to have reasonable grounds, the Commissioner must issue a public notice notifying persons who have a right to the deposit deposited pursuant to the provisions of Article 190, paragraph (1), (2), (4) or (8) of the Act that they must declare their rights within a fixed period of time not shorter than 60 days and that they will be excluded from the distribution process if they fail to declare their rights within that period, and must also notify the person who filed the petition referred to in the preceding paragraph (referred to as the "petitioner" in the following paragraph and paragraph (4)) and the foreign insurance company, etc. for which the deposit was made (if the foreign insurance company, etc. has concluded a contract referred to in Article 190, paragraph (3) of the Act, including the other party to the contract; the same applies in paragraphs (4) and (5)) of that fact.
- (3) Once the public notice under the preceding paragraph has been given, even if the petitioner withdraws the petition, this does not prevent the process for the enforcement of the rights from proceeding.
- (4) The Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency must assess the rights without delay after the period referred to in paragraph (2) has elapsed. In this case, the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency must give public notice of the date and place in advance, and notify the foreign insurance company, etc. of the information, and provide the petitioner, the person who has declared their rights within the designated period, and the foreign insurance company, etc. with an opportunity to present evidence and state their opinions as to the existence of the rights and the amount of the claims secured by the rights.

- (5) The Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency must, without delay, prepare a distribution list based on the results of the assessment under the preceding paragraph, give public notice of the list, and notify the foreign insurance company, etc. of that list.
- (6) The distribution must be implemented in accordance with the distribution list, after 110 days have elapsed since the day that the public notice under the preceding paragraph was given .

(Return of Deposits)

Article 27 (1) A person who has deposited a deposit under Article 190, paragraph (10) of the Act (referred to as the "depositor" in the following paragraph) may, if any of the items of paragraph (10) of that Article applies, file a petition for return of the deposit under that paragraph (referred to below as "return of the deposit" in this Article) with the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency; provided, however, that this does not apply to the period during which the procedures for the enforcement of rights under the preceding Article are still pending.

- (2) When a petition referred to in the preceding paragraph is filed, and if there is any other depositor in connection with the deposit in addition to the depositor who has filed the petition, the petition for return of the deposit is deemed to have been filed for the relevant other depositor as well.
- (3) When a petition referred to in paragraph (1) is filed, the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency must issue a public notice notifying persons who have a right to the deposits that they must declare their rights within a fixed period of time not shorter than 60 days and that they will be excluded from the distribution process if they fail to declare their rights within that period, and also notify the person that formerly was the foreign insurance company, etc. for which the deposit was made (if that person has concluded a contract under Article 190, paragraph (3) of the Act, the other party to the contract is included) of this.
- (4) When no declaration has been made with respect to the rights within the period of time specified in the preceding paragraph, the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency is to approve the return of the deposit.
- (5) The provisions of paragraphs (4) through (6) of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to cases where rights have been declared within the period referred to in paragraph (3). In this case, the term "paragraph (2)" in paragraph (4) of the preceding Article is deemed to be replaced with "paragraph (3) of the following Article"; the term "notify the foreign insurance company, etc. of the information, and provide the petitioner" in that paragraph is deemed to be replaced with "notify the party who was formerly the foreign insurance company, etc. related to the deposit (where that party has concluded a contract referred to in Article 190, paragraph (3) of the Act, the counterparty to that contract is included; referred to below as the "parties relevant to the deposit" in paragraph (3) and the following paragraph), and provide"; the term "and the foreign insurance company, etc." is deemed to be replaced with "and the parties relevant to the deposit"; and the term "the foreign insurance company, etc." in paragraph (5) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "the parties relevant to the deposit".

- (6) When rights have been declared within the period referred to in paragraph (3), the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency is to approve the return of the deposit, only to the extent of the amount that remains after completion of the procedures under paragraphs (4) through (6) of the preceding Article as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the preceding paragraphs.

(Realization of Securities in Lieu of Deposits)

Article 28 If securities have been deposited pursuant to the provisions of Article 190, paragraph (9) of the Act, and if it is necessary for enforcement of the rights, the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency may realize the securities. In this case, the expenses incurred in relation to the realization of those securities are deducted from the proceeds of the realization.

(Scope of Parent Financial Institutions and Subsidiary Financial Institutions)

Article 28-2 (1) The entities specified by Cabinet Order as prescribed in Article 193-2, paragraph (2) of the Act are the following entities:

- (i) the parent corporation, etc. of the foreign insurance company, etc.;
- (ii) a subsidiary corporation, etc. of the parent corporation, etc. of the foreign insurance company, etc. (excluding the foreign insurance company, etc. itself and entities stated in the preceding item and paragraph (3), item (i));
- (iii) an affiliated corporation, etc. of the parent corporation, etc. of the foreign insurance company, etc. (excluding an entity stated in paragraph (3), item (ii));
- (iv) the following company, partnership, or any other equivalent business entity (including equivalent entities in foreign states, and excluding the foreign insurance company, etc. itself and entities stated in the preceding three items and the items of paragraph (3); referred to below as a "corporation, etc." in this item) that is associated with an individual who holds voting rights exceeding fifty percent of all shareholders' voting rights in the foreign insurance company, etc. (referred to below as a "specified individual shareholder, etc." in this item):

- (a) a corporation, etc. in which a specified individual shareholder, etc. holds voting rights exceeding fifty percent of all shareholders' voting rights (including a subsidiary corporation, etc. and an affiliated corporation, etc. of the corporation, etc.); or
 - (b) a corporation, etc. in which the specified individual shareholder, etc. holds voting rights that are at least twenty percent and up to fifty percent of all shareholders' voting rights.
- (2) The entities specified by Cabinet Order as persons engaged in financial business as prescribed in Article 193-2, paragraph (2) of the Act are the entities stated in the items of Article 13-8, paragraph (2) (excluding items (iv), (vi) and (vii)).
- (3) The entities specified by Cabinet Order as prescribed in Article 193-2, paragraph (3) of the Act are the following entities:
- (i) a subsidiary corporation, etc. of the foreign insurance company, etc.; and
 - (ii) an affiliated corporation, etc. of the foreign insurance company, etc.

(Amount to Be Deposited by a Licensed Specified Corporation)

Article 31 The amount specified by Cabinet Order as prescribed in Article 223, paragraph (1) of the Act is two hundred million yen.

(Content of a Contract In Lieu of All or Part of Deposit)

Article 32 When a licensed specified corporation concludes a contract referred to in Article 223, paragraph (3) of the Act, the corporation must have a bank or other financial institution specified by Cabinet Office Order as the other party of the contract, and the term and conditions of the contract must satisfy the following requirements:

- (i) that, when an order by the Prime Minister under Article 223, paragraph (4) of the Act has been issued, deposit in the amount specified by the order is to be deposited without delay on behalf of the licensed specified corporation;
- (ii) that the contract is effective for a period of one year or longer; and
- (iii) that the contract may not be canceled, and the terms and conditions of the contract may not be changed, unless approved by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency.

(Procedures for the Enforcement of Rights)

Article 33 (1) A person who holds the rights referred to in Article 223, paragraph (6) of the Act (simply referred to below as the "rights" in this Article through Article 35) may file a petition for the enforcement of the rights with the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency.

- (2) When a petition referred to in the preceding paragraph is filed, and if the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency finds the petition to have reasonable grounds, the Commissioner must give a public notice notifying persons who have a right to the deposits deposited pursuant to the provisions of Article 223, paragraph (1), (2), (4) or (9) of the Act that they must declare their rights within a fixed period of time not shorter than 60 days and that they will be excluded from the distribution process if they fail to declare their rights within that period, and also notify the person who filed the petition referred to in the preceding paragraph (referred to as the "petitioner" in the following paragraph and paragraph (4)) and the licensed specified corporation for which the deposit was made (if the licensed specified corporation has concluded a contract under Article 223, paragraph (3) of the Act, including the counterparty to that contract; the same applies in paragraphs (4) and (5)) of that fact.
- (3) Once the public notice under the preceding paragraph is given, even if the petitioner withdraws a petition, this does not prevent the procedures for the enforcement of the rights from proceeding.
- (4) The Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency must assess the rights without delay after the period referred to in paragraph (2) has elapsed. In this case, the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency must give public notice of the date and place in advance, and notify the licensed specified corporation of the information, and provide the petitioner, the person who has declared their rights within the designated period, and the licensed specified corporation with an opportunity to present evidence and state their opinions as to the existence of the rights and the amount of the claims secured by the rights.

- (5) The Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency must, without delay, prepare a distribution list based on the results of the assessment under the preceding paragraph, give public notice of the list, and notify the licensed specified corporation of that list.
- (6) The distribution must be implemented in accordance with the distribution list under the preceding paragraph after 110 days have elapsed since the day that the public notice under the preceding paragraph was given.

(Return of Deposits)

- Article 34 (1) A person who has deposited deposits specified in the provisions of Article 223, paragraph (11) of the Act (referred to below as the "depositor" in the following paragraph) may, if any of the items of paragraph (11) of that Article applies, file a petition for the return of the deposit under that paragraph (referred to below as the "return of the deposit" in this Article) with the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency; provided, however, that this does not apply during the period when the procedures for enforcement of the rights under the preceding Article are still pending.
- (2) When a petition referred to in the preceding paragraph is filed, and if there is any other depositor in connection to the deposit in addition to the depositor who has filed the petition, the petition for the return of the deposit is deemed to have been filed by the relevant other depositor as well.
 - (3) When a petition referred to in paragraph (1) is filed, the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency must issue a public notice notifying persons who have a right to the deposit that they must declare their rights within a fixed period of time not shorter than 60 days and that they will be excluded from the distribution process if they fail to declare their rights within that period, and also notify the person that was formerly the licensed specified corporation for which the deposit was made (if that person has concluded a contract referred to in Article 223, paragraph (3) of the Act, including the other party to the contract).
 - (4) If no rights have been declared within the period of time specified in the preceding paragraph, the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency is to approve the return of the deposit.
 - (5) The provisions of paragraphs (4) through (6) of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to the case in which rights have been declared within the period of time referred to in paragraph (3). In this case, the term "paragraph (2)" in paragraph (4) of the preceding Article is deemed to be replaced with "paragraph (3) of the following Article"; the phrase "notify the licensed specified corporation of the information, and provide the petitioner" in that paragraph is deemed to be replaced with "notify the party that was formerly the licensed specified corporation for which the deposit was made (if that party has concluded a contract under Article 190, paragraph (3) of the Act, including the counterparty to that contract; referred to below as the "parties relevant to the deposit" in paragraph (3) and the following paragraph), and provide"; the term "and the licensed specified corporation" in that paragraph is deemed to be replaced with "and the parties relevant to the deposit"; and the term "the licensed specified corporation" in paragraph (5) of that Article is deemed to be replaced with "the parties relevant to the deposit".

- (6) If rights have been declared within the period under paragraph (3), the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency is to approve the return of the deposit, only to the extent of the amount remaining after completion of the procedures under paragraphs (4) through (6) of the preceding Article as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the preceding paragraph.

(Realization of Securities in Lieu of Deposits)

Article 35 When securities have been deposited pursuant to the provisions of Article 223, paragraph (10) of the Act, and if it is necessary for the enforcement of the rights, the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency may realize the securities. In this case, the expenses incurred in relation to the realization of those securities are deducted from the proceeds of the realization.

(Content of a Contract in Lieu of All or Part of Deposit)

Article 38-5 When a small amount and short term insurer concludes a contract referred to in Article 272-5, paragraph (3) of the Act, the insurer must have a bank or other financial institution specified by Cabinet Office Order as the other party to the contract, and the terms and conditions of the contract must satisfy the following requirements:

- (i) that, when any of the cases stated in the following sub-items come to apply, the deposit in connection with the order issued by the Prime Minister under Article 272-5, paragraph (4) of the Act (simply referred to below as the "order" in this item) is to be deposited without delay on behalf of the small amount and short term insurer:
 - (a) when an order has been issued within the period from commencement date of the small amount and short term insurer's business or the reference date, to the day before the first reference date that falls after either of the aforementioned dates; and
 - (b) when the small amount and short term insurer has failed to make the deposit under Article 272-5, paragraph (1) of the Act (including the conclusion of a contract referred to in paragraph (3) of that Article) even after the first reference date prescribed in (a), and the other party to the

- contract has been issued an order to make the deposit;
- (ii) that the contract will be effective for a period of one year or longer; and
 - (iii) that the contract may not be canceled, and the terms and conditions of the contract may not be changed, unless approved by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency.

(Procedures for the Enforcement of Rights)

- Article 38-6 (1) A person who holds the rights under Article 272-5, paragraph (6) of the Act (simply referred to below as the "rights" in this Article and the following Article) may file a petition for the enforcement of the rights with the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency.
- (2) When a petition referred to in the preceding paragraph is filed, and if the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency finds the petition to have reasonable grounds, the Commissioner must issue a public notice notifying the persons who have a right to the deposit deposited pursuant to the provisions of Article 272-5, paragraph (1), (2), (4) or (8) of the Act that they must declare their rights within a fixed period of time not shorter than 60 days and that they will be excluded from the distribution process if they fail to declare their rights within that period, and also notify the person who filed the petition under the preceding paragraph (referred to below as the "petitioner" in the following paragraph and paragraph (4)) and the small amount and short term insurer for which the deposit was made (if the small amount and short term insurer has concluded a contract under Article 272-5, paragraph (3) of the Act, including the other party to the contract; the same applies in paragraphs (4) and (5)) of that fact.
 - (3) Once the public notice under the preceding paragraph is given, even if the petitioner withdraws a petition, this does not prevent the procedures for the enforcement of the rights from proceeding.
 - (4) The Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency must assess the rights without delay after the period referred to in paragraph (2) has elapsed. In this case, the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency must give public notice of the date and place in advance, and notify the small amount and short term insurer of the information, and provide the petitioner, the person who has declared their rights within the designated period, and the small amount and short term insurer with an opportunity to present evidence and state their opinions as to the existence of the rights and the amount of the claims secured by the rights.
 - (5) The Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency, without delay, must prepare a distribution list based on the results of the assessment under the preceding paragraph, give public notice of the list, and notify the small amount and short term insurer of that list.

- (6) Distribution must be implemented in accordance with the distribution list, after 110 days have elapsed since the day public notice under the preceding paragraph was given.
- (7) When securities have been deposited pursuant to the provisions of Article 272-5, paragraph (9) of the Act, and if it is necessary for the enforcement of the rights, the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency may realize the securities. In this case, the expenses incurred in relation to the realization of the securities are deducted from the proceeds of the realization.

(Return of Deposits)

- Article 38-7 (1) A person who has deposited deposits pursuant to the provisions of Article 272-5, paragraph (10) of the Act (referred to as the "depositor" in the following paragraph) may file a petition for the return of the deposit under that paragraph (referred to below as the "return of the deposit" in this Article) with the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency, if any of the items of paragraph (10) of that Article applies; provided, however, that this does not apply to the period during which the procedures for enforcement of the rights under the preceding Article are still pending.
- (2) When a petition referred to in the preceding paragraph is filed, and if , there is any other depositor in connection to the deposit in addition to the depositor who has filed the petition, the petition for the return of the deposit is deemed to have been filed by the relevant other depositor as well.
 - (3) When a petition referred to in paragraph (1) is filed, the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency must issue a public notice notifying persons who have a right to the deposits that they must declare their rights within a fixed period of time not shorter than 60 days and that they will be excluded from the distribution process if they fail to declare their rights within that period, and also notify the party that was formerly the small amount and short term insurer for which the deposit was made (if the relevant party has concluded a contract under Article 272-5, paragraph (3) of the Act, including the other party to the contract) of that fact.
 - (4) If no rights have been declared within the period specified in the preceding paragraph, the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency is to approve the return of the deposit.
 - (5) The provisions of paragraphs (4) through (6) of the preceding Article apply mutatis mutandis to the case in which rights have been declared within the period specified in paragraph (3). In this case, the terms specified in the middle column of the following table as referred to in the provisions specified in the left column are deemed to be replaced with the terms listed in the right column of the table.

Article 38-6, paragraph (4)	paragraph (2)	paragraph (3) of the following Article must give public notice of the date and place in advance, and notify the small amount and short term insurer of the information, and provide the petitioner,	must give public notice of the date and place in advance, and notify the person who was formerly the small amount and short term insurer for which the deposit was made (if that person has concluded a contract under Article 272-5, paragraph (3) of the Act, the other party to the contract is included; referred to below as the "parties relevant to the deposit" in this paragraph and the following paragraph), and provide the
	and the small amount and short term insurer	and the parties relevant to the deposit
Article 38-6, paragraph (5)	the small amount and short term insurer	the parties relevant to the deposit

(6) If rights have been declared within the period referred to in paragraph (3), the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency is to approve the return of the deposit, only to the extent of the amount remaining after completion of the procedures under paragraphs (4) through (6) of the preceding Article as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to the preceding paragraphs.

(Content of a Small Amount and Short-Term Insurance Company's Liability Insurance Contract In Lieu of Part of Deposit)

(Insurance Contracts Related to Foreign Insurers Other Than a Foreign Insurance Company, for Which Insurance Solicitation by Insurance Brokers is Allowed)

Article 39-2 The insurance contracts specified by Cabinet Order as prescribed in Article 275, paragraph (1), item (iv) of the Act, are to be insurance contracts stated in Article 19, items (i) through (iii) and other insurance contracts specified by Cabinet Office Order.

(Registration Fees)

Article 39-3 (1) The amount specified by Cabinet Order as prescribed in Article 281 of the Act, is as follows: 1,150 yen for a life insurance agent; 1,700 yen for a non-life insurance representative; and 1,150 yen for a small amount and short term insurance agent.

(2) The fees referred to in the preceding paragraph must be paid by a revenue stamp equivalent to the amount of the fees affixed on the written application for registration.

(Cases Excluded from Restrictions Imposed on Life Insurance Agents)

Article 40 The cases specified by Cabinet Order as prescribed in Article 282, paragraph (3) of the Act, are as follows:

- (i) cases in which, among the life insurance agent and its employees (if the life insurance agent is a corporation (including an association or a foundation that is not a corporation but for which a representative or an administrator has been designated), this means its officers (including a representative or an administrator of an association or a foundation that is not a corporation) and employees), there is a person who has acquired knowledge, etc. that is required for carrying out business in connection with insurance solicitation on behalf of two or more affiliated insurance companies, etc. in an appropriate and fair manner, or a person who has been specified by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency as a person who is able to manage the business in an appropriate manner;
- (ii) the case in which the life insurance agent comes to have two or more affiliated insurance companies, etc. by making a person specified by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency as a life insurance company (including a foreign life insurance company, etc.) that is closely related to the life insurance agent, its affiliated insurance company, etc., and where the case has been specified by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency as a case in which the life insurance agent is found to be placed in a situation where the agent can execute business in connection with insurance solicitation it engages in on behalf of the two or more affiliated insurance companies, etc. in a precise and fair manner.

(Amount of Security Deposits)

Article 41 The amount of security deposits specified by Cabinet Order as prescribed in Article 291, paragraph (2) of the Act, is to be twenty million yen; provided, however, that on or after the day when three months has elapsed since the last day of an insurance broker's first business year, the amount of the security deposits for the period between the day on which three months have elapsed since the day the insurance broker's first business year commenced (referred to below as the "reference date" in the following Article and Article 44) and the day when three months has elapsed since the day on which each of the relevant business years end is to be the amount equivalent to the total of fees, remuneration and any other consideration received by the insurance broker in connection with intermediation for the conclusion of insurance contracts in the three years before the day preceding the day on which each business year begins (if the total amount is less than twenty million yen, the amount of the security deposits is to be twenty million yen; and if the total amount exceeds eight hundred million yen, the amount of the security deposit is to be eight hundred million yen).

(Content of a Contract In Lieu of All or Part of Deposit)

Article 42 When an insurance broker concludes a contract as referred to in Article 291, paragraph (3) of the Act, the insurance broker must have a bank or other financial institution specified by Cabinet Office Order as the other party to the contract, and the terms and conditions of the contract must satisfy the following requirements:

- (i) that, when the case comes to fall under the following cases, the deposit in connection with the order issued by the Prime Minister under Article 291, paragraph (4) of the Act (simply referred to below as the "order" in this item) on behalf of the insurance broker is to be deposited without delay:
 - (a) when an order has been received within the period of time from the commencement date of the insurance broker's business or the reference date, to the date before the first reference date that falls after either of the aforementioned dates;
 - (b) when the insurance broker has failed to make the deposit referred to in Article 291, paragraph (1) of the Act (including the conclusion of a contract referred to in paragraph (3) of that Article) even after the first reference date that falls after the dates referred to in (a), and the other party to the contract has been issued an order to make the deposit;
- (ii) that the contract may not be canceled, and the terms and conditions of the contract may not be changed, unless approved by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency.

(Procedures for the Enforcement of Rights)

Article 43 (1) A person who holds the rights referred to in Article 291, paragraph (6) of the Act (simply referred to below as the "rights" in this Article) may file a petition for the enforcement of the rights with the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency.

- (2) When a petition referred to in the preceding paragraph is filed, and if the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency finds the petition to have reasonable grounds, the Commissioner must issue a public notice notifying persons who have a right to the amount deposited pursuant to the provisions of Article 291, paragraph (1), (2), (4) or (8) of the Act that they must declare their rights within a fixed period of time not shorter than 60 days and that they will be excluded from the distribution process if they fail to declare their rights within that period, and also notify the person who filed the petition under the preceding paragraph (referred to as the "petitioner" in the following paragraph and paragraph (4)) and the insurance broker for which the deposit was made (if the insurance broker has concluded a contract under Article 291, paragraph (3) of the Act, including the other party to the contract; the same applies in paragraphs (4) and (5)) of that fact.

- (3) Once the public notice under the preceding paragraph is given, even if the petitioner withdraws a petition, this does not prevent the procedures for the enforcement of the rights from proceeding.
- (4) The Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency must assess the rights without delay after the period referred to in paragraph (2) has elapsed. In this case, the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency must give public notice of the date and place in advance, and notify the insurance broker of the information, and provide the petitioner, the person who has declared their rights within the designated period, and the insurance broker with an opportunity to present evidence and to state their opinions as to the existence of the rights and the amount of the claims secured by the rights.
- (5) The Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency must, without delay, prepare a distribution list based on the results of the assessment under the preceding paragraph, give public notice of the list, and notify the insurance broker of that list.
- (6) Distribution is to be implemented in accordance with the distribution list referred to in the preceding paragraph, after 110 days have elapsed since the public notice under the preceding paragraph was given.
- (7) If the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency is unable to ascertain the location of the office of the insurance broker, the Commissioner is not required to give the notice under paragraphs (2), (4) and (5) to the insurance broker.
- (8) When securities have been deposited pursuant to the provisions of Article 291, paragraph (9) of the Act, and if it is necessary for enforcement of the rights, the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency may realize the securities. In this case, the expenses incurred in connection to the realization of securities are deducted from the proceeds of the realization.

(Content of an Insurance Broker Liability Insurance Contract In Lieu of Part of Security Deposit)

Article 44 (1) When an insurance broker concludes an insurance broker liability insurance contract referred to in Article 292, paragraph (1) of the Act (referred to as a "liability insurance contract" in the following paragraph), the insurance broker must have a non-life insurance company or any other entity specified by Cabinet Office Order as the other party to the contract, and the terms and conditions of the contract must satisfy the following requirements:

- (i) that, when the insurance broker has incurred any liability to compensate for damage in connection with the intermediation for the conclusion of insurance contracts, losses it incurs through the compensation of damage due to specific grounds (referred to as "losses due to specific grounds" in the following item) will be covered; and
 - (ii) that, when the loss that will be covered is limited to the case where the amount of loss due to specific grounds exceeds a fixed amount of money and the covered loss will be the portion of the loss that exceeds the fixed amount of money, the fixed amount is not more than the amount specified by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency in consideration of the insurance broker's business status and the protection of policyholders, etc.;
 - (iii) that the contract will remain in effect for a period of one year or longer starting from the commencement date of the insurance broker's business or the reference date; and
 - (iv) that the contract may not be canceled, and the terms and conditions of the contract may not be changed, unless approved by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency; and
 - (v) any other requirements specified by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency.
- (2) The amount that the Prime Minister may approve as the portion of the security deposit referred to in Article 291, paragraph (1) of the Act that the insurance broker who has concluded a liability insurance contract need not deposit, is limited to the amount equivalent to the amount obtained by deducting twenty million yen from the deposit amount.

(Means of Using Information and Communication Technology to Indicate the Name of an Insurance Broker)

Article 44-2 (1) When an insurance broker seeks to provide the information prescribed in Article 294, paragraph (5) of the Act pursuant to the provisions of that paragraph, the insurance broker must, in advance and pursuant to the provisions of Cabinet Office Order, indicate to the customer the type and details of the means prescribed in that paragraph that it will use (referred to below as "electronic or magnetic means" in this Article) and obtain consent of the customer in writing or by electronic or magnetic means.

(2) If an insurance broker that has obtained the consent under the preceding paragraph is notified in writing or by electronic or magnetic means that the customer refuses to receive the information by electronic or magnetic means, the insurance broker must not provide the customer with the information prescribed in Article 294, paragraph (5) of the Act by electronic or magnetic means; provided, however, that this does not apply when the customer has given consent under the preceding paragraph again.

(Provision of Information by Use of Information and Communication Technology)

- (8) The authority stated in items (ii) and (iii) of the preceding paragraph may be exercised not only by the Director-General of the Local Finance Bureau or the Director-General of the Fukuoka Local Finance Branch Bureau specified in that paragraph but also by the Director-General of the Local Finance Bureau with jurisdiction over the locality of the principal office, etc. of the major shareholder of a small amount and short term insurer (or by the Director-General of the Fukuoka Local Finance Branch Bureau, if the locality is within the district under the jurisdiction of the Fukuoka Local Finance Branch Bureau).
- (9) The authority specified in paragraph (7), items (ii) and (iii) in relation to the secondary office, etc. of the major shareholder of a small amount and short term insurer may be exercised not only by the Director-General of the Local Finance Bureau or the Director-General of the Fukuoka Local Finance Branch

Bureau specified in the preceding two paragraphs but also by the Director-General of the Local Finance Bureau with jurisdiction over the locality of the secondary office, etc. (or by the Director-General of the Fukuoka Local Finance Branch Bureau, if the locality is within the district under the jurisdiction of the Fukuoka Local Finance Branch Bureau).

- (10) In applying the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs, regarding a major shareholder of a small amount and short term insurer (including a person who was formerly a major shareholder of a small amount and short term insurer, and limited to a foreign national or a foreign corporation; the same applies below in this paragraph) that has an office or any other facilities in Japan, its principal office, etc. in Japan is deemed to be its principal office, etc.; and regarding a major shareholder of a small amount and short term insurer that does not have an office or any other facilities in Japan, its principal office, etc. is deemed to be located in the district under the jurisdiction of the Kanto Local Finance Bureau.
- (11) The following Commissioner's authority is delegated to the Director-General of the Local Finance Bureau with jurisdiction over the locality of the head office of the small amount and short term insurer (or to the Director-General of the Fukuoka Local Finance Branch Bureau, if the locality is within the district under the jurisdiction of the Fukuoka Local Finance Branch Bureau):
- (i) approval under Article 272-35, paragraph (1) of the Act and the proviso to paragraph (3) of that Article;
 - (ii) acceptance of notifications under Article 272-35, paragraphs (2) and (4) of the Act;
 - (iii) acceptance of written applications for approval under Article 272-36, paragraph (1) of the Act;
 - (iv) approval under Article 272-38-2, paragraph (2) of the Act;
 - (v) approval under Article 272-39, paragraph (1) of the Act and the proviso to paragraph (4) of that Article;
 - (vi) acceptance of written applications under Article 272-39, paragraph (2) of the Act;
 - (vii) acceptance of notifications under Article 272-42, paragraph (2) of the Act;
 - (viii) approval under Article 271-33, paragraph (2), item (i) of the Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 272-43 of the Act; and
 - (ix) acceptance of notifications under the main text of Article 38-15 and approval under the proviso to that paragraph.
- (12) The following Commissioner's authority (excluding authority in relation to the small amount and short term insurer designated by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency) is delegated to the Director-General of the Local Finance Bureau with jurisdiction over the locality of the head office of a small amount and short term insurer (or to the Director-General of the Fukuoka Local Finance Branch Bureau, if the locality is within the district under the jurisdiction of the Fukuoka Local Finance Branch Bureau); provided, however, that this does not preclude the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency from personally exercising the authority stated in items (iii) and (iv):

- (i) orders under Article 272-35, paragraph (5) of the Act;
 - (ii) acceptance of business reports, etc. under Article 271-24, paragraph (1) of the Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 272-40, paragraph (1) of the Act;
 - (iii) request for the submission of reports and materials under Article 271-27 of the Act as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 272-40, paragraph (2) of the Act;
 - (iv) questioning and on-site inspections under Article 271-28, paragraphs (1) and (2) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 272-40, paragraph (2) of the Act;
 - (v) orders under Article 271-29, paragraphs (1) and (2) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 272-40, paragraph (2) of the Act; and
 - (vi) orders and the rescission of approval under Article 271-30, paragraphs (1) and (4) as applied mutatis mutandis pursuant to Article 272-40, paragraph (2) of the Act.
- (13) The authority stated in items (iii) and (iv) of the preceding paragraph may be exercised not only by the Director-General of the Local Finance Bureau or the Director-General of the Fukuoka Local Finance Branch Bureau specified in that paragraph but also by the Director-General of the Local Finance Bureau with jurisdiction over the locality of the principal office of the small amount and short term insurer (or by the Director-General of the Fukuoka Local Finance Branch Bureau, if the locality is within the district under the jurisdiction of the Fukuoka Local Finance Branch Bureau).
- (14) The authority specified in paragraph (12), items (iii) and (iv) in relation to the branch office, etc. (meaning the office or other facilities of a small amount and short term insurance holding company other than the principal office, a subsidiary corporation, etc. of a small amount and short term insurance holding company (meaning a "subsidiary corporation, etc." prescribed in Article 272-40, paragraph (2) of the Act, and including its facilities), or in relation to the entity that a small amount and short term insurance holding company has entrusted with its business (including entities entrusted from that entity (including entrustment at two or more degrees of separation from the original entrustment) and their facilities); the same applies below in this paragraph) may be exercised not only by the Director-General of the Local Finance Bureau or the Director-General of the Fukuoka Local Finance Branch Bureau specified in the preceding two paragraphs but also by the Director-General of the Local

Finance Bureau with jurisdiction over the locality of the branch office, etc. (or by the Director-General of the Fukuoka Local Finance Branch Bureau, if the locality is within the district under the jurisdiction of the Fukuoka Local Finance Branch Bureau).

- (15) Regarding a foreign holding company whose subsidiary companies include a small amount and short term insurer and that has an office in Japan, its principal office in Japan is deemed to be its principal office, and regarding a foreign holding company whose subsidiary companies include a small amount and short term insurer and that does not have an office in Japan, its principal office is deemed to be located in the district under the jurisdiction of the Kanto Local Finance Bureau, in applying the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs.
- (16) If the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency has made a designation under paragraphs (1), (3), (7), and (12), the Commissioner is to issue public notice in the Official Gazette of this. The same applies if the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency has rescinded the designation.

(Delegation of Authority Over Insurance Agents to the Director-Generals of Local Finance Bureaus and Other Officials)

Article 49 (1) The following Commissioner's authority is to be delegated to the Director-General of the Local Finance Bureau with jurisdiction over the locality of the principal office of the specified insurance agent (or to the Director-General of the Fukuoka Local Finance Branch Bureau, if the locality is within the district under the jurisdiction of the Fukuoka Local Finance Branch Bureau); provided, however, that this does not preclude the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency from personally exercising the authority stated in item (vii):

 - (vi) provision of opportunity to present evidence under Article 289, paragraph (2) of the Act;
 - (vii) orders for deposits under Article 291, paragraph (4) and Article 292, paragraph (2) of the Act;
 - (viii) approval under Article 291, paragraph (10) and Article 292, paragraph (1) of the Act;
 - (ix) designation under Article 291, paragraph (11) of the Act;
 - (x) orders for the submission of reports and materials under Article 305, paragraphs (1) and (2) of the Act, and on-site inspections and questioning

- under that Article;
 - (xi) orders under Article 306 of the Act;
 - (xii) revocation of registrations under Article 307, paragraph (1) of the Act, and orders to suspend all or a part of business under that paragraph;
 - (xiii) public notices and revocation of registrations under Article 307, paragraph (2) of the Act; and
 - (xiv) deletion of registrations under Article 308, paragraph (1) of the Act.
- (3) The authority stated in paragraph (1), items (i) and (vii) and in item (x) of the preceding paragraph in relation to the business office, etc. (meaning an office other than the principal office of a specified insurance agent or insurance broker (referred to below as a "specified insurance agent, etc." in this paragraph and the following paragraph), an entity that conducts a transaction in relation to insurance solicitation business with a specified insurance agent, etc. (including its facility), or an entity entrusted with business from a specified insurance agent, etc. (including entities entrusted from that entity (including entrustment at two or more degrees of separation from the original entrustment) and their facilities); the same applies below in this paragraph and the following paragraph) may be exercised not only by the Director-General of the Local Finance Bureau or the Director-General of the Fukuoka Local Finance Branch Bureau prescribed in the preceding two paragraphs but also by the Director-General of the Local Finance Bureau with jurisdiction over the locality of the business office, etc. (or over the domicile or residence, if the entity that conducts a transaction in relation to insurance solicitation business with the specified insurance agent, etc. or the entity entrusted with business from the specified insurance agent, etc. (including persons entrusted from that entity (including entrustment at two or more degrees of separation from the original entrustment)) is an individual; the same applies below in this paragraph) (or by the Director-General of the Fukuoka Local Finance Branch Bureau, if the locality is within the district under the jurisdiction of the Fukuoka Local Finance Branch Bureau).
- (4) The Director-General of the Local Finance Bureau or the Director-General of the Fukuoka Local Finance Branch Bureau who has requested the business office, etc. of a specified insurance agent, etc. to submit reports or materials, or has conducted questioning or on-site inspections (referred to below as "inspection, etc." in this paragraph) pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph may, when the Director-General finds it necessary to conduct an inspection, etc. at the principal office of that specified insurance agent, etc. or at a business office, etc. other than the first-mentioned business office, etc., conduct the inspection, etc. at the principal office or at the other business office, etc.
- (5) The provisions of each of the preceding paragraphs do not apply to the Commissioner's authority stated in the items of paragraph (1) and the Commissioner's authority stated in the items of paragraph (2) that are designated by the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency.

- (6) If the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency has made a designation under the preceding paragraph, the Commissioner is to issue a public notice in the Official Gazette of this. The same applies if the Commissioner of the Financial Services Agency has abolished or changed the designation.
